All sources mentioned herein have furnished reliable information in the past unless otherwise indicated.

The "National Guardian" issue of August 8, 1964, Page 7, Column 1, contained a notice reading "Mark Lane will speak on: 'Who Killed Kennedy?' for a two week engagement at the Gramercy Arts Theatre, 138 East 27th Street, New York City starting on August 11, 1964." Admission was listed as $2.00 and each affair was scheduled to start at 8:00 p.m.

The "National Guardian" is characterized in the Appendix hereto.

On August 11, 1964, by means of a suitable pretext by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), it was determined that the telephone number of the Gramercy Arts Theatre, 138 East 27th Street, New York City, had been temporarily changed from OR 9-7665 to YU 9-6850, the latter being the telephone number of the Citizens' Committee of Inquiry (CCI), 156 Fifth Avenue, New York City. It was further learned that Lane would appear at the Gramercy Arts Theatre from August 11, 1964, through August 24, 1964, including Saturdays and Sundays.

Security Matter - C

On August 18, 1964, a first confidential source advised that on Wednesday, August 12, 1964, Mark Lane delivered a lecture entitled "Who Killed Kennedy?" at the Gramercy Arts Theatre, 138 East 27th Street, New York City. This affair, admission to which was $2.00, started at 8:10 p.m. and was attended by approximately 150 persons. Lane illustrated his remarks through the utilization of a large map of the site in Dallas, Texas, where the assassination of President John F. Kennedy took place on November 22, 1963. He also used a small tape recorder to allow the audience to hear comments of several of his "witnesses" and a slide projector and screen on which Lane displayed clippings from various news media and photographs of documents relating to the assassination. Some of these documents were described by Lane as having been secured by him from the files of the Dallas District Attorney's Office and/or the Dallas Police Department.

Lane stated that the major premise in the case against Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy, and the one placed before the public subsequent to November 22, 1963, by all local, state and Federal authorities, is that Oswald was the lone assassin. Lane charged that since the actual deed the authorities have constantly scrapped or altered evidence in their investigations to support this basic premise. In this connection, Lane stated his own investigation, conducted with great difficulty and personal financial loss, revealed that Oswald could not have been the lone assassin and in all likelihood was entirely innocent of both the slaying of President Kennedy and Dallas Police Officer J. D. Tippit.

Mark Lane
Security Matter - C

Lane charged that the Warren Commission, appointed by President Lyndon B. Johnson to investigate the circumstances of the assassination, has refused to honor the basic rules of legal procedure in a democratic system by not holding public hearings. He stated he has always held Chief Justice Earl Warren in high regard but has been at a loss to explain the handling of the Commission and its work under his chairmanship.

Lane told the audience that since January, 1964, he has devoted all his time and effort to the case against Lee Harvey Oswald and all funds received from his lectures and other public appearances are used to pay for a small office of his organization, Citizens' Committee of Inquiry (CCI) and to conduct further investigation into the case.

According to this source, Lane stated that from the very beginning Oswald was considered by all authorities involved, including the Dallas Police Department, Secret Service and Federal Bureau of Investigation, as the murderer although no trial was ever held and no real, solid proof of his guilt was offered. He described Oswald as the victim of the greatest outburst of pretrial prejudice ever witnessed in the United States.

According to this source, Lane bases his belief in the innocence of Oswald on a series of contradictory elements in the case gleaned from many sources including press stories, television interviews and statements made by various public and private individuals connected with the case. This source stated that some of these so-called inconsistencies considered by Lane to prove Oswald's innocence are as follows:

Mark Lane
Security Matter - C

1. Lane charged that photographs of Oswald holding the alleged murder weapon as they appeared in "Life" magazine, "Newsweek" magazine and various newspapers including the "Detroit Free Press" and "The New York Times," were obviously retouched and altered. A comparison of these photographs, according to Lane, shows three separate rifles in Oswald's hands. Lane illustrated this point by calling attention to the different rifle stocks pictured in these photographs when all were supposed to be the same.

2. Lane charged that just after the assassination a Dallas police official identified the murder weapon as a German Mauser, caliber 7.65 millimeter. Subsequently, the rifle has been identified as an Italian military carbine, caliber 6.5 millimeter. Lane stated the real questions on this point are "Were these rifles switched?" and, if so, "Why?".

3. Lane stated that District Attorney Wade of Dallas had originally identified one Daryl Click as a cab driver who had picked up Oswald as a fare following the assassination. This name, according to Lane, was later changed to William Whaley. Like the mix-up in the rifles, the question arose in Lane's mind, "Were these two men also switched?".

4. Lane stated the "star" witness to the shooting of Police Officer J. D. Tippit was one Helen Markham whose physical description of the killer did not match in any respect the actual description of Oswald on the day of the assassination. Lane stated he had an interview with Markham on tape but did not play it before the audience.

Mark Lane
Security Matter - C

5. Lane stated the head of the FBI office in Dallas had said the paraffin tests taken after the assassination were conclusive proof of Oswald's guilt. This was not true, according to Lane, and even if positive results had been obtained such tests would not be allowed in any court of law.

6. Lane stated a man named Reynolds was a star witness for the government's case. This man was subsequently shot by another man who stated that at the time of the Reynold's shooting he was at the home of a girlfriend, one Betty Marie Mc Donald. She provided the alibi for this man. A few days later she was arrested by the Dallas Police Department for disorderly conduct. While in jail she hung herself. Lane stated the main factor in the story is that Betty Mc Donald was employed as a strip-tease artist in the bar owned by Jack Ruby known as the Carrousel (phonetic).

7. Lane stated that doctors who examined the wound in President Kennedy's neck stated at first that the wound was an entry wound proving President Kennedy had been shot from the front not from the rear as the government contends. Lane said that this story was also changed at a later date when the doctors agreed the neck wound had been the exit path of one of the bullets.

8. Lane stated the government has claimed that only three shots were fired, in the face of many persons who can testify that as many as six shots were fired. He pointed out that a Mrs. Hill is one such witness whose story has been changed and who has been under great pressure from the Secret Service and FBI.

Mark Lane
Security Matter - C

He played part of an interview with Mrs. Hill for the audience in which the female voice stated she had heard four to six shots.

9. Lane stated that in the beginning Oswald was reported to have been captured in a Dallas movie theatre after the cashier had called the police. He, Lane, had interviewed this cashier and she told him she had not seen Oswald, had not sold Oswald a ticket and had not called the police.

10. Lane stated Oswald was supposed to have fired the fatal shots from the Texas Book Depository building despite the fact that the parade route had not been scheduled to pass the building as originally published in Dallas newspapers. He claimed the Presidential route was changed at the last minute to follow a street route past the Texas Book Depository. How could Oswald have known of the change when such a change only could have been known to the Secret Service or the FBI?

11. Lane stated that one Tom Wicker reported that following the shots a Dallas police officer on a motorcycle chased one or two men from the railroad overpass towards which the parade was heading. This "fact" also supports Lane's contention that the shots that killed President Kennedy came from in front of his car not from the Texas Book Depository Building.

12. Lane stated expert marksmen have testified that using the alleged murder weapon (the Italian military carbine), no rifleman can duplicate the shooting Oswald was supposed to have done from the Texas Book Depository Building.

Mark Lane
Security Matter - C

13. Lane stated that Marina Oswald, wife of Lee Harvey Oswald, shortly after the assassination stated her husband was innocent and could not have committed such a crime. He pointed out that after nine weeks of confinement of Marina by government authorities, she changed her story and said her husband had been the assassin.

14. Lane stated there was evidence to indicate that Tippit and Ruby were known to each other prior to the assassination.

This source stated that during his lecture Lane flashed material in the form of documents and newspaper clippings on the screen which "proved" his main theme that Oswald was not the killer or, if he had any part in the assassination, he was not alone. In this connection, Lane stated he had recently appeared as a guest on a New York radio show and just a sample of the response to his remarks on the Oswald case reflected 8 listeners undecided, 38 listeners believed Oswald guilty and 342 listeners believed Oswald innocent and in agreement with Lane's ideas.

This source stated that following a brief question and answer period from the audience, the meeting terminated at 11:30 p.m.

On Tuesday, August 11, 1964, a second confidential source attended the Lane lecture held at the Gramercy Arts Theatre and furnished substantially the same information concerning Lane's remarks as furnished by the first source.

Mark Lane
Security Matter - C

In addition, this source stated that during his lecture Lane charged that there were 1,000 FBI agents working on the case of the assassination of President Kennedy. He stated there were 23 people with questionable backgrounds in Dallas, Texas, at the time of the assassination and all but Lee Harvey Oswald were under surveillance by the FBI, the Secret Service or the Dallas Police Department.

This source stated that during his lecture Lane did not play any tape recording of his alleged interview with Helen Markham. Lane also stated that copies of official documents relating to the assassination in his possession had been secured by him from the files of the Dallas Police Department. This source advised that 200 persons attended this lecture.

On Thursday, August 13, 1964, a third confidential source attended the Lane lecture at the Gramercy Arts Theatre and furnished substantially the same information concerning Lane's remarks as furnished by the first source. In addition, this source reported that during his lecture, Lane accused the "ultra-right" as being responsible for the death of President Kennedy and the blame could not be laid at the door of the "left-wing" or the communists. This source stated 100 people attended the lecture.

On Friday, August 14, 1964, a fourth confidential source attended the Lane lecture held that date and furnished substantially the same information concerning Lane's remarks as furnished by the first source.

Mark Lane
Security Matter - C

On Saturday, August 15, 1964, a fifth confidential source attended the Lane lecture held that date and furnished substantially the same information concerning Lane's remarks as the first source. In addition, this source stated that following his lecture Lane announced plans to speak in San Francisco, California, on or about September 25, 1964. This source stated the lecture was attended by 108 persons.

On Sunday, August 16, 1964, a sixth confidential source attended the Lane lecture held that date and furnished substantially the same information concerning Lane's remarks as furnished by the first source. In addition, this source stated that during his lecture Lane indicated he had received copies of official documents from the files of the Dallas Police Department through a "very good source." This source stated the lecture was attended by 110 to 120 persons.

On Monday, August 17, 1964, a seventh confidential source attended the Lane lecture held that date and furnished substantially the same information concerning Lane's remarks as furnished by the first source. This source stated 150 persons attended this lecture.

On Wednesday, August 19, 1964, an eighth confidential source attended the Lane lecture held that date and furnished substantially the same information concerning Lane's remarks as furnished by the first source. This source stated the lecture was attended by approximately 75 persons.

Mark Lane
Security Matter - C

On Friday, August 21, 1964, a ninth confidential source attended the Lane lecture held that date and furnished substantially the same information concerning Lane's remarks as furnished by the first source. This source stated the lecture was attended by approximately 200 persons.

On Saturday, August 22, 1964, a tenth confidential source attended the Lane lecture held that date and furnished substantially the same information concerning Lane's remarks as furnished by the first source. In addition, this source stated that during his lecture Lane stated that "Now we know that eight days before the assassination three men, Bernard Weisman, J. D. Tippit and Jack Ruby, met at Ruby's place." This source stated the lecture was attended by approximately 150 persons.

On Sunday, August 23, 1964, an eleventh confidential source attended the Lane lecture held that date and furnished substantially the same information concerning Lane's remarks as furnished by the first source.

On Monday, August 24, 1964, a twelfth confidential source attended the Lane lecture held that date and furnished substantially the same information concerning Lane's remarks as furnished by the first source. This source stated the lecture was attended by 200 to 210 persons.

ReANairtel dated 8-13-64 enclosing to Bureau for Laboratory examination 45 letters from Anita Setyaeva to her mother Lillie May Rahm. Forty-four of these letters were contained in envelopes and one was without envelope. In the one long envelope postmarked at Seward, Alaska, 10-22-63 was included a one-page note handwritten in red ink which, according to Mrs. Rahm, was in the handwriting of her son-in-law, Lev (Leo) Setyaev. USSR

Returned herewith to Anchorage are the 45 letters enclosed with reairtel and a Xerox copy of the one-page note in the reported handwriting of Lev Setyaev. The Bureau is retaining the one-page note as an Exhibit in this case as it is possible the President's Commission may call for same. At such time as Exhibits in this case are released by the President's Commission, the one-page note will be forwarded to the Anchorage Office.

Anchorage return enclosed material to Mrs. Rahm.

During contact of Mrs. Rahm she is to be specifically questioned to ascertain if her daughter or son-in-law, the Setyaevs, have ever indicated to her whether or not either of them met or had any dealings with Lee Harvey Oswald. Should she reply affirmatively, develop all details and endeavor to obtain original documents in which such advice was contained. Do not indicate to Mrs. Rahm that the name Lev Setyaev and the inscription "Radio Moscow" were found in Oswald's address book. Should Mrs. Rahm reply negatively to the inquiry, request her to advise your office should she in the future receive advice from her daughter or son-in-law regarding the point in question. Do not request her to question her daughter or son-in-law on this point.

In addition, ascertain if Mrs. Rahm has in her possession a photograph of Lev Setyaev. If so, obtain a copy or copies of any available photographs. If not, request her to advise your office should she come into possession of such a photograph in the future.

For the information of Anchorage, Marina Oswald in a recent interview has advised that subject told her that shortly after he arrived in Moscow in October, 1959, he was questioned in his hotel room by a representative of Radio Moscow.

For the information of Dallas and Anchorage, the reported writings of Anita Setyaeva and her husband Lev Setyaev have been compared with specimens maintained in the National Security File with negative results. The reported writing of Lev Setyaev has been designated Exhibit D-252 in this case and that writing and appropriate portions of the reported writings of Anita Setyaeva have been included in the National Security File for future reference purposes.

The English script in letters written by associates of Marina and Lee Oswald in Russia (Exhibits 245, 248, D-119 and D-120) was compared with the reported known writings of the Setyaevs and it was concluded that the writing in above Exhibits was not prepared by the Setyaevs. In addition, the "Lev Setyaev" and related writings which appear on page 63 of Oswald's address book (Exhibit B-29) were compared with the Russian script in Exhibits 129, 131, 150, 356, 358 and 361 (letters written by associates of Lee and Marina Oswald in Russia) and due to the limited amount of comparable writing involved, no conclusion could be reached as to whether the writings on page 63 of Exhibit B-29 were prepared by the writers of the Russian script in the above Exhibits. Nothing of particular interest or significance was noted in this regard.

The reported writing of Lev Setyaev (D-252) is not sufficiently comparable with the writings on page 63 of Exhibit B-29 to permit an adequate examination. However, for the information of Dallas, not to be disseminated outside the Bureau, a few handwriting characteristics were noted which suggest that the writer of D-252 could have prepared the name and address of Setyaev which appear on page 63 of Exhibit B-29.

Due to the limited nature of the first line of writing on page 63 of B-29 and the pencil handwriting on the same page, no conclusion could be reached whether Lee Harvey Oswald prepared this writing. Some significant handwriting similarities were noted which indicate that Lee Oswald probably prepared the first line of writing and the pencil handwriting on page 63 of B-29.

The latter observation is for Dallas's information only and is not to be disseminated. The name and address of Setyaev on page 63 of B-29 are not sufficiently comparable with the available known writings of Marina Oswald for an adequate examination. However, nothing of particular interest or significance was noted insofar as a comparison was possible.

It will not be necessary for Dallas to report aforementioned Laboratory findings to the Commission as the Bureau will do this. Enclosed for the information of Dallas are two photographs depicting front and back of the reported writings of Lev Setyaev (D-252).

Re Los Angeles airtel to Dallas, 8/21/64 captioned "JACK L. RUBY, aka; LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka (Deceased) - VICTIM; CIVIL RIGHTS", enclosing a small size black-covered journal bearing written notations in the form of a diary, the front of the book labeled "Diary of Impressions & Observations of Eric Kitzek Began Sept. 5, 1963". This alleged diary was furnished to SA PHILLIP B. DEILY on 8/19/64 by G. C. HOSKINS, Terminal Manager, Continental Trailways, 601 South Main Street, Los Angeles 14, California. According to HOSKINS, it was found at the ticket counter late on the afternoon of 8/15/64 by Ticket Clerk ADRIAN MOUNT, who has no idea as to the identity of the owner and/or the person who left the book on the ticket counter. Mr. HOSKINS stated he did not desire the book be returned.

A verbatim transcript of the legible portion of this alleged diary has been made by the Dallas Office and a flimsy copy of such verbatim transcription is enclosed herewith for the assistance of the Bureau.

COPIES DESTROYED

Efforts by the Los Angeles Office to identify ERIC RITZEK have been negative. The contents of this alleged diary indicates that ERIC RITZEK and a companion, CHARLES (LAST NAME UNKNOWN), were attending a college in some foreign country in September, 1963. ERIC RITZEK was majoring in political science and was at least a Junior; his minor was human psychology. He had apparently been in attendance at summer classes and his roommate was his companion, CHARLES. This alleged diary indicates that ERIC RITZEK was a hypnotist and used hypnotism on a girl named CAROL, who was apparently known to both CHARLES and RITZEK and CAROL died in September, 1963.

As of September 10, 1963, the alleged diary indicates that ERIC RITZEK and CHARLES obtained visas to the United States and Mexico. An entry on September 11, 1963, indicates that the goal of ERIC RITZEK and CHARLES was to kill President KENNEDY. On September 15, 1963, ERIC RITZEK and CHARLES sailed for New Orleans arriving September 19, 1963. On September 20, 1963, it is indicated that CHARLES brought LEE HARVEY OSWALD to their room in New Orleans. An entry for September 26, 1963 indicates that OSWALD was aboard the same bus travelling through Mexico to Mexico City, arriving Mexico City September 27, 1963. This alleged diary indicates that while in Mexico, ERIC RITZEK chose OSWALD as the person to handle the assassination while under his domination by hypnosis.

This alleged diary reflects that on October 2, 1963, OSWALD left by bus for Laredo, Texas. An entry for October 20, 1963, reflects that ERIC RITZEK and CHARLES were en route to Fort Worth, Texas, arriving at Fort Worth about an hour after sunset, where they stayed at an unknown hotel. On October 21, 1963, CHARLES left ERIC RITZEK, returning on October 23, 1963, with a package containing $100,000 in cash from an unknown benefactor, who, according to the alleged diary, stood to benefit by the death of President KENNEDY.

This alleged diary reflects that on November 5, 1963, and November 6, 1963, ERIC RITZEK and CHARLES were at Lake Texoma fishing and mentioned having to have a license to do so. On November 11, 1963, ERIC RITZEK and CHARLES journeyed to Dallas where they walked over President KENNEDY's intended route in Dallas. On November 12, 1963, there is an entry wherein RITZEK states he believes the assassination will occur in the vicinity of the "Triple Overpass" and that OSWALD will fire the bullets from one of the upper windows from the building called the "School Book Depository".

This alleged diary reflects an entry for November 13, 1963, indicating that ERIC RITZEK departed Dallas and returned to Juarez, Mexico, on November 14, 1963. On November 21, 1963, they returned to Dallas where they stayed at an unnamed hotel.

This alleged diary contains an entry on November 22, 1963, reflecting that ERIC RITZEK and CHARLES went to a small park at about 11:00 a.m. to await the assassination and witness it, thereafter, returning to their hotel room to watch television. RITZEK indicated in his diary that OSWALD was to seek death after the assassination while under the domination of RITZEK.

This alleged diary contains an entry for late Saturday night, November 23, 1963, to the effect that CHARLES and ERIC RITZEK met a tavern owner as he was closing his place of business and were invited into this place of business for a drink. The alleged diary reflects that ERIC RITZEK induced hypnosis upon this individual whose name he did not know, but who was later identified as JACK L. RUBY. This alleged diary reflects that on November 24, 1963, CHARLES and ERIC RITZEK went to the Dallas Police Station about noon, but could not gain entrance. This alleged diary indicates that RUBY was to avenge the President's death as the result of a post hypnotic suggestion.

This alleged diary contains an entry for December 25, 1963, indicating that ERIC RITZEK and CHARLES were back at college, where RITZEK hypnotically induced a rattlesnake bite on CHARLES, which killed him.

This alleged diary appears to have been written by either a demented person or a person with a vivid imagination. The dates concerning the travelling of OSWALD to Mexico appear to be accurate; however, it should be noted that such dates have been widely publicized. It should be noted that the name ERIC RITZEK does not appear on any passenger lists of buses on which OSWALD is known to have travelled, although the entry for September 26, 1963, reflects RITZEK and CHARLES were on the same bus as OSWALD en route to Mexico City. A discrepancy is noted wherein the alleged diary reflects that ERIC RITZEK and CHARLES walked over President KENNEDY's intended route in Dallas on November 11, 1963. It should be noted that the route to be taken by President KENNEDY had not been released on November 11, 1963. Furthermore, the alleged diary indicates that they met the tavern owner on late Saturday night, November 23, 1963, as he was closing his place of business. It should be noted that investigation has established that JACK L. RUBY's places of business, the Carousel Club and the Vegas Club, were both closed to the public on Saturday, November 23, 1963.

REQUEST OF FBI LABORATORY:

The FBI Laboratory is requested to examine the writings contained in this alleged diary to determine if the writer of same can be identified through the Anonymous Letter File. If possible, it is suggested that efforts be made to determine if the writing contained in the alleged diary was all written at or about the same time.

DL 100-10461

A copy of this communication is being furnished the New Orleans, Oklahoma City and San Antonio offices for information in view of the possibility that investigation may be necessary in those divisions in an effort to identify ERIC RITZEK.

No additional investigation is being conducted pending the results of the FBI Laboratory examination, UACB.

Result of examination:

D-251 was not identified with any of the material contained in the Anonymous Letter File. Appropriate photographs of this exhibit will be added to this file.

It was not possible to determine if D-251 was all written at or about the same time. It was noted that at least two different ball-point pen inks were used. One blue ink was used from the beginning up to 1/3/64, and a second blue-black ink for the remainder of the journal.

D-251 is retained.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of September 11, 1964, wherein the Commission requested a visual aid relating to Lee Harvey Oswald's residence in the Soviet Union.

Enclosed per your request are four glossy prints of a visual aid captioned "Photographs of Oswald in U. S. S. R." which were prepared from information selected by the Commission from documented records.

The change in the spelling of the name of "Zieger" to "Ziger" was made and revised exhibits were delivered to the Commission on September 14, 1964.

The captioned visual aid was previously approved by Mr. W. David Slawson of your staff and this complies with the request contained in referenced letter.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I would like to confirm the request to Mr. Leo Gauthier of the Bureau made by Mr. W. David Slawson of the Commission staff on September 11 in regard to preparing a display composed of the following exhibits, with the captions as indicated:

Commission Exhibit No.	FBI Item No.	Caption
2609	D33-10	Rosa Kuznetsova, Ella German, Lee Harvey Oswald, and Pavel Golovachev
2612	D33-24	Oswald and Alfred (last name unknown), a Hungarian friend of Anita Ziger
2606	B3-23	View overlooking the Svisloch River from the balcony of the Oswalds' apartment in Minsk.

The title of the entire display should be "Photographs of Oswalds in U.S.S.R."

Also as explained to Mr. Gauthier, the previous exhibits you furnished spell "Ziger" with an e, "Zieger." The spelling which the Commission is going to use is simply "Ziger." Mr. Gauthier agreed to make this change.

Exhaustive efforts are being made to identify the latent fingerprints and palm prints found on four cardboard cartons (Exhibit C40) near the sixth floor window of the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) immediately after the assassination of President KENNEDY. In addition to one latent fingerprint and one latent palm print which were identified as those of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, there were 19 additional identifiable fingerprints and six additional identifiable palm prints. Investigation to date has identified all of the latent fingerprints. There remains to be identified one latent palm print.

The Bureau has instructed that palm prints be taken of all FBI employees who were assigned to Dallas on special assignment at the time the Dallas Office came into possession of the four cardboard cartons, which was 11/26/63.

Therefore, each office receiving copies of this airtel is requested to immediately obtain the palm prints of the employees listed below which are assigned to their division, and submit same to the Latent Fingerprint Section of the Identification Division:

By letter dated September 3, 1964, the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy requested investigation to determine if Ruth Paine was ever a customer in Hutch's Super Market, 2333 West Shady Grove, Irving, Texas, and to obtain from Mrs. Paine certain additional information concerning her knowledge of Lee Harvey Oswald. This letter also requested reinterviews of Marina Oswald and Marguerite Oswald along the same lines and, in particular, requested that a determination be made whether Marina Oswald, Marguerite Oswald and Lee Harvey Oswald ever shopped together at Hutch's Super Market on a Wednesday evening sometime during October or November, 1963.

Attached are the results of interviews conducted with Mrs. Ruth Paine, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald and Marina Oswald containing the requested information. Also attached are the results of a physical check by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of the distance from the residence of Mrs. Ruth Paine to Hutch's Super Market.

RUTH PAINE, 2515 West Fifth Street, was interviewed at her residence. She said she has resided in Irving for approximately five years and, as best she can recall, she has only been in Hutch's Super Market, 2333 West Shady Grove, Irving, Texas, perhaps once or twice. She said she believes that the only time she ever went into Hutch's Super Market was to buy some milk. She believes that it is possible MARINA OSWALD was with her on one occasion that she went into Hutch's Super Market, but she does not recall whether or not MARINA actually went into the store with her or waited in the car. She said she could not remember the date that she had actually gone into Hutch's Super Market. She said she believes the occasion on which MARINA was with her when she went to Hutch's Super Market was sometime in March or April, 1963, and MARINA was visiting her for the day during the time that the OSWALDs were living on Neely Street in the Oak Cliff Section of Dallas, Texas. She said she cannot recall another specific occasion when she was a customer at Hutch's Super Market, but she has a vague recollection that she may have purchased ice at this store on one occasion.

She said LEE HARVEY OSWALD had never been a customer of Hutch's Super Market, to her knowledge.

She recalls that she passed by Hutch's Super Market on the day she took OSWALD to the Oak Cliff driver examination station because the route she took included West Shady Grove. She is sure that she did not stop at Hutch's Super Market on that occasion.

She said she can recall one occasion on which MARINA fixed a lunch for LEE HARVEY OSWALD which he took with him to work on a Monday morning after he had spent the week end at her house. She said there may have been other occasions but she cannot specifically recall that there were. She believed the one occasion that she can recall in which MARINA fixed a lunch for OSWALD was in late October or perhaps early November, 1963.

She said she had never seen OSWALD drink large quantities of milk or any other liquid. She said she seemed to recall OSWALD liked sweet rolls and would generally eat sweet rolls, if Mrs. PAINE had them, with coffee on the Monday mornings following his week ends at the PAINE house.

Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, Fort Worth, Texas, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, advised that she does not know if she will answer any questions that the President's Commission may ask, as she had tried repeatedly this past weekend to contact members of the Commission when they were in Dallas, and they refused to answer her telephone calls or to return any calls that she made to them. Mrs. OSWALD said this upset her a great deal, and therefore, she is "very mad" at the Commission; however, Mrs. OSWALD stated for SAS EARLE HALEY and ROBLEY D. MADLAND to ask her any question and she would decide if she would answer the question.

Mrs. OSWALD stated that she had not seen her son, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, for about one year prior to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, until her son's arrest in Dallas on November 22, 1963. Mrs. OSWALD stated further that she did not know anything about her son's activities or his life during the time that he resided in Dallas or in Irving, Texas during the fall of 1963, because she was not in contact with him during that period of time.

Mrs. OSWALD stated that she does not know if her son took a bag of lunch with him to work during October and November of 1963, but would assume that he did not, because of the fact that she understands he was residing in a rooming house in the Oak Cliff section of Dallas, and does not know if he had kitchen privileges.

Mrs. OSWALD stated further that she was never with her son and his wife, MARINA, at Hutch's Super Market in October or November, 1963, and never shopped with them in Irving at any time. Mrs. OSWALD said further that to her knowledge, her son never had a habit of eating cinnamon rolls with large quantities of milk.

Mrs. OSWALD expressed a keen curiosity concerning the location of Hutch's Super Market in Irving, Texas, and stated that she believed that she would conduct her own investigation and possibly contact Hutch's Super Market, because she felt that she could learn a great deal of information, because she was the "sorrowing mother" and that people "just tended to give more information" to her than they would investigators. Mrs. OSWALD said "I am a sorrowing mother", but still more "I am a very good investigator."

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at her home, 629 Belt Line Road. Present during this interview was Mr. DECLAN FORD, who is MARINA OSWALD's adviser.

(Richardson, Texas)

She was interviewed concerning whether or not she had ever been a customer of Hutch's Super Market, 2333 West Shady Grove, Irving, Texas, and concerning other questions requested by the President's Commission on the assassination.

MARINA said to her knowledge she had never been in Hutch's Super Market at Irving, Texas, nor had her late husband, LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said she does not believe LEE HARVEY OSWALD ever had a check for $189.00 in his possession during the time they lived in the United States. She has no information indicating OSWALD ever tried to cash a check for $189.00 at Hutch's Super Market, 2333 West Shady Grove, Irving, Texas. She stated when she lived at Mrs. PAINE's house, she generally traded at the A and P Grocery Store in Irving, and she went generally with Mrs. PAINE. She said she could recall one occasion on which OSWALD had attempted to cash a check which was refused. She believed this occurred in New Orleans, Louisiana. She was with him on that occasion but was in another part of the store when he tried to cash the check. She believed this was one of the $33.00 unemployment checks which OSWALD received. She cannot be sure of the date. She is sure that OSWALD did not try to cash this check at Hutch's Super Market in Irving, Texas. She stated further she had never shopped at Hutch's Super Market on any Wednesday evening during October or November, 1963, with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his mother, MARGUERITE OSWALD, as she had never been in Hutch's Super Market, to her knowledge. Furthermore, she does not recall shopping together with MARGUERITE OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said she does not recall whether or not OSWALD cashed a $33.00 check at the A and P Store in Irving, Texas, or any other place, on October 31 or November 1, 1963.

Concerning whether or not LEE HARVEY OSWALD took lunches to work on the Monday mornings following the week ends which he spent at the PAINE house, MARINA OSWALD advised as follows:

She stated she believed she had fixed lunch for OSWALD on about three occasions. On these occasions, she fixed the lunch at night, put it in a paper bag, and then put the lunch in the ice box. She would usually fix a sandwich, perhaps of cheese, sometimes of chicken, and also put fruit in the bag. She did not get up in the morning when OSWALD left for work. She cannot recall the exact occasions on which she fixed these lunches.

Concerning the qustion as to whether OSWALD was in the habit of eating cinnamon rolls with large quantities of milk, MARINA said that OSWALD liked sweet rolls but did not ever drink much milk because it was expensive and whatever milk the family had was mostly left for the children. If he drank milk, one glass was the usual quantity taken. He did like milk, however, but never drank it in large quantities, to MARINA's knowledge. She said when she was residing at Mrs. PAINE's house, she did not fix OSWALD's breakfast on the Monday mornings he was at the house and was not aware of what he had eaten, if, in fact, he had eaten breakfast on these occasions. She said she believed, however, he would eat sweet rolls or toast with coffee. She said during evening meals when OSWALD was at the PAINE house, she, MARINA, would fix iced tea for him.

Date September 14, 1964

On September 14, 1964 SA RICHARD J. BURNETT clocked the mileage from the house of RUTH PAINE, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, to the Hutch's Food Mart, which is commonly referred to as Hutch's Super Market, 2333 West Shady Grove Road, Irving, Texas, as .8 miles.

There are only two logical ways to walk the route between Mrs. PAINE's residence and the grocery store, and they are as follows:

1. From Mrs. PAINE's residence, 2515 West Fifth Street, east to Westbrook Drive; south to Tenth Street; southeast to 11th Street; east to South Storey Road; and then south to the northeast corner of West Shady Grove Road and South Storey Road, on which corner the grocery store is located. It takes approximately 13 minutes to walk this route at a normal man's pace.

2. From Mrs. PAINE's address, 2515 West Fifth Street, east to South Storey Road, and then south on South Storey Road to the northeast corner of West Shady Grove Road and South Storey Road, takes approximately 14 minutes walking at a normal man's pace.

On August 27, 1964, MARINA OSWALD made available to the Federal Bureau of Investigation the following items:

(1) A section of a bus ticket for Transportes del Norte Bus Company for travel from Mexico, D. F., to Laredo, Texas, bearing No. 13688. A block stamp on the back of the ticket section reflects the following data: "Transportes del Norte, Set. 30, 1963, Mexico, D. F., J. Gascon." MARINA OSWALD stated that she had found the above-described ticket section inside a paperback pamphlet entitled "THIS WEEK - ESTA SEMANA" (tourist guide book).

(2) A paperback pamphlet entitled "THIS WEEK - ESTA SEMANA" for the week September 28 - October 4, 1963, which contains material in both the English and the Spanish languages. MARINA OSWALD identified handwriting which appeared in the pamphlet in the English and the Russian languages as being the handwriting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

(3) A guide map of Mexico City, which folds to pocket size and is published by Editorial Flecha, Mexico, D. F. This includes a map of the entire city, an enlarged map of the downtown area of Mexico City, an index of streets, and an index of points of interest, and contains ink markings and check marks as follows:

On the index of points of interest, check marks appeared opposite the National Palace, the National Tourist Department, the National History Museum, the Anthropology Museum, the Natural History Museum, the Olimpia Theater, the Fronton (Jai Alai) Mexico, the Alameda Central Park, and Constitution Square.

On the downtown area map, there appears an inked tracing which begins at the corner of Insurgentes Norte along Puente de Alvarado, turns north at Buenavista street, east at Ferrocarrileros street, and continues until the latter becomes Mina street, terminating at the point where the latter intersects Zarco street. In the same area, a heavy ink mark is placed in the center of an area bound by Bernal Diaz, Ferrocarrileros, Buenavista and Puente de Alvarado streets. In the H-3 area of the above map, the Palace of Fine Arts and the "Coliseo Arena" (Sports Arena) are encircled in ink, and a small inked arrow pointing north appears on Dr. Jimenez street at the intersection of Dr. Jose Terres and Dr. Olvera streets.

On the main, larger map, inked circles appear at the following localities: At the intersection of Juanacatlan, Chicontepec and Jalisco streets; at the corner of Fernando and Tula streets; a larger circle with a large ink dot or marking in the center is noted in the area of Bernardino de Sahagun street in the area bordered by Buenavista, Ribera San Cosme, Diaz Bernal and Ponciano Arriaga streets.

INFORMATION CONCERNING BUS TICKET SECTION

The following information was furnished by a confidential source abroad:

On September 3, 1964, RAMON MEDINA BELTRAN, manager of the Mexico City terminal of the Transportes del Norte Bus Company, Insurgentes Sur 137, advised that tickets of that company for travel from Mexico City to Laredo, Texas, are printed in three sections which are detachable from each other and from a stub which remains in a bound, numbered book of tickets resembling a checkbook in its general appearance. Different colors are used for tickets to different destinations served by the company, and the Mexico, D. F. - Laredo tickets are pink in color. The stub and the three detachable sections of the ticket bear the same serial number, and it is an optional practice for the ticket salesman to place an identification and date stamp on the back of all three sections of the ticket at the time they are delivered to the purchaser. The ticket sections are separated by perforations which permit the bus operator to detach the outer section at the time the traveler boards the bus at Mexico City. The second section is detached by the driver at the time of boarding at Monterrey for the last phase of travel to Laredo, and the main section of the ticket remains in the possession of the traveler as a receipt and evidence of entitlement to the transportation.

MEDINA stated that the ticket section found by Mrs. OSWALD as described above, being numbered 13688, is definitely a portion of the ticket which was sold on the basis of a Transportes Chihuahuenses Travel Agency purchase order presented by an individual who was identified on that purchase order as H. O. LEE and was assigned seat No. 12 for travel on October 2, 1963.

INQUIRY CONCERNING "THIS WEEK - ESTA SEMANA"

On September 9, 1964, JUAN MIRANDA, Ramon Alcazar No. 6, Mexico, D. F., advised that he is the distribution manager of the publication, "THIS WEEK - ESTA SEMANA." He described this publication as a weekly tourist pamphlet in English and Spanish of approximately 80 pages, which is published weekly at the above address and is distributed widely throughout Mexico, principally in areas frequented by tourists. It is also sent to Mexican Consulates, Mexican tourist bureaus, and airline offices in the United States and other countries. MIRANDA related that much of the information in the pamphlet is repeated from week to week, but data which is subject to change is modernized for each issue. He stated that the publication always bears an inclusive date from Saturday to the following Friday, but it actually leaves the presses in Mexico City at approximately 12:00 noon the previous Thursday. He mentioned that 8,000 copies of the pamphlet, which has been published continuously for almost thirty years, are run off each week, and most of the distribution is gratis. He expressed the firm opinion that the issue of September 28 - October 4, 1963, could not possibly have reached Laredo, Texas, or Nuevo Laredo, Tamaulipas, for distribution by the afternoon of September 26, 1963.

CONFIDENTIAL

MOVIE THEATERS OF POSSIBLE INTEREST TO OSWALD

It was advised that on page 31 of the copy of "THIS WEEK," which had been made available by MARINA OSWALD, inked check marks appeared which indicated an apparent interest in the following theaters which were showing the films indicated, all of them being in English with subtitles in Spanish:

(A) Ariel, Avenida Ejercito Nacional 826, "Mi Novia es del Otro Mundo" (My Sweetheart is from Another World).

(B) Chapultepec, Reforma 505, "Las Picaras Doncellas" (The Gay Maidens).

(C) Diana, Ave. Reforma and Mississippi, "West Side Story."

(D) Metropolitan, Ave. Balderas and Independencia, "Jose Vendido en Egipto" (Joseph Sold into Egypt).

(E) Variedades, Ave. Juarez, "The Parent Trap."

The inquiries recorded hereinafter were conducted by a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, and who provided the results of his inquiries on September 10, 1964:

Photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD were shown to various employees of the movie theaters mentioned, with the request that they bear in mind the dates from September 28 to October 2, 1963, in an effort to recall having seen OSWALD at any of the theaters. In order to locate one of the employees, MAXIMINO MOLINA, the leader of the Union of Movie Theater Employees of the Capital, was contacted, and he expressed the opinion that it would be virtually impossible for personnel at the ticket booths or entrances to remember anyone who entered the theater unless the individual was a celebrity whom they recognized from previous familiarity with photographs of the person. In general, the ticket salesladies commented that they rarely look up or see the faces of the persons purchasing tickets, as they are occupied with the ticket vending machine and the matter of making correct change. The salesladies and also the ticket takers who are identified in connection with each theater were unable to recall having seen OSWALD at any time other than in newspaper and magazine photographs subsequent to the assassination:

ARIEL - ticket saleslady, EMANTINA COLIN; ticket takers, JUAN ROBLES and FRANCISCO TORRES; and soda fountain clerk, CONSUELO BARROSO. EMANTINA COLIN was no longer employed at the Ariel but was located at the headquarters of the Union of Movie Theater Employees. Other personnel on duty at the theater had not been so employed as of September - October of 1963.

CHAPULTEPEC - ticket saleslady, ELENA URBIOLA; ticket takers, JESUS BARRIENTOS and CARLOS MERCADO; manager of the soda fountain, REBEGA CASTANEDA.

DIANA - ticket saleslady, ROSITA RAMOS LUNA; ticket takers, CRISOFOR FRANCO and MARGARITO SANCHEZ; manager of the soda fountain, MARTHA RIOS.

METROPOLITAN - ticket saleslady, JOSEFINA RAMOS; ticket takers, AGUSTIN LOPEZ and LUIS AQUINA; manager of the soda fountain, CATALINA TORRES; theater manager, LUIS SANCHEZ CORTEZ.

VARIEDADES - ticket saleslady, MARIA DOLORES FLORES; ticket takers, LEOPOLDO PALMA and MARIO LUEVANO; manager of the soda fountain, CARMEN LUNA; theater manager, JOSE OCHOA.

OLIMPIA - ticket saleslady, ADELA ROMERO; ticket takers, ENRIQUE SOTO and FERNANDO VEJAR; manager of the soda fountain, LUCILA MARTINEZ.

GUIDE MAP OF MEXICO CITY

The confidential source abroad advised on September 8, 1964, that a "Guide Map of Mexico City," also described as a "Guia Flecha de la Ciudad de Mexico," published by the "Flecha" (Arrow) printing firm and registered in the name of MANUEL REJON NUNEZ as copyright owner, is widely distributed by the Mexican Government Tourist Department and the Pemex Travel Service in the name of "Pemex," which is the popular name for "Petroleos Mexicanos" (Mexican Petroleum), the Mexican Government monopoly for production and distribution of petroleum products in Mexico. Source stated that the principal features of the above-mentioned map are a full map of Mexico City, an index of streets and districts, an index of points of (tourist) interest, and an enlarged though smaller map of the central area of Mexico City.

(With respect to the points of interest which had been checked on the map described under paragraph (3), information previously has been reported concerning the National Palace, the National History Museum, the Anthropology Museum, and the Fronton (Jai Alai) Mexico.)

The confidential source abroad furnished the following information on September 8, 1964:

Circle in area of Juanacatlan, Chicontepec and Jalisco streets

There is a Pemex gasoline station located in the vicinity of the intersection of Juanacatlan, Chicontepec and Jalisco streets, but this also is the neighborhood of the Soviet Embassy in Mexico, the official address of which is listed in the Mexican Government "Diario Oficial" (Official Daily) as Calzada de Tacubaya No. 204. The Mexico City telephone directory lists the address of the Consular Department of the Soviet Embassy as being C. B. Zetina street No. 12.

Circle in the area of Fernando Marquez and Tula streets

The telephone directory of the Federal District of Mexico published in September, 1963, records that the address of the Cuban Consulate in the Mexican capital is located at the corner of Zamora and F. Marquez streets.

Hotel del Comercio at Bernardino de Sahagun 19

Earlier inquiries had established that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had lodgings at the Hotel del Comercio, Bernardino de Sahagun (street) No. 19, while in Mexico City in September and early October, 1963. The foregoing street is only one block in length, is often referred to on Mexico City maps as Sahagun because of lack of space to print the longer name, and is the approximate center of the area bordered by Buenavista, Ribera San Cosme, Diaz Bernal and Ponciano Arriaga streets in the J-7 area in the main map and in the H-3 locality of the smaller, central area map which is bordered by Bernal Diaz, Ferrocarrileros, Buenavista and Puente de Alvarado streets.

With respect to the inked tracing which begins approximately at the intersection of Puente de Alvarado and Insurgentes streets and terminates at Zarco street on Mina, it was observed that the Puente de Alvarado-Insurgentes intersection is located one and one-half blocks from the Hotel del Comercio on Bernardino de Sahagun street and is an embarcation point for numerous bus lines which provide transportation to virtually all areas of the city from that point. It also would be a logical area in which to find a taxi during the rush hours in Mexico City.

Intersection of Mina and Zarco streets

The following information was provided by the confidential source on September 9 and 11, 1964:

In the vicinity of the intersection of Mina and Zarco streets, the only facility of possible tourist interest was found to be the Hotel Astoria, which is located at

MEXICO

Zarco No. 39. Photographs of OSWALD were displayed to FRANCISCO de la CONCHA and FRANCISCO SAN PEDRO, co-managers of this small hotel, but they advised that they could not recall OSWALD as having been at that hotel at any time. Photographs of OSWALD were displayed to numerous individuals operating small business establishments along Mina and Zarco streets without locating anyone who recognized the photographs or could furnish any information concerning him.

It was observed that several bus lines which provide service to such localities as the downtown area of the city, the airport, and the Villa de Guadalupe Basilica travel along Mina street at this point.

It was also noted that Zarco street is on the route of several bus lines which provide service to the southern section of the city to such points as University City, the bull ring, and the football stadium.

Intersection of Dr. Jimenez,
Dr. Jose Terres and Dr. Olvera streets

It was noted that the area of the intersection of Dr. Jimenez, Dr. Jose Terres and Dr. Olvera streets is characterized by small businesses and humble, tenement-type residences. Photographs of OSWALD were displayed to employees and owners of numerous restaurants, lunch stands, automobile repair shops, shoe stores, grocery and dry goods stores, beauty shops, and other establishments in the area without locating anyone who recalled ever seeing OSWALD in person. Similarly, permanent residents in the proximity of the junction of the three streets were interviewed, and they advised that there are no facilities of tourist interest in the neighborhood and they were not familiar with OSWALD's photographs. Caretakers of the several small apartment buildings in the locality were interviewed, and all insisted that during the past year there had been no Cuban nationals or other foreigners residing in any apartments under their care. They were unable to recall OSWALD from his photographs as having been seen by them personally.

CONFIDENTIAL

It was observed that the intersection of the three streets mentioned above is a logical place for boarding busses of a number of lines which provide transportation to numerous facilities of the Federal District.

Arena Coliseo

The Arena Coliseo is a popular boxing and wrestling stadium located at Peru Street No. 77. The manager of the establishment, VICENTE BOCANEGRA, advised that he could not recognize photographs of OSWALD as being of anyone he had ever seen at the Coliseo. He related that on September 28, 1963, a boxing program had been presented, and on the night of September 29, 1963, a wrestling program had taken place. MANUEL ZAVALA and HECTOR LOPEZ VIZCARRA, ticket salesmen, and JUAN BUENTELLO and LUIS BRAVO, ticket takers at the Coliseo on both September 28 and 29, 1963, advised that they did not recognize photographs of OSWALD as having been at the stadium at any time.

National Tourist Department and Pemex Travel Club

The tourist information service of the National Tourist Department is located at Juarez Avenue 89, and occupying space in the same general reception room is the Pemex Travel Club. JESUS RODRIGUEZ, manager of the Tourist Department information service at the above address was unable to recognize photographs of OSWALD as being of anyone he had seen at that locality. The following employees of the Pemex Travel Club were interviewed and shown photographs of OSWALD with similar negative results: RAMON ALPIZAR CAYDE, EMILIO TERRANO, ANGEL TERAN, ALFONSO VILLASENOR, MANUEL PERNAS, and ALVARO SANCHEZ ACOSTA.

CONFIDENTIAL

The Alameda Central Park and Constitution Square

The Alameda Central Park is located in the heart of the Mexico City commercial area between Juarez and Hidalgo Avenues and occupies several square blocks of landscaping of monuments, walks, fountains, plants, shrubs and trees. It is provided with numerous benches for the public and access thereto is not controlled in any fashion whatsoever.

The Constitution Square, located in the center of Mexico City and commonly referred to as the "Zocalo," is several acres of paved area surrounded by the National Palace (Federal Government), the headquarters of the government of the Federal District, the National Cathedral, and one block of business establishments. It is traversed by thousands of persons daily and access thereto is not controlled in any manner.

In view of the foregoing, no effort was made to conduct interviews or display photographs of OSWALD in relation to his presumed interest in those localities.

The Palace of Fine Arts

It was observed that the Palace of Fine Arts, which is located to the east of the Alameda Central Park in Mexico City, is a huge building which, in addition to its main theater area where operas, musicals, ballet performances and symphonies are presented during various seasons, has numerous other halls utilized continuously for recitals, art exhibits, and varied special events. Access to the building is not controlled and it is open to the public at all times; consequently, no effort was made to display photographs of OSWALD or interview persons connected with the enterprises which are housed at the Palace of Fine Arts at the present time.

ReBuairtel to Dallas, 9/8/64.

On 9/11/64, MARINA OSWALD was again interviewed with respect to any property presently in her possession which might be of possible pertinence to this investigation.

As reflected in a letterhead memorandum being forwarded to the Bureau, MARINA OSWALD made available for examination various documents, books and other articles which she had stored in closets and other places in her home. All articles in these places were examined in the presence of MARINA OSWALD and her adviser, DECLAN FORD.

The following articles which might be of possible pertinence in this investigation were taken and are forwarded under separate cover to the FBI Laboratory for appropriate examination. It will be noted that MARINA OSWALD said the other copies of photographs being forwarded were previously available to the FBI and the President's Commission. These photographs were taken and are being forwarded to assure that they have been examined in connection with this investigation.

MARINA has requested all of this material be returned to her when it has served its purpose.

The following items are being forwarded under separate cover:

1) Book written in Russian for study of English with note on flyleaf written to MARINA OSWALD by Mrs. RUTH PAINE. Book has blue cover with red lettering.

2) Book entitled "English" for study by Russian-speaking persons. Book cover has picture of English alphabet.

Re: Mark Lane
Security Matter - C

Unless otherwise indicated all sources contained herein have furnished reliable information in the past.

On September 9, 1964, a confidential source advised that on September 4, 1964, Mark Lane delivered a lecture entitled "Who Killed Kennedy?" at the Jan Hus Theatre, 351 East 74th Street, New York City.

This source stated that during this lecture Lane stated that recently he had arrived at Kennedy International Airport, New York City, following a trip to Europe. He stated he was stopped by an official of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), New York City, who had a "black book" containing a list of names. Lane stated he noticed his name was on this list and when he questioned an INS official, he was informed that such information was "secret". Lane stated his inquiry was directed to a higher official and he then went "right up the line" and each time was told the matter was secret. Lane stated he finally contacted the "head" of INS, New York City, who asked him "How do you know we are not looking for another Mark Lane?"

According to this source, Lane stated that when he related this incident at a previous lecture, date not given, a young man contacted him following the lecture and told Lane he was an employee of INS. This man informed Lane he would endeavor to ascertain the reason Lane's name appeared on the list mentioned above. Lane stated that this individual not only obtained for him a copy of the page on which his name had appeared but also a description of the classification of individuals appearing on the list.

This source stated that at this point in his lecture Lane projected on a movie screen a document which he described as a copy of a list of names apparently from the previously mentioned "black book". The source stated that this document appeared to be of a loose-leaf type, size 8½" by 11", which contained a heading which the source was unable to read. Lane quickly pointed to his name on this list and then to the classification symbol "C" which appeared beside his name. The source stated that Lane then projected another document on the screen showing only that portion which identified classification "C". According to this source, classification "C" was explained by Lane as "Do not detain. Notify FBI by telephone immediately". This source stated both documents appeared to be of an official nature.

It is noted that Mark Lane traveled to Europe on May 22, 1964, and returned to the United States by air on June 30, 1964.

The "New York Herald Tribune" newspaper dated January 15, 1964, page 7, column 1, contained an article entitled "Oswald's Mother Hires Lane". This article stated that on January 14, 1964, Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald, mother of accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, announced she had hired Mark Lane to represent her slain son before the Warren Commission investigating the murder of President John F. Kennedy. According to this article, Mrs. Oswald stated she had been in contact with Lane during his stay in Fort Worth, Texas, the previous weekend. It was also pointed out that Lane had accepted the case although Mrs. Oswald stated she had no funds with which to pay him.

The "New York Times" newspaper dated April 2, 1964, page 37, contained an article stating that Mrs. Marguerite C. Oswald had dismissed Mark Lane, her New York lawyer.

On June 10, 1963, a second source advised that at a meeting of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) held May 28, 1963, at 74 Fifth Avenue, New York City, Mark Lane was elected to the position of Vice Chairman of the organization.

Characterizations of the NYCAHUAC and the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC) appear in the appendix hereto.

In recent months Mark Lane has been appearing in public presenting his "evidence" demonstrating that Lee Harvey Oswald was either innocent of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy or was not the lone assassin. Lane has appeared at a series of public lectures entitled "Who Killed Kennedy?" and has also appeared on radio and television expounding his defense of Oswald.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO ABOLISH
THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" issued December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, page 113, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1278 on the Truth About the Film 'Operation Abolition,' Part 1, October 3, 1961, p. 5.)"

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee.

APPENDIX

NEW YORK COUNCIL TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of FRANK WILKINSON, Field Representative of the National Committee To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

ROBERT RONSTADT, 20515 Tiara Street, Woodland Hills, California, a former member of the Communist Party (CP) in Los Angeles, California, from 1946 to 1952 who furnished information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation from 1949 to 1952 advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a member of the Los Angeles County, CP as of September, 1952.

A second source furnished on September 14, 1961, a copy of resolutions of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC) which were adopted by the NYCAHUAC. One such resolution affirmed the intention to continue to work for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to continue its efforts to broaden the participation in this fight. Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the "National Committee to Abolish the HCUA" (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and co-ordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAHUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

A third, fourth, and fifth source have advised during March, 1962, that CP members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAHUAC during attendance at CP club meetings.

On May 7, 1964, a sixth source advised that the NYCAHUAC continues to function from its office at 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York.

Reurtel 9-9-64 and reairtel 9-8-64, both captioned as above.

You should immediately contact Mr. P. A. Esperdy, District Director, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), New York City, and furnish him a copy of your letterhead memorandum of 9-9-64 concerning Lane. You will note that your office has previously contacted Mr. Esperdy on 7-1-64 concerning a stop that had been placed on a Mark Lane in New York City.

During your contact with Mr. Esperdy, you should ascertain whether INS utilizes a "black book" containing a list of names as alleged by Lane. You should also ascertain whether INS utilizes a document of a loose-leaf type which contains a list of names and a classification symbol beside such names as alleged by Lane. You should also determine from Mr. Esperdy his appraisal of the data contained in your letterhead memorandum of 9-9-64 and you should also determine whether INS plans to institute any investigation concerning Lane's allegation that an employee of INS has furnished him information.

Results of your contacts with Mr. Esperdy should be promptly furnished to the Bureau in a letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination to the President's Commission.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

This is to confirm the request made on September 3, 1964, by W. David Slawson of the Commission staff to Inspector Leo Gauthier of the Bureau that the Bureau prepare approximately nine visual aids dealing with the foreign conspiracy aspect of the Oswald investigation, specifically, relating to Oswald's trip to Mexico and his residence in the Soviet Union. Mr. Slawson identified certain documents and photographs to Mr. Gauthier at this conference and the two individuals discussed the manner in which they would be put together for visual aids.

In addition, we would like the following photographs grouped on one or two pages, with the captions as indicated. I believe that Nos. B3-2, D33-27, D33-5, and B3-30 might be cropped slightly if this would facilitate the grouping. The pictures, with their captions, are as follows:

B3-2. The Oswalds with Marina's Uncle Vasily Aksionov and Aunt Lubova Aksionova.

B3-7. Lee Oswald with Anatole (last name unknown) and Alexander Romanovich Zieger.

D33-27. Lee Oswald with Intourist guide Rosa Kuznetsova, his guide and language instructor in Minsk during 1960.

Pursuant to referenced Miami airtel, ERNEST ARAGON, Secret Service, Miami, was contacted on 9/15/64. He said that on 9/12/64 he recontacted the source who had originally furnished him information that the Puerto Rican Police had been checking on SYLVIA ODIO. Mr. ARAGON stated the source explained to him that when SYLVIA ODIO "deserted" her family in Puerto Rico, someone had suggested that the Puerto Rican Police were probably looking for her. This was an assumption only and should have been so qualified. Mr. ARAGON said his source is a friend of the ODIO family, but is not closely associated and has no contact with SYLVIA ODIO at Dallas.

In regard to referenced Dallas teletype, Miami files contain no photographs of LORAN EUGENE HALL, WILLIAM HOUSTON SEYMOUR or LAWRENCE HOWARD. Miami will attempt to obtain such photographs from GERALD PATRICK HEMMING, Miami, who was associated with them.

Enclosed are five copies of a LHM, dated and captioned as above, reflecting an interview of MANUEL RAY concerning SYLVIA ODIO.

For the information of the Dallas Office, MANUEL RAY, on 9/4/64, telephonically contacted JURE Secretary, OSORIO DAVILA, at Miami, Fla., and instructed him to write to the Dallas, Texas, delegate of JURE, namely, ANTONIO F. ALENTADO, 4919 Hall St., Dallas, Texas, instructing ALENTADO to fully cooperate with any FBI inquiry without first contacting the JURE leaders at Miami. When DAVILA was contacted on 9/4/64, he furnished a list of the members of JURE located at Dallas, numbering 11. DAVILA stated that there are, in fact, considerably more members of JURE in the Dallas area, but their names were not on record at Miami.

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD;
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA.

Cuba P.R. Fla

The following interviews were conducted on September 4, 1964, pertaining to Mrs. Sylvia Odio of Dallas, Texas, who has stated she observed Lee Harvey Oswald in the company of two Cuban or Mexican men sometime in late September or early October, 1963. These three men reportedly came to her apartment one evening during this period, and indicated they represented the anti-Castro organization known as JURE (Junta Revolucionaria Cubana)(Cuban Revolutionary Junta). Mrs. Odio stated she did not ascertain the full names of the three individuals, but knew one of them, who did the talking for the three, by his war name, Leopoldo. Mrs. Odio stated that she had been an active member of JURE.

Cuba

Mr. Manuel Ray was located on September 4, 1964, at the residence of his father, 3802 N. W. 19th Avenue, Miami, Florida. Mr. Ray stated he continues in his position as a leader of JURE. He said he is personally acquainted with Sylvia Odio of Dallas, Texas, by virtue of the fact that her parents had assisted him and other members of the anti-Castro organization, Movimiento Revolucionario del Pueblo (MRP)(Revolutionary Movement of the People) in Cuba. He explained that the MRP was the forerunner of the organization JURE, and the home of the parents of Sylvia Odio in Havana, and also a small farm of the parents near Havana were frequently utilized by members of the MRP in connection with MRP activities. He said that eventually both parents of Sylvia Odio were arrested and imprisoned by the Castro regime for the help given to the MRP. He stated at the time of their arrest, MRP leader Reynold Gonzalez was caught by the Castro agents on the Odio farm near Havana, Cuba.

Mr. Ray stated he last saw Sylvia Odio in approximately June, 1963, in San Juan, Puerto Rico. He said her presence in Puerto Rico at that time was primarily related to a divorce which she was obtaining from her husband, Guillermo Herrera, who resides in Ponce, Puerto Rico.

Mr. Ray said that he has not discussed with Sylvia Odio the report to the effect that she observed Lee Harvey Oswald with members of JURE at Dallas, Texas. Mr. Ray stated that he regards Sylvia Odio to be intelligent, and a person of good character. He said that as of the last time he saw her, June, 1963, it was his impression that Mrs. Odio was suffering emotional strain as the result of the incarceration of her parents in Cuba, and as a result of her divorce. Mr. Ray said it would be his speculation that whereas Sylvia Odio might be mistaken concerning the identity of the person visiting her apartment and believed by her to be Lee Harvey Oswald, he did not believe she would have fabricated or suffered a delusion concerning the visit of three individuals to her apartment house at Dallas.

Mr. Ray continued that he had no knowledge of any member of JURE utilizing the war name of Leopoldo. He said he is virtually certain that no JURE member had used that name.

On September 4, 1964, Rogelio Cisneros, 347 N. E. 36th Street, Miami, Florida, advised that he had recently resigned as a leader of JURE. He said he was acquainted with Sylvia Odio of Dallas, Texas, but had not seen her since June of 1963, at which time he travelled to Dallas, Texas, from Miami, relative to the possible purchase of firearms, of which he had been notified by Mrs. Odio. He stated Mrs. Odio arranged a meeting with a South American named Juan Martin, who lived in Dallas, and who claimed to be able to supply weapons. Mr. Cisneros stated he made the decision against any negotiations with Martin for weapons.

Mr. Cisneros stated that in Cuba he had utilized the underground, or war name, Eugenio. He stated he knew of no member in the ranks of JURE who used the war name Leopoldo, and in any event, such war names would not be used in the United States.

Mr. Cisneros added that he considered Mrs. Odio to be a respectable person who is dedicated to the overthrow of the Castro regime. He stated he had not known her or her family in Cuba, but was aware that both her mother and father are imprisoned by the Castro regime for their involvement in anti-Castro activities.

SYLVIA ODIO

Doctor BRUTON C. EINSPRUCH, M.D., who is presently attached to the staff at the United States Naval Hospital, 17th and Pattison Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., advised on September 11, 1964, that SYLVIA ODIO was a former psychiatric patient of his at Parkland Hospital, Dallas, Texas, and summarized his impressions of subject's mental condition as follows:

Sylvia ODIO has been suffering from a chronic nervous disorder for many years. This condition has become more severe since her arrival in the United States of America, due to a variety of stresses.

There has never been any evidence of psychosis, inasmuch as she has exhibited a "good grasp of reality," understands her responsibilites, and has attempted to be an "adequate citizen and provider" for her family.

Doctor EINSPRUCH expressed the opinion that if subject gave any incorrect testimony, it probably was the result of her misunderstanding the inquiries posed to her rather than a deliberate attempt to prevaricate.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Lee Harvey Oswald

Reference is made to a conversation between you and Mr. J. R. Malley of this Bureau on August 26, 1964, concerning the identification of latent fingerprints and palm prints developed on the four cardboard cartons found on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository.

Enclosed for your information are two copies of a self-explanatory communication with attachments from our Dallas Office dated September 14, 1964, bringing you up to date on our efforts to identify the latent fingerprints and palm prints. It is pointed out that only one latent palm print remains to be identified.

Your attention is directed to my letter dated June 16, 1964, concerning efforts of our Dallas Office to print employees of the Texas School Book Depository who were present on November 22, 1963. At this time I advised you that Mr. Roy S. Truly, Warehouse Superintendent, strongly objected to the printing of all employees as he felt it would seriously handicap the work of his firm; however, he did make available those employees who would have had occasion to handle the cartons in question. The enclosed communication discloses that the prints of those employees were compared against the latent prints on the cartons and no identifications were effected.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

We have been vigorously pursuing this matter in an effort to identify the one remaining palm print and in this connection, Mr. George H. Scatterday of this Bureau had a conversation with Mr. Norman Redlich of your staff on September 14, 1964. It was agreed that if current efforts to identify the one remaining palm print were negative the most logical approach would be to again endeavor to print all persons employed in the Texas School Book Depository who had not been previously printed. On September 17, 1964, Mr. Truly and Mr. Ochus Virgil Campbell, Vice President of the Texas School Book Depository, were interviewed at which time their cooperation in this endeavor was again sought. Both gentlemen refused to permit the printing of females employed in the Texas School Book Depository calling it "unreasonable and unfair" and furnished the following reasons for their refusal:

1. None of these employees had access to or were ever known to have been in the area where the cartons were stored nor were they ever permitted, according to company rules, to go in the warehouse area.

2. They had previously cooperated fully with the President's Commission and the FBI, having made available for printing those employees who could have had access to the cartons.

3. September is the busiest time of the year for their company and taking prints of the female employees could result in these employees being insulted, causing them to resign.

Mr. Campbell stated in view of the above he would not comply with this request unless a subpoena was issued. Mr. Truly further pointed out that taking the prints of female employees from other publishing companies located in the Texas School Book Depository Building could very likely result in one or more of these companies vacating the premises as had happened previously when one publishing firm left following the assassination, fearing adverse publicity might embarrass its employees.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

While refusing to permit female employees to be printed, Mr. Campbell did make available two male employees and himself for printing. These prints will be compared with the one remaining latent palm print.

In view of the refusal of the above gentlemen to permit the further printing of employees, no further action is being taken by this Bureau in this regard unless specifically advised to the contrary by you.

For your information, this Bureau is presently processing several other palm prints obtained in connection with this project and if an identification is effected, you will be immediately notified.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

ReDLairtel and enclosed LHM dated 9-14-64, relating to the latent print project.

The above letter to the President's Commission is being furnished for your information. Every logical effort must be made to identify the one remaining palm print. You should intensify your efforts to obtain the palm prints of Captain Will Fritz of the Dallas PD and any other police officers who logically could have handled these cartons.

NOTE:

The four cartons were recovered from the sixth floor of the TSBD after the assassination and were believed to have been used by Oswald to support his rifle. The DL PD developed one palm print which was identified as Oswald's. When the cartons were delivered to us for examination, we developed an additional 20 latent fingerprints and 7 latent palm prints, one fingerprint and palm print was identified as Oswald's, one palm print and 5 fingerprints were identified as those of Dallas clerk, Forest L. Lucy, who wrapped the cartons. The 14 remaining fingerprints and 4 palm prints were identified as those of DL PD Officer Robert Lee Studebaker. One latent palm print remains unidentified. The Commission has stated that as many latents as possible should be identified to preclude speculation that Oswald had a coconspirator. This is a tremendous undertaking as the one palm print remaining could have been left by any one of numerous individuals not connected with the TSBD such as reporters. This problem has been presented to the Commission; however, they still desired all TSBD employees be printed. We are insuring that all FBI personnel in Dallas during the pertinent period are eliminated as well as local police officers.

Mr. WEITZMAN stated that he was on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository immediately after the shots were fired at President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY on November 22, 1963. Mr. WEITZMAN stated that after spotting a rifle on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building, he waited until Captain WILL FRITZ of the Homicide Bureau of the Dallas Police Department and Lieutenant J. CARL DAY of the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department arrived to assume possession of this rifle. He stated that the rifle was carefully picked up by Lieutenant J. CARL DAY, while Captain WILL FRITZ pulled the bolt back, at which time he observed a live round of ammunition that was ejected from the chamber. Mr. WEITZMAN stated that he did not observe this gun close enough to pay any particular attention to the clip of the rifle. He stated that he did not observe the inside of the rifle and did not know whether or not the clip was empty after the live round of ammunition was ejected from the gun by Captain WILL FRITZ. He stated that shortly thereafter, Lieutenant J. CARL DAY removed the rifle to the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas.

Captain ~~MILL FRITZ~~, Homicide Bureau, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed on September 10, 1964.

Captain FRITZ advised that shortly after the shots were fired at President KENNEDY and Governor CONNALLY, a rifle was pointed out to him on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building, which was believed to have been used in the shooting of President KENNEDY and Governor CONNALLY. Captain FRITZ stated that Lieutenant J. CARL DAY, Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, quickly dusted the rifle for latent fingerprints. According to Captain FRITZ, Lieutenant DAY carefully picked up this gun in order not to disturb any latent fingerprints which might be on the rifle, at which time Captain FRITZ pulled the bolt back ejecting a live round of ammunition from the chamber of this gun. Captain FRITZ stated that after observing the inside of the rifle barrel, as well as the rifle clip, he was satisfied that the chamber of the rifle, as well as the clip, was empty. He stated the clip was not removed from the gun, and that Lieutenant DAY removed this gun intact to the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department. He stated that as far as he knew no one removed the clip from the rifle after it was found and turned over to Lieutenant DAY. Captain FRITZ stated that he assumed Lieutenant DAY probably removed the clip after carrying the gun to the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department for further examination.

Captain FRITZ stated that the rifle, as well as the live round of ammunition and the empty live cartridge hulls that were recovered were taken into possession of Lieutenant J. CARL DAY of the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department.

Lieutenant J. CARL DAY, Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed on September 10, 1964.

Lieutenant DAY related that he arrived at approximately 1:12 p.m., November 22, 1963, on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building. He stated that the rifle believed to have been used in the shooting of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY was found on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building. He stated he immediately dusted this rifle for latent fingerprints and after dusting same, he carefully picked it up in order not to obliterate any fingerprints which might still be on the rifle. He advised that Captain WILL FRITZ of the Homicide Bureau, Dallas Police Department, pulled the bolt back on the gun, ejecting a live round of ammunition from the chamber of this rifle. DAY stated that he observed both the chamber and the clip of the rifle to be empty. DAY stated he removed this rifle to the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department, at which time the clip was removed from the rifle. DAY related that he removed the clip from the rifle at the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department for further examination and for dusting for latent fingerprints. DAY stated that he placed his initials on the clip as well as the rifle. DAY related after he had been told by Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY, of the Dallas Police Department, to release this gun to Special Agent VINCENT E. DRAIN of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, he placed the clip back in the rifle, as the clip appeared when he had first examined the rifle. DAY related that as far as he knew no one, with the exception of himself, removed the clip from the rifle after it was found on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building on November 22, 1963.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to the inquiry of Mr. Norman Redlich by telephone today regarding the latent prints developed on the four cardboard cartons which were found near the sixth floor window of the Texas School Book Depository Building.

In addition to the twenty latent fingerprints and seven latent palm prints of value for identification purposes which were developed on the boxes, many extremely fragmentary latent impressions of no value for identification purposes were located. It is possible that some persons could have handled these cartons without leaving latent prints on them.

SUBJECT:

LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

On the late afternoon of 9/14/64 Mr. Dave Slawson of the President's Commission telephoned with regard to handwriting examinations conducted of certain Oswald material.

Mr. Slawson identified the material in which he was interested by both the Commission's number and the Bureau's exhibit number (as such numbers appear in the blue bound volumes of exhibits prepared by the Bureau.) These are identified as follows:

Commission Exhibit Number	Bureau Exhibit Number
94	38
1438	None

With regard to Commission exhibit number 94 (Bureau number 38), Mr. Slawson stated he was interested in actual handwritten version of this exhibit it being noted that the Bureau exhibit is primarily typed material with handwritten corrections).

With reference to Commission exhibit 1438, Mr. Slawson stated that this was the original piece of paper containing telephone numbers and names found among Oswald's effects being the same piece of paper which was copied by Lieutenant Martello of the New Orleans Police Department.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

On September 14, 1964, Mr. W. David Slawson of your staff telephoned with regard to the handwriting examinations conducted on Commission Exhibits 24, 25, 94, 100, 101, and 1438.

Commission Exhibits 24, 94 (first two handwritten pages), 100, and 101 are part of FBI Item 116 further designated as Q101. The typewritten portion of Commission Exhibit 94 was designated as FBI Item 337 (Commission Exhibit 92). The handwritten version of this typewritten portion is part of FBI Item 116 (Q101). The results of the handwriting examination of FBI Item 116 (Q101) are set forth on page 156 of the report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling dated December 23, 1963, at Dallas, Texas.

Commission Exhibit 25 was designated as FBI Items 123, 124 and 125 and further designated as Q51. The results of the handwriting examination of Commission Exhibit 25 are set forth on page 338 of the report of Special Agent Gemberling dated December 10, 1963, at Dallas, Texas. Commission Exhibit 1438 was designated as FBI Exhibit D-229 and further designated as Q586. The results of the handwriting examination of Commission Exhibit 1438 are set forth on page 89 of the report of Special Agent Gemberling dated July 2, 1964, at Dallas, Texas.

The foregoing reports of Special Agent Gemberling state that the handwriting and hand printing on Q101, Q51, and Q586 were written by Lee Harvey Oswald. Two copies of the reports of Special Agent Gemberling were previously furnished to The President's Commission.

The President's Commission

Dear Mr. Rankin:

On September 15, 1964, the Office of Special Investigations, Department of the Air Force, informed this Bureau that John Edward Pic, half brother of Lee Harvey Oswald, reported to the Office of Special Investigations that he received a telephone call from his mother, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, that date. Pic stated that his mother was distraught, emotional and not too coherent in her conversation with him. She told Pic that her life was possibly in danger and indicated that an attorney by the name of Fred Koff (phonetic) is the person responsible for "framing" Lee Harvey Oswald in connection with the assassination of the late President John F. Kennedy. Mrs. Oswald also told Pic that Koff was responsible for the type of discharge Lee Harvey Oswald received from the U. S. Marine Corps. She added that Koff was discharged from his job with the U. S. Navy Department on November 23, 1963.

Mr. Pic explained to Office of Special Investigations that Koff had been an attorney for Mr. Edwin A. Ekdahl, a former husband of Mrs. Marguerite Oswald. Pic indicated Ekdahl instituted divorce proceedings in 1948 against Mrs. Oswald. Pic further informed Office of Special Investigations that he testified for his mother in these proceedings concerning a "raid" Mrs. Oswald and Pic made approximately 1947 at which time they discovered Ekdahl in an apartment with a woman. According to Pic, Ekdahl and the woman were not found in a compromising position. Pic added that subsequently Koff became an employee of the Navy Department at the time the Navy Department was under the supervision of John Connally, present Governor of Texas.

According to the Office of Special Investigations, Pic was not worried over his mother's telephone call. However, he requested to speak to Mr. Luis Benavides, Special Agent in Charge of the U. S. Secret Service in San Antonio, Texas.

A check of the files of this Bureau disclosed no information identifiable with Fred Koff. It appears this individual may be identical to Mr. Fred Korth, former Secretary of the Navy. Mr. Korth was Secretary of the Navy at the time Mr. John Connally referred to the Navy Department a letter Mr. Connally received from Lee Harvey Oswald from Russia dated June 30, 1961. In this letter Oswald requested that Mr. Connally look into the facts surrounding Oswald's "dishonourable discharge" from the U. S. Marine Corps. Oswald addressed his letter to Mr. Connally as Secretary of the Navy.

The above is being furnished for the information of the Commission and no additional action is contemplated by this Bureau in this matter in the absence of a specific request from the Commission.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE:

During our recent contacts with Marguerite Oswald, she has given definite indications of being mentally ill. She has been uncooperative with the President's Commission and has made a number of wild allegations to our Agents and to the press concerning the assassination. Her telephone conversation with her son Sergeant Pic is another indication of her failing mental condition.

WITNESS ACCOUNT

Lensman Heard Shots, Saw Gun

(Editor's Note: This is an eye-witness account of the assassination of the President by a Dallas Times Herald photographer riding in a car close behind the presidential car Friday.)

By BOB JACKSON

There were five of us in the car. When we heard the first shot, the President had already turned the corner. We had not made the corner yet. Then we heard two more shots.

As far as I know, three shots were all I heard. I just instinctively looked that way. First, somebody joked about it being a firecracker.

Then, since I was facing the building where the shots were coming from, I just glanced up and saw two colored men in a window straining to look at a window above them.

As I looked up to the window above, I saw a rifle being pulled back in the window. It might have been resting on the window sill. I didn't see a man. I didn't even see if it had a scope on it.

"It was the second floor down from the top of the building and it was the end window facing Elm Street, the corner window. The President's car was about halfway between Houston Street and the underpass. We were beginning to turn the corner. He (the gunman) had about a 45-degree angle from the building to the President's car.

"I looked to my left and I could see both cars speeding off, the President's car and the car behind him carrying the vice president. They disappeared under the underpass.

"Then I could see a colored family covering up their child on the grass. A policeman was down on his knee. I couldn't tell if he were hit. I thought the child was dead or something. Then the Negro parents picked up the boy and ran.

COULDN'T BELIEVE IT

"As soon as I saw the rifle, I knew someone was trying to kill them, but it never entered my mind that he could be dead. I just couldn't believe it at first.

"It's going to give Dallas an awful bad name I think. The general reaction of all the guys around me was that they just couldn't believe a thing like that could happen here."

SUBJECT: REFERENCE TO THE DIRECTOR IN FORTHCOMING BOOK BY RICHARD M. NIXON

Late this morning, Miss Sally Haines of the Research Department of "The Reader's Digest" telephoned to advise that the November, 1964, issue of "The Digest" will contain excerpts from a forthcoming book by Richard M. Nixon entitled "Cuba, Castro and John F. Kennedy: Some Reflections on American Foreign Policy." Miss Haines stated that this condensed version of former Vice President Nixon's book contains one reference to the Director--a brief statement that shortly after President Kennedy's assassination, he (Nixon) telephoned the Director, and the Director told him that "a Lee Harvey Oswald who was known to the FBI as a member of the pro-Castro Fair Play for Cuba Committee was the assassin."

Miss Haines' purpose in calling was to advise us of this reference to the Director in the November issue which will soon be sent to the printer. As a result of our close contacts with "The Reader's Digest" members of its Research Department regularly contact the Crime Records Division when an article mentioning the Director or the FBI is scheduled to appear in that magazine.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

On the afternoon of September 10, 1964, Mr. J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission telephoned. Mr. Rankin stated the Commission had received a letter from Congressman John R. Pillion, Republican from New York, stating certain action which he thought the Commission should take. Mr. Rankin stated he had talked to the Congressman concerning the letter and the Congressman was willing to be interviewed by the FBI.

Mr. Rankin stated that while many of the items in the letter were of no interest to the Commission, there were certain items concerning which he desired the Bureau to interview the Congressman. (Mr. Rankin indicated he would underline on the material sent to the Bureau the items he specifically desired the FBI to question the Congressman.) At Mr. Rankin's request a courier was dispatched and a copy of the Congressman's letter to Mr. Rankin was obtained.

A check of Bureau files disclosed Congressman Pillion was born August 10, 1904, in Conneaut, Ohio, and is a graduate of Cornell University. He was elected to the 83rd Congress, November 2, 1952, and re-elected to succeeding Congresses. He currently is serving on the Appropriations Committee.

We have had limited, though friendly, relations with Congressman Pillion. In June, 1961, his office contacted the Bureau advising that he had introduced a resolution declaring war on communism. This resolution emphasized the danger of the communist conspiracy and resolved that the United States declare a state of war exist between this country and the 98 Communist Parties of the world.

On April 20, 1964, an assistant to Congressman Pillion contacted Mr. DeLoach's office and requested details regarding Oswald's relationship with the American Civil Liberties Union and with Attorney John Abt in New York City. No data was furnished the Congressman's assistant and he was told that results of our investigation were being furnished to the President's Commission and release of such material rested with the Commission. Congressman's assistant recognized the Bureau's position and stated they would just wait until the report was released by the President's Commission.

SOVIET SECTION

Memorandum to Mr. Sullivan

A review of the letter sent to the Commission by Congressman Pillion which was obtained from Mr. Rankin takes the theme that Oswald was definitely a tool of the communist conspiracy and that in his murder of President Kennedy, Oswald was wholly influenced and motivated by his communist ideology, training, associations and objectives. In his document, Congressman Pillion states that if the Warren Commission in the final report excludes communism as the prime motivating factor in Lee Oswald's crime, then, this report would, in effect, provide a "cover-up" and "whitewash."

Congressman Pillion makes a number of statements in his document which have not been substantiated by our investigation. He alleges that Oswald was associated with the Soviet Secret Police in Russia; that Marina Oswald was "planted" by the Soviet Secret Police and induced to marry Oswald as part of the Soviet intelligence operations; and that there could be no question that Lee and Marina Oswald were considered by Soviet intelligence to be potential agents for either specific or future assignments. Further, that Oswald made a number of trips to Mexico where he consorted with the communists and that Oswald was trained to kill for the attainment of a political objective and, thus, his killing of President Kennedy was a communist political killing.

In his document, Congressman Pillion also charged that the Commission's inquiries have suppressed the free flow of available information and prevented the American public from rendering a true and balanced judgment as to the communist role and involvement. He also alleged that American official and private investigative agencies have been silenced during the nine-month period the Commission has been working on its report.

OBSERVATIONS:

The data set forth in Congressman Pillion's document follows the same line as data which has appeared in the press from avid rightists and members of the John Birch Society. Much of Congressman Pillion's information appears to have been taken from public source material, particularly the data in Oswald's diary which was published in "Life" magazine. As a matter of cooperation with the Commission, it is felt we should interview Congressman Pillion but we will make it clear to him we are there at the specific instructions of the President's Commission.

ACTION:

Attached is an airtel to WFO instructing that two mature experienced Agents familiar with the Oswald case interview Congressman Pillion concerning data in the document he sent to the Commission. We are instructing WFO to ascertain the basis or proof for the various remarks in his document (those underlined by Mr. Rankin as described above). We are specifically instructing WFO to inform Congressman Pillion that we are conducting the interview at the specific instructions of the President's Commission.

Re: Mark Lane

Reference is made to Federal Bureau of Investigation memorandum dated September 9, 1964, relative to information received from a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, that during his lecture entitled "Who Killed Kennedy?" on September 4, 1964, at the Jan Hus Theatre, 351 East 74th Street, New York City, Lane projected on a movie screen copies of two documents which were allegedly secured from a source in the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), New York City.

On September 15, 1964, Mr. P. A. Esperdy, District Director, INS, 20 West Broadway, New York City, was furnished the information received from the above source by Special Agents Benjamin J. McManus and Donald E. Young.

Mr. Esperdy stated that according to the information received from the above source, Lane had apparently secured official copies of INS forms from some person within the agency. In this connection, Mr. Esperdy stated that the "black book" mentioned by Lane is probably identical with a loose-leaf book utilized by INS Inspectors at points of entry into the United States called the "lookout book". This book contains listings of persons who, for one reason or another, are to receive special handling by INS. Each name in the book is followed by several columns containing birth date and other data including one entitled "Case Code". Beside each name in the "Case Code Column" appears an INS code number which can be checked against another form entitled "Lookout Information Code System" to determine just what is the reason for the "stop" and what action should be taken.

It is noted the first source advised Lane stated the classification symbol beside his name was "C". Another source, who has also furnished reliable information in the past, advised that at the Lane lecture held September 10, 1964, the classification symbol appearing on the document in question was clearly "C-13".

Mr. Lapordy advised the code classification "C" covers some 15 categories of "stops" and that all "C" symbols are followed by a number pertaining to the appropriate category.

Mr. Lapordy furnished a late copy of the "Lookout Information Code System" which only provided code classifications up to C-14. He pointed out that the C-13 classification, under which Lane claims he was detained on arrival in New York from Europe, is a new classification which will be added to the "Lookout Information Code System" in the near future.

In order to determine the meaning of the code classification C-13 it was necessary to consult the INS publication "Operating Instructions Handbook" which noted that C-13 classification related to unauthorized travel to Cuba. Under this type of "stop" an INS Inspector is to determine from a person arriving in the United States if he had been to Cuba, and if such travel was authorized. If the travel was not authorized by the United States Department of State, the Inspector is then to take certain steps including a determination of the mode of travel, dates of travel, passport information, personal data and other pertinent information. Instructions also contain in part the notations "Do not detain" and "Notify the FBI".

Mr. Sperdy expressed concern over the possibility that Lane received his information from a source within IRS, New York City. He stated that while the documents in question are not classified their disclosure to unauthorized persons constitutes a serious violation of IRS internal rules and regulations. He also stated he intended to send one of his Inspectors to a Lane lecture in the immediate future to determine if the documents pictured by Lane are official. He advised any further action on his part would depend on the report received following the Lane lecture.

INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

It will be recalled that the Honorable John R. Pillion, Member, United States House of Representatives, directed a letter to the President's Commission dated September 10, 1964. The President's Commission requested that Congressman Pillion be interviewed concerning certain data in his letter. The specific items about which the Congressman was to be questioned were underlined with the request to determine from him the basis or proof of each of the underlined items.

On September 16, 1964, Congressman Pillion was interviewed in his office in the House Office Building, Washington, D.C., in the presence of his Administrative Assistant, Russell A. Rourke, by representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

When the purpose of the interview was explained to the Congressman, he stated that he had talked to Mr. Rankin of the President's Commission who had indicated that the Congressman's letter would be placed in the "Archives" and not in the Commission's record. Mr. Pillion also stated that he could not see any point to the interview, that since it had been reported that the investigation had been completed, the interview would serve no useful purpose. However, since he wished to cooperate in such an important matter, he said he would answer any questions raised by the Commission as to his letter.

As an explanation for his letter, he stated that from what he had read in newspapers and periodicals he thought that about eighty per cent or more of the Commission's investigation would deal with events subsequent to the assassination; for example, with such items as the determination of blame on various government or local agencies. That meant to him that not enough of the investigation would deal with the motivation of Oswald, which motivation he thought was communist-inspired as indicated in his letter to the Commission. He also stated that he did not like the thought of the Commission possibly trying to place any blame for President Kennedy's death on the FBI, the Secret Service or the Dallas Police Department. Instead, he felt the blame for the assassination should be placed on the communist conspiracy.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

In his letter Congressman Pillion stated that the anticipated conclusions of the Commission as related in news reports would absolve internal and international communism from complicity in and guilt for the assassination; that these anticipated conclusions were contrary to the known facts. By known facts he said that he meant the background data of Oswald which has appeared in various publications and public source material, which to him painted a picture of a dedicated communist thoroughly trained and indoctrinated by the communists and Soviet Secret Police or KGB; that the assassination by Oswald would be one result of such training. He thought the blame for the assassination should be placed on the communist conspiracy and the Soviet Secret Police whose doctrines and teachings were directed toward world domination through assassination, sabotage, and all other means short of armed conflict.

In his letter the Congressman stated that American official and private investigative agencies have been silenced during this nine month period and, further, that the Commission's inquiries have suppressed the free flow of available information and prevented the American public from rendering a true and balanced judgment as to the communist role and involvement. The Congressman stated that by these statements he meant that the American people had been promised by the President the results of the FBI's investigation; that the results have not been published to date; that the FBI was not permitted to divulge any information from its reports; that independent investigations by Congress, the State of Texas, by county and city authorities, and even private individuals, had also been stalemated by the priority of the Commission. As a result of this, in his opinion, the Commission had, in effect while not intentional, suppressed any other source of information to the American public in this regard. He reasoned that the communists were using this delay to direct blame for the assassination on the rightist groups, rather than the leftist groups. In this respect, he cited Oswald's reported contribution of two dollars to the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), which to him meant Oswald was a member of that group. He thought that Oswald's connections with the ACLU had not been fully explored; that such exploration would tend to prove his leftist leanings and would fit in with his reported communistic background. He explained that his office had telephonically contacted the ACLU some time ago and was informed that the two dollars forwarded by Oswald was a contribution; that normally for such contribution he would have in time been mailed a membership card. He added that he had not seen published any elaboration on possible connection of Oswald and the ACLU, and it was his understanding at the time of his contact in the past with the ACLU that no investigative inquiry had been made at the ACLU concerning Oswald.

With regard to his statement that Oswald voluntarily became associated with the Soviet Secret Police, known as the KGB, he indicated that his source for this statement was a publication of the American Security Council, possibly unrecalled magazine articles, and published material in general on the case.

The Congressman also stated in his letter that following Oswald's arrival in Moscow the KGB arranged press conferences to publicize Oswald's defection. He also stated that the KGB provided Oswald with a job in a sheet metal shop of a radio factory in Minsk, which job was a sham "cover" job. The Congressman stated that the source for these statements was the "Washington Report" of the American Security Council dated March 16, 1964, entitled, "Background for Assassination." This report is the same as the publication of the American Security Council to which reference has been previously made.

With regard to his statement that Marina Oswald was "planted" by the KGB and induced to marry Oswald as part of a KGB operation, he stated that he indicated in his letter that this was a probability, hence conjecture on his part. He added that from his public source research of KGB methods of operation, this would seem to be a distinct possibility in his opinion. The Congressman also stated in his letter that the grant of an exit visa to Oswald and to his wife, Marina, was a most extraordinary Soviet act. He also stated that there could be no question but that Oswald and Marina were considered by the KGB to be potential agents for either specific or future assignments. He said that he based these statements on the fast service that the Oswalds reportedly received on their exit visas, and on comments reported in the previously described the "Washington Report" of the American Security Council.

Concerning the statement that the KGB had allowed Oswald to engage in target practice and shooting during his more than two years stay in Minsk, he stated that any KGB direction would be conjecture on his part consistent with his previously outlined thoughts regarding his understanding of KGB operations; that Mrs. Michael Paine of Irving, Texas, told his office about Oswald engaging in target practice with a rifle while in the Soviet Union. Mrs. Paine in turn received that information from conversations with Marina Oswald and the subject. The Congressman believed that the Reference Section of the Library of Congress, upon inquiry, was the source of his statement that the use of a rifle and practice privileges were absolutely forbidden by foreigners in the Soviet Union. He also mentioned that Mrs. Paine had advised hearing from either Marina or Oswald that Oswald had practiced "dry sighting" with a rifle in New Orleans. The Congressman explained that his office had telephonically contacted Mrs. Paine about three times last June or July.

The Congressman stated in his letter that a KGB directed school in terrorism, sabotage and assassination is located in the Minsk area. He said that the source of this statement was research at the Library of Congress which indicated that there was such a school at Minsk. Since Oswald was at Minsk and such a school was in the same vicinity, it seemed logical to Mr. Pillion to assume that Oswald received training there at such a school. He added that he had indicated in his letter that this receipt of specialized training and indoctrination from the KGB by Oswald during his extended assignment in Minsk was an assumption.

With regard to the statement in his letter that "Oswald's mind and body was only an instrument for death, manipulated by sinister sources and vicious men," he meant no specific individuals but rather meant communists in general, or the KGB, since he assumed the KGB was involved in the direction of Oswald's activities.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Regarding the statement that Oswald became a cold, calculating, professional, paranoid killer who was intimately associated with the communist apparatus, this was a conclusion of the Congressman. Based on his experience in the past of observing communist techniques as a judge and practicing attorney, augmented by his interest and knowledge in and of communist conspiracies from youth, Oswald, in his opinion, fitted the classic pattern of the antisocial dedicated communist. The Congressman said he had no direct evidence or knowledge of any actual association of Oswald with any communist apparatus.

The Congressman indicated in his letter that Oswald made a number of trips to Mexico, where he consorted with communists. He also indicated in part that Oswald gravitated precisely to Mexico, not once, but on several occasions. In regard to these statements, the Congressman stated that he had no information indicating that Oswald had made more than one trip to Mexico. With regard to Oswald consorting with communists, it was his opinion that the fact Oswald visited the Soviet Embassy in Mexico would tend to substantiate such a statement. He pointed out also that there had been efforts made by some unrecalled individuals and organizations to seek out information concerning communist groups in Mexico but such efforts to his knowledge had been thwarted although it was commonly conceded that such groups did exist in that country and that Mexico was conceded as a hotbed for communist activities.

The Congressman also stated in his letter that Oswald was trained to kill for an attainment of a political objective. The Congressman related that this would appear to be self-evident because Kennedy was the President; Nixon was a former Vice President; Walker was a member of a rightist group; and Connally was a Governor. He stated that Oswald's action would fall into what he feels is a communist pattern of political assassinations. Since he previously expressed his opinion that Oswald fitted the classic pattern of a communist, the Congressman was of the opinion that Oswald's actions would have been communist-motivated, hence the reason for the statement in his letter that the sole and whole incitation and motivation of Oswald in all these killings and attempted killings were the communist ideology and the Communist Party world apparatus.

MARY FERRELL FOUNDATION

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The Congressman also indicated in his letter that there was an abundance of direct evidence linking Oswald to the Soviet Secret Police and further that evidence already available establishes Oswald's close association with the Soviet Secret Police and other communist agencies and terroristic groups. The Congressman said that he had no direct evidence of any such connection between Oswald and the groups described. He stated that he believed there was a great deal of circumstantial evidence to warrant such a statement such as Oswald's background, his residence in Russia, his probable association with the KGB, the statements in the published portion of his diary, the information set forth in previously described reports of the American Security Council, his participation in such organizations as the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, and his contribution to the ACLU. He said that while this evidence described would not satisfy legal requirements, he felt it was sufficient to be logically correct and in that sense, evidentiary for all other purposes except legal purposes.

Among the conclusions in his letter the Congressman indicated that Oswald's assassination of President Kennedy was part of a pattern of political assassinations and criminal anarchy; that in this homicide, Oswald was wholly influenced and motivated by his communist ideology, training, associations and objectives. He further concluded that the circumstantial evidence was sufficient to exclude to a moral certainty, any other hypothesis, except that Oswald assassinated President Kennedy to advance the world communist plan designed to ultimately destroy the United States and the free world. The Congressman also concluded that the lack of available direct evidence does not exclude the reasonable presumption that the KGB indoctrinated, trained and prepared Oswald as a professional specialist for future use as an assassin or terrorist. With reference to these conclusions, the Congressman stated that these would logically follow from his answers to the questions posed to him and which are set forth previously.

He again reiterated that he had no direct evidence of any association of Oswald with communism or the KGB.

At the conclusion of the interview Congressman Pillion requested that his letter of September 10, 1964, to the Commission be included in the record of the Commission. He also mentioned that he might produce a paper similar to his letter of September 10, 1964, but dealing mainly with his thoughts on the connection of the subject and the American Civil Liberties Union.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your request on September 10, 1964, that we interview Congressman John R. Pillion concerning certain data which appeared in a letter Congressman Pillion directed to the Commission dated September 10, 1964. You made available to this Bureau a copy of Congressman Pillion's letter wherein you underlined the specific items which you desired we discuss with Congressman Pillion.

Enclosed are two copies of a memorandum dated September 17, 1964, at Washington, D. C., which sets forth results of our interview with Congressman Pillion in this matter. Your specific attention is directed to the last paragraph of the enclosed memorandum wherein we report that Congressman Pillion requested that his letter of September 10, 1964, to the Commission be included in the record of the Commission. He also mentioned that he might produce a paper similar to his letter of September 10, 1964, but dealing mainly with his thoughts on the connection of Lee Harvey Oswald and the American Civil Liberties Union.

In connection with Congressman Pillion's statements as set out in the enclosed memorandum that much of the data he used as a basis for statements in his letter to the Commission was the "Washington Report" of the American Security Council dated March 16, 1964, which contained an article entitled "Background for Assassination," our letter of May 27, 1964, transmitted to the Commission a copy of this publication. For your ready reference, another copy of this publication is enclosed herewith.

NOTE:

Re memorandum 9-11-64 (attached) which sets forth background data regarding Bureau's interview with Congressman Pillion. Congressman Pillion was highly critical of the Commission and maintained Oswald's action in killing the late President Kennedy was a communist-motivated plot. In our interview of Congressman Pillion as set forth in the enclosed memorandum to the Commission, Congressman Pillion indicated that the basis for his statements were largely from what he had read in newspapers and periodicals and from his own assumptions. Congressman Pillion told the interviewing Agents he had no direct evidence of any association of Oswald with communism or the Soviet Intelligence Service (KGB). Interviewing Agents advised that Congressman Pillion was congenial throughout interview and initiated the conversation by stating he was a great admirer of the Director and thought that the FBI was a great organization. The article "Background for Assassination" which was published by the American Security Council is a highly speculative article intimating the assassination was a Soviet plot and that Oswald was a Soviet agent. Other people interviewed in our investigation have used this same article as a basis for statements concerning the assassination and we have furnished the Commission a copy of such publication.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

By letter dated August 28, 1964, the President's Commission requested additional investigation concerning the allegation of Sylvia Odio that she observed Lee Harvey Oswald in the company of two Cuban or Mexican men sometime in late September or early October, 1963.

Odio, in her testimony before the President's Commission, has claimed that three individuals, two possibly Cuban underground members or Mexicans, and Lee Harvey Oswald, visited her apartment in late September, 1963, to solicit her aid in the underground.

Odio is alleged to have told Mrs. C. L. Connell on November 28, 1963, that Oswald had spoken previously to small Cuban exile groups in Dallas and had been well received. Odio is also alleged by Mrs. Connell to have mentioned that a friend of Odio's had called a Cuban friend in New Orleans who warned the Cubans in Dallas to beware of Oswald, as they considered him a possible double-agent trying to infiltrate the Cuban exile groups.

There are attached the results of interviews with the following identified individuals:

Mrs. Mary Lucille Bass Connell, also known as Mrs. C. L. Connell;
Joaquin Insua Fernandez;
Marcela Insua;
Jorge Rodriguez Alvareda;
Antonio Alentado Leon;

Mrs. MARY LUCILLE BASS CONNELL, also known as Mrs. C. L. CONNELL, 6949 Lake Shore Drive, advised she first met SYLVIA ODIO shortly after ODIO arrived in Dallas in March, 1963, from Puerto Rico.

Mrs. CONNELL stated she is active in local Dallas charitable activities pertaining to mental health. Through this activity she met Miss SYLVIA ODIO, a young Cuban exile divorcee, who had been referred to her for possible assistance in receiving mental treatment.

Mrs. CONNELL stated she was able to have ODIO's case accepted by the local Southwestern Medical School's psychiatric section at Parkland Hospital even though she did not meet the standard requirements of residency in Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. CONNELL stated that Miss ODIO was treated by Dr. EINSPRUCH, a psychiatrist intern at Parkland Hospital.

She stated that in view of her interest in Miss ODIO's case, she had conversed on several occasions with Dr. EINSPRUCH regarding ODIO's progress. She stated that the doctor told her that Miss ODIO's condition was very serious and it might be as long as two years before she was completely cured. Dr. EINSPRUCH described her condition as that of a person suffering from "Grand Hysteria", that is, a mental condition common to women of European descent where the accepted social custom is for the women of the family to take a secondary place in society to the men. The doctor stated this mental condition does not prevail among women in the United States due to the differences in family environment and American social standards.

The doctor explained to Mrs. CONNELL that women suffering from this condition often try to build up their ego by various means, such as making up things to make themselves appear important in the eyes of others.

Mrs. CONNELL stated she personally feels that Miss ODIO used her for all that she could get out of her, and when Miss ODIO thought she had nothing further to gain from their association, she dropped Mrs. CONNELL from her group of friends.

Mrs. CONNELL stated she has had very little contact with Miss ODIO in the past year and has only talked to her by telephone on several occasions.

She stated that on Thanksgiving Day, November 28, 1963, Miss ODIO telephoned her and told her about LEE HARVEY OSWALD having talked to various small groups of Cuban exiles previously where he had been well received. She also mentioned that a friend of hers (ODIO's) had telephoned another Cuban friend in New Orleans at which time the Cuban in New Orleans had warned ODIO's friend to beware of OSWALD in Dallas as he was suspected of being a "double agent" trying to infiltrate the Cuban exile movement.

Mrs. CONNELL stated that most positively, Miss ODIO had made the afore-mentioned statements to her.

She stated that she actually had never placed much credence in this information as she had caught ODIO in so many lies in the past she had lost confidence in what she said.

Mrs. CONNELL noted that once Miss INSUA, the daughter of a Cuban active in Cuban Catholic Charities in Dallas, had told her about two men coming to Miss INSUA's door looking for Miss ODIO who was then also living on Oram Street. Miss INSUA later related that Miss ODIO had told her the two men were from the Cuban underground and wanted her to join their movement.

Mrs. CONNELL stated that Miss ODIO appears to her to be a person who creates things to make herself look important in the eyes of others. She will resort to anything to gain notoriety. She even once disappeared from a local movie theatre where she was attending a movie with her friends, and when her family became concerned over her whereabouts, they called Mrs. CONNELL, knowing she was a friend of Miss ODIO. Mrs. CONNELL called her (ODIO's) doctor and he told Mrs. CONNELL not to worry about her as she would show up after she got the attention she wanted to gain by such a disappearance.

Mrs. CONNELL stated that Miss ODIO would faint and be out for anywhere from a few seconds to hours when she heard something she did not want to hear. She has even fainted in Mrs. CONNELL's home upon being faced with a topic unpleasant to her.

Mrs. CONNELL stated that Miss ODIO used to use tranquilizers abundantly.

She stated that ODIO had two other sisters in the Dallas area. One, SARITA, graduated from the University of Dallas and was recently married, and the other, ANNIE, graduated from high school in Dallas and used to live with SYLVIA ODIO. Mrs. CONNELL stated that the two sisters are just like SYLVIA and apparently suffer from "Grand Hysteria" as SYLVIA does.

Mrs. CONNELL noted that she does not know whether Miss ODIO is still living in the Dallas area, as she has been saying for a year that she was going to move soon to Miami, Florida, with her entire family.

She described Miss ODIO as a very brilliant person who speaks Spanish, English, French, Italian and Portuguese.

JOAQUIN INSUA FERNANDEZ was interviewed at his home, 6223 Oram Street.

INSUA said he is employed with the Catholic-Cuban Resettlement Office in Dallas. He said he knows SYLVIA ODIO and knows that her father is a political prisoner in Cuba at the present time. He said he knew her father in Cuba. At that time the father was engaged in the transport business in Cuba.

INSUA said he has often talked to SYLVIA ODIO because she formerly lived near him on Oram Street in Dallas. He said ODIO is a divorced woman and lives with her children at the present time at another address in Dallas.

INSUA advised ODIO has never discussed with him the assassination of President KENNEDY, nor has she ever related to him that she knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD or had seen him. INSUA said ODIO had never told him that three persons, including OSWALD, had visited her at her home.

MARCELA INSUA, daughter of JOAQUIN INSUA FERNANDEZ, a representative of the Catholic-Cuban Resettlement Office in Dallas, and who is herself a schoolteacher in Dallas, advised she is a Cuban National and a former resident of Cuba. She said she knows SYLVIA ODIO quite well. She advised SYLVIA ODIO at the present time is a resident in Dallas, where she lives with her minor children and where she is employed.

She advised that ODIO has never discussed with her any aspect of the assassination of President KENNEDY or any item related thereto to the best of her knowledge. She said ODIO has never told her that she knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD or had ever seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MARCELA INSUA said she has had many conversations with SYLVIA ODIO and considers the latter to be a person with a mental disturbance of some sort. She believes ODIO is a sick woman. She said ODIO is the type of person who wants to be someone of importance. She said ODIO in her conversation likes to speak of something of which her listener knows nothing.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date September 8, 1964

JORGE RODRIGUEZ ALVAREDA was interviewed at 1919 Llewellyn Street, Apartment No. 28. This is the apartment of a relative of RODRIGUEZ. RODRIGUEZ advised he is an employee of the Curtis Mathes Manufacturing Company at Athens, Texas, in which town he resides.

RODRIGUEZ explained that he was the first president of the organization known as Junta Revolucionaria Cubana (Cuban Revolutionary Junta)(JURE). He said he had relinquished his post as president of JURE when he moved from Dallas to Arkansas, where he also worked with Curtis Mathes Company. RODRIGUEZ explained he had also been employed with Curtis Mathes in Puerto Rico.

RODRIGUEZ advised that ROGELIO CISNEROS DIAZ, a national officer of JURE, had come to Dallas in late May or early June of 1963 for the purpose of organizing the Dallas branch of JURE. RODRIGUEZ advised CISNEROS had known SYLVIA ODIO, a Cuban refugee in Dallas, as well as SYLVIA ODIO's father in Cuba during the pre-CASTRO days.

CISNEROS, accompanied by RODRIGUEZ, had gone to the home of SYLVIA ODIO to enlist her cooperation in the organization of the Dallas unit of JURE. RODRIGUEZ explained ODIO had assisted in the organization of JURE, but had never been an official of the Dallas unit. She wanted to be the secretary for propaganda. RODRIGUEZ, however, would not allow this because he thought ODIO was too emotional and would, therefore, not make a good officer of the organization.

Concerning ODIO, RODRIGUEZ said that she is very emotional and tends to be unstable. He said she talks incoherently at times and that frequently her conversation has no form or substance. RODRIGUEZ stated ODIO had never related to him that she had been visited by three persons, one of which was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, at her home in Dallas. RODRIGUEZ said that in his opinion ODIO wants to know more about any particular thing than anyone else and frequently will say things which are not true. RODRIGUEZ said for this reason, if ODIO were to tell him she had been visited by LEE HARVEY OSWALD and other persons, he would have a tendency not to believe the story based upon his personal knowledge of her personality and character.

ANTONIO ALENTADO LEON was interviewed at his place of employment, Colombo's Italian Pizza Bakery, Inc., 2415 North Haskell.

ALENTADO said he is the president of the Dallas unit of the Junta Revolucionaria Cubana (Cuban Revolutionary Junta) (JURE). He said the original president of the Dallas unit of JURE had been JORGE RODRIGUEZ ALVAREDA. He said when RODRIGUEZ left Dallas, he (ALENTADO) became president of the group.

ALENTADO advised a national officer of JURE, ROGELIO CISNEROS DIAZ, had come to Dallas in late spring or early summer of 1963 for the purpose of promoting a Dallas unit of JURE. He said the leader of the Dallas unit had been selected by the national officers and this leader was JORGE RODRIGUEZ ALVAREDA.

ALENTADO said CISNEROS knew SYLVIA ODIO because her father had been a revolutionary leader in Cuba and was known to CISNEROS. On the occasion of CISNEROS' visit to Dallas, he (CISNEROS) and RODRIGUEZ visited at the home of SYLVIA ODIO to enlist her cooperation in the organization of a Dallas unit of JURE.

ALENTADO said ODIO could understand English and Spanish and could be useful in the translation of propaganda material to be used in the organization of the group at Dallas. ALENTADO said ODIO had never been an officer in the Dallas unit of JURE, but had cooperated in the organization of a unit to the extent that she had done some translation work and had been enthusiastic in praise of the organization among the Cubans in Dallas.

ALENTADO said ODIO had many personal problems. He said SYLVIA is a divorced woman with several children and for that reason has the pressing problem of furnishing a livelihood for herself and her children. In addition, certain of the Cuban refugees in Dallas look down upon ODIO because she is a divorced woman, which carries with it a social stigma among Cubans. Furthermore, ODIO is reportedly very close to her father, who is at present a prisoner on the Isle of Pines in Cuba. She worries about her father a great deal.

ALENTADO said ODIO is a great talker and the topics of her conversation cover a wide range. ALENTADO said ODIO talks so much about so many things that he cannot put any confidence whatever in what she says.

ALENTADO said he recalled ODIO had a few weeks ago related a story to him. She said three persons had visited her at her home in the Casa Linda section, and two of these persons appeared to be Mexicans and the third person she believed to have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD. ODIO said these persons talked to her about the situation in Cuba and how JURE was doing in Dallas. ALENTADO said he did not question her extensively about this story because he did not put any confidence in the statements of ODIO.

ALENTADO advised he has no information concerning the identity of any possible pro-CASTRO individuals who might have attempted to infiltrate anti-CASTRO groups in Dallas, such as JURE.

FELIX GUILLERMO OTHON PACHO, a Cuban national, who now resides at Dallas, Texas, at 3901 Prescott Street, and is employed by Forrest and Cotton Engineers, Mercantile Continental Building, Dallas, was interviewed at the Dallas Office of the FBI. He said for business purposes he is known as BILL OTHON in Dallas among Americans.

OTHON advised he is a Cuban national and is a refugee living in Dallas. He advised he is the official delegate of an anti-CASTRO Cuban group, Directorio Revolucionario Estudentil (Revolutionary Student Directory) (DRE). He advised there is no formal organized Dallas unit of the DRE nor has there ever been such an organized group in Dallas to his knowledge. He said the official Dallas delegate for the DRE had previously been SARITA CASTILLO, who has now departed Dallas and is residing in New York where she is employed. OTHON said he had been designated as the delegate of the DRE in approximately September or October, 1963, when MANUEL SALVAT, secretary general of the national organization of DRE had come to Dallas from Miami along with two other persons who are members of the DRE, JOAQUIN PINCILLAS and another person, ANITA (last name unknown). SALVAT designated OTHON as the delegate of the DRE in Dallas for the purpose of organizing a unit of the organization in Dallas. OTHON advised he had worked with the DRE in Cuba and was therefore familiar with the organization. OTHON explained that SALVAT had wanted a male delegate in Dallas instead of a female such as SARITA CASTILLO. OTHON said that because of a lack of students among the Cuban refugees in the Dallas area and because he, OTHON, could not spare enough time to devote to organizational efforts of DRE that the Dallas unit had not been formed. OTHON said he worked at a full time job all day and was attending school at night and for that reason had not been able to devote sufficient time to the organization of the DRE in Dallas.

OTHON said that when MANUEL SALVAT came to Dallas, a meeting had been held in a Dallas bank near the White Rock Lake at which meeting approximately thirty or forty persons attended. Persons in attendance were both

Americans and Cubans. The meeting had been organized by Mr. DEAN PERKINS who was sympathetic with the purposes of the DRE, which purposes OTHON explained were completely anti-CASTRO. OTHON explained that although Americans could not be full members of the DRE, their cooperation was solicited mainly from the standpoint of financial assistance. It was for the purpose of raising money primarily for the organization that the meeting was held at the bank near White Rock Lake.

OTHON said that about two months ago, Mr. DAMASO OLIVO, who is the national secretary of organization for DRE, had come to Dallas from Miami for the purpose of exhibiting a motion picture film entitled, "Cuba de Ayer" (Cuba of Yesterday). This film was exhibited at the Holy Trinity Church in the Oak Lawn section of Dallas for the purpose of raising money for the DRE. Very little money was raised according to OTHON.

OTHON advised that he intended to relinquish his title as delegate of the DRE in Dallas because he cannot spend enough time for the organization and will suggest that another person be designated as delegate. OTHON explained that he does not know SYLVIA ODIO, although he knows of her as he is acquainted with her sister, SARITA ODIO. OTHON further explained that he has never been to the home of SYLVIA ODIO and has never met her to his knowledge. OTHON further explained that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never met OSWALD to his knowledge. OTHON said he knows nothing about a reported visit to the home of SYLVIA ODIO by three persons, one of whom was reported by ODIO to have appeared to be OSWALD and the other two of whom are unknown.

PINO stated he is a member of the anti-CASTRO group known as Second National Front of the Escambray (Operation Alpha 66) (SNFE) but does not belong to any other organizations in Dallas.

PINO stated he does not know SYLVIA ODIO and has never met her to his knowledge. He said he remembers that a general reunion of various Cuban refugees had been held several months ago at a picnic ground near White Rock Lake, and that a woman by the name of ODIO had made a short speech at the reunion.

PINO advised he had never been to the home of SYLVIA ODIO to his knowledge. He said he had not visited the home of any Cuban woman along with two other male persons. He advised he had not known LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never met or seen OSWALD to his knowledge. Mrs. ROBERT D. ROGERS, 3821 Whitehall Road, Dallas, Texas, advised that she has known Miss SYLVIA ODIO for about a year. She stated Miss ODIO's family were acquaintances of friends of her husband's family in Miami, Florida, from pre-BATISTA days.

Mrs. ROGERS stated when Miss ODIO's parents were arrested and put in jail in Cuba by the CASTRO government, Miss ODIO and all of her brothers and sisters were able to get out of Cuba and they all came to the United States. She stated Miss ODIO went to Puerto Rico with her husband and children, but became involved in marital troubles in Puerto Rico and eventually divorced her husband. She understands that the husband actually obtained the divorce from Miss ODIO, but they have some sort of written agreement permitting her to have the children.

She stated that when Miss ODIO arrived in Dallas, Texas, she was quite upset emotionally and has undergone psychiatric treatment at the Southwestern Medical School. For a while she resided with Mrs. ROGERS' brother-in-law, JOHN B. ROGERS, at 4626 Watauga Road in Dallas.

Mrs. ROGERS stated Miss ODIO had stayed a short time with the JOHN B. ROGERS' family due to the family ties that went back beyond the BATISTA days in Cuba. However, when she was able to bring her four children to Dallas from Puerto Rico, she moved into her own apartment.

Mrs. ROGERS described Miss ODIO as a very well educated person who has a typical "Latin" personality, that is, she is very excitable and emotional. However, Mrs. ROGERS stated she is a truthful person, who is not believed to be the type who would make up a story to impress others of her importance. Mrs. ROGERS stated she has never known Miss ODIO to lie to her about anything.

Mrs. ROGERS stated that she has had very little contact with Miss ODIO in recent months and has never heard anything

Date 9/10/64

JAMES H. DYER, International Co-ordinator, National Chemsearch Corporation, 2730 Carl Road, Irving, Texas, was interviewed in his office at this company.

Mr. DYER stated that Miss SYLVIA EUGENIA ODIO was employed in his office as a secretary from September 16, 1963, until February 10, 1964, when she resigned on her own accord. Mr. DYER stated that Miss ODIO is a Cuban exile whose parents are believed to be in prison in Cuba at the present time. He stated that she is a person with many family problems, as her brothers and sisters are living in the United States at various locations. He stated she is divorced and has four children living with her in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. DYER stated that Miss ODIO has no real close friends with the exception of SHEILA MACOUREK, who worked in this same office with Miss ODIO and himself. Mr. DYER noted that SHEILA MACOUREK was recently married and is now living somewhere in the country of Portugal.

Mr. DYER stated that on the day of the assassination of President KENNEDY, and when the news was received by Miss ODIO in this office, she became very nervous and fainted. She was subsequently taken by ambulance to the local Irving hospital where she was treated.

Subsequently Miss ODIO related to him the story concerning her belief that LEE HARVEY OSWALD, in the company of two other unknown individuals, had visited her apartment one evening prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY, and based upon the impression left with her by these three persons, she thought that they could have been responsible for killing President KENNEDY. Mr. DYER stated that upon hearing this story from Miss ODIO, he became very angry with her because she had not told him about the incident previously, for if he, Mr. DYER, would have known about the visit, he would have contacted the FBI and President KENNEDY would most probably be alive today.

Mr. DYER described Miss ODIO as a very nervous and high-strung individual which he considered "typical Latin type", that is, an easily excitable person. Mr. DYER stated he has traveled and spent many years in Latin America, and he is familiar with the composure of the Latin people. ELSA PEARL GORE, Medical Research Librarian, Professional Center Hospital, 1735 West Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, advised that her files contain the complete records of treatment of each patient at this small hospital.

Miss GORE stated her records indicate that SILVIA EUGENIA ODIO, 1816-A, West Davis, Dallas 8, Texas, was a patient at this hospital on one occasion and that was from the time of her admission at 4:00 p.m. on November 22, 1963, until her discharge from the hospital around 3:15 p.m., November 24, 1963. The patient was described as a single female, 26 years of age, born May 4, 1937, and an employee of National Chemsearch, Carl Road, Irving, Texas. She listed as her friend one SHEILA MACOURICK, 4222 North Crest, Dallas, Texas.

The hospital records note that Miss ODIO was treated by [redacted] whose final medical diagnosis of Miss ODIO's condition was "Psychophysiologic Vasomotor Reaction."

[redacted] prepared a history and physical report on November 22, 1963, pertaining to Miss ODIO's health and it reads as follows:

"This 25 year old white female was admitted on 11-22-63, after fainting at work. The patient is apparently two months' pregnant, and has been having a threatened abortion. She has been bleeding for approximately four or five days, and at the present time. Approximately three nights ago, she had very heavy bleeding, but this has lessened since that time.

"The patient was in an automobile accident approximately one month ago in which her abdomen was slightly injured. She had bleeding for approximately two days following this. The patient has been under considerable emotional strain, and has been under the care of a psychiatrist.

"Soon after hearing of President Kennedy's death, the patient fainted at work. She was seen at work, and then taken to the hospital via ambulance.

"This is apparently the patient's fourth pregnancy.

"The patient has been having rather frequent, though intermittent headaches."

Miss GORE added her files do not indicate that Miss ODIO has ever been a patient at this hospital prior to or subsequent to this one occasion from November 22 through November 24, 1963.

Date 9/10/64

[redacted] Medical Doctor Internal Medicine and Diseases of the Heart [redacted] Irving, Texas, advised that on November 22, 1963, he received an emergency call to go to the offices of National Chemsearch, Irving, Texas, to treat some employee who had fainted.

[redacted] stated he recalls the incident very well as President KENNEDY had just been assassinated and he, himself, was literally ill from this shocking news.

[redacted] stated that when he arrived at the offices of National Chemsearch, he was taken to one Miss SYLVIA ODIO, previously unknown to him, who had apparently fainted upon learning of President KENNEDY's death. He advised she was very nervous and upset, so he ordered her to the hospital in Irving by ambulance.

[redacted] stated he later the same day visited Miss ODIO at the hospital and saw her daily until he authorized her discharge from the hospital on November 24, 1963.

[redacted] stated that during the conversations he had with Miss ODIO, she never discussed or mentioned the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She seemed to him to be a person with a great number of personal family problems which were bothering her and which had made her very nervous. Regarding these personal problems, and inasmuch as they had no connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY [redacted] stated he professionally feels that he is not at liberty to discuss ODIO's family affairs.

However [redacted] stated that Miss ODIO seemed to him to be a mentally competent person.

[redacted] added that he has not treated or heard from Miss ODIO since November 24, 1963.

Mrs. CANDACE DOWLER, Secretary to Dr. LAWRENCE W. MARTIN, Head of the Psychiatric Section of the University of Texas, Southwestern Medical School, Dallas, Texas, advised that Dr. MARTIN is out of the city for a few days attending a medical convention.

Mrs. DOWLER stated that as the Head of the Psychiatric Section at this medical school, Dr. MARTIN would have interviewed SYLVIA ODIO uponher original contact with this office, and then she would have been referred to one of the assistants for medical and psychiatric treatment.

Mrs. DOWLER stated that her records concerning Miss ODIO indicate that she was originally interviewed by Dr. MARTIN, but from then on was under the care of Dr. BRUTON C. EINSPRUCH, M. D., who is presently in the United States Navy assigned to the Naval Hospital at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. DOWLER stated that Dr. EINSPRUCH would have firsthand knowledge of Miss ODIO's mental condition, while Dr. MARTIN's information concerning her would have to be gained from a review of her medical record.

SYLVIA ODIO advised that she resides with her four small children in a one family house at 4223 West Lovers Lane, Dallas, Texas. She stated that she is currently employed by Knoll Associates, Incorporated, 250 Decorative Center, Dallas, Texas.

Miss SYLVIA EUGENIA ODIO was born on May 4, 1937, at Havana, Cuba. She speaks English fluently.

SYLVIA ODIO noted that she is planning to move with her four children around the end of September to Miami, Florida, where she intends to unite her nine brothers and sisters into one family. She stated she does not have a house located as yet in Miami, but her oldest brother, CESAR ODIO, presently resides at 1600 Southwest 82nd Place, Miami, Florida.

Miss ODIO stated she is from a large family consisting of ten brothers and sisters, namely, CESAR, AMADOR, JAVIER, FREDDY, JORGE, SARA, ANNIE, MARY LOU, CRISTINA and herself. Her parents, AMADOR ODIO-PADRON and SARA DEL TORO, are still in Cuba. Her father is in jail on the Isle of Pines, Cuba, for being an enemy of the Castro Government. Her mother is now in Santiago de Cuba, Oriente, Cuba. She stated that all of her brothers and sisters are in the United States. Several of the younger brothers and sisters are now in an orphanage in Dallas. All of the brothers and sisters will be reunited in Miami, with the exception of one sister, SARA, who recently married JACOB MEIER and who will continue to reside in Dallas.

Miss ODIO stated her father, AMADOR ODIO-PADRON, was active in the Cuban underground assisting CASTRO in the revolution against BATISTA. Her father was exiled twice previously from Cuba during BATISTA's era. After FIDEL CASTRO came to power in Cuba, her father, realizing too late that CASTRO was a Communist, joined the Cuban underground and fought against the CASTRO regime. He and his family used to hide members of the Cuban underground who were fighting CASTRO. One of the persons hidden in their Havana home was MANOLO RAY, now a prominent underground leader and the head of the Junta Revolucionario, more commonly referred to as "JURE".

ODIO stated that she married GUILLERMO HERRERA, a Cuban, in Havana, Cuba, in 1957. In 1960, her husband, their children and she were able to leave Cuba and went to Ponce, Puerto Rico, via Miami, Florida, where they spent a few days being processed by U. S. Immigration authorities.

She and her family then resided at Ponce, Puerto Rico, until she left for Dallas, Texas, in March, 1963, to join her sister, SARA, who was at that time a student at the University of Dallas. She left her children in Puerto Rico until she could make living arrangements for them with her in Dallas. Miss ODIO stated she had obtained a divorce from her husband in both Ponce and San Juan, Puerto Rico, in early 1963. She stated due to her marital problems, her parents being in jail in Cuba, and her brothers and sisters all scattered throughout the United States, she had developed a nervous condition but same had not effected her mentality, and she does not suffer from illusions.

Miss ODIO stated in regard to previous information furnished by her to the President's Commission regarding the visit to her apartment, around the latter part of September, 1963, of three individuals, one of whom she believes was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, she has the following information to furnish:

She advised that she has tried and tried to definitely determine the exact date these three persons came to her apartment. She stated that she has discussed this matter with her sister, ANNIE, who was in her apartment when these three men came to her residence.

MARY FERRELL FOUNDATION

She stated her sister, ANNIE, normally came to her apartment on Friday to baby-sit for her, as she, SYLVIA, normally went out that night of the week; however, ANNIE had come early this particular week, and both she and her sister now believe that she, ANNIE, had arrived on Thursday, September 26, 1963.

Miss ODIO remembers that she moved from her apartment at 1084 Magellan Circle, Casa View, Dallas, Texas, on Monday, September 30, 1963, to avoid having to pay any additional rent for October at this address. She stated she does not go out on Sundays and would have been home on Sunday, September 29, 1963. On Saturdays, Miss ODIO stated that she is normally so tired that she stays home all day and accordingly would have been home on Saturday, September 28, 1963.

Miss ODIO stated that she received the one telephone call from the previous night's visitor, who had identified himself to her as "LEOPOLDO", after she returned home from work. Accordingly, this telephone call would have had to be on either Thursday, September 26, 1963, or Friday, September 27, 1963; however, she stated that Friday, September 27, 1963, would be her best recollection of the exact day.

She stated that the three men, one of whom is believed by her to have been OSWALD, were most probably at her apartment on Thursday night, September 26, 1963. She stated that if it was not Thursday night, September 26, 1963, then it would have been Wednesday, September 25, 1963, but she considers the Thursday date to be the most probable date.

Miss ODIO advised that the Cuban anti-CASTRO group known as the Directorate Revolucionario Estudiantil, more commonly referred to as the "DRE", has never to her knowledge been an organized group in the Dallas area.

She stated that while a resident of Ponce, Puerto Rico, she had attended the organizing meeting of "JURE" held in early 1963 at Juana Diaz, Puerto Rico, a town located near Ponce, Puerto Rico. She stated that she was one of the original members of this organization.

Miss ODIO stated that if the two other individuals who visited her home on the night in question were truly members of the "JURE", then MANOLO RAY, head of this group, should positively know the identity of any such "JURE" member who uses the war name of "LEOPOLDO".

Miss ODIO stated that in her own mind she rather doubts that these two other visitors were actually members of "JURE". She stated that she bases this doubt on the fact that these two unknown men appeared to her to be Mexicans rather than Cubans. She stated that their skin was "olive" colored, which skin tone is common among Mexicans and not among Cubans.

She stated that in their approximately fifteen minute conversation on the night in question, she cannot recall any phrases or words in Spanish used by "LEOPOLDO" or the other man which would indicate that they were not actually Cubans, but instead Mexicans. She noted that she does not recall any idiomatic phrases used by them at that time, as she did not then question their authenticity.

She stated that she would probably have never given much thought to their visit if it had not been for the subsequent assassination of President KENNEDY. When she first heard of President KENNEDY's assassination, at work, on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, she immediately recalled the visit of the three men to her home in late September, 1963, and thought it very possible that they might have been responsible, as one had mentioned that night that President KENNEDY should have been killed by the Cubans.

She stated she became very nervous regarding this possibility and feared that the Cuban exiles might be accused of the President's death and, upon dwelling on this thought, had fainted at work and was taken to the hospital in Irving, Texas.

Miss ODIO emphatically denied that she had ever told Mrs. C. L. CONNELL that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had made talks to small groups of Cuban refugees in Dallas. She similarly denied knowledge of ever telling Mrs. CONNELL that a Cuban associate of hers had called anyone in New Orleans regarding OSWALD, in which this Cuban friend had been advised that OSWALD was a double agent attempting to infiltrate Cuban exile groups.

Miss ODIO stated that a gun seller called JOHNNY MARTIN had spoken before small groups of Cuban refugees in Dallas, and she believes she had mentioned this person's name to Mrs. CONNELL; however, she does not know what Mrs. CONNELL is talking about in regard to the alleged telephone call to New Orleans where a person was discussed who might be a double agent trying to infiltrate Cuban refugee groups.

In reply to a question as to why Mrs. CONNELL would attribute such a statement to her, Miss ODIO stated that, "You would have to be a woman to understand". She stated that Mrs. CONNELL and she had been friends, but due to personal reasons, they had had a falling out. She believes that Mrs. CONNELL in attributing the aforementioned information to her was using a "double-edge knife", that is, she was trying to help in the investigation of the assassination and at the same time was trying to embarrass or get her, Miss ODIO, in trouble.

In regard to the information attributed to her by Mrs. CONNELL, Miss ODIO noted that she most certainly would have mentioned these facts to FBI Agents when they first interviewed her if she had such knowledge of same, as she fully realizes the importance of such information, if true.

Miss ODIO stated she had not previously contacted the FBI with her information about the three visitors who had come to her home in September, 1963, as she had not considered it pertinent at the time and did not want to bother the Government investigative agencies with what they might consider a "nut" complaint when they were undoubtedly so busy with other investigative matters pertaining to the assassination.

She stated that she might have eventually proceeded on her own initiative to bring this incident to the attention of the appropriate authorities, but she still considers her information meager, and even unimportant, due to the very short duration of her conversation with the three visitors to her apartment in late September, 1963.

Miss ODIO stated she still personally believes that it was LEE HARVEY OSWALD who was the third man who accompanied the two self-identified Cubans to her apartment; however, she stated that she has seen so many pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD since the assassination of President KENNEDY that she is getting confused on this point at this late date, and added that even though she thinks it was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, it may not have been.

ReBuairtel dated 9/8/64, dealing with request of Commission for assurance concerning the property of Lee and Marina Oswald. Refer also to your FD-302 dated 9/14/64 regarding results of 9/11/64 interview of Marina Oswald. Latter document was enclosure to your 9/15/64 airtel.

While Bureau will be unable to grant assurances requested in Commission's 9/3/64 letter, re FD-302 is not as fully responsive to Commission's request as it might be. Recontact Marina Oswald if necessary and thereafter rewrite FD-302 to include therein, fact that she was requested to produce for your perusal all material as described in reBuairtel. Accurately record in FD-302 Mrs. Oswald's response to this request.

Note that first sentence in second paragraph, page one of re FD-302, is not clear as Mrs. Oswald did not live at her present residence in November, 1963. Note further that Commission is interested in the property of Lee and Marina as of November 22, 1963, not the 23rd as indicated in re FD-302. In preparing new FD-302 delete word "other" from first line, last paragraph page two.

and of course we cannot speak of such property which might now be in possession of any other person. In addition, Marina undoubtedly has some personal property such as clothing,which has no bearing on the case, which she owned on 11/22. ReBuairtel asked that Marina be requested to produce any property presently in her possession which formerly belonged to Oswald and this is covered in Dallas FD-302 concerning her property. Dallas was told to request Marina to display all items belonging to her as of 11/22 exclusive of personal items such as wearing apparel. Incoming does not record that this request was complied with. The first sentence in second paragraph page one of incoming states that Marina made available various materialfrom various storage places in her home which contained her property "as of 11/23/63." We are not interested in where the property was located by her. What Dallas is trying to say is that she produced all property she owned on 11/23; however, sentence challenged more properly could be interpreted to mean that she produced property from places in which it was stored in November, 1963. To reply to Commission's request as fully as possible it will be necessary for Dallas to prepare a document which clearly says exactly what Marina was asked to do. Incoming does not do this.hence,necessary to rewrite.

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to our letters dated September 1 and September 4, 1964, dealing with material obtained from Marina Oswald on August 27, 1964. This material has been designated Exhibits D-237 through and including D-242.

In this connection there are enclosed two copies of a memorandum dated September 11, 1964, setting forth the results of our inquiry at points marked on Exhibits D-238 and D-240. In response to the inquiry of Mr. William T. Coleman of your staff concerning the availability of the pamphlet "This Week - Esta Semana" in the Laredo area on September 26, 1963, we have reaffirmed the information obtained from Juan Miranda as set forth on page three of the enclosed memorandum. In this connection Rosa Maria Pereda, assistant to the editor of the pamphlet, and Manual Velez, shop foreman at Editorial Cultura, the firm printing the pamphlet, confirmed that the publication is printed each week on the Thursday immediately preceding the initial date of publication and that it is mailed on the day it is printed with the hope that it arrives at its principal destinations by the following Saturday.

The information reported herein and in the enclosed memorandum concludes our investigation relative to the material turned over by Marina Oswald on August 27, 1964.

Classified "Confidential" as Legat has so classified enclosure to protect our operations abroad. On 8-27-64 Marina Oswald turned over to us six items which was the property of Oswald which she heretofore overlooked. Among these items were a tourist guide of Mexico (D-238) and a street map of Mexico City (D-240). Both of these documents had inked markings on them indicating probable Oswald interest in the areas or establishments marked. When we furnished this material to Commission, we told them we were conducting investigation at those points to determine if anything of significance could be developed. Legat's 9-11 memorandum accomplishes this. Results were negative and the principal markings were easily explained, as they defined the location of his hotel, the Soviet and Cuban Embassies and other areas in Mexico City of possible interest to a tourist. Coleman of Commission on 9-2 inquired if the Hotel Cuba was listed in the tourist guide and if the issue in question could have been picked up by Oswald in Laredo on 9-26. This was of significance as Oswald spoke to fellow passengers on bus into Mexico about the Hotel Cuba and it was reasoned that he may have learned of its existence by seeing its name in the travel guide. Investigation by Legat, Mexico City, establishes that Oswald could not have picked up the pamphlet in Laredo area on 9-26 as this was the date it came off the presses in Mexico City and was mailed. Letterhead has been approved for dissemination by Messrs: Belmont and Malley. Reaffirmation re printing and mailing date of pamphlet per Legat 9-18-64 cable.

Mr. DECLAN FORD, adviser to MARINA OSWALD, advised on 9/17/64 that MARINA has given interviews, which were filmed, to ABC, CBS and NBC radio-television networks. She gave the interviews to ABC and CBS free, but upon being approached by NBC, MARINA requested $10,000 for the interview. An agreement to pay her $5,000 was reached, and the interview was given and the money was paid to MARINA.

Mr. FORD also advised that in anticipation of great news interest when the Commission's report is issued, it is the present plan for PRISCILLA JOHNSON, who is collaborating with MARINA on a book, to take MARINA to visit with her at a relative's home in Santa Fe, New Mexico, and, thereby, to escape the attention of newsmen which would distract MARINA from her attention to the preparation of the book.

Mr. FORD has advised he will keep this office advised of MARINA's whereabouts.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated September 3, 1964, dealing in part with the possibility that Lee Harvey Oswald and others may have shopped at Hutch's Supermarket, Irving, Texas, in October or November, 1963.

In this connection, there are enclosed two copies each of a memorandum dated September 14, 1964, and the four attachments thereto. The enclosed material completes the investigation requested in letter of reference and no further action is contemplated in connection therewith.

The Commission by letter 9/9/64, states in a handbill advertising a lecture by Mark Lane in New York the question is asked "Why did the FBI chief in Dallas, Gordon Shanklin, state that the paraffin test run on Oswald's face was positive when the actual laboratory affidavit shows it to be negative on the face -- and thus that he couldnot have fired a rifle?"

The Commission requested we determine if SAC Shanklin made any remarks on the subject of the paraffin test. He did not.

BACKGROUND:

Mark Lane [redacted] is reported to be closely associated with communist-dominated organizations. Since the assassination he has been making speeches throughout the country endeavoring to discredit the FBI and other investigative agencies.

In connection with another Commission inquiry, substantially the same allegation as set forth in the most recent Commission request was refuted, and the Commission advised by Bureau letter 8/21/64. The Commission has received numerous communications regarding Lane's activities and on 2/26/64, we furnished the Commission a transcript of his lecture at Town Hall, New York City, on 2/18/64, wherein he attributed the statement regarding the paraffin test to Chief Curry of the Dallas Police Department.

EX-131 REC-21 4916

The report of SA Robert P. Gemberling at Dallas dated 11/30/63, which has been furnished to the Commission, pointed out the paraffin tests were made by members of the Dallas Police Department and by Doctor M. F. Mason and his associate of the Dallas City - County Criminal Investigative Laboratory.

SEP 22 1964

RECOMMENDATION:

That the attached letter be furnished the Commission refuting the allegation that SAC Shanklin made a statement concerning the paraffin tests.

No further reporting of this data by your office is required or desired.

NOTE:

The Commission in its letter made three requests, 1. was the clip found in the assassination rifle empty? Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated September 7, 1964, concerning the Mannlicher-Carcano rifle, Serial Number C2766 and Lee Harvey Oswald's rubber stamping kit.

Enclosed are two copies each of two communications both dated September 11, 1964, from our Dallas and Chicago Offices relating to the information requested by you.

For your assistance, the conclusion that Oswald rubber stamping kit, Commission Exhibit 115, was used to make the line "NEW ORLEANS, LA." on the vaccination certificate, Commission Exhibit 813, was based on the characteristics of size, style, spacing and alignment of the individual rubber type faces plus the imperfections in some of the rubber type faces in the stamping kit, Commission Exhibit 115. These same characteristics were found in the impression on the vaccination certificate, Commission Exhibit 813.

This concludes our inquiries into these matters.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated August 28, 1964, dealing with the claim of Sylvia Odio that Lee Harvey Oswald and two other individuals visited at her apartment in Dallas, Texas, on September 26 or 27, 1963. Sylvia Odio in testifying before the Commission stated that the man believed by her to be Lee Harvey Oswald was introduced to her as "Leon Oswald."

In connection with investigation requested in letter of reference, there are enclosed two copies each of memoranda dated September 8, September 10 and September 11, 1964. There are also enclosed two copies each of a memorandum dated September 14, 1964, and the eighteen attachments thereto.

On September 16, 1964, we located one Loran Eugene Hall at Johnsondale, California. Hall has been identified as a participant in numerous anti-Castro activities. He advised that in September, 1963, he was at Dallas, Texas, soliciting aid in connection with an anti-Castro cause. He recalled meeting a Cuban woman, Mrs. Odio who lived in a garden-type apartment at 1030 Magellan Circle, Dallas, Texas. He said that at the time of his visit he was accompanied by Lawrence Howard, a Mexican-American from East Los Angeles and William Seymour from Arizona. He denied that Lee Harvey Oswald was with him during his visit to Mrs. Odio's apartment in September, 1963.

Hall stated that William Seymour is similar in appearance to Lee Harvey Oswald and that Seymour speaks only a few words of Spanish. In connection with the revelations Hall, you will note that the name Loran Hall bears some phonetic resemblance to the name Leon Oswald.

We have obtained photographs of Loran Hall and will attempt to obtain photographs of William Seymour and Lawrence Howard for display to Mrs. Odio. We are continuing our investigation into the claims of Sylvia Odio with particular emphasis on efforts to determine if Hall, Howard and Seymour may be identical with the three individuals who visited her in late September, 1963. The results of our inquiries in this regard will be promptly furnished to you.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Enclosures - 44

NOTE:

Odio is a Cuban exile who has been undergoing psychiatric treatment. Odio claimed that Oswald and two other men visited her in her Dallas apartment on evening of 9-26 or 27-63. It is not possible that Oswald was among this group as he was on 9-26 and 9-27 on busses en route to Mexico City. It appears reasonably certain, however, that Odio was visited in late September, 1963, by three men for her younger sister was present and confirms the visit although she did not talk to or meet the men. ~~It appears now to a point of near certainty that Hall, an erratic anti-Castroite, with his associates Seymour and Howard were the men who visited Odio.~~ Enclosed material has been approved for dissemination by Messrs. Belmont and Malley. The 9-14-64 letterhead has as attachments 18 FD-302 forms.

UPON RECEIVING THE REQUEST, TRULY STATED THAT HE WOULD REFUSE TO ALLOW THE FEMALE EMPLOYEES TO BE PRINTED FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS;

ONE. HE HAS PREVIOUSLY EXPLAINED THAT NONE OF THESE EMPLOYEES HAD ACCESS TO OR WERE EVER KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN IN THE AREA WHERE THE CARDBOARD CARTONS WERE STORED. NOR WERE THEY EVER PERMITTED, ACCORDING TO COMPANY RULES, TO GO INTO THE WAREHOUSE AREA.

TWO. TSBD HAS COOPERATED FULLY WITH EVERY REQUEST RECEIVED PREVIOUSLY FROM THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION AND THE FBI, AND TRULY NOTED THAT HE MADE AVAILABLE SIXTEEN EMPLOYEES WHO COULD HAVE POSSIBLY HAD ANY ACCESS WHATSOEVER TO THE PERTINENT AREA AND FROM WHOM PALM PRINTS WERE OBTAINED BY BUAGENTTS AND LATER SEARCHED.

THREE. SEPTEMBER IS THE BUSIEST TIME OF THE YEAR FOR TSBD IN FILLING ORDERS AND HANDLING THE NECESSARY BOOK WORK, AND THE MAKING OF PALM PRINTS FROM THE FEMALE EMPLOYEES COULD POSSIBLY RESULT IN THEIR BEING INSULTED AND CAUSE THEM TO RESIGN.

MR. OCHUS VIRGIL CAMPBELL, VICE PRESIDENT, TSBD, WAS THEN CONTACTED AND HE, TOO, STATED HE WOULD REFUSE TO ALLOW THE FEMALE EMPLOYEES TO BE PALM PRINTED AS THE REQUEST WAS "UNFAIR, UNREASONABLE" AND HE COULD NOT "IN JUSTICE" COMPLY WITH THIS REQUEST. HE STATED THAT TSBD IS AT THEIR BUSIEST TIME OF THE YEAR, THEIR FEMALE EMPLOYEES ARE WORKING TWELVE TO SIXTEEN HOURS PER DAY, THEY ARE FOUR SHORT AT PRESENT, AND THE TAKING OF PALM PRINTS COULD VERY EASILY INSULT SOME OR ALL OF THESE FEMALES, CAUSING THEM TO QUIT. HE STATED THE COMPANY CANNOT AFFORD AT THIS TIME TO LOSE ANY OF THEIR HELP.

HE ADVISED THE COMPANY HAS COMPLIED WITH EVERY REQUEST TO DATE, BUT COULD NOT COMPLY WITH THIS REQUEST UNLESS A SUBPOENA WERE ISSUED FOR IT. HE ADVISED THAT NONE OF THE FEMALE EMPLOYEES HAD ACCESS TO THE AREA, AND THAT HE COULD SEE NO REASON FOR THE REQUEST,AND AGAIN REPEATED THAT IT WAS MOST UNREASONABLE AND UNFAIR.

NEITHER CAMPBELL NOR TRULY HAD ANY OBJECT TO THE TAKING OF PALM PRINTS OF MALE EMPLOYEES, BUT AGAIN STATED HADDON SPURGEON AIKEN AND FRANKLIN EMMETT WESTER WORK AT ANOTHER BUILDING SEVERAL BLOCKS AWAY, ARE NOT KNOWN TO EVER GO TO THE AREA WHERE THE

DEND PAGE THREE

CARTONS WERE STORED, NOR WOULD THERE BE ANY REASON FOR THEM EVER TO HAVE HANDLED THESE CARTONS.

CONCERNING THE PRESIDENT OF THE COMPANY, JACK CHARLES CASON, THEY ADVISED HE IS NOT IN DALLAS, BUT WILL RETURN WEEK OF SEPTEMBER TWENTYONE NEXT. THEY HAD NO OBJECTION TO THE OBTAINING OF PRINTS FROM OFFICE CLERK OTIS NEVILLE WILLIAMS, BUT AGAIN STATED WILLIAMS WOULD HAVE NO REASON TO BE IN THE PERTINENT AREA, NOR WAS HE EVER KNOWN TO HAVE GONE THERE.

TRULY STATED THAT THE TAKING OF PALM PRINTS OF FEMALE EMPLOYEES FROM OTHER PUBLISHING COMPANIES LOCATED IN THE BUILDING (MACMILLAN PUBLISHING CO.; SCOTT, FORESMAN AND CO.; MC GRAW-HILL PUBLISHING CO.; ALLYN-BACON, INC.; AND SOUTH-WESTERN PUBLISHING CO.) COULD VERY POSSIBLY CAUSE ONE OF THESE COMPANIES TO LEAVE THE BUILDING, AND IT WAS WITH THESE COMPANIES THAT TSBD DOES AN EXTENSIVE AMOUNT OF BUSINESS. TRULY NOTED THAT ONE PUBLISHER DID LEAVE FOLLOWING THE ASSASSINATION WHO WAS FEARFUL OF ADVERSE PUBLICITY AND EMBARRASSMENT TO THEIR EMPLOYEES.

CONCERNING THESE OTHER COMPANIES, IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT THERE ARE THIRTY FEMALE EMPLOYEES INVOLVED. MALE EMPLOYEES OF THESE

ReSALHM dated 9-9-64 concerning inquiries in Laredo area re receipt there of the pamphlet "This Week." Refer also to Legat, Mexico City, 9-11-64 airtel which records that pamphlet in question is printed weekly on the Thursdays prior to initial publication date (following Saturday) which establishes that it would not have been possible for the 9-28 through 10-4-63 issue of pamphlet to have been in Laredo area on afternoon 9-26-63.

Legat, Mexico City, has reaffirmed this to be the case and accordingly, San Antonio's 9-9-64 LHM is not being disseminated. It will not be necessary for San Antonio or Dallas to further report data in reLHM. Legat, Mexico City, advises that the figure 20,000 in seventh line from bottom, third paragraph, page three of his 9-11-64 LHM should have been 8,000. San Antonio and Dallas amend Legat's 9-11-64 memorandum, copy of which was forwarded by O-7 on 9-14-64.

Dallas refer to your LHM 9-14-64 concerning investigation of Sylvia Odio aspect. From the way your 9-14-64 LHM was utilized it was in effect a cover document transmitting 18 FD-302 forms. In future if you adopt this means of forwarding material to Bureau for dissemination to Commission and if more than one item is attached to LHM, indicate in LHM the total number of attachments and do not consecutively number the pages of the enclosed FD-302's at the bottom.

Re: Lee Harvey Oswald

The files of the following agencies were caused to be checked on September 8, 1964, by the persons indicated for the names Silvia Eugenia Odio del Toro, Silvia Eugenia Odio de Herrera, Guillermo Herrera, and Guillermo Herrera Garcia, with negative results:

Office of Intelligence, Police of Puerto Rico (POPR), by Angelina Medina, Clerk, and by Captain Jose E. Hernandez, Chief, Office of Intelligence, POPR;

Identification Division, POPR, by Luis Febus, Clerk;

Detective Division, POPR, by Lieutenant Antonio Maldonado;

Retail Credit Corporation, Hato Rey, Puerto Rico, by Rosario Avila, Clerk;

United States Secret Service, San Juan, Puerto Rico, by Special Agent Victor Gonzalez.

On September 9, 1964, Manuel Ray, Calle La Rabida #310, Hato Rey, Puerto Rico, advised that he is the head of the organization known as Junta Revolucionaria Cubana (JURE). He was interviewed in the presence of his wife.

Mr. Ray stated that on September 4, 1964, he was interviewed by agents of the FBI in Miami, Florida, just prior to his departure from Miami for Puerto Rico. He stated that he advised the agents at this time that he had never known any individual connected with JURE by the name of Leopoldo. He stated this was a very uncommon name and, as far as he can remember, he does not know any individual by that name.

In regard to Silvia Odio, he stated that he has met this person on five or six occasions, mainly social, and that he originally met her at the home of Jeronimo Esteve, Jr., in San Juan, Puerto Rico. He indicated she had been active to a certain degree with JURE in Ponce, Puerto Rico in 1962 prior to her departure for Dallas, Texas. He indicated he never had too much faith in Odio in regard to her activities in the organization.

Mrs. Ray stated that she is a good friend of Silvia Odio's mother who is presently a prisoner of the Castro regime in Cuba. Mrs. Ray considers Odio a very fine person but irresponsible and with a tendency toward exaggeration. She stated Odio will invent stories and will say whatever she thinks.

Mrs. Ray further indicated that, after the birth of Odio's last child, she was sick in bed in Ponce for several months, and it was general opinion amongst the individuals in Ponce that she was half out of her mind. She indicated that the reason for the divorce from her husband was entirely a personal problem between Odio and her husband and that it was occasioned primarily by the departure of Odio's husband from Ponce on a trip to Germany for a period of about six months.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ray indicated that Jeronimo Esteve could possibly furnish additional information concerning Odio.

On September 9, 1964, Guillermo Herrera Garcia, Apartment C-35, El Monte Apartments, Hato Rey, Puerto Rico, advised that he is the former husband of Silvia Odio del Toro.

Mr. Herrera stated that he married Silvia Odio on October 5, 1957 in Havana, Cuba. After Fidel Castro came to power in Cuba, he, Herrera, left Cuba in November, 1960, went to Miami, Florida, and almost immediately to Ponce, Puerto Rico. After he had located a place to live and a job in Ponce, he sent for his wife, Silvia, and children to join him. She arrived in Ponce about January 1, 1961, and they resided for approximately one year at Urbanizacion San Antonio F-35, in Ponce. They subsequently moved, for the balance of their stay in Ponce, to El Vigia #12, Ponce.

He advised that his former wife was from a very wealthy family in Cuba and had been the center of attraction not only in the family but in most of the social circles in Havana prior to their marriage. He stated when they arrived in Ponce, he was working as an industrial engineer at Western Fher Laboratory, Incorporated, and that they were on an extremely tight budget and his wife had to do most of the housework by herself. He advised in May, 1962, he was sent by his employer to their home plant in Germany for a six months' course of instruction. During this period, he left his wife and four children in Ponce. He stated he had received information from friends and neighbors in Ponce that she had had a nervous breakdown during this period and that she traveled to Miami for approximately three weeks where she resided with her brother, Cesar Odio. On this trip to Miami, she took one child with her and left the other three children with friends or relatives.

Upon his return to Ponce from Germany in 1962, he stated he received information from various individuals in Ponce that his wife had been associating with another man who was also married. He stated that upon his return, they had several quarrels, and his wife left Ponce and went to Dallas to visit relatives. She returned several months later and instituted a suit for divorce. Herrera stated that, at this time, he filed a countersuit alleging infidelity on the part of Odio, at which time she dropped her suit and did not contest the suit filed by him. He stated that the divorce was granted in Suprior Court, Ponce, on August 29, 1963, and that the custody of the four children was awarded to him.

However, he stated, that it is his belief that the children should be with their mother, and that he has a private agreement, in writing, with Odio that she may retain custody of the children as long as she is willing and capable of raising them.

Herrera further advised that upon his return from Germany, Odio made two abortive attempts to take her own life. He stated that on one occasion, he and the children were out and upon their return, they found Odio in bed attempting to cut her wrists with a very dull knife. Herrera stated that there were many sharper knives in the house. On another occasion, Odio swallowed a bottle of pills, type not recalled at this time, at which time he rushed her to the hospital in Ponce. After treatment and analysis, it was determined that the pills were not harmful.

He further advised that she had been under psychiatric care in Ponce as well as in Dallas and exhibited a letter from a Dr. Lawrence W. Martin, Director of Out Patient Division, University of Dallas, Southwestern Medical School, dated April 1, 1963, in which Dr. Martin advised that Odio does have some emotional problems but that they are not self-induced, and that she mainly suffers from an anxiety neurosis.

Herrera advised that after the granting of the divorce, Odio returned to Dallas and he stated he had received information that sometime in the Fall of 1963, she underwent a hysterectomy operation and convalesced in the home of L. R. Rogers, Dallas, address unknown, but reportedly a wealthy cement plant operator. Rogers' brother is Robert D. Rogers, 3821 Whitehall Drive, Dallas.

Herrera further advised that Odio's parents were arrested by the Castro authorities in the Fall of 1961 while he and his wife were residing in Ponce. He stated this did have an emotional effect on Odio and could have contributed to some of her nervous disorders. Odio's father was sentenced to 30 years and is presently incarcerated in the prison on the Isle of Pines, and her mother received a 6 year sentence and is confined in Havana, Cuba.

He further stated that during 1962, while he was in Germany, his wife joined JURE and assisted this organization in the collection of funds in the Ponce area stating that she felt this was the manner in which she could best assist her parents.

Herrera described his former wife as being very intelligent, well-educated, but an excellent actress and able to convince anyone of any item if she so desired. He stated she enjoyed being the center of attraction and believes that some of her activities in Ponce were due to this desire to seek attention.

He advised that the only individual he could think of by the name of Leopoldo is an individual by the name of Leopoldo Villoldo, who is a Cuban who recently returned from Dallas, Texas, to Puerto Rico and resides in the Hato Rey area. He advised he believes this individual's first name is Leopoldo but he is not sure. He stated that Leopoldo's wife was a good friend of his former wife.

Herrera stated that even though he described his former wife as being a good actress and convincing, he is of the opinion she would not be able to fabricate a story regarding any connection with Oswald and be able to stick to it through all the various inquiries to which she must have been subjected.

SJ T-1, who is a former neighbor of Silvia Odio Herrera in Ponce, Puerto Rico, advised on September 9, 1964, that the Herrera family was composed of Silvia, her husband Guillermo, and their four small children. Guillermo Herrera worked for the Fher Laboratory in Ponce, Puerto Rico, while his wife Silvia kept house for their four children.

After moving to El Vigia, Guillermo Herrera went to Germany for about six months to pursue studies there which would advance him in his work at his place of employment.

While Guillermo Herrera was in Germany, his wife, Silvia, became very nervous and agitated. She wanted the whole neighborhood to have pity on her and to look after her, presumably because she was alone with four small children to look after. She would create the impression at times that she was having a mental breakdown, and it was rumored that at one time while her husband was away, she wanted to kill herself.

She was described as a person who was acting all the time, who could cry one moment and smile the next, and who could immediately pass from a very depressed feeling to a very gay attitude.

She herself (Silvia Herrera) made the statement that she never did love her husband, but that he loved her and that she was more or less pressured into marrying him by her family in Cuba.

She was never observed to show affection for her four children and indicated on occasion that she did not want them near her.

Ernestina Garcia, Clerk of Court Office, Superior Court, Ponce, Puerto Rico, on September 9, 1964, produced divorce record Number 63-2000, which reflected Guillermo Herrera Garcia as "plaintiff" and Silvia Odio as "defendant."

Re: Lee Harvey Oswald

The divorce action was initiated on July 16, 1963, by Guillermo Herrera Garcia, a resident of Ponce, Puerto Rico, and the defendant was identified as residing in Dallas, Texas.

The records indicated that Guillermo Herrera Garcia and Silvia Odio were married on October 5, 1957, in Havana, Cuba, after which, they moved to Ponce, Puerto Rico. They have four children, namely, Silvia Alejandra, 4½ years old; Maria Eugenia, 3½ years old; Guillermo, 2½ years old; and Patricia, 1½ years old, and all bore the last name of "Herrera-Odio".

The record set forth that:

> "For a long time in a continuous manner, the defendant has been treating the plaintiff, not only cruelly, but also unusually, with words and with actions as well, in public and in private; whose conduct consists moreover in complete abandon of her obligations as a wife and mother, as well as an attitude of indifference and negligence towards the plaintiff, terminating this attitude in that the defendant left her home to go to the city of Dallas."

On August 29, 1964, and before Victor Vargas Negron, Judge, Superior Court, Ponce, Puerto Rico, Guillermo Herrera Garcia was granted divorce from Silvia Odio, at which time he was granted custody of the above-referred children.

SJ T-2, a psychiatrist practicing in Ponce, Puerto Rico, advised on September 9, 1964, that Silvia Herrera was referred to him by another doctor in Ponce as a possible psychiatric case. She visited his office, but did not want to be treated as a psychiatric case. It was his impression that she came from a very wealthy family in Cuba, and he described her as emotionally unstable and unconventional, and he stated that she gave all the appearances of not being able, either mentally or physically, to take care of her four small children.

When she came to Ponce, she ingratiated herself with wealthy families in the same area, and more or less expected from them all kinds of help and assistance.

He advised that with regard to the records he maintained concerning his official contact with her, he would prefer for his own protection that a court order be produced in order for him to reveal the contents of the records he maintained in his contact with Silvia.

SJ T-3, a medical doctor practicing in Ponce, Puerto Rico, furnished the following information regarding Silvia Herrera on September 9, 1964:

When she first came to Ponce, she was known to a well-to-do Cuban family who lived in the same area and who introduced her to other influential families in Ponce.

On one occasion, he was called out to treat her professionally when it was reported to him that she had had an attack of nerves. After he examined her, it was his determination that she had no such attack; instead, she feigned the attack to get attention from her neighbors in El Vigia, Ponce.

He described her as a very mixed up young lady. She was reported, by unrecalled sources, to have been under psychiatric care in Miami, Florida, and she also had consulted a psychiatrist in Ponce.

She is the mother of several small children, and she has abandoned both her children and husband and is living somewhere in the United States. She apparently comes from a well-to-do family in Cuba, and she does not have the stamina to accept the loss of all that to which she was accustomed in Cuba.

It was rumored in Ponce that, while her husband was away from Ponce, she became emotionally involved with another married man of Cuban extraction, which involvement caused his separation, for a time, from his own wife. At about the time Silvia Herrera was rumored to be going with another married man, she claimed she had had an attack of amnesia for about a 12 to 24 hour period. SJ T-4, however, completely discounted her allegation in this respect because he has consulted with a psychiatrist in Ponce concerning her alleged amnesia attack, and the psychiatrist's observation was that there was no reason why she should have had such an attack.

On September 10, 1964, attempts were made to locate Leopoldo Villoldo in Hato Rey, Puerto Rico. It was ascertained that Mr. Alfredo Villoldo resides at 233 Almirante Pinzon, Hato Rey, with friends. On contact at this address, it was ascertained that Mr. Villoldo had recently returned to San Juan from Dallas, Texas, and was acquainted with Guillermo Herrera and his former wife, Silvia Odio; however, it was ascertained that Mr. Villoldo was presently on a business trip throughout the Island of Puerto Rico and was not expected to return until the following week.

On September 10, 1964, Mr. Jeronimo Esteve, Jr., President of Esteve International Corporation, 724 Ponce de Leon, Hato Rey, Puerto Rico, advised that he is the second cousin of Silvia Odio. He stated that he was quite close to Odio's family, both in Cuba and with her while she resided in Ponce, Puerto Rico. He advised that Silvia was one of nine children, but the oldest daughter of a very wealthy family in Havana, Cuba, and was the center of attraction of the family and of many social activities in Havana. She was given anything that she wanted and was fawned upon by everyone who knew her. He described her as selfish, egotistical, very attractive, well-educated, and a very convincing speaker but very emotional. He stated that her father was a self-made man and had no scruples when it came to business. She married Guillermo Herrera in 1957, and he described Herrera as being basically the same type of person as Silvia.

On arrival in Ponce in 1960, in view of the fact that her husband was working as an engineer and they were on a very tight budget financially, Silvia, who was accustomed to the ten servants in her family's home, was forced to do all of her own housework as well as care for her children by herself. He advised she was unable to cope with these problems and continually expressed her dissatisfaction, seeking sympathy and assistance from her friends.

He advised that in 1962, Silvia's husband was sent to Germany by his company which aggravated the situation in Ponce inasmuch as they had to operate on a tighter budget in order that he could finance his trip to Germany. Mr. Esteve stated that there was considerable split amongst the members of the family in regard to this trip to Germany in that numerous members of the family stated that Herrera should not have made the trip and sympathized with Odio while others stated it was necessary for him to make the trip in order for him to advance professionally. During this period, she suffered a nervous breakdown, and he, Esteve, convinced her she should travel to Miami for a rest and visit some of her relatives. Odio made this trip, taking one child with her and he, Esteve, took care of the other children. While in Miami visiting her brother Cesar, they became involved in a family fight, and she again suffered a breakdown in Miami.

Mr. Esteve stated that he has heard rumors from other members of the family and from acquaintances in Ponce that she did have an affair with another individual in Ponce, but that he has no personal knowledge of this.

Upon the return of Herrera from Germany, Odio and her husband fought continually for several weeks, at which time she asked for a divorce, but he refused to grant it. At this time, Odio traveled to Dallas, Texas, to visit relatives where she remained for several months. In the Spring of 1963, she returned, at which time she filed for a divorce and Herrera filed a countersuit. The divorce was finally granted on Herrera's suit, and he was awarded custody of the children. Mr. Esteve stated that there is some type of private agreement between Odio and her former husband enabling her to maintain custody of the children.

He stated that he has not seen her since she went to Dallas in 1963 but has heard several reports that she has again attempted, on numerous occasions, to become the center of attaction of the social circle in which she travels. He stated that in his opinion, this is one of her main difficulties, that she cannot rationalize herself to the fact that she is no longer the daughter of a wealthy individual who will grant her every request and, she will perform various actions in an attempt to become the center of attraction. He advised that the members of the family are split in their opinion of Odio, some being of the opinion that she is almost crazy, and the others offering their condolences at her troubles and offering her assistance.

Mr. Esteve stated that her parents were arrested by the Fidel Castro regime in late 1961 while Odio resided in Ponce, and he knows that this was quite an emotional shock for her. He stated that her father received a sentence of 30 years and is presently incarcerated on the Isle of Pines, and her mother received a sentence of six years and is in custody in Havana, Cuba. He advised that, during the period of the divorce, he, himself, was in Europe on a business trip, and suggested that his sister, Mrs. Miguel Angel Campos, who is an instructor at the University of Puerto Rico, be contacted as she assisted Odio during this period. He further suggested that his other sister, Mrs. Martinez, who resides in Miami, Florida, would be able to furnish information regarding her activities in Miami.

Mr. Esteve stated the name Leopoldo is a very uncommon name, and he knows of no individual by that name who has been a member of any anti-Castro organization. He advised the only Leopoldo he knows is one Leopoldo Pineiro who was a classmate of his at the Havana Business Academy in 1948. He stated he last saw this individual in 1959 in Havana, at which time Pineiro was an official in the Cuban militia. He has heard nothing concerning this individual since.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - R, CUBA

Synopsis:

ERICH LINTROP, Z #72988D1, born 11/4/04, Estonia, interviewed aboard SS AMERICAN FLYER, Norfolk, Va. He claims that about four days after assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY he was in Constantinople, Turkey, as a crew member aboard the SS THUNDERBIRD. He met unidentified Turkish Army officer. Officer told him there were rumors in Turkey that Madame NHU of South Vietnam may have been responsible for assassination; that an unidentified monk from South Vietnam had the money for the assassins; but that the monk had disappeared with the money. LINTROP felt that this information was a poor rumor. LINTROP claims had never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and knows nothing about them other than what he has read in newspapers and magazines.

- RUC -

DETAILS:

On September 14, 1964, the United States Secret Service advised the Jacksonville Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that JOSEPH STALLINGS, a Florida Auxiliary Patrolman, had contacted them and furnished them information concerning the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

On September 16, 1964, Mr. JOSEPH STALLINGS advised that he was on duty on September 8, 1964, with Trooper A. J. FORSYTHE. He was approached by a person who later identified himself as (first name unknown) LINTROP. LINTROP had been drinking and was carrying a beer with him but did not appear to be intoxicated. LINTROP requested transportation to his ship, the SS AMERICAN FLYER, and back to the Seminole Hotel in Jacksonville.

STALLINGS advised that while en route LINTROP asked them if they knew anything about the assassination of President KENNEDY. LINTROP stated that he knew OSWALD, JACK RUBY, and also the "money man." LINTROP would not divulge the name of the "money man" but stated he lived in Pakistan. LINTROP indicated these three were involved in the assassination of President KENNEDY. STALLINGS stated that they returned LINTROP to the Seminole Hotel and had not seen him since.

Inquiry by the New York City Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at the United States Lines, New York, New York, revealed that ERICH LINTROP, Seaman Number Z-72988D1, is an able-bodied seaman aboard the SS AMERICAN FLYER. It was determined that the SS AMERICAN FLYER would be in Norfolk, Virginia, on September 18, 1964, en route to Europe.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 9/22/64

ERICH LINTROP, able-bodied seaman, was interviewed aboard the SS AMERICAN FLYER, United States Lines, Norfolk, Virginia. He furnished the following information:

About four days after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY he was in Constantinople, Turkey, as a crew member aboard the SS THUNDERBIRD. He was in a restaurant, name not recalled, where he engaged in conversation with an unidentified Turkish Army officer, who spoke English well. They talked about the assassination. The officer told him that there were rumors in Turkey that Madame NHU of South Vietnam may have been responsible for the assassination; that an unidentified monk from South Vietnam had the money for the assassins; but that the monk had disappeared with the money. The officer thought it odd that Madame NHU had abruptly terminated her visit to the United States and had gone to Italy. The officer furnished no further information in that regard.

LINTROP stated that he accepted the information from this officer as a poor rumor and thought little more about it. LINTROP and the officer conversed for approximately twenty minutes.

LINTROP stated that the Turkish Army officer possibly had the rank of Lieutenant, was in uniform, was aged about twenty-six, of slight build, 5 feet 6 inches in height, and weighed about 130 pounds. The officer mentioned that he had attended a university.

LINTROP further advised that on or about September 8, 1964, he was in Jacksonville, Florida, as a crew member aboard the SS AMERICAN FLYER. He was in the bar of the Seminole Hotel where he was doing considerable drinking. When he realized that he had no more money he left the hotel and attempted to hail a taxi to return to the ship but was unable to locate a taxi because of the hurricane. He accepted a ride from two men dressed in civilian clothes, whom he could not further identify. These men volunteered to take him to his ship. At the ship he obtained more money, and the men then drove him back to the hotel where he continued his drinking.

by SA HENRY A. WELKE:mej Date dictated 9/22/64

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

LINTROP stated that he could not recall the substance of his conversation with the men but said he may have mentioned something about the assassination, although he is not certain. He said that if he did discuss the assassination, he may have told the men about his conversation with the Turkish Army officer. LINTROP stated that he was somewhat intoxicated at the time and could not adequately remember details of his conversation. LINTROP stated that he had never met LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY and knows nothing about them other than what he has read in newspapers and magazines.

He further stated that he is not in possession of any factual information concerning the assassination which he feels would be of assistance to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The following description of LINTROP was obtained through observation and interview:

Re Bureau telephone call from Section Chief WILLIAM A. BRANIGAN, 9/17/64, referring to pages 42 and 43 of the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated 9/9/64, concerning a hole in the grass near the area of the assassination as described by WAYNE E. HARTMAN and his wife EDNA.

There are enclosed for the Bureau ten copies of an additional page numbered 45A, and for New Orleans and San Antonio one copy each of additional page 45A, to be inserted in report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated 9/9/64.

The additional page 45A reflects the results of the search of the area referred to by Mr. HARTMAN and his wife on pages 42-45 of the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING with a metal detector, which search failed to locate any bullet or fragment of a bullet. The two items found with the use of the metal detector as reflected on this additional page 45A, are being retained at Dallas, UACB.

The Bureau, New Orleans and San Antonio are requested to change the date of the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING from 9/9/64, to 9/19/64, and to insert as the last period date, 9/18/64.

Date September 18, 1964

With the use of a Detectron, Model 27, metal detector, Special Agents NAT A. PINKSTON and ROBERT M. BARRETT searched a three hundred square foot area, which area was located at the culvert on the South side of Elm Street in Dealey Plaza. This area was located based on a description of a gouged-out hole in the grass as furnished by Mr. and Mrs. WAYNE E. HARTMAN of Irving, Texas, on August 6, 1964. This gouged-out hole had been observed by the HARTMANs on November 22, 1963, subsequent to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. The HARTMANs had pinpointed the area where they had observed this gouged-out hole from Photographs Seven and Eight from the photography exhibits appearing in the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated November 30, 1963. The area searched was a half-circle area, using the culvert as the center. Found through the use of the metal detector were one bottle cap and one aluminum plug, measuring one inch long and one-half inch wide. No fragments or other evidence was found in the area observed.

Dear Mr. Rankin,

Allow me to appeal to you with a repeated request concerning the return to me of all documents and belongings of my husband, Lee Harvey Oswald. I also request that you send, in my name, a copy of my testimony before the Warren Commission, for which, I will pay the necessary fee. Please excuse me for the importunate trouble I am causing you, but I am compelled to appeal to you, because at the present time I am jointly working with Miss Priscilla Johnson on the book of my life with Lee Oswald. For that reason these documents would help me very much. Once again I ask you to fulfill my request at the earliest opportunity. Thank you.

DATE: September 18, 1964

FROM : C. F. Downing

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka IS - R - CUBA

J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission referred a document in Russian by letter dated September 16, 1964, and requested a translation thereof. This document was received by the Commission from the State Department.

This document was determined to be a copy of a Certificate of Marriage between Lee Harvey Oswald and Marina Nikolaevna Prusakova. It contained substantially the same information as a similar document, previously translated under Bureau Item #434, and furnished to the Commission by letter dated February 1, 1964.

A copy of the referred document has been made and is being retained in Bufiles.

ACTION:

Attached for approval is a proposed reply to Rankin's letter dated September 16, 1964 furnishing the required translation.

INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA

By letter dated September 11, 1964, J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission referred a letter addressed to himself from Mrs. Marina Oswald dated September 9, 1964, and requested that it be translated from the Russian language.

Mrs. Oswald's letter reiterated a previous request that all of her husbands documents and belongings be returned to her and that she be furnished with a transcript of her testimony before the Commission. She said that she is working on a book of her life with Lee Oswald in collaboration with Priscilla Johnson.

ACTION:

Attached for approval is a proposed reply to Rankin's letter dated 9/11/64 furnishing the required translation.

Grinnan, an independent oil man, solicited money for the controversial ad which appeared in "The Dallas Morning News" on 11-22-63, relating to President Kennedy's visit to Dallas. Pollak indicated that the various interviews of Grinnan failed to disclose he had ever been specifically questioned concerning whether he knew Oswald or Ruby. Pollak requested Grinnan be so questioned. Grinnan was interviewed on 9-13-64, and stated he has never known Oswald or Ruby.

ENCLOSURE

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

RUTH PAINE was interviewed at her residence, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas. She was questioned concerning her contact with WALTER NEUNSON, who reportedly had offered MARINA OSWALD a place to stay at his home. She said she recalled WALTER NEUNSON had called her on the telephone from New Jersey to extend to MARINA through her an invitation that MARINA could come to live at his home with his family. She stated she considered NEUNSON's offer to be very generous and that she thought it might have been good for MARINA to live in a large Eastern community where there would be more Russian-speaking persons. She said she had written a letter to MARINA not too long after the assassination to tell MARINA of the offer of NEUNSON, as well as financial offers from other persons. She said she cannot recall now whether she returned NEUNSON's call or if he called her a second time. She said she recalled NEUNSON said MARINA had met his son, EDWARD. She did not discuss this point further with NEUNSON and cannot add anything in this regard. She did not receive an answer from MARINA with regard to her letter telling of NEUNSON's offer. She said she had had no prior contact with NEUNSON and had not been in contact with him since the two occasions noted above.

Mrs. PAINE advised the notations on the back of one of the envelopes containing a letter written by her to MARINA OSWALD, which notations are "Maria Martin AD 9-56-42 Marina Kataya Ford", are not her notations. She said she recognized the name "Kataya Ford" as the name of MARINA's friend, Mrs. DECLAN FORD, whom she, Mrs. PAINE, also knows. She does not know anything about the name "Maria Martin" or the telephone number "AD 9-56-42". She presumes the name "Marina" refers to MARINA OSWALD.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at a cabin in which she was staying with PRISCILLA JOHNSON, her collaborator on a book. During this interview, Mr. DECLAN FORD, adviser to MARINA, was present. PRISCILLA JOHNSON was not present.

MARINA was questioned concerning Exhibit D-248, which is comprised of two letters in the Russian language directed to MARINA by RUTH PAINE; D-245, a letter in the Russian language directed to the OSWALDs from PAVEL GOLOVACHEV; D-247, a handwritten letter in the Russian language to the OSWALDs from "OLYA" and "KOLYA"; and D-246 and D-247, which are letters to MARINA from GALINA KHONTULEVA.

MARINA said she recalls receiving the letter from RUTH PAINE, which furnished information that a Mr. WALTER NEUNSON had offered a place to live to her. She stated she did not know this Mr. NEUNSON and had never written him nor talked to him on the telephone, nor had she received any letters from NEUNSON. She said she had not answered RUTH PAINE's letter concerning NEUNSON. She advised she recalls that RUTH PAINE said NEUNSON told her that MARINA had met NEUNSON's son, EDWARD. MARINA said she could not recall this "EDWARD".

Concerning a person named "EDWARD" whom she had known in Russia, MARINA stated she recalled one young man named "EDWARD" whom she met in Leningrad, Russia, on Russian Revolution Day, November 7 or 8, 1960. She said on this occasion, she was with a young man acquaintance, OLEG TARUSIN, and they were in attendance at a dance at one of the buildings of Leningrad University. She was introduced to this young man, whose name was "EDWARD", and she danced with him. The next day she recalls she visited the apartment of this "EDWARD" with her friend, OLEG TARUSIN. There was no one else in the apartment on that occasion except the three of them to the best of MARINA's knowledge. She said she cannot recall this "EDWARD's" last name or anything else about him except his appearance. She said "EDWARD" was dressed well in clothes which appeared to be other than Russian in origin. She said he was handsome and had a thin appearance. His eyes were dark and he had dark blond hair. She did not see him again after these two occasions.

MARINA stated she could think of no other person named "EDWARD", who might possibly be identical with the son of WALTER NEUNSON named "EDWARD".

MARINA said the writing on the reverse side of one of the envelopes, which contained one of the above-mentioned RUTH PAINE letters, which writing is "Maria Martin. AD 3-56-42 Marina Kataya Ford", were notes made by either her or JAMES HERBERT MARTIN. She said she would have to examine the handwriting to determine who prepared it. She said the name "Maria Martin" referred to her, MARINA, as this was the name under which she had a joint account with JAMES HERBERT MARTIN of moneys which had been donated to her. She said the telephone number AD 9-5642 is the telephone number of her friend and adviser, DECLAN FORD. It will be noted that this telephone number presently is that of DECLAN FORD. She said the name "Marina" pertains to her and the name "Kataya Ford" refers to her friend, Mrs. DECLAN FORD.

MARINA said she has not received any correspondence from PAVEL GOLOVACHEV subsequent to the assassination. The only correspondence she has received from Russia since the assassination have been the two letters from GALINA KHONTULEVA.

She said the person mentioned in Exhibit D-247 - VALERIK VINOKUROV - was a friend of hers in Russia. She said VINOKUROV is a young man about her age who lives in Minsk with his parents. His father is Vice President of the Academy of Science of Belorussia, in Minsk. She does not know his father's name. VINOKUROV was one of the group of friends with whom MARINA associated in Minsk just prior to the time she was married. She stated VINOKUROV was attending the Polytechnical Institute in Minsk at the time she knew him.

She stated that "LYALYA", who is mentioned in the letter labeled Exhibit D-247, is identical with LARISSA PETROVANA PETRUSEVICH, who is another of her friends in Minsk. MARINA considered PETRUSEVICH to be one of her best girl friends.

MARINA advised that she has copies of Exhibits D-246 and D-244, which are the letters from KHONTULEVA noted above.

PURPOSE:

To advise status of investigation requested by the President's Commission letter September 10, 1964, for Commission members and staff and Sol A. Dann and Melvin Belli, former Ruby attorneys, to be interviewed regarding leak of Oswald's diary, Ruby's polygraph examination and Ruby's interview with Chief Justice Warren and the Commission.

BACKGROUND:

We have previously conducted extensive investigation regarding the three leaks with exception of investigation within the Commission itself. Results were furnished to the Commission with the advice that investigation at Commission itself would not be conducted in the absence of a specific request. The Commission has now requested investigation within the Commission regarding the three leaks by letter dated September 10, 1964. Washington Field Office (WFO) was instructed to conduct requested inquiries.

WFO has advised investigation to date discloses a complete lack of organization within the Commission concerning handling of records. There was found to be no document control whatever and no accountability for documents whether classified or not. It was also determined out of 62 persons employed by the Commission 32 are no longer employed or living in the Washington, D. C. area. Efforts are being made to locate these individuals for interviews by field offices covering their present location.

With respect to the leak to Dorothy Kilgallen and the "New York Journal American" of the transcript of Ruby's interview, it has been determined an unknown number of copies of this document were made from the original upon receipt at the Commission. Only five copies are known to have a confidential stamp on page 103, which is the stenographer's certification. The published transcript in Kilgallen's column also contains a confidential stamp indicating the possibility that one of these five copies was the source of the leak. The five copies bearing the "confidential" notation were distributed within the Commission to:

1. Norman Redlich, Legal Consultant
2. Senator Richard B. Russell, Commission member
3. Burt W. Griffin, Legal Consultant
4. Retained for use of Commission staff
5. Congressman Gerald R. Ford, Commission member

Kilgallen, during a previous interview, advised she would not reveal the source from whom she received copies of the transcript. However, she did not indicate she would not be of assistance. She mentioned she made copies of the Ruby transcript and also had Photostat copies made. She also mentioned she did not tell the newspaper the source of her information. It is recommended efforts be made to obtain from Kilgallen the copy of the transcript she has in her possession. Also, that the "New York Journal American" be contacted and attempt to obtain the photograph used to reproduce page 103 of the transcript and to determine if the newspaper has a copy of the transcript Kilgallen used in preparing her article. If these documents are obtained, they will be compared with the questioned five copies.

The Commission also furnished one copy of the transcript to Ruby's attorney, Joe Tonahill. An effort will be made to obtain his copy to determine if it bears the confidential stamp and merits comparison.

ACTION:

By teletype attached, New York and Dallas are being instructed to obtain the material from Dorothy Kilgallen, "New York Journal American" and Joe Tonahill.

The five confidential transcripts and original transcript obtained from the President's Commission have been furnished to the Laboratory for examination.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Enclosed are two photographic copies each of page one and the center section, pages sixteen and seventeen, of the "National Enquirer" volume thirty-eight, number fifty-one, dated August 30, 1964, relating to the autopsy of Lee Harvey Oswald.

The enclosed photographic copies were made from an issue of the above newspaper borrowed from the New York Public Library.

We have no information relating to how the "National Enquirer" obtained the autopsy photograph of Lee Harvey Oswald. The enclosed are being furnished for your information and no further action is being taken in this matter.

NOTE:

A citizen wrote to the Bureau and enclosed the center section of the above paper which is the autopsy photograph taken of Oswald at Parkland Memorial Hospital. The "Enquirer" is an unsavory newspaper which deals in sensationalism. How this paper came into possession of the photograph is unknown. Our New York Office made extensive efforts to obtain a copy of this newspaper, but because of the limited circulation of same, was unsuccessful. Unless specifically advised by the President's Commission to continue further investigation, no further action appears warranted.

NOTE:

As a result of a letter dated 9/10/64, immediate investigation was initiated concerning this matter. This is an intensive investigation requiring numerous interviews regarding the various leaks. WFO's investigation to date discloses a complete lack of organization within the Commission concerning handling of records, and there was found to be no document control and no accountability for documents whether classified or not. It has been determined there were 62 people employed by the Commission, the majority of whom have now been interviewed. Copies of Ruby's testimony before Chief Justice Warren has been obtained from the Commission. This was the document which appeared in the "New York Journal American" under the by-line of Dorothy Kilgallen. We are currently endeavoring to obtain from the "New York Journal American" and Dorothy Kilgallen any copies of the transcript of Ruby's testimony so that these documents can be compared with the transcripts now in the possession of the Laboratory obtained from The President's Commission. The results of this examination will be furnished to the President's Commission. It is noted that the memoranda enclosed comprise 248 pages. The two memoranda dated 9/21/64, Washington, D. C. captioned "Lee Harvey Oswald" and "Jack L. Ruby - Lee Harvey Oswald" have been reviewed by Mr. Belmont, Mr. Malley and appropriate supervisors. Additional memoranda attached have been reviewed by supervisor only.

Re telephone call from Inspector JAMES R. MALLEY on morning of 8/28/64, concerning investigation in an effort to identify the latent fingerprints and palm prints appearing on the four cardboard cartons recovered from near the sixth floor window of the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD), and telephone call of SAC J. GORDON SHANKLIN to Mr. GEORGE M. SCATTERDAY, morning of 9/14/64.

Enclosed are ten copies of a letterhead memorandum reflecting a summary of investigation conducted with respect to the latent fingerprints and palm prints on the four cardboard cartons (Exhibit C40).

Investigation is continuing as reflected in the letterhead memorandum in an effort to identify the one remaining latent palm print. The Bureau's attention, however, is called to the interviews set forth in the enclosed letterhead memorandum, wherein it should be noted that the cardboard cartons remained at the TSBD after the assassination until 11/25/63, and were made available to a representative of the FBI on 11/26/63. The identities of numerous people who were on the sixth floor of the TSBD from 11/22/63, until 11/25/63, while the four cardboard cartons were there, are unknown, and it does not appear that investigation will ever establish the identities of all such persons.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The following is a summary of investigation conducted in an effort to identify all the identifiable latent fingerprints and palm prints found on the four cartons, which have been identified as Exhibit C40, recovered from near the sixth floor window of the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD), 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, following the assassination of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy on November 22, 1963:

By letter dated March 30, 1964, to the President's Commission from Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Headquarters, Washington, D. C., it was pointed out that employees of the TSBD had not been fingerprinted or palm printed by the FBI, U. S. Secret Service, or the Dallas Police Department. This letter related to 19 identifiable latent fingerprints and six identifiable latent palm prints, which figures do not include the one fingerprint and the one palm print on the four cardboard cartons which have been identified as those of Lee Harvey Oswald.

As reflected on page 363 of the report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling, dated December 10, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, the Latent Fingerprint Section of the Identification Division of the FBI under date of November 29, 1963, advised that an examination of one piece of cardboard bearing a latent palm print and the four cardboard boxes, which have since been identified as Exhibit C40, revealed that the one latent palm print on the piece of cardboard carton taken from one of the cartons was identified as the right palm print of Oswald. This examination further revealed one latent fingerprint and one latent palm print developed on the cardboard box marked "A" as the fingerprint and palm print of Oswald.

On August 31, 1964, fingerprints and palm prints of the following employees of the Dallas Office of the FBI were submitted to the Latent Fingerprint Section of the Identification Division of the FBI for comparison with the identifiable latent fingerprints and palm prints on the four cardboard cartons:

ENCLOSURE

Special Agent Nat A. Pinkston, who was on the sixth floor of the TSBD immediately after the assassination;
Clerk L. Joseph Hersley;
Clerk Carl E. Walters;
Clerk Forest L. Lucy.

The three above-named clerks of the FBI have occasion to handle mail and assist in the wrapping of packages in the Dallas Office of the FBI.

Mr. ROY S. TRULY, Warehouse Superintendent, Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, Texas, (TSBD), advised that it is his recollection that the three cartons of books stacked up on the sixth floor, which were apparently used as a support for the rifle, and the one carton, apparently used as a seat, contained the "Think and Do" books, "People and Progress", and the "Second Rolling Reader" books. His records indicate that George Banta Company, Incorporated, Menasha, Wisconsin, on September 26, 1963, shipped Texas School Book Depository Order Number 1327, containing the "Think and Do" books, "People and Progress", via freight, and they were in railroad car # 30465 Milwaukee. The boxcar was switched to the siding in Dallas, Texas, by the Texas and Pacific Railroad, and unloaded by employees of the TSBD on October 2, 1963. Scott, Foresman and Company, Pinola, Illinois, shipped TSBD Order Number 2377-2380, containing the "Second Rolling Reader" books, on October 9, 1963, via La Porte Transit Company, Incorporated, their Freight Bill Number H34680, from Pinola, Illinois, to Chicago, Illinois. From Chicago, Illinois, to Dallas, Texas, this shipment was handled by East Texas Motor Freight, their Freight Bill Number 61-045001, and was delivered by that company in Dallas, Texas, on October 14, 1963.

Mr. TRULY stated that from the time these cartons of books were received at TSBD until the four cartons were picked up by the Dallas Police Department as evidence in the assassination of President KENNEDY, the only employees, who could possibly have handled the cartons, were HAROLD DEAN NORMAN, CARL EDWARD JONES, former employees, and present employees EDWARD SHIELDS, DANIEL GARCIA ARCE, JACK EDWIN DOUGHERTY, BUELL WESLEY FRAZIER, CHARLES DOUGLAS GIVENS, JAMES EARL JARMAN, JR., FRANKIE KAISER, ROY EDWARD LEWIS, BILLY NOLAN LOVELADY, EDDIE PIPER, WILLIAM HOYT SHELLEY, TROY EUGENE WEST, and BONNIE RAY WILLIAMS.

Mr. TRULY stated that when the floor paneling was done at the TSBD building, any movement of the cartons of books was handled by these employees listed above. None of the employees handling these cartons ever wear gloves.

Mr. TRULY related that within fifteen minutes after the shots were fired at President KENNEDY, there were numerous people all over the TSBD building, and he did not know any of them. He assumed that many of them were law enforcement officers, although they were not in uniform. A number of uniformed officers of the Dallas Police Department were making a systematic search of the building and were guarding the doors to the building. About thirty minutes after the shots were fired, Mr. TRULY was on the sixth floor of this building, and a number of newspaper, radio and television reporters and photographers were on that floor, as well as Captain WILL FRITZ of the Dallas Police Department. Mr. TRULY said he had no idea who these news media people were, but knew that they did represent the news media, because a number of them were trying to interview him. He does not know who may have handled any cartons on the sixth floor of the TSBD building, from the time the shots were fired until they were removed by the Dallas Police Department, except he is positive that none of the TSBD employees touched the boxes except those listed above, who may have handled them prior to the assassination. Mr. TRULY stated he believes it is very possible that spectators and others, who are not connected with any law enforcement agency or news media, were wandering around the TSBD building the afternoon following the assassination. He is positive as to which of the TSBD employees could have touched these cartons of books, but he has no idea who else may have handled the cartons following the assassination.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On September 2, 1964, fingerprints and palm prints of the following individuals who were employees of the TSBD on November 22, 1963, were submitted to the Latent Fingerprint Section of the Identification Division of the FBI for comparison with the identifiable latent fingerprints and palm prints on the four cardboard cartons.

Roy S. Truly
Carl Edward Jones
Harold Dean Norman
Edward Shields

It should be noted that on June 15, 1964, fingerprints and palm prints were obtained from the following employees of TSBD and submitted to the Latent Fingerprint Section of the Identification Division of the FBI for comparison with the identifiable latent fingerprints and palm prints on the four cardboard cartons:

Daniel Garcia Arce

Captain GEORGE M. DOUGHTY, Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, advised on August 31, 1964, that the four cardboard boxes, which were recovered from the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository by Lieutenant J. CARL DAY and Detective R. L. STUDEBAKER, were brought to the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory on the morning of November 25, 1963, by DAY and STUDEBAKER. According to DOUGHTY, these boxes had been previously dusted for fingerprints on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, by DAY and STUDEBAKER. These boxes were believed by Lieutenant DAY and Detective STUDEBAKER to have been used as a shield and a rest by LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the time he fired the shots on November 22, 1963, at President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY.

Captain DOUGHTY stated that these boxes were not brought to the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, since they had been dusted for fingerprints, and only one palm print was found on one of these boxes, which in his opinion had been used as a seat by OSWALD prior to the time he fired at the President and Governor CONNALLY. The portion of the palm print, that was raised by the use of fingerprint powder, was cut out of the box on Friday afternoon, November 22, 1963, and brought to the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory by Lieutenant DAY. It was not decided that these boxes should be brought to the Crime Laboratory until November 25, 1963, at which time Lieutenant DAY and Detective STUDEBAKER went to the Texas School Book Depository and brought these boxes to the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory.

Captain DOUGHTY stated he had made a survey of his department, and the following individuals had handled these boxes:

Lieutenant J. CARL DAY, Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed on August 31, 1964.

Lieutenant DAY stated he was accompanied to the Texas School Book Depository by Detective R. L. STUDEBAKER, Dallas Police Crime Laboratory, for examination of evidence after shots had been fired at President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY. He stated, to the best of his recollection, this was about 1:12 p.m., November 22, 1963. He stated that four cardboard boxes were stacked against the sixth floor window overlooking the street. These boxes were dusted for fingerprints, since it was their opinion that the boxes possibly had been used as a shield and a rest for the person who fired the rifle at President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY. He stated after dusting these boxes, a palm print was raised on the box, which was believed to have been the box that the person firing the rifle had been sitting on. This part of the box, which contained the palm print, was cut out and brought to the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory. The boxes were then left on the sixth floor and not taken to the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory until the morning of November 25, 1963. Lieutenant DAY stated that it did not seem pertinent to him at the time, since there were no other prints on these boxes that he observed.

Lieutenant DAY stated that on Saturday, November 23, 1963, many persons unknown to him had apparently been on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building and had taken a lot of photographs, in view of the fact that he noticed many empty film pack cartons near where the boxes were located, and the boxes had been re-arranged, apparently for the purpose of taking photographs.

Lieutenant J. CARL DAY, Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed on August 31, 1964.

Lieutenant DAY advised that he found four cardboard boxes near the window on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository on November 22, 1963. These boxes were believed to have been used by LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the time he shot President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963. These boxes were handled by Lieutenant DAY in his examination and processing of the boxes for latent prints.

On August 31, 1964, fingerprints and palm prints were taken from Lieutenant DAY by Special Agent JAMES W. BOOKHOUT and forwarded to the FBI Identification Division for elimination purposes and comparison with prints that were found on these boxes of unknown origin.

ROBERT LEE STUDEBAKER, Detective, Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed on September 3, 1964.

Detective STUDEBAKER stated that he arrived very shortly before 2:00 p.m. at the Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963. Detective STUDEBAKER stated he accompanied Lieutenant J. CARL DAY, Dallas Crime Laboratory, to the sixth floor of this building. Detective STUDEBAKER related that their mission was to do a crime scene search of the area in which it was believed that the shots came from that were fired at President KENNEDY and Governor CONNALLY. According to Detective STUDEBAKER, while Lieutenant DAY was dusting for fingerprints from boxes which were stacked near the window, STUDEBAKER was photographing the area on the sixth floor near the window from which the shots were believed to have been fired.

Detective STUDEBAKER advised that he handled the four cardboard boxes that where sent to the FBI Laboratory for examination purposes. Detective STUDEBAKER stated he was so concerned with his own duties on the sixth floor during the period shortly before 2:00 p.m. on November 22, 1963, and for a period of approximately two hours thereafter that he paid very little attention to other people who were on the sixth floor. Detective STUDEBAKER stated, however, that he did notice that there were numerous uniformed police officers on the sixth floor during the period he was there. He advised there were literally dozens of news media representatives from radio and television stations, newspapers and magazines. STUDEBAKER related that he did not pay enough attention to any of these individuals to recognize them, and, as far as he knew, there were no restrictions on newsmen and law enforcement officers from moving freely about the sixth floor. He stated that any one of these individuals may have possibly handled the four cardboard boxes that were sent to the FBI Laboratory for examination.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to

STUDEBAKER stated that on Saturday, November 23, 1963, newsmen were all over the building and particularly on the sixth floor photographing and generally looking for and examining anything that might have been related to the shooting of President KENNEDY and Governor CONNALLY.

STUDEBAKER stated that on November 24, 1963, he was again at the Texas School Book Depository and observed dozens of newsmen in the Texas School Book Depository building. He stated some of these individuals were believed by him to be newspaper correspondents and television people from England, France, Spain and Germany. He stated he was conscious there were many members of the foreign press taking pictures. Detective STUDEBAKER stated that although there were many uniformed officers there during the periods he was there on November 22, 23 and 24, 1963, he actually paid no attention to the identities of these individuals and did not recall any specific names. STUDEBAKER stated he saw what he believed were Deputy Sheriffs on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building on November 22, 1963, but does not know their identities. STUDEBAKER stated it was his personal opinion that there was very little restriction, if any, on people moving freely in and out of the Texas School Book Depository on November 22, 23, and 24, 1963.

BOBBY GENE BROWN, Detective, Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed on September 8, 1964, at the Dallas Police Department.

Detective BROWN advised he was at the Texas School Book Depository on November 23, 1963, at which time he assisted Detective STUDEBAKER and Lieutenant DAY in the charting and drawing of the Texas School Book Depository building. He stated that he handled four cardboard boxes which were stacked near the window and which were believed to have been used by OSWALD as a rest for his rifle at the time he shot President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963.

A set of fingerprints and palm prints were taken from Detective BROWN by Special Agent VINCENT E. DRAIN and submitted to the FBI Identification Division for comparison with the prints found on these boxes.

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

By letter dated April 7, 1964, the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy requested investigation be conducted to determine the source of the funds used to pay for an advertisement appearing in "The Dallas Morning News" on November 22, 1963.

Certain information concerning this advertisement appears on pages 684 and 721 of the report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling dated December 10, 1963, at Dallas, Texas.

Additional information in this regard, and in particular the interviews of Joseph P. Grinnan, 811 Wilson Building, Dallas, Texas, is recorded on pages 298 to 304 of the May 28, 1964, report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling at Dallas, Texas.

On September 17, 1964, the President's Commission requested reinterview of Mr. Grinnan to specifically determine if he ever knew Lee Harvey Oswald or Jack L. Ruby.

On September 18, 1964, Joseph P. Grinnan, Room 811, Wilson Building, Dallas, Texas, advised that he has never known either Lee Harvey Oswald or Jack L. Ruby.

Reference is made to the bulky exhibit inventory forms executed by your office 8/7/64 wherein you listed the inventory of property acquired as evidence in the Lee Harvey Oswald investigation.

In reviewing the bulky exhibit inventory forms mentioned above, the Bureau noted certain discrepancies which are listed as follows:

In connection with property acquired by your office 11/26/63, you will note the following:

(1) The inventory list submitted by your office has been superceded by the list furnished to your office by the FBI Laboratory dated 2/1/64. The revised list was prepared from a check of the actual evidence submitted.. The 11/26/63 list submitted by your office is incomplete and is not completely accurate.

(2) Item 330 has been returned to Ruth Paine.

(3) Lee Harvey Oswald's wallet contained 14 items when received, instead of 16 items. Two items had been removed by your office and submitted separately. You will note that the FBI Laboratory inventory list of 2/1/64, referred to in number one above, correctly lists the items submitted with Oswald's wallet.

In connection with property acquired by your office 12/17/63 you will note that Item C226 is maintained by the FBI Laboratory rather than in the bulky exhibit files of your office.

In connection with property acquired 1/30/64, you should note that number five, which consists of a listing of two pairs of trousers, should be Item Number C231 and Item Number C232 instead of just Item C232. You should also note that number eight should be Item Number C235 instead of Item Number C236.

In connection with property acquired 3/26/64, you should note that Item Number C302 should be Item Number C309.

The aforementioned corrections should be made in your copies of the bulky exhibit inventory maintained by your office in this matter.

NOTE:

Dallas Office has submitted a complete copy of its bulky exhibit inventory it maintains of property acquired as evidence in the Oswald case. The Laboratory has made a check of all items of evidence listed by Dallas in its bulky exhibit inventory and noted certain minor discrepancies. These are being brought to the attention of the Dallas Office for its information and correction of its records.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

SEYMOUR resides with his sister, ELLA DUPUIS, and her husband, LARRY J. DUPUIS, at 3638 West Lewis, Phoenix. SEYMOUR is presently employed as a welder at the Hudspeth Steel and Manufacturing Company, Glendale, Arizona.

SEYMOUR previously resided in Tucson, Arizona, and in March, 1962, went to Florida. While in Florida he became active in the Anti-Castro movement and aided in the training of various persons, mainly exiled Cubans, for a possible invasion of Cuba to depose FIDEL CASTRO. While in that area he became acquainted with LORAN EUGENE HALL. SEYMOUR was employed at various places and during September, 1963, he was employed as a welder with Beach Welding, Miami Beach, Florida. He had worked for them once before. SEYMOUR could not recall the date he went back to work for Beach Welding, but it was before September 1, 1963. He worked for them until about a week or so after October 1, 1963, when he quit to take a trip with HALL to Dallas, Texas.

SEYMOUR stated that sometime during late September, 1963, HALL and another acquaintance of theirs, LAWRENCE [illegible], went to Los Angeles, California, and had brought a trailer of supplies as far as Dallas, Texas, and had left them there. HALL and SEYMOUR were driving to Dallas in HALL's car to get this luggage trailer and bring it on to Florida.

HALL and SEYMOUR drove straight through and arrived in Dallas about five days before their arrest by the Dallas, Texas, Police Department which was October 17, 1963. Upon their arrival in Dallas, they contacted a Cuban friend of HALL's. SEYMOUR could not recall the name of this person. The Cuban resided in an apartment house on the second floor. Neither HALL nor SEYMOUR contacted anyone else in this apartment house. HALL, SEYMOUR and the Cuban went out and had coffee together. This was merely a social visit.

SEYMOUR and HALL spent the first night at the Salvation Army in said city, and the rest of the time in Dallas at the Young Men's Christian Association, Dallas.

The only other persons that HALL and SEYMOUR contacted in Dallas were an American girlfriend of HALL's and a man by the name of LESTER LOGUE (Phonetic). SEYMOUR stayed in the car while HALL visited the girl. SEYMOUR stated that LOGUE had an office in a building in downtown Dallas and had something to do with minerals or oil. On one occasion HALL and SEYMOUR contacted LOGUE at his home. SEYMOUR could not further describe the location of the places of these individuals in Dallas. He explained that HALL was doing all of the contacting and that he, SEYMOUR, was merely going along "for the ride".

SEYMOUR explained their arrest by the Dallas Police Department by the fact that HALL had a long beard and that the police became suspicious of them and stopped them to interrogate them. While talking to them the police located some drugs which they used in Florida to keep themselves awake during their training. HALL was charged with the possession of dangerous drugs while SEYMOUR was merely detained, but not actually arrested. Both were fingerprinted and photographed by the Dallas Police Department.

HALL and SEYMOUR spent one night after their arrest in Dallas and left at dark the second night with the trailer enroute to Florida. They drove straight through to Florida.

SEYMOUR stated that he has never heard of the names of SILVIO ODIO, Mrs. ODIO, LEOPOLDO or ANGELO. He has never had any contact with nor has he met LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He has only read about OSWALD in the newspaper or heard of him on the radio or television. At no time did he, SEYMOUR, visit with any person at any apartment by the name of ODIO, nor did they contact any professors in Dallas. They did not go to any university in Dallas. He had never heard of the address, 1090 Magellan Circle, Dallas.

SEYMOUR further stated that LAWRENCE HOWARD was not with them at anytime while they were in Dallas in

CWA/vtr

October, 1963. SEYMOUR stated that while he has never met "KIKI" MAS FERRER, this individual is a brother to ROLANDO MAS FERRER, a former Cuban Senator during the Baptista regime. "KIKI" generally lives in Florida. SEYMOUR pointed out that ROLANDO MAS FERRER is generally known also as "El Tigre" (The Tiger). SEYMOUR did not contact anyone by the name of [illegible] in Miami.

SEYMOUR stated that LAWRENCE HOWARD's father was Irish and his mother was of Mexican descent. HOWARD is married to a Mexican girl and speaks Spanish fluently. SEYMOUR stated that [illegible] Spanish quite well and [illegible] fairly well. HALL speaks more [illegible] as well as SEYMOUR.

SEYMOUR stated that HOWARD as of two or three weeks ago was residing at [illegible] Blanchard Street, Los Angeles 33, California. SEYMOUR further stated that he did not leave Florida between March [illegible] and October, 1963.

[illegible] that the trailer contained some [illegible] the anti-Castro forces, but that HALL was [illegible] arms near Key Largo, Florida, by the U. S. Customs [illegible] who confiscated them. HOWARD and SEYMOUR became disgusted at HALL for this and the way he "ran off at the mouth" when he was stopped. Both HOWARD and SEYMOUR gave up any attempt to help the Anti-Castro Cubans and returned to their homes.

SEYMOUR described HALL as a loud mouth, boisterous, a filthy talking individual, a liar, one who likes to tell a story and include himself in as one of the "big wheels" when he actually had nothing to do with the story, and as one who is given to exaggerations.

SEYMOUR furnished the following description:

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to my letter dated September 4, 1964, concerning the possibility Lee Harvey Oswald had a telescopic sight mounted and sighted at the Irving Sport Shop, Irving, Texas.

Enclosed for your information are two copies of a self-explanatory communication from our Dallas Office dated September 21, 1964, relating to information furnished by Mrs. J. T. (Gertrude) Hunter.

NOTE: Hunter and Edith Whitworth have somewhat substantiated an allegation that Oswald had the sight mounted at the Sport Shop. Both women stated they saw Oswald, his wife and child at a furniture store owned by Whitworth and directed the family to the gun shop. The circumstances of this situation indicate the allegation is false and the women are mistaken in their identification. Hunter is reportedly known to exaggerate and to have an "obsession" to inject herself into any big event. The enclosed communication discloses on 9-12-64, Hunter was contacted by an NBC reporter who indicated he previously spoke with Whitworth and wanted to interview Hunter. Hunter stated she didn't desire to be interviewed and suggested Whitworth was seeking publicity. In view of the Commission's prior interest in these women the above communication and enclosure are being furnished.

NOTE:

Enclosed memoranda have been approved for dissemination by Messrs. Belmont and Malley. Odio is a Cuban exile who has been undergoing psychiatric treatment. She claims that Oswald and two men visited at her apartment in Dallas on 9-26 or 9-27, 1963. This is not possible and investigation is attempting to disprove her claims. The enclosed letterheads dealing with her personal background show Odio to be an unstable individual.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

In the Enquirer (Vol. 38, No. 51 Aug. 30) they show a picture of Oswald's corpse. We dont believe some of the articles because they are too fantastic. We would like to know if this is really Mr. Oswald's corpse? If so did they have permission to print it?

There is also an article in the same magazine, Vol. 38, No. 47, Aug. 2, about Robert Kennedy hitting President Johnson. Is this true, and if it is why wasn't it on television.

We would also like to know if what they said about you in Vol 38, No. 43, July 5, is true.

Enclosed are the articles and a stamped, self addressed envelope.

'Vision' Helps a Man to Regain His Voice After 20 Years

Every night for 20 years Benedicto Mukasa dreamed that when he woke up in the morning, he'd be able to speak to his wife and children.

He had lost his voice after a long illness — and all he was able to do when he tried to talk was to utter hoarse groans and grunts.

Then last July 19 Benedicto woke up and he spoke — and his wife was so surprised she fainted. She thought her husband was uttering his dying words.

Mukasa, a 56-year-old farmer in Uganda, Africa, revived his wife by quietly talking to her until she realized he was not dying and that he was really speaking.

Both knew that doctors had given up all hope of Mukasa ever being able to speak to anyone again.

On the day before Mukasa regained his speech, he had felt pains in his throat while praying in church.

The pains continued until just before he went to bed. Then they disappeared.

He said later: "While I was dreaming that night, I saw a vision. It told me to wake up and start talking. I did and to my amazement I could hear myself speak.

"Now I spend hours reading stories to my children."

Mukasa says he prays he'll have his voice for the rest of his life. He says:

dence which he will send to the Vatican in Rome. There, a committee will decide whether or not this vision really was a miracle.

"I have no doubts. It was a miracle. I talk all day now — just in case I ever lose my voice again.

"After 20 years of being silent, I'm hoping and praying that I will be able to speak for the rest of my life."

PRAYS: Benedicto Mukasa prays that he'll be able to speak for rest of his life.

What is KASHI-NO-BO?

It is an Oriental fighting method that uses a small, specially-made weapon you hold in your palm.

The KASHI-NO-BO weapon gives you a special advantage over any would-be attacker because every inch of it spells deadly trouble.

MAKES YOU MASTER

The powerful KASHI-NO-BO Weapon turns your fist into dynamite . . . crushes bones, rips flesh, makes your opponents BEG for mercy.

And you can use it as an effective shield against flick knives, switchblades, chains, brass knuckles and anything else your attackers use.

Yes, thugs who know about KASHI-NO-BO — after only one encounter — run at the sight of the stick-like weapon!

BETTER THAN JUDO

KASHI-NO-BO is unbeatable because it COMBINES the world's best fighting techniques — death-dealing, bone-crushing YAWARA, crippling ATE-WAZA, aggressive KARATE, offensive and scientific JUDO with its unique maneuvers, fatal blows and attacks that "persuade" others to leave you alone.

Best of all, you can switch to ANY of these techniques at ANY TIME in hand-to-hand combat — quickly, easily, automatically, once you learn amazing KASHI-NO-BO.

EASY TO USE

If you'll fill out the coupon below, you will receive the complete KASHI-NO-BO kit, containing not only the deadly stick-weapon but also a lavishly illustrated course showing, in action-packed pictures, by world-famous experts, — demonstrating every shattering maneuver against street fighters, muggers, professional fighters and EVEN men armed with knives and other weapons.

This book is so clearly written, so well-organized in step-by-step, "how to do it" chapters, that you will be able to use the KASHI-NO-BO the very first day.

COMPLETELY LEGAL

What's more, the KASHI-NO-BO defense weapon is perfectly legal. You need no permit to carry it, there are no laws against it. Unlike flick knives, switchblades and zip guns, the KASHI-NO-BO is harmless in itself. It is only deadly when you know how to use it.

This means that even if an attacker should get hold of your weapon before you can bring it into action, he is unable to use it against you.

And because the KASHI-NO-BO is so small, you can carry it in your pocket, wherever you go.

MUST WORK FOR YOU

KASHI-NO-BO must work for you because it has worked for thousands of others.

It is widely used in the Orient, by men and women who are too old, too young, or too weak to defend themselves by brute muscle.

The KASHI-NO-BO device makes up for this lack — gives you a fist of steel. You control the same power as a Karate expert, without spending years hardening your hands by striking them against a wood plank or bricks.

In fact, the KASHI-NO-BO was developed by Oriental experts who wanted to shorten the time spent strengthening the hands.

USED BY UN POLICE

So EFFECTIVE is KASHI-NO-BO against attacks that picked United Nations security guards have just completed training in its use.

And police around the world use KASHI-NO-BO techniques to put down riots, calm down "tough guys," and restore law and order.

You've probably seen KASHI-NO-BO in action dozens of times without realizing it.

WIN NEW RESPECT!

Win the respect and admiration of everyone you meet RIGHT NOW — through the AMAZING as good (and maybe better) than anyone else.

NO-RISK OFFER

Send for your KASHI-NO-BO Kit today, and put it to the test. Try it playfully on your friends, family, neighbors (but please be careful not to hurt them).

Enjoy new power for TWO FULL weeks. Then, if you're still not convinced, don't even bother returning the book. You'll get a refund anyway.

Just tear it up and throw it away if you're not satisfied. Mail us the cover and you get back every cent you spent.

FREE GIFT

With each KASHI-NO-BO Kit you get a genuine, custom-made KASHI-NO-BO defense-attack weapon absolutely free.

That's right. Even if you ask for a refund, the KASHI-NO-BO is yours to keep.

But please act fast. Our supply of the special KASHI-NO-BO device is limited. Mail the coupon now.

Foster Dad 'Reforms' Juvenile Delinquents—By Teaching 'Em To Steal

By ROBERT WARNER

It seemed grand the way kindly Lindell Jay Schneider loved to help youngsters. He was a foster father to troubled boys.

The boys were paroled to his home by juvenile authorities, and in nearly three years he had cared for quite a lot of them. And during the Christmas seasons Schneider, 53, went out and worked as a Santa Claus.

All in all, authorities were mighty pleased with the way Schneider operated — until they suddenly found out about another operation he was conducting in his foster home.

He was teaching the boys how to steal! And he was taking most of the loot for himself.

Since early in 1961, Schneider had been taking [illegible] into his home in Lakeside, Calif., where he lived with his wife and two children. The boys, who were in trouble with the law, were sent to him by the California Youth Authority. He was paid $20 a month for taking care of each of them.

Between then and October 1963 he cared for 12 boys, generally having about four at a time in the home.

Schneider had been injured in a tractor accident in a garden in April 1961 and had no steady employment since then. He worked at odd jobs and supplemented his income by "reforming" the foster boys.

For the three Christmas seasons of 1961 to 1963 he also worked as a Santa Claus for a businessmen's group.

The Youth Authority never had any reason to doubt its faith in Schneider until last fall when a 16-year-old boy in his home went to police and told them that Schneider had him and other boys steal things for him.

The boy said that on several occasions he had stolen bags of feed at a nearby ranch and dumped them over a fence to the waiting Schneider.

Deputy District Attorney Russell Hill said: "One of the boys was caught with food taken from a neighbor's refrigerator. Schneider told him: 'Go back and get the rest of it.'"

Three other boys told of stealing feed, drill bits, horse reins, radio tubes and a TV set under Schneider's instructions.

One of the boys said Schneider took him to a TV shop, parked his small truck at a side entrance and then told the boy that he would go in the front door and talk to the owner to divert his attention while the boy slipped in the side door and stole a television set.

TEACHER: L.J. Schneider.

And that's how they did it, the boy said.

Another boy told how Schneider instructed him on how to steal a briefcase from the back of a parked auto. When they got home after stealing the briefcase, they opened it and found a checkbook from a business firm.

The boy said Schneider showed him how to make out a forged check. The boy made one out for $125 and cashed it in a store. Later, he made out two more and cashed them.

The boys all said they gave Schneider the loot from their thefts and that he kept most of it, merely giving them a little spending money.

Following an investigation police went to Schneider's home and arrested him. Last March 26, Schneider pleaded guilty to receiving stolen property.

Judge William P. Mahedy delayed sentence pending a probation report on Schneider.

When it came, the probation officer's report said: "In him was placed a special trust, that of assisting in the rehabilitation of youths who needed the guidance of a person of integrity.

"Schneider set an example of a person clever and scheming at helping himself. He profited by the weaknesses of his youthful followers."

Last April 30 Schneider was sentenced to a year in jail.

Doc Touches a Dead Man Back to Life

By ERIC WRIGHT

Pow! The doctor gave Don Wares a terrific punch in the chest.

Pow! Pow! Pow! Again and again the doctor belted Don.

And it saved his life — because the punches restarted Don's heart, which had stopped after the truck he was driving crashed and turned over in Glasgow, Scotland, last April 28.

Said Dr. Reginald McKay: "A good punch can sometimes start a heart working again.

"Wares was knocked unconscious and then choked to death when a piece of heavy timber from the pile on his truck fell across his throat.

"He was medically dead when his rescuers pulled him out.

"His heart had stopped beating.

PLEASED as punch at being alive, Don Wares grins.

"I had been called to help. It was an emergency and I realized immediately that there wasn't any time to waste.

"So I did what I thought best in the circumstances — I punched him in the left side of his chest.

"It took a lot of punches to jolt him back to life.

"But in the end he started breathing again.

"We gave him oxygen in the ambulance and treated him at the hospital for some bruises.

"He was soon okay again."

Said Don, who is married and the father of two girls, age 10 and 11:

"I'm back driving my truck — thanks to Doc McKay.

"Until my accident, I had always avoided violence of any sort, especially fights.

"But now, well . . ." — he gave a wink. "Now anyone can take a punch at me anytime!"

Threats Force Murder Witness to Move — She's Killed in Fall From Moving Van

Testifying in a murder trial was the beginning of the end for 21-year-old Mrs. Joan Oglesby.

The Atlanta, Ga., divorcee had witnessed a fatal shooting and her testimony had helped to convict the killer.

After that her life became a nightmare.

She began to get threatening phone calls against her life and the lives of her two children.

One day last June, she went to see Homicide Detective J.E. Hendrix and cried as she told him that the anonymous calls frightened her.

"She told me she was going to move to try to get away from the threats," Detective Hendrix said later.

Mrs. Oglesby carried out her plan. June 22 was moving day.

Then tragedy struck.

Mrs. Oglesby grabbed for something that had come loose and was falling off the truck — but in reaching for it, she toppled off the moving van.

The young mother hit the street headfirst and was killed.

On September 3, 1964, Miss VELIA URIBE, Manager, American Automobile Association, Laredo, Texas, advised that she has been receiving the pamphlet, "This Week - Esta Semana," on a weekly basis for at least the past [illegible] years for distribution to tourists traveling to Mexico.

She advised that this pamphlet is published in Mexico City and is mailed directly from there to travel agencies, travel clubs, hotels, and motels.

On September 7, 1964, Miss VELIA URIBE, American Automobile Association, Laredo, advised she does not have a current copy of the publication, "This Week - Esta Semana."

She does not pay too much attention to dates of this publication; however, she usually receives her copies from Mexico City on Mondays. In order to keep them current on a weekly basis, they are printed about four days earlier than for the dates for which they are printed.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

She is of the opinion that it is entirely possible that a person going into Mexico on September 26, 1963, could have obtained in Laredo, Texas, or Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, a copy of the pamphlet, "This Week - Esta Semana," issued for the week of September 28 - October 4, 1963, as that publication would have already been received in Laredo and in Nuevo Laredo.

She added that her supply of this publication was distributed very rapidly when received.

On September 3, 1964, FRANCISCO SALIDO, Manager, El Rio Motel, Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, advised that this motel has been in existence for three years, and during this time he has received the pamphlet, "This Week - Esta Semana," on a weekly basis for distribution to tourists going into Mexico.

On September 3, 1964, HERADIO HINOJOSA, Manager, Laredo Estate (Private Tourist Office), Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, advised that his office was established for the benefit of tourists going into the interior of Mexico. In addition to permits and other information a tourist [illegible] receiving the pamphlet, "This Week - Esta Semana," from Mexico City for at least five

On September 3, 1964, JOHN W. LIGON, Manager, Plaza Hotel, Laredo, Texas, advised that he receives the pamphlet, "This Week - Esta Semana," from Mexico City on a weekly basis.

He advised that this is not to say that for the past year he has received a pamphlet every week, as there have been times when he did not receive it for a particular week. He explained that this was probably the fault of the Circulation Department in Mexico City.

The latest copy he has is for the week of August 22-August 28, 1964. This is his personal copy, and he has no other supply of this pamphlet. Generally, he receives the pamphlet about four days before the printed dates for any particular week. For example, he received the copy for the week of August 22-August 28, 1964, mentioned above, on about August 18, 1964.

He is of the opinion that it is entirely possible that a person going into Mexico on September 26, 1963, could have obtained at Laredo, Texas, or Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, a copy of the pamphlet, "This Week-Esta Semana," issued for the week of September 28-October 4, 1963, as that publication would have already been received in Laredo and Nuevo Laredo.

He added that his supply of this pamphlet is disseminated very rapidly when it is received.

"This Week - Esta Semana" is a weekly publication which bears a date period from a Saturday to the following Friday. The magazine is presently in its thirtieth year of publication and is published at Calle Ramon Alcazar No. 6, Mexico 21, D. F.

The editor of this magazine is EMA H. Viuda de (widow of) PINEDA. The pamphlet contains valuable and interesting information for tourists.

It is to be noted that this magazine can be subscribed to outside of the country at the cost of $6.00 for a subscription of 26 weeks; however, the magazine is free inside the Republic of Mexico.

AUG 31 1964

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
Department of Justice
Washington, D. C. 20535

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The Commission would appreciate your Bureau providing us with a letter indicating the extent of the ballistics examinations which you have conducted to determine whether shell casings found at various locations in the vicinity of Dallas, Texas, were fired from the Mannlicher-Carcano rifle, serial number C2766, used to assassinate President Kennedy, and the results of all such tests.

In particular, several reports prepared by your Bureau and submitted to the Commission have indicated that shell casings have been turned over to you for analysis. Such reports appear in the report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling dated December 10, 1963, at page 269, and in the Gemberling report dated December 23, 1963 at pages 95, 98, 101, 104, and 117. In the Gemberling report of December 10 at page 355 there appears a partial report of the laboratory tests conducted as of the date of that report; however, although this report indicates that the 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge cases that were tested came from the Sports Drome Rifle Range, it does not indicate the report in which you informed us that your Bureau had received possession of these cartridge cases.

We would thus appreciate receiving a letter which will allow us to follow forward from any given report indicating that cartridge cases had been turned over to your Bureau to the conclusion that those particular cartridge cases were or were not fired from the Mannlicher-Carcano rifle C2766. If the records which your laboratory maintains are such that you are prepared to state that none of the cartridge cases examined by your laboratory, other than the three found on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book

Attached is a copy of a letter received from the President's Commission concerning the firearms comparisons made of cartridge cases recovered in this case with the assassination rifle.

The information requested in paragraph one and the last sentence of paragraph three of the attached letter will be answered by the Laboratory upon receipt from your office of the information requested in paragraph two and the first sentence of paragraph three.

Although you may have furnished this information or portions of it previously, it appears the Commission desires a summary at this time as to the report, with page number, setting forth information as to:

1 - The source of each group of cartridge cases recovered
2 - When the FBI came into possession of them
3 - The results of the Laboratory examinations.

If all of the requested information has not been included in investigative reports, you should set this information forth in a letterhead memo which can be furnished the Commission.

For your information, there arelisted below all of the 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge cases submitted to the Laboratory in this case for comparison with the assassination rifle:

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, Northeast
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

In your letter dated August 31, 1964, you requested information as to the extent of the firearms identification examinations conducted by the FBI Laboratory to determine whether cartridge cases found at various locations in the vicinity of Dallas, Texas, were fired from the Mannlicher-Carcano rifle, Serial No. C2766, Commission Exhibit 139.

Thirteen hundred thirty-six rifle cartridge cases, other than the three rifle cartridge cases recovered in the Texas School Book Depository Building, have been submitted to the FBI Laboratory for examination. Eighty of them were 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano cartridge cases. The sources of these cartridge cases, the dates on which they came into possession of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the results of the Laboratory examinations made on them and where this information is recorded in investigative reports are being furnished to you in summary form in the attached list.

05 SEP 24 COMM-FBI

The rifle cartridge cases listed are the only ones received in the FBI Laboratory for examination in this case with the exception of the three rifle cartridge cases recovered on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository Building. Only those three cartridge cases recovered in the Texas School Book Depository Building were identified as having been fired in the 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano rifle, Serial No. C2766.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

On September 13, 1964, Mrs. J. T. (Gertrude) Hunter, 141 South Hastings, Irving, Texas, telephone BLackburn 3-2938, telephonically advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that she had been telephonically contacted on Saturday night, September 12, 1964, by an individual who identified himself as Peter Davis with the National Broadcasting Company (NBC), who stated he was staying at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel, Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. Hunter stated that Peter Davis had indicated he had already talked with Mrs. Edith Whitworth and desired to interview Mrs. Hunter concerning the information that had been attributed to Mrs. Whitworth and Mrs. Hunter about Lee Harvey Oswald having allegedly appeared at the Furniture Mart in Irving, Texas, operated by Mrs. Whitworth.

Mrs. Hunter stated she was under the impression that Mrs. Whitworth is just seeking publicity and that she (Mrs. Hunter) does not desire any publicity and feels she has furnished all information in her possession to the proper authorities. She stated she was not interested in being interviewed by Peter Davis.

Mrs. Hunter was advised by the Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that she was under no obligation to talk to anyone and that if it was her wish not to be interviewed by Mr. Davis, she should so advise him but that such decision would have to be her own.

SYNOPSIS

Dr. Vincent P. Guinn is Technical Director of the Activation Analysis Program of General Atomic Division of General Dynamics Corporation. He and his staff have applied neutron activation analysis to the examination of powder residues. Dr. Guinn is a "high pressure salesman" with a sound scientific background. If he has been correctly quoted recently, he has been associating the work done by the FBI Laboratory and the Oak Ridge National Laboratory (ORNL) on the paraffin casts of Oswald with his own endeavors. These examinations were conducted with the Director's approval through liaison with the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC). Press releases attributable to Guinn infer that he is knowledgeable of the results of the examinations conducted on the Oswald casts. Guinn did not participate in these examinations. He has not been advised of the results.

Dr. Spofford G. English, Assistant General Manager for Research and Development, AEC, was contacted on September 18, 1964, by Special Agent John F. Gallagher, of the Laboratory, concerning this matter and expressed the Bureau's concern over the erroneous statements attributed to Dr. Guinn. Dr. English also expressed AEC's concern. Since Dr. Guinn is an AEC contractor, Dr. English advised he would have Mr. E. Eugene Fowler, Acting Director of the Isotopes Division, AEC, contact Dr. Guinn as soon as practical and advise him that both the FBI and the AEC are concerned over the releases attributed to him relating to the assassination of President Kennedy. Guinn will be asked to cease commenting on this sensitive subject. Dr. English will advise the Bureau concerning the contact of Fowler with Dr. Guinn.

Neutron Activation Analysis

DETAILS

Dr. Vincent P. Guinn is Technical Director of the Activation Analysis Program of General Atomic Division of General Dynamics Corporation at San Diego, California. Through Atomic Energy Commission's contracts, money has been given to Dr. Guinn's group for the purpose of studying the application of neutron activation analysis to items of forensic interests. In particular, Dr. Guinn's group devoted their efforts to the identification of primer residues on the body of a person who had discharged firearms. Dr. Guinn has an international reputation in the field of neutron activation analysis. At the United Nations Conference in Geneva, Switzerland, relating to peaceful applications of atomic energy, he delivered a speech on September 1, 1964. He was also a guest lecturer during August of this year at the NATO International Conference on activation analysis in Glasgow, Scotland. It is believed he is currently touring Europe. Dr. Guinn recently received the American Nuclear Society's 1964 Award for "particularly meritorious contribution" of "a unique and proven tool to assist the law, clear the innocent and convict the guilty."

Dr. Guinn is a typical "high pressure salesman" with a sound scientific background who is actively promoting the sales of his company's nuclear reactors and services.

On April 23, 1962, Dr. Vincent P. Guinn visited the Laboratory and discussed the work of his group relative to scientific crime detection. Since that time, the Laboratory has had several contacts with him at technical conferences and he has revisited the Laboratory on several occasions. On November 23, 1963, subsequent to President Kennedy's assassination, he called the FBI Laboratory and advised he and his staff stood ready to help in the field of neutron activation analysis if necessary. He was thanked for his spirit of cooperation at this time. His services were never employed.

Neutron Activation Analysis

Recently, numerous press releases and periodicals citing the work of Guinn and his staff relating to the examinations of primer residues from firearms have associated his work with the work done on the paraffin casts from Lee Harvey Oswald. He has implied that he has been working on the problem with the FBI and is knowledgeable of the results of such examinations.

The paraffin casts from Lee Harvey Oswald were analyzed by neutron activation by FBI Laboratory personnel at ORNL. The Director's approval was obtained for such an analyses and arrangements were made through Dr. Spofford English, Assistant General Manager for Research and Development, AEC, to have these examinations performed at the ORNL Research Reactor Site. It was agreed that all matters relating to these analyses would be considered highly confidential.

In view of the erroneous statements which were reportedly released to the press by Dr. Guinn, Special Agent John F. Gallagher, of the Laboratory, contacted Dr. Spofford G. English on September 18, 1964. The Bureau's concern over these erroneous releases were explained to Dr. English. It was pointed out that Dr. Guinn was working for AEC on a contract basis. Dr. English advised that AEC was also concerned over this matter and stated that he would see to it that a Mr. E. Eugene Fowler, the Acting Director of the Isotope Division, AEC, would be requested to contact Dr. Guinn as soon as practical and advise him of the AEC's and FBI's concern over the erroneous press releases attributed to him and request that he cease commenting on these matters. Dr. English advised that Fowler is in charge of the division responsible for the contract work of Dr. Guinn. Dr. English will advise the Bureau concerning the meeting of Mr. Fowler with Dr. Guinn.

Neutron Activation Analysis

Examples of the erroneous press releases attributed to Guinn and copies of pertinent portions of these releases are attached hereto:

1 - Reader's Digest, September, 1964, Page 125: "Eventually, federal authorities obtained chunks of the paraffin used on Oswald, and highly secret NAA tests were run. The results, which included the discovery of antimony traces, were given to the Warren Commission investigating the assassination."

2 - The Dallas Morning News, Dallas, Texas, Page 7 August 31, 1964: "Then we took the casts of Oswald's cheek and put them in a nuclear reactor. Remember that they already had been through the chemical tests which would wash particles away. 'I can say for the moment that we found no barium but we found antimony in every case'"

3 - United Press International news service release, August 27, 1964:

At the atomic laboratories of the General Dynamics Corp., in San Diego, Calif., Dr. Vincent P. Guinn has discovered a method whereby NAA can determine far more accurately than the old paraffin test whether a suspect has fired a gun recently. In the conventional paraffin test, melted paraffin is poured onto a suspect's hands and allowed to harden, then peeled off and doused with a chemical liquid. Any nitrates on the skin stick to the paraffin and show up as blue specks in the chemical bath. The trouble is: the suspect could have picked up the nitrates not only from a gun blast but from an innocent source such as fertilizer.

NAA ignores nitrates, but detects any deposits of antimony and barium. These elements, used in the primers of all cartridges, are deposited on any person who fires a gun. Unlike nitrates, they are so rare that they do not collect on the skin of a person who has not fired a gun. Dr. Guinn's tests have already cleared several suspects.

When President Kennedy was assassinated, Dr. Guinn promptly suggested to the FBI that NAA tests be run on casts obtained from Lee Harvey Oswald. The Dallas police maintained jurisdiction, however, and made conventional paraffin tests. Eventually, federal authorities obtained chunks of the paraffin used on Oswald, and highly secret NAA tests were run. The results, which included the discovery of antimony traces, were given to the Warren Commission investigating the assassination.

The areas beyond law enforcement in which atomic identification is proving itself valuable are widely varied. The General Electric Co. relies on NAA to ferret out impurities in the silicon that goes into transistors. (One part of phosphorus in a billion parts of silicon can stir up serious transistor trouble.) Several pharmaceutical firms are using NAA to balk drug counterfeiters. For some years large quantities of fraudulent drugs have been sold under the labels of reputable firms, and the practice is growing. So, certain manufacturers have started adding trace elements which do not affect the quality of their products but do show up under NAA.

The Atomic Energy Commission plans to place NAA equipment on a spacecraft, to determine what the surface of the moon is made of—before man lands there. Oceanographers are using NAA to find out more about the bottom of the sea. Dr. Edward V. Sayre, at the AEC's Brookhaven National Laboratory on Long Island, has used NAA to show, through differences in paints, whether a painting is a bona fide old master or a forgery.

Medical science has long suspected that certain trace elements play a pivotal role in disease, but most of them appear in such imperceptible amounts in the body that it has been virtually impossible to measure

New Test May Tie Oswald Gun

By [illegible]

The guilt of Lee Harvey Oswald may be proved by a relatively unheard of new activation analysis technique said to be many times more reliable than paraffin tests now universally used in criminology.

A California scientist has indicated that radioactivity tests had been made on casts of Oswald's cheek and that the results had been sent to the Warren Commission investigating President Kennedy's assassination.

Dr. Vincent P. Guinn, 43, head of the activation analysis lab. program for General Dynamics Corp., San Diego, Calif., made the disclosure at a conference at Glasgow University in Scotland.

"I cannot say what we found out about Oswald because it is secret until the publication of the Warren Commission report," Dr. Guinn told United Press International, "but I can tell you about activation analysis and guns."

In homicide cases where a gun is used, wax impressions of the hand and cheek are often taken. The wax lifts tiny fragments of gunpowder, and chemical tests are used on these traces of powder to show if the person fired the gun or not.

Guinn said experiments have proven that the paraffin test is "extremely unreliable." He said it was obvious that a better method was needed and said his company began research on activation analysis about three years ago.

He said when it was revealed that Oswald's guilt could not be proved or disproved from paraffin tests, he, as do by the Dallas police, he called the FBI to the activation analysis technique.

Guinn described the experiment in this manner:

"A rifle similar to the one that killed the president was used. One person fired the rifle on eight different occasions and each time was given the paraffin test.

"Only one out of the eight experiments gave a positive indication," Guinn said.

Then they repeated the experiment using radioactivity.

"It was positive in all eight cases, and showed a primer on both hands and cheeks," he said.

"Then we took the casts of Oswald's cheek and put them in a nuclear reactor. Remember that they already had been through the chemical tests which would mask positive tests.

"I will say for the moment that we found as before and we found positively in every case," Guinn added.

Dr. Marion Moore, of the staff of the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School and the Dallas County Crime Laboratory, said criminologists were familiar with the [illegible] but that the method "too expensive" for everyday use.

"It is definitely capable of [illegible] like a corpse of trace elements that cannot be touched any other way," Dr. Moore said. "But it will be 10 years before they use it here. It is very, very expensive. It takes specialized equipment and highly trained operators."

Dr. Larry Marshall of the Graduate Research Center of the Southwest said the AA method could determine what minerals were present by checking the rate of decay of the chemicals isotopes are made when the material is subjected to nuclear energy.

"It is different and it has a chance to make [illegible]," Dr. [illegible] said.

He said he was unaware that [illegible] had been used in criminology but said, "I'm certainly not [illegible] sixty-one persons, including several employees of Government Printing Office, who are temporarily assigned to the Commission and were found to have had some contact with material in question.

The enclosed material does not reflect results of interviews with all members and employees of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy. No interview of Chief Justice EARL WARREN was conducted, pursuant to instructions contained in reBuairtel. WFO investigation identified some twenty-eight staff members and employees of the Commission, who were employed between 6/7/64 and 8/18/64, who were not currently in the Washington, D. C., area or no longer employed by the Commission. ReWFOairtel 9/17/64, set out leads to have these persons interviewed. In addition, SHARON KEGARISE, a former steno at the Commission, was determined to be away from Washington, D. C., for the weekend of 9/19-20/64. She is expected to return 9/21/64, at which time she will be interviewed and results thereof will be promptly submitted. It is noted WILLIAM T. COLEMAN, who resides in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and DAVID W. BELIN, who resides in Des Moines, Iowa, were located and interviewed in Washington, D. C., subsequent to dispatch of reWFOairtel 9/17/64. Both COLEMAN and BELIN are Legal Consultants to the Commission.

A review of the enclosed material will disclose investigation conducted to date has not located all copies of the transcript reflecting interview of JACK L. RUBY by Chief Justice WARREN, which transcript was published in the 8/18/64 edition of the "New York Journal-American" newspaper in an article authored by DOROTHY KILGALLEN. In this regard, it is noted the exact number of copies made of this transcript is in doubt; however, investigation determined five copies were reproduced by Ward and Paul, Washington, D. C., court reporters, and possibly thirteen other copies were reproduced by Commission employees.

The Ward and Paul copies of this transcript are distinguishable from the copies reproduced by the Commission in two ways. The Ward and Paul copies are bound in yellow cardboard covers and bear "Confidential" classification at the top and bottom of each page of the transcript. The Commission reproductions of this transcript located to date are neither bound nor bear any classification; however, it is not known if this is true for the transcripts not yet located.

Details and importance of the classification appearing on the Ward and Paul copies set forth reWFOairtel dated 9/17/64. Based on information contained in enclosures hereto, and set forth in reWFOairtel, it appears likely a Ward and Paul reproduction was used by DOROTHY KILGALLEN in preparing her article. Based on this information, the FBI Laboratory is currently conducting examinations and comparisons of the five Ward and Paul copies in an effort to identify one of these copies as the source of KILGALLEN's information.

It is also noted WFO has received information to the effect the article published in the "New York Journal-American" does not contain that portion of the transcript appearing on page fifty-nine and the first five lines of page sixty. This information received from the Bureau. It is believed this deletion in the news article has significance; however, it is not apparent at this time.

It is realized the enclosed material does not reflect results of all investigation that could be conducted in this matter; however, it is believed results of FBI Laboratory examinations should be available prior to making further inquiry regarding the reproductions made by Commission employees. It is noted such inquiry will not be necessary if the Laboratory identifies one of the Ward and Paul copies as KILGALLEN's source. Also, results of recontacts with "New York Journal-American" and DOROTHY KILGALLEN, which were submitted for consideration of Bureau in reWFOairtel 9/17/64, would also be helpful prior to conducting further inquiry at the Commission.

In the event the FBI Laboratory is unable to isolate KILGALLEN's source as being one of the Ward and Paul reproductions, then WFO feels following inquiries should be made:

1. Obtain any and all classification stamps used by the Commission and submit same to Laboratory for examination and comparison with that appearing in newspaper reproduction of page 103 of this transcript.

2. Consider contacting Ward and Paul in effort to obtain stamps used by them for classifying documents reproduced for the Commission, and submit such stamps to the Laboratory for examination and comparison.

3. Recontact logical members and employees of the Commission for the specific purpose of attempting to locate all reproductions of this transcript made by Commission employees with specific reference as to whether or not classification stamps were affixed to these reproductions; and the circumstances under which the Commission staff utilized classification stamps on any reproductions.

4. Conduct such inquiry as may be indicated as result of interviews recorded in enclosures hereto.

As stated above, WFO considers additional inquiries should await results of previously requested investigation; therefore, WFO anticipates conducting no further investigation until such information received, UACB.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

By letter dated September 10, 1964, the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy requested that investigation be conducted with regard to the unauthorized disclosures to news media of the Lee Harvey Oswald diary. The Commission requested interviews with members of the Commission and in addition, that interviews also be had with members of the Commission's staff.

Attention has been directed to news stories which related to the personal diary of Lee Harvey Oswald, his Discharge Certificate from the United States Marine Corps, a letter dated July 31, 1963, addressed to Oswald from the Communist Party, USA, and his International Certificate of Vaccination. In "The Dallas Morning News," Dallas, Texas, June 27, 1964, edition, a copyrighted article by reporter Hugh Aynesworth was printed concerning contents of Oswald's diary, together with a photograph of one of the pages of this diary. On June 28, 1964, the same newspaper carried a second article by Aynesworth concerning contents of the Oswald diary, a photograph of the letter addressed to Oswald from the Communist Party, USA, a photograph of his undesirable discharge from the United States Marine Corps dated September 13, 1960, and a photograph of Oswald's International Certificate of Vaccination.

In addition to these disclosures which appeared in the newspaper, "Life" magazine published a feature article concerning the contents of the Oswald diary and included photographs of that document.

Set forth hereinafter are the results of interviews conducted with members of the Commission and the Commission staff, who were located in the Washington, D.C., area during the period of September 16 through September 20, 1964:

J. LEE RANKIN, General Counsel to the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, 200 Maryland Avenue, N.E., was interviewed for any information he may have regarding the "leak" of information pertaining to the diary and other papers of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Mr. RANKIN stated he was not responsible for this or any other leak of information to any news media. He further said he has no information or knowledge as to the identity of the person or persons responsible for any such leaks.

Mr. RANKIN advised that on the basis of his review of various reports reflecting results of investigation conducted by the FBI, it is his opinion the source of the leak pertaining to the OSWALD diary and papers has been identified as being in Dallas, Texas.

Senator JOHN SHERMAN COOPER of Kentucky, a member of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY, furnished the following information when he was interviewed at his office, Room 125, of the Old Senate Office Building:

With regard to the publication in the June 27 and 28, 1964, issues of "The Dallas Morning News," newspaper of information from the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and photographs of other related documents, Senator COOPER said he did not make such information available to the paper or to any other person. Furthermore he stated he has no knowledge as to the means by which the newspaper came into possession of these items. He emphasized he has never disclosed any information relating to the findings of the President's Commission to any unauthorized person.

Senator COOPER was asked if he had any knowledge about the control of documents in the possession of the President's Commission. He said he is not familiar with the detailed handling of such materials, but as a commission member he has received documents necessary to the deliberations of that body. Such items have been either handed to him personally at the Commission, or were delivered to his office by courier. He has studied these documents at his office and at home. They have been retained while in his office in a locked safe, and he is certain these documents in his custody have been secure. The only other person in his office who has had access to these documents is his secretary, Miss RUTH MIDTHUN, in whom he has complete confidence.

Senator COOPER said he is unable to furnish any information which would be of assistance in identifying the person or persons who made the unauthorized disclosure of the above documents, resulting in their publication in the press.

United States Congressman HALE BOGGS was interviewed in his office at the United States Capitol, Room H109 and furnished the following information:

Congressman BOGGS stated that he originally saw copies of the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and other documents obtained by the Dallas Police Department between November 22 and 23, 1963, in Dallas, Texas, when they were passed to the Commission members at a Commission meeting. He believes that the copies he saw were photographs which were furnished to the Commission by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He recalls specifically reading a copy of the OSWALD diary and also remembers seeing a story on the diary in an issue of "Life" magazine.

Congressman BOGGS stated that he is not acquainted with HUGH AYNESWORTH or CARL FREUND, reporters for the newspaper, "Dallas Morning News." He is sure that none of his staff are acquainted with these two reporters. He, himself, is not acquainted with anyone else affiliated with the "Dallas Morning News." He does have an administrative assistant in his capacity as Democratic Whip in the House of Representatives who very probably is acquainted with members of the Washington Bureau of the "Dallas Morning News." He is sure that this acquaintance is purely in line with his administrative assistant's duties in Congress. He pointed out that this administrative assistant has no access to Commission documents since they are all delivered to his office in the House Office Building rather than the United States Capitol and are maintained in a safe in that office.

He explained that Commission transcripts are delivered to him at his House office or his home by a Commission staff member in a sealed envelope. It is delivered to him by his own staff in the same condition. If he has time he reads the transcript and then maintains it in his safe. If he does not have time to read it he places it in his safe until he does have the time. No one on his staff or in his family has any access to these transcripts.

Congressman BOGGS stated that he has never given any copy of any Commission transcript to any reporter for any newspaper.

He stated that in his own personal opinion he feels that the information that was leaked to the "Dallas Morning News" was leaked from someone in Dallas, Texas, and not in Washington, D. C. He knows of no one on the Commission staff or on the Commission itself who would leak such information.

United States Congressman HALE BOGGS telephonically advised during the afternoon of September 16, 1964, that he wished to furnish the following information which has come to his attention regarding his handling of transcripts of the Commission:

Congressman BOGGS stated that in January or February, 1964, he did have a Commission transcript in his possession when he drove to the Friendship Airport, Baltimore, Maryland, in his automobile. He stated he left the transcript locked in his automobile in the Congressional parking area near the airport. He said when he returned to the airport two days later the transcript, which was not in connection with the matter discussed pertaining to the leak of information to newspaper reporters, was in the same position in the automobile and it did not appear to have been tampered with or removed from its original place in his car. He stated he wished this information to be a matter of record as it could come to light at some later date that he had left a Commission report in his automobile.

ALLEN W. DULLES, 2723 Q Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., a member of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY, advised as follows concerning the leak of information which appeared in "The Dallas Morning News" on June 27, and June 28, 1964, under the by-line of HUGH AYNESWORTH pertaining to the OSWALD diary and related papers:

Mr. DULLES does not know HUGH AYNESWORTH or any reporters or employees of "The Dallas Morning News". It is conceivable he may have met AYNESWORTH or other employees of this newspaper while he was in Dallas, Texas during May, 1964, with Commission members Senator JOHN SHERMAN COOPER and JOHN J. MC CLOY; however, their identities were not known to him then or now.

Mr. DULLES has seen the original OSWALD diary which he described as being in very poor handwriting to the point that it was almost illegible. He also saw a reproduction of the diary which appeared in an FBI report as well as another version which was "translated", that is, typed in a legible form. He saw the original diary during the early days of the Commission, probably during early December, 1963, at the Commission offices.

He has no information concerning the preparation or dissemination of the legible typed version of the diary. Mr. DULLES does not have a copy of the diary in any form nor did he retain the typed version beyond the usual period of a few days before returning same to the Commission staff. He said he did not furnish the diary, reproductions of the diary, or any information pertaining thereto to any news media or anyone else outside the Commission staff.

Mr. DULLES does not know who would have access to the diary within the Commission in addition to the Commission members but presumes it would be available to the staff as their work required.

JOHN J. MC CLOY, member of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy (the Commission) was interviewed at the Commission offices. He was questioned concerning the articles attributed to HUGH AYNESWORTH appearing in "The Dallas Morning News" on June 27 and June 28, 1964, concerning the diary and certain documents relating to LEE HARVEY OSWALD and the subsequent publication of the OSWALD diary in "Life" magazine.

Mr. MC CLOY advised he did not have the faintest idea who was responsible for furnishing copies of the documents which made either of the publications possible. He stated he had not furnished these documents to anyone and had never been requested to do so. He stated he felt certain that no member of the Commission was responsible.

Mr. MC CLOY advised that to the best of his recollection he does not know and has never met any of the following persons associated with "The Dallas Morning News": HUGH AYNESWORTH, PAULA AYNESWORTH, LARRY GROVES or JERRY RICHMOND. He was confident that none of these individuals had ever communicated with him in an effort to obtain copies of the OSWALD diary or the related documents.

Mr. MC CLOY stated that his only contact with "Life" magazine, which in any way had any relation to the KENNEDY assassination or matters growing out of the assassination, occurred in early 1964 when, on behalf of the Commission, he visited "Life" magazine and was permitted to view the original films made of the assassination by ABRAHAM ZAPRUDER. He stated that during this visit he selected certain frames from these films and photographs were subsequently furnished to the Commission by "Life."

Mrs. EIDE states those names preceded by an asterisk are persons who are currently away from the Washington, D. C., area, or are no longer employed at the Commission.

It will be noted the names and occupational titles as obtained from Mrs. EIDE are set out as they were copied by her from her records of personnel. However, upon interview of these persons, it was determined some discrepancies had occurred in spellings of names as well as their titles as to duties with the Commission.

JOSEPHINE W. FARRAR, 204 East Capitol Street, Washington, D. C., Chief of the Records Unit, President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY, advised as follows concerning the leak of information appearing in "The Dallas Morning News," on June 27 and 28, 1964, under the by-line of HUGH AYNESWORTH pertaining to the LEE HARVEY OSWALD diary and related papers:

Miss FARRAR recalled that shortly after reporting to the Commission on December 23, 1963, she received from Mrs. BEVERLY HECKMAN's office approximately 12 Xerox or otherwise reproduced copies of the OSWALD diary. These were placed in the file and sometime later, date unrecalled, eight copies were removed for the use, she presumes, of the Commission members. The approximately four remaining copies were subsequently given out to various staff members as the occasion required.

Her records never included the original OSWALD diary or papers.

She does not know HUGH AYNESWORTH or any other employee of "The Dallas Morning News" and has never made any copies of the OSWALD diary or related papers available to anyone outside the Commission or staff.

DAVID W. BELIN, home address 7704 College Drive, Des Moines, Iowa, telephone 277-3383, who is a member of the law firm of Herrick, Langdon, Sandblom and Belin, was interviewed at the headquarters of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, 200 Maryland Avenue, N. E., Washington, D. C.

Mr. BELIN advised he has been working as a Legal Consultant with the Commission since approximately January 20, 1964. He said he had been working on a relatively full time basis until Memorial Day, 1964, at which time he returned to Des Moines, Iowa. He stated he had worked at the Commission on weekends until mid July, 1964, following his return to Des Moines, and since mid July the weekend of September 19-20, 1964, is his first occasion to be back at the Commission.

Mr. BELIN advised his primary area of interest in the Commission's inquiry is the period of time immediately prior to and after the assassination of President KENNEDY by LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mr. BELIN explained his interest centers on LEE HARVEY OSWALD in this regard.

Mr. BELIN advised he believes he has read portions of the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, however, he said he cannot recall reading this entire document. He said that if he has seen a copy of this diary, it was prior to February 1, 1964.

Mr. BELIN stated he recalls information pertaining to the diary of OSWALD being published by the news media. He said a Des Moines, Iowa, paper had carried a news release regarding this diary, but he said he does not remember the Des Moines paper printing a photograph of one of the pages of this document. He said he believes the Des Moines newspaper article was based on a story that originated in Dallas, Texas.

Regarding his contact with news media representatives in Dallas, Mr. BELIN said he had taken a deposition from one

MICHAEL COUCH. Mr. BELIN identified MICHAEL COUCH as being the representative of a Dallas television station who had been in the motorcade with President KENNEDY at the time of the assassination and who had claimed to have seen a rifle barrel protruding from a window. Mr. BELIN informed he had possibly taken another deposition from another representative in this motorcade but could not be certain. He said he also had some contact with Dallas news media representatives at the time Commission members MC CLOY, COOPER, and DULLES went to Dallas to observe the site of this assassination. Mr. BELIN explained he had more or less conducted the Commission members on this tour and during the tour Dallas newspaper representatives had spoken with him. Mr. BELIN said any contact he had with news media representatives in Dallas on this occasion would have been limited to passing comments.

Mr. BELIN informed he has from time to time received requests for information regarding this inquiry from various news media personnel; however, he said all such requests had been answered with "no comment."

Mr. BELIN said he has never had any contact with HUGH AYNESWORTH or CARL FREUND, who are identified as Dallas, Texas, news reporters.

Mr. BELIN advised during the time he was in Dallas, Texas, with Commission members MC CLOY, COOPER, and DULLES, they had paid a courtesy call on the Dallas District Attorney's Office. He said he recalls JIM BOWIE and WILLIAM ALEXANDER were the persons who were contacted during this courtesy call since the Dallas District Attorney was not present. Mr. BELIN did not recall receiving any requests for material from either BOWIE or ALEXANDER.

Mr. BELIN advised he recalls discussing the leak of OSWALD's diary and miscellaneous papers with the United States Attorney from Dallas, H. BAREFOOT SANDERS. He said he remembers this discussion as being either during late June or early July, 1964, during a time Mr. SANDERS was in Washington, D. C. Mr. BELIN said SANDERS indicated at that time that WILLIAM ALEXANDER was believed to be the source of the leak pertaining to OSWALD's diary.

Mr. BELIN said he is not responsible for the leak of any information to any news media representative and does not know who may be responsible for such action.

WILLIAM T. COLEMAN, Jr., home address 612 West Hortter Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Telephone Number VI 8-2304, a member of the law firm of Dilworth, Paxson, Kalish, Kohn and Dilks, 123 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, was interviewed at the headquarters of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY, 200 Maryland Avenue, N.E.

Mr. COLEMAN stated he has been employed as a Legal Consultant with the President's Commission since approximately January 22, 1964. He said his duties as a Legal Consultant have been primarily restricted to reviewing information regarding activities of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said his primary interest in OSWALD's activities has been pertaining to those times OSWALD was away from the United States. Mr. COLEMAN informed that in connection with his duties he has observed the OSWALD diary and believes he has reviewed all of the OSWALD papers and information pertaining thereto. He said he believes he first observed the OSWALD diary a few days after beginning his association with the Commission. COLEMAN advised he has had no contact with representatives of any news media in reference to his work with the Commission. He said he has not had the occasion to be in Dallas, Texas, for the purpose of conducting inquiry regarding OSWALD or OSWALD's activities. Mr. COLEMAN said that in April or May, 1964, he had taken a trip in connection with the inquiry being conducted by the Commission and during this trip he had had an twenty-minute layover in Dallas while he was en route back to Washington, D. C.

Mr. COLEMAN said he does not know any reporters for any of the Dallas papers and he has had no contact with any Dallas paper representative. He said he, to the best of his knowledge, is not acquainted with anyone employed by "Life" magazine and has had no contact with "Life" magazine representatives.

Mr. COLEMAN advised he has no knowledge or information as to how the leak of the OSWALD material could have occurred. He said he has speculated MARINA OSWALD was the possible source of this material; however, he said he had no specific information at all that would indicate such leaks had been occacioned by MARINA OSWALD. Mr. COLEMAN informed his speculation regarding MARINA OSWALD was based primarily on the fact that a copy of LEE HARVEY OSWALD's diary was possibly made available to her; however, he said he did not know if this were the case or not.

Mr. COLEMAN said he was not responsible for any of the material being leaked to news media representatives and does not know who was responsible for this.

C., permanent residence 18318 Lomond Boulevard, Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio, telephone Skyline 1-0899, upon interview advised he occupies a position of an assistant counsel of the Commission and entered on duty January 13, 1964. GRIFFIN is permanently employed as an attorney with the firm Mc Donald, Hopkins, and Hardy, 1105 East Ohio Building, Cleveland, Ohio, phone 621-3480. He was formerly an Assistant United States Attorney at Cleveland.

GRIFFIN was questioned concerning news items in the June 27 and 28, 1964, issues of the "Dallas Morning News" under byline of HUGH AYNESWORTH pertaining to the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and containing photographs of the page from OSWALD's diary and three documents of OSWALD mentioned hereafter.

GRIFFIN stated he had never seen the diary of OSWALD and that his knowledge concerning the diary was from having read a number of FBI reports and from conversations with J. LEE RANKIN of the Commission, and MARTHA JO STROUD, Assistant United States Attorney at Dallas. GRIFFIN recalled that on the basis of her knowledge and deductions, Mrs. STROUD had suggested to him that WILLIAM F. ALEXANDER, Assistant District Attorney at Dallas, Texas, was a logical suspect for the news leaks mentioned above; however, GRIFFIN recalled nothing specific from his conversations.

GRIFFIN advised he knew nothing about the films made of the personal property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD following his arrest, and he had not seen them. He also advised he had never seen any prints of a letter from the Communist Party, United States of America, to OSWALD, dated July 31, 1963, the Marine discharge of OSWALD, dated August 13, 1960, or an international certificate of vaccination in OSWALD's name under date of June 8, 1963.

WESLEY J. LIEBELER of Newfane, Vermont, presently residing at the Gramercy Motel in Washington, D. C., who is an attorney on the staff of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY advised as follows concerning leak of information appearing in "The Dallas Morning News", on June 27 and 28, 1964, under the by-line of HUGH AYNESWORTH pertaining to the LEE HARVEY OSWALD diary and related papers:

He does not know HUGH AYNESWORTH or any other reporter or employee associated with "The Dallas Morning News".

He has not furnished anybody outside the Commission with a copy of OSWALD's diary. He has no suspicions of any staff members of the Commission being the source of a leak of the diary to the press.

He cannot estimate the number of copies of the diary which have been reproduced by photographing and typing. It is his opinion that many copies have been made and he is not aware of the administrative procedure with which they have been handled.

He commented that WILLIAM MC KENZIE, the attorney for MARINA OSWALD, told him that he, MC KENZIE, had never seen a copy of the OSWALD diary and doubts that MARINA OSWALD had seen or known of the diary until it came out in the paper.

Mr. LIEBELER related that on May 28, 1964, he did send a copy of the political writings of OSWALD to Dr. G. THEODORE MITAU, Head of Political Science Department at McAlister College in St. Paul, Minnesota. This was done with the knowledge of Mr. J. LEE RANKIN. Dr. MITAU was Mr. LIEBELER'S professor when the latter attended that college. The material was sent with a view to obtaining Dr. MITAU's analysis of the quality of OSWALD's writings. Mr. LIEBELER was anxious to obtain Dr. MITAU's educated guess as to what OSWALD had on his mind.

With the exception of the foregoing Mr. LIEBELER said he has not had occasion to send either the diary or any other OSWALD documents outside the Commission.

Mr. ALBERT E. JENNER, Jr., Senior Staff Attorney, was interviewed in the offices of the President's Commission, 200 Maryland Avenue, N.E. He has been with the Commission since January, 1964. He is concerned with the entire background of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his family with the exception of periods in foreign countries.

Early in the investigation, around March, 1964, he had occasion to read OSWALD's diary. He made a longhand summary of the diary which was destroyed probably in April, 1964, when his need for it was finished. He is not sure if what he read was the original or a copy. Since his initial reading, he has not used the didry.

Mr. JENNER has been to Dallas, Texas on two or three occasions on Commission business, namely interviewing the Russian Community there. He has never met any representatives of the press or given interviews to them. He felt this was the prerogative of the General Counsel.

Mr. JENNER specifically stated he is not acquainted with HUGH AYNESWORTH or anyone affiliated with the "Dallas Morning News." He also stated he has never furnished any Commission document or information to anyone not entitled to receive it. He knew nothing that would excite his suspicions that any member of the Commission staff may have been the source of the disclosure.

He entered on duty with the Commission December 20, 1963. Mr. REDLICH said his duties involve acting as one of the Special Assistants to J. LEE RANKIN, General Counsel to the Commission. Mr. REDLICH said one of his jobs as Special Assistant is to be fully informed on all the phases of the Commission's work. He does not have a specific field of interest in the assassination inquiry.

With regard to the unauthorized publication of the LEE HARVEY OSWALD Diary by the "Dallas Morning News" on June 27 and 28, 1964, Mr. REDLICH advised he personally did not divulge the information relating to the diary to the reporter from the "Dallas Morning News" nor does he know who may have done so. He said he was in Dallas, Texas, on the week end before Memorial Day 1964, during the re-enactment of the assassination. This was his only trip to Dallas. He said he is not acquainted with HUGH AYNESWORTH or CARL FREUND, reporters for the "Dallas Morning News" nor does he know anyone else affiliated with that paper. Mr. REDLICH advised he has no opinion how the newspaper may have been able to obtain information relating to OSWALD's diary.

Mr. W. DAVID SLAWSON, 1838 Connecticut Avenue, N. He entered on duty with the Commission on January 21, 1964.

With regard to the unauthorized publication of the LEE HARVEY OSWALD diary by "The Dallas Morning News" on June 27 and 28, 1964, Mr. SLAWSON advised he did not personally divulge the contents of the diary to the newspaper publishing it, nor does he know who did. He said he has never been in Dallas, Texas, and has made only one trip in connection with Commission work, that being to Mexico City, Mexico, in April, 1964. Mr. SLAWSON said he is unacquainted with HUGH AYNESWORTH or CARL FREUND, reporters for "The Dallas Morning News." He does not know anyone affiliated with that newspaper nor, so far as he knows, anyone in the city of Dallas, Texas.

Mr. SLAWSON said with regard to this matter relating to the OSWALD diary that he feels quite strongly this was a serious compromise of the security of the Commission's documents. He explained his job on the Commission has been to concentrate in foreign matters, specifically Cuba and Russia. He said he feels personally that some individuals in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR) will probably be imprisoned in Russia as the result of disclosures appearing in the newspaper and "Life" magazine. He said "Life" magazine disguised the names of the Russians who alerted OSWALD to the hazards of living indefinitely in Russia, but he feels certain the Committee for State Security (KGB) in Russia will be able to identify the persons involved. He exhibited a copy of his memorandum to the General Counsel of the Commission dated September 6, 1964, stating that the disclosure of the contents of the diary had endangered the lives of some Russian individuals. However, according to his memorandum, it was recommended the diary be made an exhibit of the Commission report in its entirety in view of the damage already done by unauthorized publication mentioned above. SAMUEL A. STERN, 3110 Newark Street, N. W., Washington, D. He made only one trip to Dallas, Texas, during April or May, 1964, for approximately four days duration. This trip was for the purpose of taking depositions in connection with the area of his assignment which was concerned with the adequacy of Presidential protection. While he was in Dallas he had no contact with the press. He does not know HUGH AYNESWORTH of "The Dallas Morning News" or any other reporter or employee of this newspaper.

He never saw the original OSWALD diary. He did see what he believes was a Xerox reproduction of the original diary. He never had occasion to use the diary and considered it of no concern to him in his area of interest. He understands that copies were probably given to other staff members and that these copies were numbered and controlled.

He never furnished any information concerning the diary or related papers to anyone outside the Commission.

He recalled that shortly after reporting for duty with the Commission staff about January 14, 1964, that the entire staff had been impressed with the confidential nature of their endeavors by Mr. RANKIN. Subsequently, Chief Justice WARREN, at a special staff meeting reiterated the necessity for maintaining tight security.

Mr. HOWARD P. WILLENS, Executive Assistant to General Counsel J. LEE RANKIN, President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY, was interviewed at the offices of the Commission, 200 Maryland Avenue, N.E. He advised that he is an attorney and has been attached to the Commission since its inception, specifically since December 17, 1963. He added that he has handled liaison matters between the Commission and the Department of Justice, and is responsible to Mr. RANKIN for administrative direction of the Commission's activities.

Concerning the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and related documents, which appeared in the June 27 and 28, 1964, issues of "The Dallas Morning News" in articles under the by-line of HUGH AYNESWORTH, Mr. WILLENS stated as follows:

Mr. WILLENS read the OSWALD diary shortly after it first reached the offices of the Commission. He has had no occasion to maintain a copy of this document in his office, since he has had relatively little need to refer to it. He said that the diary is available to him on short notice from Commission files.

Mr. WILLENS said that he does not know HUGH AYNESWORTH of "The Dallas Morning News." He explained that on a trip to Dallas on Commission business in March, 1964, he had given interviews to two reporters, one from each of the Dallas papers. He is satisfied that HUGH AYNESWORTH was not one of these reporters. Mr. WILLENS added that to his knowledge, he has never met any other representatives of the Dallas newspapers.

Mr. WILLENS said that he has read the FBI reports of investigation into the unauthorized disclosures of information and documents in the press. He said that he has formed the conclusion that the unauthorized disclosures took place in Dallas. He stated that he has implicit faith in the members of the Commission staff, and is satisfied that no Commission employee was the source of any of these disclosures.

Mr. WILLENS stated emphatically that he had not furnished documents or information which resulted in the disclosures in the press in this matter to anyone.

Mr. JOHN HART ELY, Law Clerk to Chief Justice EARL WARREN, was interviewed in the offices of the President's Commission, 200 Maryland Avenue, N.E., and advised that from approximately February 15 to June 15, 1964, he was on loan to the President's Commission. From approximately June 15 to July 15, 1964, he was on vacation, during which time he was studying for and took a bar examination. From approximately July 15 to August 15, 1964, he was employed as Law Clerk in the office of Chief Justice WARREN. Effective August 15, 1964, he returned to the President's Commission.

Since being reassigned to the Commission, his area of specialization has been the biography of LEE HARVEY OSWALD up to the night before the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He has had occasion to view OSWALD's diary in this connection. Prior to this assignment he recalls reading the diary in "Life" magazine. JOHN J. O'BRIEN, Assistant Chief, Investigative Branch, Inspection Service, Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Headquarters, Washington, D. C., furnished the following information:

O'BRIEN was detailed to the President's Commission by the IRS from January to May, 1964, along with EDWARD A. CONROY, also of IRS. During Commission assignment, O'BRIEN worked in the Commission Office located in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Building, 200 Maryland Avenue, N.E., Washington, where he and CONROY had been furnished a private office and a personal secretary.

O'BRIEN and CONROY had been assigned the specific project of the "Preparation of Chronological History of the Principal Characters of the Assassination." Those "Principal Characters" consisted of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, Mrs. LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY. In addition, O'BRIEN and CONROY were requested to submit recommendations for additional coverage of possible value to the investigation. When these specific assignments were completed, O'BRIEN and CONROY were released from detail with the Commission and returned to direct IRS employment.

O'BRIEN and CONROY were detailed to the Commission during the early phases of the Commission's work, and in the completion of their assignment they personally reviewed all Federal Bureau of Investigation and Secret Service reports from which they extracted material needed to compile their chronological history.

O'BRIEN had all Commission records and documents available to him during the entire duration of his detail to the Commission. All other Commission staff members and employees also had free and unlimited access to the Commission records and documents. General distribution of documents among Committee employees was necessary to effect efficient operations.

The Commission staff was divided into six groups, each of which consisted of a Senior Attorney, a Junior Attorney and other staff members. The Commission also employed an abundance of secretarial and clerical employees.

The American Bar Association also had been provided space within the Commission Offices where Commission documents would have been available to them.

Security from outside penetration of Commission space by the press or other unauthorized personnel was maintained in an effective manner by the General Services Administration guard force in the building. All pertinent documents and papers of the Commission were maintained in safes and other security devices when not in use during evening hours.

O'BRIEN does not consider the leak of information from Commission files to have been resultant from unauthorized penetration of Commission space. He does consider that the information could have been leaked by members of the Committee's staff or by members of some other governmental agency or business concern which had authorized access to the pertinent information during some phase of the Commission's investigation.

O'BRIEN was unable to furnish any specific information revealing or indicating the sources of leakage of Commission material. He could provide no suspects in this regard.

O'BRIEN noted that during his period of service with the Commission he had the LEE HARVEY OSWALD diary in his possession on approximately five occasions and has made a thorough review of its contents as well as the contents of various other papers and documents relating to OSWALD. However, O'BRIAN had never made this diary nor any other documents available to anyone unauthorized to have possession of them.

O'BRIAN noted that he was no longer with the Commission at the time LEE HARVEY OSWALD's diary and other Commission documents relating to OSWALD were published on June 28, 1964 in "The Dallas Morning News."

CHARLES NORMAN SHAFFER, 8510 16th Street, N. W., Silver Spring, Maryland, furnished the following information:

Mr. SHAFFER advised that he is presently employed as a Special Attorney, Criminal Division, Department of Justice, Washington, D. C., and was so employed just prior to December 25, 1963, when he was assigned to the legal staff of Commission Counsel J. LEE RANKIN of the President's Commission handling the investigation of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He continued in this capacity until the early part of April, 1964, at which time he returned to the Department of Justice to handle several cases involving court trials. He said because of the pressure of his own wrk he did not return to the Commission legal staff.

He indicated that his work on the legal staff of the Commission entailed reviewing reports, suggesting courses of investigation, and assisting at conferences concerting legal phases of the investigation. He said that with regard to the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, he recalled that he first saw parts of this diary which were exhibits in the report covering the FBI investigation of the assassination. At a later date he had occasion to visit the FBI Laboratory which was handling the physical evidence in the case, and he believes he saw the actual diary during this visit. He said, however, that he never actually handled the diary and never had access to it other than as set out above.

SHAFFER said that he has never been approached by anyone to reveal the results of the Commission's investigation, nor does he know of any person who has been so approached. He said that he has no knowledge of how information concerning the investigation had been leaked to the press, nor did he know who might have made such a leak.

He said that since leaving the legal staff of the Commission he has had occasion to speak to Commission Counsel RANKIN and to HOWARD WILLENS, another Department of Justice attorney assigned to the Commission legal staff. He said however, that he had received no information during these occasions which would indicate how the leaks had been made to the press.

MURRAY J. LAULICHT advised he is presently residing at 6040 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., Apartment 119, telephone 882-1736. His permanent address is at 67-30 Clyde Street, Forest Hills, New York, telephone number BO 3-6924. He stated he graduated from the Columbia Law School on June 2, 1964, and the following date entered on duty with the staff of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy (the Commission), at Washington, D. C., as a Legal Clerk.

Mr. LAULICHT stated that when initially employed, he applied his time to the reading of various Commission reports for the purpose of acquiring background and also read trial transcripts, did some editing and read newspapers to denote articles of interest to the Commission. In late June or early July, 1964, it was decided to prepare a biography on JACK L. RUBY and he was assigned this task. LAULICHT stated that since this assignment, his work has been principally concerned with matters relating to RUBY, substantially excluding other individuals and aspects of interest to the Commission. During this time, he has worked under the supervision of Staff Attorney BURT W. GRIFFIN and has had considerable contact with two other staff personnel who are associated with GRIFFIN, LEON HUBERT and STUART POLLAK.

LAULICHT stated that since joining the Commission staff on June 3, 1964, he has never been on any official out of town travel. On weekends, holidays and religious holy days, he visits at his home in New York or at the home of his fiancee in Elizabeth, New Jersey.

LAULICHT advised he has never seen the original diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD or the following described documents: (a.) The Communist Party, USA letter to OSWALD dated July 31, 1963; (b.) The United States Marine Corps discharge of OSWALD, dated September 13, 1960, and (c.) International Certificate of Vaccination of OSWALD, dated June 8, 1963. He stated that as a matter of fact he has never seen any reproduction of any of the named items except in newspaper and magazine accounts.

LAULICHT recalled reading the June 27, 1964, issue of "The Dallas Morning News" and has a recollection that he saw in this issue a reproduction of one page of the OSWALD Diary. He may have seen the June 28, 1964, issue of this newspaper but does not recall this. He has a recollection that he saw the issue of "Life" magazine covering the OSWALD Diary and believes he obtained it from someone at the Commission Offices.

LAULICHT denied he had ever had possession of or access to any photographic film of the diary or described documents. He stated he has no information concerning the film recording of these documents at Dallas or who received or distributed copies either negative or positive of any film made.

LAULICHT stated he has no information or suspicions about how copies of the diary and related items were made available to "The Dallas Morning News." He denied knowing or ever meeting or having any contact with CARL FREUND, HUGH or PAULA AYNESWORTH, LARRY GROVES, or JERRY C. RICHMOND of Dallas, Texas. He denied knowing HOLLAND MC COMBS or anyone else associated with "Life" magazine. He stated he did recall having heard in the office from his superior, BURT W. GRIFFIN, speculation and rumor that WILLIAM F. ALEXANDER, Assistant District Attorney of Dallas County, was considered a prime suspect.

LAULICHT stated he has carefully considered the question of whether a Commission or Staff member might have been responsible for this leak of information and has concluded he has no reason to be suspicious of anyone.

Mrs. JULIA T. RIDE, administrative assistant to J. LEE RANKIN, General Counsel, President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, was interviewed at her office on September 17, 1964. Mrs. RIDE stated she presently resides at 4550 MacArthur Boulevard, Washington, D. C., and she has been employed by the Commission since December 15, 1963.

Mrs. RIDE advised that as administrative assistant to Mr. RANKIN, her duties ordinarily do not include the overseeing of documents, as such, as such work generally is handled by Mrs. BEVERLY HECKMAN, secretary; however, on occasion when Mrs. HECKMAN has been absent Mrs. RIDE has handled such matters.

Mrs. RIDE informed that in reference to the "leak" of a diary purportedly written by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, she had no knowledge or information as to the identity of the individual responsible for making this and other OSWALD material available to the news media.

Mrs. JEANNE HAUER, Secretary, President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY, was interviewed at the offices of the Commission, 200 Maryland Avenue, N.E. She said that she first came to work for the Commission on April 28, 1964, and that she has served as secretary during the ensuing period for WESLEY J. LIEBELER, Staff Attorney. Mrs. HAUER said that Mr. LIEBELER's area of interest in the Commission's investigation has been the background and possible motive of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He has been concerned with the life of OSWALD from his birth to the morning of the day on which President KENNEDY was assassinated.

Mrs. HAUER said that in her work at the Commission she has made use of the OSWALD diary practically daily, beginning early in May, 1964. She added that she has worked closely with the originals of exhibits in the OSWALD matter. She recalled that at some time during the past six weeks she was instructed to make three sets of Xerox copies of each of these OSWALD exhibits, one designated for the responsible attorney and two for the files of the Commission. With regard to the original exhibits, Mrs. HAUER advised that they have been maintained in the safe in Mr. LIEBELER's office. She said that everyone working for the Commission has the combination to this safe and others in the Commission space, with the exception of that in the office of Commission Counsel J. LEE RANKIN. The OSWALD exhibits were, therefore, available to any member of the staff of the Commission.

In regard to the appearance in the press of the OSWALD diary and related documents, Mrs. HAUER said that it was rumored about the Commission that MARINA OSWALD's business manager, JIM MARTIN, had a copy of these materials in his possession from the early days of the investigation. There was speculation among the members of the staff that this was the source of the unauthorized disclosures in the press.

Mrs. BAUER said that she has never been to Dallas, Texas, and that to her knowledge she has never met anyone connected with any Dallas newspaper. She said specifically that she does not know HUGH AYNESWORTH, author of the articles concerning the OSWALD diary.

Mrs. BAUER stated emphatically that she has never made available to any unauthorized person any information or documents coming into her possession through her work with the Commission.

Mrs. BAUER said that in late May, 1964, Xerox copies of the political writings of Lee HARVEY OSWALD were sent by Mr. LIEBELER to Dr. C. THEODORE MITAU, Political Science Professor at McAlester College, St. Paul, Minnesota. These documents were sent to Professor MITAU for his professional opinion concerning them, and they were returned within a short time by Professor MITAU. Mr. LIEBELER had obtained prior authority from Commission Counsel J. LEE RANKIN to send this material to Dr. MITAU.

Mrs. BAUER said also that transcripts of depositions of witnesses before the WARREN Commission were sent out from Washington for signing and notarizing. These depositions generally went to the various United States Attorneys, who contacted the witnesses to obtain their signatures on these depositions. On occasion transcripts were sent directly to the witnesses involved, and Mrs. BAUER recalled one having gone to a witness in New Jersey and another to a witness in New York City. Each such transcript was returned, properly signed and notarized, to the Commission offices within a short period of time.

Mrs. BAUER said that there have been many copies of OSWALD's diary in the Commission's offices. Some are reproductions of the handwritten diary, others are typed, and still others printed. The diary has been much in demand for use by attorneys and staff members and has been actually used by most of the staff since the beginning of the investigation. Mrs. BAUER was satisfied that copies of the diary and related documents have been sent outside the Commission as well.

Mrs. HAUER stated emphatically that she had not made available to anyone not authorized to receive it any information or documents which came into her possession through her work with the Commission.

Mrs. HAUER commented that she has been employed in other agencies where very strict security of documents was enforced. However, this has not been her experience in her employment with the Commission. She said that anyone in the Commission can reproduce virtually any Commission document at any time without difficulty and that such copies might be carried outside Commission offices very easily.

Mrs. ADELE LIPPARD, 2608 Arlington Boulevard, Arlington, Virginia, was interviewed at the office of the Commission. She stated she is Secretary for HOWARD P. WILLENS, Executive Assistant to the General Counsel and Liaison with the Department of Justice.

Mrs. LIPPARD advised she has been an employee of the Department of Justice since 1941, but she has worked with the Commission since December, 1963. One of her duties as Secretary to Mr. WILLENS is to have copies of various documents, but not transcripts, reproduced on Xerox equipment maintained by the Commission. When Xerox copies are needed, she gives the document to be reproduced to Mr. EDWARD R. PIERPOINT with instructions as to the number of copies needed. She added that she has maintained records of the dates on which various documents were reproduced, as well as the distribution of these copies.

Mrs. LIPPARD stated she does not recall ever having seen a copy of OSWALD's diary in any form, although she vaguely recalls requesting Mr. PIERPOINT to reproduce some information pertaining to the diary. After this material was reproduced it was distributed to various employees of the Commission who had an interest in this document.

Mrs. LIPPARD stated she is aware that a Dallas newspaper, the "Life" magazine, and the "New York Journal-American" newspaper published articles recently disclosing information regarding the Commission's work. She advised, however, that she is not aware of the identity of the source or sources of this information to the various news media. She added that she has never revealed any information of the Commission's activities to any unauthorized person and she knows of no one who has.

Miss ANNE V. WELSH, employed as a Secretary, Task Force, Office of the Secretary of Defense, Pentagon, and residing at 857 South Frederick Street, Arlington, Virginia, home telephone number 671-6811, advised that she served as a Secretary on the President's Commission for six months from December 18, 1963 to about June 18, 1964. With the Commission, she assisted in the over-all operation of the Office of the Commission and was a secretary to Mr. SAMUEL STERN, an attorney. He was principally concerned with the reporting on the operation of the Secret Service in connection with the assassination of former President KENNEDY.

In connection with the diary of OSWALD[illegible], Miss WELSH advised that she had not been in possession of the diary at any time and that to her knowledge, no copies of the diary were made. She recalled that an article had appeared in a Dallas newspaper in which parts of the diary were quoted but she did not know the source of the newspaper article.

She also advised that she had access to other parts of the investigation effort of the Commission such as stapling pages and arranging material which she had no time to read carefully. She advised she had never seen the completed report of the Commission since she left the Commission in June to return to the Defense Department and at that time, it was only in draft stage.

She said she is not acquainted with DOROTHY KILGALLEN or any member of the press and she does not know anyone who may have furnished information from the Commission material to an unauthorized person.

C., furnished the following information:

Mrs. ADAMS was detailed to the President's Commission by the United States Post Office Department, during the latter part of May, 1964, and she terminated Commission employment on July 3, 1964 to go on maternity leave.

While employed by the Commission, Mrs. ADAMS engaged in general clerical activity which included occasional operation of the office switchboard. She worked under the supervision of HOWARD (?) WILLENS who was an Attorney on the Commission's staff on loan from the United States Department of Justice.

Mrs. ADAMS was not aware that she had access to any of the documents or transcripts leaked to unauthorized personnel during the course of the Commission investigation. She was also not aware of ever having seen nor handled any of the items from which information was leaked.

Mrs. ADAMS noted that although she was employed by the Commission at the time the information concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD, including the contents of his diary, was leaked to the press, she had no knowledge of this activity and could furnish no information of value to this investigation.

Mrs. M. FRANCINE DAVIS, Secretary, President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY, was interviewed at the offices of the Commission, 200 Maryland Avenue, N.E. She advised that she has been in the employ of the Commission since January 22, 1964. Prior to June, 1964, she worked primarily for the attorneys responsible for the investigation in regard to LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and since June, 1964, she has worked for Dr. ALFRED GOLDBERG, whose responsibility is the writing and editing of much of the Commission's report.

With regard to the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and related documents, an article concerning which appeared in the June 27 and 28, 1964, issues of "The Dallas Morning News," under the by-line of HUGH AYNESWORTH, Mrs. DAVIS advised as follows:

She has never been to Dallas, Texas. In the months before June, 1964, she did a great deal of stenographic work in regard to the OSWALD diary. However, prior to the appearance of this diary and related documents in "Life" magazine, she had not seen the diary itself, nor had she read it in its entirety. Mrs. DAVIS knows no one affiliated with any Dallas, Texas, newspaper and specifically is not acquainted with HUGH AYNESWORTH.

On September 18, 1964, Miss CHARLEE DIANNE DUKE, 1334 Fort Stevens Drive, N.W., Washington, D.C., Apartment 201, a typist for the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY, furnished the following information regarding her employment:

Miss DUKE stated that she worked from March 5, 1964, to May 28, 1964, for a Mr. EDWARD A. CONROY and Mr. JOHN J. O'BRIEN. Her place of employment was located in Room 506 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Building, 200 Maryland Avenue, N.E., Washington, D.C.

CONROY and O'BRIEN were assigned to writing a chronology of all aspects of the OSWALD case beginning around 1957. The chronology included OSWALD's relatives, as well as information concerning JACK RUBY.

Reports of the investigative data for the Commission were forwarded to CONROY and O'BRIEN, who read them and extracted pertinent information for their chronology report.

CONROY would dictate his material to Miss DUKE, who would then type it on notebook sheets. The chronology, as far as Miss DUKE knew, ran to the latter part of November, 1963.

The chronology consisted of six volumes and was bound with a blue cover, which was fastened with metal clips. Each volume was approximately two inches thick.

Approximately ten copies of the chronology were made, with copies being furnished to both the defense and prosecution involved in the OSWALD case. The chronology was not classified, as far as Miss DUKE knew.

CONROY and O'BRIEN, as far as Miss DUKE knew, had copies of all investigative data for use in the chronology; however, Miss DUKE did not observe personally any volumes of the JACK RUBY testimony before Chief Justice EARL WARREN.

All trash and carbons of typed material were placed in a burn bag, which was destroyed on the fourth floor of the building.

The chronology group had three rooms in the aforementioned VFW Building, and for security purposes someone was always left to watch the three rooms during the working hours of 8:15 a.m. to 4:45 p.m.

Miss DUKE also advised she had no knowledge of information regarding the OSWALD diary or any "leaks" to any news media.

Miss DUKE advised that she had no reason to believe that her superiors CONROY and O'BRIEN would have leaked any information regarding their knowledge of the OSWALD case to any news media or to anyone not entitled to the receipt of such information, as they seemed to her to be very security conscious.

ANNE M. CLARK, 8027 Eastern Avenue, Silver Spring, Maryland, furnished the following information:

She stated that she is presently employed as Secretary to Mr. WINGATE UNDERHILL, Assistant to the Under-Secretary, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. She indicated that she was employed in this capacity on or about May 30, 1964, when she was assigned to the President's Commission handling investigation of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. She indicated that she served as a secretary for a Mr. SLAWSON, a member of the legal staff of the Commission, for approximately two weeks, and then returned to her job at the Department of Agriculture. She said that since that time she did work two or three days more for the Commission approximately one week ago.

With regard to her work with the Commission, Miss CLARK stated that she had worked on parts of the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but she had never actually seen the diary itself and never had access to it. She said that the first information she received to indicate that the diary had been made public, was when "Life" magazine published the diary.

Miss CLARK said that she has no idea how or by whom this information was leaked outside of the Commission. She said she had never been approached by anyone requesting information concerning the Commission's investigation. She said that she also knew of no one on the Commission who had been approached in this manner.

She said that all of the work she did for the Commission was performed in Washington, D. C., and she could furnish the names of no suspects in this matter.

Mrs. SALLY KENNIGAN, Secretary, was interviewed in the offices of the President's Commission, 200 Maryland Avenue, N.E., and advised that she has seen reproduced copies of the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and other related papers that were acquired by the Dallas Police Department during the period from November 22-23, 1963. She saw these copies after reading about the diary in "Life" magazine. She stated she could have seen the copies of the diary sooner, since they were available at the Commission, but she had no reason to consult them. She has never been to Dallas, Texas, is not acquainted with HUGH AYNESWORTH, a reporter on "The Dallas Morning News" and is not acquainted with anyone affiliated with either Dallas newspaper.

She stated that it would have been a simple matter for anyone to reproduce copies of the diary on a Xerox machine and walk out of the building with them. She stated that any Commission staff member can get any document from the Commission file room.

Mrs. ROSLYN ELAINE JOHNSON, 4201 South 31st Street, Arlington, Virginia, advised she entered on duty as a secretary (GS-3) in February, 1964, with the President's Commission, 200 Maryland Avenue, N.E., and was assigned to work for JOHN HART ELY, law clerk of Chief Justice EARL WARREN. She said she also has done work for RICHARD MOSK, who is no longer with the Commission.

In regard to LEE HARVEY OSWALD's diary, she recalls looking within her office for a report pertaining to the diary about two or three months ago, but has never read nor seen the OSWALD diary or copies of the diary in the Commission's Office. However, she did read the article pertaining to the diary which appeared in Life Magazine.

Mrs. JOHNSON advised she is not acquainted with newspaper reporters CARL FREUND and HUGH AYNESWORTH of the "Dallas Morning News" and to her knowledge she does not know anyone who may be associated with any newspaper reporters. She said she did not furnish the information and she does not know who may have furnished information pertaining to the OSWALD's diary, which appeared in the Dallas newspapers.

Mrs. PEARL G. KAMBER, Secretary, was interviewed in the offices of the President's Commission, 200 Maryland Avenue, N. E. She has been employed at the Commission since May 6, 1964, having been previously an employee of the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of Public Roads. While at the Commission she has been assigned to attorneys covering all areas of the investigation.

Mrs. KAMBER said that from early in her assignment to the Commission, she has been aware of, and worked with the LEE HARVEY OSWALD diary. She said that she cannot recall having had an interest in the diary as a whole, but that she has had occasion to copy excerpts from it in her work for Commission attorneys. She commented that she does not recall having seen the original of the diary, or copies of the original in its handwritten form, but she believes that her work was with typed copies of this document. She added that in recent weeks, in the course of the preparation of the Commission report, she has had considerably more contact with the contents of this document than previously.

Mrs. KAMBER stated that she cannot recall ever having seen the documents, which were reproduced in the press and which were the personal possessions of OSWALD, prior to having seen them in the papers.

Mrs. KAMBER said that she has not traveled to Dallas, Texas, on Commission business, and that she is satisfied she has never met any person connected with any Dallas, Texas, newspaper.

Mrs. KAMBER stated specifically that she has never made available, to any person not authorized to receive same, any information or document coming into her possession through her connection with the Commission. She was unable to furnish any information pertinent to the unauthorized disclosure of these Commission matters.

Mr. DAVID P. LUHN, Administrative Index Section, Immigration and Naturalization Service, Washington, D. C., advised he was detailed to the President's Commission looking into the assassination of President KENNEDY, from April 29, 1964, to August 14, 1964. He said the first three weeks he worked at the National Archives under the direction of Mr. MAURICE MOORE classifying reports received as to topic matter. After the third week, he worked in the Commission's office at the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) building under the supervision of Miss JOSEPHINE FARRAR.

While working at the VFW building, Mr. LUHN said he was responsible for seeing that the proper copies were xeroxed in connection with each topic matter mentioned in the reports so they could be filed under the appropriate heading. He said the items xeroxed by him came from all agencies submitting reports.

Mr. LUHN said he recalls seeing excerpts of LEE HARVEY OSWALD's diary as they appeared in reports, but that he never made a copy of any part of the diary other than for breaking the diary down as to topic matter to be placed in the Commission files.

He disclaimed any knowledge of how the information appeared in "The Dallas Morning News," issues of June 27 and 28, 1964. Also that he is not personally acquainted with any members of the press from Dallas, Texas, New York, New York, or Washington, D. C., or any other area.

Her duties at the Commission consist of indexing the mail and other general duties as a file clerk.

Mrs. MC CALL stated she recalls seeing a Xerox copy of the LEE HARVEY OSWALD diary and read certain parts of this diary in the course of her duties. She said she has never furnished any information to anyone regarding the mail and material which she handles in the course of her duties. She said she is not acquainted with anyone who is employed or associated with the newspaper industry.

Mrs. MC CALL concluded by stating she has no idea who may have furnished the information regarding the LEE HARVEY OSWALD diary which appears in the Dallas newspapers or the "Life Magazine."

Mrs. LOUISE S. McKENZIE, 5633 3rd Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., furnished the following information:

Mrs. McKENZIE advised that she is presently unemployed but was formerly employed on a part-time basis as a clerk-typist for the Audit Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D. C. She said that she resigned from this job about June 21, 1964, because of illness, but intends to return to the job when her health permits.

She said that during the period of her employment, she was assigned to work as a clerk-typist for the President's Commission handling the investigation of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. She said that in this capacity she worked for the Commission from March 3, 1964, until approximately May 30, 1964. During this time she worked for Mr. EDWARD CONROY and Inspector JOHN J. O'BRIEN, both of the Internal Revenue Service assigned to the Commission.

Mrs. McKENZIE said that during her employment for the Commission she handled typing, filing and research matters. She said that she never saw the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never had access to it. She said that she did not know that the diary had been leaked to the press until after leaving the Commission, and the diary was published in "Life" magazine. She said that she had no idea of how the press got hold of this diary or of who might have made it available to them.

Mrs. McKENZIE said that she had never been approached by anyone to reveal the results of the Commission's investigation, nor did she know of anyone who had been approached in this manner. She said she did not know of anyone who might have leaked material to the press nor did she have any idea of how the press might have gotten access to Commission material.

Mrs. EDMUND L. (JEAN H.) MILLARD, Secretary to the Assistant for Administrative Management, Office of Administrative Services, Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Administration), Pentagon, Arlington, Virginia, furnished the following information:

Mrs. MILLARD was detailed to the President's Commission by the Department of Defense from January 6, 1964 to April 13, 1964, when she returned of her own volition to the Department of Defense to fill a permanent employment position which had opened and which she now holds. She had previously been floating in the Defense Department's personnel pool. She has been cleared to have access to top secret information.

Mrs. MILLARD had left Commission employment shortly after testimony had been initially furnished by MARIA OSWALD and the other members of the LEE HARVEY OSWALD family.

While attached to the Commission Mrs. MILLARD was employed as Secretary to JOSEPH BALL, Senior Attorney, and DAVID BELIN, Junior Attorney, in the group which reviewed the entire facts of the actual assassination up to where OSWALD had entered the taxicab in his departure from the crime scene.

During Mrs. MILLARD's employment with the Commission transcripts of testimony, some of which were classified "Top Secret," were closely guarded at the Commission's Offices. These items were always kept under close control in the office of J. LEE RANKIN. When a transcript or other classified document was needed for review it was personally obtained from RANKIN's office by the interested staff member, rather than by his secretary or other auxiliary employees.

The secretarial and clerical employees of the Commission who were the female employees, were greatly restricted as to the availability of Commission documents to them, but the staff members, who were the male employees, had far greater latitude in this regard and could secure these documents with a minimum of effort.

Protection from trespass upon Commission space from without was effectively afforded by the security guard force of the building.

Mrs. HILLARD was unable to furnish any specific information revealing or indicating the sources of leakage of Commission material. She considered that any leakage through Commission employees could have been more easily facilitated through the men employees than through the women employees. She further considered, however, that the leaks must have been from sources outside of Commission employment.

Mrs. HILLARD noted that all leakage of documents relating to LEE HARVEY OSWALD, including his diary, occurred long after her termination of Commission employment. She noted that the OSWALD diary had not yet been made available to the Commission when her employment was terminated.

Miss MARY L. NORTON, employed as a Secretary, Task Force, Office of The Secretary of Defense, Pentagon, and who resides at 2A Auburn Court, Alexandria, Virginia, with home telephone number KI 8-2693, advised she had previously worked on the President's Commission from January, 1964, to about July 13, 1964.

She explained she had returned to the Commission from the Defense Department for several days after July 13, 1964, but during that week, to complete some work and on an overtime basis. While with the Commission, she worked as a Secretary for Mr. ARLEN SPECTER and Mr. FRANCIS ADAMS, Attorneys for the Commission. The area of their work was concerned principally with the actual assassination of former President KENNEDY and his tour from Washington, D. C., to Dallas, Texas and up to the autopsy.

She advised that she and other members of the Commission were told of the type of work they were doing and were told of the need to keep the work done in confidence. Even if the papers handled bore no classification, they were told to treat them as confidential. She said she had followed these instructions religiously.

She assisted in the typing of Chapters Two and Three of the Commission's report relative to the President's motorcade in Dallas and relative to information concerning OSWALD's presence in the building from which the fatal shot was fired.

She stated she had not seen the completed copy of the Commission's report and had read only the galleys or proofs of the investigation covered by Mr. SPECTER and Mr. ADAMS. She was not with the Commission when its report was completed.

He specifically recalls he reproduced copies of the OSWALD diary at the instructions of Mrs. ADELE LIPPARD, a secretary for an official of the Commission. Mr. PIERPOINT said he is unable to recall the number of copies he reproduced or the exact date on which he performed this assignment.

Mr. PIERPOINT said, however, that about five days after he reproduced the copies of the diary he heard various employees of the Commission discussing the fact that the latest edition of "Life" magazine, which was dated on or about July 10, 1964, published the contents of the OSWALD diary. Mr. PIERPOINT added that sometime later he personally saw a copy of the "Life" magazine containing the article regarding OSWALD's diary.

Mr. PIERPOINT also stated he did not make available a copy of OSWALD's diary to "Life" magazine nor has he discussed any information from files of the Commission with any unauthorized individual. He added he has no information regarding the identity of "Life" magazine's source of information for the OSWALD diary.

He was on loan as a proof reader to the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy from May 1 to July 13, 1964.

Mr. FLAUGH had no information whatsoever concerning the HUGH AYNESWORTH article relating to LEE HARVEY OSWALD's diary in the June 27 and 28, 1964, issue of "The Dallas Morning News." He stated that he had never seen photographs of the diary or any information concerning same while he was working at the Commission's headquarters. He related that he had never been to Dallas, Texas, and did not know CARL FREUND, HUGH AYNESWORTH or anyone connected with "The Dallas Morning News." He commented that he personally did not disclose any information concerning OSWALD's diary. He remarked that it would have been impossible for him to do so inasmuch as he had no information concerning it except a "Washington Post" newspaper article which reported a story stating that information concerning OSWALD's diary had appeared in a Dallas, Texas, newspaper. Mr. FLAUGH stated that he had no idea whatsoever how reporter HUGH AYNESWORTH obtained information which he reported in "The Dallas Morning News" newspaper.

Mrs. EIDE stated those names preceded by an asterisk are persons who are currently away from the Washington, D. C., area, or are no longer employed at the Commission.

Mrs. HAUER said that she has never been to Dallas, Texas, and that to her knowledge she has never met anyone connected with any Dallas newspaper. She said specifically that she does not know HUGH AYNESWORTH, author of the articles concerning the OSWALD diary.

Mrs. HAUER stated emphatically that she has never made available to any unauthorized person any information or documents coming into her possession through her work with the Commission.

Mrs. HAUER said that in late May, 1964, Xerox copies of the political writings of LEE HARVEY OSWALD were sent by Mr. LIEBELER to Dr. G. THEODORE MITTAL, Political Science Professor at McAlester College, St. Paul, Minnesota. These documents were sent to Professor MITTAL for his professional opinion concerning them, and they were returned within a short time by Professor MITTAL. Mr. LIEBELER had obtained prior authority from Commission Counsel J. LEE RANKIN to send this material to Dr. MITTAL.

Mrs. HAUER said also that transcripts of depositions of witnesses before the WARREN Commission were sent out from Washington for signing and notarizing. These depositions generally went to the various United States Attorneys, who contacted the witnesses to obtain their signatures on these depositions. On occasion transcripts were sent directly to the witnesses involved, and Mrs. HAUER recalled one having gone to a witness in New Jersey and another to a witness in New York City. Each such transcript was returned, properly signed and notarized, to the Commission offices within a short period of time.

Mrs. HAUER said that there have been many copies of OSWALD's diary in the Commission's offices. Some are reproductions of the handwritten diary, others are typed, and still others printed. The diary has been much in demand for use by attorneys and staff members and has been actually used by most of the staff since the beginning of the investigation. Mrs. HAUER was satisfied that copies of the diary and related documents have been sent outside the Commission as well.

Mrs. HAUER stated emphatically that she had not made available to anyone not authorized to receive it any information or documents which came into her possession through her work with the Commission.

Mrs. HAUER commented that she has been employed in other agencies where very strict security of documents was enforced. However, this has not been her experience in her employment with the Commission. She said that anyone in the Commission can reproduce virtually any Commission document at any time without difficulty and that such copies might be carried outside Commission offices very easily.

MELVIN M. BELLI, Attorney at Law, 722 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, California, was interviewed at his offices on September 17, 1964 by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Mr. BELLI, who was attorney for JACK L. RUBY during the RUBY murder trial at Dallas, Texas, during 1964, was asked if he had any information or knowledge concerning the revelation in the press and in other news media of the so-called Oswald Diary. He advised that he had no information concerning the disclosure to the news media of this document. He stated that he is completely aware that there have been apparent leaks of information concerning many aspects of the RUBY-OSWALD matter. He stated that he believes there were leaks of information to the press and to other unauthorized persons during the time he was active in the defense of RUBY in Dallas.

He stated that on one occasion, prior to the start of the RUBY trial and with the agreement of both the defense and the prosecution, RUBY was afforded a medical examination in a private clinic in Dallas. An electroencephalogram was prepared during this examination. The only persons present other than RUBY during the time this examination was made, were JOE H. TONAHILL, an Attorney for RUBY, WILLIAM ALEXANDER, an Assistant District Attorney at Dallas, and the medical staff of the clinic. A day or two following this examination, an article appeared in "The Dallas Morning News", a daily newspaper, setting forth what was purported to be the results of the electroencephalogram. BELLI advised that he does not suspect TONAHILL or the clinic medical people in this matter but does suspect that ALEXANDER may have been responsible for the leak of the information. He concludes, therefore, that if ALEXANDER had access to information in the RUBY-OSWALD matter, he could well be responsible for the leak of this information to the news media. He stated that it is his understanding that ALEXANDER has a great desire to become District Attorney at Dallas. He explained that he has heard that the present District Attorney, HENRY WADE, may become a judge in the Federal Courts, which accounts for ALEXANDER's interest in this office.

NOTE:

Goldberg's telephonic request was telephonically furnished to SAC Shanklin in Dallas. Commission ~~desired~~ to insure that no one else was in the lunchroom at the time Truly and Baker observed Oswald there shortly following the assassination. Baker challenged Oswald and Truly identified him as a building employee at which time they departed and Oswald made his escape.. The signed statements attest to the fact that no one else was in the room at the time. Xerox copies of these statements have been retained for Bufiles.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated September 3, 1964, concerning the property of Lee Harvey Oswald and Marina Oswald. Your letter requested that steps be taken to insure that no property in the possession of the Oswalds as of November 22, 1963, the existence of which is not known to the Commission, still remains in the possession of Marina Oswald, Robert Oswald, Michael or Ruth Paine or any other person.

In this connection, there are enclosed two copies each of a memorandum dated September 15, 1964, and the four attachments thereto. The attachments to the September 15, 1964, memorandum record results of interviews of Michael and Ruth Paine, Robert Oswald and Marina Oswald in accordance with the request in your letter of reference. It will not be possible for us to comment concerning the possibility of property of Lee Harvey and Marina Oswald being in possession of individuals whose identities are unknown to us.

There are also enclosed for the further completion of your records the following photographs depicting the material turned over to us on September 11, 1964, by Marina Oswald. This material is described on pages two and three of the interview report of Marina Oswald dated September 14, 1964, which is attached to the enclosed memorandum. The item numbers utilized hereinafter follow the item numbers on pages one and two of the above-described interview report.

NOTE FOR SAC, DALLAS:

Enclosed for your inclusion in your files are seventeen photographs of Exhibits D-254 through and including D-262 described herein.

NOTE:

Referenced letter asked for assurance that no property of the Oswalds as of 11-22-63 existence of which is not known to the Commission still remains in the possession of Marina and Robert Oswald, the Paines or any other person. We have covered Marina and Robert Oswald and the Paines but, of course, cannot speak in the broad sense for any other person. For example, it is possible Oswald on November 23 may have lost property or had property stolen from him about which we know nothing. Marina on 9-11-64 interview assured us that all the property of Oswald as far as she knows has of 11-22-63 is in the possession of officials investigating the assassination. As to her own property exclusive of personal items such as wearing apparel she assured us that all such property has been presented for our perusal. The items depicted in enclosed photographs were items that Dallas picked up on 9-11 as material of some possible interest to the Commission. It is unlikely that this is so. However, in view of Commission's request, we are enclosing the photographs and are conducting cryptanalytic examination and are doing translations concerning this material. Microdot examination results per Laboratory 9-23-64 report. Enclosed memorandum and attachments have been approved for dissemination by Messrs. Belmont and Malley.

NOTE:

As a result of a letter received from the President's Commission dated 9-10-64, immediate investigation was initiated to interview Commission members, Commission staff and former attorneys of Jack L. Ruby relating to the leak of Oswald's diary, Ruby's polygraph examination and Ruby's testimony before Chief Justice Earl Warren to news media. At this time we are awaiting results from New York concerning the possibility of obtaining copies of Ruby's transcript with Warren which was published in the "New York Journal American." If received from New York, these documents will be compared in the Laboratory with those obtained from the President's Commission.

Efforts are currently being made to locate and interview additional members of the Commission and staff. The enclosed letterhead memoranda concern interviews with Mr. Arlen Specter, Assistant Counsel, President's Commission; Mr. Philip Barson of Internal Revenue Service and President's Commission staff member; Mr. Francis W. H. Adams, Legal Consultant to the President's Commission; and Miss Sharon Kegarise, former stenographer for the Commission. As additional results are received, they will be promptly furnished to the Commission.

Synopsis: Contact at Southern Greyhound Bus Lines and Continental Trailways Bus Lines, New Orleans, determined that on 9/25/63 Greyhound operated 13 buses and Continental Trailways operated 4 buses from New Orleans, La., to Houston, Texas, and are the only interstate bus companies operating between New Orleans and Houston. Dr. AUGUSTIN GUITART, New Orleans; advised that he has known SYLVIA ODIO since she was a small girl and that her father was a wealthy businessman in Cuba prior to the rise of CASTRO. SYLVIA ODIO's parents are currently in prison in Cuba. According to GUITART, SYLVIA ODIO suffered a very serious emotional breakdown in 1962 as a result of her parents being in prison and also because of domestic difficulties, which required she obtain psychiatric treatment. GUITART states that in the fall of 1963 SYLVIA ODIO was not physically well and sometime after the assassination of President KENNEDY, ODIO's four minor children came to New Orleans to reside with GUITART and wife while ODIO had an operation. In either February or March, 1964, SYLVIA came to New Orleans to take children back to Dallas. During this visit SYLVIA observed photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in newspaper and upon seeing photograph made the statement that OSWALD and two other males had on one occasion come to her residence in Dallas, Texas. GUITART states this was the first time SYLVIA had mentioned this to him, and she did not indicate date of visit nor did she state to him that OSWALD ever actually introduced himself to her as LEE HARVEY OSWALD. GUITART states that according to SYLVIA she made identification of OSWALD only through observing photographs of OSWALD in the newspapers. GUITART states that SYLVIA ODIO maintains an excellent reputation and would not intentionally make any untrue statements and had never known her to do so. Contacts at inexpensive hotels, New Orleans, in the vicinity of the Greyhound and Continental Trailways Bus Terminals and Lafayette Square Branch of the Post Office negative regarding OSWALD. Lt. MARTELLO, New Orleans Police Department, provided original longhand notes made by him of information on a slip of paper in OSWALD's possession at time OSWALD arrested in New Orleans on 8/9/63.

CONTACT AT SOUTHERN GREYHOUND BUS LINES AND CONTINENTAL TRAILWAYS BUS LINES, NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, REGARDING BUS SCHEDULES FROM NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, TO HOUSTON, TEXAS AS OF SEPTEMBER 25, 1963

1 Date 9/21/64

Mr. E. A. REIMHERR, Terminal Manager, Southern Greyhound Bus Lines, 1710 Tulane Avenue, advised that on September 25, 1963, his company operated thirteen buses from New Orleans, Louisiana, to Houston, Texas.

Mr. REIMHERR stated that the following is the schedule for Greyhound buses leaving New Orleans and arriving in Houston, Texas, on September 25, 1963:

Leaving New Orleans	Arriving Houston
12:45 a.m.	11:20 a.m. (Same day)
2:15 a.m.	11:15 a.m. (Same day)
3:30 a.m.	3:25 p.m. (Same day)
5:00 a.m.	4:55 p.m. (Same day)
7:00 a.m.	3:55 p.m. (Same day)
7:00 a.m.	6:35 p.m. (Same day)
9:45 a.m.	9:10 p.m. (Same day)
10:30 a.m.	10:35 p.m. (Same day)
1:45 p.m.	1:00 a.m. (Next day)
2:45 p.m.	12:20 a.m. (Next day)
5:45 p.m.	4:40 a.m. (Next day)
8:15 p.m.	7:55 a.m. (Next day)
10:45 p.m.	7:35 a.m. (Next day)

Mr. REIMHERR stated that in regard to the two buses which left New Orleans, Louisiana, at the identical time of 7:00 a.m. and arrived in Houston, Texas, at different times, the reason for the different times of arrival was as follows:

He stated that the bus which was scheduled to arrive at 3.55 p.m. is an express bus which makes limited stops between New Orleans and Houston and that this bus travels to Houston on U. S. Highway 190 via Baton Rouge and Opelousas, Louisiana. Mr. REIMHERR stated the other bus which also leaves at 7:00 a.m., but which arrives in Houston at 6:35 p.m., travels to Houston via U. S. Highway 90 through Houma and New Iberia, Louisiana, making numerous local stops en route.

Mr. REIMHERR stated that in regard to the Greyhound buses which left New Orleans at 1:45 p.m. and 2:45 p.m. and arrived in Houston, Texas, at 1:00 a.m. the next day and 12:20 a.m. the next day respectively, this is correct, as the bus leaving New Orleans at 1:45 p.m. travels to Houston via U. S. Highway 90 making local stops en route while the bus leaving New Orleans at 2:45 p.m. is an express bus making limited stops and travels via U. S. Highway 190 and therefore would arrive in Houston first.

Mr. REIMHERR stated that the above bus schedules comprise all of the buses operated by his company between New Orleans, Louisiana, and Houston, Texas, on September 25, 1963.

Mr. REIMHERR stated that his company and the Continental Trailways Bus Lines are the only interstate bus companies operating between New Orleans, Louisiana, and Houston, Texas, and were the only companies operating on September 25, 1963.

1 Date 9/21/64

MAJOR GREEN, Terminal Manager, Continental Trailways Bus Lines, 1314 Tulane Avenue, advised that his company operated four buses from New Orleans, Louisiana, to Houston, Texas. Mr. GREEN furnished the following schedule of buses leaving New Orleans and arriving Houston, Texas, which was effective on September 25, 1963:

Leaving New Orleans	Arriving Houston
8:15 p.m.	7:00 a.m. (Next day)
4:40 p.m.	2.15 a.m. (Next day)
12:20 p.m.	10:50 p.m. (Same day)
6:00 a.m.	4:30 p.m. (Same day)

Mr. GREEN stated that the above bus schedule comprised all of the buses operated by his company between New Orleans, Louisiana, and Houston, Texas, on September 25, 1963.

Mr. GREEN advised that his company and the Southern Greyhound Bus Lines are the only interstate bus companies operating between New Orleans, Louisiana, and Houston, Texas, and were the only companies operating on September 25, 1963.

INTERVIEW WITH DR. AUGUSTIN GUITART AT NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA, REGARDING SYLVIA ODIO

1 Date 9/21/64

Dr. AUGUSTIN GUITART, physics instructor, Xavier University, 7325 Palmetto, advised on September 9, 1964, that he resides at 1931 General Pershing, New Orleans, Louisiana. He advised that he is acquainted with SYLVIA ODIO and has known SYLVIA since she was a small girl who had formerly resided in Cuba. Dr. GUITART stated that SYLVIA ODIO is the niece of his wife, HELEN GUITART. Dr. GUITART stated that SYLVIA ODIO's parents are AMADOR and SARA ODIO, and that prior to the CASTRO regime in Cuba, her father was a millionaire who owned and operated a large trucking company and owned a considerable amount of land.

He stated that SYLVIA ODIO's parents, prior to the rise of CASTRO, maintained an excellent reputation in Cuba and that he considered SYLVIA to be a highly intelligent individual who maintained an excellent reputation.

Dr. GUITART stated that after CASTRO came to power in Cuba, SYLVIA's father and mother were imprisoned and that they are still in prison in Cuba. As a result of CASTRO, SYLVIA's family, including herself, lost all of their possessions and money and that SYLVIA and her former husband, GUILLERMO HERRERA, fled Cuba and came to reside in Miami, Florida, sometime in 1961 for a short period of time. Thereafter, SYLVIA and her former husband moved to Puerto Rico in 1961 where SYLVIA's husband obtained a job as a chemical engineer with an unknown company.

Dr. GUITART stated that while in Puerto Rico SYLVIA began having domestic trouble with her former husband and thereafter, sometime in 1962, date unknown, her husband was sent to Germany for some type of training by his company at which time he abandoned SYLVIA and their four children. As a result of this, SYLVIA and her husband were divorced.

Dr. GUITART stated that as a result, SYLVIA was left in Puerto Rico with these four children, the oldest being six years of age and with no means of support. Dr. GUITART stated that as a result of her mother and father being in jail in Cuba and the radical change in living conditions from what they formerly were when she resided in Cuba and because of her being abandoned by her husband, SYLVIA suffered a very serious emotional breakdown. As a result of this emotional breakdown, SYLVIA required psychiatric treatment in Puerto Rico; however, he did not believe that she was at any time placed in an institution.

Dr. GUITART stated that to the best of his recollection, it was either in February or March, 1963, that SYLVIA left Puerto Rico with her four children to reside in Dallas, Texas, with her sister ANNIE LAURIE ODIO. While en route to Dallas the airplane on which she was traveling made a stop at the New Orleans International Airport for a few minutes, and Dr. GUITART went to the airport and saw SYLVIA.

Dr. GUITART stated that during the summer and fall of 1963, SYLVIA ODIO would, on occasion, telephonically contact him and his wife from Dallas. The general conversation had to do with members of the family.

Dr. GUITART stated that sometime after the assassination of President KENNEDY in 1963 and prior to January, 1964, SYLVIA's sister brought SYLVIA's four children to New Orleans to stay with him and his wife inasmuch as SYLVIA had an operation at Dallas at an unknown hospital for the removal of her female organs. Dr. GUITART stated that during the fall of 1963 SYLVIA was not well physically because she was having trouble which resulted in the operation previously described.

Dr. GUITART stated that in either February or March, 1964, the date not recalled, SYLVIA ODIO came to New Orleans to take her children back to Dallas. He recalled that while at his residence, SYLVIA observed a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in a newspaper and upon seeing the photograph made the statement to him that OSWALD and two other males had on one occasion come to her residence in Dallas, Texas.

Dr. GUITART stated that this was the first time SYLVIA had ever mentioned this to him and that SYLVIA indicated that the other males accompanying OSWALD gave the appearance of being more Mexican than Cuban in their physical appearance. SYLVIA told him that these three individuals came to her residence during the evening at the time she was busy getting ready to move to another residence. Dr. GUITART stated that SYLVIA did not indicate the date of this occurrence nor did SYLVIA state to him that OSWALD had ever actually introduced himself to her as LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Dr. GUITART stated that according to SYLVIA, she made the identification of OSWALD only through observing photographs of OSWALD in the newspapers.

Dr. GUITART stated that he could not recall any specific conversation he had with SYLVIA regarding her statement that OSWALD had come to her residence in Dallas but recalled that it was sometime prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY and subsequent to August 12, 1963. Dr. GUITART explained that on August 12, 1963, he was present in Municipal Court in New Orleans, Louisiana, at the time OSWALD was charged with disturbing the peace as an aftermath of his altercation with CARLOS BRINGUIER on Canal Street in New Orleans.

Dr. GUITART stated that he could not recall whether SYLVIA ODIO made any mention of the purpose of the visit of these three individuals nor could he furnish any additional information.

Dr. GUITART stated that during his telephonic contacts with SYLVIA ODIO during 1963 and also at the time she came to New Orleans in February or March of 1964, she gave the appearance of having recovered from her previous emotional breakdown. Dr. GUITART stated that he did not believe that SYLVIA ODIO would intentionally make any untrue statements and that he had never known her to do so. He stated that since SYLVIA ODIO made the statement that OSWALD had come to her residence on one occasion, he believed her.

Dr. GUITART stated he believes that SYLVIA ODIO's former husband has returned to Puerto Rico where he is currently working as a chemical engineer for an unknown company.

1 Date 9/21/64

Lieutenant FRANCIS L. MARTELLO, Platoon Commander, First District, New Orleans, Louisiana, Police Department, on September 9, 1964, advised that on August 10, 1963, he interviewed a prisoner, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, at the First District, who had been arrested on August 9, 1963, for creating a disturbance while distributing Fair Play For Cuba Committee literature on Canal Street, New Orleans.

At the time OSWALD was questioned, Lt. MARTELLO said he examined identification papers furnished him by OSWALD and which OSWALD had removed from his wallet. At the conclusion of the interview, OSWALD was returned to his cell. Lt. MARTELLO stated he then placed his notes, along with several copies of the Fair Play For Cuba literature, in a file folder and placed the folder in a file cabinet.

At about 3:00 p.m. November 23, 1963, Lt. MARTELLO informed he was interviewed by Mr. ADRIAN G. VIAL, U. S. Secret Service, at the First District, as Mr. VIAL desired to secure from him any information he possessed regarding his, Lt. MARTELLO's, interview of OSWALD on August 10, 1963. At the outset of this interview, Lt. MARTELLO stated he secured the original file folder on OSWALD and turned over to Mr. VIAL all the literature which had been secured from OSWALD at the time of his arrest on August 9, 1963. Upon going through this folder, Lt. MARTELLO said he discovered a small piece of white paper containing handwritten notes in English and in some writing which appeared to him to be a foreign language that he could not identify and which had inadvertently become misplaced in the folder following interview with OSWALD. This piece of paper was turned over to Mr. VIAL, but before doing so, Lt. MARTELLO said he made a longhand copy of the information contained thereon.

Lt. MARTELLO made available the original longhand copy of the information which he had copied from the above-described small piece of white paper which was found in the possession of OSWALD at the time of his arrest at New Orleans, on August 9, 1963.

Mr. TRULY and Officer BAKER were to be questioned as to whether either had seen any individual except OSWALD in the lunchroom of the Texas School Book Depository building shortly after the assassination of President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963.

Enclosed herewith are the signed statements of ROY S. TRULY and MARRION L. BAKER obtained on 9/23/64 at Dallas, Texas.

I, ROY S. TRULY, do hereby furnish this voluntary statement to Richard J. Burnett who has identified himself to me to be a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

I am the Superintendent of the Texas School Book Depository located at 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, and was so employed as of November 22, 1963.

On the above date and just as President Kennedy's motorcade passed in front of my building, I reentered the building with a Dallas police officer after some shots had been heard coming from this general vicinity.

The officer and I proceeded to the stairway located in the northeast corner of the Texas School Book Depository building in order to proceed to the upper part of the building to see if we could see who had fired the shots.

I was leading the way up the stairs and the police officer was following me. After I was starting to ascend the stairs towards the third floor from the second floor, I noticed that the police officer was talking to someone in the lunch room located on the second floor.

I then went to the lunch room where I saw the officer facing Lee Harvey Oswald. Oswald was by himself in the lunch room. There was none else in the vicinity of the lunch room on the second floor other than Oswald, the police officer and myself.

I identified Oswald to the police officer as an employee of the Texas School Book Depository.

I have read this statement consisting of this page and one other page and it is true and correct to the best of my recollection.

I, Marrion L. Baker, do hereby furnish this voluntary signed statement to Richard J. Burnett who has identified himself to me as a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

I am employed as an officer with the Dallas police department and was so employed as of November 22, 1963.

On the early afternoon of that day after hearing what sounded to me to be bullet shots, I entered the Texas School Book Depository Building on the northwest corner of Elm and Houston Streets in downtown Dallas.

I had entered the building in an effort to determine if the shots might have come from this building.

On the second floor M.L.B., where the lunch room is located, I saw a man standing in the lunch room, drinking M.L.B. Coke. He was alone in the lunch room at this time.

I was never closer in the vicinity of the lunch room at this time.

I have read this statement consisting of this page and one other page and it is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I have initialled each page and each insertion.

Efforts to locate Warren Commission Staff Member W. T. COLEMAN, 612 West Porter Street, Philadelphia, on 9/18/64 elicited information that Mr. COLEMAN would be in Washington, D.C., doing Commission work over this weekend; likely not to return until Sunday, 9/20/64, and that while in Washington, D.C., he could be contacted for interview, care of Warren Commission or at the Madison Hotel. This information telephonically relayed to Night Supervisor SA CHARLES SHORE, Washington Field, to arrange for Washington Field to interview COLEMAN over weekend.

By letter dated July 30, 1964, the President's Commission on the assassination of President Kennedy requested investigation to determine how the "Dallas Morning News" obtained access to the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

Attached hereto are the reports of the interviews with Arlen Specter, Attorney, 1510 PSFS Building, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Assistant Counsel to the Warren Commission, and Philip Barson, 1138 East Slocum Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Warren Commission Staff Member.

Date September 19, 1964

Mr. ARLEN SPECTER was interviewed in his law office, 1510 Philadelphia Saving Fund Society Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. SPECTER served as Assistant Counsel of the Warren Commission. He stated he does not know the complete details of the handling of documents within the Warren Commission, except as they affected his own operation. He assumed that there was a charge-out system for documents. Certain documents, when needed, were obtained by calling the File Room, and the people of the File Room apparently knew which documents were in his possession. Other documents of a more highly restricted nature were maintained by the secretary to Mr. JLEE RANKIN, General Counsel. Mr. SPECTER said that he was conscious that there must have been a control system since when these documents were in his possession, other staff members, who needed to refer to them temporarily, came to SPECTER, knowing that he had them. He said the general security of documents was controlled by the use of safes, locked cabinets, and desks, and that he knows he himself cleaned his desk every night.

Mr. SPECTER said he had no information as to how many copies were made of each document; however, he assumed that this was made on the basis of the number of copies needed for the individuals working on each phase of the Commission's work. This would be determined by the General Counsel. He did not know whether extra copies were numbered, whether or not receipts or charge-out slips were kept, and whether or not any type of permanent charge-out record was maintained. There were two classes of documents - one which was of a high security nature, "Top Secret," and the other of a less critical security nature, "Confidential."

The first type of document, such as transcripts of testimony of witnesses before the Commission, would normally have ten copies made and were kept in Mr. RANKIN's office.

These were obtained directly from Mr. RANKIN's secretary and returned to her. The second class of documents was more widely used by Commission people in the phases of work which they were doing. These documents were investigative reports which the individual reviewed and consolidated. SPECTER said that the number of copies Xeroxed or made of a document made by the Commission was determined by the General Counsel. Generally speaking, documents were reproduced or Xeroxed within the Commission space. Notes of testimony or the depositions taken were frequently sent for reproduction to the Court Reporting Firm of WARD and PAUL. These were, to his recollection, Xeroxed by Ward and Paul on paper, which was pre-printed "Top Secret" in red at the top and bottom of each sheet. Subsequently, the "Top Secret" classification was downgraded to "Confidential," but he could not remember when this took place.

Mr. SPECTER advised that he had no information as to how the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD came into the possession of the "Dallas Morning News" Newspaper. He said he had not furnished this information to the paper, he knew of no one who might have done so, nor was he suspicious of anyone.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date September 19, 1964

Mr. PHILIP BARSON, 1138 East Slocum Street, Philadelphia, Pa., was interviewed at his residence.

Mr. BARSON advised he is a Group Supervisor in the Intelligence Section of the Internal Revenue Service in Philadelphia. He stated that he had been assigned to work for the Warren Commission and reported to Washington, D. C., February 27, 1964, and worked continuously until April 24, 1964. He had returned to Philadelphia on weekends. He had been called back to Washington and worked, with the exception of weekends, the following periods:

May 11, 1964, through May 22, 1964.

July 1, 2, and 8, 9, 1964.

August 3, 1964, through September 11, 1964.

Mr. BARSON stated that from February to April, he was reviewing reports to prepare information to be published by the Warren Commission with regard to LEE HARVEY OSWALD's financial activities.

Mr. BARSON explained that he completed his review of the FBI material relating to OSWALD's finances in the February through April period, and requested supplemental investigation. This was completed and forwarded to the Commission within the next two weeks, and he returned to Washington to work on this supplemental information during the May period. At that point, he assumed that his job with the Commission had been completed. The July, August, and September assignments, however, related to proofreading and checking the accuracy of citations and correct copying of source material in galley proofs of the Commission's ultimate report.

On 9/19/64 at Philadelphia, Pa. File # Philadelphia 105-9958

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

62-1 MAR 12 1973

It is Mr. BARSON's understanding that each document received by the Commission was assigned a Commission document number, and that the documents were controlled through these numbers. It is his understanding, also, that when Xerox copies were made, the document number would appear on the Xerox copies. He has no information as to the number of copies made or disseminated within the Commission since he had no part in making this type of decision or issuing this sort of instruction. He has no information that any Xerox copies made were individually numbered or identified for control purposes. It is his belief, from his experience with the Commission, that a staff member could have had copies duplicated by the clerk handling a Xerox machine, although he personally had no occasion to make any such request and did not make such a request.

Mr. BARSON said that he did not provide any information from the diary or other effects of LEE HARVEY OSWALD to anyone. He said that during one phase of his work for the Warren Commission in Washington, D. C., he used photostats of OSWALD's diary. He said he also used a typed transcript from the diary which was a Xerox of the original.

Mr. BARSON stated he does not know who might have made OSWALD's diary available to any newspaper or magazine, and he has no suspicions of anyone.

By letter dated September 10, 1964, the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy requested that investigation be conducted with regard to the unauthorized disclosures to news media of the Lee Harvey Oswald diary. The Commission requested interviews with members of the Commission and in addition, that interviews also be had with members of the Commission's staff.

It will be noted that by memorandum dated September 21, 1964, the results of interviews conducted with members of the Commission and the Commission's staff, who were located in the Washington, D. C., area during the period of September 16 through September 20, 1964, were set out.

There is set out hereinafter the result of an interview conducted by a representative of this Bureau on September 21, 1964, with Miss Sharon Kegarise, who was employed as a stenographer by the President's Commission during the period June-August, 1964.

Miss SHARON KEGARISE, residing at 5550 Columbia Pike, Arlington, Virginia, home telephone 671-2175, and employed as a secretary for the Technical Director of Research, Army Medical Research, Defense Department, advised she had served as a stenographer for the President's Commission from some time in June to August 12, 1964.

She said she had gone to the Commission from the Defense Department for three days in June and was recalled to the Defense Department. After about three days, possibly in the middle of June, 1964, she returned to the Commission where she worked continuously until August 12, 1964. At the Commission, she worked principally for Mr. W. DAVID SLAWSON, an attorney, who was concerned with the investigation of foreign conspiracy in connection with the assassination, OSWALD's trip and life in Russia and OSWALD's trip to Mexico. Aside from this, she had done a number of memoranda for other members of the Commission, which she had received in rough draft form.

She never saw the OSWALD Diary as such but believes she had seen Photostat or Xerox copies of pages of the diary at the Commission. She saw none of the other documents pertinent to this inquiry.

She said she had not furnished any information she had received through work at the Commission to any member of the press or to any unauthorized person. She is not personally acquainted with any members of the press.

Re report of SA Robert P. Gemberling 9-9-64 at Dallas in captioned matter.

Pages 42 through 45 of this report contain results of interview with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne E. Hartman of Dallas on 8-6-64. Mr. and Mrs. Hartman indicated that on the day of the assassination in the vicinity of the line of fire from the Texas School Book Depository building to the point where the late President Kennedy was shot, they noted a small hole in the ground that was just below the roots of the grass but which continued on a path below the surface of the ground in a horizontal direction for approximately 18 to 24 inches. They suggested this hole in the ground could have been caused by a bullet.

On 9-17-64 W. A. Branigan contacted ASAC Clark, Dallas, and suggested to Clark that if the Dallas Office had not made a physical check of the area of the aforementioned hole in the ground, such check be immediately made. Mr. Branigan suggested to Clark that mine detecting equipment possessed by the Department of the Army might be highly useful in such a check.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Pursuant to the conversation of Miss Jane Vida of your staff with Special Agent Robert E. Lenihan of this Bureau on September 22, 1964, there were delivered to the Commission on September 22, 1964, the following data:

(1) Two copies of amended page seven of the report of Special Agent James J. O'Connor dated April 21, 1964, at Miami, Florida, entitled "Lee Harvey Oswald, Aka, IS - Russia - Cuba." These amended pages are to replace the two copies of pages seven and eight of the report of Special Agent O'Connor dated April 21, 1964, which is in the possession of the Commission.

With the insertion of the amended pages, Special Agent O'Connor's report becomes unclassified.

This will confirm delivery of the aforementioned data to the Commission on September 22, 1964.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Synopsis:

Information furnished by PAUL BETHEL, Secretary of the Citizens Committee for a Free Cuba, Washington, D. C., claiming travel of JACK RUBY to Cuba following break in U. S. - Cuban relations, is hearsay, according to sources of BETHEL at Miami, Fla. Such information apparently based on a handbill of a clandestine organization in Cuba, and on a letter received by a Cuban exile at Miami; neither the handbill nor the letter give any specifics of RUBY's activity while alleged to be in Cuba. U. S. Government agencies at Miami handling interviews of Cuban refugees have received no information from arriving refugees concerning OSWALD or RUBY.

Mr. VALDES stated that his sister-in-law writes regularly of conditions in Cuba, and information which she believes of interest to Mr. VALDES. With respect to the items on RUBY, Mr. VALDES mentioned it only to his wife and to a friend, CARLOS GONZALEZ PARRA, a man about 60 years of age. Mr. VALDES stated he does not know JUAN MANUEL SALVAT or anyone else in the DRE at Miami. He supposed that either Mr. GONZALEZ PARRA or VALDES' wife had mentioned the item concerning RUBY to someone who, in turn, was connected with the DRE.

SECRET

Mr. VALDES stated that his sister-in-law, GRAZIELLA RUBIO, is unemployed and lives with an aged stepfather in Marianao. He stated his sister-in-law very probably learned the information concerning RUBY, as mentioned in her letter, through hearsay. He said she would not normally learn of any activities taking place in the vicinity of the Sevilla Hotel in Havana, and he pointed out that the Havana suburb of Marianao is a considerable distance from the area of the Sevilla Hotel.

On April 15, 1964, Investigator DANIEL SHEERIN, Travel Control Section, U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), Miami, Florida, and Investigator JOHN ELDRED, Deportation Section of INS, both advised they have direct contact with all Cuban refugees being processed and interregated by INS upon arrival of the refugees from Cuba. They advised that while they do not specifically question the refugees concerning aspects of the assassination of President KENNEDY, no refugee has volunteered information bearing on the assassination, and specifically concerning trips of JACK RUBY to Cuba.

Excluded from automatic downgrading and declassification.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

DETAILS:

This phase of investigation is predicated upon information received from PAUL BETHEL, Executive Secretary of the Citizens Committee for a Free Cuba, Inc., 1426 G Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. Mr. BETHEL had appeared on the "BARRY GRAY" radio program over Station WMCA, New York City, on February 6, 1964, at which time he discussed aspects of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. A resume of the radio program was set forth in memorandum dated April 6, 1964, at Washington, D. C., in the caption, "LEE HARVEY OSWALD; INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA."

Mr. BETHEL had stated on the radio program that "we" had been notified by people, whose judgment was trusted, that JACK RUBY had been in Cuba several times after the break in U. S. - Cuban diplomatic relations (January 3, 1961). He said that such travel by RUBY was clandestine.

On April 2, 1964, Mr. BETHEL advised Special Agents of the FBI at Washington, D. C., that his sources, whom he considered reliable as to RUBY's Cuban travel, were JOSE LANUZA, whom he described as affiliated with the Cuban Student Directorate in Miami, Florida, and Dr. SALVADOR LEW, associated with a Miami law firm.

He said another source to be contacted for information concerning OSWALD and concerning RUBY's trips to Cuba was Dr. FERNANDO CARANDI at Miami. Mr. BETHEL also stated he remembered reading, from unrecalled sources, that recent escapees from Cuba were advising that JACK RUBY had been in Cuba subsequent to the break in diplomatic relations. He suggested that representatives of newspaper wire services in Miami be contacted in this respect.

On April 15, 1964, SALVADOR LEW, a Cuban exile who is an attorney by profession, resident at 1260 S. W. 6th Street, Miami, Florida, advised that he had no knowledge of his own concerning the background or activities of either LEE HARVEY OSWALD or JACK RUBY. He suggested that the anti-CASTRO organization Directorio Revolucionario Estudiantil (DRE) (Cuban Student Directorate) at Miami, might be contacted for such information. He advised that the DRE engages in anti-CASTRO propaganda, and the dissemination of current news on the Cuban situation.

On April 15, 1964, Mr. FERNANDO CARANDI, a Cuban exile residing at 1038 S. W. 7th Avenue, Miami, Florida, stated he is a lawyer, teacher, and newspaperman by profession. He said that he is currently active in the publication of a news bulletin under the name Agencia de Informaciones Periodisticas (AIP) (Newspaper Information Agency). He advised that this publication is directed against Communism and the regime of FIDEL CASTRO in Cuba, and is disseminated primarily in Latin America. Mr. CARANDI stated that in his work with the AIP bulletin, he had received no information concerning trips of JACK RUBY, the assassin of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, to Cuba. He stated he recalled that the Cuban Student Directorate (DRE) at Miami had made such allegations in propaganda material which is edited by the DRE. He suggested that JUAN MANUEL SALVAT, an officer of the DRE, be contacted in this regard.

The following investigation was previously set forth in the case captioned, "JACK L. RUBY; LEE HARVEY OSWALD - VICTIM; CIVIL RIGHTS," and is being repeated here as pertinent to the information furnished by PAUL BETHEL:

Inquiry concerning an alleged association between JACK RUBY and one (FNU) PRATKINS was predicated on information received on January 13, 1964, from JOHN MARSHALL, Special Agent in Charge of the Secret Service office at Miami. Mr. MARSHALL advised that Mr. FRANK WATTERSON, Security Agent, United States Department of State, Miami, had received information from JOSE ANTONIO LANUSA of the Directorio Revolucionario Estudiantil (DRE) (Cuban Student Directorate) at Miami, to the effect that LANUSA heard that JACK RUBY had gone to Cuba last year, presumably 1963, by way of Mexico City. According to LANUSA, RUBY shared an office in a tourist agency on the main floor of the Sevilla Hotel in Havana, Cuba, with an American whose name was (FNU) PRATKINS.

On January 23, 1964, JOSE ANTONIO LANUSA, 24 years of age, Intelligence Officer for the DRE at Miami, Florida, stated that his information concerning the association of JACK RUBY and (FNU) PRATKINS was derived from two sources. The first source was a handbill-type newsletter dated December 24, 1963, at Havana, circulated by the clandestine anti-CASTRO organization in Cuba known as Accion Revolucionaria Anticomunista (ARAC) (Anti-Communist Revolutionary Action). This handbill had been sent by letter posted December 28, 1963, in Cuba, to the DRE, Post Office Box 168, Miami, Florida. The handbill, which was mimeographed, set forth the following sentence, as translated from the Spanish:

"The killer of the assassin of the deceased President KENNEDY, JACK RUBISTEIN, has been proven the owner of a tourist office in the Sevilla Hotel, Havana."

LANUSA stated there was no evidence to support this statement; however, he regarded the allegation as true, since it appeared in the clandestine newssheet disseminated by the anti-CASTRO organization ARAC.

LANUSA said that in addition to the information from ARAC, JUAN MANUEL SALVAT, another officer in the DRE at Miami, had received a letter containing additional information pertaining to RUBY and PRATKINS. This letter had been sent from Cuba to an exiled Cuban attorney (FNU) VALDES FAULI, who furnished it to SALVAT, according to LANUSA. LANUSA said this letter reported that JACK RUBINSTEIN was a habitual visitor to a souvenir store located across the street from the Sevilla Hotel on Prado Street, Havana, Cuba. The store belonged to a man by the name of (FNU) PRATKINS. RUBINSTEIN reportedly visited the store about a year ago, that is, about January, 1963, after flying to Cuba by way of Mexico City.

LANUSA stated that in the first part of January, 1964, on the occasion of a visit by him to the office of Mr. FRANK WATTERSON, State Department, Miami, Florida, he mentioned to Mr. WATTERSON the information that JACK RUBY had gone to Cuba during 1963, and had been associated with the individual PRATKINS in a tourist business at the Sevilla Hotel, Havana.

On January 23, 1964, JUAN MANUEL SALVAT, 25 years of age, also in the DRE, Miami, stated he had not actually received the letter from Attorney VALDES FAULI which is supposed to contain the information concerning the relationship of JACK RUBY and (FNU) PRATKINS. He said the information was related to him by a contact of VALDES. SALVAT declined to furnish the identity of the contact, stating he had not obtained this party's consent to involve him.

On January 27, 1964, Mr. CARLOS VALDES FAULI, a Cuban exile living at 2000 S. W. 24th Street, Miami, Florida, stated that he had been an attorney in the Supreme Court system in Havana, Cuba, prior to the advent of FIDEL CASTRO to power in Cuba. He stated he had arrived in the United States as an exile in November, 1961, after spending seven months in jail on political charges.

Mr. VALDES related that in approximately the beginning of January, 1964, he received a letter from his sister-in-law, GRAZIELLA RUSIO, age 45, who lives in Marianao, Cuba.

Mr. VALDES made available the section of the letter pertaining to JACK RUBY, and a translation from the Spanish is as follows:

"RUBY, the assassin of OSWALD, was in Havana a year ago. He is a friend and a client of an individual named PRASKIN, who owns or manages a souvenir shop located on Prado between Animas and Trocadero Streets in front of the Sevilla Hotel."

Mr. VALDES stated that his sister-in-law writes regularly of conditions in Cuba, and information which she believes of interest to Mr. VALDES. With respect to the items in RUBY, Mr. VALDES mentioned it only to his wife and to a friend, CARLOS GONZALEZ PARRA, a man about 60 years of age. Mr. VALDES stated he does not know JUAN MANUEL SALVAT or anyone else in the DRE at Miami. He supposed that either Mr. GONZALEZ PARRA or VALDES' wife had mentioned the item concerning RUBY to someone who, in turn, was connected with the DRE.

Mr. VALDES stated that his sister-in-law, GRAZIELLA RUBIO, is unemployed and lives with an aged stepfather in Marianao. He stated his sister-in-law very probably learned the information concerning RUBY, as mentioned in her letter, through hearsay. He said she would not normally learn of any activities taking place in the vicinity of the Sevilla Hotel in Havana, and he pointed out that the Havana suburb of Marianao is a considerable distance from the area of the Sevilla Hotel.

ADMINISTRATIVE:

One copy of this report is being furnished the Miami and Phoenix Offices in view of their previous interest and investigation concerning this particular matter.

Referenced Dallas teletype dated 9/15/64 reflects that information had been furnished to the President's Commission by SYLVIA ODIO, a Cuban refugee residing at Dallas, Texas, who claims that a person believed by her to have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD and two other individuals using anti-CASTRO war names of 'LEOPOLDO' and possibly 'ANGELO" had appeared at her apartment door during the evening of either 9/26/64 or 9/27/64 stating they were members of the Cuban underground and soliciting her help in translating a Spanish note to be used in the anti-CASTRO movement. At the time of this visit by the three individuals described above, ODIO was residing in Apartment A, 8014 Magellan Circle, Dallas, Texas, which address is located approximately five miles east of downtown Dallas in a large garden-type apartment development.

Referenced teletype reflects that SYLVIA ODIO has mental treatment background and the President's Commission has requested an expedite investigation to determine her reputation for veracity. b7c

The Bureau is advised that LORAN EUGENE HALL, whose interviews are set forth in this report, is identical with subject of Los Angeles file 2-218, Bureau file 105-78016, captioned IS - Cuba. b7c

The Bureau is also advised that LAWRENCE JOHN HOWARD, Jr., whose interview is set forth in this report is identical with LAWRENCE HOWARD, Jr., who is mentioned in letterhead memorandum prepared at Los Angeles dated 5/2/63, captioned "Second National Front of Escambray (operation Alfa 66)". This letterhead memorandum was forwarded to the Bureau by airtel dated 5/2/63, Bureau file 105-112093, Los Angeles file 105-14480.

Synopsis:

LORAN EUGENE HALL advised 9/16/64, that in September, 1963, he was at Dallas, Texas, in company of LAWRENCE HOWARD and WILLIAM SEYMOUR to solicite aid in anti-CASTRO movement. HALL contacted many Cubans in Dallas area. HALL recalled meeting a Cuban woman, Mrs. ODIO, who lived in Apartment A, located on Magellan Circle and the same apartment building where a Cuban friend named, KIKI FERROR, was then residing. HALL specifically denies that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was with him during his visit to Mrs. ODIO's apartment. On 9/20/64, HALL reinterviewed and advises that information furnished by him on 9/16/64 was incorrect and was furnished by error. After reflection concerning his many trips to Dallas, Texas, he has resolved that LARRY HOWARD and BILL SEYMOUR not in Dallas at the same time in HALL's company. He admits his presence in Dallas in September, 1963, with LARRY HOWARD and one WAHITO, a Cuban refugee. HALL recalls visiting a friend, KIKI FERROR and that FERROR had introduced HALL to a Cuban living in lower front apartment in same apartment occupied by FERROR. HALL denies this Cuban woman was ever contacted by him or his group for assistance. LAWRENCE

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 9/23/64

LORAN EUGENE HALL advised that he presently resides at 55 Rogers Road, Kernville, California, and receives mail at Post Office Box 84, Kernville, California. He is presently employed as a truck driver for the King-Davis Company which is contracting the hauling of logs to the Mt. Whitney Lumber Company at Johnsondale, California. HALL advises he also operates the Rainbow Motel at Kernville, California.

HALL stated that during the latter part of September, 1963, he was in Dallas, Texas in company with LAWRENCE HOWARD and WILLIAM SEYMOUR. HALL had gone to Dallas to solicite aid in the anti-CASTRO movement. HALL said they contacted three professors at the University of Dallas who are Cuban refugees. One of these professor's name HALL recalled, was ODIO. These professors furnished HALL with a list of Cubans living in the Dallas area who could be contacted to solicite assistance in this movement.

HALL said that they consequently contacted about 40 or 50 such persons. HALL said that he, HOWARD and SEYMOUR had been in Dallas about three or four days when he and SEYMOUR were arrested and held by the police. HALL and SEYMOUR were in custody for one day, during which time they were interrogated by various Federal intelligence agents concerning their activities. He recalled that the police took Polaroid photographs of himself and of SEYMOUR. HALL was also under the distinct impression that he had been fingerprinted.

HALL said that he recalled that while in Dallas on this particular occasion, the three of them, HALL, HOWARD, and SEYMOUR, had gone to the apartment of a Cuban woman who lived in a garden style apartment located on Magellan Circle in Dallas. HALL said that he could not picture this woman in his mind now. He said that her name was possibly ODIO. He said that he seemed to recognize this woman's name as ODIO because of the association with the name of the Cuban professor who had the same name, ODIO.

HALL stated that this Cuban woman lived in Apartment A of the same apartments located on Magellan Circle where a Cuban friend of his by the name of KIKI FERROR was living with two or three other Cuban men. He visited KIKI FERROR and on one occasion was introduced to this woman in passing outside of the apartments. Later, HALL, in company with WILLIAM SEYMOUR and LARRY HOWARD, went to her apartment to ask her assistance in the movement. HALL did not recall whether she was on the list given by the professors or if their previous introduction to her had prompted them to contact her. He said this contact was very brief and he did not believe that they even went into herapartment. HALL said that this would have been about three days before he and SEYMOUR were arrested.

HALL said that the above described incident would undoubtedly be the same incident which has been referred to by SYLVIA ODIO, but that he certainly would not have been the person whom SYLVIA ODIO could have mistaken as LEE HARVEY OSWALD. HALL explained that it now occurs to him that WILLIAM SEYMOUR is a person who might be said to generally resemble OSWALD. HALL described SEYMOUR as being white, male, American, age about 25 or 26, five nine to five ten in height, 155 to 160 pounds, slender build, light hair and blue eyes. HALL said that he does not know where SEYMOUR is at the present time. He said that SEYMOUR is from Phoenix and is probably living some where at Phoenix, Arizona. He said SEYMOUR works as a welder and might be living with a stepfather who has a different name than SEYMOUR. HALL thought it possible that LAWRENCE HOWARD, who lives in East Los Angeles, California, and may be listed in the telephone directory, might be able to furnish further information as to SEYMOUR's current address.

HALL stated that in his work in the anti-CASTRO movement, he used the name LORENZO PASCILLO. HALL said that when he was in Dallas on this occasion he had grown a full beard. HALL also said that he speaks Spanish fluently and although he does not have the Cuban dialect or use of Spanish colloquialisms mastered, he nevertheless has, on occasion, been mistaken for being a Cuban by other Cubans. He admitted that some Cubans would likely mistake him for a Mexican. HALL said that LARRY HOWARD is of Mexican decent and speaks Spanish fluently. SEYMOUR, according to HALL, has a very limited ability in the Spanish language.

HALL furnished the following physical description of himself on September 19, 1964:

Name:	LORAN EUGENE HALL
Anti-CASTRO name:	LORENZO PASCILLO
Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Born:	January 4, 1930, Newton, Kansas
Height:	5' 11½'
Weight:	200 pounds (215 in September, 1963)
Build:	Large
Hair:	Black
Eyes:	Hazel
Complexion:	Dark
Peculiarities:	Has worn mustache since 1960; had full beard in September, 1963.

HALL furnished the following description of LAWRENCE HOWARD:

Anti-CASTRO name:	ALONZO ESCURIDO
Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Nationality:	American, of Mexican decent
Age:	27 or 28
Height:	5' 11"
Weight:	235 pounds
Build:	Large, fat
Hair:	Black
Eyes:	Brown
Complexion:	Dark

HALL added that when they contacted persons in Dallas, Texas, during September, 1963, he believed that SEYMOUR was introduced to these persons as BILL SEYMOUR.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 9/23/64

LAWRENCE JOHN HOWARD, Jr., advised he was born January 17, 1935, at Los Angeles, California, and currently resides with his wife, ROSE HOWARD, and two young daughters at 3191 Blanchard Street, Los Angeles, California. HOWARD stated he is currently employed at the I.T.E. Circut Breaker Company, in East Los Angeles.

HOWARD stated that in January, 1963, he was in the Florida Keys engaged in training activity with a group of men planning for an anti-CASTRO invasion of Cuba. HOWARD stated that he did not want to identify these men further by name or description. HOWARD stated that he met and briefly conversed with LORAN EUGENE HALL at a bar in Miami, Florida, during one evening and this was the first time he had ever met HALL. This conversation could not have extended for more than 15 minutes. HALL told HOWARD that he had been with FIDEL CASTRO in Cuba during the revolutionary period of 1958. HALL related to HOWARD how he had defected from CASTRO prior to the revolutionary victory when he discovered that CASTRO was a Communist. HALL, according to HOWARD, appeared to be sincerely interested in the anti-CASTRO movement and offered to obtain medical supplies and funds to support a 'small invasion group.' HOWARD said he thought nothing more of HALL's remarks at this time in January, 1963.

HOWARD said that he returned to Los Angeles, California, to be with his family during late August, 1963. He recalled that he remained in Los Angeles for about 17 days prior to departing for return to Florida. During this time, HALL contacted HOWARD and stated that he had gathered some medical supplies for the anti-CASTRO movement and had contacted an unknown man in Dallas, Texas, who was willing to furnish a boat for the group's invasion attempt.

HALL desired to have HOWARD accompany him with these supplies on the trip back to Florida. HOWARD stated that one CELLIO ALBAS, a Cuban refugee who is also known as "QUARITO" and who was one of a group of anti-CASTRO persons training to land in Cuba, had come with HOWARD from Florida and had been visiting at HOWARD's home. HOWARD states that ALBAS was last known residing at 218 Northwest 15th Avenue, Apartment 307, Miami, Florida.

On about September 17, 1963, HOWARD, LORAN HALL and CELLIOS ALBAS, departed Los Angeles driving HALL's 1956 Oldsmobile and pulling a luggage carrier. HALL planned to stop in Dallas to pick up additional supplies, funds and contact an unknown man regarding a boat. They arrived in Dallas on about September 20, 1963, and all three thereafter registered at a motel located near a memorial park on the main highway leading out of Dallas toward Florida. HOWARD could not remember the name of this motel. HOWARD said they remained in Dallas for about ten days, during which HALL was busy making contacts to obtain additional supplies and attempted to contact this unknown man whom HALL had previously stated would furnish a boat large enough for a small invasion group. HOWARD said that HALL was most secretive about this unknown man and never named him or further described him. HOWARD said that on some of those contacts by HALL, he and CELLIOS ALBAS were present. On other such contacts, HALL insisted on going alone. HOWARD said that at this time he, HALL, and ALBAS all had heavy beards.

HOWARD stated that he recalls no contacts which he made with "a Cuban woman named ODIO at an apartment on Magellan Circle in Dallas." HOWARD is certain he would have remembered such a contact if it had occurred. HOWARD stated that the circumstances concerning a Cuban refugee woman living in Dallas would have certainly spurred his memory and therefore he is positive that he has no knowledge of such a personal contact.

HOWARD stated that the only KIKI FERROR he knows is one KIKI MASFERRER, a well known Cuban refugee and dentist now residing at Miami, Florida. This KIKI MASFERRER, according to HOWARD, is the brother of ROLANDO MASFERRER, who is well known in the anti-CASTRO movements. HOWARD states he has never known this KIKI MASFERRER to have resided in Dallas, Texas.

HOWARD stated he had no personal knowledge of, or acquaintance with LEE HARVEY OSWALD until after the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and then only to the extent of what he had read in the local press.

HOWARD said that he, HALL, and ALBAS departed Dallas around September 30, 1963, and drove in HALL's automobile to the Florida Keys. HOWARD stated he was anxious to return to the training activity with this invasion group. HOWARD specifically recalls that they left behind in Dallas, the luggage carrier with the medical supplies. HOWARD stated that later during the middle of October, LORAN HALL and BILL SEYMOUR, another member of the anti-CASTRO group in training in the Florida Keys, drove HALL's automobile back to Dallas to pick up the luggage carrier and make further arrangements for a boat.

HOWARD later learned that HALL and SEYMOUR were arrested in Dallas by the police shortly after their arrival and were charged with possession of 'dangerous drugs.' HOWARD said they told him that they were released after one day. HOWARD said that HALL and SEYMOUR then returned to the Florida Keys with the luggage carrier and medical supplies. HALL told HOWARD that he had not been successful in obtaining a boat from the unknown benefactor in Dallas, Texas. HOWARD recalled that HALL and SEYMOUR arrived back in the Florida Keys late in October, 1963.

HOWARD stated that he has no knowledge that LORAN HALL or BILL SEYMOUR had any knowledge of, or were acquainted with LEE HARVEY OSWALD during September, 1963.

LAWRENCE HOWARD furnished the following description of himself:

Name:	LAWRENCE J. HOWARD. Jr.
Born:	January 17, 1935, Los Angeles, California
Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Age:	29

Height:	5' 11'
Weight:	222 pounds (200 in September, 1963)
Hair:	Black, wavy
Eyes:	Brown
Complexion:	Medium olive
Characteristics:	Mustache, had beard in September, 1963, speaks English fluently and also Spanish fluently
Build:	Fat

HOWARD furnished the following description of CELLIOS ALBAS:

Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Nationality:	Cuban
Age:	35
Height:	5' 10'
Weight:	160 pounds
Hair:	Light brown
Eyes:	Dark brown
Complexion:	Dark
Characteristics:	Speaks little English.

HOWARD stated ALBAS bears no resemblence to LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

HOWARD furnish shapshots of himself, CELLIOS ALBAS and BILL SEYMOUR taken during 1963 somewhere in the Florida Keys.

LAWRENCE HOWARD stated that he has not been on friendly terms with LORAN EUGENE HALL since about January, 1964, in that HALL is basically responsible for having destroyed the effort which HOWARD, SEYMOUR and others of an invasion group had made to effect a successful invasion of Cuba. HOWARD said that HALL is 'a scatter brain, unreliable, emotionally disturbed and an egotistical liar."

LORAN EUGENE HALL, 55 Rogers Road, Kernville, California, was reinterviewed. HALL said that he had been in error in previously stating that the incident referred to by SYLVIA ODIO had probably involved a contact by himself, WILLIAM SEYMOUR and LAWRENCE HOWARD. After reflection regarding trips made by him to Dallas and Miami, he now recalls that he was accompanied by WILLIAM SEYMOUR and by LAWRENCE HOWARD in Dallas on separate trips to that city.

HALL said he actually has no independent recollection of the date when he and BILL SEYMOUR were arrested in Dallas, or for any other of his experiences. He recalls now that he left Los Angeles in his 1956 Oldsmobile, pulling a small trailer of supplies, about the middle of September, 1963. He was accompanied on this trip by LARRY HOWARD and one "WAHITO", who claimed to be a Cuban refugee, but who HALL has now concluded was a CASTRO plant. They reached Dallas about two and a half or three days later and stayed in Dallas about four days. He said that he did not now recall any contacts made by this trio for the purpose of soliciting assistance, especially since he did not trust WAHITO.

HALL said that on this visit to Dallas, as on each of his visits there, he got in touch with KIKI FERROR. HALL is now unable to recall that HOWARD or "WAHITO" were with him when he saw KIKI, and believed he recalled that they waited in the car when he went to KIKI's apartment. He said that he believes that it was on this visit that KIKI had introduced him to the Cuban woman living in the lower front of KIKI's apartment building. However, now he does not believe that this woman was ever contacted by him or his group for any type of assistance.

HALL said that KIKI FERROR is no relation to the dentist, KIKI NASFERRER (phonetic), who lives in Miami and who is the brother of "EL TIGRE." According to him, KIKI FERROR was employed by the Texas Optical Instrument Company of Dallas. HALL described the apartment where KIKI lived as a new two story building located in an area of old houses. He said it has 'Plaza' in wrought iron on the front of the building and was built around a garden. However, he now thinks that it was located about 14 blocks north, and seven block west of the Nieman Marcus Department Store of downtown Dallas, not five miles east of downtown Dallas. He said he is almost positive that the name of the street is Magellan Circle, and if not, that it was some name very similar.

The trio then took about three days to drive to Miami. HALL said that he left the trailer which he brought from Los Angeles at Dallas. HALL was in Miami about two weeks and then returned to Dallas accompanied by BILL SEYMOUR. No one else was with them. They stayed at Dallas for six days during which time they were waiting for a contact with a U. S. citizen, who he declined to identify, concerning obtaining a boat. He said that they stayed in a hotel in downtown Dallas and also at the home of a Dallas resident, but that he could not identify this person as he is unwilling to bring any Americans into any account of his activities.

HALL said that when he and SEYMOUR were under arrest at Dallas, Texas, he was interviewed by several different representatives of various federal intelligence agencies. He also said that his photograph had been taken several times while he was in custody, both by Polaroid and by a "mug shot" when he was seated behind a board which had numbers placed on it. SEYMOUR was also photographed. Both were fingerprinted.

HALL said that a Dallas resident had made available $5,000, which HALL put up for bail, and that they were released. They stayed at the YMCA for two days, and when they were told by the prosecuting attorney, one Mr. WADE, that charges had been dropped, they left Dallas, taking the trailer which he had left on his previous trip through Dallas to Miami.

HALL said that his recollection now is that while he and SEYMOUR were in Dallas, they made no contacts with any Cubans regarding assistance. He said that he made a few contacts with personal friends, including KIKI FERROR. However, he does not think that SEYMOUR was ever in the apartment building where FERROR was living. He said he thinks that SEYMOUR waited for him in the car when he went in to see KIKI, and that they located KIKI at a phone booth about two blocks away from the apartment and drove KIKI over to his girl friend's house where they dropped him off.

HALL explained that recalling specific information concerning incidents and persons and places involved in Dallas and Miami is complicated for him by the numerous and extensive traveling he did during 1963. He said that he is now able to recall that it was probably in April, 1963, when he contacted the three Cuban professors at the University of Dallas and was provided with a list of Cubans residing in Dallas from whom he later solicited assistance. On this occasion he was by himself and flew in from Miami and back. He said that he recalled visiting Dallas five times during 1963, in January, April, June, September, and October.

HALL said that, having eliminated the confusion of his associates of the September and October visits from his recollection, he now does not remember any incident where he, in company of two other individuals, may have made a contact such as the one described by SYLVIA ODIO. He maintained that the name ODIO and information concerning a father being a prisoner on the Isle of Pines is familiar to him, but that he is now unable to relate this to any experience which he had in Dallas.

HALL said that based on his calculation concerning travel made by him, HOWARD and "WAHITO", they very possibly could have been in Dallas on or close to September 26, and 27, 1963. He said that compared with HOWARD and "WAHITO" he would be the one in this trio who would be taken for an American as HOWARD is definitely latin appearing and 'WAHITO' has an extremely dark complexion. However, he emphasized that both he and HOWARD wore full beard at the time.

Enclosed herewith for the Dallas Division is a small notebook reflecting it was made for the Sheraton Hotels and Motor Inns.

This notebook was furnished the San Antonio Office on 9/28/64, by ELMER E. COOPER, M.D., offices at 505 Howard, San Antonio, Texas. He does not desire the notebook returned.

On 9/28/64, Dr. COOPER orally advised SA JOHN M. KEMMY, to whom he gave this notebook, that on Thursday, 9/24/64, at about 5 p.m., he checked in at the Sheraton Hotel in Dallas, Texas. On that date he found this notebook in a phone table between the beds in his room number 2422 at the Sheraton Hotel. He found the notebook under some blank hotel stationery in a drawer in this table. Dr. COOPER returned to San Antonio on 9/27/64 and explained that he checked out of the Sheraton Hotel on that date at about 10 a.m. Dr. COOPER advised that from reading the notebook some of the notations therein appeared to refer to LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and desired to call this matter to the Bureau's attention. He speculated that possibly the notebook had belonged to some reporter.

This notebook is approximately 4" x 6" in size and contains several pages of handwritten notations in ink some of which are illegible. It is noted that the initials LHO and GDM appear frequently throughout these ntations.

Inasmuch as the San Antonio Office is unable to determine the significance of these notations, this notebook is being furnished the Dallas Office for perusal. Dallas may desire to determine the occupant of Room 2422 of the Sheraton Hotel prior to Dr. COOPER. However, inasmuch as San Antonio is not in possession of all facets of this investigation, it is believed that the Dallas Office is in a position to analyze the data in this notebook and take whatever action is necessary concerning it.

San Antonio is taking no further action in this phase of this investigation, UAC.

During his lecture L.N. also announced that on 10/15/64, he will appear on the "New David Susskind Show" (television) with WILLIAM BUCKLEY and New York Columnist DOROTHY KILGALLEN. BUCKLEY is the publisher of "National Review".

During his lecture on 9/23/64, L.N. alleged that JACK RUBY told his attorney, MELVIN BELLI, that he, RUBY, was instructed to kill OSWALD the night before he actually murdered him in the headquarters of the Dallas Police Department. According to L.N., RUBY is extremely worried about the personal safety of his sister. RUBY claims, according to L.N., if he could leave Dallas he would be able to tell a great deal more concerning the assassination. L.N. stated that Chief Justice WARREN has refused to help RUBY in leaving the Dallas area.

L.N. further claimed there is a Negro woman who witnessed the shooting of Dallas Police Officer J. D. TIPPIT. L.N. stated she has been warned by the Dallas Police Department that she will be killed if she tells all that she knows and further a Dallas police officer told her "the guy that killed the President is still around".

L.N. stated the report of the Warren Commission will very likely show as its main feature a picture of LEE HARVEY OSWALD firing a rifle from a window in the Texas Book Depository, Dallas, Texas.

During the course of his speech L.N. again accused the FBI of altering or changing evidence relating to the assassination of President KENNEDY. He alleged that the handling of the investigation by the FBI warrants the "demolishment" of the FBI.

No further information has been received re subject's scheduled appearance in San Francisco, California, on 10/5/64, or his possible appearance at The University of Texas, Austin, Texas.

Re Bureau radiogram to Dallas, 9/4/64, concerning additional identification of latent prints on four cartons found in the Texas School Book Depository Building and instructing that if not already done, Identification Division should be requested to compare the prints of all FBI employees in Dallas including those on special assignment as of 11/23/63, against unidentified latents on cartons.

With respect to the above instructions, the following information is submitted concerning communications bearing on the four cardboard cartons containing the unidentified latent prints:

By Dallas letter 11/23/63, certain items were described therein which were obtained by SA VINCENT E. DRAIN from Capt. WILL FRITZ of the Dallas PD, all of which items were delivered by SA DRAIN in person to the FBI Laboratory and returned to the Dallas PD by SA DRAIN on 11/24/63 after examination by the Laboratory. The four cardboard cartons were not among items listed in this letter and were not among items delivered by SA DRAIN.

Dallas letter to the Bureau dated 11/27/63 reflects description of items obtained from Lt. CARL DAY, Dallas PD on 11/26/63 by SA DRAIN. Among such items obtained from Lt. CARL DAY were the items listed in the 11/23/63 letter which were obtained for resubmission along with certain additional items. Inadvertently, the four cardboard cartons which were obtained by SA DRAIN from Lt. CARL DAY on 11/26/63 for the first time, were listed on page two of this letter among items which had previously been taken to the FBI Lab in person by SA DRAIN as described in the 11/23/63 letter mentioned above.

SOVIET SECTION

By letter dated 11/29/63, the Latent Fingerprint Section of the FBI Identification Division, under Latent Case #46903, referred to Dallas letter of 11/27/63 described above, as well as personal delivery of evidence by SAs DRAIN and WARREN C. DeBRUEYS on 11/23/63. This letter reflects that among the items received were "four cardboard boxes".

The Bureau's attention is called to the fact that SA DRAIN delivered the evidence described in Dallas letter of 11/23/63 in person while SA's DRAIN and DeBRUEYS delivered evidence described in Dallas letter of 11/27/63.

Current investigation has established through Lt. J. CARL DAY that the four cardboard boxes were processed by Lt. DAY at the Texas School Book Depository on 11/22/63 shortly after the assassination but such cartons were not removed from the Texas School Book Depository building by the Dallas PD Crime Lab until the morning of 11/25/63, which according to Lt. DAY's best recollection, was the date the boxes were actually taken to the Dallas PD Crime Lab.

These four cardboard cartons were turned over by the Dallas PD Crime Lab to SA DRAIN on 11/26/63 for the first time, along with other evidence.

The Bureau's attention is therefore respectfully called to pages 181 and 182 of the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 11/30/63 which reflects the same information as contained in Dallas letter to the Bureau of 11/27/63, described above, and which lists the four cardboard boxes being delivered to the FBI Lab on 11/27/63 by SA DRAIN but inadvertently lists the four cardboard boxes as having been previously examined by the FBI Lab on 11/24/63.

The Bureau's attention is also respectfully called to pages 363 and 364 of the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated 12/10/63, which sets forth the results of the Latent Fingerprint Section examination contained in the Latent Fingerprint Section letter of 11/29/63 described above. The first paragraph on page 363 reflects that the specimens listed were received at the Latent Fingerprint Section, Identification Division by personal delivery of SAs DRAIN and DeBRUEYS on 11/23/63. The four cardboard boxes were not delivered by SAs DRAIN and DeBRUEYS on 11/23/63 but were first delivered to the Lab along with other items on 11/27/63.

Therefore, the Bureau may desire to advise the President's Commission with respect to pages 181 and 182 of the report of 11/30/63, and pages 363 and 364 of the 12/10/63 report, that the four cardboard cartons were first submitted to the FBI Lab for examination on 11/27/63.

In accordance with instructions in referenced Bureau radiogram, in light of the foregoing information, the Dallas Office will submit to the Identification Division, a request that the prints of all FBI employees in Dallas including those on special assignment as of 11/26/63, for comparison against the unidentified latents on the cartons, which request will be handled by separate communication.

Re Bureau airtel to New York, dated 9/11/64.

Enclosed for the Bureau are three photographs of page one of the August 30, 1964 issue of the National Enquirer and three photos of the center page of the same issue along with negatives.

This issue was loaned to this office by the Public Library of New York on 9/17/64 and had to be returned on the same date.

Attempts to obtain copies of this issue from various sources in New York City were negative.

Pretext inquiry at the National Enquirer revealed that they had no copies of this issue.

Reference is made to your letter dated September 2, 1964, which enclosed a copy of a communication with enclosures addressed to former Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy written by Leo A. Gorman.

Enclosed for your information is one copy of a memorandum captioned, "Leo A. Gorman" dated September 18, 1964, Los Angeles, California. Your attention is directed to pages 28, 29, and 30 which reveal results of investigation conducted by our Los Angeles Office.

The writing of Gorman's entitled, "An Analysis of the Character of the Assassin of President John F. Kennedy" was contained in the report of Special Agent Chester C. Orton dated July 30, 1964, Los Angeles, captioned, "Lee Harvey Oswald, AKA., IS-R-Cuba" and was furnished to The President's Commission on August 7, 1964.

In view of the observations made by Gorman's associates concerning his mental instability, no further action is being taken by this Bureau. However, copies of the enclosure have been furnished to The President's Commission and the U. S. Secret Service.

NOTE: The Department furnished the Bureau a letter written by Gorman comprising 15 hand-written pages including enclosures, two of which were acknowledgment letters from SAC, Los Angeles, and also two printed copies of writings by Gorman, one of which has previously been furnished in a report to The President's Commission. Essentially, Gorman's letter was a "help me" letter to the Attorney General which was completely unrelated. Los Angeles investigation determined there are definite indications Gorman is mentally unbalanced and he has indicated on several occasions he has been followed by "Federal Agents." In view of Gorman's background, no further action is necessary. The LHM is being furnished to the commission by letter dated 9/25/64, and a copy is being furnished to Secret Service by 0-14 (I).

LEE HARVEY H@@X OSWALD. IS DASH R AND CUBA.

LORAN EUGENE HALL, KERNVILLE, CALIFORNIA, WAS REINTERVIEWED EVENING SEPTEMBER TWENTY LAST. HE ADVISED HE HAD BEEN IN ERROR IN STATING THAT THE INCIDENT REFERRED TO BY SYLVIA ODIO HAD PROBABLY INVOLVED HALL, LAWRENCE HOWARD, AND BILL SEYMOUR AS HE NOW RECALLS THAT HOWARD AND SEYMOUR WERE NEVER WITH HIM AT THE SAME TIME IN DALLAS, TEXAS. HE SAID THAT HE, HOWARD, AND ONE QUOTE WHITO UNQUOTE, A CUBAN REFUGEE, LEFT LOS ANGELES ABOUT THE MIDDLE OF SEPTEMBER, NINETEEN SIXTY THREE, AND WENT TO DALLAS AND THEN TO MIAMI. THEY TOOK ABOUT TWO OR THREE DAYS TO DRIVE TO DALLAS AND WERE IN DALLAS ABOUT FOUR DAYS. THEREAFTER HALL WAS IN MIAMI ABOUT TWO WEEKS AND THEN RETURNED TO DALLAS

ACCOMPANIED BY SEYMOUR. HE AND SEYMOUR WERE IN DALLAS FOR SIX DAYS WAITING FOR A CONTACT WITH A U.S. CITIZEN, WHOM HALL DECLINED TO IDENTIFY, CONCERNING OBTAINING A BOAT, AND THEN WERE ARRESTED.

HALL STATED HE HAD CONFUSED CONTACTS MADE ON FIVE DIFFERENT VISITS TO DALLAS DURING NINETEEN SIXTYTHREE WHEN HE PREVIOUSLY STATED THAT ODIO UNDOUBTEDLY REFERRED TO A VISIT AT HER APARTMENT MADE BY A TRIO COMPOSED OF HALL, HOWARD, AND SEYMOUR. HE SAID HE NOW RECALLS NO CONTACTS WITH CUBANS WERE MADE ON EITHER OF THE VISITS WHEN HOWARD AND SEYMOUR WERE WITH HIM IN DALLAS. HE FURTHERMORE STATED THAT HE CAN RECALL NO CONTACT MADE BY HIM WHICH WOULD BE IDENTICAL WITH THE ONE DESCRIBED BY ODIO.

HALL STATES THE KIKI FERROR WHO LIVES IN DALLAS IS NO RELATION TO THE DENTIST KIKI MASFERRER OF MIAMI. KIKI FERROR WORKED FOR THE TEXAS OPTICAL INSTRUMENT COMPANY IN DALLAS AND LIVED IN APARTMENT D OF A NEW TWO - STORY APARTMENT BUILDING LOCATED IN AREA OF OLD HOUSES. APARTMENT WAS BUILT AROUND A GARDEN AND HAD QUOTE PLAZA UNQUOTE IN WROUGHT IRON ON THE FRONT. HALL STILL FEELS CERTAIN THE NAME OF THE STREET

WAS MAGELLAN CIRCLE, BUT RECALLED IT ABOUT FOURTEEN BLOCKS NORTH AND SEVEN BLOCKS WEST OF NIEMAN MARCUS DEPARTMENT STORE AND NOT FIVE MILES EAST OF DOWNTOWN DALLAS. HE STILL RECALLS THAT KIKI FERROR INTRODUCED HIM TO A CUBAN WOMAN WHO LIVED IN THE LOWER FRONT APARTMENT AND NOW HAS CONCLUDED THAT HE NEVER DID CONTACT THIS WOMAN FOR PURPOSE OF SOLICITING AID OF ANY SORT.

HALL SAID THAT THE NAME OF ODIO AND INFORMATION REGARDING HER FATHER BEING A PRISONER ON THE ISLE OF PINES IS FAMILIAR TO HIM, BUT NOW CAN RELATE IT TO NO EXPERIENCE WHICH HE HAD IN DALLAS.

AFTER LENGTHY INTERVIEW WITH HALL, IT IS OPINION OF INTERVIEWING AGENT THAT HALL IS COMPLETELY UNRELIABLE FOR REASON THAT HE EITHER HAS EXTREMELY POOR ABILITY TO RECALL WHAT HE HAS ACTUALLY DONE OR BECAUSE HE SEEMINGLY IS COMPELLED TO GRASP AND SPEAK AUTHORITATIVELY CONCERNING ANY PERSON OR INCIDENT WHICH WOULD MAKE HIM APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN PROMINENTLY ENGAGED IN ANTI DASH CASTRO ADVENTURES.

LAWRENCE JOHN HOWARD, JR., LOCATED AND INTERVIEWED AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, AFTERNOON SEPTEMBER TWENTY LAST. HOWARD MET LORAN HALL IN JANUARY, NINETEEN SIXTY THREE, AT MIAMI, FLORIDA. HALL PROMISED CONTACTS WHO COULD ASSIST ANTI DASH CASTRO MOVEMENT WITH FUNDS AND SUPPLIES. IN AUGUST, NINETEEN SIXTY THREE, HOWARD WAS IN LOS ANGELES VISITING FAMILY AND WAS CONTACTED BY HALL WHO ADVISED HE HAD COLLECTED MEDICAL SUPPLIES FOR ANTI DASH CASTRO MOVEMENT. ABOUT SEPTEMBER SEVENTEEN, NINETEEN SIXTY THREE, HOWARD, A CUBAN REFUGEE FROM MIAMI NAMED CELLIOS ALBAS, AKA QUOTE JUARITO UNQUOTE, WHO HAD BEEN VISITING WITH HOWARD, AND LORAN HALL, DEPARTED LOS ANGELES DRIVING HALL'S AUTOMOBILE AND PULLING A LUGGAGE CARRIER LOADED WITH MEDICAL SUPPLIES. ON ABOUT SEPTEMBER TWENTY, NINETEEN SIXTY THREE, ALL THREE ARRIVED AT DALLAS AND REGISTERED AT MOTEL, LOCATION NEAR MEMORIAL PARK ON MAIN HIGHWAY LEADING OUT OF DALLAS TOWARDS FLORIDA. THEY STAYED IN DALLAS ABOUT TEN DAYS DURING WHICH HALL ENGAGED IN COLLECTING ADDITIONAL SUPPLIES AND SOLICITING FUNDS. HOWARD AND ALBAS ACCOMPANIED HALL ON SOME OCCASIONS. ALL THREE HAD HEAVY BEARDS AT THIS TIME. HALL, HOWARD, AND ALBAS

END PAGE FOUR

DEPARTED DALLAS AROUND SEPTEMBER THIRTY, NINETEEN SIXTY THREE, AND DROVE TO THE FLORIDA KEYS, LEAVING BEHIND THE LUGGAGE CARRIER AND MEDICAL SUPPLIES.

HOWARD SPECIFICALLY DENIES ANY RECOLLECTION OF ACCOMPANYING HALL DURING PERSONAL CONTACT OF A QUOTE CUBAN WOMAN REFUGEE NAMED ODIO AT AN APARTMENT IN MAGELLAN CIRCLE IN DALLAS. UNQUOTE. HOWARD FURTHER STATES THE ONLY KIKI FERROR HE KNOWS IS KIKI MASFERROR, A CUBAN REFUGEE DENTIST OF MIAMI, FLORIDA. HOWARD NEVER KNEW THIS FERROR TO HAVE BEEN A RESIDENT OF DALLAS. HOWARD STATES NO PERSONAL ACQUAINTANCE OR KNOWLEDGE OF LEE HARVEY OSWALD UNTIL AFTER PRESIDENT'S ASSASSINATION AND THEN ONLY TO EXTENT OF ARTICLES APPEARING IN PRESS.

AFTER HALL, HOWARD, AND ALBAS ARRIVED IN FLORIDA KEYS, HALL AND BILL SEYMOUR, ANOTHER MEMBER OF THIS GROUP, RETURNED TO DALLAS IN HALL'S AUTOMOBILE TO PICK UP THE LUGGAGE CARRIER CONTAINING MEDICAL SUPPLIES. HOWARD LEARNED THAT HALL AND SEYMOUR WERE ARRESTED SHORTLY AFTER THEIR ARRIVAL IN DALLAS BUT WERE SOON RELEASED. THEY RETURNED TO THE FLORIDA KEYS WITH THE LUGGAGE CARRIER AND MEDICAL SUPPLIES, ARRIVING LATE OCTOBER, NINETEEN SIXTY THREE.

HOWARD IS DESCRIBED WHITE MALE AMERICAN, AGE TWENTY NINE, FIVE FEET ELEVEN INCHES, TWO HUNDRED TWENTY TWO POUNDS PAREN WEIGHED TWO HUNDRED POUNDS IN SEPTEMBER, NINETEEN SIXTY THREE PAREN, BLACK WAVY HAIR, BROWN EYES, MEDIUM OLIVE COMPLEXION, HAS MUSTACHE PAREN HAD HEAVY BEARD SEPTEMBER, NINETEEN SIXTY THREE PAREN, FAT BUILD, AND SPEAKS ENGLISH FLUENTLY.

CELLIOS ALBAS DESCRIBED BY HOWARD AS WHITE MALE CUBAN, THIRTY FIVE YEARS, FIVE FEET TEN INCHES, ONE HUNDRED SIXTY POUNDS, SLENDER BUILD, LIGHT BROWN HAIR, DARK BROWN EYES, DARK COMPLEXION, AND SPEAKS LITTLE ENGLISH. HOWARD STATES ALBAS BEARS NO RESEMBLANCE TO OSWALD. ALBAS RESIDES TWO ONE EIGHT NORTHWEST FIFTEENTH AVENUE, APARTMENT THREE ZERO SEVEN, MIAMI, FLORIDA.

SNAPSHOTS OF HOWARD, ALBAS, AND SEYMOUR, TAKEN DURING NINETEEN SIXTY THREE, OBTAINED. COPIES BEING PREPARED AND WILL BE FORWARDED TO DALLAS.

HOWARD DESCRIBES HALL AS QUOTE SCATTERBRAIN, UNRELIABLE, EMOTIONALLY DISTURBED, AND EGOTISTICAL LIAR. UNQUOTE.

Re Dallas teletype to Bureau; Miami and Los Angeles dated 9/15/64 in regard to information furnished to the President's Commission by Miss SYLVIA ODIO, a Cuban refugee residing in Dallas, Texas, and the possibility that one LORAN EUGENE HALL was one of the three individuals who visited Miss ODIO's apartment in Dallas, Texas, around the end of September, 1963; Los Angeles teletypes to Bureau, Miami, and Dallas dated 9/17/64 and 9/21/64 reporting results of interviews with LORAN EUGENE HALL and LAWRENCE JOHN HOWARD, JR.; and Phoenix teletype to Bureau, Miami, Los Angeles and Dallas dated 9/18/64 recording results of interview with WILLIAM HOUSTON SEYMOUR, Phoenix, Arizona.

Photographs of LOREN EUGENE HALL have not been received from the Los Angeles Office as of this date.

On 9/22/64, Mr. DON TURNER, 4219 West Lovers Lane, Dallas, advised that he is the owner of the residence located at 4223 West Lovers Lane occupied, until the weekend of 9/19/64, by Miss SYLVIA ODIO, her four children and her sister, ANNIE. Mr. TURNER advised that Miss ODIO departed the past weekend for Miami, Florida, where she intends to permanently reside with her children. Mr. TURNER noted that he does not have a forwarding address for Miss ODIO.

Inquiry on 9/22/64 at Knoll Associates, Decorative Center, Oak Lawn Avenue, Dallas, Texas, former employer of Miss ODIO, revealed that she had left Dallas, Texas, for Miami, Florida, for permanent residence on 9/19/64. The management at Knoll Associates does not have a forwarding address for Miss ODIO, but stated she is to reside in care of her brother, CESAR ODIO, until she finds a permanent home in Miami.

It is noted that the Miami Office advised by letterhead memorandum in instant matter dated 9/12/64 that Miss ODIO's brother, CESAR, was at that time residing at 1600 Southwest 82nd Place, Miami, Florida.

The Dallas Office, for the record, had not exhibited photographs of SEYMOUR, LAWRENCE or HALL to Miss ODIO for identification purposes prior to the time she had departed the Dallas area.

Accordingly, a lead is being set forth at this time for the Miami Office to contact Miss ODIO at Miami, Florida, and exhibit photographs of WILLIAM HOUSTON SEYMOUR, JOHN HOWARD LAWRENCE and LORAN EUGENE HALL to Miss ODIO.

For the assistance of the Miami Office in covering this lead, the following enclosures are being forwarded the Miami Office with this communication:

1. Photograph of WILLIAM HOUSTON SEYMOUR, San Diego Police # S 9513, dated March, 1959.

2. San Diego County photograph of WILLIAM HOUSTON SEYMOUR, their number 17931, dated March 3, 1959.

3. Photograph of WILLIAM HOUSTON SEYMOUR, Sheriff's Department # 6212, Key West, Florida, dated December 4, 1962.

4. Photograph of JOHN HOWARD LAWRENCE, JR., Sheriff's Department # 6215, Key West, Florida, dated December 4, 1962.

As noted above, the Dallas Office has not received a current photograph of HALL; however, the attention of the Miami Office is called to Miami file 2-345 in regard to GERALD PATRICK HEMMING and LORENZO HALL, Neutrality Matters, wherein by Dallas letter dated 2/7/63, a verofax of a newspaper article which appeared in "The Dallas Morning News" issue of Wednesday, 1/23/63, was furnished the Miami Office. It is noted that this newspaper article contained a photograph of GERALD PATRICK HEMMING and HALL.

In the event the Dallas Office receives copies of HALL's photograph from the Los Angeles Office prior to Los Angeles' receipt of instant communication, the Dallas Office will immediately forward copies of HALL's current photograph to the Miami Office for their utilization.

ENCLOSURE

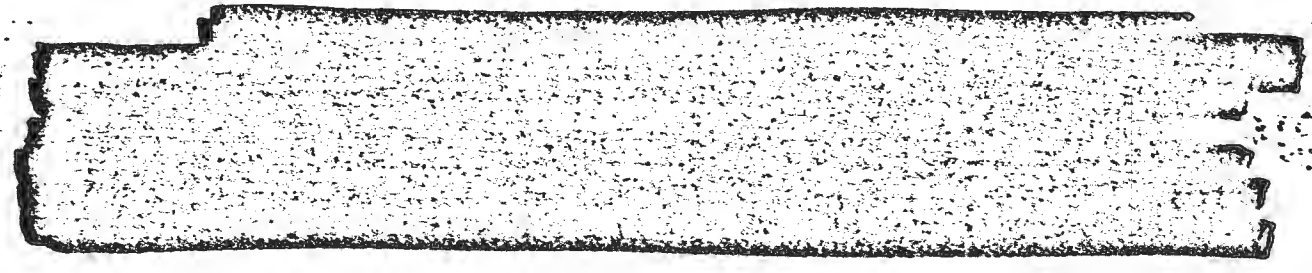
There appear to be many periods when SIMILAS was unemployed. His credit rating is fair. He has Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) No. FPS 607883, Metropolitan Toronto Police Department No. 417/46, and has convictions as follows:

1944 - March 31, Brockville, Ontario
Vagrancy - 7 days from March 24, 1944.

1946 - May 7, Toronto, Ontario (1) Taking automobile without consent - charge reduced from theft of automobile. (2) Breaking and Entering - suspended sentence and one year probation on each charge.

SIMILAS has resided on Lister Drive, Willowdale, Ontario; 110 Follis Avenue, Toronto; 281 Sheppard Avenue, Willowdale; and presently resides at 124 Chelmsford Avenue, Willowdale, Ontario, which is a suburb of Toronto.

Investigation revealed confidential information that SIMILAS at one time was negotiating to purchase "Liberty" magazine; however, financial backing failed to develop and the idea was eventually dropped.



According to SIMILAS, on November 23, 1964, when he and the Toronto Telegram reporter were examining the negatives, the reporter drew it to SIMILAS' attention that two persons may have been in the window. SIMILAS was careful to point out that it was the Toronto Telegram reporter who referred to "two people." During the interview SIMILAS referred to "two objects" which appeared to be people. SIMILAS said the reporter pointed out something which he thought might be a rifle barrel between the two persons or objects in the window but SIMILAS thought this object was obscure and blended into the shadow of the object to the left.

In the article appearing in "Liberty" magazine, SIMILAS suggests a security leak in regard to the route followed by the President's autocade and stated "...I have been told by reliable sources that the route was secretly planned two weeks prior to the President's visit...." SIMILAS advised that the "reliable sources" were in reality the Dallas newspapers.

Inquiries made at the Photo Department of the Toronto Telegram failed to produce the negatives in question and neither has their loss been verified as alleged by SIMILAS. The Photo Editor, who was employed by the Toronto Telegram at the time of the assassination, is now deceased.

Set out below is a statement obtained from SIMILAS during interview:

"I attended the American Bottlers' Carbonated Beverages Convention held at the Trade Mart in Dallas, Texas, November 17 to November 22, 1963. I attended this convention as a representative of the Canadian Beverage Review, a publication for the Canadian Beverage Industry.

"During the convention I took about 15 or 16 rolls of film (12 exposures each). On November 22, as I heard on T. V. that the President, John F. Kennedy, would be passing on the street immediately behind my hotel (The Adalphus), I took my camera with the intention of getting some photographs. I saw that it would be impossible to get a photo in the vicinity of the hotel due to the density of the crowd and I walked about three or four short blocks further down the street. The position I finally took was approximately 250 or 300 yards west of the Texas Book Depository Building. Approximately five minutes later the autocade appeared at the corner of Main and Houston. I took my first picture as the lead motorcycle passed in front of me. At the same time as I took the first picture I heard the first shot fired. I didn't take any more pictures until a bus carrying the Presidential Press party came into view.

"I started with a fresh roll of film and there were three exposures left when it was all over.

"I called the Toronto Star and my employer and advised them what I saw and a short time later I received a call at the hotel from a Hamilton Radio Station CHML, I believe, and a taped interview was made by a chap named JOHNSON.

"As I came from the scene I felt that the shots had come from the direction of the overpass which was behind me, and it was not until I saw a Secret Service Agent look up and back then I thought otherwise. At the same time an agent sitting in front of the car did the same thing. I then took a picture of the Depository Building. The Presidential car veered towards me and then took off accelerating very quickly.

"I took a bus from Dallas to Chicago as I was unable to make airline reservations. Enroute I picked up a newspaper in St. Louis and noticed a story which was published on the day of the assassination and which was written by a Dallas reporter. I might add that during the events preceding the assassination, I noted a person on the southeast corner of Houston and Elm Street. I identify him as being a reporter because he had a camera and a strobe unit. I also feel that I had seen him before during the events connected with the convention. The story which appeared in the Dallas paper and which was later copy-righted and appeared in other papers including the St. Louis Post Dispatch described the account of the view as being where this individual I referred to was standing. At no time did I ever meet or speak to this reporter. His account of the assassination indicated that he observed two people and the rifle barrel being withdrawn from the window into the building.

"At Chicago I contacted T.C.A. reservations where I received a message to call a local Chicago number. I called and a RAY JEFFERIES answered. It was the Associated Press office. They sent a car for me and I gave him the rolls of film less one of which I did not know the locale. They developed the film there and advised that they had coverage of most of the pictures that I had. I had one other roll which I thought may have contained more pictures of the assassination and it was in my camera case along with 14 or 15 other rolls. As I did not have time to wait for these to be processed, I left them with JEFFERIES to be processed later. JEFFERIES then drove me to the airport and sent me the films the following day via air mail, with the comment that it was too bad that there was so much duplication of the negatives I had with those they had received on the wire service.

"I arrived in Toronto at about 10 p.m., on November 23. Almost immediately on my arrival at home, I was contacted by a reporter from the Toronto Telegram who advised they received word from the Associated Press in Chicago that I had negatives that they might be interested in. He arrived at my home in five or ten minutes. I went over the story giving him an eyewitness account of what I had seen and heard during and following the assassination. He then examined the negatives, and while examining them he exclaimed, 'There looks like two people at this window.' I then went over and looked at the negative and I agreed that there were two objects in the window on the 6th floor southeast corner of the building. This window differed from the others in that it had an alcove above the window as opposed to the others on the 5th and other floors, which had a square frame. The two objects appeared to be people and the Telegram Reporter thought he saw what appeared to be a rifle barrel between them. I did not make any comment on this upon looking at it as it blended into the shadow of the object on the left.

"This negative was one of a strip of three and this strip plus another strip of three was handed over to this reporter.

"The following day, Sunday, I was visited by another reporter of the Telegram who identified himself as the boss of the reporter who had been there the evening before. I told him that I had given the negatives and the story to the chap the preceding night. He asked me what I knew about JACK RUBY and he viewed the remaining negatives which I still had left. He took the ones of RUBY's Carousel Night Club and the Aldalphus Hotel. I believe there was a strip of three but I'm not sure.

"The story and a photo of me taken Saturday night, along with the follow-up story and my comments about JACK RUBY appeared in the Monday edition of The Telegram. I phoned the Telegram and suggested to them that they immediately return my negatives if they did not intend to use them in further editions that day. He inquired if it was the Toronto Daily Star that wanted the negatives and I said facetiously that if he sent them to me we'd see. It was, in fact, the Toronto Daily Star that wanted them.

"The following Wednesday my wife telephoned me at work and told me a letter had arrived from the Telegram. This letter apologetically explained that they had lost the negatives. The following day I received three 8 x 10 photos and three negatives. These negatives were, I believe, from the ones I gave the second reporter on Sunday. In a matter of a few days I received a cheque for $50.00 from the Telegram. Since that time I have heard nothing further from the Telegram.

"The photograph of the Depository Building which was printed in the "Liberty" magazine article is not the one in which I thought I saw the figures of the two people.

"The additional article which was to appear in "Liberty" magazine's August issue was drafted and is in type but because of financial difficulties of the magazine it does not appear that it will be published. A copy of this article could perhaps be obtained from Mr. Harold Cook or Mr. K. G. Armstrong, the writer with whom I collaborated.

(Signed) N. M. SIMILAS"

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

On September 22, 1964, an individual who identified herself as Mrs. ELEANOR AICHISON of 8977 Tember Rock, San Antonio, Texas, telephoned the San Antonio FBI office. She explained that her brother, J. B. COUMES, is a sheet metal worker with the United States State Department presently working in Washington, D. C.

She stated that approximately four years ago her brother was on a job for the State Department making estimates on some unknown building in Washington, D. C. when he discovered a small room in the basement filled with guns. Several days later, while working in the basement of a Masonic Temple in Washington, D. C., he discovered another room with guns in it and asked a fellow worker whether they should report it to the local police department. At that time his friend told him that it was a matter to be reported to the FBI. COUMES reportedly did not think any more of the matter and never reported it to anyone. Mrs. AICHISON stated that this morning she was looking at a picture of MARINA OSWALD, and she came to the realization that she believed her sister-in-law, ANNE COUMES, whose father is with the U. S. Embassy in Iran, might be identical with Mrs. OSWALD, and she felt that the matter of the two rooms with guns in them and the resemblance of her sister-in-law and Mrs. OSWALD should be reported to the FBI.

Mrs. AICHISON then began talking about the trouble she has been having with her husband recently and talked about the drugs that doctors gave her when she had her first child.

She added that she just wanted to report this matter to the FBI and that if the FBI felt she was crazy, just to let her know and she would go to a doctor.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

NOTE: Mrs. Atchison contacted our SA Office and related that about four years ago her brother was on a job for the State Department making estimates on an unknown building in Washington when he discovered a small room in the basement filled with guns. Also, Mrs. Atchison stated that on the morning of 9/22/64 she was looking at a picture of Marina Oswald, and she believed that her sister-in-law, wife of her brother, might be identical with Mrs. Oswald and felt the matter of the guns and the resemblance of her sister-in-law to Marina Oswald should be reported to the FBI. It was indicated Mrs. Atchison had been having trouble with her husband and taking drugs prescribed by doctors following the birth of their first child. In view of the information obtained, no further action is necessary.

NOTE:

As a result of the Commission's letter dated 9-10-64, investigation was initiated to interview Commission members, Commission staff and former attorneys of Jack L. Ruby relating to the leak of Oswald's diary, Ruby's polygraph and Ruby's testimony before Chief Justice Earl Warren to news media. In connection with Ruby's interview with Chief Justice Warren printed in the "New York Journal American" under the by-line of Dorothy Kilgallen, we have obtained copies from the Commission and New York is expeditiously attempting to obtain copy from Dorothy Kilgallen so that appropriate laboratory examinations can be conducted to ascertain if the leak occurred within the President's Commission.

The enclosed letterhead memorandum contained interviews with Mr. Richard M. Mosk, former staff member of the President's Commission; Mr. Joseph A. Ball, former staff counsel of the President's Commission; and Miss Ruth D. Shirley, former staff member in the records section of the President's Commission.

In lieu of any instructions from the President's Commission, we are continuing to furnish results of this investigation until it is logically concluded or we receive instructions to discontinue.

LAWSON indicated that he will "Be speaking at a lot of meetings and taking care of business while in the New York area".

LAWSON discussed the recently released Warren report regarding the assassination of President KENNEDY. LAWSON feels this report "Is a complete whitewash" and that Warren "Has been silenced by the powers that be". LAWSON also indicated that he feels the question concerning any alleged pay to OSWALD by the Central Intelligence Agency has not been resolved.

Informant got the impression that some of LAWSON's speeches in the New York area might be describing these feelings concerning the Warren report.

Chicago should endeavor to locate Ray Jefferies associated with the Chicago Office of the Associated Press in an effort to verify the statements made by Norman Similas. It is pointed out if he did develop the photograph in question, he may remember same. Any other logical investigation resulting from this contact should be initiated. The results of investigation should be incorporated in an appropriate letterhead memorandum without property stamp and submitted to the Bureau in sufficient quantity for dissemination to the President's Commission and Legal Attache Ottawa. Expedite.

NOTE:

The article in the above magazine indicates the author, Norman Similas, photographer, took a photograph at the time the shots were fired at President Kennedy and that he obtained a photograph of the rifle with two individuals close by. The Commission requested this matter be checked out. Through Legat sources Similas, a free lance photographer, was interviewed on 9-16-64. In his statement he reveals that the information attributed to him is not actually correct and that he had not drawn the conclusions about the photograph taken by him but another, as yet unidentified, reporter did. He also states the negative and film were lost. In order to check on his story, we are having Jefferies interviewed as he is the one allegedly responsible for developing Similas' film. Legat has learned from [redacted] that Similas may have deliberately falsified this account to further his occupation and to make the article saleable. It is noted he has also been arrested on two occasions in Canada. When the results are received, the Commission or its duly delegated representative will be furnished the results thereof. Legat Ottawa is continuing to press this matter.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

The following investigation is predicated on information received on September 16, 1964 from LORAN EUGENE HALL of Kernville, California, that he met a Cuban woman named Mrs. ODIO in Dallas, Texas, in September, 1963. He said he was accompanied at that time by LAWRENCE HOWARD, a Mexican-American, from Los Angeles, California, and WILLIAM SEYMOUR from Arizona.

It is recalled that SYLVIA ODIO, a Cuban exile residing in Dallas, Texas, has advised that on an evening in the latter part of September, 1963, she was visited at her apartment in Dallas by two Cubans or Mexicans, accompanied by an American, whom she believed to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

WILLIAM SEYMOUR of Phoenix, Arizona, stated on September 18, 1964, that he and LORAN HALL drove from Miami, Florida to Dallas, Texas, in October, 1963 and that he had been employed by Beach Welding and Supplies, Miami Beach, Florida during September and the first part of October, 1963. SEYMOUR said SYLVIA ODIO was not known to him.

On September 22, 1964, Mr. KEN SCHLESSLER, Manager, Beach Welding and Supplies, 1243 10th Street, Miami Beach, Florida, advised from pay records of his office that WILLIAM SEYMOUR had worked 40 hour weeks during the pay periods September 5 to October 10, 1963. The records reflected SEYMOUR's residence address as 1925 S.W. 4th Street, Miami, Florida, and his Social Security number as 526-40-6724. Mr. SCHLESSLER stated that SEYMOUR had previously worked for him during the period March 14, 1963 to June 6, 1963. Mr. SCHLESSLER recalled that when SEYMOUR terminated his employment in October, 1963, it was for the reason that SEYMOUR's mother in California or Arizona, was reportedly sick and he had to return there. He stated SEYMOUR was a dependable employee and he would rehire him.

LAWRENCE HOWARD, upon interview at Los Angeles, California on September 20, 1964, related that about September 17, 1963, he and LORAN HALL, and a Cuban from Miami, Florida named CELLIO ALBAS, left Los Angeles, California in HALL's car, pulling a trailer of medical supplies for the anti-FIDEL CASTRO movement. HOWARD said that about September 20, 1963, they arrived in Dallas, Texas, and registered at a motel near Memorial Park in Dallas, staying about ten days, while soliciting funds for the anti-CASTRO movement. HOWARD denied any contact with a Cuban woman named ODIO at Dallas.

On September 24, 1964, CELIO SERIO CASTRO ALBA, born September 28, 1931 in Cuba, was interviewed at the South Florida Sugar Company near Belle Glade, Florida, where he has been employed since Dec. 1963.

Mr. CASTRO, who advised he is generally known as CELIO CASTRO, said he arrived in Florida from Cuba in November, 1961 as a refugee, and subsequently became acquainted with LORAN HALL, whom he knew as LORENZO HALL, and LAWRENCE HOWARD, whom he knew as LORENZO HOWARD. He said his acquaintance with these individuals was made while they were involved in plans to engage in military action against the CASTRO regime by setting out from the Florida Keys.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

The following investigation is predicated on information received on September 16, 1964 from LORAN EUGENE HALL of Kernville, California, that he met a Cuban woman named Mrs. ODIO in Dallas, Texas, in September, 1963. He said he was accompanied at that time by LAWRENCE HOWARD, a Mexican-American, from Los Angeles, California, and WILLIAM SEYMOUR from Arizona.

It is recalled that SYLVIA ODIO, a Cuban exile residing in Dallas, Texas, has advised that on an evening in the latter part of September, 1963, she was visited at her apartment in Dallas by two Cubans or Mexicans, accompanied by an American, whom she believed to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

WILLIAM SEYMOUR of Phoenix, Arizona, stated on September 18, 1964, that he and LORAN HALL drove from Miami, Florida to Dallas, Texas, in October, 1963 and that he had been employed by Beach Welding and Supplies, Miami Beach, Florida during September and the first part of October, 1963. SEYMOUR said SYLVIA ODIO was not known to him.

On September 22, 1964, Mr. [redacted], Manager, Beach Welding and Supplies, 1741 20th Street, Miami Beach, Florida, advised from pay records of his office that WILLIAM SEYMOUR had worked 40 hour weeks during the pay periods September 5 to October 20, 1963. The records reflected SEYMOUR's residence address as 1925 S.W. 4th Street, Miami, Florida, and his Social CASTRO said that HOWARD resided at 3193 Blanchard Street in Los Angeles, California, and it was at that address that CASTRO stayed after arrival in California. CASTRO stated that en route to California they did not pass through Dallas, Texas, but took a more northerly route.

Mr. CASTRO continued that after about two weeks in Los Angeles, HOWARD was contacted by MARGUERITE HALL, who had collected a supply of [illegible] and medicines in the Los Angeles area, and wanted HOWARD and CASTRO to accompany him back to Florida for the purpose of furnishing the arms and medicines to an anti-Castro group in Florida.

CASTRO said he agreed to return to Florida for this purpose and they left California in HALL's black 1956 model Pontiac, towing a trailer. He related that en route HALL and HOWARD seemed interested in enjoying themselves rather than getting on to Florida and spent time in Juarez, Mexico while CASTRO remained on the United States side of the border in El Paso. Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD appeared at the Fort Worth Resident Agency at 7:55 a.m., 9/29/64. Special Agents ROBLEY D. MADLAND, RICHARD T. RABIDEAU and BURNETT TOM CARTER were present. Mrs. OSWALD stated that she has just received a copy of the Warren Commission's report. She stated she had only read a few pages of the report and had already discovered that the report was full of inaccuracies. She stated she was still convinced in her own mind that even if her son, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, was responsible for the assassination that he was being used by others. She stated she was still attempting to discover who the others were.

Mrs. OSWALD also complained about the action of the Warren Commission. She stated that several members of the Commission, including Mr. RANKIN, were in Dallas during the early part of September, 1964. She stated she repeatedly called their room and on one occasion talked to a Mr. Kelly who was with the group. She asked that Mr. RANKIN contact her.

She stated the members of the Commission left Dallas without ever contacting her. Mrs. OSWALD stated that "as usual she had vital information for the members of the Warren Commission". She did not elaborate on what the information was.

Mrs. OSWALD also stated she has just received a two-page telegram from some Government official but stated she did not recall the name or the agency with which this person was connected. This telegram invited her to appear on a television program at Washington, D.C., on October 5, 1964. She stated that the telegram explained that the President and Mr. RANKIN of the Warren Commission and other high officials of the Government would also be on this program. She stated that she was investigating this and was not at this time sure that she would attend this television program. She explained that she was afraid that it might possibly be a plot on her life. She also explained that this was based mainly on her "intuition".

The above is being furnished for the information of the Bureau only and UACB no investigation being conducted.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of September 21, 1964, regarding the investigation that was conducted concerning the possibility that Lee Harvey Oswald had some affiliation with various subversive underground activities. You indicated that the Commission is concerned that its records contain an indication of the scope of the investigation which this Bureau conducted into these particular matters and a clear statement of the result of that investigation.

In connection with the first matter mentioned in your letter, please be advised that we made a complete review of our files, both at Headquarters and in each of our offices, and we also made a nation-wide canvass of all of our security informants to determine if there was any evidence that Lee Harvey Oswald was at any time a member of or otherwise affiliated with the Communist Party, USA, the Socialist Workers Party, or any other extreme leftist organization. Results of such file reviews and canvass of all of our security informants have been fully reported to the Commission as has all other investigation we have conducted in this particular matter.

the Communist Party. This same statement is true as of the current date. All information this Bureau has developed in this particular matter has been furnished to the Commission.

In regard to the second matter in your letter, our statement in our letter of May 26, 1964, indicating this Bureau had "thoroughly explored" the question "of possible contacts between Lee Harvey Oswald and any representative of or known sympathizer with the Castro Government of Cuba" and that "no information has been developed indicating Oswald was controlled, directed or employed by any individual so identified" is also true as of the current date. The scope of our inquiries upon which such statement is based includes a check of our files, both at Headquarters and in each of our offices and a canvass of all of our security informants on a nation-wide basis.

In connection with your request that you be furnished similar information in regard to the possibility that Lee Harvey Oswald at any time had contacts with persons or organizations active in underground activities directed against the Government of Premier Fidel Castro, please be advised that complete results of all of our investigation in this particular matter has also been furnished to the Commission. The scope of such investigation conducted in this particular matter includes a check of our files, both at Headquarters and in our offices and a canvass of all of our security informants on a nation-wide basis.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE:

Commission is winding up its investigation and wants assurances that all information developed by this Bureau concerning possibility Lee Harvey Oswald had some affiliation with various subversive underground activities has been furnished to Commission. Commission also desires to know the scope of our investigation in ascertaining such data concerning Oswald. We have conducted extensive investigation regarding this particular point and have furnished results to the Commission. We have informed the Commission of Oswald's contacts with individuals associated with the Communist Party, the Socialist Labor Party, the Fair Play for

Dear Mr. Hoover:

During the course of the work pursued by the President's Commission your Bureau has provided invaluable assistance investigating, among other things, the possibility that Lee Harvey Oswald had some affiliation with various subversive underground activities. In concluding its work, the Commission is now concerned, however, that its records contain an indication of the scope of the investigation which your Bureau has conducted into these particular matters and a clear statement of the results of that investigation.

In particular, we would appreciate receiving from you a letter indicating whether or not as a result of an examination of your complete nation-wide files and all investigation which you have conducted you have obtained any evidence that Lee Harvey Oswald was at any time a member of or otherwise affiliated with the Communist Party, U.S.A., the Socialist Workers Party, or any other extreme leftist organization. To the extent to which you are able to do so, we would appreciate your including in the letter a statement indicating the range of informants which you have contacted in this regard, and the scope of other investigation which you have conducted.

In your letter of May 26, 1964, you informed the Commission that your Bureau had "thoroughly explored" the question "of possible contacts between Lee Harvey Oswald and any representative of or known sympathizer with the Castro Government of Cuba" and that "no information has been developed indicating Oswald was controlled, directed or employed by any individual so identified." Would you please inform the Commission whether or not this statement remains true as of this date and, to the extent feasible and in the same manner as above, the scope of the investigation which has been conducted upon which this statement is based.

(3) We would further appreciate similar information in regard to the possibility that Lee Harvey Oswald at any time had contacts with persons or organizations active in underground activities directed against the Government of Premier Fidel Castro.

In making these requests, we are of course fully aware of the extensive investigation which has been conducted by your Bureau into all aspects of the assassination and we do not wish you to prepare a summary covering the many hundreds of investigative reports which you have thus far provided the Commission. However, what we do wish to obtain is a statement that the nation-wide files of your Bureau have been thoroughly examined with regard to the three matters mentioned above, if this is the case, and an indication of the extent to which informants and other such persons likely to be in possession of any pertinent information have been contacted by your Bureau in the course of developing possible leads to the above persons and organizations with whom Oswald might have had some connection.

This letter will confirm conversation between Mr. Pollak of the Commission staff and Mr. Malley. Since the Commission is about to submit its final report, we would appreciate receiving a response to this request as soon as possible.

The Commission once again wishes to thank your Bureau for its continuing cooperation.

Sincerely,

J. Lee Rankin

Miss RUTH D. SHIRLEY, Apartment 713, Shirlington House, 4201 South 31st Street, Arlington, Virginia, advised as follows:

She formerly was an enlisted member of the United States Marine Corps, ceasing active duty January 1, 1964, and on January 9, 1964, began employment with the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY. She remained with the Commission until September 17, 1964, returning to employment with the Advanced Research Projects Agency, Office of Secretary of Defense.

While employed at the Commission Miss SHIRLEY worked in the Records Section under the supervision of JOSEPHINE FARRAR and her primary duties were handling incoming and outgoing mail. Miss SHIRLEY advised she was aware that some unauthorized disclosures to news media had occurred with regard to the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, as well as to the OSWALD papers, including his discharge certificate from the United States Marine Corps and a letter directed to OSWALD from the Communist Party, USA.

Miss SHIRLEY stated she has no suggestion how such leaks relating to the OSWALD material occurred. She stated she does not know any persons employed in the news media and she certainly was never personally responsible for any "leaks" of information. Miss SHIRLEY added she had never disclosed any information to any unauthorized individuals while employed by the President's Commission and she had no suggestion as to how any unauthorized disclosures may have occurred.

Mr. RICHARD M. MOSK, Legal Assistant, California State Supreme Court, Room 4080, California State Building, was interviewed in his offices on September 21, 1964. Mr. MOSK stated he resides in Apartment 708, 66 Cleary Court, San Francisco.

MOSK advised that he was employed as a member of the staff of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY at Washington, D. C. from the first week of February, 1964, until August 8, 1964. He advised that he returned to Washington on September 8, 1964, and again worked with the Commission until September 11, 1964. He advised that he may still appear on the list of Commission Staff Members; however, his duties with this organization have been completed and he is no longer on the payroll.

Mr. MOSK advised that his functions with the Staff were carried out in Washington, D. C. He stated that he did not visit Dallas, Texas, in connection with any of these official duties. He recalled that the Staff maintains offices in the VFW Building, 4th and 5th floors, 200 Maryland Avenue N. E., Washington, D. C. He advised that he is aware that there have been leaks of information during past months concerning the LEE HARVEY OSWALD - JACK L. RUBY matter. He advised that he has no specific information concerning this situation. He stated that he does not suspect any Commission Staff Member of furnishing Commission information to unauthorized individuals. He recalled that there has been considerable rumor and discussion regarding this problem among Staff Members. He has the impression that most of these rumors pointed to leaks of information occurring in the Dallas, Texas, area.

He could furnish no information concerning the revelation of LEE HARVEY OSWALD's diary by the press.

Re Ottawa airtel dated September 24, 1964.

Enclosed are original and five copies of letterhead memorandum setting out results of interviews of COLIN DAVIES and KENNETH G. ARMSTRONG [redacted]

[redacted] ARMSTRONG's statement indicates that SIMILAS knowingly deceived ARMSTRONG into buying the story by promising him pictures which he knew to be non-existent. The paragraph on page 13, center column, of the July issue of LIBERTY Magazine wherein he states a picture he took showed two figures beside the gun barrel, etc., was actually the main point of interest of this story. There is doubt that such a picture ever existed or exists now. [redacted] if SIMILAS had taken the picture showing the assassin or assassins, it would have been exclusive and every medium would have been after it. According to COLIN DAVIES, the reporter, it would have been "The Million-Dollar Picture." No news editor would miss the opportunity of a scoop of this nature. SIMILAS told ARMSTRONG he had mailed this photograph, along with others, to the LIBERTY Magazine fully three months after he had been paid for the pictures lost by the Toronto Telegram and which supposedly contained this picture.

[redacted] SIMILAS' story [redacted] both DAVIES and ARMSTRONG, contains too many inconsistancies and "outright lies" to be taken seriously. [redacted] he is an opportunist who saw a chance to cash in on the fact that he had witnessed the assassination and in order to do so, he had to make his story as convincing as possible, and that it is unfortunate that by a coincidence the negatives which would prove the lie have been lost.

[redacted] COLIN DAVIES, reporter and photographer of the Toronto Telegram. DAVIES advised he was the reporter who interviewed NORMAN MITCHEL SIMILAS on the night of November 23, 1963, and subsequently examined the negatives in SIMILAS' possession. DAVIES stated SIMILAS was very excited at the time of the interview. While viewing the negatives SIMILAS was said to have pointed out the window and asked DAVIES if he didn't think there were two people there. SIMILAS drew his attention to the article written by a Dallas reporter in which two people were mentioned as being in the window. DAVIES said he felt it was the power of suggestion and that SIMILAS wanted to see the two people in the negative so badly that he actually believed he did. It was DAVIES' opinion that the negatives were worthless from a news standpoint, but due to SIMILAS' state of excitement he did not have the heart to disappoint him. DAVIES decided to take the negatives and let the Photo Editor decide what should be done. During the next day or so, the negatives became lost and the Telegram, feeling responsible, sent SIMILAS a check to pay for them. DAVIES did not know the amount but he later met SIMILAS who told him he had received $300 for his negatives. (Actually he received $50.00).

DAVIES was questioned as to his impression of SIMILAS and his story. He said he had no doubt that SIMILAS had witnessed the assassination but "he was sure going to get a lot of mileage out of the story." There appears to be a complete reversal of the roles played by SIMILAS and DAVIES, depending on whose story is told.

On September 21, 1964, KENNETH G. ARMSTRONG was interviewed. The following statement was obtained from him:

"Sometime in about February, 1964, while I was editor of Liberty Magazine, I attended a press reception at Yorkdale Plaza. I met JOHN VIRGIN, whom I knew as a Public Relations Consultant and writer. During the luncheon he mentioned that he knew a Toronto man who had witnessed the assassination of President Kennedy and would I be interested in the story.

COPIES DESTROYED

"Following this discussion, I subsequently contacted NORMAN SIMILAS and met him at the Park Plaza Hotel. On our first meeting we discussed his visit to Dallas and the events leading up to the assassination. This discussion probably lasted three hours and I got a lot of background.

"There were two subsequent meetings at which I got the remainder of the information that I wanted for my story.

"SIMILAS offered to supply me with pictures which were taken prior to and during the assassination. These were to be used to illustrate the story. SIMILAS supplied me with some pictures and he said he was having prints made of the other ones. It was my understanding that one of these pictures was the one in which two persons and the gun barrel could be seen, and these were to be forthcoming when developed. I phoned SIMILAS a day or so later and he said they had been mailed to me from a Post Office on Yonge St. I felt that they may have been misdirected and would be arriving at any time. After a week had gone by, Albert Plock, Art Director of Liberty, and I went through the entire amount of mail received during the previous weeks but we found nothing. I mention this because it was so important to the story to have that picture which contained the two faces at the window. We still held out hope that they might arrive in time for the second installment; however, they never did arrive.

"As I completed each portion of the manuscript I submitted it to SIMILAS for his approval or whatever changes he might suggest. I also went back and double checked on facts he had mentioned previously and his account was basically the same each time.

"The paragraph appearing in the center column on page 13 of the July issue of Liberty beginning, 'Will the investigation committee ...,' was discussed between SIMILAS and me, and originally this appeared in LIFE Magazine.

"It was obvious to me that SIMILAS must have done considerable research and read most of news and views published in order to form the opinion expressed in the next column regarding the assassin's perch.

"The second installment was completed and was set in galley-type, but was never published. Liberty Magazine ceased publishing after the July issue was released.

"I cannot think of anything else which would be of assistance to you except that before the story was used I showed HAROLD COOK, the publisher, SIMILAS' signature of approval which would eliminate the possibility of a misunderstanding between us.

(Signed) Kenneth G. Armstrong"

Mr. William Wayne Howe, 207 Hudson Avenue, Takoma Park, Maryland, telephone number JU 9-4307, employed by Pitney-Bowes, 1410 L Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., called at the Washington Field Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and furnished information about his and his wife's interest in Mrs. Lee Harvey Oswald.

He advised that he and his wife would like to "take in" Mrs. Oswald and her family to protect them from becoming a "national curiosity" for the rest of their lives. He thought that they could change their name and that he and his wife would give them "love and dignity."

Mr. Howe did not wish that his identity be divulged to any unauthorized individuals and stated that he had a friend who worked for the Secret Service and that he would advise him of this matter. Mr. Howe was informed that the Federal Bureau of Investigation was in no position to assist him with regard to this matter.

Reference Sullivan to Belmont memorandum 9-21-64, which set forth that Congressman John R. Pillion (R. - New York) had written the President's Commission and subsequently been interviewed by us. We have had limited, though friendly relations with Congressman Pillion who is serving on the Appropriations Committee. The results of our interview were incorporated in a letterhead memorandum from the Washington Field Office (WFO) dated 9-17-64. A copy of this was furnished to Congressman Pillion in accordance with the recommendation in referenced Sullivan to Belmont memorandum, which was approved.

In substance, Congressman Pillion advised in his letter to the Commission and in the interview that it was his belief that Oswald was a tool of the communist conspiracy and was motivated by his communist ideology, training, associations, and objectives. He said he had no confidential sources and that his beliefs and conclusions were based on public source data. He stated in his interview he did not like the thought of the Commission possibly trying to place any blame for President Kennedy's death on the FBI, Secret Service, or the Dallas Police Department. Instead, he felt the blame for the assassination should be placed on the communist conspiracy.

On 9-29-64 the Congressman's Administrative Assistant, Russell A. Rourke inquired if the memorandum of 9-17-64 setting forth the results of our interview with the Congressman could be released to the press. He was advised the FBI maintains the interview in confidence. Rourke stated the Congressman was very upset upon reading the Commission's report, particularly regarding attacks on the FBI and Secret Service, which he considered wholly unjustified. Rourke stated this convinced the Congressman he should make his own feelings known to newspapermen. Rourke indicated the Congressman would mention to newsmen, as a side issue, that he had been interviewed by the FBI.

By letter dated September 21, 1964, Mr. David L. Wolper, President, Wolper Productions, Incorporated, furnished the script for the first one hour and forty-five minutes of a two hour and ten minute motion picture "Four Days in November" which is to be released on October 6, 1964, in Washington, D. C., and then afforded nation-wide distribution.

According to the letter the remainder of the script relates to President Kennedy's funeral. Mr. Wolper requested our comments as to the accuracy of the script and our opinion of it.

Supervisors in the General Investigative Division and Domestic Intelligence Division familiar with the Oswald and related investigations have reviewed the script and the following inaccuracies of possible pertinence were noted:

On page four, item six, it is indicated Dallas papers published the President's probable route on November 16, 1963, six days before his visit.

The route was not published until November 19, 1963, as the final commitment was not agreed upon until November 18, 1963.

On page five, item eight, it is indicated that the Dallas Police Department in cooperation with the Secret Service and "other Government agencies" assisted in the security measures prior to the President's visit.

This would imply that "other Government agencies" were responsible for physical security arrangements whereas this is the responsibility of the Secret Service.

On page thirty, item seventy-nine, in dramatizing the actions taken immediately after the assassination, it is stated that Oswald was reported missing from the Texas School Book Depository and that "instantly the call goes out --- pick up Lee Harvey Oswald."

CONTINUED - OVER

This is erroneous as Oswald was not missed until about 12:45 pm and the police had not started to check on his whereabouts until after he was arrested for the shooting of Tippit. Since the assassination occurred at 12:30 pm and Tippit's shooting was reported at 1:18 pm, the above statement would imply that Oswald's identity was known much sooner than actually known.

On page thirty-six, item ninety-eight, it is stated at 1:25 pm the police were hunting Oswald. The same objection set out above applies here as the Dallas Police Department did not commence looking for Oswald until later, only to realize he had already been arrested.

On page thirty-seven, item one hundred, it is indicated Officer J. D. Tippit was shot three times.

Four slugs were removed from Tippit's body.

On page thirty-seven, item one hundred and two, it is indicated that shoe salesman John Brewer was alerted by a radio description and followed Oswald to the Texas theater (where he was later arrested).

John Brewer followed Oswald because he acted suspicious and he saw Oswald with a gun and not because of any description of Oswald as none was available at that time.

On page fifty-three, item one hundred and forty, it is stated that the paraffin test was one of the links connecting Oswald with the assassination weapon.

This is erroneous as these tests were essentially negative and our Laboratory experts have so testified before the President's Commission. In addition highly technical examinations made by the Atomic Energy Commission and our Laboratory on the paraffin casts could not connect Oswald with the rifle.

On page fifty-four, item one hundred and forty-one, it is indicated that certain maps found at Oswald's residence were incriminating.

This is completely inaccurate. They were not incriminating.

On page sixty, item one hundred and fifty-nine, it is indicated Oswald at five years of age had already spent two years in a boarding institution.

 CONTINUED - OVER

Oswald only spent thirteen months in a boarding institution at five years of age.

On page sixty-nine, item one hundred and eighty-five, it is indicated that on Sunday (November 24, 1963) Jack Ruby took a dip in his apartment house swimming pool.

Our investigation has failed to disclose any such swim, however, he did go to the apartment house "washateria" for a short period in the morning.

RECOMMENDATION

That the above inaccuracies be brought to the attention of Mr. Wolper by the Crime Records Division.

we are not disposed to discuss this in any manner

NOTE:

The article in the above magazine indicates the author, Norman Similas, photographer, took a photograph at the time the shots were fired at President Kennedy and that he obtained a photograph of the rifle with two individuals close by. The Commission requested this matter be checked out. Through Legat sources Similas, a free lance photographer, was interviewed on 9-16-64. In his statement he reveals that the information attributed to him is not actually correct and that he had not drawn the conclusions about the photograph taken by him but another reporter did. This reporter has been interviewed and tells a different story than Similas, maintaining that Similas made the conclusions concerning the photograph... The author of the article also advises that Similas verified and authenticated the article before it was published and that he has no way of knowing whether the statements made by Similas have any basis. Legat has learned [redacted] that Similas may have deliberately falsified this account to further his occupation and to make the article saleable. It is noted he has also been arrested on two occasions in Canada. When the results are received, the Commission or its duly delegated representative will be furnished the results thereof. Legat Ottawa is continuing to press this matter.

Mr. Edward Kemper
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Kemper:

I enclose a script for the first one hour and forty-five minutes of the two hour and ten minute production, FOUR DAYS IN NOVEMBER. The last twenty minutes are about the funeral and has no reference to Oswald or Ruby, or any other details in Dallas, but rather are mostly the eulogy and films of the actual funeral.

The script has been read by the Warren Commission. While they did not give us any information on what we may have left out, they did tell us that what is in it is accurate. We did remove one scene which they told us was not verified.

After you have read the script, I would appreciate a call to hear any of your comments -- first, as to accuracy or any errors, and, second, as to your own personal opinion. If there is any other way we can be of assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us and we will be only too happy to oblige.

WILLIAM WHALEY (inner. monologue

"I picked up a fare at the Greyhound Bus taxicab stand. This young man told me that he wanted to go to the 500 block of North Beckley and when he got in, police sirens was running, criss-crossin each other and policemen on tricycles wa runnin' down, and I thought it was a fir or somethin'. And I asked him, I said, 'I wonder what the hell all this uproar' about,' and he didn't answer, so I figur he was one of these people, which we hav lots of,,that don't like to talk...that got other things on their mind, so I jus carried him on to where he wanted to go. So I carried him on across the viaduct, turned left to the 500 block of North Beckley. And, when I got over on North Beckley, and coming on to the intersecti of Neely and North Beckley, he said, 'th will do fine.' And I pulled over to the curb, the fare was 95¢, he handed me a dollar bill and got out, walked in front my cab across the street, and that's the last I saw of him."

SHIRLEY ROSE FRANK

On September 28, 1964, Robert L. Poole, Immigration and Naturalization Service, Savannah, Georgia, advised that Mrs. Frank contacted his office and stated that she wanted to go to Russia because she is a Communist. She stated that it was her understanding that the "Yankees" kicked all the commies out of the country.

On September 28, 1964, Mrs. Frank advised that she was a Communist and wanted to go to Russia. When asked why she considered herself a Communist, Mrs. Frank simply laughed and restated that she was a Communist and that was all. She advised that her son was living in Leningrad, Russia, and that is where she wanted to go. She stated that she was born in Leningrad, Russia, and that the birth certificate in Madison, Wisconsin, reflecting that she was born in that state was erroneous. When queried as to how she entered this country, Mrs. Frank stated that she came to the United States when she was two years old and does not recall any of the details.

Mrs. Frank advised that her husband, Harold Lorin Frank, Jr., died in England after he was "poisoned by the crazy Yankees because he was a Jew." When asked who the "crazy Yankees" were, Mrs. Frank stated that they are all "fairies who take dope." Mrs. Frank advised that these "crazy Yankees" follow her around all the time and continually dope her and keep her covered with guns.

Mrs. Frank stated that she was in jail in Madison, Wisconsin, and she said that this jail was also called the Mongoda State Hospital. Mrs. Frank stated that during her stay at the Mongoda State Hospital, the "crazy Yankees" doped her and threatened her with guns.

SHIRLEY ROSE FRANK

Mrs. Frank advised that she knew Lee Harvey Oswald and his wife, Marina, having met them in Chicago in 1952. When the fallacy of this statement was pointed out to Mrs. Frank, and she was pressed for details, she was noncommittal and simply laughed and reiterated that she knew the Oswald's in Chicago.

On September 29, 1964, Mrs. Mildred LaMott, Women's Division, Savannah Police Department, Savannah, Georgia, advised that Shirley Rose Frank came to the Police Station on the afternoon of September 28, 1964, and advised that she wanted to go to Russia because she was a Communist. Mrs. Frank was examined by a physician employed by the Savannah Police Department, and his preliminary diagnosis was that she was an "ambulatory schizophrenic." Consequently, Mrs. LaMott advised that she is being held by the Savannah Police Department for "investigation of lunacy." During this investigation Mrs. LaMott stated that she determined from some of the personal effects of Mrs. Frank that she was born in Rock County, Wisconsin. During interview, Mrs. LaMott advised that Mrs. Frank told her that she was also confined to the Eastern State Hospital, Lexington, Kentucky.

The following description of SHIRLEY ROSE FRANK was obtained by interview and observation:

WFO is instructed to immediately conduct the following investigation and submit results expeditiously.

To further facilitate the Laboratory examination regarding Ruby's transcripts, WFO is instructed to contact Ward and Paul, 917 G Street, Northwest, who reproduced the Ruby transcript for the Commission. Obtain the stamps, plates or negatives used to reproduce the "confidential" classification on the Ward and Paul copies. Identify and interview individuals responsible for the reproduction of the transcript and ascertain the date it was received and the date returned to the Commission. Determine number of copies reproduced for the Commission and whether Ward and Paul retained any copies for their record and if there was any further dissemination.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, N. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to Dallas report of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling dated November 30, 1963, pages 441, 442, and 443; Dallas report of Special Agent Gemberling dated December 10, 1963, page 330, concerning specimen "Q41"; and Dallas report of Special Agent Gemberling dated August 5, 1964, page 90, all in the Oswald matter.

These references concern a motel registration card made available during the course of this investigation by Mrs. Lois Sitz and Mr. Cecil Sitz, owners of the "Half-Circle J" Motel at Fort Worth, Texas. A handwriting examination was made of the handwriting on the card and it was concluded it was not written by Lee Harvey Oswald.

Mr. Cecil Sitz contacted our Dallas Office on September 29, 1964, and asked when the registration card would be returned to him. We would appreciate being advised if the registration card may now be returned to Mr. Sitz.

NOTE: The owners of the motel believed Oswald registered there on November 20, 1963, but were mistaken, as the handwriting examination proved. Now they want the registration card back. DETAILS:

A review of the military service records on file at the Military Personnel Records Center, St. Louis, Missouri, for ORESTES FARNICIO PENA, Serial Number 51 061 050, indicated he was inducted into the U. S. Army on January 28, 1949 at New York, New York, and served on active duty until January 27, 1950, at which time he was honorably released from active duty as a Private at Fort Benning, Georgia, and was transferred to the U. S. Army Enlisted Reserve Corps where he served in an inactive status until June 12, 1954 receiving an honorable discharge by reason of completion of his military obligation.

Records failed to reflect any foreign service, awards, citations, or decorations. His character and efficiency ratings ranged from unknown to excellent and there is no record of courts-martial or absence without official leave.

At Washington, D. C.

The following information was obtained from a review of Merchant Marine personnel file pertaining to OREST PENA obtained from Miss LUCILE R. SCHILDER, Supervisor, Merchant Vessel Personnel Records and Welfare Branch:

On August 3, 1954, at Port of New York, New York City, Orestes Farnicio Pena, 223 West 195th Street, New York City, executed an application for a United States Merchant Mariner's Document. On this application, Orestes Farnicio Pena showed he was born August 15, 1923, at Colon, Cuba, was holder of a Cuban passport, number 16583, issued June 23, 1949, by the Department of Immigration, Havana, Cuba, also was in possession of United States Immigration and Naturalization alien registration card, number A-6434157. He requested a Merchant Mariner's Document endorsed for duty as an Ordinary Seaman, Wiper and Messman. He was validated for emergency service and on November 2, 1954, was issued United States Merchant Mariner's Document, number Z-1068920. He was described as a white male, five feet eight inches tall, weight 140 pounds, black hair, brown eyes and wearing a mustache. His Social Security Number was shown as being number 068-24-0156. His next of kin was identified as his wife, Paula Pena, at 223 West 105th Street, New York City.

On May 19, 1955, Pena was issued Merchant Mariner's

WCD:jas

Document Z-1068920 in the name Orest Pena. The file reflected he requested his name to be changed to conform with his name as it appeared on his Certificate of Naturalization, number 7426151, issued to him May 6, 1955, in United States District Court, Southern District of New York, New York City. His new Merchant Mariner's Document also showed him to be endorsed for service as Ordinary Seaman, Wiper and Messman.

On January 7, 1957, Pena's Merchant Mariner's Document was reissued at Mobile, Alabama, to show him as an able seaman-any-waters-twelve months. At that time he showed his permanent residence as 515 West 107th Street, New York City, and next of kin was identified as his daughter, Margaret Pena, at the same address.

On April 24, 1961, he was issued a Replacement Document, at which time his local address was shown as 117 Decatur Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

The Merchant Marine jacket reflected the following service record for Pena:

On September 10, 1964, GUILLERMO FIALLO, 2003 Laurel Street, an employee of A-Z Paper Company, 630 South Front Street, New Orleans, advised as follows:

FIALLO, it is to be noted, is the source of the original allegation on which this investigation was based, namely, that subject had some time ago planned to travel to Europe and Moscow. FIALLO advised on September 10, 1964, that since he was last interviewed by an Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on July 6, 1964 he has endeavored to determine subject's sympathies regarding FIDEL CASTRO. Source advised that he has had close contact with the subject in the past and has seen him several times since July 6, 1964, however, he did state that he has not had too close a contact with the subject during the last 30 days. FIALLO stated that he has endeavored in his contacts with the subject and with other persons who are known to the subject to ascertain whether the subject could possibly be pro-CASTRO or perform any activity on behalf of CASTRO. FIALLO stated that after all of his efforts he still retains his original firm belief that the subject is definitely anti-CASTRO and added that he has learned nothing that would cause him to believe that subject was anything but anti-CASTRO.

The information in report of SA J. WILLIAM LOVE, dated 11/30/62, at NY, captioned "CUBAN SABOTAGE EFFORTS IN THE UNITED STATES," (NYfile 105-58712 and Bufile 105-115667) on page 33, sets forth the name ORESTE ALFONSO as a person known to MANUEL BETANCOURT SANCHEZ back in Cuba.

MANUEL BETANCOURT SANCHEZ, 3070 34th Street, Astoria, NYC, [redacted] has been interviewed on several occasions by SAS of the NYO, wherein he has expressed a cooperative attitude and voiced opposition to the present Cuban regime. SA JOHN D. HURLEY, Jr., contacted BETANCOURT on 9/22/64, at which time he advised that the only ORESTE ALFONSO known to him is still residing in Cuba and would be approximately 34 or 35 years of age at this date. He stated that ALFONSO was this individual's family name, not his matronymic name; consequently, the ALFONSO known to him cannot be identical with ORESTES FABRICIO PENA ALFONSO, wherein ALFONSO is used as a matronymic name.

Information copies are being furnished the offices as designated since they have received prior correspondence in this matter.

The Indices of the NYO contain no identifiable information pertaining to PAULA PENA.

The Indices of the NYO contain no references to subject other than prior correspondence from the OO.

Contact with the Credit Bureau of Greater New York was made by IC JOHN M. DUNAY, and contact with BCI, NYCPD, was made by SA AUGUST J. MICEK concerning the subject, with negative results.

On September 9, 1964, [redacted] 49-06 66th Street, Woodside, New York City, owner of the house at this address, advised that he has resided at this address for the past five years, and that he is unaware of the present whereabouts of the previous owner. Consequently, [redacted] advised that he would have no knowledge regarding the subject's ever having resided at this address during the period 1952-1953.

On September 1, 1964, [redacted] 49-06 66th Street, Queens, advised that she vaguely recalls the subject as having resided at this address. She advised that his wife's name was PAULA, and that he resided in an apartment at this address for about one year approximately 12 years ago. She advised that she could furnish no information regarding the political beliefs of either the subject or his wife.

[redacted] owner, 135 West 69th Street, New York City, advised that the subject never resided at this address. She further advised that she has owned this residence for at least the last five years.

[redacted] Superintendent, 130 West 71st Street, advised after a review of subject's photograph, that the subject looked familiar, but that he does not know whether the subject ever resided at that address. He stated that the individuals residing at this address were mostly transients and that no one presently residing here has lived here for more than a year.

[redacted] 304 West 77th Street, New York City, who is acquainted with many individuals in the vicinity of 130 West 71st Street, New York City, advised that the subject is unknown to her.

On August 19, 1964, [redacted] owner, Belnord Residence Hotel, 209 West 87th Street, New York City, advised that he has no records of tenants dating back more than five years ago. (It is noted that this residence was completely renovated during the last two years).

On September 1, 1964, [redacted] Superintendent, 223 West 105th Street, New York City, advised he has no records of tenants residing at this address prior to 1959. He further advised that there are no tenants presently residing at instant address for more than two years.

EMPLOYMENTS:

Pan American Laundry

The City Directory for the City of New York reflects no such address as 38 LaSalle Street, New York City. It is to be noted that the numbers in this particular street begin with #55.

Special Agent (SA) JOHN D. HURLEY, Jr., reviewed the area of LaSalle Street and noted that it has been torn down and renovated within the last five years.

Tri Vet Belts

[redacted] Tri Vet Belts, advised on August 20, 1964, that his payroll records only go back six years, and that he has no knowledge as to whether subject was ever employed at instant firm. He further advised that he employs a large number of Puerto Rican and Cuban individuals at instant firm and that there is quite a turnover in employees each year.

Starlite Belts Corporation

On August 18, 1964, [redacted] former manager of the property at 545 Eighth Avenue, New York City advised that he managed instant property from 1947 through December, 1963. He stated that the Starlite Belts Corporation had been a tenant in instant building sometime during that period, but that this firm had gone out of business. He further advised that he does not know the present whereabouts or the name of the owner of the defunct Starlite Belts Corporation.

On August 18, 1964, [redacted] Credit Bureau of Greater New York, advised that she could locate no record of the subject in her files.

On August 27, 1964, the Bureau of Criminal Identification, New York City Police Department, advised that they could locate no record of the subject or his wife, PAULA PENA, in their files.

Cuban sources in the New York area who are cognizant of pro and anti-CASTRO activities and individuals were contacted during September 1964 regarding the subject, with negative results.

BOTH COMMUNISM, CAPITALISM CONDEMNED

Oswald Manifesto Outlined New U.S. Movement

By HUGH AYNESWORTH
(c) The Dallas Morning News, 1964

Lee Harvey Oswald, who presumably will be named the lone assassin of President John F. Kennedy when the Warren Commission report becomes public Sunday, thought the U.S. Marine Corps might one day take over this nation in a Latin American-style military coup.

And, expecting that occurrence, he had a plan for what he termed an "Activist" or "Futurist" to "safeguard an independent course of action after the debacle."

His "outline for the future" did not advocate the overthrow of the U.S. Government. He wrote:

"Why should we manifest opposition, when there are far greater forces at work to bring about the fall of the United States government than we could ever possibly muster."

Oswald's writings apparently were penned in late 1962 and early 1963. Presumably they are included in the Warren Commission report, soon to be handed to President Johnson.

HIS DOCTRINE, which he considered "a truly democratic system," would combine the best qualities of both capitalism and communism, but would be opposed to both world systems as they now operate.

Oswald wrote that the American Communist party had outlived its usefulness and no longer could be considered a haven for futuristic thinkers.

He said that party had "betrayed itself," and added:

"It has turned itself into the traditional lever of a foreign power to overthrow the government of the United States, not in the name of freedom or high ideals, but in servile conformity to the wishes of the Soviet Union and in anticipation of Soviet Russia's complete domination of the American continent.

"The Forsters and the Flynns of the subsidized Communist party of the United States have shown themselves to be willing, gullible messengers of the Kremlin's internationalist propaganda.

"THERE CAN BE no international solidarity with the arch betrayers of that most sublime ideal."

☐ Being Investigated

Oswald went on: "There can be no sympathy for those who have turned the idea of communism into a vile curse to Western man.

"The Soviets have committed crimes unsurpassed even by their early-day capitalist counterparts, the imprisonment of their own peoples, with the mass extermination so typical of Stalin, and the individual suppression and regimentation under Khrushchev."

Oswald, the 24-year-old who presumably saw the Communists at their best and worst in his 2½ years behind the Iron Curtain, wrote despicably of what he called "the murder of history" and the "prostitution of art and culture" in Russia.

Why, he asked, does the American Communist party condone such actions by the Soviet Union as nuclear testing, the situation in Hungary and Eastern Germany, the spy Sobel and the "Warsaw Pact maneuvers" when they "bring pious protest" award the United States for similar actions?

OSWALD LISTED "atom bomb test, Cuba, NATO maneuvers, U2 and Congo" as some of the "similar actions."

His movement, he wrote, would not only declare itself as independent to Soviet domination, but would oppose it. Only by this strong stand against the Russians can "dorment and disillusioned persons hope to unite to free the radical movement from its inertia," he wrote.

Because the American Communist party had refused to condemn the Russian Communists, Oswald wrote, "Progressives have been weakened into a stable class of fifth columnists of the Russians."

Oswald, printing most of his "doctrine" on 2-ring notebook paper as used by schoolboys, said members of his organization would have to "free themselves" from the yoke of the American Communist party.

"It is readily foreseeable that a coming economical, political or military crisis, internal or external, will bring about the final destruction of the capitalist system.

"ASSUMING THIS, we can see how preparation in a special party could safeguard an independent course of action after the debacle."

He termed this "course of action" as "an American course, steadfastly opposed to intervention by outsiders, relatively stable foreign powers, no matter from where they come."

"But in particular," he emphasized, "and if necessary," this group would be "violently opposed to Soviet intervention."

Oswald knew he would have trouble recruiting people of his own ilk. He wrote:

"No party of this type can attract into its ranks more than a nominal number of fundamental radicals."

He didn't think his party would grow as large as the Republican party, probably the understatement of all his known writings.

"IT IS NOT the nature of such an organization to attract such a membership as, let's say, the Republicans or even the Socialist party, but it is possible to enlist the aid of disenchanted members of the Socialist party and even some from more 'respected' (from a capitalist viewpoint) parties," he penned.

Then he warned:

"But whereas our political enemies talk loudly now, they have no concept of what total crisis means.

"The faction which has the greater basis in spirit and the most far-sighted and ready membership of the radical futurist, will be the decisive factor.

"We do not have any interest in directly assuming the head of government in the event of such an all-finishing crisis. As dissident Americans we are merely interested in opposing foreign intervention which is an easily drawn conclusion if one believes in the theory of crisis.

THE UTOPIA-MINDED youth then put all his marbles in one sack and shook them thusly: "The emplacement of a separate, democratic, pure Communist society is our goal."

He wrote that his "doctrine" included "democratic socializing of production, union communes" and "without regard to the twisting apart of Marxist communism by other powers."

Oswald said religious tolerance, the right to own and accumulate private property and freedom of travel must be retained by his group. All have been violated by the Russians, he wrote in parentheses.

His next words are hypocritical, coming from a man who would a few months later kill the U.S. president:

"Resourcefulness and patient working toward the aforesaid goals are preferred rather than loud and useless manifestations of protest.

"Silent observance of our principles is of primary importance."

RESTRAINT was the watchword, Oswald wrote.

He said these efforts would likely appear "too limited" in the near future but said they "should not be confused with slowness, indecision or fear.

"Only the intellectual fearless could even be remotely attracted to our doctrine, and yet this doctrine requires the utmost restraint, a state of being in itself majestic in power.

"This is stoicism," he added, "and yet stoicism has not been effected for many years, and never for such a purpose."

Oswald considered the Minutemen unfit to associate with his group. "Organizations such as the Minutemen are the opposite of a stoical organization," he printed, his usual misspellings perhaps stealing a bit from his elated feelings of stoicism.

The Minutemen, he went on, "are simply preparing to redefend in their own back yards a system which they take for granted will be defeated militarily elsewhere—a strange thing to hear from 'patriots.'

"THESE ARMED groups represent hard-core American capitalist supporters.

"There will also be small armed Communist and probably fascist groups. There will also be anarchist and religious groups at work."

Oswald apparently believed that in case of such a crisis the bulk of the American people would not back any of aforementioned groups, but would jump at the chance of joining his movement.

He wrote:

"The bulk of the population will not adhere to any of these groups, because they will not be inclined to join any of the old factions with which we all are so familiar. But the people will never accept a new order presented by politicans or opportunists. Logically, they will deem it necessary to oppose those systems against whom they have been educated, but they will be against anything resembling their former capitalist masters also."

Enter Oswald's Furutists or Activists, or so he figured:

"STEADFASTEDLY opposed to the revival of the old forces, they will seek a new face. Thus will be the sentiment of the masses."

Oswald thought certain safeguards should be built in his organiation, for he said, "Any organization cleverly manipulating words may sway the masses."

A safety valve, he called it, is needed to "shut off opportunist forces from within and foreign powers from without."

Procurement of members and slow, deliberate organization was necessary for his group to be strong enough to meet the challenge, he thought.

"There can be no substitute for organization and procurement work toward the aforestated ideals and goals," he wrote.

His group must be an armed group he felt.

"Work is the key to the future door, but failure to apply that key because of possible armed opposition in our hypothetical, but very probable crisis, is as useless as trying to use force now to knock down the door.

"ARMED DEFENSES of our ideals must be an accepted doctrine after the crisis, just as refraining from any demonstrations of force must be our doctrine after the crisis, just as re-scratched on the notebook paper.

Oswald showed his hatred for both the United States and Russia. He wrote:

"No man, having known, having lived under the Russian Communist and American capitalist system, could possibly make a choice between them. There is no choice. One offers oppression, the other poverty.

"Both offer imperialistic injustice, tinted with two brands of slavery.

Oswald saw his doctrine and party as the ultimate social system, much, much better than either capitalism or communism.

"No rational man," he wrote, "can take the attitude of 'A curse on both your houses.' There ARE two world systems, one twisted beyond recognition by its misuse, the other decadent and dying in its final evolution.

.Y Democratic system would combine the better qualities of the two upon an American foundation, opposed to both world systems as they are now.

"This then is our ideal," he closed.

Membership in his group, Oswald wrote, would require adherence to the doctrine, the distribution of information about the movement and "acceptance of the idea of stoical readiness in regards to practical measures once instituted in the crisis."

Oswald's belief that the U.S. Marines would one day overthrow the government was apparent in a speech he wrote for delivery to a New Orleans audience less than four months before he killed the president. It is not known whether or not the speech was actually made, since Oswald's arrest in that city in a clash with the anti-Castro exiles somewhat curtailed his Marxist activities, at least outwardly.

"AMERICANS ARE apt to scoff at the idea that a military coup in the United States, as so often happens in Latin-American countries, could ever replace our government," he wrote.

"But that is an idea that has grounds for consideration," he added. Then he launched into why he thought the Marines were the likely force in such an uprising.

"Which military organization has the potentialities of executing such action? Is it the Army with its many (word illegable), its unwieldly size, its scores of bases scattered across the world?

"The case of Gen. Walker shows that the Army, at least, is not fertile enough ground for a far right regime to go a very long way.

"For the same reasons of size and disposition, the Navy and Air Force are to be more or less disregarded.

"Which service, then, can qualify to launch a coup in the United States?

"Small size, a pemanent hard core of officers and few bases is necessary.

"ONLY ONE outfit fits that description and the USMC is a right-wing-infiltrated organization of dire potential consequences to the freedoms of the United States."

Oswald, who shot himself in the arm with a .22 once in Japan when he felt his Marine officers were mistreating him, bared his hatred for the service as he said, "I agree with former President Truman when he said that 'The Marine Corps should be abolished.'"

He then touched on racial troubles in the United States. He called segregation "that undemocratic, country-wide institution."

Oswald said "the action of the active segregationist minority and the great body of indifferent people in the South" do more harm to this nation than all the Communists combined.

"Segregationist tendencies can be unlearned," Oswald wrote. "I was born in New Orleans and I know."

LATER ON, he took a pot-shot at right-wingers, with:

"Nowadays most of us read enough about certain right-wing groups to know how to recognize and guard against their corrosive effects."

Although he obviously despised the right-wingers, Oswald said he knew what prompted them. "There are probably no other American-born persons who have as many personal reasons to know and therefore hate and mistrust communsim," he said.

Oswald didn't want any part of their movement, he said.

"I would never become a pseudo-professional anti-communist like Herbert Philbrick or McCarthy. I would never jump on any of the many right-wing bandwagons because our two countries have too much to offer each other to be tearing at each others' throats in an endless Cold War."

This obviously doesn't sound like the same man who in the "doctrine" stated so bodly that his organization would be dead set against anything the Russians had to offer.

"BOTH OUR countries," Oswald went on, "have major shortcomings and advantages, but only in ours is the voice of dissent allowed.

"In returning to the United States, I hope I have awakened a few who were sleeping and others who are indifferent.

"I have done a lot of criticizing of our system. I hope you will take it in the spirit it was given.

"In going to Russia, I followed the old principle 'Thou shall seek the truth, and the truth shall make you free.'

"In returning to the United States I have done nothing more or less than select the lesser of two evils."

(Editor's note: The quote is "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free," from St. John 8:32.)

Other notes, which apparently were "dos" and "don'ts" for Oswald's planned movement, showed the youth had little idea how things worked either in Russia or his homeland.

THE "FORS" included freedom of information, speech, religion and elections. He was "against" disarmament, income taxes, all forms of international communism, facists and nationalism, segregation and unemployment.

Oswald thought medical care should be free, but no taxes should be levied against individuals. He thought taxes should be used "solely for the building or improvement of public projects," but didn't say where other monies would be gotten for his medical plans.

Pensions should be higher, too, he wrote. And it should be a movement without any extremist tendencies toward race or religion.

Perhaps most blatant of all was this note: "Against . . . sale of arms. Pistols should not be sold in any case, rifles only with police permission; shotguns free."

Though this man professed he didn't want anything to do with the American Communist party, he was a regular subscriber to The Worker, its newspaper.

A WORKER blasting Bobby Kennedy (Oct. 20, 1963) was found in Oswald's personal effects. A copy of the leftist paper, The Militant, the Oct. 7, 1963, edition, was there too.

The Dallas News was unable to learn whether the speech quoted from above might also have been the one given last July 27 at the Jesuit House of Studies at Mobile, Ala.

Oswald was invited to speak to that group on July 6 by Eugene J. Murret, of New Orleans, a student at the institution. The writer told Oswald about 90 men were studying philosophy there and they would like to know more about communism in Russia.

Oswald appeared that Saturday night at 7 p.m.

From letters to the assassin from Murret and a Mr. Paul Piazza, SJ, it can be assumed that Oswald discussed the good and bad points of both systems, with emphasis on the woes of speculation and exploitation in the United States.

MURRET WROTE him and told him one of his professors had thought Oswald had made "a number of good points." But, said Murret, the professor felt Oswald was vague and didn't make sufficient application to back up his beliefs (definitely a pattern through all his writings).

Piazza wrote Oswald a thank-you note a few days later, Aug. 1.

"I feel that I came away from your talk with an understanding of the Russian people as a people, with ideals, goals, problems —normal, everyday human beings, something that is quite easy to forget with all the threats of war hanging in the air."

He added, "I find your talk has helped to make me a broader and deeper person, more universal and sympathetic in my thinking. I hope in the future both America and Russia can draw closer to one another and thereby increase in friendship and understanding."

The Dallas News asked Mr. Piazza details about Oswald's speech, but received only a curt reply:

"IN ANSWER to your letter requesting information concerning Lee Oswald's talk, I reply that I have nothing to add above what I have already written in my thank-you note to Mr. Oswald himself.

"I thank you for your letter, and I hope that your 'private investigation of Lee Harvey Oswald's background' is most successful. Cordially yours, Paul Piazza, SJ."

During much of this time Oswald was not working and apparently his wife, Marina, was getting tired of it.

She has told reporters that Oswald wanted to send her back to Russia, but that she didn't want to go. She must have wanted to go a little bit, for on Aug. 5, 1963, the Russian embassy wrote her a 2-paragraph letter (to 4907 Magazine St., New Orleans) acknowleging a letter she had written stating her desire to return to Moscow, but asking for more particulars.

Oswald, it seemed at that time, planned to move to Baltimore. He said so in an Aug. 26 letter to Elizabeth G. Flynn, who was at that time chairman of the American communist party. (Mrs. Flynn died earlier this month while on a visit to Moscow—Ed. Note.)

THREE WEEKS later, another Communist party official, Arnold Johnson, replied to Oswald and instructed him to let the New York office know when he arrived in Baltimore and "We will find some way of getting in touch with you in that city."

Johnson told Oswald he thought he could best be utilized by "remaining in the background, not underground.

"I assume," he closed, "this is pretty much of an academic question now, and we can discuss it later."

Following a review of this article Dallas indicated it undoubtedly refers to items of evidence which were among the 455 items of evidence obtained by the Dallas Police Department shortly after the assassination. Dallas indicated it appears that the material used in preparation of the article came from the same source and the same time as the Oswald diary which was previously published. We conducted extensive investigation regarding the leak of Oswald's diary which was previously sent to the Commission and we indicated we were conducting no further investigation in this matter.

Page 90 of referenced report reflects information concerning registration card of the "Half-Circle J" Motel at Fort Worth, Texas, which was made available during course of instant investigation. An examination of the handwriting appearing on this registration card was established as not having been written by OSWALD.

On 9/29/64, Mr. CECIL SITZ, owner of the "Half-Circle J" Motel, 9600 West Highway 80, Fort Worth, Texas, telephonically inquired of the Fort Worth Resident Agency as to when he could obtain the return of his registration card and indicated that he considered it to be a valuable item, (apparently believing same was actually a registration card containing the handwriting of OSWALD). Dallas records reflect this registration card still in possession of FBI Laboratory.

Bureau is requested to advise when such registration card may be returned, and consider the advisability of making it known to Mr. SITZ at the time of such return that the writing on this card is not that of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

SHE EXPLAINED THAT IN LATE NOV AND DURING DEC SIXTYTHREE, MAIL CAME TO HER THROUGH SECRET SERVICE, FBI, AND RUTH PAINE, BUT SHE DOES NOT RECALL THAT IRVING, TEXAS PD HANDLED ANY MAIL FOR HER.

MRS. OSWALD DECLARED THAT SHE DOES NOT KNOW WHAT LETTER RUTH PAINE REFERRED TO IN HER INTERVIEW BY AGENTS ON ~~NOV~~ SEPT TWENTYNINE LAST. SHE ACKNOWLEDGED THAT SHE MAY HAVE RECEIVED A LETTER IN RUSSIAN FROM NEUNSON, BUT SHE DOES NOT RECALL IT SPECIFICALLY AND SHE DOES NOT RECALL ANSWERING SUCH A LETTER. AT THAT TIME SHE RECEIVED MANY LETTERS IN BOTH RUSSIAN AND ENGLISH.

AT PRESENT DECLAN FORD HAS SOME OF THESE LETTERS IN HIS POSSESSION AND THE REMAINING ONES ARE IN MRS. OSWALD'S HOME IN RICHARDSON, TEXAS.

MRS OSWALD GAVE PERMISSION IN WRITING FOR AGENTS TO EXAMINE THE LETTERS NOW IN HER HOME AND TO TAKE ANY OF THEM THEY WISH TO REVIEW AND EXAMINE FURTHER.

SHE CONCLUDED WITH STATEMENT THAT SHE WOULD LIKE TO BE HELPFUL IN ANY WAY, BUT THAT SHE DOES NOT REMEMBER EVERYTHING THAT HAPPENED IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE ASSASSINATION.

LETTERHEAD MEMORANDUM FOLLOWS.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We appreciate the cooperation of your Bureau in furnishing to the Commission a number of documents which aided us in the preparation of our summary report.

The Commission wishes to publish at the earliest opportunity the attached list of classified documents which were cited in the summary report, and requests your authorization to declassify these documents.

Also, many other FBI documents were cited in our report which do not bear a security classification; however, the following printed statement appears on each document: "This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency." Therefore, we are requesting your authority to publish these documents, also.

Sincerely,

Ray Fernald Shurtleff, born January 14, 1943, a student at Northeastern University, Boston, Massachusetts, residing in Apartment #16 at 111 Jersey Street, Boston, Massachusetts, furnished the following information on September 22, 1964:

In connection with the Northeastern University Cooperative Plan, he was employed in the File Section of the National Archives, Washington, D. C., from November 18, 1963 - January 25, 1964, when he returned to Northeastern University. On April 6, 1964, he was again employed at the National Archives, Washington, D. C., working in the Office of Presidential Libraries. On or about April 29, 1964, he was detailed by National Archives to work at the Warren Commission offices and was employed there in the File Section until July 31, 1964, when he left voluntarily to return to college in Boston.

His supervisor at the Warren Commission was Josephine Farrar. His duties were filing, placing documents in chronological order, indexing and in some cases source checking footnotes of various testimony.

Shurtleff recalled that at one time the File Section contained one copy of a document containing the Oswald Diary. Under normal procedure the original document would have been placed in the Commission's Exhibit File and one copy of this routed to the File Section, which copy may have been only one of possibly ten or more copies of the same document. He stated that as there was no central system for number of copies made or distributed, he could not say how many copies of this document may have been prepared.

ENCLOSURE

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

After the Oswald Diary appeared in the press, Shurtleff recalls checking the File Section for its copy of the diary. He did this out of general curiosity and for no other purpose. At this time there was no copy in file and no type of charge out to indicate where it might be. Shurtleff did not consider it unusual that the file copy of the diary was out of file and he made no attempt to locate it.

Shurtleff stated that at no time did he ever make or cause to be made any copies of the Oswald Diary; he never received any request for a copy of the diary and he has no knowledge of how the diary reached the press. He stated that it would have been possible for any staff member or employee to have made copies of this document as everyone had access to Xerox machines in the basement. He has no knowledge that any copy of the Oswald Diary was ever distributed to unauthorized individuals.

Shurtleff further advised that during this period he rented a room from Mrs. Eunice Mercer at 2010 Pierce Mill Road, Washington, D. C., and that nobody else from the National Archives or the Warren Commission resided there.

Shurtleff advised that he had no other information on this matter.

Reurlet 10/6/64 transmitting 10 copies of a listing of all material belonging to Lee Harvey and Marina Oswald. There are returned herewith eight copies of your listing the first of which has been marked "correction copy." This copy of the listing contains numerous markings in pencil which should be incorporated in the listing to be disseminated to the Commission. The Bureau agrees with the suggested changes in relet except for the change concerning item B-11. The work "join" does appear in the negative of the film of this exhibit in the possession of the Bureau and, accordingly, that item should be described as suggested by the pencil markings on page 33 of your list. The Bureau's inventory list and SA Robert P. Gemberling's 3/10/64 report in this case are being amended in accordance with your suggestions with the exception of the B-11 item. Note that Bureau suggests the date in the first paragraph of the listing be amended to read October 6, 1964. In this connection, on page 48 of the listing the following items should be added:

D-266, a letter dated 11/23/63 in Russian to Marina Oswald from Walter Neunson; D-267, a photograph of a woman andboy said to be Mrs. Edna Neunson and her son, John; D-268, a photograph of a male said to be Walter Neunson.

The listing should show that these items were obtained from Mr. Declan Ford. In addition, you are to add item E-2 to the list, which is $13.87 found in the possession of Lee Harvey Oswald at the time of his arrest. These funds, which are in the possession of the Bureau, were obtained from the Dallas Police Department.

When the listing has been corrected as indicated herein and as suggested by the markings on the correction copy, furnish a copy to Marina Oswald in accordance with her request. Furnish five copies of the corrected listing to the Bureau.

NOTE:

Marina asked for a list of all property belonging to her or Lee Oswald, which the Bureau obtained. Likewise, the President's Commission has asked to be assured that they are aware of all the property of Lee and Marina Oswald as of 11/22/63. We have told the Commission we cannot grant this assurance to them for we did not conduct the searches of Oswald's residence or of the Paine house. We also told the Commission we were preparing a complete listing of all property which ever came into our possession and which we believed to be the property of the Oswalds. This is the listing in question. It has been checked for descriptive accuracy against the Bureau's master inventory by Mr. Frazier of the Laboratory. Indicated corrections are primarily typographical but there are several items which Laboratory feels could be more accurately described. All of these changes are noted in the correction copy. The original listing is being filedwith the corrections notedthereon.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are six sheets of paper bearing "Confidential" stamp at top and bottom of each sheet obtained this date from Ward and Paul, Incorporated. Also, enclosed are two "Confidential" stamps obtained this date from Mrs. BEVERLY ANN HECKMAN, Secretary to J. LEE RANKIN, General Council to the President's Commissioner on the Assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mr. WAYNE BIRDSELL, Manager, Ward and Paul, Inc., 917 G Street, N. W., related details as according to his records concerning their handling of transcript of RUBY testimony. BIRDSELL stated this material was the 106th such material furnished to Ward and Paul by the Commission for reproduction. According to his receipt, only five copies with the original of the RUBY testimony were delivered to the Commission at 3:35 p.m. on 6/13/64. This receipt is Ward and Paul Number 3359, dated 6/13/64. BIRDSELL states he has no recollection of this particular document, although it is his belief the original stenographic transcript was received by his firm on the morning of June 18, and such a job would have taken approximately three and one-half to four hours to complete.

He also states had material been received on previous day, June 17, it would have been delivered to Commission early on morning of June 18. BIRDSELL states paper used for reproduction on Zerox machine is pre-stamped "Confidential" with blank paper being run through an old style hand-feed Multigraph machine with the word "Confidential" consisting of separate letters blocked in place on the Multigraph cylinder. He produced a ream of such pre-stamped blank paper from which six blank specimen sheets were obtained to be furnished herewith.

BIRDSELL states his firm has handled all such testimony and despositions for the Commission and recalls earlier material was all classified "Top Secret"; however, by memorandum 5/1/64, from J. LEE RANKIN, General Councel, Ward and Paul were informed that as of that date all despositions and testimonies handled by Ward and Paul would be classified "Confidential". BIRDSELL states Ward and Paul never made extra copies nor retained extra copies of any material relating to Commission business.

BIRDSELL states his firm handles classified material including "Secret" and "Top Secret" for such Senate and congressional committees as Armed Services and persons in his firm are "cleared" for such material by Department of Defense.

Instant transcript of RUBY hearing was actually run through the Zerox machine by either ROBERT E. HAWKINS or PETE WARD, son of one of the owners. WARD not available for interview, but interview had with ROBERT E. HAWKINS, who has no independent recollection of instant document and transcript; states he has no knowledge of how any leak could have occurred and personally was not responsible for same. PETE WARD to be interviewed.

Inquiry at the Commission determined three "Confidential" stamps known to have been used during conduct of Commission inquiry. One such stamp borrowed from Department of Defense and other two stamps obtained through requisition from General Services Administration. The stamp borrowed from Department of Defense, which is enclosed and marked Number One was located in the desk of Mrs. BEVERLY ANN HECKMAN. The second enclosed stamp, which bears Number Three, was located in a secretary's desk in a room occupied by several Commission secretarys. The third stamp was left at Commission office at request of Mrs. HECKMAN. It is noted this third stamp, which is one of two obtained through General Services Administration, was located in the supply cabinet at the Commission quarters. This stamp has never been used.

During contact with Commission this date, inquiry received as to when Bureau expected to complete examination of material previously forwarded to FBI Laboratory. This inquiry based on fact Commission anticipates presenting all such material to the National Archives within the next few weeks. It was indicated the return of material previously forwarded within the next two weeks would be most satisfactory. This being furnished for information of Bureau.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy has requested investigation of the publication of Lee Harvey Oswald's diary by "The Dallas Morning News" and "Life" magazine.

Attached is a report of the interview with Leon D. Hubert, an attorney at New Orleans, Louisiana, on September 28, 1964. Mr. Hubert was formerly employed as a legal consultant to the Commission.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

LEON D. HUBERT, JR., attorney, Room 300, Oil and Gas Building, 1100 Tulane Avenue, advised that he was employed as a legal consultant by the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, commonly known as the Warren Commission, on a full-time basis from January 10, 1964 until June 4, 1964.

Mr. HUBERT stated that a great majority of his work for the commission involved the matter pertaining to the assassination of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK L. RUBY and that the majority of his time was spent at the commission headquarters located in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Building in Washington, D. C. He stated, however, that on occasions he traveled to Dallas, Texas, where he interviewed and obtained depositions from various individuals regarding the RUBY matter.

Mr. HUBERT stated he could provide no information which could be of possible assistance in determining how "The Dallas Morning News" or "Life" magazine came into the possession of a copy of the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said that he could not suggest the identities of any individual or individuals who may have been responsible for making available a copy of this diary to the newspaper or to "Life"magazine.

Mr. HUBERT advised that since June 4, 1964, he has been in Dallas on two or three occasions for anywhere from one to three days handling additional details in connection with the RUBY case.

Mr. J Edgar Hoover, Chief,
Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Dept. of Justice
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I submit for your consideration, herewith, a proposal which I feel would be of considerable help to your Bureau as a part of the tot evaluation of persons under suspicion or surveillance as actual or pote tial criminals and security risks..

I am a graphologist, and graphology is an accurate, scientific met of analyzing a person's character and personality traits through a stu his handwriting. I had occasion to do an analysis of Lee Oswald's hand writing from a photostatic copy of his letter to the Secretary of the N published in a magazine sometime after the assassination of President K nedy. A copy of my analysis and its findings is enclosed, though I ha to add that reports to your Bureau would be of an entirely different an more concise nature, as this particular one was designed for another sp fic purpose. I have done a great many analyses of persons unknown to m and have, in every case, astounded them with the accuracy of my knowled of their personal qualities as revealed by graphology.

It is my conviction that such analysis of character and personalit as I do on a graphological basis, and with no other knowledge of the in vidual involved, would be of immeasurable value in the total picture of that individual - with regard especially to his capabilities for violen for deceit, for his potential talkativeness about his activities if thi method of interrogation and suggestion were used instead of that. I fir believe, for example, if my analysis of Lee Oswald had been a part of y files, with its indication of his capacity for violence, he would have removed from the Dallas Trade Mart prior to President Kennedy's motorca past it. But I am inclined to agree with your offices that, based on h behaviour and activities only up to that time, how would one feel there were grounds to detain him as a potential security

I believe I could help in security measures in this fashion. I bel I could help you concentrate on one subject as against another where bo are suspected of the same thing, as a result of the revelation of his p tential. And I believe I can help show whether or not one method of que ioning would prove more fruitful than another (as, fear vs. sympathy), d pending on the individual's emotional traits.

Try me with a half dozen handwriting samples - and include one or t persons above suspicion of anything - including an F.B.I. man, if you as long as it is their natural handwriting.

There are two things that handwriting analysis cannot do accurate It cannot tell the age nor the sex of the writer. Briefly, this is because some men write feminine hand, and vice-versa, and some older peopl write with a younger hand than seem half their age.

At the end of this letter I will acquaint you with my personal bac ground which I am sure you will find to be worthy of your complete confi dence, but at this point, let me submit my proposition.

I would like to establish a working relationship with the F.B.I. whereby I would analyze the handwriting samples of any individuals you would be interested in forwarding me (via clear photostat would be sati factory). I would not need to know the names of these individuals, nor your reasons for sending them to me. A code number could be used in li of names. Samples consisting of a minimum of a paragraph would do. Yo could send them either directly to me via registered mail, or you could send them to the F.B.I. Agent in West Palm Beach, Fla. and I could pick them up from him and return them to him, as it is only a 14 mile drive from here.

I would give you a complete breakdown of the individual's characte and personality traits, or I would answer specific questions you might to me regarding his honesty, stability, secretiveness vs, talkativeness resentment, jealousy, capacity for violence, brutality, and others.

I would rather not know the background of the particular problem, that any potential influence of knowledge of the circumstance would not present to color my analysis.

I would do this work on a fee basis if there were only a scattered number of them over a period of time. But I would be happy to be kept busy on a full time basis at a salary commensurate with a professional status government employee, less certain amounts for living at home; or a contractual basis as an independent contractor. This latter might be more satisfactory under the circumstances.

On this latter point, I must say that, being semi-retired, I would want to do this work from my home here, as I am most content here as is with wife, and we would not wish to consider a move. Actually, in my opinion it is an advantage to the project itself, as I would be far removed from influences on the scene which could conceivably color one's thinking in spite of oneself. Here, in calm and placid surroundings one's power of concentration are unbefuddled by outside matters and official attitudes, and the work could proceed apace in an untrammeled manner.

Now for some information about myself. I am 61 years old, married, have a married daughter and grandchild. I lived in Providence, Rhode I from birth to 1940 where I graduated from Brown University in 1900 with

In the opinion of this graphologist the handwriting of Lee Harvey Oswald is a textbook example of that of a man who would stop at nothing - not even murder - to accomplish his aim. Whether that aim is to righ a feal or imagined wrong, or to achieve some form of fulfillment of a twisted or frustrated ego, for him the end justifies the means - any means.

It has been said that it is regrettable that Oswald's presence in Dallas was not known, so that he could have been watched or even detain ed during President Kennedy's visit there. It is also regrettable that the science of graphology, which is in growing use in personnel depart-ments in industry and in the professions in the evaluation of character personality traits, and aptitudes, has not achieved greater status amon law-enforcement agencies. If it had, individuals like Lee Oswald would have been under much closer surveillance. For, regardless of whether the message itself in his letter (shown here) to (then) Secretary of th Navy Connally could or could not be judged as threatening (" I will us all means " etc.), the analysis of the handwriting itself is unmistakal The writer of that letter was capable of the worst of crimes. If a gra ologist had had the opprtunity to see that letter in the files when it was first received, he would have warned the proper authorities that thi was the handwriting of a dangerous individual, one who could react with a violent, overt act under conditions of real or imagined provocation.

There are many thousands of threatening letters written to public and private individuals by so-called " cranks ", many- doubtlessly most-of whom are incapable of following through with an overt act of any consequence. But this one had the earmarks of a violent nature.

Let us examine the letter for the tell-tale signs. The most obviou feature of this writing is its heavy, muddy, uneven pressure present in every line. Note the thick, filled-in, blotted letters in word after word, - the result of uneven surges of heavy bearing down on the pen. Constant heaviness of pressure itself merely indicates intensity of emotions, but muddy, unevenly pressured writing indicates a coarse, glu tonous, sensuous, and vicious individual who seeks his own satisfaction without regard to the feelings or rights of others. This kind of writi appears quite frequently among criminals. It is rare in the handwritin that one sees in everyday life. When a graphologist does come across such writing he knows at once the sort of character he is studying. He is not surprised by it if he is doing work for law-enforcement agencies or in prisons. But if he comes across a sample in his work with indust or with private individual analyses, he pays special heed.

Let us look now at three ending strokes: that of the next to last word in the second line of the body of the letter, the word "you"; then the word "Paris" in the 7th line; and the word "certain" in the 9th lin These are all thick, clublike endings. And, in handwriting analysis, this indicates brutality. There is another meaning to the strong, verti cal direction of that ending of "Paris", also, as well as the unusual second upstroke of the "y" in "family" in line 20, and this is the indi cation of a possible fanatic.

Look now at the fish-hook endings in the words "Ft. Worth" (line 5 "this" (line 11); and "California" (line 14). These show great tenacit and fixedness of purpose. This is not an evil trait, of course, (Abra- ham Lincoln's writing, for example, showed this), but when found in a nature such as this, it is clearer evidence as to what lengths and with what determination he would go to accomplish his ends. The majority of the remaining words have no ending strokes at all or are clipped short. This is a sign of basic selfishness.

Let us now look at the angle of inclination, or slant of the writ- ing. You will see that the predominant slant is somewhat to the right

But note how th[illegible]sic forward angle of in[illegible]ation changes time and again to a vertical one, as shown by many of the small "b's" and "d's" and even to a backward slant as, for example, in the first two letters of the word: "answers" in line 8; the first "e" in the word "reported" (line 9); the "d" stem in the word "had" (line 12); the word "men" (li: and the first two letters of "and" (line 26), to name but a few. This changeable slant demonstrates psychic instability, and when you also f: three other factors that demonstrate so clearly the same thing, you ha: an unsettled state of mind in continual conflict - a deeply moody and emotionally disturbed psychopathic individual. These three additional factors are 1.) the continual change of slope of entire lines(compare line one with line two; lines six, eight, and nine, to name a few); 2.) the inability to keep the words of each line on an even base line. One of the clearest examples is line 26, but practically all lines qual Place a ruler along the base lines and see the unevenness. 3.) the eve changing size of the small letters. Take the single line 9. Note the two sizes of the "o" in Moscow; the size of the "e" in criticized", "certain", "facets", and "American"; the "c" in"Moscow" "criticized". "certain" and "American". You can go through each line with the same result.

There are other supplemental characteristics, too. Occasional ver tall "d" stems point to vanity; small, inverted loops on initial stroke as the "T" in "El Toro" indicating jealousy; and a number of long, inflexible initial strokes such as those at the start of many of the smal "t's" at the beginning of a word show resentment.

Many of these latter characteristics, of course, appear in many handwritings in some degree and are not in themselves criminal tendencies. But the muddy, uneven, heavy-pressured writing is typical of the criminal. And so, too, are the thick, club-like ending strokes indicating brutality. And when are added to these the traits of jealousy, resentment, vanity, moodiness, and the like, the criminal potential is activated and compounded by these motivations, while in the non-criminal individual these traits make him in varying degrees merely a difficult, disagreeable, or obnoxious person to have around.

There is another trait that Oswald had which makes his murder by Jack Ruby the more disastrous. Notice that, while many of his small letter "a's" and "o's" are closed at the top indicating secretiveness as is borne out by much of his behaviour, there are also many (about 58 of them open at the top which means talkativeness at other times.

What significance does this have ? It indicates that, in all likelihood, Oswald eventually would have talked about the crime ! It is doubtful if he would have been able to keep from talking about it. The Chief of Police of Dallas, on the morning of Oswald's murder by Ruby, said that Oswald was becoming " more co-operative ". You may recall, also that Oswald, during his attempted get-away, was reported to have mentioned to other passengers on the bus - shortly after boarding it - that the President had just been shot. This remark in no way strengthened his security. On the contrary, - since the other passengers were presumably unaware that such a thing had happened, such a statement could only serve if anything, to increase his jeopardy ! Why, then, did he say it ? Only because he had a streak of both vanity and talkativeness, and had to say something about it.

Those open letters bear this out, and, in the opinion of this analyst, he would definitely have shed considerable light on it. We may never know whether Oswald was part of a conspiracy or whether he played a lone hand. If he was part of a conspiracy, were his masterminds aware of his potential talkativeness, and was Ruby assigned to silence him.?

Dear Sir.

I wish to call your attention to a case about which you may have personal knowlege since you are a resident of Ft. Worth as I am.

In November 1959 an event was well publicised in the Ft. Worth newspapers concerning a person who had gone to the Soviet Union to reside for a short time. (much in the same way E. Hemingway resided in Paris.)

This person in answers to questions put to him by reporters in Moscow criticized certain facets of american life, the story was blown up into another "Defector" sensation, with the result that the navy department gave this person a belated dishonourable discharge, although he had recived an honourable discharge after three years service on Sept. 11, 1959 at El Toro, marine corps base in California.

These are the basic facts of my case.

I have and allways had the full sanction of the U.S. Embassy, moscow U.S.S.R. and hence the U.S. goverment. In as much as I am returning to the U.S.A. in this year with the aid of the U.S. Embassy bring with me my family (since I married in the U.S.S.R.) I shall employ all means to right this gross mistake or injustice to a bona-fied U.S. citizen and ex-service man. The U.S. goverment has no charges or complaints against me. I ask you to look into this case and take the necessary steps to repair the damage done to me and my family. For information I would direct you to consult the american Embassy, Chikovski St. 19/21, Moscow, U.S.S.R.

Thank You

With regard to leaks involving the various OSWALD items, as well as the leak pertaining to the polygraph examination afforded JACK L. RUBY, investigation conducted by the Bureau substantially has indicated those leaks in all probability occurred in Dallas.

Inquiry 9/18/64 by WFO disclosed Miss LUCILLE ANN ROBINSON, a former employee of the staff of the President's Commission had moved from 5000 Dixon Street, S.E., Washington, D. C., on 8/29/64 leaving a forwarding address of Friends Bible College, Haviland, Kansas. AT HAVILAND, KANSAS. Will interview LUCILLE ANN ROBINSON, former stenographer employed by the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY. She should be specifically questioned as to any knowledge she may have relating to the possible source or sources of leaks of information to the news media of the material relating to OSWALD, namely the OSWALD diary, the photograph of a letter from CP USA to OSWALD, the photograph of his discharge from the U. S. Marine Corps and the photograph of his international certificate of vaccination. These matters are set out in detail in reBuairtel 9/14/64 and should be reported in LHM form, incorporating her information on form 302.

Miss ROBINSON also should be interviewed with regard to the leak of material relating to RUBY, namely the RUBY testimony before Chief Justice WARREN and the polygrnph examination of RUBY. Miss ROBINSON's knowledge of these materials also should be recorded in an LHM using form 302. Six copies of each 302 should be forwarded to Bureau and single copies to Dallas for info.

ReWFOairtel 9/17/64 which is enclosed points out pertinent points of investigation at the Commission with regard to the transcript of the interview of RUBY 6/7/64 at Dallas. If Miss ROBINSON has any knowledge concerning the making of reproduced copies of the RUBY testimony or any other similar documents at the Commission during her employment there full details of same should be obtained.

Bureau instructs this investigation be handled immediately and results submitted expeditiously.

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI DATE: 9/30/64

ATTENTION: ADMINISTRATIVE DIVISION

FROM : SAC, DALLAS (89-43-3697)

SUBJECT: MR. ROY S. TRULY, SUPERINTENDENT
TEXAS SCHOOL BOOK DEPOSITORY
411 ELM STREET, DALLAS, TEXAS

Reference is made to memorandum from Inspector GAUTHIER to Mr. CALLAHAN, dated 3/27/64, titled "PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION, ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY".

This memorandum reflected that Mr. TRULY, who had testified before the President's Commission, was given a tour of the Bureau while in Washington, D.C., and recommended that consideration be given to having a personal letter sent from the Director, thanking TRULY for his assistance in helping the FBI carry out its responsibilities concerning its investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy after the Commission had completed its work.

It is recommended that such a letter be directed to Mr. TRULY. He has been most cooperative with the Agents of this office and is a great admirer of the FBI and the Director.

Reurlet 9/30/64, recommending a letter of appreciation be sent to Mr. Truly.

The assistance rendered by Truly does not appear to be unique or unusual considering Truly's position and the circumstances surrounding the assassination investigation. You are also reminded Truly, at times, has indicated reluctance to comply with some of our requests made on behalf of the President's Commission.

In view of the above, no further action is being taken on your request.

Note:

Truly is warehouse superintendent at the Texas School Book Depository from where Oswald fired the shots that killed President Kennedy. Although Truly has cooperated with us in many instances he has at times balked or indicated reluctance to comply with some of our requests made on behalf of the President's Commission. Truly has also made several statements to the press concerning investigation in progress at the Texas School Book Depository. It is not felt the assistance rendered by him should be considered any more than that expected from any American citizen in a comparable position under similar circumstances. Further, it is possible Truly might endeavor to capitalize on any such letter from the Director by seeking publicity to exaggerate the part he played in this investigation. In view of the above, it is not recommended a letter of appreciation be sent to Truly.

Dear Mr. Chairman:

In accordance with your letter of September 10, 1964, attached is my affidavit that Lee Harvey Oswald was never an informant or agent of any intelligence agency under the jurisdiction of the Department of Defense.

There is also attached a copy of a report concerning Lee Harvey Oswald which does not appear to have been previously furnished the Commission. Otherwise, all known information that the Department of Defense has that relates to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy has been sent to the Commission. The Department of Defense does not have any information suggesting that the assassination of President Kennedy was caused by a domestic or foreign conspiracy.

Sincerely yours,

The Bureau's attention is called to the fact that by Bureau letter dated September 10, 1964, only three photographic copies of Exhibit D-251 were forwarded to Dallas, with instructions to be handled as exhibits had been handled previously. In view of the fact that only three copies were furnished Dallas rather than the usual four, Dallas is retaining one copy in its files and the two enclosed herewith are being considered as copies for the President's Commission or its designated representative.

The Bureau may desire to remove the enclosure page of this report if it is disseminated to agencies other than the President's Commission or its designated representative.

LEADS:

All leads in this case have been set forth by teletype or airtel in the past and are not being restated herein. Requests for investigation and allegations are still being received and are being investigated promptly and will be continued to be reported in captioned matter.

NEW ORLEANS and SAN ANTONIO: (INFORMATION)

One copy of this report is being furnished each of the New Orleans and San Antonio Offices for information in view of the extensive investigation conducted in those divisions.

DL 100-10461

ADMINISTRATIVE:

The identities of the Agents participating in this investigation are reflected in this report.

In connection with this report, it should be borne in mind that the Dallas Office has a separate case in connection with the shooting of LEE HARVEY OSWALD captioned, "JACK L. RUBY, aka; LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka (Deceased) - VICTIM, CIVIL RIGHTS," Dallas file 44-1639, Bufile 44-24016. It is also pointed out that the Dallas Office has a separate case captioned, "ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, 11/22/63, DALLAS, TEXAS, MISCELLANEOUS - INFORMATION CONCERNING," Dallas file 89-43, Buf'le 62-109060.

Communications are still being received under this Assassination caption which, upon review, are found to contain information pertaining to OSWALD or his connection with the assassination and such communications are being filed and reported in instant case captioned, "LEE HARVEY OSWALD, aka." Also, numerous communications are being received carrying the OSWALD caption, which contain no information concerning OSWALD or his connection with the assassination, and such communications are being filed and reported in the case bearing the Assassination caption. For the most part, miscellaneous allegations bearing on the Assassination are being reported in Dallas file 89-43 and all others in the LEE HARVEY OSWALD case. All information pertaining to items of evidence having a direct bearing on the Assassination or concerning LEE HARVEY OSWALD are being reported under the LEE HARVEY OSWALD caption.

By Bureau airtel dated September 30, 1964, to all offices, the Bureau instructed that Dallas should open a new file bearing the caption, "The President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY" to handle inquiries relating to the President's Commission report. Dallas has complied with this instruction and has opened file # 62-3588. It is anticipated, however, that any investigation conducted as a result of inquiries brought about by the publication of the President's Commission report will necessarily have to be handled under the individual captioned case to which they relate, that is, the LEE HARVEY OSWALD captioned case or the Assassination captioned case; therefore, Dallas is considering this newly-opened file as a control file.

The overlap in the period of this report with that of previous reports in this matter was occasioned by the receipt of material from other offices included herein. The results were withheld until such time as the complete resolving of the particular phase could be included in one report.

No local dissemination of this report is being made to either the United States Attorney, the local United States Secret Service, or any other agency. Extra copies have been made by the Dallas Office for use in the event the Bureau directs dissemination.

Title: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Synopsis:

Mrs. CORA D. HAZLEWOOD, Crosbyton, Texas, states she saw on television the rifle being fired from the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) window by man having OSWALD's build and complexion. - Supplemental listing of exhibits by item number and description prepared. Investigation establishes clip found in Mannlicher-Carcano rifle, Serial Number C2766, was empty at time it was found. Lt. JOHN CARL DAY, Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, furnished details concerning his lifting of latent palm print from assassination weapon, which was identified as that of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, but states did not photograph such print because of instructions received from Chief of Police to immediately turn rifle over to FBI. Weights of each of the four cardboard cartons comprising Exhibit C40 determined, as well as fact that no cartons on sixth floor of TSBD on 11/22/63, which could not have been handled by one individual. All identifiable latent fingerprints and palm prints found on four cardboard cartons, Exhibit C40, identified with the exception of one palm print concerning which investigation still being conducted. EUGENE P. ALDREDGE alleges OSWALD had help in the assassination because there was what appeared to be bullet mark on sidewalk on Elm Street about even with west end of TSBD. - Results of FBI Laboratory examinations of additional items of property obtained reflect one bus ticket stub No. 13688, issued by Transportes del Norte (Exhibit D237) was originally connected to the two stubs (Exhibit D202) and that "Lee H. Oswald" signatures appearing on three of the six United States of America Parcel Post Customs Declaration tags (Exhibit D249) were written by LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Results of FBI Laboratory examinations of other items set forth. Translations of additional foreign language material contained on certain described exhibits set forth. Concerning alleged contact by LEE HARVEY OSWALD to purchase automobile at Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, Dallas, Texas, in November, 1963, ALBERT GUY BOGARD states he prepared customer's purchase sheet; but, inasmuch as individual believed to be OSWALD declined to sign a purchase order, he, BOGARD, tore up the purchase sheet and threw it away. States individual did not show him any identification. Additional investigation conducted concerning allegation by CLIFTON M. SHASTEEN that individual believed to be OSWALD was in his barbershop at Irving, Texas, on several occasions prior to assassination. FLOYD GUY DAVIS and Mrs. VIRGINIA FAYE DAVIS, who operate Sports Drome Rifle Range, Dallas, Texas, made available only records reflecting identities of individuals who used such range from 10/26/63 to 11/3/63. Mrs. GARLAND G. (LUCILLE) SLACK states she was at Sports Drome Rifle Range with her husband on 11/17/63 and that she did not see OSWALD or anyone resembling him. She stated she believes her husband is confused as to the date he saw individual he thought was OSWALD. Investigation established that BERNARD WEISSMAN, who was alleged to have been at the Carousel Club, Dallas, Texas, at a two-hour meeting with Dallas Police Officer J. D. TIPPIT and JACK RUBY, was working on night of 11/14/63 as a carpet salesman for Carpet Engineers of Texas, Dallas, Texas. Signed statements obtained from ROY S. TRULY, TSBD, and Patrolman MARRION L. BAKER, Dallas Police Department, who observed OSWALD alone in lunchroom on second floor of TSBD immediately after assassination. Allegation that ERICH LINTROP knew OSWALD, JACK RUBY and the "money man", who were involved in the assassination, not substantiated by investigation. Additional investigation conducted to identify and locate "JERRY TOLLIVER" in connection with allegation by JAMES ALFORD MARKHAM that he (MARKHAM) met OSWALD prior to assassination, with negative results. Extensive investigation conducted concerning allegation by SYLVIA ODIO that she observed OSWALD in company of two Cuban or Mexican men sometime in late September or early October, 1963, including investigation concerning reputation of ODIO for veracity.

FBI Laboratory examination of alleged diary of ERIC RITZEK reflects cryptic entries therein similar to entries observed from other sources, which are frequently derived from demented minds. MARINA OSWALD states she does not know anyone by name LEO SETYAEV and has never met individual who OSWALD said assisted him in broadcast of Radio Moscow. MARINA made available certain additional items which were in her possession 11/22/63 and states she has now made available all such property, exclusive of wearing apparel. MARINA states to her knowledge neither she nor LEE HARVEY OSWALD were ever in Hutch's Super Market, Irving, Texas. MARINA states she has never met or talked with WALTER NEUNSON from whom Mrs. RUTH PAINE received letter dated 11/28/63 offering to have MARINA come live with his family. MARINA accompanied PRISCILLA JOHNSON, with who she is colloborating on book, to Santa Fe, New Mexico, prior to release of President's Commission report in order to avoid being disturbed by newsmen.

By communication dated September 25, 1964, the Philadelphia Office advised that on September 24, 1964, a Mrs. HARRIS, 810 Bristol Pike, Croydon, Pennsylvania, telephonically contacted the Philadelphia Office and advised that recently she had been in Texas and while there visited a Mrs. CORA HAZLEWOOD, Crosbyton, Texas. According to Mrs. HARRIS, Mrs. HAZLEWOOD related the story that she had been watching the parade of President KENNEDY on television when he visited Dallas, Texas. Mrs. HAZLEWOOD, according to Mrs. HARRIS, stated that just before President KENNEDY was shot she saw what appeared to be a broomstick come out of the window of a building. Mrs. HAZLEWOOD reportedly later learned this was the building from which the fatal shots were fired. Mrs. HARRIS stated that according to Mrs. HAZLEWOOD, the broomstick appeared, withdrew, reappeared, and then the shots were fired that killed the President.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date October 2, 1964

CORA D. HAZLEWOOD, 114 South Durham, furnished the following information:

She advised she is 68 years of age and spends a great deal of time viewing television programs due to the fact that she is badly crippled by arthritis.

She stated that at approximately 12:30 p.m. on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, she was watching President KENNEDY's parade through Dallas, Texas, on Channel 13. She advised that as the President's car drew even with the Texas School Book Depository, she heard Mrs. KENNEDY say to the President, "You may think that they do not love you here, but look how they are cheering you." She further advised that the President then turned to Mrs. KENNEDY and with a smile said, "Yes".

She advised that approximately two minutes before this exchange of words between the President and his wife, she had seen a gun barrel protruding from the sixth floor window of the Texas School Book Depository. She stated that she knew this was a rifle barrel because she could see the sights on the rifle. She stated that the rifle followed the President's car until it was about even with the Texas School Book Depository. After hearing the exchange of words between the President and his wife, she glanced up at the window where she had seen the rifle and saw three puffs of smoke. She then looked at the President and saw him slumping down in the seat. She further advised that she then looked at the window from which the rifle was protruding and saw someone drawing the rifle back inside. She stated that then a man looked out the window. She further advised she was unable to say definitely that the man she saw was LEE HARVEY OSWALD but that the man she saw certainly had OSWALD's build and complexion. She further stated that the man in the window had wild-looking eyes and appeared to be frightened.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mrs. CORA HAZLEWOOD further stated that she was certain that JACK RUBY had murdered OSWALD to keep him from talking about their association. She stated that she believes RUBY was behind President KENNEDY's murder; however, she has no proof or evidence to support her belief.

She further stated that although she is badly crippled, she would be willing to travel any distance to aid in the investigation into the assassination of President KENNEDY.

It should be noted that the investigation into the assassination of President KENNEDY revealed that the conversation referred to by Mrs. HAZLEWOOD as being between the President and Mrs. KENNEDY actually was a conversation between Mrs. JOHN CONNALLY and the President and which actual conversation was not recorded on any television program. The reported conversation did receive news dissemination in various news media. There was no information developed that any of the conversation taking place in the Presidential car immediately before or after the shooting was recorded.

It should be further noted that all known available film depicting activities at the Texas School Book Depository immediately before and after the assassination have been thoroughly reviewed during the course of this investigation.

Mr. SEYMOUR WEITZMAN, Deputy Constable, Dallas County Deputy Constable's Office, Dallas, Texas, residence 2802 Oates Drive, Dallas, was interviewed on September 10, 1964.

Mr. WEITZMAN stated that he was on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository immediately after the shots were fired at President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY on November 22, 1963. Mr. WEITZMAN stated that after spotting a rifle on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building, he waited until Captain WILL FRITZ of the Homicide Bureau of the Dallas Police Department and Lieutenant J. CARL DAY of the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department arrived to assume possession of this rifle. He stated that the rifle was carefully picked up by Lieutenant J. CARL DAY, while Captain WILL FRITZ pulled the bolt back, at which time he observed a live round of ammunition that was ejected from the chamber. Mr. WEITZMAN stated that he did not observe this gun close enough to pay any particular attention to the clip of the rifle. He stated that he did not observe the inside of the rifle and did not know whether or not the clip was empty after the live round of ammunition was ejected from the gun by Captain WILL FRITZ. He stated that shortly thereafter, Lieutenant J. CARL DAY removed the rifle to the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas.

Captain WILL FRITZ, Homicide Bureau, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed on September 10, 1964.

Captain FRITZ advised that shortly after the shots were fired at President KENNEDY and Governor CONNALLY, a rifle was pointed out to him on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building, which was believed to have been used in the shooting of President KENNEDY and Governor CONNALLY. Captain FRITZ stated that Lieutenant J. CARL DAY, Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, quickly dusted the rifle for latent fingerprints. According to Captain FRITZ, Lieutenant DAY carefully picked up this gun in order not to disturb any latent fingerprints which might be on the rifle, at which time Captain FRITZ pulled the bolt back ejecting a live round of ammunition from the chamber of this gun. Captain FRITZ stated that after observing the inside of the rifle barrel, as well as the rifle clip, he was satisfied that the chamber of the rifle, as well as the clip, was empty. He stated the clip was not removed from the gun, and that Lieutenant DAY removed this gun intact to the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department. He stated that as far as he knew no one removed the clip from the rifle after it was found and turned over to Lieutenant DAY. Captain FRITZ stated that he assumed Lieutenant DAY probably removed the clip after carrying the gun to the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department for further examination.

Captain FRITZ stated the rifle, as well as the live round of ammunition and the empty cartridge hulls, was recovered and taken into possession of Lieutenant J. CARL DAY of the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department.

Lieutenant J. CARL DAY, Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, was interviewed on September 10, 1964.

Lieutenant DAY related that he arrived at approximately 1:12 p.m., November 22, 1963, on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building. He stated that the rifle believed to have been used in the shooting of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY was found on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building. He stated he immediately dusted this rifle for latent fingerprints and after dusting same, he carefully picked it up in order not to obliterate any fingerprints which might still be on the rifle. He advised that Captain WILL FRITZ of the Homicide Bureau, Dallas Police Department, pulled the bolt back on the gun, ejecting a live round of ammunition from the chamber of this rifle. DAY stated that he observed both the chamber and the clip of the rifle to be empty. DAY stated he removed this rifle to the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department, at which time the clip was removed from the rifle. DAY related that he removed the clip from the rifle at the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department for further examination and for dusting for latent fingerprints. DAY stated that he placed his initials on the clip as well as the rifle. DAY related after he had been told by Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY, of the Dallas Police Department, to release this gun to Special Agent VINCENT E. DRAIN of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, he placed the clip back in the rifle, as the clip appeared when he had first examined the rifle. DAY related that as far as he knew no one, with the exception of himself, removed the clip from the rifle after it was found on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building on November 22, 1963.

C. Circumstances Regarding Lifting Of Latent Palm Print From Assassination Weapon (Mannlicher-Carcano Serial Number C2766) By Lieutenant John Carl Day Of Dallas Police Department Crime Laboratory

RPG/cms/nc

By letter dated September 1, 1964, the President's Commission requested certain investigation into the circumstances under which Lieutenant J. C. DAY of the Dallas Police Department processed the assassination rifle for latent fingerprints and palm prints and specifically, concerning his having lifted a palm print from the assassination rifle which was identified as that of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

By letter dated September 4, 1964, from Federal Bureau of Investigation headquarters, Washington, D.C., the President's Commission was advised that the palm print which Lt. J. C. DAY of the Dallas Police Department testified he lifted from the barrel of the assassination rifle, had been compared with the assassination rifle in the FBI Laboratory. The Laboratory examiners were able to positively identify this lift as having come from the assassination rifle in the area of the wooden foregrip. This conclusion is based on a comparison of irregularities in the surface of the metal of the barrel with the impressions of these irregularities as shown in the lift.

Lieutenant JOHN CARL DAY, Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, stated the records of the Dallas Police Department reflected the following information relative to when he first arrived at the Texas School Book Depository on November 22, 1963, and his actions during that day regarding the processing of various pieces of evidence. Lt. DAY stated he had made a written report on January 8, 1964, to Mr. G. L. LUMPKIN, Deputy of Police, Service Division of the Dallas Police Department. This report is set forth as requested of Lt. DAY, and a copy of such report was furnished by Lt. DAY for transmittal to the President's Commission investigating the assassination of President KENNEDY. Lt. DAY stated he preferred to let the written report speak for itself and would rather elaborate orally on the lifting of the palm print from the underside of the rifle, which palm print was found when he examined the rifle on November 22, 1963, rather than to make a written signed statement.

"January 8, 1964

"Mr. G. L. Lumpkin
"Deputy of Police
"Service Division

"Subject: Crime Scene Search
Investigation of the Shooting of President J. F.
Kennedy on Offense F 86056.

"Sir:

"At 1:12 P.M. on November 22, 1963, Lieutenant J. C. Day 391 and Detective R. L. Studebaker 966 arrived at 411 Elm Street in response to a call from the dispatcher. Detectives J. B. Hicks 441 and H. R. Williams 757 arrived about 3:00 P.M. to assist in the investigation of the shooting of the President J. F. Kennedy on offense F 86056.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

"Lieutenant Day and Detective Studebaker on arrival were directed to the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building. Three spent rifle shells had been found in the southeast corner of the building. These were under the eastern most window on the south side of the building further described as the south window nearest Houston Street.

"Photographs were taken of the three hulls as found. They were checked for prints, marked for identification and released to Detective R. M. Sims 629 of the Homicide Bureau. The hulls were 6.5 caliber and no legible prints were found.

"About 1:25 P.M. Captain J. W. Fritz 9 directed Lieutenant Day to the northwest portion of the sixth floor where a rifle had been found between some cartons near the stairs. Photographs were taken of the rifle as found, then it was picked up by Lieutenant Day in such a way as to destroy no fingerprints that might be present. With Lieutenant Day holding the gun, Captain Fritz opened the bolt and a live shell fell from the barrel. This shell was in position to fire should the trigger be pulled. The live shell was checked for prints, marked for identification and released to Captain Fritz. No fingerprints were found.

"The rifle, a 6.5 caliber, made in Italy in 1940, Serial C 2766, was taken by Lieutenant Day to the Identification Bureau about 2:00 P.M. and locked in an evidence box until further checking

"could be done. Agent Odum, Dallas office of the F.B.I. drove Lieutenant Day to the City Hall. The rifle had no manufacturer's name and had a telescope sight mounted on it which was marked as follows:

4 x 18 coated Ordinance Optics Inc., Hollywood, California. There was a small cloverleaf design with 'OSC' stamped inside the cloverleaf.

"Lieutanant Day returned to 411 Elm Street about 2:45 P.M. and continued the investigation with other Crime Scene Search officers.

"About fifty photographs were made of the area involved in the shooting and a scale drawing was made of the sixth floor by Detectives J. B. Hicks and R. L. Studebaker.

"The cartons in the area where the rifle was found, and also the cartons near the window where the spent hulls were found were dusted for prints. A palm print was found on the top northwest corner of a carton that appeared to have been used by the assassin to sit on while aiming the rifle. This palm print was collected and preserved, along with the carton it came off of, and three cartons stacked by the window apparently to rest the rifle on.

"Lieutenant Day returned to the Identification Bureau about 7:00 P.M. and started checking the rifle for prints. Two fingerprints were found on the side "of the rifle near the trigger and magazine housing and a palm print was found on the underside of the gun barrel near the end of the stock. It appeared probable these prints were from the right palm and fingers of Lee Harvey Oswald, but the rifle was released to the F.B.I. to be sent to Washington, D.C. before the examination was completed and positive identification of the prints could be made. The prints were not very good for comparison purposes.

"Paraffin casts were made of Oswald's hands and the right side of his face about 9:00 P.M. November 22, 1963, in the Homicide Bureau office by Sergeant W. E. Barnes 598 and Detective J. B. Hicks. These casts were sent to DCCCIL November 23, 1963 for nitrate tests.

"All other evidence collected by the Crime Scene Search was released at 11:45 P.M. November 22, 1963 to Agent Vince Drain to be delivered to the F.B.I. headquarters at Washington, D.C.

"Respectfully submitted,

"/s/ J C Day
"J. C. Day 391
"Lieutenant of Police
"Identification Bureau"

Lt. DAY further related that when he carried the rifle from the Texas School Book Depository to the Dallas Police Department, it was locked up in the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory. Lt. DAY related that at the time this rifle was found on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository, he held the rifle up being careful not to obliterate the fingerprints, and Captain WILL FRITZ, Homicide Division of the Dallas Police Department, racked the bolt back ejecting a live round of ammunition, at which time he identified the live round of ammunition.

Lt. DAY stated he dusted the left side of the rifle at about where the clip housing is located and in front of the trigger housing and observed three impressions, two of which indicated ridge patterns. Lt. DAY stated he told Captain FRITZ he wanted to remove the gun to the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory where more suitable conditions were present in which to further examine this gun.

The rifle was taken to the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department where on the evening of November 22, 1963, Lt. DAY stated he made three photographs of the impressions of the fingerprints which had been raised near the clip housing and in front of the trigger housing. Lt. DAY advised he took the wooden part of the rifle off by loosening three or four screws and uncovered what he considered to be an old dry print with a loop formation underneath the barrel. He stated this appeared to him to be the right palm print of some individual. This print was found on the underside of the barrel which was completely covered by the wooden stock of the gun and not visible until he had removed the wooden portion of the gun. Lt. DAY estimated this print was within three inches of the front end of the wooden stock. Lt. DAY advised he dusted this print with black powder and made one lift.

Lt. DAY stated at this point he received instructions from Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY not to do anything else concerning the examination of evidence as it was to be immediately turned over to SA VINCENT E. DRAIN of the Federal Bureau of Investigation for transmittal to the FBI Laboratory. Lt. DAY stated he normally would have photographed this print, but since his instructions from the Chief of Police were not to do anything further, he literally took him at his word. Lt. DAY stated the reason he had preserved the other prints found on the gun by photography was the fact he had already photographed these prints prior to getting the instructions from the Chief of Police to cease further examination of the evidence.

Lt. DAY stated he had no assistance when working with the prints on the rifle, and he and he alone did the examination and the lifting of the palm print from the underside of the barrel of the rifle which had been found on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository on November 22, 1963.

Lt. DAY related that after he made the lift of the palm print on the underside of the barrel, he could still see this palm print on the underside of the barrel of the gun and would have photographed same had he not been ordered to cease his examination. Lt. DAY stated he had no reason for not photographing this palm print first before attempting to lift it other than in the interest of time.

Lt. DAY stated he did not take any photographs of the palm print which he lifted on the underside of the rifle barrel after the lift was made, and that the prints of the less valuable ones he had found near the trigger housing and clip housing were photographed prior to the time he received instructions to conduct no further examination of this evidence.

Lt. DAY advised it was his customary practice to photograph fingerprints in most instances prior to lifting them, but in some cases where it was felt by him that he could make a lift, he would go ahead and make the lift and then photograph the print in question.

Lt. DAY stated he saw no reason for wrapping the palm print on the underside of the barrel with any protective covering since it was protected by the wood stock when fully assembled and that it was not necessary to use cellophane or other protective coating as it would have been on the exposed prints.

Lt. DAY stated he tentatively identified the palm print that was lifted off the underside of the rifle, which was believed to have been used in the assassination of President KENNEDY, as matching that of the known palm print of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He stated this was done on the night of November 22, 1963, in the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas. Lt. DAY related on that night he told only two people that he had made the tentative identification of the palm print obtained off the underside of the rifle barrel with that of the known palm print of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Lt. DAY stated these two individuals were Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY of the Dallas Police Department and Homicide Captain WILL FRITZ of the Dallas Police Department. Lt. DAY advised he could not remember the exact time he made the identification nor the exact time he advised Chief of Police CURRY and Captain WILL FRITZ of the tentative identification, but he did know it was on the night of November 22, 1963, prior to the time he released the rifle to SA VINCENT E. DRAIN of the Federal Bureau of Investigation for transmittal to the FBI Laboratory, Washington, D.C.

Lt. DAY stated he received instructions from Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, to turn over all of the evidence collected that he was examining, which related to LEE HARVEY OSWALD, to the FBI shortly before midnight on November 22, 1963. The exact time he received these instructions he cannot recall, but the evidence which included the rifle believed to have been used by OSWALD was turned over to SA VINCENT E. DRAIN, Federal Bureau of Investigation, at 11:45 p.m., November 22, 1963, for transmittal to the FBI Laboratory. Lt. DAY stated that he could positively state that the palm print, which was lifted by him from the rifle, came from the underside of the barrel which, when the gun is fully assembled, is covered by the wooden stock. This palm print, which was lifted by him from this location, was not turned over to SA VINCENT E. DRAIN for examination by the FBI Laboratory until November 26, 1963, inasmuch as he wanted to make further comparisons of this palm print with the known palm print of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Lt. DAY stated the gun was carefully reassembled, and when the wooden stock was reassembled to the barrel of the gun, this afforded the print that was still visible on the underside of the barrel sufficient protection that it would not be disturbed in his estimation. Lt. DAY related he would have offered this print the same protection by photographing it as he had other less identifiable prints found on the gun near the trigger housing and clip housing had he had enough time prior to receiving instructions to cease examination and turn the rifle over to the FBI. Lt. DAY stated he had no other reason for not affording all of the prints found the same protection.

Lt. DAY related that when the rifle was turned over to SA VINCENT E. DRAIN of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, it was fully assembled and in the same condition as when he had found it on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository on November 22, 1963.

D. Investigation Concerning Weights Of Four Cardboard Cartons (Exhibit C-40) Located Near Window On Sixth Floor Of Texas School Book Depository On November 22, 1963

RPG/cms

On September 11, 1964, the President's Commission verbally requested a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation headquarters, Washington, D. C., to have Mr. Roy S. Truly, Warehouse Superintendent, Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, Texas, interviewed to determine the following:

(1) Weight of each of the "Second Rolling Reader" cartons when they are loaded with the "Second Rolling Reader" books.

(2) The approximate weights of the other two cartons with their contents, that were located at the 6th floor window and which were among the four cartons described as Exhibit C-40.

(3) If there were any cartons on the 6th floor which could not be handled by one male individual.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 9/11/64

Mr. ROY S. TRULY, Warehouse Superintendent, Texas School Book Depository, advised that the approximate weight of each of the "Second Rolling Reader" cartons when they are loaded with "Second Rolling Reader" books is eight pounds.

He advised that the approximate weights of the two cartons with their contents that were located at the sixth floor window of the Texas School Book Depository and which were among the four cartons previously identified as Exhibit C-40, would be 55 pounds each.

Mr. TRULY advised that there were no cartons on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository on November 22, 1963, which could not have been handled by one male individual.

E. Investigation To Identify Unidentified Latent Fingerprints And Palm Prints On Four Cardboard Cartons (Exhibit C-40) Found Near Sixth Floor Window Of Texas School Book Depository And On Which The Fingerprint And Palm Prints Of Lee Harvey Oswald Were Located

RPG:pm

The following is a summary of investigation conducted in an effort to identify all the identifiable latent fingerprints and palm prints found on the four cartons, which have been identified as Exhibit C40, recovered from near the sixth floor window of the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD), 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, following the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY on November 22, 1963:

By letter dated March 30, 1964, to the President's Commission from Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Headquarters, Washington, D. C., it was pointed out that employees of the TSBD had not been fingerprinted or palm printed by the FBI, U. S. Secret Service, or the Dallas Police Department. This letter related to 19 identifiable latent fingerprints and six identifiable latent palm prints, which figures do not include the one fingerprint and the one palm print on the four cardboard cartons which have been identified as those of LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

As reflected on page 363 of the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated December 10, 1963, at Dallas, Texas, the Latent Fingerprint Section of the Identification Division of the FBI under date of November 29, 1963, advised that an examination of one piece of cardboard bearing a latent palm print and the four cardboard boxes, which have since been identified as Exhibit C40, revealed that the one latent palm print on the piece of cardboard carton taken from one of the cartons was identified as the right palm print of OSWALD. This examination further revealed one latent fingerprint and one latent palm print developed on the cardboard box marked "A" as the fingerprint and palm print of OSWALD.

On August 31, 1964, fingerprints and palm prints of the following employees of the Dallas Office of the FBI were submitted to the Latent Fingerprint Section of the Identification Division of the FBI for comparison with the identifiable latent fingerprints and palm prints on the four cardboard cartons:

Special Agent VINCENT E. DRAIN, who obtained the cartons from the Dallas Police Department on November 26, 1963;
Special Agent NAT A. PINKSTON, who was on the sixth floor of the TSBD immediately after the assassination;

Clerk L. JOSEPH HERSLEY;
Clerk CARL E. WALTERS;
Clerk FOREST L. LUCY.

The three above named clerks of the FBI have occasion to handle mail and assist in the wrapping of packages in the Dallas Office of the FBI.

Mr. ROY S. TRULY, Warehouse Superintendent, Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, Texas, (TSBD), advised that it is his recollection that the three cartons of books stacked up on the sixth floor, which were apparently used as a support for the rifle, and the one carton, apparently used as a seat, contained the "Think and Do" books, "People and Progress", and the "Second Rolling Reader" books. His records indicate that George Banta Company, Incorporated, Menasha, Wisconsin, on September 26, 1963, shipped Texas School Book Depository Order Number 1327, containing the "Think and Do" books, "People and Progress", via freight, and they were in railroad car # 30465 Milwaukee. The boxcar was switched to the siding in Dallas, Texas, by the Texas and Pacific Railroad, and unloaded by employees of the TSBD on October 2, 1963. Scott, Foresman and Company, Pinola, Illinois, shipped TSBD Order Number 2377-2380, containing the "Second Rolling Reader" books, on October 9, 1963, via La Porte Transit Company, Incorporated, their Freight Bill Number H34680, from Pinola, Illinois, to Chicago, Illinois. From Chicago, Illinois, to Dallas, Texas, this shipment was handled by East Texas Motor Freight, their Freight Bill Number 61-045001, and was delivered by that company in Dallas, Texas, on October 14, 1963.

Mr. TRULY stated that from the time these cartons of books were received at TSBD until the four cartons were picked up by the Dallas Police Department as evidence in the assassination of President KENNEDY, the only employees, who could possibly have handled the cartons, were HAROLD DEAN NORMAN, CARL EDWARD JONES, former employees, and present employees EDWARD SHIELDS, DANIEL GARCIA ARCE, JACK EDWIN DOUGHERTY, BUELL WESLEY FRAZIER, CHARLES DOUGLAS GIVENS, JAMES EARL JARMAN, JR., FRANKIE KAISER, ROY EDWARD LEWIS, BILLY NOLAN LOVELADY, EDDIE PIPER, WILLIAM HOYT SHELLEY, TROY EUGENE WEST, and BONNIE RAY WILLIAMS.

Mr. TRULY stated that when the floor paneling was done at the TSBD building, any movement of the cartons of books was handled by these employees listed above. None of the employees handling these cartons ever wear gloves.

Mr. TRULY related that within fifteen minutes after the shots were fired at President KENNEDY, there were numerous people all over the TSBD building, and he did not know any of them. He assumed that many of them were law enforcement officers, although they were not in uniform. A number of uniformed officers of the Dallas Police Department were making a systematic search of the building and were guarding the doors to the building. About thirty minutes after the shots were fired, Mr. TRULY was on the sixth floor of this building, and a number of newspaper, radio and television reporters and photographers were on that floor, as well as Captain WILL FRITZ of the Dallas Police Department. Mr. TRULY said he had no idea who these news media people were, but knew that they did represent the news media, because a number of them were trying to interview him. He does not know who may have handled any cartons on the sixth floor of the TSBD building, from the time the shots were fired until they were removed by the Dallas Police Department, except he is positive that none of the TSBD employees touched the boxes except those listed above, who may have handled them prior to the assassination. Mr. TRULY stated he believes it is very possible that spectators and others, who are not connected with any law enforcement agency or news media, were wandering around the TSBD building the afternoon following the assassination. He is positive as to which of the TSBD employees could have touched these cartons of books, but he has no idea who else may have handled the cartons following the assassination.

Captain GEORGE M. DOUGHTY, Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, advised on August 31, 1964, that the four cardboard boxes, which were recovered from the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository by Lieutenant J. CARL DAY and Detective R. L. STUDEBAKER, were brought to the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory on the morning of November 25, 1963, by DAY and STUDEBAKER. According to DOUGHTY, these boxes had been previously dusted for fingerprints on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, by DAY and STUDEBAKER. These boxes were believed by Lieutenant DAY and Detective STUDEBAKER to have been used as a shield and a rest by LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the time he fired the shots on November 22, 1963, at President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY.

Captain DOUGHTY stated that these boxes were not brought to the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, since they had been dusted for fingerprints, and only one palm print was found on one of these boxes, which in his opinion had been used as a seat by OSWALD prior to the time he fired at the President and Governor CONNALLY. The portion of the palm print, that was raised by the use of fingerprint powder, was cut out of the box on Friday afternoon, November 22, 1963, and brought to the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory by Lieutenant DAY. It was not decided that these boxes should be brought to the Crime Laboratory until November 25, 1963, at which time Lieutenant DAY and Detective STUDEBAKER went to the Texas School Book Depository and brought these boxes to the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory.

Captain DOUGHTY stated he had made a survey of his department, and the following individuals had handled these boxes:

Lieutenant J. CARL DAY, Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed on August 31, 1964.

Lieutenant DAY stated he was accompanied to the Texas School Book Depository by Detective R. L. STUDEBAKER, Dallas Police Crime Laboratory, for examination of evidence after shots had been fired at President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY. He stated, to the best of his recollection, this was about 1:12 p.m., November 22, 1963. He stated that four cardboard boxes were stacked against the sixth floor window overlooking the street. These boxes were dusted for fingerprints, since it was their opinion that the boxes possibly had been used as a shield and a rest for the person who fired the rifle at President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY and Governor JOHN B. CONNALLY. He stated after dusting these boxes, a palm print was raised on the box, which was believed to have been the box that the person firing the rifle had been sitting on. This part of the box, which contained the palm print, was cut out and brought to the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory. The boxes were then left on the sixth floor and not taken to the Dallas Police Crime Laboratory until the morning of November 25, 1963. Lieutenant DAY stated that it did not seem pertinent to him at the time, since there were no other prints on these boxes that he observed.

Lieutenant DAY stated that on Saturday, November 23, 1963, many persons unknown to him had apparently been on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building and had taken a lot of photographs, in view of the fact that he noticed many empty film pack cartons near where the boxes were located, and the boxes had been re-arranged, apparently for the purpose of taking photographs.

ROBERT D. STUDEBAKER, Detective, Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, was interviewed on September 3, 1964.

Detective STUDEBAKER stated that he arrived very shortly before 2:00 p.m. at the Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963. Detective STUDEBAKER stated he accompanied Lieutenant J. CARL DAY, Dallas Crime Laboratory, to the sixth floor of this building. Detective STUDEBAKER related that their mission was to do a crime scene search of the area in which it was believed that the shots came from that were fired at President KENNEDY and Governor CONNALLY. According to Detective STUDEBAKER, while Lieutenant DAY was dusting for fingerprints from boxes which were stacked near the window, STUDEBAKER was photographing the area on the sixth floor near the window from which the shots were believed to have been fired.

Detective STUDEBAKER advised that he handled the four cardboard boxes that where sent to the FBI Laboratory for examination purposes. Detective STUDEBAKER stated he was so concerned with his own duties on the sixth floor during the period shortly before 2:00 p.m. on November 22, 1963, and for a period of approximately two hours thereafter that he paid very little attention to other people who were on the sixth floor. Detective STUDEBAKER stated, however, that he did notice that there were numerous uniformed police officers on the sixth floor during the period he was there. He advised there were literally dozens of news media representatives from radio and television stations, newspapers and magazines. STUDEBAKER related that he did not pay enough attention to any of these individuals to recognize them, and, as far as he knew, there were no restrictions on newsmen and law enforcement officers from moving freely about the sixth floor. He stated that any one of these individuals may have possibly handled the four cardboard boxes that were sent to the FBI Laboratory for examination.

STUDEBAKER stated that on Saturday, November 23, 1963, newsmen were all over the building and particularly on the sixth floor photographing and generally looking for and examining anything that might have been related to the shooting of President KENNEDY and Governor CONNALLY.

STUDEBAKER stated that on November 24, 1963, he was again at the Texas School Book Depository and observed dozens of newsmen in the Texas School Book Depository building. He stated some of these individuals were believed by him to be newspaper correspondents and television people from England, France, Spain and Germany. He stated he was conscious there were many members of the foreign press taking pictures. Detective STUDEBAKER stated that although there were many uniformed officers there during the periods he was there on November 22, 23 and 24, 1963, he actually paid no attention to the identities of these individuals and did not recall any specific names. STUDEBAKER stated he saw what he believed were Deputy Sheriffs on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building on November 22, 1963, but does not know their identities. STUDEBAKER stated it was his personal opinion that there was very little restriction, if any, on people moving freely in and out of the Texas School Book Depository on November 22, 23, and 24, 1963.

On September 4, 1964, the fingerprints and palm prints of the following named Dallas Police Officers connected with the Crime Laboratory of the Dallas Police Department were submitted to the Latent Fingerprint Section of the Identification Division of the FBI for comparison with the identifiable latent fingerprints and palm prints on the four cardboard cartons:

Captain GEORGE M. DOUGHTY
Lieutenant J. CARL DAY
Detective RICHARD W. LIVINGSTON
Detective ROBERT LEE STUDEBAKER

On September 8, 1964, the fingerprints and palm prints of Detective BOBBY GENE BROWN of the Crime Laboratory, Dallas Police Department, were submitted to the Latent Fingerprint Section of the Identification Division of the FBI for comparison with the identifiable latent fingerprints and palm prints on the four cardboard cartons.

The 19 identifiable latent fingerprints and six identifiable latent palm prints on the four cardboard cartons, which are exclusive of the one palm print of LEE HARVEY OSWALD found on Box "A", were identified as follows:

19 Latent Fingerprints

8	latent fingerprints of Detective ROBERT LEE STUDEBAKER, Dallas Police Department, on Box "A".
5	latent fingerprints of Detective ROBERT LEE STUDEBAKER, Dallas Police Department, on Box "B".
1	latent fingerprint of Detective STUDEBAKER on Box "C".
2	latent fingerprints of FBI Clerk FOREST L. LUCY on Box "B".
1	latent fingerprint of FBI Clerk FOREST L. LUCY on Box "C".
2	latent fingerprints of FBI Clerk FOREST L. LUCY on Box "D".
19	Total

6 Latent Palm Prints

2	latent palm prints of Detective ROBERT LEE STUDEBAKER, Dallas Police Department, on Box "A".
1	latent palm print of Detective STUDEBAKER on Box "B".
1	latent palm print of Detective STUDEBAKER on Box "C".
1	latent palm print of FBI Clerk FOREST L. LUCY on Box "A".
5	Total

From the above tabulation, it should be noted that there is one latent palm print remaining unidentified, and investigation is continuing in an effort to identify same.

F. Allegation By Eugene P. Aldredge That Location Of Mark On Sidewalk On Elm Street About Even With West End Of Texas School Book Depository Convinced Him Lee Harvey Oswald Had Help In The Assassination

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date September 29, 1964

On September 29, 1964, EUGENE P. ALDREDGE, 9304 Lenel, Dallas, Texas, telephonically advised that he disagreed with the President's Commission report that OSWALD did not have help in the assassination.

ALDREDGE stated he saw a television program shortly after the assassination, believed to be on Channel Four, in which a mark on the sidewalk was pointed out.

Approximately three months ago, he stated he viewed such mark, which he is sure was caused by a bullet, and that this mark is approximately six inches long. He described the location of this mark as being in the middle of the sidewalk on the north side of Elm Street, which side is nearest the Texas School Book Depository Building. He stated there is a lamp post near the sidewalk, which is about even with the west end of the Texas School Book Depository Building and that the above-described mark is approximately eight feet east of the lamp post on the sidewalk. He stated that a reporter for "The Dallas Morning News", CARL FREUND, has also stated this is a bullet mark.

When asked as to why he had waited until this time to furnish the foregoing information, he stated he felt that such an important point would be covered in the President's Commission report and did not want to become involved by furnishing the information at this time, but felt that such information, if overlooked, should be made available.

FD-302 (Rev. 3-3-59)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date September 30, 1964

The sidewalk on the east side of Elm Street between the triple underpass and Houston Street was visually checked for any scars which might appear to have been made by a bullet.

The area covered in this inspection was in the general sidewalk area from the first to the second lamppost on the east side of Elm Street and just west of the intersection of Elm and Houston Streets. It is noted that the first lamppost is almost directly in line with the west end of the main multistoried building of the Texas School Book Depository building, while the second lamppost is almost directly in line with the western end of the one story building which is connected to the main Texas School Book Depository building.

It was noted that the sidewalk is made of concrete and the general texture of the sidewalk is rough.

No mark was located on the sidewalk in the general area of the first lamppost which would appear to have been made by a projectile.

In the area of the second lamppost, approximately thirty-three feet east of the post, in the sixth large cement square, four feet from the street curb and six feet from the parkside curbing, is an approximately four inches long by one-half inch wide dug-out scar, which could possibly have been made by some blunt-end type instrument or projectile. It is noted that this scar lies in such a direction that if it had been made by a bullet, it could not have come from the direction of the window the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY has publicly stated was used by LEE HARVEY OSWALD when firing his assassination bullets at the late President.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

This particular scar is in line with the western end of the multifloor section of the Texas School Book Depository building, that is, the opposite end of the building from where OSWALD was shooting at the President.

No other mark was found in the area of the second lamppost which might appear to have been made by a bullet.

Under date of September 2, 1964, the FBI Laboratory furnished the following information concerning an examination requested by the Dallas Office on August 28, 1964:

Specimens received August 31, 1964

D-237 One bus ticket stub issued by Transportes del Norte, #13688 -

D-238 One pamphlet entitled "This Week - Esta Semana" for the period September 28 to October 4, 1963

D-239 One book with cover torn off entitled "Learning Russian" by NINA POTAPOVA

D-240 One guide map of Mexico City, folded, published by Editorial Flecha, Mexico, D. F.

D-241 One pamphlet in English entitled "Fiesta Brava" published by Pemex Travel Club, Mexico, D. F.

D-242 One library pass in the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, dated April, 1962, written in the Russian language

Result of examination:

The writings on page 38 of D-238 are too limited for an adequate comparison with the known writings of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, K4, K5, etc.

It was concluded that the two ticket stubs previously submitted and contained in D-202 were originally connected. The stub in D-237 was originally connected to the two stubs in D-202.

D-241 One pamphlet in English entitled "Fiesta Brava" published by Pemex Travel Club, Mexico, D. F.

D-242 One library pass in the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, dated April, 1962, written in the Russian language

Result of examination:

Specimens D-237 through D-242 were examined cryptanalytically. While submitted specimens or any similar material could conceivably involve code or cipher, on the basis of material and information available for analysis, no valid coded message can be established as being present nor was there any indication that the Russian grammar book containing the alphabetical vocabulary was being used for coding purposes.

Under date of August 31, 1964, the Latent Fingerprint Section of the Identification Division of the FBI advised that Exhibit D-237 and Exhibit D-242 had been examined for latent prints but none were developed.

Hello, dear MARINOCHKA,

I thought a long time about your last letters. There is much in them which I do not understand. Of course, I did not expect that you would keep on shedding floods of tears for a whole year or two. But, on the other hand, you are so preoccupied right now with those dollars and furniture. Generally, I have nothing against furniture, especially if it is good. But it seemed to me somehow that you would keep on being yourself, first of all, and furniture and all other things would come after.

Of course, it is difficult and simply impossible for me to form a conception of all about which you write. From my point of view, the only consolation for you is your girls. Here everything is clear and simple. You are their mother and it is your duty to raise them and bring them up properly.

It seems to me all the time, that I am not writing what I should. But I, myself, do not know what I can write to you. It is very sad to realize that I absolutely cannot help you in any way, and I feel even in those few letters of yours that you went far away from me, and not only in actual distance.

What can I write to you? And what for? Of course, all this is sad, but I cannot express it any better.

Good bye

I warmly kiss you,

/s/ Your Galka.

Hello LEE, MARINA and JUNE,

I passed my examinations for the spring term, but not completely - a few arrears remain, which I shall liquidate in the near future. So, I am practically a third-year student. My last exam was on July 3, and on July 4, I got a job for summer vacation. There is nothing generally more interesting for me than my specialty and this job is better than any I ever had. I had to go on field trips. I am on a field trip right now. But this is the last one - my school will start on October 1. Generally speaking, I developed a taste for field trips - one travels, in a manner of speaking. It is too bad that our organization does not send people to Rio de Janeiro or Kilimanjaro.

LEE, I think that you will like the reproduction of KRAMSKOY's painting "An Unknown." KRAMSKOY saw her only once, but she produced such an impression upon him that on returning home he started to work on this picture.

In addition to a post card series "Vicinity of Moscow," I am sending one of your snapshots and a post card with our first cosmonauts.

As soon as I return to Minsk, I will send you several views of Minsk which I took in summer.

Write how you are getting along, how JUNE is growing; does she speak Russian well?

Good bye

/s/ Pavel

P.S. Excuse me for making you wait.

Dear MARINOCHKA!

There are no letters from you for so long! I, myself, wanted to write you but did not know where. Certainly, I was worried about you and your little ones. Your letter has somewhat dispersed this worry, but at the same time confused me. We have read here about President KENNEDY before, but after his tragic death we learned more about him. The news about his death startled many and aroused surprise and doubt. How come, MARINOCHKA, in America, in this interesting country, and suddenly a murder of the President on the street? I was astonished when I read in the newspaper and heard on the radio the name of ALIK. Although he is not alive, how can you doubt his character for a minute? Well, I remember how you talked about him. Even you, yourself, are asking now how can one understand what he has done? If I were in your place and loved my husband the same way, I, too, would defend my husband and father of my children. You, yourself, in my opinion, seriously doubt that he is guilty. I, for example, cannot believe that he has done it. It simply can't be! He was not the kind of man, it seems, to me, to leave you alone with the children without means in a strange country without hope of returning. He could not forsee, that you would get those thousands of dollars about which you are writing. In general, all of this is an absurdity of some kind. I am confused in guessing.

He knew that you had nobody to depend on in his America except him alone. Do you know, in my opinion, it is important for you to look into the matters regarding ALIK and other questions? It will be very difficult for you to live this way. All of this is incomprehensible to me. It surprised me greatly that so many Americans sent you money. Well, this is only because they, too, do not believe that he killed the President. It is not for the murder that they are paying you money. Here we read many various articles from America and other countries. They even now broadcast over the Voice of America and sometimes over BBC. Everybody everywhere says that it was not OSWALD who did it. It is probably difficult for you to read there especially with small children. I cannot imagine, my dear, how I can help you. If this letter reaches you, be sure and write me. I am waiting. The newspapers here say that you were taken away somewhere and nobody is allowed to see you. I do not have much credence in this. Pour out your soul to me and you will feel better. Kissing you,

Hello, dear friends, MARINA, ALIK, little JUNE and the littlest member of your family, still unknown to us:

First of all, accept our very belated but warmest and sincere congratulations on the birth of your second big bundle of joy. It does not matter, whether it is a girl or a boy; the birth of a new human being is still a wonderful thing. Let him grow beautiful, happy, and healthy for your joy. Personally to MARINOCHKA we wish health, energy, an earliest recovery and as many quiet nights as possible.

Now, I wish to ask your pardon for such a long and inexcusable silence; to blame for this is simply my unusually stubborn habit - to postpone for tomorrow anything which is not too urgent. That is why I often turn out to be such a little pig.

MARINCHIK, do not be angry with me. KOLKA (NIKOLAY)* and I often remember you; your last letter made us very happy and, in general, any news from you is precious to us.

We are still living in Uruche, but will soon move to town; they gave us a room in the vicinity of the Academy. I broke with INNA for a very simple reason: I got tired of her playing at idleness, and, moreover, our interests now are different. Somehow, our friendship ended on a sour note, although outwardly it does not seem that anything happened.

* Translator's Note.

Now, I will complain about my YULKA, because she eats so poorly; she would not eat any thick or coarser food and lives exclusively on milk and kefir (); therefore, she lags behind in weight and is very small in size. However, I have to note that she is as quick and lively as a lizard; she crawls fast, moves a lot; I do not know where her energy comes from.

MARINA, write about your children. It is very interesting to know more about them. Write about yourselves.

In my first letter I forgot to ask you, MARINA, whether LYALYA writes to you. We met her at VALERIK (VALERIAN)* VINOKUROV's last New Year's party; she said that she wanted to have your address and to write to you. I have not seen her since then.

Well, that is all for the time being.

Ask what interests you about us.

We are impatiently waiting for at least a couple of lines in answer to this letter. Good bye,

We embrace you warmly,

/s/ Olya (Olga)* and Kolya (Nikolay)*

Dear MARINA,

My mother has written me, that you may live in her house. This house is vacant now while she is in school. (Until February.

My brother called me on Tuesday to say, that you may live in Yellow Springs, Ohio, where he is. People are good there. He said that someone there speaks Russian. They teach Russian language in Antioch College. I was in school in Antioch (Antiok). I want to go to Philadelphia to see what kind of work and if an apartment is possible to find there. It is true, I am contemplating moving there in the summer, but not now, but it would be useful now to find a position as a teacher for the school-year of 1964-5.

If you want to fly East, I can go with you, in order to help you with the language. For example, if you want to live for the time being with Mr. NUNSON in Camden, New Jersey.

This paper is an invitation for you from "Stern" magazine in Germany (not standard as I thought at first) to speak with him about your life and memoirs of LEE. It would be difficult for you to talk about it. But $10,000 would help. This is completely your business. If you want to sign this paper, I advise you to have an attorney who would watch over it. If you want to sign it, Stern magazine will send two men from Germany. It is necessary to sign two copies of the paper, and have another signature by an officer of the Irving Police, your attorney, or somebody else.

"Standard" from Germany wants (Skala?) to pay you $10,000 for the history of you and LEE. "Life," too, wishes to buy something and also the "Daily Express," London. I do not even want to write you about this but ... I do not know. Mr. NEUNSON said, that he would pay bus fare for you and the children. I will tell you that flying is better. It is not convenient to travel by bus with children. I can buy you a plane ticket. I am afraid that you never want to see me again. It is true, we have horrible memories. It is probably better that we do not live together again. But we are sisters, whether we want to be or not. Sisters in misfortune. I want to see you sometime. For now, it is probably better that I do not know where you are. I would like to know though whether you are with Mother OSWALD or not. In my opinion, it would be difficult to live with her.

By letter dated September 1, 1964, the President's Commission requested additional investigation into the allegation by ALBERT GUY BOGARD, a former salesman for Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, Dallas, Texas, to the effect that he was contacted by an individual giving his name as LEE OSWALD on November 9, 1963, concerning the purchase of an automobile and that he gave this individual a demonstration ride. The President's Commission specifically requested that in connection with the polygraph examination of BOGARD on February 24, 1964, that the details concerning the precise questions asked and the answers received be furnished.

On February 24, 1964, ALBERT GUY BOGARD was interviewed with the use of the polygraph by Special Agent C. RAY HALL at the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. In connection with this interview, the following relevant questions were asked:

FIRST SERIES OF QUESTIONS

Q. "Have you ever talked with LEE HARVEY OSWALD?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did you ever permit LEE HARVEY OSWALD to drive an automobile?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did you try to sell LEE HARVEY OSWALD an automobile?"

A. "Yes."

SECOND SERIES OF QUESTIONS

Prior to the questions being asked, BOGARD was shown a photograph of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, which photograph was taken by the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, on November 23, 1963, No. 54018. The following questions were then asked:

Q. "Have you ever talked with LEE HARVEY OSWALD, whose photograph I have shown you?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did you ever permit LEE HARVEY OSWALD, whose photograph I have shown you, to drive an automobile?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did you try to sell LEE HARVEY OSWALD, whose photograph I have shown you, an automobile?"

A. "Yes."

THIRD SERIES OF QUESTIONS

Q. "Has anyone ever told you his name was LEE OSWALD?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did you try to sell a car to a man giving his name as LEE OSWALD?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did LEE HARVEY OSWALD tell you he had some money coming in, in two or three weeks?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Have you ever ridden in a car driven by LEE HARVEY OSWALD?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did you see LEE OSWALD drive a car at speeds over sixty miles per hour?"

A. "Yes."

FOURTH SERIES OF QUESTIONS

Q. "Did you give the name of OSWALD, as a prospect, to another salesman?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Was this salesman ORAN PAUL BROWN?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Are you positive you have ridden in a car driven by LEE HARVEY OSWALD?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did you see LEE HARVEY OSWALD drive a car at speeds over sixty miles per hour?"

A. "Yes."

FIFTH SERIES OF QUESTIONS

Q. "Have you ever talked with a man who told you his name was LEE OSWALD?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Was this the same person as the one whose photograph I have shown you?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did you let this man drive a car?"

A. "Yes."

Q. "Did you let LEE OSWALD drive a car on the expressway in Dallas?"

A. "Yes."

The above series of questions do not include irrelevant or control-type questions, which are used during the polygraph technique. For the most part, these are questions of identity and do not relate to the substantive investigation.

Bogard is reportedly no longer in Dallas, Texas, and efforts are continuing to locate him for interview.

CRH:cms/pm

Mr. ORAN PAUL BROWN, 101 Savannah, Waxahachie, Texas, furnished information on December 10, 1963, that one to two weeks before the assassination, ALBERT GUY BOGARD asked BROWN to take care of a prospect by the name of LEE OSWALD, who was interested in buying a car, if OSWALD should come in. BROWN then wrote the name "LEE OSWALD" down on something, and thought he wrote the name down on the back of one of BROWN's cards. When BROWN got home on the evening of November 22, 1963, his wife asked him what he knew about OSWALD, telling him she had seen the name OSWALD on a piece of paper among his effects. He told her that this was a prospective customer, but he thought he had written the name on one of his cards. They both looked around the house but could not find the card or a piece of paper with the name of OSWALD on it.

The report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated December 23, 1963, at Dallas, pages 218 and 219, sets forth this interview.

By letter dated September 1, 1964, the President's Commission requested that Mrs. ORAN PAUL BROWN be interviewed to determine whether or not she ever observed the name "LEE OSWALD" on a piece of paper among BROWN's effects and whether or not she ever made the remark to her husband which he ascribed to her.

Mrs. ORAN PAUL BROWN, 101 Savannah, Waxahachie, Texas, was interviewed on December 10, 1963, at her residence in Waxahachie, Texas, as soon as she could be located, following the interview of her husband at his place of employment in Dallas, Texas. The interview was conducted prior to the time of her husband's arrival home from work. Her interview is reported on page 220 of the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated December 23, 1963, at Dallas, Texas.

On the occasion of this interview, Mrs. BROWN advised that on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, she watched the television news concerning the assassination of President KENNEDY. When she heard that a man named LEE OSWALD had been arrested, she recalled seeing the name OSWALD on a piece of paper that her husband had left at the house. When her husband came home late that afternoon, she asked him about it and told him she thought she had seen the name OSWALD on a piece of paper about three weeks previously. Her husband then told her that one of the other salesmen where he worked had given him the name OSWALD as a prospective customer.

Mrs. BROWN stated she recalled the name on the piece of paper was "OSWALD", and she thinks this name was preceded by two initials, but she does not remember what the initials were.

Date 9/9/64

Mr. ORAN PAUL BROWN, 101 Savannah, Waxahachie, Texas, who is employed as a mechanic at Ken-Ray Ford, Inc., 3795 Forest Lane, Dallas, Texas, advised that during November, 1963, he was employed as a salesman at Downtown Lincoln-Mercury in Dallas. To the best of his memory, he believes that sometime about 3:00 p.m. on November 22, 1963, following the assassination of President KENNEDY, he came to work, and employees in the showroom at Downtown Lincoln-Mercury were listening to the news. AL BOGARD was present, and possibly some more of the salesmen, but he does not remember for sure whether others were present, and either the news, or someone else, said something about LEE HARVEY OSWALD being arrested. BROWN recalls that AL BOGARD took a card out of his pocket or billfold, and made a remark to the effect that this was the man who was supposed to get some cash and come in and buy a car, then threw the card in a wastebasket and said that he would not need that prospect any more. In a few minutes, BOGARD came up to BROWN and reminded BROWN that OSWALD was the one whose name BOGARD had given BROWN, telling him that the prospect might come by when BOGARD was not there and asking BROWN to handle the prospect if BOGARD were not present at the time.

Date 9/9/64

Mr. EUGENE M. WILSON, 3012 Westminister Avenue, Dallas, Texas, who is employed as a salesman for the Eagle Lincoln-Mercury, Inc., 6116 Lemmon Avenue, Dallas, Texas, advised that he was formerly a salesman for the Downtown Lincoln-Mercury agency in Dallas, Texas, during November, 1963.

WILSON related that another salesman at Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, known as AL BOGARD, on some day about the first part of November, 1963, believed to be a Saturday, but exact date not recalled, came to him with a customer. The company had a policy that if a salesman had a prospective customer that the salesman could not sell a car, the salesman was supposed to bring the prospect to a senior salesman, before letting the customer go. On this occasion, BOGARD brought this customer to him and introduced the customer, but WILSON does not recall the customer's name. BOGARD told WILSON that the customer had no cash, no credit, and had been employed on his job for only a short period of time, and BOGARD had not been able to sell him a car. WILSON said he talked to this customer for only a minute or so, and told him that if he did not have a credit rating, or a substantial amount of cash, and had not been employed on his job for some time, they would be unable to sell him a car. This customer then said, rather sarcastically, "Maybe I'm going to have to go back to Russia to buy a car." WILSON then told the customer, "Maybe that is where you should go." The customer immediately walked away without further conversation, and WILSON did not pay any attention as to where the customer went. WILSON is now of the opinion that this event occurred sometime during the morning, before noon, on a Saturday, sometime during the first part of November, 1963, but cannot be more specific as to the date of the month, day of the week, or hour of the day. After this customer left, BOGARD mentioned to WILSON that he had used the red demonstrator car, that WILSON had been using, and the car did not have much gasoline in it when he let the customer drive it. BOGARD also said that the customer drove like a mad man, driving much too fast, as it had been raining and the pavement was slick. BOGARD seemed very unhappy with the way this customer drove, commenting that he drove "like he was crazy." WILSON described this customer as a white male, between 26 and 30 years old, weighed about 135 pounds, and was only about five feet tall. WILSON said that he is five feet eight inches tall, and he definitely recalled that the customer was much shorter than he, WILSON, because he looked down, when talking to the customer. After the customer left, WILSON dismissed the matter from his mind. The next day after President KENNEDY was assassinated, BOGARD walked up to WILSON and mentioned that the man who had shot President KENNEDY, was the customer to whom BOGARD had introduced WILSON. WILSON stated he did not see BOGARD with a card in his pocket with the name OSWALD on it, did not hear BOGARD say anything about having the name OSWALD on a card, and did not see BOGARD throw a card away and state that he had no further use for this prospect's name. After BOGARD mentioned to WILSON that he had introduced OSWALD to WILSON, WILSON saw photographs of LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the newspapers and on television, but he could not say that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was or was not the customer to whom BOGARD had introduced him, and was or was not the customer who said that he might have to go back to Russia to buy a car. WILSON explained that he has had cataracts on his eyes, and cannot see out of his left eye, and only has 20/15 vision in his right eye. Due to his poor vision, and the fact that he talks to many prospects during a period of two or three weeks, he could not remember enough about what this customer looked like, to know whether or not this customer was identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Mr. WILSON stated that his company had five red demonstrators, all just alike, and they were not assigned specifically to any salesman. Various salesmen usually drove the same car, but they were all parked outside with the keys in them, and if the vehicle was not in use, any salesman could go out and get one without seeking permission from anyone else.

Mr. ROBERT V. TETER, 1814 Glynn Oaks, Arlington, Texas, who is employed as a salesman for Hamilton Chrysler-Plymouth, Inc., 2312 Cedar Springs, Dallas, Texas, related that he does not now recall the circumstances under which he first learned of AL BOGARD's allegation that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had been a prospective customer at Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, Dallas, Texas, where they both worked in November, 1963. He now believes it was on the day following the assassination of President KENNEDY, that he heard of BOGARD's allegation, but does not recall who told him, or anything about the circumstances surrounding his learning of BOGARD's allegation. He at no time saw BOGARD take a card from his wallet or pocket, and announce that OSWALD's name was on the card as a prospect, and then throw the card in the trash.

TETER further advised he does not now recall whether or not he told Mr. PIZZO of Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, that JACK A. LAWRENCE had told TETER that LAWRENCE had received a bad conduct discharge from the military service. He said he could have told Mr. PIZZO about this, and may very well have, but just does not now remember specifically whether he did or not, and if he did tell PIZZO, he does not recall PIZZO's reaction to this information. He said that LAWRENCE was an undesirable salesman, in that he was not a resident of Dallas or vicinity, and seemed to be just drifting around the country. LAWRENCE listed some personal references, and these references did not answer correspondence sent to them, inquiring about LAWRENCE. When LAWRENCE went to work at Downtown Lincoln-Mercury, he was not given a demonstrator to use, because they had no information as to LAWRENCE's personal history or background, other than what LAWRENCE had told them. When these references failed to reply, LAWRENCE was let go because he just did not work out, and was not the type salesman the company liked to have working for them, in that he did not mix well with other salesmen or the customers.

ALBERT GUY BOGARD was interviewed in the Dallas County Jail, where he is being held on charges of passing worthless checks and theft by conversion.

BOGARD advised that subsequent to his discussion with the individual he believes to have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD on Saturday, November 9, 1963, at the Downtown Lincoln-Mercury Automobile Agency, and prior to the date of President KENNEDY's assassination, the only person, except Mr. PIZZO to whom he had mentioned anything concerning OSWALD as a prospective customer, was ORAN BROWN, another car salesman. Mr. BOGARD stated that he had given ORAN BROWN the name of LEE OSWALD as a potential customer and had told BROWN to handle OSWALD for him in the event OSWALD should appear at the automobile agency while he, BOGARD, was away. BOGARD noted that he had given this information to BROWN as he, BOGARD, was leaving Dallas on the afternoon of November 9, 1963, for his home in Shreveport, Louisiana. BOGARD stated that he actually did not leave Dallas until around 5:30 p.m. or 6:00 p.m. that same Saturday afternoon.

BOGARD stated that while he was discussing the sale of a Comet automobile to OSWALD, he had prepared a customer's purchase sheet which described the automobile to be purchased, the equipment thereon, and the various costs of the items on the vehicle. However, BOGARD stated that inasmuch as OSWALD declined to sign a purchase order for the car he, BOGARD, just tore up the order sheet and threw it away.

BOGARD stated that the individual he believes to have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD did not show him any identification whatsoever which would have contained the name of OSWALD thereon, such as a driver's license, Social Security card, et cetera.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent RICHARD J. BURNETT:

It is noted that the information furnished by ALBERT GUY BOGARD is to the effect that he had discussed the sale of a Comet automobile on Saturday afternoon, November 9, 1963, to an individual he believes was LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

The possibility exists that BOGARD may have demonstrated a new Comet to an individual with the surname of OSWALD, but who was not identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

It is noted that the State of Texas does not keep automobile registrations by the name of the car owner, but by serial number and license number.

On September 17, 1964, JOHN CHILES, Tax Records Office, Dallas County, Dallas, Texas, advised that the tax records of this county do not list the names of automobile owners, but he noted that if a car owner resided in a local tax area in which personal property taxes are assessed on automobiles, such as the City of Dallas, then such tax records would possibly alphabetically list the names and addresses of such car owners.

On September 17, 1964, inquiry was made at the Tax Office of the City of Dallas, Municipal Building, and it was determined from a review of the automobile tax roll that the following individuals residing in Dallas with the surname of "OSWALD" were listed as car owners:

1. JOHN OSWALD, 5030 Wren Way, 1963 Chevy II, License PZ-7512

2. N.D. OSWALD, 1600 Sylvan Drive, 1963 Pontiac Grand Prix, Texas License RC-8139

3. W.N. OSWALD, 1616 Sylvan Drive, a 1959 Pontiac, License PW-9360, and a 1960 Corvair, Texas License PW-9631

The tax records for the City of Dallas contain no further record of a car owner with the surname of "OSWALD".

On September 17, 1964, NORMAN D. OSWALD and WILLIAM N. OSWALD each advised that he resided at 1600 Sylvan and 1616 Sylvan Drive, respectively. Both advised that they had not visited the Downtown Lincoln-Mercury automobile agency at 118 Commerce, Dallas, Texas, on November 9, 1964, to look at or take a demonstration ride in any type of an automobile. Both added that they had not looked at any cars at this agency during 1963.

JOHN OSWALD, JR., 5030 Wren Way, Dallas, Texas, advised on September 18, 1964, that he had not been to the Downtown Lincoln-Mercury automobile agency in November, 1963, to look at a car. (He stated that he does not have any sons.) It is noted that Mr. OSWALD is fifty-three years of age.

In addition to the aforementioned "OSWALDs" residing in the City of Dallas tax area, who own automobiles, the 1964 Dallas City Directory was reviewed for other individuals with the surname of "OSWALD" who reside in the Dallas area, but outside the City of Dallas tax area. Two such individuals were identified and they are:

1. DELOY OSWALD, The Visador Company, 2429 Converse, Dallas; a resident of Irving, Texas

2. LOUIS E. OSWALD, District Clerk, Mobil Oil, Dallas; a resident of 4013 Glenridge Road, Dallas County

On September 18, 1964, DELOY OSWALD, The Visador Company, 2429 Converse, Dallas, advised that as of November 9, 1963, he was residing in Seattle, Washington, and did not arrive in the Dallas area until December 31, 1963.

HERSCHEL P. HOLLAND, Mobil Oil Company, Akard and Commerce Streets, Dallas, Texas, advised on September 17, 1964, that LOUIS E. OSWALD, formerly of this company and a former resident of 4013 Glenridge Road, Dallas, is now assigned to the Mobil office in Beaumont, Texas. Mr. HOLLAND noted that LOUIS OSWALD is a man of 50 to 55 years of age, who does not in any manner resemble LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

B. Allegation That Lee Harvey Oswald Was In Clifton's Barbershop, Irving, Texas, On Several Occasions Before The Assassination

RPG:pm

By letter dated September 1, 1964, the President's Commission advised that CLIFTON M. SHASTEEN, 2214 Fairfax, Irving, Texas, who owns Clifton's Barbershop, 1321 South Storey Road, Irving, Texas, had testified before the President's Commission that a man he believes to have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD was in his barbershop on several occasions prior to the assassination for the purpose of obtaining haircuts. He testified that on at least two occasions the person believed to be OSWALD was accompanied by a 14-year-old boy, who was also in the barbershop by himself on other occasions, and also that he saw the man thought to be OSWALD drive to the barbershop in Mrs. PAINE's station wagon.

The President's Commission requested interviews with other barbers who worked for Mr. SHASTEEN during October and November, 1963, as well as a reinterview of Mr. SHASTEEN.

DL 100-10461

On September 18, 1964, Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, advised that she does not recall LEE HARVEY OSWALD going for a haircut on a weekend during October or November, 1963, and that she does not recall the location of any barbershop where OSWALD ever obtained a haircut.

Mrs. PAINE has previously advised, as reflected on pages 635 and 636 of the report of SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated December 23, 1963, that she did not know of any boy about 14 years of age with whom OSWALD was ever associated in the neighborhood and that she had never allowed OSWALD to take her car anywhere by himself.

BERT ELMO GLOVER, residence 3129 Williamsburg Street, Irving, Texas, employed as a barber, Clifton's Barbershop, 1321 South Storey Road, advised that he recalled seeing a man in the barbershop on three occasions whom he believed to be identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He advised that as he recalled he just observed this man in the barbershop and did not see him prior to entering. Mr. GLOVER stated at no time did he see this person utilizing an automobile. He advised that on one of these occasions he cut this person's hair and stated that this person made no statements which could have been used in any way to identify him. He stated that CLIFTON SHASTEEN, owner of the barbershop, told him following the assassination that he remembered this same person and related that this person had been there with a 14 or 15-year-old boy and that the boy had made a statement something to the effect that, "This country would be better off when all countries are governed the same." He stated that he did not hear this statement. He advised that SHASTEEN also told him about his discussion with this person concerning a pair of odd looking shoes he was wearing and that this man claimed that he had purchased them in Mexico. Mr. GLOVER stated that he could not recall seeing this young boy.

Mr. GLOVER described the person he believed to be identical with LEE HARVEY OSWALD as white, male, 34 to 35 years of age, 5'11" in height, weight 140 pounds, hair dark brown, complexion ruddy, thin or sharp features, clean-shaven, but dark beard, dressed in everyday clothes, sport shirt and slacks.

BUDDY LAW, Route 1, Box 290, Grand Prairie, employed by Ling Temco Vought, Grand Prairie, in the Production Control Department advised that for several years he has worked on Friday afternoons and Saturdays as a part-time barber for CLIFTON M. SHASTEEN, 1321 South Storey Road, Irving, Texas. He advised that during October and November, 1963, he was employed as stated for MR. SHASTEEN. MR. LAW advised that he had no recollection of ever seeing LEE HARVEY OSWALD or anyone resembling him in this barbershop. He advised that he saw numerous photographs of OSWALD in the newspapers, magazines and on TV but could never place this person in the barbershop.

MR. LAW stated that MR. SHASTEEN told him that OSWALD had been in the barbershop on at least three occasions and on one of these occasions he (LAW) had cut his hair, but that he could not recall it. He stated definitely he had no recollection of the incident mentioned by SHASTEEN.

He advised that during October - November, 1963, he employed BERT GLOVER as a full-time barber and BUDDY LAW as a part-time barber working Friday afternoons and Saturdays.

MR. SHASTEEN stated his brother-in-law is J. W. HALLMARK, residence 2816 Grove Street, Irving, Texas, and is employed as a city truck driver for Illinois-California Express (ICX), 6184 Harry Hines Boulevard, Dallas, Texas. He advised that HALLMARK formerly owned a home at 2510 West Fifth Street, Irving, which is located directly across the street from the MICHAEL FAINE residence, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, but sold this place in early 1961 and moved to his present address. MR. SHASTEEN stated that he, SHASTEEN, owns rental property located at 138 Crandall Street and at either 1214 or 1412 Luzon Street, both in Irving, Texas.

MR. SHASTEEN stated that he had previously furnished all information which he had relating to LEE HARVEY OSWALD to the FBI and to the representative of the President's Commission and that the information so furnished was true.

C. Investigation Concerning Alleged Rifle Practice By Lee Harvey Oswald At Sports Drome Rifle Range, Dallas, Texas

The President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY by letter dated August 28, 1964, requested the recontact of Mrs. VIRGINIA LOUISE DAVIS, 2225 By Way, Dallas, Texas, who, with her husband, operates the Sports Drome Rifle Range in Dallas.

The Commission noted that Mrs. DAVIS was originally interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on December 1, 1963, at which time she apparently indicated that no written "register" was maintained at the rifle range during the period from September to November, 1963, when OSWALD is alleged to have practiced at the rifle range.

The Commission further noted that in the course of her deposition to a member of the President's Commission on April 1, 1964, Mrs. DAVIS referred to a "journal", which she described as a daily record she kept of everything that happens at the range, which everyone had to sign when they first opened the range. She noted that the Federal Bureau of Investigation had picked up the sign-in slips and checked them out.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date September 4, 1964

FLOYD GUY DAVIS, owner, Sports Drome Rifle Range, 8000 West Davis, Dallas, Texas, advised that his wife, VIRGINIA, and he are the sole operators of this range.

Mr. DAVIS stated that in the course of their business, they maintain only one type of record, and that is a business ledger which lists by days the amount of money taken in at the range, as well as the amount of expenses paid out with the names of the business concerns to whom the money was paid. He stated that this ledger, or "journal", does not contain the names of customers at the range.

Mr. DAVIS stated that when they opened their range for business on Saturday, October 26, 1963, they started off keeping a guest sign-in type register wherein the shooter signed his name and address. The purpose of this register was to aid them in their new business so they could send a card to those who had registered advising them of the date of their future "turkey shoots".

However, many of the shooters did not desire to sign the register for various reasons, and after November 3, 1963, they stopped maintaining such a sign-in sheet.

Mr. DAVIS stated that if his wife had referred to a "journal" in her testimony to a member of the President's Commission, she undoubtedly was referring to their business ledger and not to a so-called guest register of shooters.

In regard to the "sign-in" records maintained from October 26, 1963, to November 3, 1963, inclusive, Mr. DAVIS produced from his desk six sheets of 12" by 8½" lined tablet paper and two sheets of 7" by 5½" white memorandum size paper on memo paper of the "F. B. McINTIRE EQUIPMENT CO.", which he stated is the entire listing of those customers who signed the register. He noted that this list is not to be considered as all inclusive as many shooters had declined to sign such a register during the time they had maintained such a listing.

Mr. DAVIS advised that the red "x" marks by the names of many of the individuals listed on these sheets were made by someone other than his wife and him, and he does not know the meaning of the marks.

Mr. DAVIS turned over the aforementioned sheets of paper and advised that the President's Commission may use them for any purpose they might desire; however, he does desire their return to him eventually.

Mrs. VIRGINIA PASH DAVIS, also known as VIRGINIA LOUISE DAVIS, was interviewed in her trailer home located at 2825 By Way, Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. DAVIS stated that her husband, FLOYD GUY DAVIS, and she first opened their Sports Drome Rifle Range, at 8000 West Davis, Dallas, Texas, on Saturday, October 26, 1963.

She stated that when they first opened the range, they had decided to have the customers sign a register, on ordinary tablet paper, listing their home addresses. The purpose of this was to obtain the addresses of the customers in order for her to drop them a post card to advise them when the range would hold a "turkey shoot". Some of the customers did not react very kindly to signing such a register; some refused to sign the register, and after a week or so, they discontinued this practice of having the guests sign a register. Mrs. DAVIS stated that this list is certainly not to be considered as the complete listing of all individuals who had used this rifle (and revolver) range between Saturday, October 26, 1963, and November 3, 1963; the last day a listing was maintained.

Mrs. DAVIS stated that the "journal" she was referring to when interviewed by a member of the President's Commission is actually a business-type ledger listing credit and debits for a particular day's business. This journal contains the identity of business expenses and the names of the business concerns to whom money was paid, as well as listing the amount of money taken in at the rifle range. She stated this journal does not contain the names of any customers or shooters at the range on a particular day.

Mrs. DAVIS stated that she referred to the "journal" in her deposition in her efforts to definitely pinpoint the the date of the first "turkey shoot" held at the range. She did not mean to imply that this "journal" contained the names of customers at the range for a particular day in question.

Regarding records maintained by their range, Mrs. DAVIS stated that she and her husband maintain this "business journal", referred to above, and for approximately one week (from October 26, 1963, to November 3, 1963) had maintained the previously referred to "sign-in" register containing the names of the customers and their mailing addresses. They keep no other record other than the "journal".

Mrs. DAVIS viewed the six 12" by 8½" lined tablet paper sheets and the two 7" by 5½" white business note sheets on "F. B. McINTIRE EQUIPMENT CO." memorandum paper, furnished by her husband on September 3, 1963, and advised that these eight pieces of paper are the entire "sign-in" register maintained previously at the range from October 26, 1963, and which they discontinued keeping after November 3, 1963. Mrs. DAVIS stated that the President's Commission is most welcome to use these papers for any purpose they see fit. She noted that the red "x" marks by various individuals' names were made by some other Government agency, and the meaning of the check marks are unknown to her.

Mrs. DAVIS stated that her husband and she need their business journal in the course of their business, but if the Commission still desires the use of same (after now understanding the true nature of this ledger), she can possibly make it available to them.

It should be noted in the interview of Mr. GARLAND G. SLACK on December 1, 1963, which is recorded in the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING at Dallas, dated December 10, 1963, pages 236-238, that Mr. SLACK furnished information to the effect that he had seen a man believed to be identical with OSWALD at the Sports Drome Rifle Range on November 10, 1963, and believed that he was accompanied by another man described as tall, as having a lot of dark hair, dark complexion, and a full beard.

By letter dated September 1, 1964, the President's Commission advised that Mr. GARLAND SLACK, 3130 de Lee Street, Dallas, Texas, had testified before the President's Commission that on November 17, 1963, he was present at the Sports Drome Rifle Range in Dallas, where he observed a man whom he thought to be LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He testified that while there he became involved in an altercation with this person because the man was firing at his target. SLACK also testified he observed "a tall boy", wearing a beard, accompanying the man he thought to be OSWALD and that the two of them left together in an old model four-door sedan. Mr. SLACK testified that his wife LUCILLE was present with him on the occasion on the firing range. The President's Commission requested that LUCILLE SLACK be interviewed for all information she has in regard to the above incident at the firing range. It should be noted that the bearded man has been identified as MICHAEL BENTLEY MURPH, whose interview is reflected on Pages 116 and 117 of the report of SA ROBERT P. Date September 10, 1964

Mrs. GARLAND G. (LUCILLE) SLACK, 4130 DeLee Street, advised that on November 17, 1963, she went with her husband to the Sports Drome Rifle Range. She stated she was certain of the date, November 17, 1963, as her daughter, son-in-law, and grandson had visited them on November 9, 10, and 11, 1963, and her son-in-law and grandson had accompanied Mr. SLACK to the Sports Drome Rifle Range on November 9 and 10, 1963, whereas her son-in-law and grandson did not accompany them the following Sunday, November 17, 1963. She stated they arrived at the rifle range about noon, and after Mr. SLACK had purchased his ticket and had talked to some people, she carried a 30.06 rifle from their car through the building to Mr. SLACK, who was in the far west shooting stall, believed to be No. 9. She stated she remained with him until dark. Mrs. SLACK stated that she did not see LEE HARVEY OSWALD or anyone who resembled him at the Sports Drome Rifle Range. She claimed she did not recall Mr. SLACK being involved in any altercation; however, she did remember someone firing on his target on two different occasions, and he told Mr. DAVIS, owner, Sports Drome Rifle Range, about this and received new targets. Mrs. SLACK advised she recalled seeing a "great big man" with a beard, who was wearing ear muffs, a red plaid shirt, and green pants. She stated he was shooting "big guns" and was shooting from stall No. 4 or 5. She stated she did not see anyone with this person and believed that he was alone at the rifle range.

Mrs. SLACK advised on the night of November 22, 1963, Mr. SLACK, after seeing LEE HARVEY OSWALD's picture on television, mentioned to her he believed he had seen OSWALD before. Mrs. SLACK stated that Mr. SLACK first thought that OSWALD was a truck driver for the Dallas City Water Works. She explained that she and Mr. SLACK owned the Urbandale Water Works, but had turned this business over to the Dallas City Water Works on July 1, 1963, and for about eight weeks subsequent thereto, a number of the Dallas City Water Works trucks were in and out of their place. She stated that following Thanksgiving dinner on November 28, 1963, Mr. SLACK told her he believed he had seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD at the Sports Drome Rifle Range. She stated they drove to the rifle range and talked with Mr. and Mrs. FLOYD DAVIS. She stated they did not want to talk about

LEE HARVEY OSWALD being seen at the rifle range, saying that it might hurt their business. She stated they did mention that a dentist and his son had been at the rifle range and had claimed OSWALD was there the day they had been there.

In an effort to resolve discrepancies in information furnished by Mr. SLACK concerning this incident, Mrs. SLACK contacted Mr. SLACK during the interview. According to Mrs. SLACK, Mr. SLACK maintained that OSWALD was at the rifle range on November 17, 1963, and that he had been brought there by a man named "FRAZIER" from Irving, Texas. Mrs. SLACK stated she felt her husband was confused as to the date when he observed the individual he believed to be OSWALD at the range, but he was sincere in the statement he had previously made to Agents of the FBI and during his testimony before the President's Commission.

The President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY by letter dated August 31, 1964, made reference to an interview of BERNARD WEISSMAN on August 10, 1964, at New York City. In this interview, WEISSMAN stated that he was employed during November, 1963, by the Carpet Engineers, Incorporated, 1002 South Beckley, Dallas, Texas, working from 6:00 p.m. to midnight. WEISSMAN believed that he was working during the evening of November 14, 1963. The President's Commission requested verification of this information.

The following investigation supplements that contained on pages 57 to 63 of the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING, dated September 19, 1964, at Dallas, Texas.

NORMAN J. SIEGEL, Vice President, Carpet Engineers of Texas, 2006 South Beckley Avenue, Dallas, Texas, advised that BERNARD WEISSMAN worked for this company as a carpet salesman from approximately November 6, 1963, to November 21, 1963. While working for this company, WEISSMAN was never paid any money as he never made any sales. He worked on a commission basis and received no salary whatsoever.

While Mr. SIEGEL has no employment records to specifically cite the exact dates of WEISSMAN's employment, he noted that the beginning date of November 6, 1963, is based on the date of WEISSMAN's application, and the last date is based on the company's daily appointment sheet, which shows the last sales appointment for WEISSMAN as being on November 21, 1963.

Regarding the question as to whether or not WEISSMAN was working on Thursday, November 14, 1963, Mr. SIEGEL noted that the appointment sheet for salesmen for that date indicates that WEISSMAN had an appointment that date with one "HOBGOOD", telephone number FEderal 9-8881. No other appointments were listed for WEISSMAN on that particular date.

Mr. SIEGEL stated that this does not mean that

Mr. SIEGEL pointed out that the appointment sheet for November 14, 1963, which lists the appointments for all the salesmen and not for just one particular individual, contains a "remarks" column which is filled out the following day by the salesman indicating the results of his interview with the potential customer. In regard to WEISSMAN's comment about his contact with the HOBGOODs, WEISSMAN had noted that he had given them a sales talk, noted that they would need 116 yards of carpeting, which would cost $1,390, but the HOBGOODs only wanted to spend $600.00.

Mr. SIEGEL continued that the appointment sheet for November 14, 1963, is the only record that his company has which would indicate whether or not WEISSMAN had worked that particular day. He further noted that WEISSMAN could have spent a few hours at the company's office, but normally a commissioned salesman, such as WEISSMAN, only spends a short time at the office daily and that is to pick up a list of his appointments for that day. This is true with all the workdays of the week with the exception of Friday when the salesmen attend a sales conference.

DONALD D. HOBGOOD, 1220 Burns Avenue, Dallas, Texas, advised that his telephone number is FEderal 9-881, which telephone number he also had as of November 14, 1963.

DONALD HOBGOOD stated that his wife had been interested for some time in carpeting their house, and had a representative of some now unrecalled carpet company visit their house sometime in November, 1963, exact date not now recalled.

DONALD HOBGOOD stated that both his wife, ELLEN, and he were at home the night this salesman came to talk to them and give them an estimate on the cost of carpeting their house. HOBGOOD recalls that this person arrived around 7:30 p.m. in the evening and remained in his house for over two hours, finally leaving between 9:30 p.m. and 10:00 p.m. HOBGOOD knows that this salesman was in the house for over two hours, as he, HOBGOOD, had a previous engagement that night and was trying to get rid of the carpet salesman, who seemed to stay on and on.

HOBGOOD stated this salesman gave them a cost estimate of around $1,400 to carpet their house, which sum was far above the amount that they would even consider spending on carpeting their house.

HOBGOOD stated that while he does not recall the name of this salesman, he recalled that he arrived in an old automobile, wore what appeared to be second-hand clothing, indicated he had been in the military service, and had recently come to Dallas from some other part of the country.

HOBGOOD stated he told this salesman that the carpet price was too high, and they have not been recontacted by this individual since that time.

Mrs. LIDY VOLTZ, 1220 Burns Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that she is the mother of DONALD HOBGOOD who lives at this same address.

Mrs. VOLTZ viewed a photograph of BERNARD WEISSMAN and stated that this individual is the same person who had come to their house in November, 1963, to sell carpeting to her son and daughter-in-law.

Mrs. VOLTZ could not recall the date of the visit of this carpet salesman, but remembered that he had come back the same night and had talked to DONALD HOBGOOD and his wife.

Mrs. VOLTZ stated that the carpet salesman first arrived at their home in theearly evening before the HOBGOODs had come home from work. She told him to come back later that evening and he did so.

Date September 10, 1964

Mrs. ELLEN HOBGOOD, 1220 Burns Avenue, Dallas, Texas, advised that she is the wife of DONALD D. HOBGOOD. Mrs. HOBGOOD was interviewed at her residence.

Mrs. HOBGOOD stated that around the middle part of November, 1963, she was telephonically contacted by a lady representative of a carpet company inquiring if she was interested in carpeting for her home. She advised that she was and set up an appointment for 7:00 p.m. several nights later for a personal visit by a salesman for this carpet company.

Mrs. HOBGOOD stated that she does not recall the name of the carpet company, but knows that they were located on South Beckley. She stated that she does not recall the name of the salesman who came to her home.

Mrs. HOBGOOD stated that the night of the appointment, she and her husband were at home to talk to the salesman. He was late for his appointment, but arrived about 7:30 p.m. The salesman spent about two hours in her home and quoted them a carpeting price of around $1,400.00, which was quite a bit more than her husband and she planned to spend on carpeting.

Mrs. HOBGOOD could not recall the date of this carpet salesman's visit, but remembers that the very next day she had gone out and purchased two rugs for her house.

Mrs. HOBGOOD located the purchase contract for these two rugs which indicated that she had purchased the two rugs on November 15, 1963, from the Bolin and Selvidge Furniture Company, 209 East Jefferson, Dallas, Texas.

Accordingly, Mrs. HOBGOOD stated that the carpet salesman was positively in her house the night of November 14, 1963.

Mrs. HOBGOOD viewed a photograph of BERNARD WEISSMAN and stated that this was the carpet salesman who was in her home on the night of November 14, 1963.

DONALD D. HOBGOOD, 1220 Burns Street, Dallas, Texas, advised upon viewing photograph of BERNARD WEISSMAN that this appears to him to be identical with the carpet salesman who had visited his home on a night in November, 1963.

HOBGOOD stated that he is not as good as his mother and wife in identifying individuals; however, the photograph of WEISSMAN appears to him to be the person who had visited his home.

HOBGOOD stated that he could not make a positive identification of WEISSMAN being the salesman, as he (HOBGOOD) is poor in remembering features of an individual and he noted that the visit of the carpet salesman to his home was over ten months ago and for only a few hours at that. HOBGOOD further noted that the photograph of WEISSMAN at this time appears to be a little heavier than he remembers the salesman; however, he noted that the hair style being curly was identical.

E. Telephone Call To Chief Of Police Jesse E. Curry, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, From Individual Identifying Himself As Carl Schreiber On September 8, 1964

On September 8, 1964, Chief of Police JESSE E. CURRY, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, telephonically advised SAC J. GORDON SHANKLIN that he had received a call from an individual who identified himself as CARL SCHREIBER from New York City, who gave his New York telephone number as EN 2-1006 Apartment 11-F. This individual was inquiring about the OSWALD-RUBY investigation and indicated that the President's Commission report would not be factual and that he was very much in favor of MARK LANE. According to Chief CURRY, this individual stated he was a disabled war veteran and also claimed he was the general counsel for MARK LANE. According to Chief CURRY, this man rambled on about the assassination and appeared to be trying to pump Chief CURRY about the investigation.

Chief CURRY was of the opinion this individual was intoxicated and Chief CURRY insisted he did not give this individual any information.

The files of the Dallas Office reflect no information identifiable with the above-named CARL SCHREIBER.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent JOHN JAMES O'FLAHERTY at New York, New York:

On September 9, 1964, it was determined that New York City telephone number EN 2-1006 is registered to the Hotel Milburn, 243 West 76th Street, New York City.

On September 9, 1964, the files of the New York City Office reflected that on March 1, 1963, one CARL SCHREIBER, 345 West 86th Street, New York City, telephonically contacted the New York Office and requested that an FBI Agent discreetly contact him at the above address in order that SCHREIBER could furnish information in his possession regarding activities in the Dominican Republic. Thereafter, an Agent of the New York Office attempted to contact SCHREIBER at the above address but SCHREIBER had moved without leaving any forwarding address.

On September 10, 1964, Mr. M. KAIN, Manager, Hotel Milburn, 243 West 76th Street, advised that hotel records reflect that CARL SCHREIBER registered at that hotel on August 21, 1964, and presently occupies Room 11F. A previous address for SCHREIBER was indicated as Box 800, Los Alamos, New Mexico. Mr. KAIN stated he does not know SCHREIBER personally and could only advise SCHREIBER is about 48 years of age. He was unable to furnish any additional descriptive data or employment concerning SCHREIBER.

On September 10, 1964, SIMON CWERN, Manager, Hotel Dexter House, 345 West 86th Street, New York City, advised that CARL SCHREIBER, white male, 45 - 50 years of age, approximately 5'10", stocky build, although not presently at the Hotel Dexter House, has in the past periodically resided there on numerous occasions. Mr. CWERN stated that a 1961 registration card reflected a previous address as Box 206, Alamogordo, New Mexico.

Mr. CWERN remarked that he personally knows SCHREIBER and stated that SCHREIBER is a World War II disabled veteran who receives disability checks from the Government. He stated that SCHREIBER was a captain and a pilot in the United States Air Force, and, as a result of a head injury received in combat, he has a metal plate in his head. CWERN advised that whenever SCHREIBER's head injury causes pain, SCHREIBER drinks to excess and quite often, while in an intoxicated state, has a habit of making numerous telephone calls. CWERN stated that on a few occasions, while in this condition, SCHREIBER has placed long distance telephone calls to his brother, first name unknown, who resides in New Mexico and reportedly occupies some political position in that area. CWERN remarked that on one occasion, while apparently intoxicated, SCHREIBER placed a call through the hotel switchboard to New York Governor ROCKEFELLER.

Mr. CWERN added that SCHREIBER is an attorney and reportedly was a candidate, on one occasion, for the office of District Attorney somewhere in the New Mexico area. He further stated on one occasion SCHREIBER displayed to him a letter which SCHREIBER stated was a letter indicating that consideration was being given to appointing SCHREIBER as Commissioner of the New York State Thruway. CWERN was of the opinion that due to SCHREIBER's disability, he never received the appointment.

On September 10, 1964, inquiry at the Credit Bureau of Greater New York and the Bureau of Criminal Identification, New York City Police Department, concerning CARL SCHREIBER met with negative results.

On September 23, 1964, signed statements were obtained by Special Agent RICHARD J. BURNETT from ROY S. TRULY, Warehouse Superintendent, Texas School Book Depository, Dallas, Texas, and Patrolman MARRION L. BAKER, Dallas Police Department, who were the individuals who approached OSWALD in the lunchroom on the second floor of the Texas School Book Depository immediately after the assassination on November 22, 1963. Previous interview with Mr. TRULY reflecting such information appears on pages 322 - 323 of the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated November 30, 1963, at Dallas, Texas. A previous interview with Patrolman M. L. BAKER, who is identical to MARRION L. BAKER, concerning this matter is reflected on page 339 of the report of Special Agent ROBERT P. "I, Roy S. Truly, do hereby furnish this voluntary statement to Richard J. Burnett who has identified himself to me to be a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

"I am the Superintendent of the Texas School Book Depository located at 411 Elm Street, Dallas, Texas, and was so employed as of November 22, 1963.

"On the above date and just as President Kennedy's motorcade passed in front of my building, I reentered the building with a Dallas police officer after some shots had been heard coming from this general vicinity.

"The officer and I proceeded to the stairway located in the northwest corner of the Texas School Book Depository building in order to proceed to the upper part of the building to see if we could see who had fired the shots.

"I was leading the way up the stairs and the police officer was following me. After I was starting to ascend the stairs towards the third floor from the second floor, I noticed that the police officer was talking to someone in the lunch room located on the second floor.

"I then went to the lunch room where I saw the officer facing Lee Harvey Oswald. Oswald was by himself in the lunch room. There was noone else in the vicinity of the lunch room on the second floor other than Oswald, the police officer and myself.

"I identified Oswald to the police officer as an employee of the Texas School Book Depository.

"I have read this statement consisting of this page and one other page and it is true and correct to the best of my recollection.

The following investigation supplements that reflected in the report of Special Agent HENRY A. WELKE, dated September 22, 1964, at Norfolk, Virginia, in instant matter.

At 3:30 PM on September 14, 1964, Mr. R. M. MC DAVID, Special Agent in Charge, Treasury Department, United States Secret Service, contacted the Jacksonville Office of the FBI and furnished the following information:

JOSEPH STALLINGS, a Florida Highway Patrol Auxiliary Patrolman advised Mr. MC DAVID that between 10:30 PM and 11:00 PM on September 8, 1964, he was performing highway patrol duties in Jacksonville, Florida. At a service station near the George Washington Hotel, he encountered one ERICH LINTROP. LINTROP had been drinking and persuaded STALLINGS to take him to his ship and subsequently return him to the Seminole Hotel where LINTROP was staying. During this time LINTROP told STALLINGS that he knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY. LINTROP also claimed that he knew the "money man" who financed or spearheaded the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. LINTROP did not name this "money man" but said that the man is from Pakistan and is currently living in Paris, France.

Mr. MC DAVID stated that he determined that LINTROP was an able bodied seaman on the SS American Flyer which at that time was at Commodore's Point, Jacksonville, Florida. LINTROP's seaman number is Z-72988-1, his address is 550 West 20th Street, New York City. The SS American Flyer is operated by the United States Lines and departed Jacksonville, Florida, on the evening of September 11, 1964. The ship was scheduled for a brief stop at Brunswick, Georgia, then from whence it is to sail from New York City, New York.

The following is the contents of a letter dated September 14, 1964, from R. M. MC DAVID, Special Agent in Charge, Treasury Department, United States Secret Service, Jacksonville, Florida, directed to Mr. D. K. BROWN, Special Agent in Charge, FBI, Jacksonville, Florida:

"Dear Mr. Brown:

"This will confirm conference of even date wherein you were furnished possible information concerning assassination of President Kennedy, said possible information having originated from the following subject:

"Erich Lintrop, (believed to be Finnish extraction), White/Male; 55-60; Able Bodied seaman; American Seaman No. Z-72988-1; crew member SS American Flyer; home address 550 West 20th Street, New York, New York.

"On September 13, Auxiliary Sergeant Joseph Starling of the Florida Highway Patrol, Jacksonville, telephonically contacted the writer at his residence and reported his experience or contact with the subject the night of September 8, 1964, at Jacksonville, Florida, at the same time stating that he had conveyed this information to Mr. William Lankford, Customs Agent in Charge, Jacksonville, on the evening of September 11.

"Sergeant Starling stated that at approximately 10 or 10:30 PM on September 8, 1964, he was officially engaged with the Highway Patrol and was having his cruiser car serviced at the Texaco Station across from the George Washington Hotel on Pearl and Adams Street when he was approached by the subject who appeared to be drinking but not completely intoxicated. Sergeant Starling was not sure whether his State Trooper car was mistaken for a taxi, however, the subject asked if Sergeant Starling would take him to his ship, the American Flyer, which was docked at Commodores Point, St. Johns River, Jacksonville. The request was granted and during the ride to dock side the subject stated that he personally knew Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby. Further, he stated he personally knew "the money man" who had financed the assassination plot; that "the money man" was from Pakistan but currently lives in Paris. He did not furnish the name of the latter individual.

"Upon arriving at dock side, the subject requested that Sergeant Starling wait for him a few minutes and give him a ride back to the City. This request was granted. The subject boarded the American Flyer and returned in about five minutes. He offered Sergeant Starling and his co-duty officer each $5.00 for their services but such payment was refused. Subject stated that he did not know the name of his hotel but that it was an Indian name, whereupon the Seminole Hotel was suggested and the subject was thereafter transported to the Seminole Hotel where he entered and proceeded to the elevetor. Sergeant Starling states that he confirmed the subject was a registered guest and thus dismissed the matter.

"On September 14 Custom Agent in Charge William Lankford, Jacksonville, contacted this office and advised that he had received the information as reported by Sergeant Starling from him and had made sufficient inquiry to identify the subject as being a crew member of the SS American Flyer, further determining the subject's Seaman number, rate and home address. Mr. Lankford further advised that the SS American Flyer departed Jacksonville the evening of September 11 for a stop at Brunswick, Georgia, and was thereafter to proceed to New York, New York. Mr. Lankford also advised that the SS American Flyer is operated by the United States Lines.

"It is not know whether the American Flyer was in Jacksonville on a regular call or whether she was taking emergency haven due to hurricane 'Dora', which as you know hit Jacksonville September 8-9."

JOSEPH T. STALLINGS, 1908 Rogero Road, Jacksonville, Florida, a Florida Highway Patrol Auxiliary Patrolman, advised as follows:

On the evening of September 8, 1964, he was working with Trooper A. J. FORSYTHE in a Florida Highway Patrol (FHP) cruiser during Hurricane Dora. He stated that between 10:30 PM and 11:00 PM that evening they stopped for gas at the Mayflower Hotel and Trooper FORSYTHE left the car to sign the gas ticket at the office. He stated that while FORSYTHE was away from the car an individual who later identified himself as LINTROP and who appeared to be drinking but not intoxicated approached the cruiser carrying a bottle of beer. STALLINGS stated that LINTROP spoke broken English and indicated that he wanted them to take him somewhere. When FORSYTHE returned to the car he told LINTROP to get in. Once inside LINTROP indicated he would like to be taken to his ship, the American Flyer, but he was not sure exactly where it was located except that it was near Seaman's Bar. STALLINGS stated that he asked LINTROP if the ship was docked at Commodore's Point to which LINTROP stated he believed that was the right location.

STALLINGS stated that when they arrived at the dock LINTROP offered to pay them each $5 but when the money was refused by both FORSYTHE and himself, LINTROP asked them if they would wait a few minutes until he returned from the ship.

STALLINGS stated that approximately 5 minutes later LINTROP returned and asked them if they would return him to the Seminole Hotel where he had a room.

STALLINGS stated that on the way to the hotel LINTROP started a conversation concerning the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. LINTROP indicated to STALLINGS that he was acquainted with

LEE HARVEY OSWALD, JACK RUBY and also "the money man" who he said was from Pakistan. STALLINGS stated that he attempted to obtain more information from LINTROP concerning what he knew about OSWALD, RUBY and "the money man", however, all LINTROP would say was something to the effect that these 3 were the only ones involved in the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY.

STALLINGS stated that they returned LINTROP to the Seminole Hotel, Jacksonville, Florida, and have not seen him since that time.

STALLINGS stated that on September 11, 1964, he contacted Customs Agent WILLIAM LANKFORD, Jacksonville, Florida, on a personal matter, and while talking to LANKFORD mentioned the incident concerning LINTROP. STALLINGS stated that he told LANKFORD that he did not know LINTROP's full name or any details about him to which LANKFORD stated that he would have his Assistant JAMES DUGGAN obtain this information from the ship's list.

STALLINGS stated that that same evening he telephonically contacted DUGGAN to ask him if he had obtained any information concerning LINTROP. He stated that DUGGAN told him that he obtained LINTROP's full name and address in New York City and that his superior, Mr. LANKFORD, was going to contact Mr. R. M. MC DAVID, United States Secret Service, Jacksonville, Florida, and furnish him this information.

On September 13, 1964, STALLINGS stated that he telephonically contacted Mr. MC DAVID out of curiosity to see if any action had been taken concerning LINTROP. ALFRED J. FORSYTHE, 2616 Congrace Drive West, Jacksonville, Florida, a Florida Highway Patrolman, furnished the following information:

On September 8, 1964, he was on patrol in a FHP cruiser with JOSEPH STALLINGS, an auxiliary patrolman, during Hurricane Dora. Between 10:30 PM and 11:00 PM that evening he stopped at the Mayflower Hotel for gas. He stated that while in the station he observed an individual nearby who appeared to be intoxicated in that he was staggering and making a nuisance of himself. The individual was also carrying beer with him at that time and FORSYTHE stated that he placed him in the cruiser with the intention of putting him in jail which he considered the safest place for him during the hurricane.

FORSYTHE stated that when he got the individual into the car he asked him where he was going and his name to which he replied that he was ERIC H LINTROP, a Finnish sailor and was returning to his ship, the American Flyer, which was near the Sailor Boy Restaurant. FORSYTHE stated that STALLINGS asked LINTROP if the ship was docked at Commodore's Point to which LINTROP replied that he believed that was the place. FORSYTHE stated that during the ride to the ship LINTROP started a conversation in which he indicated that he had some inside knowledge concerning the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He stated that LINTROP was hard to understand in view of the fact that he spoke broken English and also since he appeared to be intoxicated. FORSYTHE stated that LINTROP did indicate that he was acquainted with the "money man" who supposedly was the finance backer for LEE HARVEY OSWALD and JACK RUBY.

FORSYTHE stated that when they arrived at the ship, LINTROP offered to give STALLINGS and him $5 each but when they refused to accept the money he asked them to wait a few minutes while he went on board. A few minutes later LINTROP returned from the ship and asked them if they would drive him to a hotel in town where he had a room. FORSYTHE stated that he asked LINTROP what hotel it was to which LINTROP replied the name of the hotel was the same as an Indian tribe. FORSYTHE stated that he asked LINTROP if he meant the Seminole Hotel to which LINTROP replied that that was in fact the hotel in which he had a room.

FORSYTHE stated on the trip to the hotel he attempted to obtain additional information concerning the "money man" but all LINTROP would say was that this "money man" was a Monk.

FORSYTHE stated that the conversation lead him to believe that this Monk was from the far East, however, he cannot recall why this fact sticks in his mind.

FORSYTHE stated that they took LINTROP to the Seminole Hotel and he has not seen him since that time.

JERRY DON TOLIVER, a roomer at the home of Mrs. MIRELE M. DICKEY, 4411 Junius, Dallas, Texas, advised that he was born on August 16, 1941, at Boswell, Oklahoma.

TOLIVER stated that he does not know JAMES MARKHAM; anyone called "OZZIE"; nor did he know LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

TOLIVER stated he resides in an area of Dallas, Texas, quite removed from the Oak Cliff section of this city, and he has not spent any of his spare time in that section of the city.

TOLIVER stated he does not know nor has he ever heard of any other individual residing in Dallas with a similar name to his.

It is noted that this JERRY DON TOLIVER does not fit the general description of the JERRY TOLLIVER (phonetic) as furnished by JAMES ALFORD MARKHAM.

The following investigation was conducted by SA RICHARD J. BURNETT:

On September 2, 1964, Mrs. L. LIGHTFOOT, Clerk, Adjustments Department, Water Department, City of Dallas, Municipal Building, Main and Harwood, Dallas, Texas, advised that the names of the subscribers to water service in Dallas are filed by street addresses and not by name. However, she stated that a name file is maintained on those customers who have service deposits with the water department. Mrs. LIGHTFOOT stated that a review of the name file of those subscribers having deposits with the Water Department fails to disclose such a customer by the name of "JERRY TOLIVER" or "JERRY TOLLIVER".

CURTIS L. HUDDLESTON, Assistant Supervisor, Accounts Department, Dallas Power and Light Company, 1506 Commerce, Dallas, Texas, advised on September 2, 1964, that all names of this utility's customers are filed by address and street number and not alphabetically by name. The only name file maintained by his company is one pertaining to individuals who have moved without clearing their debt to the electric company. Mr. HUDDLESTON noted that the name of "JERRY TOLLIVER" or "JERRY TOLIVER" does not appear in the latter file.

Mr. HUDDLESTON noted that the Lone Star Gas Company, 301 South Harwood, Dallas, the utility that supplies gas service to businesses and residences in the Dallas area, does maintain a cross reference of subscriber names and subscriber addresses. Mr. HUDDLESTON contacted the Lone Star Gas Company on September 2, 1964, and was advised that the name of "JERRY TOLLIVER" or "JERRY TOLIVER" does not appear in their records as one of their customers.

On September 2, 1964, Mrs. MYRL HOLLIS, Clerk, Selective Service Headquarters, Local Boards 26 through 31, 1114 Commerce, Dallas, Texas, which boards serve the Dallas metropolitan area, advised that her records do not record a registrant at any of the aforementioned local boards by the name of "JERRY TOLLIVER" or "JERRY TOLIVER".

JERRY M. GENTRY, police officer, Dallas Police Department, and a part-time employee of the Oak Cliff Bowling Lanes, 309 East Jefferson Boulevard, Dallas, advised that he has been unable to develop any further information regarding one JERRY TOL(L)IVER from his source.

GENTRY stated that apparently TOL(L)IVER has not been seen in this section of Dallas for nearly two months.

GENTRY stated that he had questioned his informant regarding where the informant had learned about TOL(L)IVER and his source stated that he had heard his name from the brother of JAMES ALFORD MARKHAM.

GENTRY stated that he could not disclose the name of the informant.

GENTRY further advised that his personal opinion of the MARKHAM brothers is that "they would lie to their own mother." He added that he would put no confidence whatsoever in any information they might furnish.

B. Allegation By Sylvia Odio That She Observed Lee Harvey Oswald In The Company Of Two Cuban Or Mexican Men Sometime In Late September Or Early October, 1963

RPG:pm

By letter dated August 28, 1964, the President's Commission requested additional investigation concerning the allegation of SYLVIA ODIO that she observed LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the company of two Cuban or Mexican men sometime in late September or early October, 1963.

ODIO, in her testimony before the President's Commission, has claimed that three individuals, two possibly Cuban underground members or Mexicans, and LEE HARVEY OSWALD, visited her apartment in late September, 1963, to solicit her aid in the underground.

ODIO is alleged to have told Mrs. C. L. CONNELL on November 28, 1963, that OSWALD had spoken previously to small Cuban exile groups in Dallas and had been well received. ODIO is also alleged by Mrs. CONNELL to have mentioned that a friend of ODIO's had called a Cuban friend in New Orleans who warned the Cubans in Dallas to beware of OSWALD, as they considered him a possible double-agent trying to infiltrate the Cuban exile groups.

Date 9/11/64

Mrs. MARY LUCILLE BASS CONNELL, also known as Mrs. C. L. CONNELL, 6949 Lake Shore Drive, advised she first met SYLVIA ODIO shortly after ODIO arrived in Dallas in March, 1963, from Puerto Rico.

Mrs. CONNELL stated she is active in local Dallas charitable activities pertaining to mental health. Through this activity she met Miss SYLVIA ODIO, a young Cuban exile divorcee, who had been referred to her for possible assistance in receiving mental treatment.

Mrs. CONNELL stated she was able to have ODIO's case accepted by the local Southwestern Medical School's psychiatric section at Parkland Hospital even though she did not meet the standard requirements of residency in Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. CONNELL stated that Miss ODIO was treated by Dr. EINSPRUCH, a psychiatrist intern at Parkland Hospital.

She stated that in view of her interest in Miss ODIO's case, she had conversed on several occasions with Dr. EINSPRUCH regarding ODIO's progress. She stated that the doctor told her that Miss ODIO's condition was very serious and it might be as long as two years before she was completely cured. Dr. EINSPRUCH described her condition as that of a person suffering from "Grand Hysteria", that is, a mental condition common to women of European descent where the accepted social custom is for the women of the family to take a secondary place in society to the men. The doctor stated this mental condition does not prevail among women in the United States due to the differences in family environment and American social standards.

The doctor explained to Mrs. CONNELL that women suffering from this condition often try to build up their ego by various means, such as making up things to make themselves appear important in the eyes of others.

Mrs. CONNELL stated she personally feels that Miss ODIO used her for all that she could get out of her, and when Miss ODIO thought she had nothing further to gain from their association, she dropped Mrs. CONNELL from her group of friends.

Mrs. CONNELL stated she has had very little contact with Miss ODIO in the past year and has only talked to her by telephone on several occasions.

She stated that on Thanksgiving Day, November 28, 1963, Miss ODIO telephoned her and told her about LEE HARVEY OSWALD having talked to various small groups of Cuban exiles previously where he had been well received. She also mentioned that a friend of hers (ODIO's) had telephoned another Cuban friend in New Orleans at which time the Cuban in New Orleans had warned ODIO's friend to beware of OSWALD in Dallas as he was suspected of being a "double agent" trying to infiltrate the Cuban exile movement.

Mrs. CONNELL stated that most positively, Miss ODIO had made the afore-mentioned statements to her.

She stated that she actually had never placed much credence in this information as she had caught ODIO in so many lies in the past she had lost confidence in what she said.

Mrs. CONNELL noted that once Miss INSUA, the daughter of a Cuban active in Cuban Catholic Charities in Dallas, had told her about two men coming to Miss INSUA's door looking for Miss ODIO who was then also living on Oram Street. Miss INSUA later related that Miss ODIO had told her the two men were from the Cuban underground and wanted her to join their movement.

Mrs. CONNELL stated that Miss ODIO appears to her to be a person who creates things to make herself look important in the eyes of others. She will resort to anything to gain notoriety. She even once disappeared from a local movie theatre where she was attending a movie with her friends, and when her family became concerned over her whereabouts, they called Mrs. CONNELL, knowing she was a friend of Miss ODIO. Mrs. CONNELL called her (ODIO's) doctor and he told Mrs. CONNELL not to worry about her as she would show up after she got the attention she wanted to gain by such a disappearance.

Mrs. CONNELL stated that Miss ODIO would faint and be out for anywhere from a few seconds to hours when she heard something she did not want to hear. She has even fainted in Mrs. CONNELL's home upon being faced with a topic unpleasant to her.

Mrs. CONNELL stated that Miss ODIO used to use tranquilizers abundantly.

She stated that ODIO had two other sisters in the Dallas area. One, SARITA, graduated from the University of Dallas and was recently married, and the other, ANNIE, graduated from high school in Dallas and used to live with SYLVIA ODIO. Mrs. CONNELL stated that the two sisters are just like SYLVIA and apparently suffer from "Grand Hysteria" as SYLVIA does.

Mrs. CONNELL noted that she does not know whether Miss ODIO is still living in the Dallas area, as she has been saying for a year that she was going to move soon to Miami, Florida, with her entire family.

She described Miss ODIO as a very brilliant person who speaks Spanish, English, French, Italian and Portuguese.

JOAQUIN INSUA FERNANDEZ was interviewed at his home, 6223 Oram Street.

INSUA said he is employed with the Catholic-Cuban Resettlement Office in Dallas. He said he knows SYLVIA ODIO and knows that her father is a political prisoner in Cuba at the present time. He said he knew her father in Cuba. At that time the father was engaged in the transport business in Cuba.

INSUA said he has often talked to SYLVIA ODIO because she formerly lived near him on Oram Street in Dallas. He said ODIO is a divorced woman and lives with her children at the present time at another address in Dallas.

INSUA advised ODIO has never discussed with him the assassination of President KENNEDY, nor has she ever related to him that she knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD or had seen him. INSUA said ODIO had never told him that three persons, including OSWALD, had visited her at her home.

MARCELA INSUA, daughter of JOAQUIN INSUA FERNANDEZ, a representative of the Catholic-Cuban Resettlement Office in Dallas, and who is herself a schoolteacher in Dallas, advised she is a Cuban National and a former resident of Cuba. She said she knows SYLVIA ODIO quite well. She advised SYLVIA ODIO at the present time is a resident in Dallas, where she lives with her minor children and where she is employed.

She advised that ODIO has never discussed with her any aspect of the assassination of President KENNEDY or any item related thereto to the best of her knowledge. She said ODIO has never told her that she knew LEE HARVEY OSWALD or had ever seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

MARCELA INSUA said she has had many conversations with SYLVIA ODIO and considers the latter to be a person with a mental disturbance of some sort. She believes ODIO is a sick woman. She said ODIO is the type of person who wants to be someone of importance. She said ODIO in her conversation likes to speak of something of which her listener knows nothing.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date September 8, 1964

JORGE RODRIGUEZ ALVAREDA was interviewed at 1919 Llewellyn Street, Apartment No. 28. This is the apartment of a relative of RODRIGUEZ. RODRIGUEZ advised he is an employee of the Curtis Mathes Manufacturing Company at Athens, Texas, in which town he resides.

RODRIGUEZ explained that he was the first president of the organization known as Junta Revolucionaria Cubana (Cuban Revolutionary Junta)(JURE). He said he had relinquished his post as president of JURE when he moved from Dallas to Arkansas, where he also worked with Curtis Mathes Company. RODRIGUEZ explained he had also been employed with Curtis Mathes in Puerto Rico.

RODRIGUEZ advised that ROGELIO CISNEROS DIAZ, a national officer of JURE, had come to Dallas in late May or early June of 1963 for the purpose of organizing the Dallas branch of JURE. RODRIGUEZ advised CISNEROS had known SYLVIA ODIO, a Cuban refugee in Dallas, as well as SYLVIA ODIO's father in Cuba during the pre-CASTRO days.

CISNEROS, accompanied by RODRIGUEZ, had gone to the home of SYLVIA ODIO to enlist her cooperation in the organization of the Dallas unit of JURE. RODRIGUEZ explained ODIO had assisted in the organization of JURE, but had never been an official of the Dallas unit. She wanted to be the secretary for propaganda. RODRIGUEZ, however, would not allow this because he thought ODIO was too emotional and would, therefore, not make a good officer of the organization.

Concerning ODIO, RODRIGUEZ said that she is very emotional and tends to be unstable. He said she talks incoherently at times and that frequently her conversation has no form or substance. RODRIGUEZ stated ODIO had never related to him that she had been visited by three persons, one of which was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, at her home in Dallas. RODRIGUEZ said that in his opinion ODIO wants to know more about any particular thing than anyone else and frequently will say things which are not true. RODRIGUEZ said for this reason, if ODIO were to tell him she had been visited by LEE HARVEY OSWALD and other persons, he would have a tendency not to believe the story based upon his personal knowledge of her personality and character.

ALENTADO said he is the president of the Dallas unit of the Junta Revolucionaria Cubana (Cuban Revolutionary Junta) (JURE). He said the original president of the Dallas unit of JURE had been JORGE RODRIGUEZ ALVAREDA. He said when RODRIGUEZ left Dallas, he (ALENTADO) became president of the group.

ALENTADO advised a national officer of JURE, ROGELIO CISNEROS DIAZ, had come to Dallas in late spring or early summer of 1963 for the purpose of promoting a Dallas unit of JURE. He said the leader of the Dallas unit had been selected by the national officers and this leader was JORGE RODRIGUEZ ALVAREDA.

ALENTADO said CISNEROS knew SYLVIA ODIO because her father had been a revolutionary leader in Cuba and was known to CISNEROS. On the occasion of CISNEROS' visit to Dallas, he (CISNEROS) and RODRIGUEZ visited at the home of SYLVIA ODIO to enlist her cooperation in the organization of a Dallas unit of JURE.

ALENTADO said ODIO could understand English and Spanish and could be useful in the translation of propaganda material to be used in the organization of the group at Dallas. ALENTADO said ODIO had never been an officer in the Dallas unit of JURE, but had cooperated in the organization of a unit to the extent that she had done some translation work and had been enthusiastic in praise of the organization among the Cubans in Dallas.

ALENTADO said ODIO had many personal problems. He said SYLVIA is a divorced woman with several children and for that reason has the pressing problem of furnishing a livelihood for herself and her children. In addition, certain of the Cuban refugees in Dallas look down upon ODIO because she is a divorced woman, which carries with it a social stigma among Cubans. Furthermore, ODIO is reportedly very close to her father, who is at present a prisoner on the Isle of Pines in Cuba. She worries about her father a great deal.

ALENTADO said ODIO is a great talker and the topics of her conversation cover a wide range. ALENTADO said ODIO talks so much about so many things that he cannot put any confidence whatever in what she says.

ALENTADO said he recalled ODIO had a few weeks ago related a story to him. She said three persons had visited her at her home in the Casa Linda section, and two of these persons appeared to be Mexicans and the third person she believed to have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD. ODIO said these persons talked to her about the situation in Cuba and how JURE was doing in Dallas. ALENTADO said he did not question her extensively about this story because he did not put any confidence in the statements of ODIO.

ALENTADO advised he has no information concerning the identity of any possible pro-CASTRO individuals who might have attempted to infiltrate anti-CASTRO groups in Dallas, such as JURE.

ALENTADO said he had not known LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never seen OSWALD to his knowledge.

FELIX GUILLERMO OTHON PACHO, a Cuban national, who now resides at Dallas, Texas, at 3901 Prescott Street, and is employed by Forrest and Cotton Engineers, Mercantile Continental Building, Dallas, was interviewed at the Dallas Office of the FBI. He said for business purposes he is known as BILL OTHON in Dallas among Americans.

OTHON advised he is a Cuban national and is a refugee living in Dallas. He advised he is the official delegate of an anti-CASTRO Cuban group, Directorio Revolucionario Estudiantil (Revolutionary Student Directory) (DRE). He advised there is no formal organized Dallas unit of the DRE nor has there ever been such an organized group in Dallas to his knowledge. He said the official Dallas delegate for the DRE had previously been SARITA CASTILLO, who has now departed Dallas and is residing in New York where she is employed. OTHON said he had been designated as the delegate of the DRE in approximately September or October, 1963, when MANUEL SALVAT, secretary general of the national organization of DRE had come to Dallas from Miami along with two other persons who are members of the DRE, JOAQUIN PINCILLAS and another person, ANITA (last name unknown). SALVAT designated OTHON as the delegate of the DRE in Dallas for the purpose of organizing a unit of the organization in Dallas. OTHON advised he had worked with the DRE in Cuba and was therefore familiar with the organization. OTHON explained that SALVAT had wanted a male delegate in Dallas instead of a female such as SARITA CASTILLO. OTHON said that because of a lack of students among the Cuban refugees in the Dallas area and because he, OTHON, could not spare enough time to devote to organizational efforts of DRE that the Dallas unit had not been formed. OTHON said he worked at a full time job all day and was attending school at night and for that reason had not been able to devote sufficient time to the organization of the DRE in Dallas.

OTHON said that when MANUEL SALVAT came to Dallas, a meeting had been held in a Dallas bank near the White Rock Lake at which meeting approximately thirty or forty persons attended. Persons in attendance were both

Americans and Cubans. The meeting had been organized by Mr. DEAN PERKINS who was sympathetic with the purposes of the DRE, which purposes OTHON explained were completely anti-CASTRO. OTHON explained that although Americans could not be full members of the DRE, their cooperation was solicited mainly from the standpoint of financial assistance. It was for the purpose of raising money primarily for the organization that the meeting was held at the bank near White Rock Lake.

OTHON said that about two months ago, Mr. DAMASO OLIVO, who is the national secretary of organization for DRE, had come to Dallas from Miami for the purpose of exhibiting a motion picture film entitled, "Cuba de Ayer" (Cuba of Yesterday). This film was exhibited at the Holy Trinity Church in the Oak Lawn section of Dallas for the purpose of raising money for the DRE. Very little money was raised according to OTHON.

OTHON advised that he intended to relinquish his title as delegate of the DRE in Dallas because he cannot spend enough time for the organization and will suggest that another person be designated as delegate. OTHON explained that he does not know SYLVIA ODIO, although he knows of her as he is acquainted with her sister, SARITA ODIO. OTHON further explained that he has never been to the home of SYLVIA ODIO and has never met her to his knowledge. OTHON further explained that he did not know LEE HARVEY OSWALD and never met OSWALD to his knowledge. OTHON said he knows nothing about a reported visit to the home of SYLVIA ODIO by three persons, one of whom was reported by ODIO to have appeared to be OSWALD and the other two of whom are unknown.

PINO stated he is a member of the anti-CASTRO group known as Second National Front of the Escambray (Operation Alpha 66) (SNFE) but does not belong to any other organizations in Dallas.

PINO stated he does not know SYLVIA ODIO and has never met her to his knowledge. He said he remembers that a general reunion of various Cuban refugees had been held several months ago at a picnic ground near White Rock Lake, and that a woman by the name of ODIO had made a short speech at the reunion.

PINO advised he had never been to the home of SYLVIA ODIO to his knowledge. He said he had not visited the home of any Cuban woman along with two other male persons. He advised he had not known LEE HARVEY OSWALD and had never met or seen OSWALD to his knowledge. Mrs. ROBERT D. ROGERS, 3821 Whitehall Road, Dallas, Texas, advised that she has known Miss SYLVIA ODIO for about a year. She stated Miss ODIO's family were acquaintances of friends of her husband's family in Miami, Florida, from pre-BATISTA days.

Mrs. ROGERS stated when Miss ODIO's parents were arrested and put in jail in Cuba by the CASTRO government, Miss ODIO and all of her brothers and sisters were able to get out of Cuba and they all came to the United States. She stated Miss ODIO went to Puerto Rico with her husband and children, but became involved in marital troubles in Puerto Rico and eventually divorced her husband. She understands that the husband actually obtained the divorce from Miss ODIO, but they have some sort of written agreement permitting her to have the children.

She stated that when Miss ODIO arrived in Dallas, Texas, she was quite upset emotionally and has undergone psychiatric treatment at the Southwestern Medical School. For a while she resided with Mrs. ROGERS' brother-in-law, JOHN B. ROGERS, at 4626 Watauga Road in Dallas.

Mrs. ROGERS stated Miss ODIO had stayed a short time with the JOHN B. ROGERS' family due to the family ties that went back beyond the BATISTA days in Cuba. However, when she was able to bring her four children to Dallas from Puerto Rico, she moved into her own apartment.

Mrs. ROGERS described Miss ODIO as a very well educated person who has a typical "Latin" personality, that is, she is very excitable and emotional. However, Mrs. ROGERS stated she is a truthful person, who is not believed to be the type who would make up a story to impress others of her importance. Mrs. ROGERS stated she has never known Miss ODIO to lie to her about anything.

Mrs. ROGERS stated that she has had very little contact with Miss ODIO in recent months and has never heard anything

Mrs. MARJORIE RIGBY, Assistant Manager, Crestwood Apartments, 1080 Magellan Circle, Dallas, advised that her records indicate that Miss SILVIA ODIO resided in Apartment number A at 1084 Magellan Circle from August 1, 1963, until the end of September, 1963 (no date of termination of residency noted).

Mrs. RIGBY stated that there are no present tenants at 1084 Magellan Circle who were residing in that apartment house during the time Miss ODIO resided in Apartment A at that address. Mrs. RIGBY noted that she, herself, has been employed as the assistant manager of these apartments for a long time, but she does not personally recall Miss ODIO. She added that the names of former tenants who have given the Crestwood Apartments trouble in the past are well known to her, but that Miss ODIO's name does not come to her mind in this regard.

Mrs. JAMES MUNSELL, Cliffwood Apartments, 1836 West Davis, Dallas, Texas, advised that she is the wife of the manager of these apartments, and she normally is in charge of the records maintained in the manager's office.

Mrs. MUNSELL stated that SYLVIA ODIO resided in Apartment A at 1816 West Davis, Cliffwood Apartments, from November 1, 1963, until some unknown date in February, 1964. She noted that her last month's rent was paid on February 5, 1964.

Mrs. MUNSELL stated she did not know Miss ODIO as Mr. MUNSELL and she took over the management of these apartments subsequent to March, 1964. She further noted that many of the tenants of the Cliffwood Apartments are of the transient type, and the only present tenant residing in the apartment building at 1816 West Davis, who was a tenant during the period of Miss ODIO's residence at this address, is Mr. WILLIAM HANSEN, who resides in Apartment B at 1816 West Davis Street.

WILLIAM M. HANSEN, Apartment B, 1816 West Davis Street, Dallas, Texas, advised that Miss SYLVIA ODIO and her children were his "across the hallway" neighbors approximately five months from late 1963 to early 1964.

Mr. HANSEN stated that Miss ODIO and his family were not close neighbors but that they did speak to each other occasionally. He stated that Miss ODIO had no close friends in this apartment development and all of her visitors seemed to him to be the "Latin" type, who frequently visited her on weekends. He noted that her visitors spoke entirely in Spanish, and he does not know the nature of their conversations.

Mr. HANSEN added that he has never had any reason to question the mental condition or reliability of Miss ODIO.

Date 9/10/64

JAMES H. DYER, International Co-ordinator, National Chemsearch Corporation, 2730 Carl Road, Irving, Texas, was interviewed in his office at this company.

Mr. DYER stated that Miss SYLVIA EUGENIA ODIO was employed in his office as a secretary from September 16, 1963, until February 10, 1964, when she resigned on her own accord. Mr. DYER stated that Miss ODIO is a Cuban exile whose parents are believed to be in prison in Cuba at the present time. He stated that she is a person with many family problems, as her brothers and sisters are living in the United States at various locations. He stated she is divorced and has four children living with her in Dallas, Texas.

Mr. DYER stated that Miss ODIO has no real close friends with the exception of SHEILA MACOUREK, who worked in this same office with Miss ODIO and himself. Mr. DYER noted that SHEILA MACOUREK was recently married and is now living somewhere in the country of Portugal.

Mr. DYER stated that on the day of the assassination of President KENNEDY, and when the news was received by Miss ODIO in this office, she became very nervous and fainted. She was subsequently taken by ambulance to the local Irving hospital where she was treated.

Subsequently Miss ODIO related to him the story concerning her belief that LEE HARVEY OSWALD, in the company of two other unknown individuals, had visited her apartment one evening prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY, and based upon the impression left with her by these three persons, she thought that they could have been responsible for killing President KENNEDY. Mr. DYER stated that upon hearing this story from Miss ODIO, he became very angry with her because she had not told him about the incident previously, for if he, Mr. DYER, would have known about the visit, he would have contacted the FBI and President KENNEDY would most probably be alive today.

Mr. DYER stated he lost confidence in Miss ODIO in view of this event and decided he would have to let her go. He suggested that she take another job which she decided to do on her own accord. However, Mr. DYER noted that if she had not resigned, he would have dismissed her.

Mr. DYER described Miss ODIO as a very nervous and high-strung individual which he considered "typical Latin type", that is, an easily excitable person. Mr. DYER stated he has traveled and spent many years in Latin America, and he is familiar with the composure of the Latin people. However, Mr. DYER noted that he had never gained the impression that Miss ODIO was untruthful, a prevaricator or suffered from illusions.

[redacted] Professional Center Hospital, 1735 West Irving Boulevard, Irving, Texas, advised that her files contain the complete records of treatment of each patient at this small hospital.

[redacted] stated her records indicate that SILVIA EUGENIA ODIO, 1816-A, West Davis, Dallas 8, Texas, was a patient at this hospital on one occasion and that was from the time of her admission at 4:00 p.m. on November 22, 1963, until her discharge from the hospital around 3:15 p.m., November 24, 1963. The patient was described as a single female, 26 years of age, born May 4, 1937, and an employee of National Chemsearch, Carl Road, Irving, Texas. She listed as her friend one SHEILA MACOURICK, 4222 North Crest, Dallas, Texas.

The hospital records note that Miss ODIO was treated by Dr. LOUIS SHLIPAK, whose final medical diagnosis of Miss ODIO's condition was "Psychophysiologic Vasomotor Reaction."

Dr. SHLIPAK prepared a history and physical report on November 22, 1963, pertaining to Miss ODIO's health and it reads as follows:

"This 25 year old white female was admitted on 11-22-63, after fainting at work. The patient is apparently two months' pregnant, and has been having a threatened abortion. She has been bleeding for approximately four or five days, and at the present time. Approximately three nights ago, she had very heavy bleeding, but this has lessened since that time.

"The patient was in an automobile accident approximately one month ago in which her abdomen was slightly injured. She had bleeding for approximately two days following this. The patient has been under considerable emotional strain, and has been under the care of a psychiatrist.

LOUIS SELIPAK, Medical Doctor, Internal Medicine and Diseases of the Heart, 212 South Main, Irving, Texas, advised that on November 22, 1963, he received an emergency call to go to the offices of National Chemsearch, Irving, Texas, to treat some employee who had fainted.

Dr. SHLIPAK stated he recalls the incident very well as President KENNEDY had just been assassinated and he, himself, was literally ill from this shocking news.

Dr. SHLIPAK stated that when he arrived at the offices of National Chemsearch, he was taken to one Miss SYLVIA ODIO, previously unknown to him, who had apparently fainted upon learning of President KENNEDY's death. He advised she was very nervous and upset, so he ordered her to the hospital in Irving by ambulance.

Dr. SHLIPAK stated he later the same day visited Miss ODIO at the hospital and saw her daily until he authorized her discharge from the hospital on November 24, 1963.

Dr. SHLIPAK stated that during the conversations he had with Miss ODIO, she never discussed or mentioned the name of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She seemed to him to be a person with a great number of personal family problems which were bothering her and which had made her very nervous. Regarding these personal problems, and inasmuch as they had no connection with the assassination of President KENNEDY, Dr. SHLIPAK stated he professionally feels that he is not at liberty to discuss ODIO's family affairs.

However Dr. SHLIPAK stated that Miss ODIO seemed to him to be a mentally competent person.

Dr. SHLIPAK added that he has not treated or heard from Miss ODIO since November 24, 1963.

SYLVIA ODIO advised that she resides with her four small children in a one family house at 4223 West Lovers Lane, Dallas, Texas. She stated that she is currently employed by Knoll Associates, Incorporated, 250 Decorative Center, Dallas, Texas.

Miss SYLVIA EUGENIA ODIO was born on May 4, 1937, at Havana, Cuba. She speaks English fluently.

SYLVIA ODIO noted that she is planning to move with her four children around the end of September to Miami, Florida, where she intends to unite her nine brothers and sisters into one family. She stated she does not have a house located as yet in Miami, but her oldest brother, CESAR ODIO, presently resides at 1600 Southwest 82nd Place, Miami, Florida.

Miss ODIO stated she is from a large family consisting of ten brothers and sisters, namely, CESAR, AMADOR, JAVIER, FREDDY, JORGE, SARA, ANNIE, MARY LOU, CRISTINA and herself. Her parents, AMADOR ODIO-PADRON and SARA DEL TORO, are still in Cuba. Her father is in jail on the Isle of Pines, Cuba, for being an enemy of the Castro Government. Her mother is now in Santiago de Cuba, Oriente, Cuba. She stated that all of her brothers and sisters are in the United States. Several of the younger brothers and sisters are now in an orphanage in Dallas. All of the brothers and sisters will be reunited in Miami, with the exception of one sister, SARA, who recently married JACOB MEIER and who will continue to reside in Dallas.

Miss ODIO stated her father, AMADOR ODIO-PADRON, was active in the Cuban underground assisting CASTRO in the revolution against BATISTA. Her father was exiled twice previously from Cuba during BATISTA's era. After FIDEL CASTRO came to power in Cuba, her father, realizing too late that CASTRO was a Communist, joined the Cuban underground and fought against the CASTRO regime. He and his family used to hide members of the Cuban underground who were fighting CASTRO. One of the persons hidden in their Havana home was MANOLO RAY, now a prominent underground leader and the head of the Junta Revolucionaria, more commonly referred to as "JURE".

ODIO stated that she married GUILLERMO HERRERA, a Cuban, in Havana, Cuba, in 1957. In 1960, her husband, their children and she were able to leave Cuba and went to Ponce, Puerto Rico, via Miami, Florida, where they spent a few days being processed by U. S. Immigration authorities.

She and her family then resided at Ponce, Puerto Rico, until she left for Dallas, Texas, in March, 1963, to join her sister, SARA, who was at that time a student at the University of Dallas. She left her children in Puerto Rico until she could make living arrangements for them with her in Dallas. Miss ODIO stated she had obtained a divorce from her husband in both Ponce and San Juan, Puerto Rico, in early 1963. She stated due to her marital problems, her parents being in jail in Cuba, and her brothers and sisters all scattered throughout the United States, she had developed a nervous condition but same had not effected her mentality, and she does not suffer from illusions.

Miss ODIO stated in regard to previous information furnished by her to the President's Commission regarding the visit to her apartment, around the latter part of September, 1963, of three individuals, one of whom she believes was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, she has the following information to furnish:

She advised that she has tried and tried to definitely determine the exact date these three persons came to her apartment. She stated that she has discussed this matter with her sister, ANNIE, who was in her apartment when these three men came to her residence.

She stated her sister, ANNIE, normally came to her apartment on Friday to baby-sit for her, as she, SYLVIA, normally went out that night of the week; however, ANNIE had come early this particular week, and both she and her sister now believe that she, ANNIE, had arrived on Thursday, September 26, 1963.

Miss ODIO remembers that she moved from her apartment at 1084 Magellan Circle, Casa View, Dallas, Texas, on Monday, September 30, 1963, to avoid having to pay any additional rent for October at this address. She stated she does not go out on Sundays and would have been home on Sunday, September 29, 1963. On Saturdays, Miss ODIO stated that she is normally so tired that she stays home all day and accordingly would have been home on Saturday, September 28, 1963.

Miss ODIO stated that she received the one telephone call from the previous night's visitor, who had identified himself to her as "LEOPOLDO", after she returned home from work. Accordingly, this telephone call would have had to be on either Thursday, September 26, 1963, or Friday, September 27, 1963; however, she stated that Friday, September 27, 1963, would be her best recollection of the exact day.

She stated that the three men, one of whom is believed by her to have been OSWALD, were most probably at her apartment on Thursday night, September 26, 1963. She stated that if it was not Thursday night, September 26, 1963, then it would have been Wednesday, September 25, 1963, but she considers the Thursday date to be the most probable date.

Miss ODIO advised that the Cuban anti-CASTRO group known as the Directorio Revolucionario Estudiantil, more commonly referred to as the "DRE", has never to her knowledge been an organized group in the Dallas area.

She stated that while a resident of Ponce, Puerto Rico, she had attended the organizing meeting of "JURE" held in early 1963 at Juana Diaz, Puerto Rico, a town located near Ponce, Puerto Rico. She stated that she was one of the original members of this organization.

Miss ODIO stated that if the two other individuals who visited her home on the night in question were truly members of the "JURE", then MANOLO RAY, head of this group, should positively know the identity of any such "JURE" member who uses the war name of "LEOPOLDO".

Miss ODIO stated that in her own mind she rather doubts that these two other visitors were actually members of "JURE". She stated that she bases this doubt on the fact that these two unknown men appeared to her to be Mexicans rather than Cubans. She stated that their skin was "olive" colored, which skin tone is common among Mexicans and not among Cubans.

She stated that in their approximately fifteen minute conversation on the night in question, she cannot recall any phrases or words in Spanish used by "LEOPOLDO" or the other man which would indicate that they were not actually Cubans, but instead Mexicans. She noted that she does not recall any idiomatic phrases used by them at that time, as she did not then question their authenticity.

She stated that she would probably have never given much thought to their visit if it had not been for the subsequent assassination of President KENNEDY. When she first heard of President KENNEDY's assassination, at work, on the afternoon of November 22, 1963, she immediately recalled the visit of the three men to her home in late September, 1963, and thought it very possible that they might have been responsible, as one had mentioned that night that President KENNEDY should have been killed by the Cubans.

She stated she became very nervous regarding this possibility and feared that the Cuban exiles might be accused of the President's death and, upon dwelling on this thought, had fainted at work and was taken to the hospital in Irving, Texas.

Miss ODIO emphatically denied that she had ever told Mrs. C. L. CONNELL that LEE HARVEY OSWALD had made talks to small groups of Cuban refugees in Dallas. She similarly denied knowledge of ever telling Mrs. CONNELL that a Cuban associate of hers had called anyone in New Orleans regarding OSWALD, in which this Cuban friend had been advised that OSWALD was a double agent attempting to infiltrate Cuban exile groups.

Miss ODIO stated that a gun seller called JOHNNY MARTIN had spoken before small groups of Cuban refugees in Dallas, and she believes she had mentioned this person's name to Mrs. CONNELL; however, she does not know what Mrs. CONNELL is talking about in regard to the alleged telephone call to New Orleans where a person was discussed who might be a double agent trying to infiltrate Cuban refugee groups.

In reply to a question as to why Mrs. CONNELL would attribute such a statement to her, Miss ODIO stated that, "You would have to be a woman to understand". She stated that Mrs. CONNELL and she had been friends, but due to personal reasons, they had had a falling out. She believes that Mrs. CONNELL in attributing the aforementioned information to her was using a "double-edge knife", that is, she was trying to help in the investigation of the assassination and at the same time was trying to embarrass or get her, Miss ODIO, in trouble.

In regard to the information attributed to her by Mrs. CONNELL, Miss ODIO noted that she most certainly would have mentioned these facts to FBI Agents when they first interviewed her if she had such knowledge of same, as she fully realizes the importance of such information, if true.

Miss ODIO stated she had not previously contacted the FBI with her information about the three visitors who had come to her home in September, 1963, as she had not considered it pertinent at the time and did not want to bother the Government investigative agencies with what they might consider a "nut" complaint when they were undoubtedly so busy with other investigative matters pertaining to the assassination.

She stated that she might have eventually proceeded on her own initiative to bring this incident to the attention of the appropriate authorities, but she still considers her information meager, and even unimportant, due to the very short duration of her conversation with the three visitors to her apartment in late September, 1963.

Miss ODIO stated she still personally believes that it was LEE HARVEY OSWALD who was the third man who accompanied the two self-identified Cubans to her apartment; however, she stated that she has seen so many pictures of LEE HARVEY OSWALD since the assassination of President KENNEDY that she is getting confused on this point at this late date, and added that even though she thinks it was LEE HARVEY OSWALD, it may not have been.

OPEL STINNETT, Report Clerk, Continental Trailways Bus System, 1500 Jackson, Dallas, Texas, advised she is the person who prepares the daily "Open Form" reports on all tickets sold by the Dallas ticket office of this bus line.

Mrs. STINNETT advised that the "Open Form" report lists the destination of each ticket sold during the course of a day at a particular ticket office, and in this case, those sold at the Dallas ticket office of Continental Trailways.

Mrs. STINNETT located the "Open Form" ticket reports for September 24, 1963, and September 25, 1963. She advised after reviewing these daily forms, which are in her own handwriting, that there is no indication that any tickets were sold on these two days at Dallas, Texas, for travel to Laredo, Texas, or beyond into Mexico. She also noted that she had, likewise, checked the "Open Form" reports for September 23, 1963, and September 26, 1963, with negative results regarding the possibility that any ticket had been sold by Continental Trailways for travel from Dallas to Laredo or beyond.

MARCELA INSUA, daughter of JOAQUIN INSUA FERNANDEZ, representative of the Catholic-Cuban Resettlement Office in Dallas, was interviewed with regard to the statement made by Mrs. MARY LUCILLE BASS CONNELL of Dallas. Mrs. CONNELL had reported that Miss INSUA told her that SYLVIA ODIO had related that the two men, who had come to Miss INSUA's door looking for SYLVIA ODIO, were from the Cuban underground and wanted her to join their movement.

Miss INSUA advised she recalls that of the two men, who came to her door looking for SYLVIA ODIO, one was ANTONIO ALENTADO, a Cuban refugee, who lives in Dallas and is known to her. She stated she cannot recall the other person, and it may be that the other person waited for Mr. ALENTADO outside. Miss INSUA said she knows Mr. ALENTADO is a member of some anti-Castro organization in Dallas.

He said he is President of the Dallas unit of the Junta Revolucionaria Cubana (Cuban Revolutionary Junta) (JURE). He said he remembered going to the home of MARCELA INSUA to ask her for the address of SYLVIA ODIO. He said he went to the INSUA house with JORGE RODRIGUEZ, the former President of the Dallas unit of JURE, but he does not recall if RODRIGUEZ went to INSUA's door with him. He said he was informed by Miss INSUA that SYLVIA ODIO had moved from her former Oram Street address to an address in east Dallas. He said ODIO had subsequently been contacted by him with regard to her possible participation in the organization of a local unit of JURE.

The President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY by letter dated August 28, 1964, requested investigation be conducted in order to determine the reputation for veracity of SYLVIA ODIO. Miss ODIO has previously furnished information to the President's Commission regarding a visit to her apartment around the latter part of September, 1963, of three individuals, one of whom she believes to have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD and two other men whom she does not know but who identified themselves to her as members of the Cuban underground movement.

In its efforts to resolve this question of the true identity of the American individual, who had visited her apartment on the night in question and whom Miss ODIO believes was OSWALD, the Dallas Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) has researched its files in an effort to identify any particular individual who might have been in the Dallas area during the period in question in an effort to determine whether it was possibly someone other than OSWALD who appeared with the two men at Miss ODIO's apartment.

The records of the Dallas Office of the FBI reflect that one LORAN EUGENE HALL was arrested by the Dallas Police Department on October 17, 1963, on a charge of investigation for violation of the Dangerous Drug Law. HALL was arrested in the company of WILLIAM HOUSTON SEYMOUR. Subsequent investigation determined that LORAN EUGENE HALL has been active in the anti-CASTRO movement and in 1963 had travelled between Miami, Florida, and Los Angeles, California, making speeches and soliciting funds to finance Cuban exile raids.

In mid-1963, HALL left the Los Angeles area and became active in the organization known as the "Committee to Free Cuba", which is described as a group attempting to raise funds to channel to any legitimate organization attempting to overthrow FIDEL CASTRO.

On November 11, 1963, Dallas T-1 , who is acquainted with various individuals active in anti-CASTRO activities in the Miami area, advised that HALL and WILLIAM HOUSTON SEYMOUR visited Dallas, Texas, in October, 1963, to collect financial donations under the guise of representing an anti-CASTRO organization.

An associate of HALL's is LAWRENCE HOWARD, a soldier of fortune, who also uses the nicknames of "LARRY" and "MEXICAN". HOWARD is described as an individual of Mexican-American descent who,during the summer of 1963, went with HALL to California.

It is noted that SYLVIA ODIO has advised that she believes that the two "Cubans", who accompanied the individual she believes to have been OSWALD to her apartment in September, 1963, were not actually Cubans, but possibly Mexicans.

ODIO has previously noted that the individual she believes was OSWALD spoke only a few words in Spanish to her.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent RICHARD J. BURNETT:

An inquiry was made at the Records Bureau of the Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, on September 15, 1964, to obtain photographs of LORAN EUGENE HALL and WILLIAM HOUSTON SEYMOUR, who were reportedly arrested by the Dallas Police Department on charges of investigation for violation of the Dangerous Drug Law.

Miss JUDY HAHN, Clerk, Records Bureau, Dallas Police Department, advised on that date that her records to not indicate that either HALL or SEYMOUR were photographed by this department at the time of their arrest on October 17, 1963. Miss HAHN checked with the Identification Division of the Dallas Police Department and was advised that they have no record of either HALL or SEYMOUR having been photographed by this department in the past.

On September 21, 1963, LLOYD SANDERS, Identification Division, Dallas County Sheriff's Office, Dallas, Texas, advised that his files contain no reference to either HALL or SEYMOUR.

On September 18, 1964, Mrs. MARJORIE RIGBY, Assistant Manager, Crestwood Apartments, 1080 Magellan Circle, Dallas, advised that her records to not indicate that anyone with the surname of "FERRER", "FERROR" or similarly spelled surname was residing in this apartment development during September, 1963. Mrs. RIGBY stated that the rental records of this development are not kept by apartment numbers or street address, but simply by the name of the renter. She stated that a person by the surname of "FERRER", or similar name, could well have been living with some other tenant, and such information would not have been known to her office.

On September 22, 1964, DONALD TURNER, 4219 West Lovers Lane, Dallas, Texas, advised that he is the owner of the residence next door at 4223 West Lovers Lane. He advised that this house was, until the weekend of September 19, 1964, rented by SYLVIA ODIO. He advised that ODIO resided at this address with her four small children and a younger sister.

Mr. TURNER stated that ODIO's brother came to Dallas from Miami, Florida, stayed a few days, and then returned to Miami with ODIO's four children. He stated that a day or two after their departure, ODIO also left for Miami to take up permanent residency in that city. He added that she left no forwarding address.

On September 22, 1964, an inquiry at Knoll Associates, Decorative Center, Dallas, former employer of SYLVIA ODIO, revealed that she had left Dallas for Miami, Florida, the previous weekend. She left no forwarding address, but had indicated that she would be living with her brother, CESAR ODIO, until she found a permanent residence for herself and her children. It is the understanding of Knoll Associates that Miss ODIO does not intend to return to the Dallas area, but will permanently reside in Miami, Florida.

Under date of September 10, 1964, FBI Laboratory furnished the following information concerning examination requested by the Dallas Office on August 31, 1964:

"Specimens received 9/3/64

"D-251 Hard-cover journal bearing hand printed title on first page "DIARY OF IMPRESSIONS & OBSERVATIONS OF ERIC RITZEK BEGAN SEPT. 5, 1963"

"Result of exmination:

"D-251 was not identified with any of the material contained in the Anonymous Letter File. Appropriate photographs of this exhibit will be added to this file.

"It was not possible to determine if D-251 was all written at or about the same time. It was noted that at least two different ball-point pen inks were used. One blue ink was used from the beginning up to 1/3/64, and a second blue-black ink for the remainder of the journal."

Under date of September 17, 1964, the FBI Laboratory furnished the following information concerning an examination requested by the Dallas Office on August 31, 1964:

Specimens received September 3, 1964

D-251 Hard-cover journal bearing handprinted title on first page "DIARY OF IMPRESSIONS & OBSERVATIONS OF ERIC RITZEK BEGAN SEPT. 5, 1963"

Result of examination:

The submitted specimen, D-251, was examined cryptanalytically and the following determinations effected:

Some of the cryptic symbols following the entry dated October 22, 1963, are copied from electronic symbols. Others may be attempts to generate writing resembling shorthand. No valid meaning could be derived from these symbols.

The entry dated October 24, 1963, may be an attempt to fabricate writing resembling a foreign language. The Latin phrases "In hoc signo vinces" and "per aspera ad astra" are set forth consecutively in the entry. The former quotation means "In, or by this sign thou shalt conquer" and is a motto said to have been adopted by the Emperor Constantine after seeing a vision of the cross. The latter means "To the stars by hard ways" and in the reverse order "Ad astra per aspera" is the motto of the State of Kansas.

The above entry also contains isolated words in Latin, Spanish, German, Russian, and Scandinavian and possibly other languages. Other than mentioned above, no valid meaning was derived from this entry.

The entry following the January 3, 1964, entry appears to be an invalid mathematical formula. The entry on the following page has the appearance of a sketch of a solar system. The first word above the sketch appears to be "moon" but the remaining writing is illegible.

The symbol of the skull with crossed cigarette and pistol with connecting rod appearing on the third page from the end of the written material would appear to be a representation of the views expressed immediately preceding and following the symbol concerning death, cigarette smoking and drivers.

In general, the cryptic entries in the submitted specimen evidence the characteristics of being randomly generated with no valid meaning. These cryptic entries are very similar to entries observed from other sources which are frequently derived from demented minds.

V. BACKGROUND -- INTERVIEWS WITH MARINA NIKOLAEVNA OSWALD, NEE PRUSAKOVA, ALSO KNOWN AS MRS. LEE HARVEY OSWALD; DATA RELATING TO HER AND LEE HARVEY OSWALD; AND INFORMATION CONCERNING OFFER TO MARINA OSWALD TO LIVE AT RESIDENCE OF WALTER NEUNSON, CAMDEN, NEW JERSEY

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at a cabin at Lake Tawakoni, in which she was residing temporarily with PRISCILLA JOHNSON, with whom she is collaborating on a book. She was interviewed in the English language.

MARINA was questioned as to whether to her knowledge LEE HARVEY OSWALD had prepared any written material, such as a letter to her or any other document, prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY on November 22, 1963. It was pointed out to her OSWALD had left a note for her on the occasion that he attempted to assassinate General WALKER, and he had furthermore left his wedding ring in MARINA's room at the PAINE house on the evening before or the morning of the assassination of President KENNEDY.

MARINA said she had made available everything in the way of documents, books and other articles which could be considered pertinent to the investigation of the assassination or the inquiry into OSWALD's background. She stated that to her knowledge OSWALD had not prepared any letters or other documents prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

She was asked if OSWALD had said anything in her presence or performed any act which to her mind would lead her to believe that he intended to perform some act similar to the attempted assassination of WALKER.

She answered that OSWALD's leaving of his wedding ring at the PAINE house and his directions to her to buy needed articles for herself and the children, as well as the fact he visited her on Thursday night instead of his usual week-end visit and told her he would not return to the PAINE house the following day, Friday, were unusual circumstances, but these did not strike her as important incidents in themselves until her reflection upon the things that had happened in the time leading up to the assassination.

She said she had discussed all of these things with the FBI and with representatives of the President's Commission. She said she has sincerely tried to aid in the investigation of the assassination and will continue to do so. She said that to the best of her knowledge she has informed the FBI and the President's Commission of all information which might be of value in this investigation.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

MARINA was questioned as to whether she had ever stated OSWALD had had the intention of killing President EISENHOWER. She stated she had never heard OSWALD make such a remark, nor did she have any information which would indicate OSWALD had any such intention. She said she has no idea whatever as to how such a rumor could have started; that is, that she had said that OSWALD had the intention of killing President EISENHOWER.

MARINA was questioned concerning the reported radio broadcast of OSWALD in Moscow. At the time of MARINA's first visit to Moscow with OSWALD, he referred to his address book to find a name of an individual. It was OSWALD's intention to call this person on the telephone. He showed the name to MARINA. This name she has identified from a photograph of one page of OSWALD's address book which contains the name written in the Latin alphabet, "LEO SETYAEV". MARINA said this written name, as well as the line immediately above it and three lines immediately below it, all of which are written in Cyrillic handwriting, were not written by OSWALD or by her. She said she could not identify the person who performed this handwriting.

MARINA said OSWALD tried to contact this person, but had been unsuccessful. MARINA asked OSWALD who this individual LEO SETYAEV was. OSWALD replied he was a man who had helped him make some money shortly after his arrival in Moscow by assisting him in a broadcast for Radio Moscow. MARINA asked OSWALD what he had said, and he told her he had criticized the United States and said Russia was a better place in which to live. MARINA asked him why he had said this, and OSWALD replied it was necessary to make this propaganda because at the time he had wanted to live in Russia.

MARINA said OSWALD had remarked to her of the visit of LEO SETYAEV to him at the Hotel Metropole in Moscow. MARINA connects this visit to OSWALD by SETYAEV at the Hotel Metropole to the broadcast reportedly made by OSWALD over Radio Moscow.

She advised further SETYAEV had taken a photograph of OSWALD during his visit to the latter at the Hotel Metropole. This photograph is one of the photographs of OSWALD presently in possession of investigators of the assassination as MARINA recalls seeing it. It is the photograph of OSWALD standing in a room, in which he wears a black suit, a white shirt, and a tie. MARINA said OSWALD looks quite serious in the photograph. The photograph is about 5" by 7" in size. MARINA said it was obvious to her OSWALD was quite worried in this photograph because she noticed that a vein was standing out very noticeably on the right side of his face.

MARINA said she does not know anyone by the name of LEO SETYAEV, nor has she, to her knowledge, ever met the individual whom OSWALD said assisted him in the broadcast over Radio Moscow. She said she does not know any member, nor has she ever seen to her knowledge any member, of SETYAEV's family or any person who worked in Radio Moscow.

MARINA was exhibited the following photographs which were obtained from LILLIE MAY RAHM at Ketchikan, Alaska, on August 4, 1964. RAHM is the mother of ANITA MAY SETYAEVA. These photographs are described as follows:

2. Head photo of ANITA MAY SETYAEVA.

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at her residence, 629 Belt Line Road. Present during this interview was DECLAN FORD, who is MARINA's adviser.

MARINA OSWALD was requested to produce for perusal of the interviewing Special Agent all material presently in her possession which may have been the property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, including any writings of OSWALD and any writings to him. She was further requested to produce any items belonging to her, exclusive of personal items such as wearing apparel, which were in her possession as of November 22, 1963. MARINA was also asked to produce any additional correspondence she may have received from the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR) subsequent to the assassination.

MARINA said she does not have, to her knowledge, anything that could be considered solely the property of LEE HARVEY OSWALD as all of his property is presently in the hands of officials concerned with the assassination investigation. MARINA made available for examination various documents, books, photographs and other property, which she said was all of her property, exclusive of personal wearing apparel, which she had in her possession as of November 22, 1963. The property made available by MARINA was examined by the interviewing Agent in the presence of MARINA and DECLAN FORD. The following articles, which might be considered of possible pertinence to this investigation, were taken and a receipt was given to MARINA OSWALD:

(1) Book written in Russian for study of English with note on flyleaf written to MARINA OSWALD by Mrs. RUTH PAINE. Book has blue cover with red lettering.

(2) Book entitled "English" for study by Russian-speaking persons. Book cover has picture of English alphabet.

(3) Book entitled "English in Pictures", which is English primer for Russian-speaking persons.

(4) Book entitled "English" for Russian students of English language for advanced study. Cover has photograph of girl and boy students sitting at a desk.

(5) Russian-Polish dictionary with blue cover.

(6) Three stapled documents, as follows:

(A) Registration card of JUNE OSWALD at Richmond Freeman Memorial Clinic;

(B) Appointment slip for JUNE OSWALD for 11/21/63 to see Dr. CHAPMAN, Richmond Freeman Memorial Clinic;

(C) Dental appointment slip for MARINA OSWALD at Dallas County Health Department, November 20 (Wed.), at 10:00.

(7) Name tag, written in Russian, for JUNE OSWALD at time of her birth.

(8) Photograph of group including Mr. and Mrs. ALEXANDER ZIEGER, ELEANOR ZIEGER, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, MARINA OSWALD, and JUNE OSWALD.

(9) Photograph of ELEANOR ZIEGER and ANATOLE KHOLODOV taken in Minsk, Russia, train station, May, 1962.

By letter dated September 3, 1964, the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY requested investigation to determine if RUTH PAINE was ever a customer in Hutch's Super Market, 2333 West Shady Grove, Irving, Texas, and to obtain from Mrs. PAINE certain additional information concerning her knowledge of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. This letter also requested reinterviews of MARINA OSWALD and MARGUERITE OSWALD along the same lines and, in particular, requested that a determination be made whether MARINA OSWALD, MARGUERITE OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD ever shopped together at Hutch's Super Market on a Wednesday evening sometime during October or November, 1963.

Date 9/14/64

RUTH PAINE, 2515 West Fifth Street, was interviewed at her residence. She said she has resided in Irving for approximately five years and, as best she can recall, she has only been in Hutch's Super Market, 2333 West Shady Grove, Irving, Texas, perhaps once or twice. She said she believes that the only time she ever went into Hutch's Super Market was to buy some milk. She believes that it is possible MARINA OSWALD was with her on one occasion that she went into Hutch's Super Market, but she does not recall whether or not MARINA actually went into the store with her or waited in the car. She said she could not remember the date that she had actually gone into Hutch's Super Market. She said she believes the occasion on which MARINA was with her when she went to Hutch's Super Market was sometime in March or April, 1963, and MARINA was visiting her for the day during the time that the OSWALDs were living on Neely Street in the Oak Cliff Section of Dallas, Texas. She said she cannot recall another specific occasion when she was a customer at Hutch's Super Market, but she has a vague recollection that she may have purchased ice at this store on one occasion.

She said LEE HARVEY OSWALD had never been a customer of Hutch's Super Market, to her knowledge.

She recalls that she passed by Hutch's Super Market on the day she took OSWALD to the Oak Cliff driver examination station because the route she took included West Shady Grove. She is sure that she did not stop at Hutch's Super Market on that occasion.

She said she can recall one occasion on which MARINA fixed a lunch for LEE HARVEY OSWALD which he took with him to work on a Monday morning after he had spent the week end at her house. She said there may have been other occasions but she cannot specifically recall that there were. She believed the one occasion that she can recall in which MARINA fixed a lunch for OSWALD was in late October or perhaps early November, 1963.

She said she had never seen OSWALD drink large quantities of milk or any other liquid. She said she seemed to recall OSWALD liked sweet rolls and would generally eat sweet rolls, if Mrs. PAINE had them, with coffee on the Monday mornings following his week ends at the PAINE house.

Mrs. MARGUERITE OSWALD, 2220 Thomas Place, mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, advised that she does not know if she will answer any questions that the President's Commission may ask, as she had tried repeatedly this past weekend to contact members of the Commission when they were in Dallas, and they refused to answer her telephone calls or to return any calls that she made to them. Mrs. OSWALD said this upset her a great deal, and therefore, she is "very mad" at the Commission; however, Mrs. OSWALD stated for SAS EARLE HALEY and ROBLEY D. MADLAND to ask her any question and she would decide if she would answer the question.

Mrs. OSWALD stated that she had not seen her son, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, for about one year prior to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, until her son's arrest in Dallas on November 22, 1963. Mrs. OSWALD stated further that she did not know anything about her son's activities or his life during the time that he resided in Dallas or in Irving, Texas during the fall of 1963, because she was not in contact with him during that period of time.

Mrs. OSWALD stated that she does not know if her son took a bag of lunch with him to work during October and November of 1963, but would assume that he did not, because of the fact that she understands he was residing in a rooming house in the Oak Cliff section of Dallas, and does not know if he had kitchen privileges.

Mrs. OSWALD stated further that she was never with her son and his wife, MARINA, at Hutch's Super Market in October or November, 1963, and never shopped with them in Irving at any time. Mrs. OSWALD said further that to her knowledge, her son never had a habit of eating cinnamon rolls with large quantities of milk.

Mrs. OSWALD expressed a keen curiosity concerning the location of Hutch's Super Market in Irving, Texas, and stated that she believed that she would conduct her own investigation and possibly contact Hutch's Super Market, because she felt that she could learn a great deal of information, because she was the "sorrowing mother" and that people "just tended to give more information" to her than they would investigators. Mrs. OSWALD said "I am a sorrowing mother", but still more "I am a very good investigator."

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at her home, 629 Belt Line Road. Present during this interview was Mr. DECLAN FORD, who is MARINA OSWALD's adviser.

She was interviewed concerning whether or not she had ever been a customer of Hutch's Super Market, 2333 West Shady Grove, Irving, Texas, and concerning other questions requested by the President's Commission on the assassination.

MARINA said to her knowledge she had never been in Hutch's Super Market at Irving, Texas, nor had her late husband, LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said she does not believe LEE HARVEY OSWALD ever had a check for $189.00 in his possession during the time they lived in the United States. She has no information indicating OSWALD ever tried to cash a check for $189.00 at Hutch's Super Market, 2333 West Shady Grove, Irving, Texas. She stated when she lived at Mrs. PAINE's house, she generally traded at the A and P Grocery Store in Irving, and she went generally with Mrs. PAINE. She said she could recall one occasion on which OSWALD had attempted to cash a check which was refused. She believed this occurred in New Orleans, Louisiana. She was with him on that occasion but was in another part of the store when he tried to cash the check. She believed this was one of the $33.00 unemployment checks which OSWALD received. She cannot be sure of the date. She is sure that OSWALD did not try to cash this check at Hutch's Super Market in Irving, Texas. She stated further she had never shopped at Hutch's Super Market on any Wednesday evening during October or November, 1963, with LEE HARVEY OSWALD and his mother, MARGUERITE OSWALD, as she had never been in Hutch's Super Market, to her knowledge. Furthermore, she does not recall shopping together with MARGUERITE OSWALD and LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She said she does not recall whether or not OSWALD cashed a $33.00 check at the A and P Store in Irving, Texas, or any other place, on October 31 or November 1, 1963.

Concerning whether or not LEE HARVEY OSWALD took lunches to work on the Monday mornings following the week ends which he spent at the PAINE house, MARINA OSWALD advised as follows:

She stated she believed she had fixed lunch for OSWALD on about three occasions. On these occasions, she fixed the lunch at night, put it in a paper bag, and then put the lunch in the ice box. She would usually fix a sandwich, perhaps of cheese, sometimes of chicken, and also put fruit in the bag. She did not get up in the morning when OSWALD left for work. She cannot recall the exact occasions on which she fixed these lunches.

Concerning the question as to whether OSWALD was in the habit of eating cinnamon rolls with large quantities of milk, MARINA said that OSWALD liked sweet rolls but did not ever drink much milk because it was expensive and whatever milk the family had was mostly left for the children. If he drank milk, one glass was the usual quantity taken. He did like milk, however, but never drank it in large quantities, to MARINA's knowledge. She said when she was residing at Mrs. PAINE's house, she did not fix OSWALD's breakfast on the Monday mornings he was at the house and was not aware of what he had eaten, if, in fact, he had eaten breakfast on these occasions. She said she believed, however, he would eat sweet rolls or toast with coffee. She said during evening meals when OSWALD was at the PAINE house, she, MARINA, would fix iced tea for him.

On September 14, 1964, SA RICHARD J. BURNETT clocked the mileage from the house of RUTH PAINE, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, to the Hutch's Food Mart, which is commonly referred to as Hutch's Super Market, 2333 West Shady Grove Road, Irving, Texas, as .8 miles.

There are only two logical ways to walk the route between Mrs. PAINE's residence and the grocery store, and they are as follows:

1. From Mrs. PAINE's residence, 2515 West Fifth Street, east to Westbrook Drive; south to Tenth Street; southeast to 11th Street; east to South Storey Road; and then south to the northeast corner of West Shady Grove Road and South Storey Road, on which corner the grocery store is located. It takes approximately 13 minutes to walk this route at a normal man's pace.

2. From Mrs. PAINE's address, 2515 West Fifth Street, east to South Storey Road, and then south on South Storey Road to the northeast corner of West Shady Grove Road and South Storey Road, takes approximately 14 minutes walking at a normal man's pace.

Date September 18, 1964

RUTH PAINE was interviewed at her residence, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas. She was questioned concerning her contact with WALTER NEUNSON, who reportedly had offered MARINA OSWALD a place to stay at his home. She said she recalled WALTER NEUNSON had called her on the telephone from New Jersey to extend to MARINA through her an invitation that MARINA could come to live at his home with his family. She stated she considered NEUNSON's offer to be very generous and that she thought it might have been good for MARINA to live in a large Eastern community where there would be more Russian-speaking persons. She said she had written a letter to MARINA not too long after the assassination to tell MARINA of the offer of NEUNSON, as well as financial offers from other persons. She said she cannot recall now whether she returned NEUNSON's call or if he called her a second time. She said she recalled NEUNSON said MARINA had met his son, EDWARD. She did not discuss this point further with NEUNSON and cannot add anything in this regard. She did not receive an answer from MARINA with regard to her letter telling of NEUNSON's offer. She said she had had no prior contact with NEUNSON and had not been in contact with him since the two occasions noted above.

Mrs. PAINE advised the notations on the back of one of the envelopes containing a letter written by her to MARINA OSWALD, which notations are "Maria Martin AD 9-56-42 Marina Kataya Ford", are not her notations. She said she recognized the name "Kataya Ford" as the name of MARINA's friend, Mrs. DECLAN FORD, whom she, Mrs. PAINE, also knows. She does not know anything about the name "Maria Martin" or the telephone number "AD 9-56-42". She presumes the name "Marina" refers to MARINA OSWALD.

MARINA OSWALD was interviewed at a cabin in which she was staying with PRISCILLA JOHNSON, her collaborator on a book. During this interview, Mr. DECLAN FORD, adviser to MARINA, was present. PRISCILLA JOHNSON was not present.

MARINA was questioned concerning Exhibit D-248, which is comprised of two letters in the Russian language directed to MARINA by RUTH PAINE; D-245, a letter in the Russian language directed to the OSWALDs from PAVEL GOLOVACHEV; D-247, a handwritten letter in the Russian language to the OSWALDs from "OLYA" and "KOLYA"; and D-246 and D-247, which are letters to MARINA from GALINA KHONTULEVA.

MARINA said she recalls receiving the letter from RUTH PAINE, which furnished information that a Mr. WALTER NEUNSON had offered a place to live to her. She stated she did not know this Mr. NEUNSON and had never written him nor talked to him on the telephone, nor had she received any letters from NEUNSON. She said she had not answered RUTH PAINE's letter concerning NEUNSON. She advised she recalls that RUTH PAINE said NEUNSON told her that MARINA had met NEUNSON's son, EDWARD. MARINA said she could not recall this "EDWARD".

Concerning a person named "EDWARD" whom she had known in Russia, MARINA stated she recalled one young man named "EDWARD" whom she met in Leningrad, Russia, on Russian Revolution Day, November 7 or 8, 1960. She said on this occasion, she was with a young man acquaintance, OLEG TARUSIN, and they were in attendance at a dance at one of the buildings of Leningrad University. She was introduced to this young man, whose name was "EDWARD", and she danced with him. The next day she recalls she visited the apartment of this "EDWARD" with her friend, OLEG TARUSIN. There was no one else in the apartment on that occasion except the three of them to the best of MARINA's knowledge. She said she cannot recall this "EDWARD's" last name or anything else about him except his appearance. She said "EDWARD" was dressed well in clothes which appeared to be other than Russian in origin. She said he was handsome and had a thin appearance. His eyes were dark and he had dark blond hair. She did not see him again after these two occasions.

MARINA stated she could think of no other person named "EDWARD", who might possibly be identical with the son of WALTER NEUNSON named "EDWARD".

MARINA said the writing on the reverse side of one of the envelopes, which contained one of the above-mentioned RUTH PAINE letters, which writing is "Maria Martin. AD 9-56-42 Marina Kataya Ford", were notes made by either her or JAMES HERBERT MARTIN. She said she would have to examine the handwriting to determine who prepared it. She said the name "Maria Martin" referred to her, MARINA, as this was the name under which she had a joint account with JAMES HERBERT MARTIN of moneys which had been donated to her. She said the telephone number AD 9-5642 is the telephone number of her friend and adviser, DECLAN FORD. It will be noted that this telephone number presently is that of DECLAN FORD. She said the name "Marina" pertains to her and the name "Kataya Ford" refers to her friend, Mrs. DECLAN FORD.

MARINA said she has not received any correspondence from PAVEL GOLOVACHEV subsequent to the assassination. The only correspondence she has received from Russia since the assassination have been the two letters from GALINA KHOMTOLEVA.

She said the person mentioned in Exhibit D-247 - VALERIK VINOKUROV - was a friend of hers in Russia. She said VINOKUROV is a young man about her age who lives in Minsk with his parents. His father is Vice President of the Academy of Science of Belorussia, in Minsk. She does not know his father's name. VINOKUROV was one of the group of friends with whom MARINA associated in Minsk just prior to the time she was married. She stated VINOKUROV was attending the Polytechnical Institute in Minsk at the time she knew him.

She stated that "LYALYA", who is mentioned in the letter labeled Exhibit D-247, is identical with LARISSA PETROVANA PETRUSEVICH, who is another of her friends in Minsk. MARINA considered PETRUSEVICH to be one of her best girl friends.

MARINA advised that she has copies of Exhibits D-246 and D-244, which are the letters from KHONTULEVA noted above.

The report of Special Agent ROBERT P. GEMBERLING dated February 11, 1964, on page 100, sets forth long distance telephone calls charged to telephone number BL 3-1628, listed in the name of MICHAEL R. PAINE (husband of RUTH PAINE), 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, during the period October 29, 1963, through December 18, 1963. A review of such telephone calls fails to reflect that any one of them was to telephone number WO 4-0357, Camden, New Jersey, which, according to Exhibit D-248, is the telephone number of WALTER NEUNSON.

1 Date 9/23/64

Mrs. RUTH PAINE was interviewed at her home, 2515 West Fifth Street on September 22, 1964. She made available a letter to her from Mr. WALTER NEUNSON, 909 North 24th Street, Camden 5, New Jersey. Mrs. PAINE said that in the previous interview had with her concerning NEUNSON, she had not been sure she had received a letter from NEUNSON, and if so if she had retained it. She said she had searched through her personal files and had found the letter and desired to make it available for examination and consideration in connection with this investigation. She said she desired this letter be returned to her when it had served its purpose. She explained the letter had been written to her following the previously mentioned telephone call made to her by NEUNSON in which he invited MARINA OSWALD to reside with him in his home.

The letter is written on two sides of one sheet of paper and is without an envelope. It is quoted verbatim as follows:

"Walter Neunson
909 N 24th St
Camden, 5 N.J.

"11-28-63

"Hello Dear Mrs. Ruth Paine

"After talking to you on phone I talk to my wife, told her that Mrs. Marina was not living in your home. So I will write you and hope you will help in some way. I am sending letter for Mr. Marina Nickoloivna Oswald. I wrote to her in Russian so she will under stand the situation. I wrote her, asking her to give me her answer on my letter what she want to do; My wife and rest of the family wanted her to come. I talk to some of the Russian families they are here about 5 year they also said it

DECLAN FORD, adviser to MARINA OSWALD, furnished the following information:

He said that in anticipation of the release of the President's Commission report, MARINA OSWALD had been interviewed by representatives of the three major radio-television networks, ABC, NBC and CBS. These interviews were filmed. Mr. FORD said the interviews with CBS and ABC had been given free by MARINA, but upon being approached by NBC, MARINA had requested $10,000 for an interview, and had finally settled with NBC for $5,000, which was paid her and the interview was made and taped. Mr. FORD said these interviews are to be released immediately following the issuance of the Commission's report.

Mr. FORD also advised that PRISCILLA JOHNSON, the person with whom MARINA is collaborating on a book, intends to proceed with MARINA OSWALD to a relative's house in Santa Fe, New Mexico, upon the issuance of the Commission's report in order that MARINA will not be bothered by newsmen and, thereby, distract her from her attention to the preparation of the book.

Mr. FORD advised he would keep the FBI advised as to the whereabouts of MARINA.

Mrs. RUTH PAINE, 2515 West Fifth Street, Irving, Texas, was interviewed at her place of residence.

Mrs. PAINE stated that she recalls that in the one letter that she had received from WALTER NEUNSON, 909 North 24th Street, Camden, New Jersey, which was dated November 28, 1963, NEUNSON had commented in his letter that he was sending another letter written in Russian to MARINA OSWALD. Mrs. PAINE stated that this latter letter to MARINA OSWALD was enclosed in Mrs. PAINE's letter from NEUNSON.

Mrs. PAINE stated that she sent the NEUNSON letter for MARINA OSWALD, as well as the envelope which enclosed her letter and MARINA's letter from NEUNSON, to MARINA through the Irving Police Department, who was acting as the intermediary between herself and MARINA OSWALD for a short period of time subsequent to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mrs. PAINE stated that she does not have this letter from NEUNSON to MARINA OSWALD and does not know its present whereabouts, unless MARINA has it herself. She noted that MARINA OSWALD had never discussed this particular letter with her.

Mrs. PAINE added that she does not know the nature of the contents of the letter from NEUNSON to MARINA OSWALD.

Mr. DECLAN P. FORD, friend and adviser of MARINA OSWALD, 14057 Brookcrest, Dallas, Texas, telephonically advised that MARINA OSWALD as of this date is staying in seclusion with her writer, Miss PRISCILLA JOHNSON, at the home of a relative of Miss JOHNSON's in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Mr. FORD identified this relative as DAVID DAVENPORT whose telephone number is "505-9820817". The "505" is the Area Code number for Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Mr. FORD stated that he suggests that when contacting MARINA OSWALD at this Santa Fe telephone number, that the Agent ask to speak to Miss JOHNSON, and not to ask for MARINA OSWALD. He continued that the Agent should then identify himself to Miss JOHNSON and explain to her the purpose of the call.

Mr. FORD continued that to the best of his knowledge, the present whereabouts of MARINA OSWALD is unknown to the news media who have been trying to locate her and interview her regarding the published report of the President's Commission.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to my letter dated October 1, 1964, which enclosed copies of four memoranda revealing results of interviews with Commission staff members and others.

Enclosed are two copies each of two memoranda captioned "Jack L. Ruby; Lee Harvey Oswald" and "Lee Harvey Oswald" both of which are dated September 29, 1964, New Orleans, Louisiana. These memoranda contain the results of an interview with Mr. Leon D. Hubert, Jr., former staff member on the President's Commission.

I will continue to furnish results of this investigation as received.

Sincerely yours,

RE: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY, 11/22/63, DALLAS, TEXAS

Re San Antonio tel and airtel to the Bureau dated 10/5/64.

Referenced airtel enclosed for the Bureau and Dallas copies of Texas Attorney General WAGGONER CARR's report on the assassination.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are 2 copies of an article appearing in the Final Edition of the San Antonio Express, a daily San Antonio newspaper, on 10/6/64. Enclosed herewith for Dallas is 1 copy of that article.

The article is entitled, "State's Report on KENNEDY Assassination Made Public," and has the byline of JON FORD. It is datelined Austin. In addition to synopsizing CARR's report on the assassination, the article contains comments of Attorney General CARR, Governor JOHN CONNALLY, and others. It has been determined from the Texas Attorney General's office that CARR's report is the first and only report made by him and is a supplement to the report of the President's Commission. It is not a summary report of a larger report. The 17 volumes mentioned in the enclosed article consists of reproduced copies of correspondence, exhibits, and statements, according to the Texas AG's office.

Memorandum

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI (62-109090)

DATE: 10/9/64

FROM : SAC, MILWAUKEE (62-1243)

SUBJECT: THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

Re Bureau airtel 9/30/64

On 10/7/64, GERALD HANSEN, 2736 North Downer Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, who said he worked in a factory of the American Motors Corp., Milwaukee, employed there since April, 1959, gave the following information to SA GEORGE V. HUEBSCH. HANSEN personally appeared in the Milwaukee Office. HANSEN brought with him the "New York Times," of 9/28/64, which published the "Warren Commission's Report" which appeared to be a verbatim copy, though unannotated, of the first 806 pages of the report of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

HANSEN made specific reference to the last of the four columns appearing on the newspaper's page 39A, the three last full paragraphs there, beginning, "On September 14, Oswald sailed with his unit for the South China Sea area ..." The three specific paragraphs appeared on pages 684 and 685 of the report.

HANSEN explained that he was an ex-Marine and had been interested in OSWALD ever since the assassination, though he never previously approached any local, state, or federal official about his concern. He pointed out that the three paragraphs seemed imprecise about OSWALD's whereabouts after OSWALD arrived in San Francisco on the US NS Barrett 13 days subsequent to 11/2/58. The report specifically said that OSWALD "on November 19 ....took 30 days leave" and did not speak as though OSWALD's activities were not known until the subsequent December 22, when, according to the report, he was at the Marine Corps air station in El Toro.

HANSEN said that it was certainly about that time, probably in December, 1958, that he himself served as a Marine at the Lake Meade Base, Las Vegas, Nevada. He said he went on leave that month, probably the day after Christmas, and that shortly before he did so, the following incident occurred involving a man who might have been OSWALD - if OSWALD was ever stationed at the Lake Meade Base.

One of the supply clerks at the Lake Meade Base during that month was a man whose description closely fit OSWALD, and HANSEN's curiosity about him was aroused when he heard the supply clerk addressed by a surname other than the surname "BENJAMIN," which appeared on the man's utility shirt. HANSEN asked what the man's real name was. He directed his inquiry to one R. G. ACKERMAN, another Marine on the base, whose first name might have been RONALD.

ACKERMAN told him that the man's last name was not "BENJAMIN" but "HARVEY"; but, ACKERMAN added that though the man was using the surname of "HARVEY," his real surname was "OSWALD."

HANSEN said he subsequently verified the fact that the man was using the surname of "HARVEY" when he heard the company commander, Captain VERNON S. MUNSELL, address the man as "Corporal HARVEY." In addition, HANSEN later saw the man wearing a utility shirt with the surname "HARVEY" stamped on it.

HANSEN added that somebody mentioned that the man in question, the supply clerk, was from Texas; and he recalled that "HARVEY" came to him shortly before he went on leave, asking HANSEN to sign a delivery receipt for some GI garbage cans. HANSEN had refused to sign the receipt because he was no longer acting, he said, as property sergeant, inasmuch as a replacement had been designated for him in view of his coming leave.

The most significant fact about the man at the Lake Meade Base, who HANSEN thought might be LEE HARVEY OSWALD, was the fact that HANSEN associated that man with a reported incident of homosexuality about the same time.

HANSEN said he knew almost nothing about the homosexual incident. He believed he had been told of it by a Sgt. HATFIELD, whose home state was Oklahoma, or one Corporal TIPKE, who came from the State of Washington. Sgt. HATFIELD had served in Headquarters Supply at the Marine base.

In any case, the story, or rumor, as HANSEN remembered it, was generally to the effect that one Marine had reported to his Sergeant that another Marine owed him $20. The debt was incurred, the man told his Sergeant, in a homosexual affair. The Sergeant thereafter reported it to his own superiors and not long afterward the three men who were supposed to have been involved in the matter all left the base, transferred or discharged. One of them was the man who might have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD. Another was a battalion clerk, whose name HANSEN did not know; and the third HANSEN thought could have been the Marine with the surname "BENJAMIN."

HANSEN also claimed that the supply clerk who served with the clerk who might have been LEE HARVEY OSWALD, was R. R. ACKERMAN. HANSEN said he himself had served in the Marines from October, 1957 to March, 1959, under Marine service number 166-48-19.

HANSEN added that R. G. ACKERMAN, who originally identified "BENJAMIN" to him as a man with the surname "HARVEY" or "OSWALD" was a Milwaukeean who formerly worked for Square D in Milwaukee, attended Spencerian Business College in Milwaukee, and had joined the Marines in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee is taking no action in this matter, other than forwarding the information herewith to the Bureau and Dallas. Milwaukee is unable to assess the accuracy or pertinance of HANSEN's story.

FBI Reportedly Disciplined Two

By JIM LEHRER
Staff Writer

Copyright, 1964, The Dallas Times Herald

Disciplinary action was quietly taken several months ago against the two FBI agents who were in charge of the Lee Harvey Oswald case in Dallas and New Orleans prior to the assassination, The Times Herald has learned.

Unimpeachable sources said the moves resulted in the demotion of the Dallas agent and the ordered transfer of the man in New Orleans. The agent there refused to take the disciplinary transfer, however, and quit the FBI.

The Dallas man supervised the section known as a "desk" in FBI parlance. Under his jurisdiction came such persons as Oswald, as a former defector to Russia.

The New Orleans man, who now works as an investigator for a private firm, was assigned to the Oswald case while Oswald lived in New Orleans.

The actions against the two agents, both veterans of more than 20 years government service, reportedly occured sometime in late spring. The FBI, as is its normal practice, has made no announcement concerning them.

J. Gordon Shanklin, special agent in charge of the Dallas FBI office, was out of the city Tuesday. His representative in Dallas said the FBI had no comment on the story.

The New Orleans man, reached by The Times Herald in New Orleans Monday, also declined comment. He confirmed only that he had been employed by Southern Research Co. there since May 1, the day he left the FBI.

The Dallas agent, as a supervisor, was on the second level of command in the Dallas FBI office behind the special agent in charge and the assistant special agent in charge.

RETURNED TO DUTIES

Since the demotion, he has returned to duties as a regular agent handling rutine out-of-the-office investigative chores. Another agent was promoted to replace him as supervisor.

The demotion meant a drop in pay of more than $1,000 a year for the Dallas agent.

On Nov. 22, and for several years before that, he was in charge of all intrnalsubv ersion investigations in the Dallas office.

The New Orleans agent, as a subversion expert, conducted the New Orleans aspects of the Oswald investigation. His part in the case is mentioned on page 437 of the Warren Commission report which was released Sunday.

Sources said the FBI ordered the agent transferred to Springfield, Ill. in April, but that he declined the move. Since he had the requir3d time to be eligible for retirement, he retired from the FBI rather than go to Springfield.

According to the Warren Report, neither agent testified before the commission nor gave depositions.

Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

This letter confirms a telephone conversation of this date between Mr. Norman Redlich of the Commission staff and Special Agent Cortlandt Cunningham of your Bureau.

Mr. Redlich requested that the rifle used in the assassination be tested outdoors to determine whether a flame is visible from the muzzle of this weapon when it is fired. If possible, we would like this test to be performed on Monday, September 21, 1964.

We further request that the results of this test be forwarded by telephone either to Mr. Redlich or to Mr. Howard P. Willens of the Commission staff and that the results then be confirmed by letter.

Your cooperation in the work of the Commission is appreciated.

Sincerely,

J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel

Honorable J. Lee Rankin
General Counsel
The President's Commission
200 Maryland Avenue, Northeast
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

In your letter dated September 19, 1964, you inquired as to whether any flame was visible at the muzzle of the 6.5 mm Mannlicher-Carcano rifle, Serial No. C2766 when this weapon was fired under daylight conditions.

The rifle was fired both in direct sunlight and in full shade and no flame was visible. A small amount of white smoke was visible; however, the pale orange flame from burning gases emitted from the muzzle would be visible only at night or in a darkened room.

The results of these tests were furnished by telephone to Mr. Norman Redlich of the Commission staff on September 21, 1964.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

At 11:35 a.m. today, H. Bartlett Wells of the Department of State called and referred to Bureau's letter to State of 9/23/64 in the Oswald Case in which we asked for the views of State concerning the advisability of the FBI's declassifying the report dated 5/18/64 prepared by the Legat, Mexico City, on Oswald. (This was a result of a Warren Commission request of the Bureau). Wells wanted to know whether we desired his answer today or whether State should wait and send it over Monday. He was advised that if he had the answer at hand we would accept it telephonically and he could confirm his remarks by letter.

Wells advised that State's reply would be, "The Department of State considers that the declassification of the 5/18/64 report so that it might be included in that portion of the Warren Commission Report which will be released to the public would not be likely to occasion harmful repercussions between the Government of Mexico and the United States, consequent upon public disclosure of the material in question. Thus, if the FBI sees fit to accede to the Commission's request of 9/22/64, the State Department will have no objection."

ACTION:

For information. As indicated above, Wells said that State's position will be furnished the Bureau by letter.

RE: OSWALD

A Mr. Robert Adams, Deputy Assistant of State Inter-American Affairs, who was taken to Washington by Ambassador Mann, called Anderson today. He had copy of 5/18/64 summary letter memorandum on case and stated he saw no objection of declassifying the document. He called from Washington. Anderson feels pages 122 and 124 could hurt them down there if it was declassified or published. He took no position but feels personally it should not be declassified. Adams called 12:45 Mexico City time.

A four-page handwritten letter and two photos.

Translator's Note: the letter and inscriptions on photographs are written in very bad, broken Russian and contain numerous errors. The writer's grammar is so poor that in places it was not clear what the writer wanted to say and had to be surmised. Errors in name in salutation underlined.

The city of Penza in or near which the writer says his son works is not in the Urals, but in the Volga region.

Hello, esteemed Marena Nikolaivnaya,

Excuse me for troubling you. I wanted to get you on the phone but was unable to do it. I asked Miss (sic*) Ruth Paine where you lived; she told me that she did not know where you are now. I gave her my address and telephone number, so that she could give them to you and you could phone me and discuss your situation and where you think you will stay. When I learned about you and the children, you cannot imagine how I felt. I am very sorry for you and the children and that you are in such a bad situation. I talked with other Russians here. They say that you should come directly here. We have 175 Russian and Belorussian families here. In short, it will be good for you here, I assure you; and there will be work. There is work for women here, paying $1.15 - $1.25 an hour. My daughter is working; she has two small children; she receives $1.25 an hour. If you wish to come here, I will send you money for the ticket. Leave that place as soon as possible. I would not advise you to go back to the USSR; therefore (sic*) I remained here. I was in Moscow and Leningrad six months and returned to America. I own two houses and my wife also works. She (also*) says that you should come to us. She is a very fine person and could teach you many things. Here you will have peace and be close to the people of your own nationality, the Russian people. I will be like a father to you and, I assure you, I will be good to the children, too. I would ask, if you decide to come, to let me know by telephone. Mrs. Ruth Paine (the woman where you lived) — she will help you to come here. She will put you on a plane, directly (going*) here, Camden, in the State of New Jersey. You can also write to me. You may telephone me at my expense. Leave soon, so that the children would not catch cold, (because*) afterwards the weather will be cold. Take care of the little one. Do not worry about your things - you will acquire new ones here. People here are not like those over there. I understand your situation; that you do not even know whom you can trust. I also went through an experience like this a long time ago and I understand your situation. Now, about myself. I am from the USSR, from the city of Voronezh, Voronezh Region. I worked (or "work") in a foreign department (sic) as a technician and interpreter. My son and daughter, too, are now in the USSR. My son is employed as a chief engineer in the Urals, in the city of Penza (or "near Penza"). I came from the USSR after (?) 1958 and have been living here ever since. I shall be waiting for a reply from you by letter and telephone. I am home from work at 5 p.m. I am sending you my card with my address and telephone number. I wish all of the best to you and the children; hurry up and come here. You can come to us at any time. Only let us know, when you are ready to go; when you will arrive in Camden and I will meet you. Do not tell journalists and other people. You know, they only write sneeringly. Our people in the U. S. are not like that; am I right? I will conclude on this for the time being. My wife and daughter say, "let her come soon." Your children will be provided for; they will not starve. Think it over well. If you wish to know more, write and I will write about it to you. But better come; then you will see it will be good for you here, as I have already told you. I will be truly like a father to you. I am waiting for a reply from you.

SUBJECT: Dr. Vincent P. Guinn
Neutron Activation Analysis

In my memo dated September 21, 1964, you were advised of the erroneous press releases attributed to Dr. Vincent P. Guinn, Technical Director of the Activation Analysis Program of General Atomic Division of General Dynamics Corporation, San Diego, California. These press releases inferred that Dr. Guinn was knowledgeable of the results of the neutron activation analysis conducted on the Oswald casts and implied that he worked with the FBI on the analysis.

Since Dr. Vincent P. Guinn is an Atomic Energy Commission, (AEC), contractor, Dr. Spofford G. English, Assistant General Manager for Research and Development, AEC, was contacted on September 18, 1964, by Special Agent John F. Gallagher of the Laboratory, who expressed the Bureau's concern for the erroneous statements attributed to Guinn. Dr. English advised that AEC was also concerned and he agreed to contact Guinn as soon as practical and advise him of both the Bureau's and AEC's concern of the erroneous releases relating to the neutron activation analysis conducted on Oswald's casts.

Attached hereto is a copy of a letter from Dr. Vincent P. Guinn dated September 25, 1964, sent to the editors of the New York World Telegram and Sun, New York City, New York, in which he vigorously denounces their erroneous reporting. "It is the worst job of reporting I have ever seen..." "Your version was shot full of atrocious misstatements. Worse yet, the writer had the gall to make up his own statements, then put them into alleged direct quotations attributed to me."

From a reading of Dr. Guinn's letter, it appears that Guinn has the firm conviction that he was misquoted and is taking action to set the record straight.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to you in regard to an article that appeared in the August 28, 1964 issue of your newspaper, which has just been brought to my attention. It is entitled, "Radioactivity Aids Oswald Probe", is labeled as a United Press International report, datelined Glasgow, August 28, and is apparently based on a paper I presented in Glasgow, Scotland on that date at the August 27-28 International Conference on Recent Advances in Activation Analysis.

In my opinion, the person who is responsible for the version that you published should be thoroughly bawled out — it is the worst job of reporting I have ever seen. My paper was reported quite accurately in several European newspapers; your version is shot full of atrocious misstatements. Worse yet, the writer had the gall to make up his own statements, then put them into alleged direct quotations attributed to me. This is reporting of the worst kind. The person responsible for that article must be, in my opinion, either grossly incompetent or highly unscrupulous, or -- more likely -- both. He apparently was much more interested in making a spectacular report than in making an accurate report. I have cited some specific erroneous statements contained in his article below.

(1) That General Atomic did not work with the FBI on the Kennedy case. We offered to, immediately after the assassination, but our offer was not taken up by the FBI. We did carry out test firings with an identical type of rifle, on our own, in conjunction with the Los Angeles Police Department, and made NAA measurements on paraffin casts from this study which yielded valuable information. This information was passed on to the FBI with the recommendation that they undertake NAA of the "used" Oswald casts, which by that time had apparently been turned over to the FBI. We understand that they acted upon this suggestion, but we at General Atomic had no hand in their measurements, and have no knowledge of their results.

(2) The statement, "I cannot say what we found out about Oswald because .....", is an entirely false "quotation" put into my mouth by your writer. "We" didn't find out anything about the Oswald casts, because we never did any work on them whatsoever. I have never so much as seen the Oswald casts, nor has any member of my NAA group. This was made abundantly clear in my Glasgow report. Your writer either garbled the facts presented, or chose to ignore them to make a "better" story. His false use of quotation marks is especially reprehensible.

(3) The statement, "Then we took the casts of Oswald's cheek and.....", is totally manufactured by your writer. As I made completely clear in my Glasgow presentation, we never did anything whatsoever with the Oswald casts. The statement, "We found no barium but we found antimony....." is an almost accurate statement of what I said about the results we obtained from test firings of a similar Italian rifle (not the one used in the assassination) following NAA measurements on hand and cheek paraffin casts after they had first been processed by the usual chemical test. Again -- extremely sloppy reporting.

I have cited above only the three most glaring errors and misstatements contained in the August 28 article you published. It is also full of other inexcusable inaccuracies of lesser import. All in all, I think your newspaper should hang its face in shame for publication of such garbled and erroneous nonsense. A brief statement of correction published by you in the near future would be most welcome.

Very truly yours,

Vincent P. Guinn, Technical Director
Activation Analysis Program

Enclosed is one copy of a newspaper article appearing in "The Dallas Morning News", Dallas, Texas, October 2, 1964, reflecting that Congressman-at-Large JOE POOL had stated in a speech before the Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit's central zone regional conference at Dallas on October 1, 1964, that Congress will investigate the lack of liaison between the FBI and other law enforcement agencies prior to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

POOL is quoted as stating that the House Un-American Activities Committee "has always offered complete cooperation to the FBI in releasing information from our files. It is unfortunate that this has not always been a 2-way street."

The article continues that earlier in the day Governor JOHN CONNALLY and Colonel HOMER GARRISON of the Texas Department of Public Safety had also scored the lack of liaison between federal agencies. Colonel GARRISON is quoted as stating, "I firmly believe that if the information on subversives in this area had flowed down through proper agencies to the Dallas Police Department, the terrible assassination would not have occurred."

The above is furnished for the Bureau's information.

Pool Vows Probe of Breakdown

Congressman-at-Large Joe Pool promised Thursday that Congress will investigate the lack of liaison between the FBI and other law enforcement agencies prior to the assassination of President Kennedy.

Speaking before the Law Enforcement Intelligence Unit's central zone regional conference at Holiday Inn Central, Pool said the House Un-American Activities Committee—of which it is a member—"has always offered complete cooperation to the FBI in releasing information from our files."

"It is unfortunate that this has not always been a 2-way street," he said.

Earlier in the day, Gov. John Connally and Col. Homer Garrison of the Department of Public Safety also scored "the lack of liaison between federal agencies" in speeches before some 120 law enforcement officers representing 10 states and the District of Columbia.

Gov. Connally said he was reluctant to cite the assassination as an example.

"But the need for more liaison and cooperation between federal agencies in that case is apparent," he said.

Connally also urged officers to continue to foster exchanges of information between intelligence agencies on the state and local level.

Col. Garrison told the group: "I firmly believe that if the information on subversives in this area had flowed down through proper agencies to the Dallas police department, the terrible assassination would not have occurred."

NOTE:

Marina Oswald belatedly in late 8/64 furnished Dallas a letter to her shortly after the assassination from Ruth Paine by which Paine forwarded to her a letter in Russian from a Walter Neunson, a Security Index subject of Newark. Neunson, who has a Russian wife and three children in Russia, offered to take Marina and her children in his home and he stated that his son, Edward, met Marina in Russia. When questioned about the Neunson correspondence, Marina said that she received hundreds of letters immediately subsequent to the assassination which she has not read and which she still has at her home in Richardson. She said that her advisor, Declan Ford, also has some of these letters. Dallas was previously instructed to ask Marina to produce copies of all communications received by her subsequent to the assassination from Russia. It is possible that among the letters in question there may be other letters of interest to us; hence, it is advisable for Dallas to look at them.

On 9-10-64 Mr. J. Lee Rankin of the President's Commission advised that a letter had been received from Congressman John R. Pillion, Republican from New York. Mr. Rankin stated that while many of the items in the letter were of no interest to the Commission, there were certain items concerning which he desired the Bureau to interview the Congressman. He also stated that he had talked to the Congressman concerning the letter and the Congressman was willing to be interviewed by the FBI.

A review of the letter sent to the Commission by Congressman Pillion discloses that the Congressman was of the belief that Oswald was definitely a tool of the communist conspiracy and that Oswald was greatly influenced and motivated by his communist ideology, training, associations and objectives. In his letter, Congressman Pillion stated that if the Warren Commission excludes communism as the prime motivating factor, then their report would, in effect, provide a "cover up" and a "white wash."

A review of Bufiles discloses that we have had limited though friendly relations with Congressman Pillion who is serving on the Appropriations Committee.

On 9-16-64 Congressman Pillion was interviewed by Agents of the Washington Field Office in the presence of his Administrative Assistant, Russell A. Rourke. The results of this interview were incorporated in a memorandum dated 9-17-64. During the interview Congressman Pillion stated that all of his statements in his letter to the President's Commission were based on public source data, including magazine articles, newspaper articles and the "Washington Report," which is a publication of the American Security Council, Washington, D. C. Congressman Pillion said that he has no confidential sources and that his conclusions were arrived at from reading the aforementioned publications.

During the interview, Congressman Pillion stated that he did not like the thought of the Commission possibly trying to place any blame for President Kennedy's death on the FBI, the Secret Service or the Dallas Police Department. Instead, he felt the blame for the assassination should be placed on the communist conspiracy. Congressman Pillion had no direct evidence of any association of Oswald with communism or the KGB (Committee of State Security).

The memorandum containing the results of the interview was furnished to the Commission by letter 9-18-64.

On 9-21-64 Supervisor Oberndorf, WFO, advised that Russell A. Rourke, Administrative Assistant to Congressman Pillion, had telephonically requested to be furnished a copy of the Congressman's interview.

RECOMMENDATION:

If you agree, Inspector Malley will contact Mr. Rankin and advise him that we have received this request from the Congressman and unless Mr. Rankin his some objection, it is our intention to furnish the Congressman with a copy of his interview with Bureau Agents. A copy of WFO's memorandum incorporating the interview is attached for reference purposes.

WASHINGTON 25, D.C. 20535

September 17, 1964

LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - R - CUBA

It will be recalled that the Honorable John R. Pillion, Member, United States House of Representatives, directed a letter to the President's Commission dated September 10, 1964. The President's Commission requested that Congressman Pillion be interviewed concerning certain data in his letter. The specific items about which the Congressman was to be questioned were underlined with the request to determine from him the basis or proof of each of the underlined items.

On September 16, 1964, Congressman Pillion was interviewed in his office in the House Office Building, Washington, D.C., in the presence of his Administrative Assistant, Russell A. Rourke, by representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

When the purpose of the interview was explained to the Congressman, he stated that he had talked to Mr. Rankin of the President's Commission who had indicated that the Congressman's letter would be placed in the "Archives" and not in the Commission's record. Mr. Pillion also stated that he could not see any point to the interview, that since it had been reported that the investigation had been completed, the interview would serve no useful purpose. However, since he wished to cooperate in such an important matter, he said he would answer any questions raised by the Commission as to his letter.

As an explanation for his letter, he stated that from what he had read in newspapers and periodicals he thought that about eighty per cent or more of the Commission's investigation would deal with events subsequent to the assassination; for example, with such items as the determination of blame on various government or local agencies. That meant to him that not enough of the investigation would deal with the motivation of Oswald, which motivation he thought was communist inspired as indicated in his letter to the Commission. He also stated that he did not like the thought of the Commission possibly trying to place any blame for President Kennedy's death on the FBI, the Secret Service or the Dallas Police Department. Instead, he felt the blame for the assassination should be placed on the communist conspiracy.

ENCLOSURE

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

In his letter Congressman Pillion stated that the anticipated conclusions of the Commission as related in news reports would absolve internal and international communism from complicity in and guilt for the assassination; that these anticipated conclusions were contrary to the known facts. By known facts he said that he meant the background data of Oswald which has appeared in various publications and public source material, which to him painted a picture of a dedicated communist thoroughly trained and indoctrinated by the communists and Soviet Secret Police or KGB; that the assassination by Oswald would be one result of such training. He thought the blame for the assassination should be placed on the communist conspiracy and the Soviet Secret Police whose doctrines and teachings were directed toward world domination through assassination, sabotage, and all other means short of armed conflict.

In his letter the Congressman stated that American official and private investigative agencies have been silenced during this nine month period and, further, that the Commission's inquiries have suppressed the free flow of available information and prevented the American public from rendering a true and balanced judgment as to the communist role and involvement. The Congressman stated that by these statements he meant that the American people had been promised by the President the results of the FBI's investigation; that the results have not been published to date; that the FBI was not permitted to divulge any information from its reports; that independent investigations by Congress, the State of Texas, by county and city authorities, and even private individuals, had also been stalemated by the priority of the Commission. As a result of this, in his opinion, the Commission had, in effect while not intentional, suppressed any other source of information to the American public in this regard. He reasoned that the communists were using this delay to direct blame for the assassination on the rightist groups, rather than the leftist groups. In this respect, he cited Oswald's reported contribution of two dollars to the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), which to him meant Oswald was a member of that group. He thought that Oswald's connections with the ACLU had not been fully explored; that such exploration would tend to prove his leftist leanings and would fit in with his reported communistic background. He explained that his office had telephonically contacted the ACLU some time ago and was informed that the two dollars forwarded by Oswald was a contribution; that normally for such contribution he would have in time been mailed a membership card. He added that he had not seen published any elaboration on possible connection of Oswald and the ACLU, and it was his understanding at the time of his contact in the past with the ACLU that no investigative inquiry had been made at the ACLU concerning Oswald.

With regard to his statement that Oswald voluntarily became associated with the Soviet Secret Police, known as the KGB, he indicated that his source for this statement was a publication of the American Security Council, possibly unrecalled magazine articles, and published material in general on the case.

The Congressman also stated in his letter that following Oswald's arrival in Moscow the KGB arranged press conferences to publicize Oswald's defection. He also stated that the KGB provided Oswald with a job in a sheet metal shop of a radio factory in Minsk, which job was a sham "cover" job. The Congressman stated that the source for these statements was the "Washington Report" of the American Security Council dated March 16, 1964, entitled, "Background for Assassination." This report is the same as the publication of the American Security Council to which reference has been previously made.

With regard to his statement that Marina Oswald was "planted" by the KGB and induced to marry Oswald as part of a KGB operation, he stated that he indicated in his letter that this was a probability, hence conjecture on his part. He added that from his public source research of KGB methods of operation, this would seem to be a distinct possibility in his opinion. The Congressman also stated in his letter that the grant of an exit visa to Oswald and to his wife, Marina, was a most extraordinary Soviet act. He also stated that there could be no question but that Oswald and Marina were considered by the KGB to be potential agents for either specific or future assignments. He said that he based these statements on the fast service that the Oswalds reportedly received on their exit visas, and on comments reported in the previously described the "Washington Report" of the American Security Council.

Concerning the statement that the KGB had allowed Oswald to engage in target practice and shooting during his more than two years stay in Minsk, he stated that any KGB direction would be conjecture on his part consistent with his previously outlined thoughts regarding his understanding of KGB operations; that Mrs. Michael Paine of Irving, Texas, told his office about Oswald engaging in target practice with a rifle while in the Soviet Union. Mrs. Paine in turn received that information from conversations with Marina Oswald and the subject. The Congressman believed that the Reference Section of the Library of Congress, upon inquiry, was the source of his statement that the use of a rifle and practice privileges were absolutely forbidden by foreigners in the Soviet Union. He also mentioned that Mrs. Paine had advised hearing from either Marina or Oswald that Oswald had practiced "dry sighting" with a rifle in New Orleans. The Congressman explained that his office had telephonically contacted Mrs. Paine about three times last June or July.

The Congressman stated in his letter that a KGB directed school in terrorism, sabotage and assassination is located in the Minsk area. He said that the source of this statement was research at the Library of Congress which indicated that there was such a school at Minsk. Since Oswald was at Minsk and such a school was in the same vicinity, it seemed logical to Mr. Pillion to assume that Oswald received training there at such a school. He added that he had indicated in his letter that this receipt of specialized training and indoctrination from the KGB by Oswald during his extended assignment in Minsk was an assumption.

With regard to the statement in his letter that "Oswald's mind and body was only an instrument for death, manipulated by sinister sources and vicious men," he meant no specific individuals but rather meant communists in general, or the KGB, since he assumed the KGB was involved in the direction of Oswald's activities.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Regarding the statement that Oswald became a cold, calculating, professional, paranoid killer who was intimately associated with the communist apparatus, this was a conclusion of the Congressman. Based on his experience in the past of observing communist techniques as a judge and practicing attorney, augmented by his interest and knowledge in and of communist conspiracies from youth, Oswald, in his opinion, fitted the classic pattern of the antisocial dedicated communist. The Congressman said he had no direct evidence or knowledge of any actual association of Oswald with any communist apparatus.

The Congressman indicated in his letter that Oswald made a number of trips to Mexico, where he consorted with communists. He also indicated in part that Oswald gravitated precisely to Mexico, not once, but on several occasions. In regard to these statements, the Congressman stated that he had no information indicating that Oswald had made more than one trip to Mexico. With regard to Oswald consorting with communists, it was his opinion that the fact Oswald visited the Soviet Embassy in Mexico would tend to substantiate such a statement. He pointed out also that there had been efforts made by some unrecalled individuals and organizations to seek out information concerning communist groups in Mexico but such efforts to his knowledge had been thwarted although it was commonly conceded that such groups did exist in that country and that Mexico was conceded as a hotbed for communist activities.

The Congressman also stated in his letter that Oswald was trained to kill for an attainment of a political objective. The Congressman related that this would appear to be self-evident because Kennedy was the President; Nixon was a former Vice President; Walker was a member of a rightist group; and Connally was a Governor. He stated that Oswald's action would fall into what he feels is a communist pattern of political assassinations. Since he previously expressed his opinion that Oswald fitted the classic pattern of a communist, the Congressman was of the opinion that Oswald's actions would have been communist-motivated, hence the reason for the statement in his letter that the sole and whole incitation and motivation of Oswald in all these killings and attempted killings were the communist ideology and the Communist Party world apparatus.

The Congressman also indicated in his letter that there was an abundance of direct evidence linking Oswald to the Soviet Secret Police and further that evidence already available establishes Oswald's close association with the Soviet Secret Police and other communist agencies and terroristic groups. The Congressman said that he had no direct evidence of any such connection between Oswald and the groups described. He stated that he believed there was a great deal of circumstantial evidence to warrant such a statement such as Oswald's background, his residence in Russia, his probable association with the KGB, the statements in the published portion of his diary, the information set forth in previously described reports of the American Security Council, his participation in such organizations as the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, and his contribution to the ACLU. He said that while this evidence described would not satisfy legal requirements, he felt it was sufficient to be logically correct and in that sense, evidentiary for all other purposes except legal purposes.

Among the conclusions in his letter the Congressman indicated that Oswald's assassination of President Kennedy was part of a pattern of political assassinations and criminal anarchy; that in this homicide, Oswald was wholly influenced and motivated by his communist ideology, training, associations and objectives. He further concluded that the circumstantial evidence was sufficient to exclude to a moral certainty, any other hypothesis, except that Oswald assassinated President Kennedy to advance the world communist plan designed to ultimately destroy the United States and the free world. The Congressman also concluded that the lack of available direct evidence does not exclude the reasonable presumption that the KGB indoctrinated, trained and prepared Oswald as a professional specialist for future use as an assassin or terrorist. With reference to these conclusions, the Congressman stated that these would logically follow from his answers to the questions posed to him and which are set forth previously.

He again reiterated that he had no direct evidence of any association of Oswald with communism or the KGB.

At the conclusion of the interview Congressman Pillion requested that his letter of September 10, 1964, to the Commission be included in the record of the Commission. He also mentioned that he might produce a paper similar to his letter of September 10, 1964, but dealing mainly with his thoughts on the connection of the subject and the American Civil Liberties Union.

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

This reviews pertinent portions of the on-the-record testimony before the Commission of Robert ~~I.~~ Bouck, Agent in Charge of Secret Service Protective Research Section, and of Chief James J. Rowley and responds to the Director's inquiry as to why we did not previously check Bouck's testimony.

Page 458 of the Commission's report records that Bouck expressed belief that the accumulation of facts known to the FBI should have constituted a sufficient basis to warn the Secret Service of the Oswald risk. This statement does not accurately record Bouck's testimony on this point and is definitely out of context. Bouck testified that Oswald's status as a defector would have been of no consequence to the Secret Service. Under questioning of Commissioner McCloy and Counsel Stern, he enumerated several factors developed re Oswald's background, two of which were not known at the time of the assassination and said that if all that information had been furnished, plus the fact that Oswald worked on the parade route, Secret Service would have "looked at that." He emphasized that he did not know that the FBI was aware of all the information about which he spoke and he expressed the opinion that this information was scattered through many Federal agencies.

Bouck did not make any statement to the effect that the Bureau should have furnished its information to the Secret Service at the time of the assassination. Elsewhere, he admitted that Secret Service had no written criteria defining threats to the President; that none of the known factors concerning Oswald in themselves indicated danger to the President; and that the agency knows of "tremendous numbers of people who are bad people that we don't keep an eye on."

Chief Rowley, when asked what Secret Service would have done had Oswald's name been submitted to him at the time of the assassination, said "If...we had this present criteria, then we would investigate him." Rowley hedged his answer and did not directly reply to Commissioner Dulles' inquiry and the matter was dropped. Rowley previously testified that there were no written criteria defining danger to the President; that written criteria were prepared and extended subsequent to the assassination. It was to the latter criteria he referred when answering Dulles' question as to what they would have done on 11-22-63.

Bouck testified on 4-23-64 and the Director has inquired why we did not check his testimony previously.

From the inception of this investigation, it has been our intention to render full and complete cooperation to the Commission. In the early stages, it was clear from information furnished by Rankin that the Commission did not desire to release to investigating agencies any of the testimony taken by the Commission from outside sources. Rankin confidentially and in general terms advised Malley in April, 1964, of some statements made by Bouck and unnamed Secret Service representatives. When pressed for specifics by Malley, Rankin became somewhat disturbed and said he was not at liberty to furnish the desired information. At the time, we weighed carefully the advisability of making inquiry at the Secret Service for we regarded it likely that such inquiry would get back to Rankin and cause him to distrust us. We decided then to talk to Rowley without indicating that our information came from the Commission or its staff and we so advised Rankin. To have asked to see testimony of Secret Service officials would have indicated to Secret Service that the source of our information was from within the Commission. For this reason, we did not seek out the actual testimony.

Furthermore, we did not want the Commission to gain the impression that we were endeavoring to thwart its wishes by way of attempting to gain access to information it did not want us to have at the time.

ACTION:

Foregoing is for information. Pertinent pages of Bouck's testimony attached.

Mr. Bouck. That is the total file that we looked into.

Mr. Stern. On a national basis?

Mr. Bouck. The total two or three files we looked into would encompass about that many people.

Mr. Dulles. All right. That gives me just what I was asking for.

Mr. Stern. In point of fact, Mr. Bouck, when you looked at the check-up control file and the trip index file before the Dallas trip how many names were, in fact, reported for the areas in Dallas where the President was to visit?

Mr. Bouck. We found no uncontrolled people in the trip file for Dallas. All of the cases in Dallas were controlled to our satisfaction. We found also in the check-up file no uncontrolled individuals that we thought warranted an alert for Dallasfr. Dulles:- Did you ask the FBI or any other local agency for any cases they might have?

Mr. Bouck. Yes, sir.

Mr. Dulles. In connection with the trip?

Mr. Bouck. In fact, they referred several cases to us in connection with the trip, right prior to the trip on the local level.

Mr. Dulles. On the local level?

Mr. Bouck. On the local level.

Mr. Mc Cloy. Being as objective as you can be under the circumstances, what would you have done if the FBI had told you there was a man named Oswald in Dallas who was a defector, had been a defector?

Mr. Bouck. I think if they had told us only that, we probably would not have taken action. If I might qualify it further, if we had known what all of the government agencies knew together, and know that he had that vantage point on the route, then we certainly would have taken very drastic action.

Mr. McCloy. If they had told you that there was a man named Oswald in Dallas who had been a defector who was employed at the Texas School Book Depository?

Mr. Bouck. Yes, sir, we would have looked at that.

Mr. McCloy. You would have looked at that?

Mr. Bouck. Yes, sir.

Mr. McCloy. Knowing that the Texas School Book Depository was on the President's route?

Mr. Bouck. On the President's route.

Mr. Stern. Would it have made a difference to you if he was a legitimate employee of that institution?

Mr. Bouck. Well, not from our standpoint of having us look at it. I can't predict too well what the field office would have done after they looked. It would depend on what they found out, but the field office would have checked that. We would have asked them to check it and they would in fact have checked it not knowing what conclusions they would have arrived at, I don't quite -- I am not quite able to predict just what measures they would have taken.

Sen. Cooper. May I ask a question on this point? Have you examined your records since the assassination of President Kennedy to determine if the name Lee Oswald appears in your files?

Mr. Bouck. We have never had it prior in any connection, ever in our records.

Sen. Cooper. I gathered from what you said in response to Mr. McCloy's question you do not keep any special file relating to defectors?

Mr. Bouck. No, sir.

Sen. Cooper. In this country?

Mr. Bouck. Not unless there is something much more to it than the fact they defected.

Sen. Cooper. Then in the case of Lee Oswald from your statement that you do not keep any file on defectors, if you had known about his presence there, what would have been the cause then for you to have taken special notice of him ?

Mr. Bouck. The key there would have been a defection plus a knowledge that he had a vantage point on the route. These two together would have required action.

Sen. Cooper. The point I make is, and this again is arguing after the fact, if the fact he was a defector, plus a vantage point would make you take notice of him it would seem to me it would be very substantial evidence to have in your file that he was a defector, wouldn't you think so?

Mr. Bouck. Well, again, this is part of this big study that we are in. We never before do we know, I think of a defector who did anything like this so we are not quite sure that defection in itself is a key to an assassin. However, that combined with certain things, knowing that he had a vantage point would have caused us to look.

Mr. Stern. Were there any other characteristics of Oswald that you believe to have been known to other Federal agencies before November 22 that would have been important to you in deciding whether or not he was a potential threat?

Mr. Bouck. Yes. I think I have supplied you with a list of about 18 things that were known to the Federal agencies, but these, I believe, were spread from Moscow to Mexico City in at least four agencies, so I am not aware of how much any one agency or any one person might have known.

But there was quite a little split of derogatory information known about Oswald in this broad expanse of agencies.

Mr. Stern. Without respect to any such list, what other characteristics, trying as much as possible to avoid hindsight, do you think were germane to determine his potential danger?

Mr. Bouck. I would think his continued association with the Russian Embassy after his return, his association with the Castro groups would have been concern to us, a knowledge that he had, I believe, been court-martialed for illegal possession of a gun, of a hand gun in the Marines, that he had owned a weapon and did a good deal of hunting or use of it, perhaps in Russia, plus a number of items about his disposition and unreliability of character, I think all of those, if we had had them altogether, would have added up to pointing out a pretty bad individual, and I think that, together, had we known that he had a vantage point would have seemed somewhat serious to us, even though I must admit that none of these in themselves would be, would meet our specific criteria, none of them alone.

But it is when you begin addin g them up to some degree that you begin to get criteria that is meaningful.

Sen. Cooper. I am sure you have answered what I am going to ask but I will ask it anyway. Then it is correct prior to the assassination the Secret Service had no information from any agency or any source --

Mr. Bouck. That is correct.

Sen. Cooper. --relating to Lee Oswald?

Mr. Bouck. That is correct.

Mr. Stern. I believe you said earlier, Mr. Bouck, that before Dallas you thought the liaison arrangements were satisfactory and that other Federal agencies, in particular, had full awareness of the kind of information that the Secret Service was looking for under the general criteria that you articulated?

Mr. Bouck. Yes, sir.

Mr. Stern. Now then, do you think Oswald -- you were not notified of Oswald. Was there perhaps something wrong with the system?

Mr. Bouck. This, of course, is opinion. In my opinion, there was no lack of knowledge of what we should have. Insofar as I know no individual knew enough about Oswald to judge him to meet our criteria of presenting a danger to the President. I know of no individual who knew all about Oswald, including the fact that he had a vantage point on the route.

If that is so, I don't know. I didn't know.

Mr. McCloy. Somebody in the FBI knew it, didn't they?

Mr. Bouck. I have no record to know that. They knew certain information. I have no record that would indicate they knew all of the derogatory information.

Mr. McCloy. I don't know I would say they knew all the derogatory information but they certainly knew the vantage point and they certainly knew the defection elements.

Mr. Bouck. I know they knew he was in Dallas. Whether they recognized that as being on the route, I don't know that.

Mr. McCloy. I think the record shows he was employed there, or the deposition shows.

Mr. Bouck. I don't know that.

Mr. Stern. Is it of key importance to what you say now that the information on Oswald before the assassination to identify his vantage point, if you would take that away from the other characteristics does he then not become a threat?

Mr. Bouck. He would not meet the criteria of a threat as we had it at that time, if you take that away.

Mr. Stern. And the criterion was --

Mr. Bouck. That there be some specific indication that a possible danger to the President existed.

Mr. Dulles. Off the record.

(Discussion off the record.)

Mr. McCloy. Back on the record.

Mr. Stern. Well, Mr. Bouck, if the pivotal ingredient is his employment at that depository, is that because that showed some, to your mind, some intention, some a desire to be on the route, because access to the route --

Mr. Bouck. No, it relates him to the President. This, I think if all the information that was known about him, indicates that he was a pretty untrustworthy individual, I think there was no indication that that untrustworthiness might be of a danger to the President until you associated that he had a vantage point where he might use it toward the President.

There was nothing previous that indicated that the President might be an object of this, and --

Mr. Stern. As far as any of us know, any citizen had pretty much the same sort of access to the parade route. Is there any difference --

Mr. Bouck. We would feel the same way if we knew this much derogatory type of information about any citizen if we knew he had a particular vantage point on a route.

Mr. Stern. But a citizen, possessing all the characteristics you believe to have been known about Oswald but not having access through employment or residence or some comparable relationship to the parade route, would not have been of concern to you under the criteria and practices in effect at the time of Dallas, is that what you are saying?

Mr. Bouck. I think a little broader than that. Access of any kind, working in a hotel or any point where he might have unusual access.

If you broaden the question to that, I would say that is what I am saying.

Mr. Stern. Unusual access?

Mr. Bouck. Yes.

Mr. McCloy. If I might intervene here, if I understand it. I don't know whether it is good but it is speculation and conjecture in it, I don't know if you will get far with it, if you probably had known all the derogatory information that you now know was accumulated in all of the agencies of the government irrespective of where this fellow was in Dallas you might have kept your eye on him.

Mr. Bouck. Again, that would be speculation. I don't know. It wouldn't be normal. It wouldn't fit within our normal category unless we knew he was -- he had a vantage point. We know of tremendous numbers of people who are bad people that we-don't keep an eye on.

Mr. McCloy. Yes, but suppose you knew these men, or suppose you encountered some of these, I am told there are 18 others, wouldn't you have been somewhat negligent if you didn't check up to him when he got to the vantage point in Dallas?

Mr. Bouck. If we had checked up, I don't know whether we would have gone beyond that.

Mr. McCloy. I don't suggest that but you might have kept him under surveillance.

Mr. Bouck. We would have taken note of this.

Mr. Stern. Would that have been true if he had not been known to be living in Dallas, if his last known address was New Orleans?

Mr. Bouck. If he had not been living in Dallas we would not have checked on him in this trip even with the other information.

Mr. Stern. Suppose he had been living in Fort Worth?

Mr. Bouck. Well, if we had known he were living in Fort Worth that would be the same as Dallas, to us. When we speak of a city we speak of the driving distance or the commutable distance to a city.

Mr. Stern. We will move very quickly to questions concerning Oswald and I would like to go back now and cover the details of your file search and other FBS activity for the Texas trip, the total Texas trip, and if you would starting with the first date

Similar dissemination will be made of subsequent volumes of the Commission's report when available. These subsequent volumes contain the completed testimony of all witnesses who appeared before the Commission or gave sworn depositions or affidavits, the accompanying documentary exhibits and other investigative materials which are relied upon in the report.

The field and/or Legats are being instructed to answer all inquiries with a "no comment" and to refer the matter to the Bureau for appropriate instructions, if necessary. Indexing will not be done in the field but at the Seat of Government.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the attached All SACs and All Legal Attaches airtel be approved, advising a copy of the report will be sent them under separate cover and instructing how to handle inquiries upon receipt,

2. Upon approval of the above, that the Administrative Division make appropriate arrangements to disseminate the reports as indicated above,

3. That the Administrative Division make similar dissemination of subsequent volumes of the report when available.

4. That the Files and Communications Division thoroughly index the Commission's report and subsequent volumes relating thereto, when received.

THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

Under separate cover you will be receiving one copy of the above Commission's report. Dallas and New Orleans will receive three copies each.

Subsequent volumes of the Commission's report containing backup material, etc., will be furnished to you when available. You should not index the report or subsequent volumes as this will be done at the Bureau.

Inquiries received concerning the report should receive a "no comment" from you and referred to the Bureau. Those inquiries obviously not requiring a reply should be submitted with a recommendation that no further action will be taken UACB.

Those inquiries appearing to require a reply should be similarly sent, however, should include your specific recommendation as to how the particular inquiry should be answered and if readily available, reference should be made to the volume and page of the Commission's report relating to the inquiry in question.

You should be guided by the nature of the inquiry as to the means of referring it to the Bureau.

One copy of all inquiries should be sent to Dallas by continental field offices including Anchorage, Honolulu, and San Juan. Legal attache referrals should be prepared so that one copy can be disseminated to Dallas by the Bureau.

In response to your inquiry, this is to advise that we have not to date seen the testimony before the Commission of Secret Service Chief James J. Rowley or of Robert I. Bouck, Agent in Charge of the Protective Research Section of that agency. The facts, as we know them concerning Secret Service testimony before the Commission, follow:

On 4-13-64 Rankin told Inspector Malley that unnamed Secret Service representatives told the Commission that Secret Service would have had Oswald under surveillance in Dallas 11-22-63 had they been furnished information concerning his activities. On 4-17-64 this was discussed with Chief Rowley who was shocked and indignant. Rowley said that at no time was any question raised by the Commission concerning a possible surveillance of Oswald and that the only persons who could speak for Secret Service in that regard were himself and Bouck. Rowley said flatly that Secret Service would make no statement that Oswald would have been placed under surveillance as there was no information indicating the possibility of physical violence on his part. He said, therefore, Oswald would not have been placed under surveillance and he added that had Secret Service checked the School Book Depository Building they would have taken no action concerning Oswald as he was employed in the building.

On 4-23-64 Bouck of Secret Service testified before the Commission and on 4-24-64 Rankin told Malley that Bouck told the Commission some action probably would have been taken concerning Oswald had Secret Service been advised of his activities prior to the assassination. Rankin said that the 3 Commission members present during Bouck's testimony did not "buy" it and felt that Bouck was being evasive and attempting to look after his own position in the Secret Service.

Bouck's testimony on 4-23-64 followed the assurance of Chief Rowley on 4-22-64 that he would brief Bouck on the official position of Secret Service, namely that they would not have placed Oswald under surveillance even if they had information he was in Dallas in view of no history of physical violence and that had they checked the School Book Depository building they would have taken no action concerning Oswald as he was an employee there.

You (Belmont) testified before the Commission 5-6-64 and the Director presented his testimony 5-14-64. Chief Rowley testified before the Commission 6-18-64. Prior to testifying, Rowley asked to be permitted to review that portion of the Director's testimony and your testimony which related to Secret Service. He was permitted to see that testimony on 6-15-64 and at his request, Rowley on 6-17-64 personally met with the Director the day before he testified.

On 9-25-64 Inspector Thomas Kelly offered to furnish to Malley the transcript of the testimony of Agent in Charge Bouck.

As the full testimony of the Secret Service officials will not be made public for some time, it would be of interest for us to see exactly what they said to the Commission.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that Liaison request Secret Service to furnish us with the already offered testimony of Agent in Charge Bouck and the testimony of Chief Rowley.

PURPOSE

To recommend the attached All SACs and All Legats airtel be approved and disseminated to the field.

DETAILS

Although the President's Commission Report on the assassination of President Kennedy has been published, it is anticipated complaints and allegations will continue to be received. We intend to investigate each and every such complaint and allegation thoroughly.

The Commission was requested by letter to advise us to whom our investigative results should be disseminated after the Commission terminates. However as of this date no reply has been received.

It is felt the field should be put on notice that this matter will continue to be closely followed by the Bureau and they should be advised as to the administrative handling of investigation conducted.

ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY
11-22-63, DALLAS, TEXAS
MISC. - INFO CONCERNING

Although the President's Commission's report on the assassination of President Kennedy has been published, it is anticipated complaints and allegations will continue to be received concerning the assassination. These complaints, allegations and the like must continue to be appropriately investigated and the results reported.

Miscellaneous-type complaints and allegations will be reported under the above caption by Dallas, the office of origin (Dallas file 89-43), while information specifically relating to Lee Harvey Oswald will be reported under the caption "Lee Harvey Oswald, aka., IS - R - Cuba," Bureau file 105-82555, Dallas file 100-10461.

Investigative results should be prepared in accordance with existing Bureau reporting procedures with the exception that 25 copies of inserts and FD-302s, where necessary, should be furnished to Dallas for incorporation in subsequent reports under the applicable captions.

It cannot be emphasized too strongly that thoroughness of investigation is absolutely essential. It will be the responsibility of the office first receiving the complaints or allegations or to whom the Bureau first refers a matter for investigation, to conduct a thorough inquiry and promptly initiate logical investigation where necessary. Meticulous care must be taken in preparing investigative results to preclude the necessity of Dallas' making corrections and/or revisions.

Those matters received, which would appear to require prompt dissemination, should be submitted to the Bureau and Dallas in a letterhead memorandum without property stamp. In those instances where investigative results are furnished by letterhead memorandum, inserts need not be submitted to Dallas. Any question which should arise with regard to the appropriateness of disseminating information, should be resolved in favor of submitting a letterhead memorandum at which time a decision as to dissemination will be made or further instructions issued.

NOTE:

This is being sent in order to reiterate prior instructions and to remind our offices and personnel that this matter will continue to be closely followed by the Bureau. The Commission has been requested to advise us to which authority our investigative results should be furnished when the Commission finally terminates all its activities. As of this date we have not been advised; however, all results will be incorporated in report form and disseminated to the Commission or its duly designated authority.

JACK L. RUBY
LEE HARVEY OSWALD

It will be noted the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy previously has been furnished the results of investigation conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation with regard to the unauthorized disclosure to the news media of the testimony of Jack L. Ruby before Chief Justice Warren. It is recalled that in connection with that prior investigation, it was determined the transcript of the testimony of Ruby had been reproduced by a commercial reporting agency, Ward and Paul, on or about June 18, 1964, at the direction of the Commission.

Hereinafter are the results of investigation conducted at Ward and Paul with regard to the reproduction by the firm of the transcript of the testimony of Jack L. Ruby. Also set out is the result of inquiry made regarding "Confidential" classification stamps used by or in the possession of the Commission.

ENCLOSURE

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Mr. WAYNE BIRDSELL, Manager, Ward and Paul, Incorporated, a commercial reporting agency at 917 G Street, N.W., furnished the following information concerning the handling by his firm of the transcript of testimony of JACK L. RUBY before Chief Justice WARREN and members of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY.

Mr. BIRDSELL related this transcript of testimony was the 106th item which had been forwarded to Ward and Paul by the Commission for purposes of having it reproduced. He referred to his records pertaining to this one item and stated his receipt Number 3359 dated June 18, 1964, reflected the original and five copies of the testimony of JACK L. RUBY had been delivered to the Commission June 18, 1964, at 3:35 p.m., by JESSE LEE WARD, III, son of one of the principals in the firm.

Mr. BIRDSELL stated he has no specific recollection with regard to this particular document, although from his records it was his belief the original stenographic transcript was received by his firm on the morning of June 18, 1964, as such a reproduction job would have taken approximately three and one-half hours to four hours to complete on a Xerox machine. This particular transcript was reproduced on one of two Xerox machines located in the basement of this building, which are operated during daytime hours by either ROBERT E. HAWKINS or JESSE LEE WARD, III, commonly known as "PETE" WARD. BIRDSELL stated to substantiate his belief the material was received from the Commission on June 18, 1964, it would have been delivered to the Commission early in the morning at approximately 9:00 a.m., on June 18, 1964, if the material had been received from the Commission on the previous date. He stated the original with five copies, the latter separately bound and classified "Confidential" on each page as well as outer side of the cover, was returned along with the copies to the Commission and no copies of any of this material were retained. BIRDSELL said his firm never made extra copies nor retained copies of any material relating to Commission business.

On 10/6-7/64 at Washington, D. C. File # WFO 44-520

by SA CARL E. GRAHAM/jsw Date dictated 10/7/64

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mr. BIRDSELL stated paper used for reproducing the testimony transcript on the Xerox machine is pre-stamped with the classification "Confidential" appearing in red ink on the top and bottom of each page. This pre-stamping is done by Ward and Paul in their premises on an old style hand-feed multigraph machine with the word "Confidential" consisting of separate letters blocked into place on the top and bottom of a multigraph cylinder. He stated this paper is prepared in advance and a goodly supply is kept on hand, stocked in packages containing one ream each. Mr. BIRDSELL advised Ward and Paul handles classified material, including "Confidential," "Secret," and "Top Secret," inasmuch as the firm handles the reporting for numerous Congressional Committees and for this reason, employees in his firm are "cleared" for handling such classified materials by Department of Defense.

Mr. BIRDSELL stated that his records specifically show that the RUBY testimony was reproduced by his firm only on one occasion and there was no instance where this testimony may have been returned to his firm for the purposes of preparing additional copies. BIRDSELL stated he was aware there had been some "leaks" to news media of various matters pertaining to the business of the President's Commission and he was cognizant that the RUBY testimony had been published in the newspaper under the by-line of DOROTHY KILGALLEN. BIRDSELL stated he had no suggestions as to how the leak to KILGALLEN had occurred. He said he did not know KILGALLEN and did not know anyone who was acquainted with her.

With regard to classification of the testimony of JACK L. RUBY, Mr. BIRDSELL stated the standing order as to classification of testimony or depositions ordered to be reproduced by the Commission was that such material should be classified "Confidential." He recalled in the early days of the existence of the President's Commission testimony and depositions were all classified "Top Secret;" however, by memorandum dated May 1, 1964, from Mr. J. LEE RANKIN, General Counsel of the Commission, Ward and Paul were advised that as of that date all depositions and testimony forwarded for reproduction should be classified "Confidential".

Mr. BIRDSELL furnished six blank pages of paper bearing the pre-stamped classification of "Confidential" as specimens of the type paper used to reproduce the transcript of the RUBY testimony.

FD-302 (Rev. 10-11-63)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Mr. JESSE LEE WARD, JR., one of the principal owners of Ward and Paul, Incorporated, was interviewed at his office, 917 G Street, N.W. He stated he had no independent knowledge of his firm handling specifically the reproduction of the testimony of JACK L. RUBY before Chief Justice WARREN at Dallas. He stated his firm had been retained to handle the reporting for the Commission and as well the reproduction of transcripts required by the Commission. He stated there had been no requests received for copies of the RUBY testimony from any source outside the Commission, but in this connection related the following:

Shortly after the mother of LEE HARVEY OSWALD testified, he received a telephone call from JOE TONAHILL, Texas attorney who was then representing the interests of JACK RUBY, inquiring as to the cost of obtaining a copy of the transcript of the testimony of LEE HARVEY OSWALD's mother. Mr. WARD pointed out that previously Mr. J. LEE RANKIN, General Counsel for the President's Commission, had authorized the release of testimony of some witnesses to TONAHILL. During the telephone exchange between Mr. WARD and TONAHILL, Mr. WARD stated, when he advised TONAHILL the price for approximately 1,000 or more pages of testimony transcript would be $.15 per page, TONAHILL indicated he was no longer interested. WARD stated his firm had never received any requests for a copy of RUBY's testimony from any source outside the Commission.

Mr. WARD went on to explain his firm has two Xerox machines, which are rented from the manufacturer, and each machine has a counting device to show the number of copies of any material produced on a given machine. This is for the purpose of determing the monthly rental fee due to the Xerox company which owns the machines. Mr. WARD stated with each machine there is maintained a monthly log to show the material produced and to reflect the number of copies of same for purposes of auditing the charges due the Xerox company. He stated he keeps a close check on the use of the machines and it would be virtually impossible for anyone to make an extra or unauthorized copy of a 103 page document without such reproduction coming to the immediate attention of himself or Mr. BIRDSELL.

With regard to the unauthorized disclosure as represented by the newspaper articles by DOROTHY KILGALLEN, Mr. WARD advised he was certain no leak pertaining to this material had occurred at Ward and Paul. He stated he did not know DOROTHY KILGALLEN and did not know anyone who might be acquainted with her or who might have furnished her a copy of the transcript of the RUBY testimony.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 10/7/64

Mr. ROBERT E. HAWKINS advised he resides at 1303 North Pierce, Arlington, Virginia, and he is a long-time employee of Ward and Paul. He was interviewed at his place of employment, 917 G Street, N.W. HAWKINS advised that all classified reproduction work performed on Xerox machines is done either by himself or by "PETE" (JESSE LEE, III) WARD. HAWKINS states he recalls having done a large volume of reproduction work for the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY and stated in the early stages such work generally was classified "Top Secret," but sometime later the work bore the classification of "Confidential." HAWKINS advised such jobs for the Commission were performed as needed, and he never paid any particular attention to the nature of the material to be reproduced or the text of its contents. He said with regard to the transcript of the testimony of JACK L. RUBY before the President's Commission, June 7, 1964, HAWKINS advised he has no specific recollection as to whether he or "PETE" WARD may have handled this piece of work. He stated that in order to reproduce five copies of a document consisting of 103 pages, such work would take approximately 3½ hours to 4 hours and if the finished material along with the original transcript was received by the Commission on June 18, 1964, at 3:35 p.m., it would indicate to him that the job had been received in the office of Ward and Paul that same day. In explanation of this, he said if the material had been received initially by Ward and Paul on the previous day, June 17, 1964, delivery of the finished copies would have occurred at approximately 9 a.m. on June 18, 1964.

HAWKINS stated he never had made any extra copies of any material received for reproduction and never had caused any material whatsoever to fall into the hands of any person not authorized to receive it. HAWKINS stated he personally was not responsible for any "leak" of information to the news media and specifically had no information as to how DOROTHY KILGALLEN came into possession of a copy of the testimony of JACK RUBY.

Re: [illegible]

Mr. JESSE LEE WARD, III, son of JESSE LEE WARD, JR., one of the owners of Ward and Paul, was interviewed at his place of employment, 917 G Street, N.W. He stated that he is generally known as "PETE" WARD in order to avoid confusion in names around the business establishment. PETE WARD advised he had no specific recollection of the testimony of JACK L. RUBY, who was afforded a hearing at Dallas, Texas, June 7, 1964. He stated that during daytimes, all classified reproduction work to be done on Xerox machines is handled personally by either himself or ROBERT HAWKINS. He said he does not recall whether he may have run off the 5 copies of the RUBY testimony; however, he stated the receipt for delivery of the original transcript along with the 5 copies to the President's Commission on June 18, 1964, bore his signature as having released the material to H. A. BECKMAN, an employee of the President's Commission, at 3:35 p.m. that date. PETE WARD stated he had no information as to how any leak or leaks of material relating to the inquiry being conducted by the Commission had occurred. Specifically with regard to the unauthorized disclosure of the JACK L. RUBY testimony, which appeared in the newspaper under the by-line of DOROTHY KILGALLEN, he had no suggestion as to how this "leak" may have occurred. He stated he did not know KILGALLEN and did not know any one who might have been acquainted with her.

Date 10/7/64

Mrs. BEVERLY ANN HECKMAN, Secretary to J. LEE RANKIN, General Counsel to President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY, 200 Maryland Avenue, N.E., advised she recalls ANN WELSH, a secretary in the Department of Defense who worked for the Commission, had borrowed a "Confidential" stamp from the Department of Defense during the earlier stages of the Commission's existence. Mrs. HECKMAN stated WELSH had also borrowed a "Secret" and "Top Secret" stamp for the use of the Commission.

Mrs. HECKMAN said it had been necessary to obtain additional classification stamps, and she had requisitioned these items from the General Services Administration. Mrs. HECKMAN reviewed records at the Commission offices and determined she had requisitioned two sets of classification stamps on January 16, 1964. Each set of stamps contained one "Confidential" stamp, as well as a "Secret" and "Top Secret" stamp.

Mrs. HECKMAN made available two "Confidential" stamps. One of these stamps was identified as Number 1, and the second was identified as Number 3. Mrs. HECKMAN informed stamp Number 1 was borrowed from the Department of Defense, whereas stamp Number 2 was one of two obtained from General Services Administration. Stamp Number 1 was located in Mrs. HECKMAN's desk and stamp Number 3 was found in a secretary's desk in a room occupied by several secretaries.

Mrs. HECKMAN located the third "Confidential" stamp, which is one of two obtained from the General Services Administration. This stamp was located in the Commission supply cabinet, and had never been used. This stamp was left at the Commission at Mrs. HECKMAN's request.

We are continuing our review of the other documents listed in the attachment to your letter of September 30, 1964, and you will be promptly advised when this review has been completed.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE:

By letter 9/30/64 the Commission furnished a list of approximately 100 documents which it desires to publish as backup data (exhibits and the like) to its report which was recently made available to the public. The documents listed herein have been reviewed and all were unclassified with the exception of Special Agent Fain's report of July 3, 1961, when such reports were originally disseminated to the Commission. However, they contained the property stamp which is printed on the first page of all FBI reports to the effect that such report is the property of the FBI, is loaned to an agency, and its contents are not to be distributed outside that agency. We have reviewed Special Agent Fain's report and it can now be downgraded to unclassified without compromising any of our sources or coverage. We are authorizing the Commission to disregard the property stamp since it was understood throughout the investigation the Commission would probably publish some of our reports and memoranda in its overall report to the nation.

ReBuairtel to Dallas requesting Dallas to advise what action remains to be taken to complete efforts to identify one remaining latent palm print on the cartons found on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) building.

The following action remains to be taken:

By Dallas airtel to Bureau, with copies to Atlanta, Denver and Newark, dated 10/9/64, request was made of these three offices to obtain the palm prints of SA BENJAMIN O. KEUTZER; Steno JEANETTE TANKSLEY; and SA WARREN A. LARSON, respectively.

By Dallas airtel to Bureau, Attention: Latent Fingerprint Section, Identification Division, dated 10/9/64 palm prints of 20 employees of the Dallas Office were submitted.

By Dallas airtel to Bureau, Attention: Latent Fingerprint Section, Identification Division, dated 10/12/64, palm prints of 10 employees of the Dallas Office were submitted.

There are remaining to be obtained the palm prints of four employees of the Dallas Office whose palm prints will be obtained as such employees are available.

There are remaining to be obtained the palm prints of nine former employees of the Dallas Office who have retired, resigned or gone on maternity leave since 11/26/63.

The palm print of SEYMOUR WEITZMAN, Deputy Constable, and THOMAS P. ALYEA, WFAA-TV, Dallas, who are both known to have been on the sixth floor of the TSBD on 11/22/63, are being obtained. Efforts are also being maintained to obtain palm prints of HADDON SPURGEON AIKEN and JACK CHARLES CASON of TSBD.

With respect to obtaining the palm print of Captain WILL FRITZ, Dallas Police Department, he has been contacted several times in an effort to arrange to obtain his palm prints. He was last contacted on 10/12/64 at which time he stated that he had not touched the four cardboard cartons and could see no reason for his palm prints being taken, and that he was refusing to have his palm prints taken. No further efforts are being made to obtaining the palm prints of Captain WILL FRITZ in view of his attitude.

In the event the one remaining latent palm print is not identified from the above described palm prints, there does not appear to be any logical course of action which can be taken.

Previous investigation has established that these four cartons remained at the TSBD until 11/25/63, and that there is no way to determine the identity of all persons who were on the sixth floor during this period.

Our review of the documents referred to in the enclosure to your letter of reference is continuing and the results thereof will be promptly furnished to you.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE:

Items referred to herein are identified as follows:

(1) New York unclassified letterhead serial 3443.
(2) Houston unclassified letterhead serial 3539.
(3) New York unclassified letterhead serial 3870.

While above documents were unclassified, Dr. Goldberg of the President's Commission on 10/7 advised that Commission requested authority to regard them as unclassified in view of fact that they contained the character Internal Security - Russia - Cuba.

Items four through thirteen are our letterheads all prepared by Legat, Mexico City, and, where indicated, Bureau letters transmitting them to Commission. The Bureau letters all contained statement that, upon detachment from enclosures, the letters should be regarded as unclassified. All the letterheads prepared by Legat were classified "Confidential" [redacted] All the letterheads have been carefully reviewed and all sources, where necessary, have been properly protected.

Further sanitizing of the letterheads referred to herein is not necessary. State Department has advised that it has no objection to declassification of results of our inquiries in Mexico, which in part, were summarized in a 178-page summary letterhead prepared by Legat which has been sanitized and declassified. While some of the material in letterheads referred to herein is covered in part in the sanitized summary, all of the information is not therein; hence, in view of State Department's reaction and as our sources have been properly protected, it is advisable to declassify letterheads in question.

These letterheads bear the following serial numbers in the Oswald file:

(4, 3509; 5, 2857; 6, 2830; 7, 4108; 8, 4425; 9, 3222; 10, 4257 and 4258; 11, 4546; 12, 4443; 13, 2103.

NOTE: In regard to the leak of Oswald's diary, Ruby's testimony before Chief Justice Warren, and Ruby's polygraph to news media, the Commission by letter dated 9/10/64 requested Commission members, Commission staff, Ruby's current and former attorneys be interviewed regarding this matter. These interviews were conducted expeditiously and over 80 individuals have been interviewed; the results were furnished to the Commission by letters dated, 9/23, 9/25, 10/1, and 10/6/64. Individuals interviewed indicated they were not aware of how the information was leaked to the news media. The Laboratory has conducted an examination of transcripts obtained from the Commission and others and made examinations concerning Page 103 of the transcript which appeared in the "New York Journal American." The Laboratory results are being furnished to the Commission by separate communication dated 10/16/64 and our inquiries are now complete.

NOTE: In reBuairtel, Dallas and New York were furnished an article which appeared in the 10/12/64 issue of "The New York Times." This article relates that the Nashes had written an article critical of the Commission and summarized some of their criticisms. The enclosed article is the basis for the Times' clipping. The two-page article is based on an allegedly intensive two-week study by the Nashes in Dallas. It is loaded with inaccuracies, misinformation and fails to take into account the back-up material which has not been released by the Commission. This back-up material would tend to negate the better part of the Nashes criticism. They endeavor to discredit witnesses used by the Commission to reach its conclusion that Oswald killed Tippit and completely discount positive evidence linking Oswald to this killing such as his revolver, identification of cartridge cases

The article in part repeats some of the allegations made by Mark Lane, the reported pro-communist New York Attorney who has been trying to discredit the investigation in this matter since its inception. "The Newleader" is reportedly very liberal and anti-communist.

The Other Witnesses

By George and Patricia Nash

THE WARREN Commission Report already has won the respect of almost all who have read it, and deservedly so. It is a clearly written, remarkably comprehensive document that is cautious in reaching conclusions. It dispels rumors, wrecks theories, dismisses items of "evidence" used to convict Lee Harvey Oswald in the public mind, and draws some order from the confusion surrounding the assassination of President Kennedy over these past 10 months.

In the process, it also takes the trouble to dispense justice where injustices have been done. The Dallas police, for example, had issued an extremely damaging story about Joe Molina, for 17 years credit manager at the Texas School Book Depository, as a "possible Number 2 man" in the murder. Their suspicions had been aroused by the fact that Molina belonged to a veterans' organization called the American GI Forum, which the Dallas police alone considered subversive, and the publicity cost him his job. The Commission delves into the details of Molina's case and clears him.

But what of the future historians or political scientists attempting to reconstruct the events of last November 22? Will they find all the pertinent facts in the voluminous Report? In the light of an intensive two-week investigation that we conducted ourselves in Dallas, we would have to answer: No. Particularly where the slaying of Patrolman J. D. Tippit and the ev[illegible] at the Depository are concerned, the Report is less than complete.

The most convincing aspect of the case against Oswald involves the testimony of three witnesses to the Tippit shooting at 10th Street and Patton Avenue, in Oak Cliff. Here the evidence is not merely circumstantial, as with the assassination. The Commission quotes extensively the accounts given by three persons who were near the scene of the crime: William Scoggins, Domingo Benavides and Mrs. Helen Louise Markham.

Taxi-driver Scoggins—eating lunch in his parked taxi—noticed a man and the approaching police car, heard shots, saw Tippit fall, then saw the man run south on Patton. At the moment of the actual shooting his view was partially obstructed by shrubbery, and he did not emerge from the cab until he heard the firing. The next day he picked Oswald out of a lineup, not as the killer but simply as the man he had seen running past him.

Domingo Benavides was driving a pickup truck west on 10th Street. As he crossed the intersection a block east of 10th and Patton, he saw a policeman standing by the left door of the patrol car and man standing on the [illegible] right side. He then heard the shots, saw the policeman fall. He waited in the truck until the gunman ran to the corner, and saw him empty the shells into some bushes. "It was Benavides, using Tippit's car radio, who first reported the killing of Patrolman Tippit at about 1:16 P.M.," the Report declares, although the ambulance records show a different source of the shooting report. The Report goes on to note that Benavides told police "he did not think that he could identify the man who fired the shots."

Mrs. Markham gave the only detailed account of what occurred between the gunman and Tippit from the moment the patrolman stopped on 10th Street. According to the Report: "Her description and that of other eyewitnesses led to the police broadcast at 1:22 P.M. describing [Tippit's] slayer as 'about 30, 5'8", black hair, slender.'" But Mrs. Markham also told attorney Mark Lane that the gunman was "short, a little on the heavy side," with "somewhat bushy" hair. In testifying before the Commission, she first denied that she had ever said this and changed her story only when confronted with a tape recording of the conversation. The Commission observes that "in her various statements and in her testimony, Mrs. Markham was uncertain and inconsistent in her recollection of the exact time of the slaying." Nevertheless, the Report declares: "Addressing itself solely to the probative value of Mrs. Markham's contemporaneous description of the gunman and her positive identification of Oswald at a police lineup, the Commission considers her testimony reliable."

Contrary to what some have maintained, we did not find Mrs. Markham inaccessible. Our interview with her, though, did lead us to feel that any testimony she might give was of dubious value. Since she is a critical witness, we [illegible] part of the interview worth[illegible] verbatim:

"Q. Has the assassination of the President and what happened afterwards affected you personally?

"A. It sure has. I lost my job . . . having to go to Washington. I've had a nervous breakdown. I'm the witness. I'm the one he was talking to when he died. I know what it's like when someone dies. I was with my father when he died. He [my father] said 'Well, I don't know.' And then he was dead. I couldn't understand what Tippit said. I guess he wanted me to call on the car radio and get some help. I was there with Tippit when they put him on the stretcher. He was dying.

"Q. Was it long until the ambulance came?

"A. No.

"Q. About how long?

"A. I was there hollering and screaming, trying to get help. Wouldn't nobody come help me. I would guess that it was about 20 minutes before the ambulance came—20, 25 minutes I was there alone until the ambulance came and then another five minutes until the police came . . . The police treated me like a queen. Me and the cab driver, I guess we're the only witnesses. When the police got there, I fainted. I fainted three or four times."

Thus Mrs. Markham stated that Tippit talked to her after being shot (although the Commission says he was killed instantly), and that she was alone on the scene for 20 minutes (although the ambulance arrived within minutes of the shooting). And nowhere does she mention Benavides, who used the car radio to call the police.

WE WERE able to locate at least two witnesses at the Tippit murder scene who were not questioned or even contacted by the Commission. We had little difficulty in tracking them down and we could find no reason to doubt their veracity. Because their statements are important in relation to Mrs. Markham's testimony, and because they have not appeared elsewhere, we shall also quote them verbatim. First, Frank Wright, who lived in a ground floor apartment on 10th Street, about half a block east of the murder site:

"I was sitting watching television with my wife. I was sitting in a chair next to the door. I wasn't but two steps from the door. I heard shots. I knew it wasn't backfire. I knew it was shots. As soon as I heard them, I went out the door. I could see a police car in the next block. It was toward the end of the next block. I could see it clearly. The police car was headed toward me. It was parked on the south side of the street. In other words, it was parked across the street from our apartment house. I saw a person right by the car. He had fallen down. It seems as if he had just fallen down. Maybe I saw him as he had just finished falling. He was on the ground and then he turned over face down. Part of him was under the left front fender of the car. It seems to me that I saw him just as he hit the ground. I saw him turn over and he didn't move any more.

"I looked around to see what had happened. I knew there had been a shooting. I saw a man standing right in front of the car. I was looking toward the man on the ground. He stood there for a while and looked at the man. I could not tell who the man was on the ground. The man who was standing in front of him was about medium height. He had on a light coat. It ended just above his hands. I didn't see any gun. He ran around on the passenger side of the police car. He ran as fast as he could go and he got into his car. His car was a grey, little car, coupe. It was about a 1950-1955, maybe a Plymouth. It was a grey car, parked on the same side as the street as the police [illegible] but beyond it from me. It w[illegible]ing away from me. He got in that car and he drove away as quick as you could see. He drove down 10th Street, away from me. I don't know how far he drove. After he got into the middle of the next block between Patton and Crawford, I didn't look at him any more.

"I looked at the car where the man was. I looked to see what had happened there. About the same time as I came out, or maybe a little while after, a woman came down from her porch. She was at the house about three or four doors from the intersection of 10th and Patton. The house was on the same side of the street as the police car. Just as the man in the car pulled away she came toward the police car and then she stepped back. I heard her shout, 'Oh, he's been shot!' throwing up her hands. Then she went back up toward the house. There was no one out there except me and that woman when I got there, except for the man I described earlier. I couldn't figure out who did the shooting. I didn't see a gun on the man who was standing in front of the car. There wasn't anyone else but the man who drove away and the woman who came down from her porch. I was the first person out. I knew there wasn't anyone else there at all. It wasn't any time at all until the ambulance got there. By the time the ambulance got there, there were maybe 25 more people outside. Then after a while, the police came up. After that, a whole lot of police came up. I tried to tell two or three people what I saw. They didn't pay any attention. I've seen what came out on television and in the papers but I know that's not what happened. I knew a man drove off in a grey car. Nothing in the world's going to change my opinion. I saw that man drive off in a grey coupe just as clear as I was born. I know what I saw. They can say all they want about a fellow running away, but I can[illegible]cept this because I saw a [illegible] get in a car and drive away."

We have no way of knowing how the investigation could have ignored Wright, whether his memory is accurate, or whether a plausible explanation for the mysterious man in the car might be a passerby unwilling to be a witness. For our purposes here, such speculation is beside the point, which is simply: Why didn't this account come to the Commission's attention?

The question becomes all the more relevant when it is realized that it was a call from Mrs. Wright which was responsible for the ambulance being dispatched, and the police had her address:

"I was sitting in my apartment watching television with my husband. We had just learned that the President was shot. I was sitting in a chair with my back to the intersection of 10th and Denver. My husband was sitting across from me. I heard shots fired and I immediately ran to the window.

"I heard three shots. From my window I got a clear view of a man lying there on the street. He was there in the next block. I could see there was a man lying in the street. I didn't wait a minute. I ran to the telephone. I didn't look in the book or anything. I ran to the telephone, picked it up and dialed 'O.' I said, 'Call the police, a man's been shot!' After that I went outside to join my husband. It wasn't but a minute till the ambulance got there."

The operator took Mrs. Wright's address, 501 East 10th, and called the police. The police noted [illegible]e was a shooting at 501 East 10th and pushed a buzzer connecting them by a direct line to the Dudley M. Hughes Funeral Home.

The Dudley M. Hughes Funeral Home is the central ambulance dispatching point for southern Dallas. It either handles calls directly or calls other funeral homes in the system that cover other areas. Dudley M. Hughes Jr., the dispatcher, took the call from the police. He filled out an ambulance call slip with the code "3-19" (which means emergency shooting) and the address, "501 East 10th Street." He put the slip into the time clock and stamped it 1:18 P.M., November 22, in the space marked "Time Called." Since the location was just two short blocks away he told one of his own drivers, Clayton Butler, to respond. Butler and Eddie Kinsley ran down the steps, got into the ambulance and took off, siren screaming.

Butler radioed his arrival at the scene at 1:18 P.M., within 60 seconds of leaving the funeral home. He remembers that there were at least 10 people standing around the man lying on the ground. It was not until he and his assistant pulled back a blanket covering Tippit that they realized the victim was a policeman.

Butler ran back to his radio to inform headquarters. The radio was busy and he could not cut in. He yelled "Mayday" to no avail, and went back to Tippit. The officer lay on his side, face down with part of his body under the left front fender of the police car. Butler and Kinsley rolled him over and saw the bullet wound through Tippit's temple. Butler told us, "I thought he was dead then. It's not my position to say so. We got him into the ambulance and we got going as quick as possible. On the way to the hospital I finally let them know it was a policeman." The record shows that Butler called in to the funeral home at 1:26 P.M. to say he had reached the hospital.

Despite the fact that the ambulance was dispatched to 501 East 10th, no statement was ever taken from either of the Wrights. Mrs. Wright remembers that a man who did not identify himself came around two months after the President's assassination and talked with her for a few minutes. He took no note," did not ask to see anything, did not speak to her husband and did not ask if he had seen anything unusual. Clayton Butler, the ambulance driver, says he was questioned by the Dallas police when he arrived at the hospital, but not since then.

Others never questioned included Butler's assistant, Eddie Kinsley; Dudley M. Hughes Jr., who dispatched the ambulance; and the managers of the apartment house facing the murder site. All of these potential witnesses were in agreement on the lapse of time between the shots and the arrival of the ambulance—in direct contradiction to Mrs. Markham's statement. It is worth noting, in connection with Mrs. Markham's reliability, that the lineup (which satisfied the Commission as fair in its procedure) included only three persons besides Oswald for Mrs. Markham to choose from: two 18-year-olds and a 26-year-old man of Mexican descent. Oswald (who had appeared on television before this lineup) was the only one whose face was cut and bruised. In the light of our own findings in the Tippit slaying, it appears quite possible that Mrs. Markham came on the scene only after hearing the shots; and without Mrs. Markham, there is no one to say precisely what happened between Tippit and Oswald.

THERE ARE also a number of other points which the Report leaves unresolved or untouched:

1. The Report cites as one "speculation" the rumor that "another witness to the slaying of Patrolman Tippit, an unidentified woman, was interviewed by the FBI but was never called as a witness" by the Commission. In reply, the Report declares: "The only woman among the witnesses to the slaying of Tippit known to the Commission is Helen Markham. The FBI never interviewed any other woman who claimed to have seen the shooting and never received any information concerning the existence of such a witness."

We interviewed this "other witness," whose name is Acquilla Clemmons. She claims to have seen two men near the police car, in addition to Tippit, just before the shooting. The woman said the FBI did question her briefly but decided not to take a statement because of her poor physical condition (she is a diabetic). Her version of the slaying was rather vague, and she may have based her story on second-hand accounts of others at the scene. It seems probable, however, that she is known to some investigative agency if not to the Commission itself.

2. The Report dismisses the rumor that Oswald lived near Jack Ruby, pointing out that their residences were a mile apart. But the Tippit shooting took place only two blocks from Ruby's home on Marsalis St., a fact not mentioned by the Commission.

3. The Report gives the impression that Oswald was the only Depository worker found to be absent after the assassination. But Bill Shelley, Oswald's foreman, and others who worked in the building told us that Charles Givens was missing from the sixth floor work crew. Shelley said he was sent outside in an unsuccessful attempt to locate Givens, and there was talk of sending out an "all-points bulletin" on the missing man. This proved unnecessary because Givens heard he was being sought and made his way to police headquarters.

4. The Report accepts the version of the assassination aftermath in which Roy Truly, the Depository supervisor, and Patrolman M. L. Baker are supposed to have entered the building and met Oswald on the second floor less than two minutes after the attack. But Molina, the unjustly accused worker, told us he testified that he was standing by the Depository door and saw Truly run past him into the building—alone. Further, Bill Shelley told us that Truly and Baker waited five or six minutes after the shooting.

Obviously, the question of the precise timing has important implications: If Oswald was not encountered for five or six minutes after the shooting, this would have allowed him time to reach the second floor easily from either the sixth floor or from the front of the building, as he himself claimed; if the time was just two minutes, the argument is sure to continue that Oswald could not have made it from the sixth floor to the second—despite the FBI re-enactment showing this was possible.

5. The Report mentions that "the front door" and "the rear door" of the Depository were guarded from about six minutes after the shooting. What it omits, however, is that there were four separate "rear doors," all of which were open and only one of which was guarded. There are two loading platforms, a customer's door and a rail entry. No one guarding any one of these doors could see any of the others. This conceivably might be relevant to a question of whether Oswald acted alone. As Shelley told us, "Any one of a thousand different people could have entered or left the building and nobody would have known it."

Again, our purpose in discussing the items we found untouched or unresolved by the Report has not been to determine whose version of the events is correct, or to establish any one person's guilt or innocence. Our object has simply been to demonstrate that future historians and social scientists will not be able to reconstruct what occurred last November 22 from the Commission's report alone. Moreover, as the years go by, witnesses vanish, inconsistencies are forgotten and memories fade, the questions they will undoubtedly raise will become increasingly difficult to answer with any degree of accuracy.

LEON D. HUBERT, JR., attorney, Room 300 Oil and Gas Building, 1100 Tulane Avenue, advised that he was employed as a legal consultant by the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, commonly known as the Warren Commission, on a full-time basis from January 10, 1964 until June 4, 1964.

Mr. HUBERT stated that a great majority of his work for the commission involved the matter pertaining to the assassination of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK L. RUBY and that the majority of his time was spent at the commission headquarters located in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Building in Washington, D. C. He stated, however, that on occasions he traveled to Dallas, Texas, where he interviewed and obtained depositions from various individuals regarding the RUBY matter.

Mr. HUBERT stated he could provide no information which could be of possible assistance in determining how "The Dallas Morning News" or "Life" magazine came into the possession of a copy of the diary of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. He said that he could not suggest the identities of any individual or individuals who may have been responsible for making available a copy of this diary to the newspaper or to "Life"magazine.

Mr. HUBERT advised that since June 4, 1964, he has been in Dallas on two or three occasions for anywhere from one to three days handling additional details in connection with the RUBY case.

ReLegat Ottawa airtel and letterhead memorandum dated 10-2-64, with attached galley proofs, copies of which are furnished for the information of Dallas and Chicago. Reference is also made to Chicago airtel and letterhead memorandum dated 10-9-64, copies of which are furnished for the information of Legal Attaches Ottawa and Tokyo. Also enclosed for Legal Attache Tokyo are pertinent communications containing background in this matter.

Legal Attache Tokyo through sources is instructed to locate and interview Ray Jefferies in an effort to substantiate or disprove the allegations made by Norman Similas. The results of investigation should be incorporated in an appropriate letterhead memorandum, without property stamp, for dissemination. Sufficient copies should be prepared for dissemination to the President's Commission and interested offices. Every effort should be made to expedite this matter. Keep the Bureau advised of any anticipated delay.

For the information of other receiving offices, after the receipt of Mr. Jefferies' interview, no further action in this matter is contemplated. Subsequent reporting of this investigation by Dallas is not desired.

NOTE:

Similas, a Canadian citizen and photographer, took several pictures during the assassination and claimed to have taken a picture showing a rifle with two individuals close by. His comments were incorporated in an article which was published in the now defunct Canadian magazine "Liberty." Investigation to date strongly indicates that Similas concocted this story in order to make money and to have his views published. We are interviewing Ray Jefferies of the Associated Press, whom Similas claims developed the photograph in question. The second installment of Similas' article, which has never been published, tends to prove Similas is a liar. Similas claims another reporter saw the photograph in question and that he was only reporting what this other reporter observed. This same statement would have been incorporated in the second installment; however, the interview with the reporter in question clearly shows that Similas is the one that made up this story. This will conclude our inquiries. When the results are received the Commission or its duly delegated authority will be furnished the results.

NOTE:

SAC Shanklin contacted Mr. Sullivan 10/6/64 and asked if he should resubmit his recommendations for incentive awards for personnel of the Dallas Office whowere responsible for instituting technical and physical surveillance coverage of Marina Oswald following her testimony before the President's Commission. Such coverage was requested by Mr. Rankin in order that Marina would not suddenly disappear. Mr. Shanklin indicated that personnel of his office who were responsible for instituting technical and physical surveillance coverage of Marina overcame several large problems. Incentive awards not deemed desirable in this particular investigative activity.

On October 8, 1964, Waldo D. Butler, Night Photo Editor, Associated Press, 188 West Randolph, Chicago, Illinois, advised that Ray Jefferies, Day Photo Editor, Associated Press, was presently in Tokyo, Japan, in connection with the Olympic Games.

Butler stated that he and Jefferies had learned shortly after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy that Norman Similas, a Canadian, allegedly had taken photographs of possible value during the course of the assassination. Similas was contacted by Jefferies as he was passing through Chicago en route to Canada. Similas came to the Chicago office of the Associated Press where several rolls of film were processed. According to Butler, none of Similas' film had been taken at the assassination site nor was it of any news value in connection with the assassination. He said he and Jefferies reviewed the film. Butler said that some of Similas' film was developed but not dry when Similas had to leave to catch his plane to Canada. This portion of Similas' film was mailed to Similas the following day.

Butler advised that he had shared with Jefferies the task of reviewing Similas' film. While he did not see each and every negative he said that if Jefferies or he had seen any film showing the Book Depository Building they would have considered using such

No prior information received by the Baltimore Office could be identified with the writer of the letter. It appears possible that the New York Division may have had similar correspondence from this source or if not, could determine through appropriate inquiries whether or not the writer is mentally competent and should be interviewed.

The original letter is being forwarded to New York for its use in the event interview of the writer is found to be desirable. For the information of New York and the Bureau, since the text on the respective pages does not show a continuity, the pages were all attached at the top with a small amount of glue, as the five sheets had been torn from a pad 5 inches by 7 inches in size. The pages were separated in the photostating process. The sequence of the pages which are written on both sides of the paper can be identified by the following words which begin the ten pages respectively in the proper order:

1. "Police Maryland"
2. "by doctors"
3. "an orginal"
4. "many have"
5. "doesn't it"
6. "The Florida"
7. "imagine Plastic"
8. "a million"
9. "they to"
10. "Houssein."

Since the significance of the foregoing phrase relating to OSWALD is not known and cannot be determined by the Baltimore Division, and since the predication in this instance would consist only of the receipt of the foregoing letter by mail, the New York Office should include such predication in its reporting of this matter and no separate report will be submitted by Baltimore, UACB.

Re Bureau airtel to Dallas and Miami dated 10/2/64 in the matter regarding SYLVIA ODIO; and Miami letter and letterhead memorandum to Bureau dated 10/2/64, wherein the results of the display of photographs to SYLVIA ODIO of LORAN HALL, JOHN LAWRENCE HOWARD, WILLIAM HOUSTON SEYMOUR and CELIO SERGIO CASTRO is reported.

The Dallas Office has determined that L.E. HALL and two other men, driving an Oldsmobile and pulling a trailer with medical supplies, had stayed at the Lawnview Motel, Dallas, from September 28, 1963, to October 3, 1963. This motel is located on former highway US 80 (re-routed since September 1963); is near the Tenison Memorial Park and a public golf course; and is on the southeast side of Dallas just east of a superhighway overpass. Telephone numbers called from HALL's room during the period of his stay at this motel have been checked and none was the telephone number of SYLVIA ODIO.

CARLOS FERRER-NADAL, the only Cuban refugee family known to be residing in the Dallas city area in September, 1963, with the surname that sounds like "FERROR", has been interviewed.

CARLOS FERRER states that he is not known by the nickname of "KIKI", that he is not and has not been employed by the Texas Optical Instrument Company, and that he does not know HALL, HOWARD, SEYMOUR or CELIO SERGIO CASTRO. Mr. FERRER has never resided in the Crestwood Apartments on Magellan Circle in Dallas. He does not know any other Cuban refugee family in the Dallas area with the surname of FERRER or of similar pronunciation.

Miss MARCELA INSUA recalls that ANTONIO ALENTADO was one of the two men who had come to her door looking for SYLVIA ODIO. This substantiates the information furnished by Mrs. MARY LUCILLE BASS CONNELL regarding two Cubans, supposedly members of the Cuban underground, who had stopped at Miss INSUA's home one night looking for SYLVIA ODIO.

ANTONIO ALENTADO was interviewed and advised that he is the head of the Junta Revolucionaria Cubana (JURE) in Dallas. He recalled having gone to the home of MARCELA INSUA to ask her for the address of SYLVIA ODIO. He was accompanied by JORGE RODRIGUEZ, former President of JURE in Dallas. He obtained ODIO's address and subsequently contacted her with regard to her possible participation in the local unit of JURE.

It is noted that in the testimony of SYLVIA ODIO before a representative of the President's Commission on July 22, 1964, at Dallas, Texas, it is mentioned by Miss ODIO that she knows both ANTONIO ALENTADO and JORGE (GEORGE) RODRIGUEZ of the JURE in Dallas.

The results of the INSUA/ALENTADO interviews in the ODIO matter are being incorporated in the Dallas report in instant matter to be submitted October 8, 1964.

Results of the motel check and interview of FERRER will be included in the next report which Dallas submits in this matter after the October 8, 1964, report.

Inasmuch as Miss SYLVIA ODIO on October 1, 1964, was unable to identify photographs of HALL, HOWARD, SEYMOUR or SERGIO CASTRO as any of the individuals who had visited her apartment at 1084 Magellan Circle, Crestwood Apartments, Dallas, during the last week of September, 1963, it is not believed that additional investigation is warranted in this matter regarding ODIO's allegation. It is further noted in this regard that Miss ODIO stated that she is not certain that she could identify photographs of the two individuals who accompanied the one she believes was LEE HARVEY OSWALD because of the passage of time since the incident. It is also noted that SYLVIA ODIO has reportedly attempted suicide since moving to Miami, Florida.

Accordingly, the Dallas Office does not contemplate further pursuing the ODIO phase of this investigation, UACB.

relates previously uncovered details of the November 22 assassination of President J. F. Kennedy. Similar links with Jack Ruby, convicted murderer of Lee Harvey Oswald, at Ruby's nightclub.

The Dallas Puzzle Part II

Thomas Thrasher as told to Ken Armstrong

AFTER BULLETS RING OUT, JACKIE LE
AGENT JUMPS ABOARD CAR

I ARRIVED IN Dallas on November 18, 1963, to attend a convention of the American Institute of Industrial Engineers. My assignment was to photograph highlights of the convention and gather information to be used in the magazine they were launching, a business-related trade publication. I normally live and work in Toronto.

Before the end of the convention on November 21, I had interviewed and photographed Vice-President Lyndon Johnson, who was a keynote speaker at the meeting, and had walked away from an encounter in the coat room with the owner of a nightclub across the street from my hotel. His name was Jack Ruby.

Sometime upon subsequent event I have the haunting feeling that the whole world was cast in a play, the plot of an intrigue and murder drama that was to rock the world.

Meets Jack Ruby

Up the evening of Thursday, November 21, I had phoned Jack Ruby's strip joint from my hotel to determine if the "Girls, Girls, Girls" he'd given to compete that evening were genuine or amateur. I had not been able to reach him, so a group of us decided to stop there at the night for entertainment.

Just as I had suspected by the dress of patrons that the tickets were not good for free admission at that spot. Rather than pay the door charge we turned to go, and at this moment Jack Ruby appeared. My first impression of him was that he had indeed had a few drinks, but was not drunk. He was a stocky man, about 5 feet 10 inches tall, who could be a warm host one minute and a bouncer the next.

"Come on boys," he smiled, putting his arm around our shoulders as he led us to a table up front. From time to time he returned to see that we had drinks and chatted. When I explained my reason for being there he said, "Sure, but why don't you save your film for President Kennedy when he drives through the city tomorrow? The parade route is just down the street."

There was certainly nothing in Jack Ruby's behavior that night to indicate that he was other than a Kennedy fan with a tremendous gift of the gab.

Now, the next day, I remembered Ruby's advice as I heard the TV newscommentator announcing the impending parade. It was then that I decided to walk down two blocks to Main Street and see the procession. At the corner of Three people were ahead of me, but I could see that large crowds had already gathered. So I walked on to a point across the overpass where the crowd thinned somewhat. It was a pleasant, sunny day and I enjoyed walking the extra distance.

I checked the setting of my 35 mm Japanese camera, planned upward to avoid the problem of [illegible] and set off the exit to catch a clear view of the presidential procession.

Then I was the short open-top limousine of the President, [illegible] and approaching at a slow speed as it made the turn at Main Street.

Now the cheering was louder. I could see the President, sitting in the back seat of the vehicle. He was smiling and turned his head to look up at the rooms of the Texas School Book Depository. I have a feeling that President Kennedy actually saw a assassin in our crowd before the first shot came.

He appeared to be looking directly at the top corner of the building.

First Shot

I DECIDED to stand still as I heard that first shot. Men, women and children lining the parade route were still cheering and waving. The President's car was now less than ten feet away from me. The President started to lean forward before my eyes. He seemed to be clutching at the shoulder of the secret service man in front of him.

Another agonizing second passed, with the exception of this one grotesque incident, everything around me seemed normally parade-like. By this time the car was close enough to the car to see the side of it.

A second and third shot were fired in quick succession. People around me were running away or flattening themselves on the ground. The President collapsed on the floor of the car with Mrs. Kennedy was reaching toward him. From the corner of my eye, I saw a secret service man jump onto the back of the car and dive over the President's body toward the front seat.

Still in a state of shock, I found myself [illegible]

...were now pointed at the overpass and yelled, "They came over there."

My next recollection was the arrival of the secret service men looking down upon the president. He lay motionless in the car and I moved at once to the front and parallel. My first thought was that they had killed the President.

I saw the figures of a man and woman who had broken away from the crowd at the overpass and were walking down the grassy incline to Main Street. Police officers were chasing them.

The events I have just described happened so quickly that my fellow photographers did not have time to adjust their cameras and methodically I turned to my left and I tripped the shutter to get...

JACK RUBY PUTS HIS ARM AROUND STRIPPER IN HIS DALLAS CLUB

...speed in action, was completely motionless.

...another peak on high ground. Behind it were the Texas School Book Depository in the background. The picture that I took on the north side of Elm Street was turned around to the east as upon exposure it showed...

The Presidential limousine had passed me and I could clearly see Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy seated in the back seat. Governor John Connally and his wife were in the jump seats. Mrs. Kennedy was leaning toward her husband. Governor Connally was turned in his seat facing the President. Secret service men were on the left and right running boards of the car.

The camera had recorded what I could not possibly have seen at that moment — a rifle barrel extended over the window sill. When the film was developed later, it showed two figures. Because of the... Some have said since that one bullet was only a packing case. I would feel better if I left that statement to someone better qualified than myself to diagnose the horror in that picture.

By this time I found myself almost in the center of the street. By quick footwork I managed to avoid a collision with a Texas Ranger who sped by on a motorcycle. The County Jail was only a few hundred feet away around the corner, and I could see police officers pouring from the building. Again I clutched my camera to my chest, hoping I would be recognized as a press photographer. I was dead certain that someone was going to be killed. The police were everywhere, brandishing revolvers, rifles and shotguns and I am sure that one mistake on the part of anyone would be recorded as a fatality.

...and the [illegible] was rushed to the hospital.

...I proceeded to the Texas School Book Depository building. Within a few minutes I learned that I was on record. This delayed the departure of my plane to Toronto by about 45 minutes. But it waited for me, and I can only surmise that somebody was pretty influential with the airline involved.

Upon my return to Toronto, I submitted my developed negatives to a fair newspaper. When they were not used on Monday, November 25, I phoned and asked that they be returned. Later I received a fat cheque in the mail but the one negative which clearly showed what I believe to be two figures in the window of the assassin's nest was missing. When I pressed for it I was told that the negative had somehow become lost. It has never since been returned to me.

During the past few months I have received letters, inquiries and clippings

from people in many parts of the world who may have read press reports that I was an eyewitness. This indicates that there is a great lack of confidence in the part of the United States regarding the official American account of President Kennedy's assassination. These suspicions have certainly not been allayed by the statement of Chief Justice Warren of the commission investigating the President's death.

On the day after Mrs. Marrs' sensational first appearance, Chief Justice Warren told reporters that he had not seen the film and was released in New York. He added: "I will say this seriously."

This statement in the face of all sorts of fantastic stories that have appeared in the world press would seem to me to be inept and ill-advised.

From page 1, the London Observer of April 5, 1964 published an article by Cyril Dunn headed "Was Kennedy Killed by Accident?"

Dunn says: "Despite Chief Justice Warren, an American writer has produced a book which suggests that the President was killed by mistake. The writer, Mark Lane, is a well-known lawyer."

But Dunn goes on to say that the most serious implication of Lane's book is that officers of the Dallas police were involved in a plot so that the President might have been assassinated because of his liberal views.

Lee Oswald as Johnson photographed day before Kennedy's assassination

Dunn says that Lane claims that a number of people were "eliminated" because they knew too much about the plot. Lane says that three of these were killed by police officers during the "shoot-out" that followed the President's murder. Lane says that there was a fourth assassin [illegible] and that this person escaped because the police and the Secret Service were ordered to withdraw from the area. Lane says that it would be very difficult to send home three rounds from a single bolt action rifle at a moving target.

To further communicate the picture, a U.S. newspaper, the National Enquirer, featured a front page story on May 17 headlined "Washington Insiders Rocked by Report of a Fantastic Letter - Link Ruby and Oswald Smashed. Officials Hear U.S. Justice Dept. Letter Blocked Their Arrest Seven Months Before JFK Slaying."

Substance of this piece was that Oswald and Ruby were linked in an unsuccessful attempt to assassinate General Edwin A. Walker several months before the Kennedy assassination. It went on to say that Dallas police [illegible] after the Walker attack received orders from the U.S. Justice Department to release the two men quickly and that the Justice Department deliberately kept the pair out of jail before the Kennedy assassination. Newsweek also stated that the U.S. Congress Intelligence Service was using Ruby to report conversations between anti-Castro Cubans.

Rerep of SA Robert P. Gemberling dated 10-8-64.

Review of rerep indicates that the majority of material contained therein was previously furnished to the Bureau and disseminated to the President's Commission.

Your attention is specifically invited to Bureau airtels dated 9-15-64, and 9-17-64, in the case captioned "Assassination of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, November 22, 1963, Dallas, Texas, Miscellaneous - Information Concerning," regarding Albert Guy Bogard and Clifton M. Shasteen wherein Dallas was specifically advised that this material was being disseminated to the President's Commission and that subsequent reporting was not required or desirable. This has also been brought to your attention in the past.

All copies of rerep are being returned to you under separate cover for revision to insure that all items previously submitted to the Bureau and disseminated to the President's Commission are deleted. For your assistance, the material contained on the following pages was previously furnished to the President's Commission: Pages 20 through 56, 110 through 119, 123 through 149, 154 through 158 and 176 through 214.

This matter must be immediately handled and a revised report submitted without delay.

NOTE:

Dallas has been advised on prior occasions to not report information which has been previously furnished to the President's Commission. To disseminate rerep, consisting of 266 pages, it would be necessary to check the data in rerep against that previously furnished to insure there were no inconsistencies. It is felt the time necessary for such an endeavor is not warranted and, therefore, Dallas is being instructed to revise the report.

ReDLairtel 7/9/64, and DLairtel and enclosed letterhead memorandum dated 8/7/64.

Both communications in part relate to efforts of one George Nash, who is alternately described as a Columbia University Professor and law student, to elicit information from a witness along Oswald's escape route from the murder of Officer J. D. Tippit of the Dallas Police Department.

Enclosed for Dallas and New York is one copy each of a self-explanatory article which appeared in the 10/12/64 issue of "The New York Times" on page 47, entitled "Study Sees Gaps in Warren Data." The article in part relates that George and Patricia Nash, a Columbia University research team, had charged certain inadequacies in the report of the President's Commission. It would appear the George Nash mentioned in the enclosed article is identical with the George Nash mentioned in referenced airtels.

No information identifiable with Mr. & Mrs. Frank Wright or Acquilla Clemmons could be located in Bureau files. No information other than that in referenced communications could be located in Bureau files on George and Patricia Nash.

OCT 16 1964

Dallas is instructed to review its indices on the above individuals and furnish the Bureau with any pertinent information. No interviews with these persons should be conducted at this time.

In addition, Dallas is instructed, through public sources or other discreet investigative means, to determine the proximity of the Wrights' residence to the scene of the Tippit murder.

You should also furnish the Bureau with your views as to the desirability of conducting interviews with the above-named persons. You will be specifically instructed as to any additional investigation desired.

Note:

According to the "Times" article, the Nashes made an independent two-week study in Dallas that included interviews with some of the witnesses connected with events surrounding the assassination, and their findings are being published in "The New Leader" (a reportedly liberal anti-communist publication). The Nashes have charged that the Commission's report "is less than complete", and make various charges. Among these charges is one that they were able to locate two persons "the Wrights" who were not questioned and who live in an apartment about one half block from where Tippit was murdered. According to this article, Mr. Wright's observations differ from the facts set out in the Commission's report. They also claim that a second witness to the Tippit slaying was interviewed by the FBI and is identified as Acquilla Clemmons.

It is pointed out the fabricated story of a second female witness to the Tippit shooting was one put out by Mark Lane, the reportedly pro-communist New York attorney, and has been thoroughly investigated on more than one occasion and no substantiation has been found. Neither of the above people have come to our attention in the past, however, we will check with Dallas on this alleged information.

Based upon results, consideration will be given to interviewing the above-named persons.

STUDY SEES GAPS IN WARREN DATA

Article Terms Inquiry Into Tippit Slaying Inadequate

A Columbia University research team has charged that the Warren Commission failed to interview all persons able to give information about events conncected with the assassination of President Kennedy in Dallas last Nov. 22.

George and Patricia Nash, a husbnad and wife who are research assistants at the university's Bureau of Applied Social Research, also delcared that the commission's report "is less tha complete."

In that connection, the Nashes said they also had found related incidents on the personnel and facilities at the Texas School Book Depository, from which the shots that killed the President were fired.

Their findings, based on an independent two-week study in Dallas that included interviews with some of the witnesses, are published in today's issue of The New Leader, a biweekly magazine sponsored by the American Labor Conference on International Affairs, Inc.

Unquestioned Witnesses

The magazine article, called "The Other Witnesses," says that the Warren Commission "failed to question all those who saw the slaying of Patrolman J. D. Tippit, the Dallas police officer who was said to have stopped and questioned the President's assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald.

The Nashes asserted they were able to locate two persons who were not questioned. They were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wright, who lived in an apartment about half a block from the site of the patrolman's murder.

The authors, describing Mr. Wright's report on what he saw when the patrolman was killed, conclude with a quote from him:

"I knew a man drove off in a gray car. Nothing in the world's going to change my opinion. I saw a man drive off in a gray coupe just as clear as I was born. They can say all they want about a fellow running away, but I can't accept this because I saw a fellow get in a car and drive away."

Noting that Mr. Wright's story differed sharply from the Warren Commission Report, the Nashes commented:

"We have no way of knowing how the investigation could have ignored Wright, whether his memory is accurate, or whether a plausible explanation for the mysterious man in the car might be a passerby unwilling to be a witness. Why didn't this account come to the commission's attention?"

Ambulance Driver Mentioned

The Nashes also point out that Mrs. Wright called for an ambulance and that the police records show it was her call that led to a response from the Dudley M. Hughes Funeral Home. The ambulance driver, Clayton Butler, also was not questioned by the commission, according to the authors.

Turning to the Warren Report, the Nashes noted that the commission had relied on testimony from Mrs. Helen Louise Markham on the Tippit slaying, and they described this information as "in direct contradiction" with that garnered from the people they interviewed.

On this point, the authors conclude:

"It appears quite possible that Mrs. Markham came on the scene only after hearing the shots; and without Mrs. Markham, there is no one to say precisely what happened between Tippit and Oswald."

Other Omissions Alleged

The Nashes also said the commission's report had "unresolved or untouched" these points:

¶Information on a second witness to the Tippit slaying interviewed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. She was identified as Acquilla Clemmons.

¶The proximity of the site of the Tippit slaying to the home of Jack Ruby, who later killed Oswald in the Dallas prison.

¶The fact that at least one other man working in the Texas School Book Depository, from which Oswald was said to have fired the rifle that killed the President, was missing from the sixth-floor work crew.

¶The fact that there were four separate "rear doors, all of which were open and only one of which was guarded," at the depository.

Declaring that their aim was not to establish "any person's guilt or innocence," the Nashes said they had undertaken the study "to demonstrate that future historians and social scientists will not be able to reconstruct what occurred from the commission's report alone."

As the years pass, they concluded, "questions will become increasingly difficult to answer with any degree of accuracy."

MR. TOLSON:

I have noted Mr. Gale's memorandum recommending disciplinary action relative to a number of Bureau personnel in the field and at the Seat of Government in connection with the Oswald case.

I understand the reason for Bureau insistence on perfection in handling our work and I would have it no other way. However, I believe that as in all other matters involving Bureau policy, the affect of disciplinary action should be weighed against the results that flow from it. In this particular case I think we are making a tactical error by taking this disciplinary action in this case at this time. The Warren Commission report has just been released. It contains criticism of the FBI. We are currently starting aggressive steps to challenge the findings of the Warren Commission insofar as they pertain to the Bureau. It is most important, therefore, that we do not provide a foothold for our critics or the general public to seize upon to say in effect "See, the Warren Commission is right, Mr. Hoover has taken strong action against personnel involved in this case and thus admits that the Bureau was in error."

As you are aware, the Dallas papers have printed a story relative to action taken against Agent Kaack of New Orleans and Agent Howe of Dallas. I understand that Agent Hosty has just been transferred. While we can say that this transfer was necessary because his usefulness at Dallas was at an end, I think the timing of his transfer is most unfortunate because it is timed with the release of the Commission report. An interval of two months say, in my mind, would have made a world of difference.

REC 20 5103 OCT 15 1964

I heard over the radio last night an interview with Secretary Dillon of Treasury, during which he was asked whether action was contemplated against Secret Service Agents in connection with the Oswald case. His reply in effect was a careful check had been made of the activities of the Agents, it had been determined that no action was warranted and none would be taken. In effect, then the Treasury Department is providing no handhold for further critical remarks about Secret Service. I have no doubt that Dillon's statement will be used to contrast the action taken by the Bureau and the conclusion reached by the press and the public will not be that the FBI is running a tighter more efficient organization, but rather that the FBI admits it was wrong in the Oswald case.

ADDENDUM BY MR. TOLSON 10/1/64:

Most of the administrative action recommended deals with administrative derelictions with respect to the Security Index, the prompt submission of reports, etc. AND: hmm and not the Oswald case per se.

Re San Antonio airtel to Bureau dated 9/28/64 with an enclosure to the Dallas Office of a notebook of the Sheraton Hotel which was found by [redacted] San Antonio, Texas, in Room 2422 of the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel, Dallas, Texas, during his stay at this hotel from September 24 through September 27, 1964.

From a review of the contents of the notebook, it would appear that the unknown writer of same was interested in instant investigation as it pertains to the association between LEE HARVEY OSWALD and GEORGE DeMOHRENSCHILDT. The "GDM" mentioned frequently in the notes is most likely the latter individual.

It is noted that the name of SAMUEL B. BALLEN appears in this notebook. BALLEN was interviewed on October 5, 1964, regarding the identity of anyone he had discussed OSWALD or DeMOHRENSCHILDT with during September, 1964, who was staying at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel. BALLEN stated that he had had several detailed discussions regarding DeMOHRENSCHILDT with GEORGE McMILLAN, an employee of the National Broadcasting Company, who was in Dallas for several weeks during September and who stayed at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel. BALLEN stated that McMILLAN was assigned by NBC to prepare a television program based upon the background to the assassination of President KENNEDY, which program was to be aired upon the release of the report of the findings of the President's Commission.

BALLEN stated that he had not contacted anyone else at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel in this regard during September, 1964.

No record of GEORGE McMILLAN having occupied a room on the 24th floor of the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel during September, 1964, was located; however, it was determined that one GEORGE McMILLAN, Box 299, Aiken, South Carolina, was a resident of this hotel from August 30, 1964, to September 17, 1964. A copy of this person's hotel registration card (#Z-87949) was furnished by BARNEY TOBIN, Reservation Manager, Sheraton-Dallas Hotel.

There are being forwarded to the Bureau the following two items, which are enclosed herewith:

1. Notebook of the Sheraton Hotels and Motor Inns consisting of six pages with a cover identified by ELMER E. COOPER, MD, Room 2422.

Enclosed for the Savannah Office is a small notebook which bears the notation "Sheraton Hotels and Motor Inns." This notebook was furnished to the San Antonio Office on 9/28/64 by [redacted], who has offices at [redacted] San Antonio, Texas. [redacted] does not desire the notebook returned to him.

[redacted] informed the San Antonio Office that he found the enclosed notebook when he checked in at the Sheraton Hotel in Dallas, Texas, 9/24/64. He found this notebook in a phone table between the beds in his room number 2422 at the Sheraton Hotel. [redacted] added that he checked out of the Sheraton Hotel on 9/27/64. He also stated that from reading the notebook some of the notations therein appeared to refer to Lee Harvey Oswald and he decided to call this matter to the Bureau's attention. He speculated that possibly the notebook had belonged to some reporter.

Also enclosed for the Savannah Office is a copy of an airtel from the Dallas Office to the Bureau dated 10/8/64 which sets forth results of inquiries by the Dallas Office in this matter. The San Antonio Office will note that the notebook possibly belongs to Mr. George McMillan, Box 299, Aiken, South Carolina. The FBI Laboratory examined the handwriting in the notebook but was unable to determine whether the notebook was in the handwriting of Mr. McMillan. For your investigative interest, the FBI Laboratory did note certain handwriting similarities in the notebook in comparison to Mr. McMillan's known handwriting. This, however, should not be mentioned to anyone outside the Bureau.

RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The Savannah Office should immediately contact Mr. McMillan and display the enclosed notebook to him to determine if this is his property. If so, the Savannah Office should ascertain from Mr. McMillan the significance of the entries in the notebook as they relate to Lee Harvey Oswald or the assassination of the late President John F. Kennedy.

In the event the Savannah Office determines that the enclosed notebook belonged to Mr. McMillan and does not appear to have any evidential value in connection with the assassination of President Kennedy, such notebook should be returned to Mr. McMillan.

Handle immediately and advise Bureau results of your contact with Mr. McMillan in this matter. In the event you determine this notebook does not belong to Mr. McMillan, it should be returned to the Bureau.

NOTE:

Notebook Notebook in question contains considerable handwriting which appeared to be the type of notes a reporter would make concerning inquiries regarding the assassination and Lee Harvey Oswald. It appears the individual who made these notes may have been making inquiries concerning Oswald's relationship with George DeMohrenschildt, a social acquaintance of the Oswalds in Dallas. The notebook also contains the name of another social acquaintance of Lee Oswald, Mr. Sam Balan. We contacted Mr. Balan concerning the entries in the notebook and he recalled having several detailed discussions regarding Oswald, DeMohrenschildt, and the assassination with Mr. George McMillan, an employee of the National Broadcasting Company, who was in Dallas several weeks during September, 1964, and who stayed in the Sheraton Hotel in Dallas shortly before [redacted] stayed in this Hotel. It appears the notebook may belong to Mr. McMillan.

REPORT OF TEXAS ATTORNEY GENERAL WAGGONER CARR TO GOVERNOR J. B. CONNALLY REGARDING EVENT IN DALLAS ON NOVEMBER 22, 1963, AND SUBSEQUENT THERETO

Lee Oswald

Captioned report was released by Texas Attorney General Carr on October 5, 1964, and a copy of same was obtained same date by our San Antonio Office. It has been reviewed with the following findings by the General Investigative and Domestic Intelligence Divisions.

This brief document (3,000 words), which purports to be a supplement to the Warren Commission Report, concludes that Oswald was the assassin of the President and Officer Tippit, and that his actions were not part of any conspiracy, foreign or domestic, to assassinate the President.

The document, written by Attorney General Carr in the first person, is better described as a self-serving apologetic treatise explaining the actions of Dallas officials subsequent to the assassination. The first half of the document explains Carr's decision, immediately after the assassination, to form a Texas Court of Inquiry into the events of November 22, 1963. It explains the Court of Inquiry was not convened in deference to the request of the Warren Commission, and that, in view of the Warrent Commission Report, there is no useful purpose at this time for any court of inquiry.

In serving his own interests, Carr's document maintains that he and his special counsel subsequent to the assassination assisted the Warren Commission by (1) assembling and submitting investigative reports gathered under the supervision of Dallas City and County officials, (2) served as liaison between the Commission and Dallas City and County officials, (3) attended sessions of the Commission for the taking of testimony, and (4) completed a careful study and analysis of the Commission's Report prior to its final adoption and release. In serving the interest of local Dallas officials, Carr notes with much satisfaction that, according to the Commission's Report, Oswald was not subjected to any type of mistreatment while in the custody of Texas officials, and that his constitutional right to counsel was fully preserved.

It finds Oswald to have been an enemy of the political philosophy of Texas and states that the evidence developed by the Commission clearly refutes the earlier insinuations emanating in some quarters that the political philosophy of Dallas was responsible for the tragedy.

Concerning events immediately subsequent to the arrest of Oswald, Carr takes cognizance that the news media virtually took charge of the entrances, hallways, and public rooms of the City Jail, which condition existed throughout the time of Oswald's confinement until his death. He comments in this connection that the City Manager and the Chief of Police concluded that if an attempt had been made to remove the news media and their equipment, "hard feelings and chaos would have resulted."

He continues stating that while subsequent events, including the murder of Oswald magnified the deficiency in security measures, local officials do not accept the full responsibility for the conditions prevalent at that time because they had no knowledge of the background of Oswald until after the assassination. What this has to do with the incarceration Carr does not state.

In conclusion, Carr recommends that:

(1) His report be filed in the Archives of Texas.

(2) Representatives of the State Bar of Texas, the news media and local and state officials take steps to establish a fair and satisfactory working relationship designed to prevent future disorder and confusion in pre-trial activities.

(3) Representatives of Federal, State, and local law enforcement agencies in Texas conduct a study to improve co-ordination and exchange of information concerning criminal or subversive suspects and to recommend ways and means of improving security measures for the protection of the President and other high officials visiting Texas.

Memorandum to Mr. Tolson
RE: REPORT OF TEXAS ATTORNEY GENERAL CARR

Attorney General Carr's document adds nothing to what is already known, and it does not appear that any further action is warranted on our part concerning it.

It is noted that this is not a report; but according to recent newspaper articles, it was designed to supplement the President's Commission Report and to show how the people of Texas shouldered their responsibility in the investigation of the assassination and the wounding of Governor Connally.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

In the October 12, 1964 issue of "The New Leader," pages 6-9, there is an article by George and Patricia Nash, entitled "The Other Witnesses," copies of which are attached hereto. This article discusses the results of an investigation in Dallas of the circumstances surrounding the killing of Patrolman J. D. Tippit of the Dallas police.

In connection with your continuing investigation of President Kennedy's assassination and the events connected with it, "The New Leader" article may be of interest to you.

REC- 51 5110

2 ENCLOSURE

60 OCT 29 1964

The Other Witnesses

By George and Patricia Nash

THE WARREN Commission Report already has won the respect of almost all who have read it, and deservedly so. It is a clearly written, remarkably comprehensive document that is cautious in reaching conclusions. It dispels rumors, wrecks theories, dismisses items of "evidence" used to convict Lee Harvey Oswald in the public mind, and draws some order from the confusion surrounding the assassination of President Kennedy over these past 10 months.

In the process, it also takes the trouble to dispense justice where injustices have been done. The Dallas police, for example, had issued an extremely damaging story about Joe Molina, for 17 years credit manager at the Texas School Book Depository, as a "possible Number 2 man" in the murder. Their suspicions had been aroused by the fact that Molina belonged to a veterans' organization called the American GI Forum, which the Dallas police alone considered subversive, and the publicity cost him his job. The Commission delves into the details of Molina's case and clears him.

But what of the future historians or political scientists attempting to reconstruct the events of last November 22? Will they find all the pertinent facts in the voluminous Report? In the light of an intensive two-week investigation that we conducted ourselves in Dallas, we would have to answer: No. Particularly where the slaying of Patrolman J. D. Tippit and the events at the Depository are concerned, the Report is less than complete.

The most convincing aspect of the case against Oswald involves the testimony of three witnesses to the Tippit shooting at 10th Street and Patton Avenue, in Oak Cliff. Here the evidence is not merely circumstantial, as with the assassination. The Commission quotes extensively the accounts given by three persons who were near the scene of the crime: William Scoggins, Domingo Benavides and Mrs. Helen Louise Markham.

Taxi-driver Scoggins—eating lunch in his parked taxi—noticed a man and the approaching police car, heard shots, saw Tippit fall, then saw the man run south on Patton. At the moment of the actual shooting his view was partially obstructed by shrubbery, and he did not emerge from the cab until he heard the firing. The next day he picked Oswald out of a lineup, not as the killer but simply as the man he had seen running past him.

Domingo Benavides was driving a pickup truck west on 10th Street. As he crossed the intersection a block east of 10th and Patton, he saw a policeman standing by the left door of the patrol car and a man standing on the car's right side. He then heard three shots and saw the policeman fall. He waited in the truck until the gunman ran to the corner, and saw him empty the shells into some bushes. "It was Benavides, using Tippit's car radio, who first reported the killing of Patrolman Tippit at about 1:16 P.M.," the Report declares, although the ambulance records show a different source of the shooting report. The Report goes on to note that Benavides told police "he did not think that he could identify the man who fired the shots."

Mrs. Markham gave the only detailed account of what occurred between the gunman and Tippit from the moment the patrolman stopped on 10th Street. According to the Report: "Her description and that of other eyewitnesses led to the police broadcast at 1:22 P.M. describing [Tippit's] slayer as 'about 30, 5'8", black hair, slender.'" But Mrs. Markham also told attorney Mark Lane that the gunman was "short, a little on the heavy side," with "somewhat bushy" hair. In testifying before the Commission, she first denied that she had ever said this and changed her story only when confronted with a tape recording of the conversation. The Commission observes that "in her various statements and in her testimony, Mrs. Markham was uncertain and inconsistent in her recollection of the exact time of the slaying." Nevertheless, the Report declares: "Addressing itself solely to the probative value of Mrs. Markham's contemporaneous description of the gunman and her positive identification of Oswald at a police lineup, the Commission considers her testimony reliable."

Contrary to what some have maintained, we did not find Mrs. Markham inaccessible. Our interview with her, though, did lead us to feel that any testimony she might give was of dubious value. Since she is a critical witness, we think part of the interview worth quoting verbatim:

"Q. Has the assassination of the President and what happened afterwards affected you personally?

"A. It sure has. I lost my job . . . having to go to Washington. I've had a nervous breakdown. I'm the witness. I'm the one he was talking to when he died. I know what it's like when someone dies. I was with my father when he died. He [my father] said 'Well, I don't know.' And then he was dead. I couldn't understand what Tippit said. I guess he wanted me to call on the car radio and get some help. I was there with Tippit when they put him on the stretcher. He was dying.

"Q. Was it long until the ambulance came?

"A. No.

"Q. About how long?

"A. I was there hollering and screaming, trying to get help. Wouldn't nobody come help me. I would guess that it was about 20 minutes before the ambulance came—20, 25 minutes I was there alone until the ambulance came and then another five minutes until the police came . . . The police treated me like a queen. Me and the cab driver, I guess we're the only witnesses. When the police got there, I fainted. I fainted three or four times."

Thus Mrs. Markham stated that Tippit talked to her after being shot (although the Commission says he was killed instantly), and that she was alone on the scene for 20 minutes (although the ambulance arrived within minutes of the shooting). And nowhere does she mention Benavides, who used the car radio to call the police.

WE WERE able to locate at least two witnesses at the Tippit murder scene who were not questioned or even contacted by the Commission. We had little difficulty in tracking them down and we could find no reason to doubt their veracity. Because their statements are important in relation to Mrs. Markham's testimony, and because they have not appeared elsewhere, we shall also quote them verbatim. First, Frank Wright, who lived in a ground floor apartment on 10th Street, about half a block east of the murder site:

"I was sitting watching television with my wife. I was sitting in a chair next to the door. I wasn't but two steps from the door. I heard shots. I knew it wasn't backfire. I knew it was shots. As soon as I heard them, I went out the door. I could see a police car in the next block. It was toward the end of the next block. I could see it clearly. The police car was headed toward me. It was parked on the south side of the street. In other words, it was parked across the street from our apartment house. I saw a person right by the car. He had fallen down. It seems as if he had just fallen down. Maybe I saw him as he had just finished falling. He was on the ground, and then he turned over face down. Part of him was under the left front fender of the car. It seems to me that I saw him just as he hit the ground. I saw him turn over and he didn't move any more.

"I looked around to see what had happened. I knew there had been a shooting. I saw a man standing right in front of the car. He was looking toward the man on the ground. He stood there for a while and looked at the man. I couldn't tell who the man was on the ground. The man who was standing in front of him was about medium height. He had on a long coat. It ended just above his hands. I didn't see any gun. He ran around on the passenger side of the police car. He ran as fast as he could go and he got into his car. His car was a grey, little old coupe. It was about a 1950-1951, maybe a Plymouth. It was a grey car, parked on the same side of the street as the police [redacted] but beyond it from me. It was heading away from me. He got in that car and he drove away as quick as you could see. He drove down 10th Street, away from me. I don't know how far he drove. After he got into the middle of the next block between Patton and Crawford, I didn't look at him any more.

"I looked at the car where the man was. I looked to see what had happened there. About the same time as I came out, or maybe a little while after, a woman came down from her porch. She was at the house about three or four doors from the intersection of 10th and Patton. The house was on the same side of the street as the police car. Just as the man in the car pulled away she came toward the police car and then she stepped back. I heard her shout, 'Oh, he's been shot!' throwing up her hands. Then she went back up toward the house. There was no one out there except me and that woman when I got there, except for the man I described earlier. I couldn't figure out who did the shooting. I didn't see a gun on the man who was standing in front of the car. There wasn't anyone else but the man who drove away and the woman who came down from her porch. I was the first person out. I knew there wasn't anyone else there at all. It wasn't any time at all until the ambulance got there. By the time the ambulance got there, there were maybe 25 more people outside. Then after a while, the police came up. After that, a whole lot of police came up. I tried to tell two or three people what I saw. They didn't pay any attention. I've seen what came out on television and in the papers but I know that's not what happened. I knew a man drove off in a grey car. Nothing in the world's going to change my opinion. I saw that man drive off in a grey coupe just as clear as I was born. I know what I saw. They can say all they want about a fellow running away, but I can't accept this because I saw a fellow get in a car and drive away."

We have no way of knowing how the investigation could have ignored Wright, whether his memory is accurate, or whether a plausible explanation for the mysterious man in the car might be a passerby unwilling to be a witness. For our purposes here, such speculation is beside the point, which is simply: Why didn't this account come to the Commission's attention?

The question becomes all the more relevant when it is realized that it was a call from Mrs. Wright which was responsible for the ambulance being dispatched, and the police had her address:

"I was sitting in my apartment watching television with my husband. We had just learned that the President was shot. I was sitting in a chair with my back to the intersection of 10th and Denver. My husband was sitting across from me. I heard shots fired and I immediately ran to the window.

"I heard three shots. From my window I got a clear view of a man lying there on the street. He was there in the next block. I could see there was a man lying in the street. I didn't wait a minute. I ran to the telephone. I didn't look in the book or anything. I ran to the telephone, picked it up and dialed 'O.' I said, 'Call the police, a man's been shot!' After that I went outside to join my husband. It wasn't but a minute till the ambulance got there."

The operator took Mrs. Wright's address, 501 East 10th, and called the police. The police noted there was a shooting at 501 East 10th and pushed a buzzer connecting them by a direct line to the Dudley M. Hughes Funeral Home.

THE DUDLEY M. Hughes Funeral Home is the central ambulance dispatching point for southern Dallas. It either handles calls directly or calls other funeral homes in the system that cov other areas. Dudley M. Hughes Jr the dispatcher, took the call fro the police. He filled out an amb lance call slip with the code "3-1 (which means emergency shooting and the address, "501 East 10 Street." He put the slip into t time clock and stamped it 1:1 P.M., November 22, in the spa marked "Time Called." Since t location was just two short bloc away he told one of his own drive Clayton Butler, to respond. But and Eddie Kinsley ran down t steps, got into the ambulance a took off, siren screaming.

Butler radioed his arrival at t scene at 1:18 P.M., within 60 s onds of leaving the funeral hom He remembers that there were least 10 people standing arou the man lying on the ground. It w not until he and his assistant pull back a blanket covering Tippit t they realized the victim was a p liceman.

Butler ran back to his radio inform headquarters. The radio w busy and he could not cut in. yelled "Mayday" to no avail, a went back to Tippit. The officer on his side, face down with part his body under the left front fen of the police car. Butler and Kins rolled him over and saw the bu wound through Tippit's tem Butler told us, "I thought he dead then. It's not my position say so. We got him into the am lance and we got going as quick possible. On the way to the hosp I finally let them know it wa policeman." The record shows Butler called in to the funeral h at 1:26 P.M. to say he had reac the hospital.

Despite the fact that the am lance was dispatched to 501 10th, no statement was ever ta from either of the Wrights. Mrs Wright remembers that a man did not identify himself c around two months after the P dent's assassination and talked her for a few minutes. He took notes, did not ask her to sign anything, did not speak to her husband and did not ask if he had seen anything unusual. Clayton Butler, the ambulance driver, says he was questioned by the Dallas police when he arrived at the hospital, but not since then.

Others never questioned included Butler's assistant, Eddie Kinsley; Dudley M. Hughes Jr., who dispatched the ambulance; and the managers of the apartment house facing the murder site. All of these potential witnesses were in agreement on the lapse of time between the shots and the arrival of the ambulance—in direct contradiction to Mrs. Markham's statement. It is worth noting, in connection with Mrs. Markham's reliability, that the lineup (which satisfied the Commission as fair in its procedure) included only three persons besides Oswald for Mrs. Markham to choose from: two 18-year-olds and a 26-year-old man of Mexican descent. Oswald (who had appeared on television before this lineup) was the only one whose face was cut and bruised. In the light of our own findings in the Tippit slaying, it appears quite possible that Mrs. Markham came on the scene only after hearing the shots; and without Mrs. Markham, there is no one to say precisely what happened between Tippit and Oswald.

THERE ARE also a number of other points which the Report leaves unresolved or untouched:

1. The Report cites as one "speculation" the rumor that "another witness to the slaying of Patrolman Tippit, an unidentified woman, was interviewed by the FBI but was never called as a witness" by the Commission. In reply, the Report declares: "The only woman among the witnesses to the slaying of Tippit known to the Commission is Helen Markham. The FBI never interviewed any other woman who claimed to have seen the shooting and never received any information concerning the existence of such a witness."

We interviewed this "other witness," whose name is Acquilla Clemmons. She claims to have seen two men near the police car, in addition to Tippit, just before the shooting. The woman said the FBI did question her briefly but decided not to take a statement because of her poor physical condition (she is a diabetic). Her version of the slaying was rather vague, and she may have based her story on second-hand accounts of others at the scene. It seems probable, however, that she is known to some investigative agency if not to the Commission itself.

2. The Report dismisses the rumor that Oswald lived near Jack Ruby, pointing out that their residences were a mile apart. But the Tippit shooting took place only two blocks from Ruby's home on Marsalis St., a fact not mentioned by the Commission.

3. The Report gives the impression that Oswald was the only Depository worker found to be absent after the assassination. But Bill Shelley, Oswald's foreman, and others who worked in the building told us that Charles Givens was missing from the sixth floor work crew. Shelley said he was sent outside in an unsuccessful attempt to locate Givens, and there was talk of sending out an "all-points bulletin" on the missing man. This proved unnecessary because Givens heard he was being sought and made his way to police headquarters.

4. The Report accepts the version of the assassination aftermath in which Roy Truly, the Depository supervisor, and Patrolman M. L. Baker are supposed to have entered the building and met Oswald on the second floor less than two minutes after the attack. But Molina, the unjustly accused worker, told us he testified that he was standing by the Depository door and saw Truly run past him into the building—alone. Further, Bill Shelley told us that Truly and Baker entered five or six minutes after the shooting.

Obviously, the question of the precise timing has important implications: If Oswald was not encountered for five or six minutes after the shooting, this would have allowed him time to reach the second floor easily from either the sixth floor or from the front of the building, as he himself claimed; if the time was just two minutes, the argument is sure to continue that Oswald could not have made it from the sixth floor to the second—despite the FBI re-enactment showing this was possible.

5. The Report mentions that "the front door" and "the rear door" of the Depository were guarded from about six minutes after the shooting. What it omits, however, is that there were four separate "rear doors," all of which were open and only one of which was guarded. There are two loading platforms, a customer's door and a rail entry. No one guarding any one of these doors could see any of the others. This conceivably might be relevant to a question of whether Oswald acted alone. As Shelley told us, "Any one of a thousand different people could have entered or left the building and nobody would have known it."

Again, our purpose in discussing the items we found untouched or unresolved by the Report has not been to determine whose version of the events is correct, or to establish any one person's guilt or innocence. Our object has simply been to demonstrate that future historians and social scientists will not be able to reconstruct what occurred last November 22 from the Commission's report alone. Moreover, as the years go by, witnesses vanish, inconsistencies are forgotten and memories fade, the questions they will undoubtedly raise will become increasingly difficult to answer with any degree of accuracy.

1 Date 10/10/64

Miss LUCILLE ANN ROBINSON, Friends Bible College, Haviland, Kansas, was advised that members of the staff of the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY were being contacted at the specific request of the Commission to determine if they had any knowledge of leaks of information to the news media of material concerning the work of the Commission. She advised she formerly resided at 5000 Dixon Street, S. E., Washington, D. C., and was employed as a Clerk-Stenographer in the U. S. Defense Department, Washington, D. C., for 19½ years prior to her resignation on August 26, 1964. She was on loan to the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY for the period August 13-25, 1964 inclusive at Washington, D. C. She also worked for the Commission two and one half hours on August 10, 1964, and during the entire period she was working in the capacity of a Clerk-Stenographer assigned to the unit under W. DAVID SLAWSON, attorney, Denver, Colorado. Her duties primarily consisted of retyping corrected rough draft portions of the report of the Commission; however, she did not do finished typing.

She was unable to recall any pattern to the material which she typed; however, she recalls the contents of these pages primarily concerned MARINA OSWALD and her life with LEE HARVEY OSWALD. She recalled some of the material concerned the dress, habits, manners of LEE HARVEY OSWALD, and his treatment of his wife. She did not recall anything concerning the OSWALD diary or correspondence to him. Some of the pages which she retyped were classified, but she cannot recall the classification and was of the opinion that most of the pages were not classified.

She recalled that all copies of the material handled by her were returned to SLAWSON upon completion of her work and were not retained in the typing unit at any time. On at least two occasions she personally made Xerox copies of pages of typed material, and the usual number of copies made in this manner were four or five of each page. These were made at the request of SLAWSON and were immediately furnished to him by her. She also believes all of the material which was copied in this manner was unclassified. At times she sent typewritten material to a Xerox unit in the Commission for reproduction, which material was then returned to her unit.

ROBINSON claimed she has no knowledge of any leaks to news media of any of the work of the Commission. She never heard of any of the employees in her unit removing material from the office, nor does she have any knowledge of information regarding the work of the Commission being discussed with persons outside the Commission's staff. She never observed any of the evidence obtained by the Commission.

Synopsis:

Mrs. BESSIE FLECKENSTEIN, second floor, 4110 LaSalle Avenue, Baltimore 6, Maryland, advised on September 29, 1964, that on November 23, 1963, she had observed, on television, a policeman in Dallas, Texas, find a wad of money in a coat which was allegedly OSWALD's. She said this money was snatched from the policeman's hand by another hand which appeared on the television screen. She believed this money was an indication OSWALD had been paid by somebody to kill the President. She also believed expression on OSWALD's face, as she saw it on television when JACK RUBY shot him, indicated OSWALD knew RUBY. She, therefore, believed RUBY was equally guilty of the assassination and that policeman was killed because he knew too much. She never saw film of snatching of money repeated on television and is now reporting it to make certain it was not overlooked.

DETAILS:

On September 28, 1964, Mrs. BESSIE FLECKENSTEIN, 4110 LaSalle Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland, telephoned the Baltimore Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and requested that she be contacted at her residence by a Special Agent concerning something she had seen on television relating to the assassination of President KENNEDY.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mrs. BESSIE FLECKENSTEIN, second floor, ~~4110 LaSalle~~ Date Avenue, Baltimore 6, Maryland, advised that everything she knows about this matter she secured from watching television or hearing and reading news reports. She stated that she considered President JOHN KENNEDY a wonderful man and that she was extremely upset when he was assassinated on November 22, 1963, and was ill for several weeks thereafter. She said that she had not contacted any authorities concerning this matter prior to this time because she did not know who to contact.

Mrs. FLECKENSTEIN said that she had been watching the television concerning President KENNEDY's visit to Dallas on November 22, 1963, and that she watched everything possible concerning the development which followed during the succeeding several days. She recalled that on Saturday, November 23, 1963, at 4:00 P.M., she was watching her television set in her own living room in Baltimore, Maryland, while OSWALD was being interrogated in the Police Station at Dallas. She said that she believed OSWALD had made some sort of comment like "Give me my coat." In response to this request, a policeman who appeared about six feet three inches tall, and in his thirties, went and got a coat which supposedly was OSWALD's. Mrs. FLECKENSTEIN believed this man to have been a policeman because he wore police uniform trousers, had on a white shirt, and had keys hanging from his belt.

Mrs. FLECKENSTEIN stated that she saw on television this policeman reach in the coat, which was allegedly OSWALD's, and pull out a "big wad of money with a band on it like it comes from the bank." She said the policeman appeared to be bewildered and that he "didn't no more know there was money in the coat" then she did. He dangled the money from his hand and said something like, "Look what I found." Mrs. FLECKENSTEIN said that on the television screen she merely saw a hand reach out and take the money away and heard a voice say something like "Shut your big mouth."

Mrs. FLECKENSTEIN stated that OSWALD's wife had claimed that OSWALD "didn't have no money", which leads Mrs. FLECKENSTEIN to question who got the money. Mrs. FLECKENSTEIN also believed that OSWALD had not killed President KENNEDY because of his own wishes but that somebody had paid him money to do it. She felt that the current report of the President's Commission on the Assassination, as publicized over the past weekend, whitewashes OSWALD to that extent.

Mrs. FLECKENSTEIN said that she had also been watching television and on the television screen had seen the shooting of OSWALD by JACK RUBY. She said that from the expression on OSWALD's face, she thought he had recognized RUBY. She, therefore, believed RUBY was as guilty as OSWALD of killing the President and that the policeman was killed because he knew too much.

Mrs. FLECKENSTEIN stated that she had watched much of the television film relating to the assassination as it was repeated on later occasions but that she had never seen the incident with the finding and the snatching of the money repeated. She, therefore, wanted to bring this to the attention of the proper authorities at this time to make certain that it had not been overlooked. She had no further information concerning this matter from any other source.

Lee Harvey Oswald
Internal Security - R - Cuba

On September 28, 1964, a Special Agent of the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) received a letter from [redacted] "El Diario-La Prensa" Spanish newspaper, 164 Duane Street, New York 13, New York. In his communication, [redacted] enclosed another letter, written in the Spanish language, which letter had been received at the office of "El Diario-La Prensa". The envelope, which accompanied this Spanish letter, bore the return name and address of one Saul Roca, 45 W. 151 St., New York.

In the first paragraph of the Spanish letter, the writer states that he did not wish to become involved "in this problem" since he was a foreigner but that his "conscious" obliged him to "help the authorities of this generous country that has given me protection".

In the second paragraph, he adds that he wants "to make clear that there were five persons involved in this vile and cowardly assassination".

He advises, in the third paragraph, that he is not furnishing his name for security reasons but "if the authorities wish to know me personally, they can do so through this newspaper and with the name I sign".

In the fourth paragraph, the writer states that the five individuals involved in the assassination are "Oswald, Ruby, the dead Policeman, a Cuban and a North American from the South". He goes on to explain in the next paragraph that at a meeting in "Ruby's night club, lots were cast and Oswald drew the lot". He adds that Oswald had been "lectured in Mexico by (illegible) Agent of the G-2 and the Mexican Leader of the group of Agents, Silvia Duran". He further adds that "there Oswald was given a Cuban passport to go to Cuba where he went more than

In the sixth paragraph, he continues as follows: "He (apparently referring to the North American) went to Mexico for fear that his friends would be assassinated, before the assassination, with the Cuban, [Jorge Nacer Nacer] serious, tall, fat, blue eyes, straight black hair and speaks correct English, Spanish, Syrian, Turkish and I believe French; a delinquent expelled from this country for assault some 15 years ago; he assaulted a Cuban bank here; he is the official of the G-2 assassination of the Mexican Chancellor (first name appears to be Flores) Aguine."

The next paragraph reflects that "His (apparently referring to [Jorge Nacer Nacer) brother, Carlos] equips a fishing boat in Cuba and it is a family of smugglers of precious stones and drugs."

In the eighth paragraph, the writer advises that "The North American settled himself in Mexico with a Cuban passport. He speaks correct Spanish and for many years stole autos in Mexico and this country; he said he was a Major in the United States Army in the first World War. He was arrested in 1933 in Mexico with 2 more on Palma #8 Street and he was taken prisoner." The writer remarks that the North American did not remember his name when arrested but that "the Cuban passport is issued to [Jhon Kelly] of New Orleans, Cuban citizen, occupation in the G-2."

In the succeeding paragraph, the writer expresses the belief that Oswald "killed the policeman so he wouldn't talk and Ruby killed Oswald for the same reason. [Nacer and Kelly] escaped."

The tenth paragraph of the letter indicates that the writer doesn't think that "they are sent by Castro or that the assassination came from there but that they are dependent on North American Communist leaders since the Committee of New York pays the expenses of those who are in Cuba."

In the eleventh paragraph, he states that "If Ruby is pressed as well as the Communist Party Delegation in this matter, but hard as we do in Mexico, they will sing and probably some woman in the night club knows more and keeps silent because she is afraid."

In the last paragraph, the writer advises that he is "going to try to go back to Mexico." He signs the letter "Very Gratefully, [Saul Roca]"

In a postscript the writer concludes, "I hope that 3 days after the publication of this article there will be an answer through this media to see me. I shall be waiting."

In connection with the above postcript, [redacted] advised, in his letter to the FBI, that he had determined that the name and address of the writer are fictitious. He advised that he will place an ad in the "El Diario-La Prensa" requesting the writer to contact him. [redacted] stated he would contact the FBI if he receives any additional information pertaining to this matter.

On September 29, 1964, a review of the Manhattan Telephone Directory and Manhattan Telephone-Address Directory failed to disclose any listing for a [Saul Roca] and further disclosed that there is no such address as 41 West 151st Street, New York City.

Re Dallas airtel to Bureau, Attention: FBI Laboratory, 4/23/64, enclosing one "Time" magazine, Volume 81, # 25, dated 6/21/63, with the printed label addressed to "Lee H. Oswald, Box 2915, Dallas 21, Texas". Referenced airtel did not request any Laboratory examination of the above-described magazine but was submitted to the Bureau in the event the Bureau desired to make it available to the President's Commission.

On 10/13/64, Miss FRANCES BLANTON, 6619 Ascot Lane, Dallas, Texas, office telephone RI 8-4088, residence telephone EM 8-7943, telephonically contacted SA ROBERT P. GEMBERLING at which time she requested that she would appreciate having the above-mentioned "Time" magazine returned to her, it being noted she made same available for submission to the FBI Laboratory on April 22, 1964.

Miss BLANTON was advised that such magazine had been submitted to the FBI Laboratory and that same had possibly been turned over to the President's Commission.

The Bureau is requested to advise if the above-described "Time" magazine will be returned to Dallas for return to Miss BLANTON.

discount positive evidence linking Oswald to this killing such as his revolver, identification of cartridge cases and testimony of numerous witnesses. The article in part repeats some of the allegations made by Mark Lane, the reported pro-communist New York Attorney who has been trying to discredit the investigation in this matter since its inception. "The Newleader" is reportedly very liberal and anti-communist. Reurairtel 10-14-64 regarding disposition of an issue of "Time" magazine dated June 21, 1963.

For your information, the June 21, 1963, issue of "Time" magazine which was made available to your office by Miss Frances Blanton is in possession of the Bureau. The Bureau has contacted the President's Commission regarding disposition of all evidence in this case and as soon as the Commission's desires in this regard are made known, your office will be promptly advised.

However, in connection with the particular piece of evidence, there is a question of actual ownership. This particular issue of "Time" magazine was addressed to Lee Harvey Oswald and it appears it should have been returned to the U. S. Post Office in Dallas by Mr. Gonzalo Ancira rather than given to Miss Blanton by Mr. Ancira. Accordingly, you should contact appropriate postal authorities in Dallas and fully explain the circumstances through which the Bureau came into possession of this particular piece of evidence. You should specifically ascertain from postal authorities what disposition the Post Office Department in Dallas desires that this Bureau make of this particular piece of evidence should the President's Commission decide it need not be retained as permanent evidence in this case.

Oswald rented Post Office Box 2915 in Dallas from 10-9-62 to 5-14-63. Ancira rented the same post office box 5-20-63 and subsequently received in this box an issue of "Time" magazine addressed to Oswald. Ancira was interviewed and stated he received several items in this post office box addressed to Oswald and returned such items to the Post Office Department; however, it appears this one item was not returned by him to the post office but instead was given to Miss Blanton who was working at that time with Ancira. Miss Blanton made available the magazine to Dallas 4-22-64 and Dallas furnished it to the Bureau and reported results of interviews with Ancira and Blanton in an investigative report which was disseminated to the Commission.

By airtel 10-14-64 Miss Blanton requested to be advised if the "Time" magazine addressed to Oswald could be returned to her. The President's Commission is now studying disposition of evidence in this case. In view of the circumstances through which Miss Blanton came into possession of this particular piece of evidence, desirable we take up matter of disposition of this item with postal authorities rather than returning same to Miss Blanton at this time.

that ALBERTO D. J. SANTALO had last been to their home following his discharge from the Army during January or February of 1964. He had been separated from the United States Army at Ft. Carson, Colorado, and had stopped in Jacksonville on his way to Orlando, Fla., to see a female friend and then to Miami to seek employment. Approximately a week later he had returned to Jacksonville and advised Mrs. HART that he had been unable to find employment and was therefore returning to Baltimore, Md. At that time he told Mrs. HART that he had given as a forwarding address the Hart address in Jacksonville. He asked that any mail which they received they retain until such time as he was able to forward them an address in Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. HART stated that following his departure they had received four letters which she placed in an envelope and retained until he wrote and advised them of his current address. She searched all correspondence which she had available and was unable to locate the address which he had furnished. On 10/14/64, Mrs. HART telephonically advised this Agent that she had located two addresses, one of which she felt was that of SANTALO. They are as follows:

2700 Charles, Baltimore 18, Md., and 333 Whitridge, Baltimore 18, Md.

The Baltimore Division is in possession of those documents forwarded by referenced communication and Baltimore is requested to locate and interview SANTALO as directed in referenced communication.

Marine 'Oddball' Checks Defended

By WILLIAM GRAFFAM
Of Our Beaufort Bureau

BEAUFORT, S. C. — The commandant of the Marine Corps said Monday that the present system of communicating knowledge of "oddballs" in the service to the FBI is "a very adequate system."

Gen. Wallace M. Greene Jr. made the comment when questioned at a press conference about the Warren Commission report concerning Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of the late President John F. Kennedy and a former Marine.

Greene was at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot on nearby Parris Island as part of his tour of corps installations in Beaufort County.

Greene also indicated that he thought a warning "red tag" classification of individuals based on psychological studies would be a "pretty dangerous business to get into."

Greene is hopeful of expanding size of corps. Page 8B.

Greene was questioned about the status of present and planned communications with other federal agencies in regard to "red tagging"—a warning on potentially dangerous individuals.

A recommendation of the Warren Commission report was that communications between the FBI and Secret Service could be improved.

Greene said that he had not had time to read the full report, "But just speaking from our present system, I think our present system for handling cases of this sort is a very adequate system."

"For example, if a man is a disciplinary case while he is still in the Marine Corps, he is punished and it goes on his record. The record is available to duly authorized officials thereafter," Greene said.

"The same thing goes if the man is a psychiatric case and becomes a mental casualty. The details are entered upon his medical record" and that is available, Greene said.

"In the case of this particular individual (Oswald), he had left the Marine Corps. In fact, we had given him an undesirable discharge because we felt he didn't rate the name, Marine, at all," Greene commented.

"He was giving up his citizenship; supposedly to become a Russian citizen at that time, and we didn't want him to bear any tag that had USMC on it in any way.

Hardship Discharge

"But this was after he had left his regular active duty in the Marine Corps. We let him out on his plea that his mother was in need of him at home and on the basis of this requirement we released him before his full enlistment had expired.

"He went into the reserve and it was from the reserve that he got his undesirable discharge," Greene explained.

"I feel that in view of the fact that his attitude—his so-called Marxist attitude—was known to other agencies in the government that this man was actually a security risk and was recognized as such.

termine the course [illegible] could take on that basis.

"We have lots of citizens who are security risks but we don't know that they are planning an assassination.

"Certainly no one thought that Oswald was planning an assassination either.

The general said he viewed the situation as primarily a security problem for the civilian agencies to handle.

In regard to having disciplinary and medical reports "available" in contrast to "red tagging" a warning to other federal agencies in regard to individuals, Greene said:

Admires FBI

"As far as the FBI is concerned, in my opinion, this is one of the most efficiently run divisions in our government right now. I have only the highest personal friendship and admiration for the boss, Mr. Hoover, and also for the people who work for him.

"Our relations with the FBI are of the closest, and on a day-by-day basis.

"The FBI training academy is located at Quantico, Va., where our school system is located. They are an integral part of our Marine Corps Base there."

It was noted by Maj. Gen. James M. Masters Sr., commanding general of the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, also present at the conference, that liasion with the FBI had been accelerated "some time back" by the Marine Corps headquarters.

Greene said of the FBI, "In my opinion, the operations of that department are outstanding and are something that every American can be proud of.

What Kind of Tag

"Now as far as 'red tagging' goes, I would like to know if there was any indication when this fellow, Oswald, was released from the Marine Corps, that there was some sort of a 'red tag' that should be tied to him?

"He was released on a hardship, dependency discharge to go out and take care of his mother.

that there are a number of individuals who cannot make a go of military life . . .

"But those are people who are not necessarily unable to make a go of some kind out in civilian life. Now why should they be tagged because they can't make a success as a soldier, Marine, sailor or airman?

Dangerous Business

"This 'red tag' business is pretty dangerous businsss to get into!

"Now, on the other hand, if a man commits a murder while he is down here, or a theft, or something like that, his record is definitely turned over to the police, either local or national."

In response to a question as to whether the service were making any "sort of investigation as to other psychological indications, through statistical studies, that an individual with certain attitudes would deserve a "red tag" Greene said:

"If you are talking about 'thought control,' the answer is, 'No.'"

"We are not inclined to measure a man's thoughts. If he is an American citizen, he has quite a wide range that he can think about and it doesn't necessrily always follow the standards of what the mass of our people agree with, either.

"He is permitted to live his life, work at his job, and travel around the country. Some people don't necessarily believe in our form of government, but they are still permitted to circulate about the country. In special cases they are kept under scrutiny by civilian agencies."

INTERNAL SECURITY - RUSSIA - CUBA

Reference is made to letter dated October 15, 1964, from Assistant Attorney General Herbert J. Miller, Jr., which forwarded for our attention and appropriate action a copy of a letter to you dated October 13, 1964, from Joachim Joesten.

We are forwarding a copy of Joesten's letter to the President's Commission and to the United States Secret Service. Further information concerning Joesten and his writings concerning the assassination of President John F. Kennedy is contained on pages 561 through 595 of the report in the assassination case of Special Agent Robert P. Gemberling dated May 15, 1964, at Dallas, Texas.

We do not intend to take any further action in connection with Joesten's preposterous charges.

Reurairtel 9/29/64.

The President's Commission has advised that the motel registration card belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sitz, owners of the "Half-Circle J" Motel at Fort Worth, Texas, may be returnedto them. Accordingly, this registration card is enclosed herewith and you should promptly return it to Mr. and Mrs. Sitz. You should not, however, inform Mr. and Mrs. Sitz that the handwriting on the card is not that of Lee Harvey Oswald.

NOTE:

Mr. and Mrs Sitz informed the Dallas Office, immediately after the assassination, that they thought Oswald may have registered in their motel on 11/20/63 under another name. They made available the original registration card involved and it was afforded handwriting examination by the FBI Laboratory. The Laboratory concluded the handwriting on the card was not Oswald's. The Sitzs requested on 9/29/64 the card be returned to them. We took this up with the Commission and Commission advised such card is of no further interest to Commission. Dallas suggested Bureau may desire to inform the Sitzs that the writing on the card was not that of Oswald. This action not desirable since our handwriting comparison was furnished to the Commission and we have not divulged results of FBI Laboratory examinations to public.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated September 30, 1964, requesting us to declassify certain documents previously furnished by this Bureau to the President's Commission. In this connection, you may regard as unclassified our letter to Honorable J. Lee Rankin dated September 10, 1964, and the two enclosures thereto, namely a memorandum of two pages dated August 25, 1964, at Washington, D. C., and a memorandum of three pages dated August 28, 1964, at Washington, D. C.

In connection with our letters (two) to Honorable J. Lee Rankin dated September 4, 1964, dealing with interview of Rolando Barrios and transmitting two copies of page twenty of Exhibit D-238, we request that you continue to regard them as bearing a "Confidential" classification. There are enclosed in this regard two copies each of memoranda dated September 4, 1964, which may be regarded as unclassified and in which are set forth portions of our September 4, 1964, letters.

Our review of the documents referred to in the enclosure to your letter of reference is continuing and the results thereof will be promptly furnished to you.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE:

The 9/10 letter is serial 4809 and served only as letter of transmittal and becomes declassified when detached from its enclosures. The 8/25 memorandum is serial 4785 and the 8/28 memorandum is serial 4796. These are letterheads prepared by Legat, Mexico City, which can now be declassified as all sources therein are properly protected. Our 9/4 letter dealing with interview of Rolando Barrios, an employee of a travel agency in Mexico City through whom Oswald purchased his bus ticket on his return to U. S. in October, 1963, explained in response to specific Commission inquiry that Barrios was interviewed on only one occasion (4/2/64) by SA Rolf Larson of Legat's staff. This letter goes further by way of explaining how the information obtained from Barrios was elicited. It is the latter portion in which the Commission is undoubtedly interested. We do not want to declassify 9/4/ letter as SA Larson is identified therein. The enclosed letterhead attributes information in 9/4/64 letter to a confidential source abroad and, hence, does not need declassification at this time. Our other 9/4 letter which transmitted a portion of Exhibit D-238 summarized our findings concerning inquiry at various points in Mexico City, the locations of which were marked on a street map of Oswald's which was belatedly turned over to us by Marina Oswald in late August. This letter indicates that we were conducting inquiry at other areas in Mexico City, locations of which were also marked on the map. This shows our investigative activity in Mexico. The portions in this letter summarizing results including Laboratory findings are set forth in second enclosed letterhead which need not be classified.

1 - Mr.

September 4, 1964

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Concerning the markings on the large and small maps depicted in Exhibit D-240, a confidential source abroad has advised that the central markings in the J-7 and the H-3 areas of these maps define Lee Harvey Oswald's place of residence at the Hotel del Comercio at Bernardin de Sahagun Street, Number 19, Mexico, D.F., Mexico.

Examination by the FBI Laboratory of Exhibit D-237, the portion of the Transportes del Norte bus ticket obtained from Mrs. Oswald, established that D-237 was originally connected to the two ticket stubs depicted in Exhibit D-202. The examination further established that the D-202 ticket stubs were originally connected.

According to a confidential source abroad, [Mr. Ricardo Medina, Mexico City manager of the Transportes del Norte line] explained that tickets issued by his company for travel from Mexico City, Mexico, to Laredo, Texas, consist of three sections which are delivered to the purchaser. Each of these sections bears the same number. According to [Mr. Medina] one section is for travel from Mexico City to Monterrey and the second is for the travel between Monterrey and Laredo, Texas. The third section, recording the total travel from Mexico City to Laredo Texas, is retained by the passenger. This section (Exhibit D-237) records the price of the ticket to be ninety-three pesos and seventy-five centavos. The tickets of the Del Norte line are pink in color and are torn from a bound, numbered book of tickets in which a stub remains to record the sale thereof.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The following was received from a confidential source abroad:

[illegible] [Mr. Roland Barrios, former employee of the] Chihuahuenses Travel Agency, Mexico, D.F., Mexico, when shown Photostats of the exchange order (Exhibit D-202) issued in connection with the travel of H. O. Lee from Mexico, D.F., Mexico, to Laredo, Texas, via the Transportes del Norte bus line on October 2-3, 1963, stated that the handprinting and signature on this document were his and that undoubtedly he handled the transaction represented by the document. A photograph of the tourist card (Exhibit J-3) of Lee Harvey Oswald was also displayed to [Mr. Barrios] He stated that he would interpret the comma following the name "Lee" on the tourist card to indicate surname of the traveler to be "Lee" and, in order to avoid unnecessary writing on the exchange order, he would have used the initials of the first and middle names appearing on the tourist card which he considered to be "Harvey Oswald."

[Mr. Barrios] stated he could not recall Lee Harvey Oswald or his dealings with him. On viewing the above-described documents, he affirmed that he would have written the name of the traveler as "H. O. Lee" had he copied this name from Oswald's tourist card.

[Mr. Barrios] stated that he would attempt to reconstruct the events following issuance of the exchange order in question. However, he subsequently advised that he was unable to recall his contact with the traveler for whom he issued the exchange order in the name "H. O. Lee."

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated September 30, 1964, requesting us to declassify certain documents previously furnished to the President's Commission.

In this connection, you inquired as to the possibility of declassifying our memorandum of three pages dated May 6, 1964, at Washington, D. C., and our letter to Honorable J. NOTE CONTINUED:

The method of reporting in unclassified summary was slightly amended to protect the Legat's operations (we do not attribute to confidential aources abroad observations which were made by members of the Embassy staff i.e. checking of phone book, etc.). The 4/6 letter is serial 3007 which summarized pertinent developments regarding Mexican investigation which were reported to Bureau at the time by cable. The letter stated that the inquiry summarized therein would be furnished to Commission in detail at a later date. This has been done in our 5/18 and 4/20 unclassified memoranda. It is inadvisable to declassify 4/6 letter for in it we spoke openly of our investigative efforts in Mexico. The unclassified documents clearly protect all sources.

DATE: October 8, 1964

FROM : C. D. DeLoach

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

The United Press at Dallas, Texas, in an article dated October 7, 1964, had the lead, "Dallas Police Chief Says FBI Asked Coverup on Conduct in Oswald Case." It goes on to report that Police Chief Jesse Curry alleges in a letter to the Warren Commission that he was once asked by the FBI to deny that the FBI had failed to warn other agencies about Lee Harvey Oswald. The United Press item further states that Chief Curry had told newsmen the day of the assassination that although the FBI had known about Oswald, the FBI had passed on no information to the Dallas police.

The UPI article goes on to quote Chief Curry "Within a few minutes of my statement to the press Shanklin (SAC, Dallas) was on the phone." Chief Curry is quoted as saying that FBI did not want to admit publicly that it had known about Oswald before the assassination. He claims that Shanklin asked him to retract his statement. He states that he did retract his statement. The article goes on to indicate that the FBI admitted it had Oswald under investigation. The above article appears on Page A 3 of "The Washington Post and Times Herald" this morning.

Chief Curry is [redacted] in the above claims. The true facts of the matter are (as reflected in my memorandum dated November 23, 1963) that at approximately 11:25 a.m. on 11-23-63 Chief Curry, when television cameras were thrust in front of him, made the following allegations:

(1) The FBI customarily advises Dallas police whenever an individual of subversive background arrives in Dallas.

(2) The FBI recently interviewed Lee Harvey Oswald.

(3) The FBI had Oswald under surveillance in Dallas, however, did not notify the Dallas police.

ENCLOSURE I immediately advised the Director of these allegations and thereafter called SAC Shanklin and instructed him to contact Chief Curry and set him straight. I told Shanklin that Curry should get back on television, and should also inform the wire services, of the falsity of his statements immediately. I told SAC Shanklin that if Curry did not take this action we would issue a statement here in Washington calling him a liar.

CDD:bsp (6)

SAC Shanklin called me back within 15 minutes on November 23, 1963, and stated that Curry had agreed to make the retraction. Curry apologized to Shanklin and told him he did not mean to place any blame on the FBI. I told SAC Shanklin that regardless of Curry's statement that if he did not follow through, Curry should be again contacted within 30 minutes.

At approximately 1:15 p. m. NBC television quoted Curry as saying he had not meant to imply that the FBI had failed to keep the Dallas police informed. Curry was further quoted as stating that the cooperation between the FBI and the Dallas police was excellent. He stated that the FBI was under no responsibility to report to the Dallas police any individuals of subversive background who might be in Dallas. He was also quoted as stating that he had not meant to imply that the FBI had Oswald under surveillance or that the FBI had recently interviewed Oswald. He stated to his knowledge the FBI did not have Oswald under surveillance. Chief Curry gave the same report to the radio networks and this was heard both here in Washington and by SAC Shanklin in Dallas.

At the time of the above-mentioned [redacted] allegations by Curry we not only had Curry make these retractions but we called our sources at both UPI and AP and talked with them on a confidential basis. They immediately called their representatives in Dallas and instructed them to contact Curry and get him on the record in repudiating the above false allegations. We also called Jerry O'Leary of "The Washington Star" who was in Dallas at that time and had him get in touch with Curry and make Curry go on record regarding the falsity of his allegations.

In teletype of October 7, 1964, SAC, Dallas, refers to Texas Attorney General's report on the assassination and notes this report does not mention this criticism by Chief Curry; however, the report does indicate that there are numerous exhibits and documents in the possession of the Attorney General of Texas. Apparently these exhibits in Attorney General Waggoner Carr's possession are the source for the UPI article.

According to Dallas teletype the controversial memorandum of Lieutenant Jack Revill, Dallas Police Department, indicates that Chief of Police Curry in a letter dated May 28, 1964, to J. Lee Rankin said that the FBI had asked him to retract statements he had made to the effect that he had received information that the FBI knew of Oswald's presence in Dallas.

Dallas teletype reports that Dallas files show a memorandum by Shanklin dated November 22, 1963, to the effect that on the night of November 22, 1963, Shanklin contacted Chief Curry, pointed out to him that the FBI had not interviewed Oswald in Dallas, that the FBI was under no obligation to furnish him security information and that the FBI had no indication Oswald was likely to kill the President. According to Dallas memorandum, Chief Curry told Shanklin he was repeating information someone else had told him and he could not remember the source. Chief Curry said then he would rectify the error and this was done. This telecast was observed in my office on November 23, 1963, and that is the date on which I talked to Shanklin and told him to straighten Chief Curry out.

COURSE OF ACTION:

We have a choice of making "no comment" and letting this matter stand for the record or else we can issue a statement here in Washington under the Director's name or by the SAC in Dallas under his name. I frankly think that the former course of action would be better, i.e. having the Director issue the attached statement to UPI sources here in Washington clearly refuting Curry's allegations and setting the record straight once more. After issuance of the Statemert, there will be no further comment.

Of course, there are pros and cons as to the issuance of any statement at this time. The issuance of a statement will no doubt "fan the flames" and call further attention to our criticism by the Warren Commission. Nevertheless, I feel we should not let [redacted] Chief Curry, get away with making false allegations.

RECOMMENDATION:

It may be that the letter that Chief Curry allegedly sent to the Warren Commission on May 28, 1964, has been misquoted or misconstrued and if so Chief Curry should be given the opportunity to once again set the record straight.

SAC Shanklin and ASAC, Dallas, should contact the Chief, determine whether he did send a letter dated 5-28-64 to the Commission and determine precisely what it said. I think we should do this & do it fast!

If the Chief did prepare this letter and did make these allegations and still refuses to clear the record, I think we have no alternative but to go ahead and issue the attached statement in our own behalf.

OK.
R

According to a news statement on October 7, 1964, Chief of Police Jesse Curry, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, has officially indicated in a letter to the Warren Commission that he was asked by the FBI on November 22, 1963, to deny that the FBI had failed to warn other agencies about Lee Harvey Oswald. Chief Curry allegedly claims that within a few minutes of his statement to the press in this connection, he was requested by the FBI to retract his statement that the FBI had failed in this regard.

The FBI did not ask Chief Curry or anyone else to deny that it had information regarding Oswald or Oswald's presence in Dallas.

The true facts of the matter are that on November 23, 1963, Chief Curry, upon appearing before television cameras, alleged (1) The FBI customarily advises the Dallas Police whenever an individual of subversive background arrives in Dallas; (2) The FBI recently interviewed Lee Harvey Oswald; and (3) The FBI had Oswald under surveillance in Dallas, however, did not notify the Dallas Police. Although there exists no responsibility to do so, the FBI has on past occasions furnished the Dallas Police information regarding individuals with subversive backgrounds. The remaining statements of Chief Curry were absolutely false. The FBI had never interviewed Lee Harvey Oswald in Dallas, Texas. The FBI did not have Lee Harvey Oswald under surveillance in Dallas, Texas.

As a result of Chief Curry's erroneous statements, Mr. Gordon Shanklin, Special Agent in Charge of the FBI Office, Dallas, Texas, was instructed to contact the Chief and point out to him the obvious falsity of his statements.

ENCLOSURE

In reply, Chief Curry told Mr. Shanklin that he had been told by someone, whose identity he did not recall, of this information. Chief Curry admitted that he did not know of his own knowledge that the FBI had either interviewed or had Oswald under surveillance. He told Mr. Shanklin he would be glad to get back on the air and correct his erroneous statements. A short time later Chief Curry was quoted on television correcting his earlier statement.

Dallas Police Chief Says FBI Asked Coverup on Conduct in Oswald Case

DALLAS, Oct. 7 (UPI) The Warren Commission report took the FBI to task for failing to warn other agencies about Lee Harvey Oswald. The Dallas Police Chief said yesterday that he was once asked by the FBI to deny there ever was such a failure.

In a letter to the Warren Commission made public yesterday, Police Chief Jesse Curry said the request came from Gordon Shanklin, agent in charge of the Dallas FBI office, on Nov. 22, the day Oswald killed President Kennedy.

Curry had told newsmen that day that although the FBI had known about Oswald, they had passed on no information to the Dallas police.

"Within a few minutes of my statement to the press," Curry said in the letter, Shanklin was on the phone.

Curry said the FBI did not want to admit publicly that it had known about Oswald before the assassination, and asked Curry to retract his statement. Curry did retract the statement.

The FBI later admitted it had Oswald under investigation.

Shanklin refused to confirm or deny that he had made the phone call or the request.

FBI Never Requested 'Cover-Up,' Curry Says

The head of the Dallas FBI office made public Wednesday a letter from Police Chief Jesse E. Curry denying that the FBI ever asked Curry to "cover up" the fact that the FBI knew Lee Harvey Oswald was in Dallas prior to the assassination.

Agent-in-charge J. Gordon Shanklin said the denial was made in reply to a letter Shanklin wrote to Curry Tuesday, asking that the matter be clarified.

Curry's reply, as released by Shanklin, said:

"Neither you nor anyone connected with the Federal Bureau of Investigation ever asked me to 'cover up' the fact that the FBI knew Lee Harvey Oswald was in Dallas, Texas, prior to the assassination of President Kennedy.

"This is in reply to your letter of Oct. 13, 1964."

In his letter to Curry, Shanklin wrote:

"Based upon a letter which you are quoted by news services as writing the President's commission in May, 1964, certain members of the news media are indicating that I am supposed to have asked you to cover up the fact that the FBI knew Lee Harvey Oswald was in Dallas, Texas, prior to the assassination of President Kennedy. I will appreciate your clarifying this matter.

"You will recall that on the occasion of my call to you on Nov. 23, 1963, I specifically asked that you retract your statements that the FBI had interviewed Oswald in Dallas and that the FBI had Oswald under surveillance in Dallas. I asked this retraction because the FBI did not have Oswald under surveillance, nor did we interview him in Dallas. At no time did I ask you to 'cover up' for the FBI or otherwise change your statement."

Shanklin, who said the letters "speak for themselves," declined further comment.

By letter dated September 30, 1964, the President's Commission requested that the Bureau authorize the Commission to declassify approximately 100 documents which had been furnished to the Commission in connection with our investigation of Lee Harvey Oswald and the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. In furnishing the identity of the documents it desired declassified, the Commission was not specific enough to identify the majority of the documents. Accordingly, a conference was held on October 7, 1964, with Dr. Alfred Goldberg and Miss Helen Tarko, of the Commission, and Inspector James R. Malley and Supervisor Robert E. Lenihan, to clarify the identity of the documents the Commission desired we declassify. Each of the documents involved was personally examined by Supervisor Lenihan in the Commission's offices and brief identifying data was set out on work papers by Supervisor Lenihan in order that each document could be positively identified in Bufiles. These work papers are attached.

This memorandum and its attachment should be filed in the Lee Harvey Oswald Case for record purposes.

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT

BACKGROUND:

My memorandum 10-8-64 recommended that we instruct SAC Shanklin, Dallas, to contact Chief of Police Jesse Curry, Dallas, and forcibly tell him he had once again deliberately or intentionally lied about the FBI's actions in connection with captioned case. Briefly, as expressed in referenced memorandum of 10-8-64, Curry is quoted as saying the FBI, immediately following the assassination of the President (in the form of a telephone call from SAC Shanklin to Chief Curry) asked him to cover up by going back on television and stating that the FBI had not known that Oswald was in Dallas, Texas. The true facts of the matter are that after Curry appeared on television 11-23-63 I called SAC Shanklin and asked him to contact Curry and tell him he must get back on television and correct his allegations insofar as the FBI's interviewing or surveilling Oswald in Dallas was concerned. Curry had alleged that we had both interviewed and surveilled Oswald in Dallas. Shanklin followed through and Chief Curry did get back on television at approximately 1:15 p.m., 11-23-63, and admit that his earlier allegations were wrong. The purpose of SAC Shanklin's contact today, 10-9-64, with Curry was to tell him once again that he had intentionally or erroneously misinterpreted the subject of SAC Shanklin's call to him as of 11-23-63 in that at no time had the FBI asked Chief Curry to cover up for us.

SAC Shanklin did see Curry this morning at the Adolphus Hotel. A Special Agent from the Dallas Office accompanied Shanklin so that a witness would be present. SAC Shanklin laid the facts on the line to Curry and Curry admitted that he was wrong in the assumption that the FBI had asked him to cover up. SAC Shanklin told him that in all fairness he should go back to news sources and admit his error in this regard. Chief Curry told Shanklin that he personally was willing to do this, however, City Manager Elgin C. Crull had specifically instructed him not to make any further statements in connection with this case. Chief Curry promised Shanklin that he would see the City Manager and ask his permission to correct this "misunderstanding." I told Shanklin when he called to report the above facts that if Chief Curry did not call him back by 4:00 p.m. today he should call Curry.

DeLoach to Mohr 10-9-64
Re: Assassination of the President

Chief Curry called SAC Shanklin at approximately 2:00 p. m. today and stated he had talked with the City Manager and the City Manager had told him that he had already opened his mouth too many times in this case and that he should make no further statements. Chief Curry stated that his hands were tied and that he could not say anything to the news services. I told Shanklin to stand by, that we would be back in touch with him.

COURSE OF ACTION:

It seems that we have two alternatives:

(1) We can issue a statement under the Director's name from Washington which was approved by the Director yesterday, 10-8-64, and which will be found attached to this memorandum. There are now disadvantages to doing this. The press has not picked up Chief Curry's erroneous statement in any way whatsoever. As a matter of fact, we have not even had a single inquiry. For the Director to issue a statement to the wire services in Washington would only serve to raise this entire matter on a nationwide basis. It is not believed this is a wise course of action. We should, of course, definitely go on record with the Warren Commission indicating that Chief Curry has once again stuck his foot in his mouth and has lied concerning the FBI's actions.

(2) We can have SAC Shanklin see City Manager Crull and advise him of the so-called "misunderstanding" as voiced by Chief Curry and of the fact that Chief Curry has admitted his fault in this regard. SAC Shanklin can tell Crull that in all honesty it would seem that Crull would allow Chief Curry to answer a single question from a United Press reporter setting the record straight once and for all that the FBI had not asked Curry or anyone else at any time to cover up the fact that we knew Oswald was in Dallas.

SAC Shanklin described City Manager Crull as a decent sort of individual, however, is unable to venture an opinion as to whether Crull will go along with us on this or not. If Crull does not permit Chief Curry to make a statement we will then go to our good friend [redacted] United Press International, here in Washington and relate the entire circumstances to him and UPI will put out a release in Dallas reflecting that Chief Curry has admitted his guilt and that the FBI at no time attempted a cover up.

ACTION:

That we have SAC Shanklin immediately see City Manager Crull concerning the above matter.

According to a news statement on October 7, 1[redacted], Chief of Police Jesse Curry, Dallas Police Department, Dallas, Texas, has officially indicated in a letter to the Warren Commission that he was asked by the FBI on November 22, 1963, to deny that the FBI had failed to warn other agencies about Lee Harvey Oswald. Chief Curry allegedly claims that within a few minutes of his statement to the press in this connection, he was requested by the FBI to retract his statement that the FBI had failed in this regard.

The FBI did not ask Chief Curry or anyone else to deny that it had information regarding Oswald or Oswald's presence in Dallas.

The true facts of the matter are that on November 23, 1963, Chief Curry, upon appearing before television cameras, alleged (1) The FBI customarily advises the Dallas Police whenever an individual of subversive background arrives in Dallas; (2) The FBI recently interviewed Lee Harvey Oswald; and (3) The FBI had Oswald under surveillance in Dallas, however, did not notify the Dallas Police. Although there exists no responsibility to do so, the FBI has on past occasions furnished the Dallas Police information regarding individuals with subversive backgrounds. The remaining statements of Chief Curry were absolutely false. The FBI had never interviewed Lee Harvey Oswald in Dallas, Texas. The FBI did not have Lee Harvey Oswald under surveillance in Dallas, Texas.

As a result of Chief Curry's erroneous statements, Mr. Gordon Shanklin, Special Agent in Charge of the FBI Office, Dallas, Texas, was instructed to contact the Chief and point out to him the obvious falsity of his statements.

[illegible] 5 [illegible]

ENCLOSURE

In reply, Chief Curry told Mr. Shanklin that he had been told by someone, whose identity he did not recall, of this information. Chief Curry admitted that he did not know of his own knowledge that the FBI had either interviewed or had Oswald under surveillance. He told Mr. Shanklin he would be glad to get back on the air and correct his erroneous statements. A short time later Chief Curry was quoted on television correcting his earlier statement.

Special Agent in Charge
Federal Bureau of Investigation
200 Mercantile Continental Building
Dallas, Texas

Dear Mr. Shanklin:

Neither you nor anyone connected with the Federal Bureau of Investigation ever asked me to "cover up" the fact that the FBI knew Lee Harvey Oswald was in Dallas, Texas, prior to the assassination of President Kennedy.

This is in reply to your letter of October 13, 1964.

Sincerely yours,

J. E. Curry

Re Bureau airtel to Dallas and Miami dated 10/2/64.

On 10/6/64, DECLAN FORD, friend and adviser of MARINA OSWALD, made available for the use of the FBI a letter dated 11/28/63 from WALTER NEUNSON, 909 North 24th Street, Camden, New Jersey, to apparently MARINA OSWALD. Attached to the letter are two photographs with inscriptions in Russian on the reverse sides, which are probably photographs of NEUNSON and his wife. These photographs and the letter are being sent by a separate communication to the FBI Laboratory for examination purposes.

Mr. FORD stated that he does not know when MARINA OSWALD will return to the Dallas area, as he expected her the past weekend and since she did not return from New Mexico, he assumes she will remain in the Santa Fe area for another week or so.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated September 30, 1964, requesting us to declassify certain documents previously furnished to the President's Commission.

We are unable to declassify our memoranda dated December 11, 1963, and December 23, 1963, at Washington, D. C. It is accordingly requested that you regard the aforementioned documents as still bearing a "Secret" classification.

In this connection, your attention is invited to the fact that most of the material reported in the above documents is recorded in our unclassified memorandum of 178 pages dated May 18, 1964, copies of which were furnished to you by our letter dated October 12, 1964. In addition, further comments of Dr. and Mrs. John B. McFarland are set forth in our unclassified letter to you dated April 7, 1964.

Sincerely yours,

Airtel to SAC, Dallas
RE: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
105-82555

It will not be necessary for Dallas to furnish copies of the aforementioned Exhibits to the President's Commission as the Bureau will do this.

Enclosed for Newark are two copies of the translations of Exhibits D-266 through D-268 and the eight photographs depicting those Exhibits.

Newark carefully review above referenced communications and the enclosures thereto and promptly interview Walter C. Neunson and, if necessary, his wife, Edna. Purpose of this interview is to develop all available data concerning Neunson's offer to be of assistance to Marina Oswald and the reasons therefor. Ascertain if his offer was suggested to him by anyone.

Bureau is particularly interested in Neunson's assertion to Mrs. Paine that Marina Oswald met his son, Edward, in Russia. Note in this connection Marina Oswald's comments as recorded in the attachment to Dallas 9/18/64 letterhead concerning her meeting one Edward (last name unknown) in Leningrad on 11/8/60 at which time she was in the company of a male acquaintance, one Oleg Tarusin. Press Neunson for full details concerning the claim that his son, Edward, may have met Marina in the Soviet Union. If he claims such is the case, ascertain when and how he became aware of this. Obtain full description of Neunson's son, Edward, including data as to his marital status and endeavor to obtain a photograph of him so that same can be displayed to Marina Oswald. Newark note that the name Edward is uncommon in the Soviet Union. During the interview of Neunson and, if necessary, his wife, ascertain if, in fact, the individuals depicted in Exhibits D-267 through D-268 are Neunson, his wife, Edna, and his son, John. Handle interview promptly and submit results in a form suitable to disseminate. When reporting results, return to Bureau Exhibits D-266 through D-268.

NOTE:

Neunson, [whom we regard as a mental case, is on the SI of the Newark Office] He was born in Philadelphia of Russian parents and resided in the USSR since the early 20's until he returned to the U. S. in 1940. He has a Russian wife and two Russian-born sons and a Russian-born daughter in the USSR. He also has an American wife and a son and possibly a daughter with whom he presently lives in Camden. Neunson traveled to the Soviet Union in 10/57 to visit his Russian wife and children. He experienced difficulty in leaving the Soviet Union but on 4/10/58 he returned to this country. Following the assassination, Neunson wrote to Marina through Ruth Paine and offered to take Marina and her children into his home. He told Paine that his son, Edward, met Marina in Russia. Marina did not contact Neunson and claims not to know his son, Edward; however, she does recall meeting an Edward whose last name she does not know in Lenigrand on two occasions in 11/60.

I THEREAFTER CONTACTED MR. CRULL AND REFERRED TO MY CONVERSATION WITH HIM FRIDAY, OCT. TWENTYTHIRD AND THAT HE HAD READILY AGREED THAT MY CALL TO HIM HAD BEEN A REQUEST TO STRAIGHTEN OUT THE INACCURACIES, WHICH WERE TO THE EFFECT THAT THE FBI HAD INTERVIEWED OSWALD AND SURVEILLED HIM IN DALLAS PRIOR TO THE ASSASSINATION, AND THAT AT NO TIME DID I OR ANYONE CONNECTED WITH THE FBI EVER ASK CHIEF CURRY TO COVER UP THE FACT THAT WE KNEW OSWALD WAS IN DALLAS PROIR TO THE ASSASSINATION.

I REITERATED TO MR. CRULL THAT CURRY, IN HIS LETTER TO THE COMMISSION WAS EITHER DEFINITELY MISTAKEN OR WILFULLY GAVE MISLEADING INFORMATION AND THAT THE FBI WAS DEFINITELY NOT GIONG TO TOLERATE SAME.

CRULL STATED THAT HE HAD GONE OVER THE ENTIRE MATTER WITH CHIEF CURRY, THAT HE WAS PERSONALLY VERY SORRY FOR THE INCIDENT OCCURRING, BUT THAT HE WANTED TO KEEP THE ANSWER VERY SIMPLE AND STRAIGHTFORWARD AND HE WAS DIRECTING CHIEF CURRY TO ANSWER THE LETTER AS FOLLOWS:

CRULL STATED THAT HE SINCERELY HOPED THAT THIS WOULD CLARIFY THE MATTER AND THAT ONE OF THE REASONS HE HAD STOPPED LETTING ANY COMMENTS BE MADE CONCERNING THE ASSASSINATION OR RELATED MATTERS WERE THE MANY INACCURACIES AND MISTAKES THAT HAD BEEN MADE.

IT IS MY RECOMMENDATION THAT I BE PERMITTED TO RELEASE THESE TWO LETTERS TO THE UNITED PRESS AND ASSOCIATED PRESS IN DALLAS WITH THE STATEMENT ONLY THAT THE LETTERS SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES, WITHOUT GOING INTO ANY FURTHER DETAIL. BUREAU REQUESTED TO ADVISE.

My memorandum of 9-11-64, advised a request had been received from the President's Commission to conduct interviews of Commission members and staff concerning the leaks to news media. Interviews were conducted with Commission members and staff, and former Ruby attorneys and interview with Chief Justice Warren was held in abeyance pending the receipt of results from these individuals.

INFORMATION DEVELOPED

As a result of our investigation into this matter, and specifically regarding the leak of Ruby's interview with Chief Justice Warren, we have interviewed 80 individuals including Ruby's attorney and former attorneys. By communications dated September 23, September 25, September 29, and October 1, 1964, we furnished the Commission results of these interviews. We have obtained copies of Ruby's testimony from the Commission to attempt to determine by appropriate examination, if the leak occurred within the Commission. We have attempted to obtain testimony of Ruby before Chief Justice Warren. Mrs. Beverly A. Heckman, Secretary to Mr. Rankin, commented that all testimony and depositions were classified top secret but that the system of document control rapidly broke down and became unworkable. She attempted to execute control over dissemination of documents, but material was continually passing from one to another of personnel working within the Commission and became an impossible task to attempt to keep records on the whereabouts of any specific document. Mrs. Heckman indicated the Commission had two Xerox machines and they were freely used by any staff member to prepare copies of any document. To her knowledge, there was no record maintained of copies of material that were reproduced by Commission personnel. Mr. Norman Redlich when interviewed, advised he has no knowledge of internal control of documents and he knows of no receipt system for documents and explained the attorneys on the Commission had felt free to use copies of testimony in which they were interested. He said he made no effort to become knowledgable on the administrative details on handling Commission documents. Mrs. Jeanne Hauer, Secretary, President's Commission, advised she has worked in other agencies where strict security of documents was enforced. Her experience indicated this was not the case with the Commission. She said any member of the Commission staff could make Xerox copies of virtually any Commission document at any time with no problem.

Many persons left employment of the Commission and extensive investigation was conducted to locate them. All but one individual has been interviewed and efforts are being made to locate this person.

The Laboratory has five copies of the Ruby transcript obtained from the Commission which were prepared for the Commission by Ward and Paul, the Commercial Reporting Agency. These copies bear confidential stamps and efforts are being made to obtain the confidential stamps from Ward and Paul and from the Commission to make examinations with the transcripts and Page 103, which appeared in the "New York Journal American." On June 23, 1964, Joe H. Tonahill, Attorney for Ruby, requested a copy of Ruby's transcript which was furnished to him by letter June 27, 1964, over the signature of Mr. Rankin. We have obtained this copy and appropriate examinations are being made of this copy in our Laboratory.

ACTION

Inasmuch as we have interviewed all other members of the Commission, we could complete the record by interviewing Chief Justice Warren. However, it is recommended we not do so.

WFO is being instructed to conduct additional investigation to assist and facilitate further Laboratory examinations and to have one remaining individual located, a former stenographer, for interview.

President and the People

A GREAT DEAL has been said and written about the danger involved in the President's tendency to go into crowds and shake hands. Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield is the latest to be concerned over Mr. Johnson's excessive mingling in crowds during his New England swing last week. But we wonder—where is danger greatest?

The Warren Commission's findings weigh heavily on all of us, particularly on those whose job it is to protect the President. We can also understand Sen. Mansfield's admonition of both President Johnson and presidential candidate Barry Goldwater to "avoid exposing themselves unnecessarily" to the danger inherent in "imprudent mingling with campaign crowds" and to comply with security safeguards recommended by the Secret Service and other official protectors.

Four presidents have been assassinated, at least three others have had attempts made on their lives. Only one such act took place in a crowd. Louis Czolgosz approached President William McKinley as if to shake hands and shot him with a hidden pistol. President McKinley was attending an exposition, therefore we presume it was in some type of crowd.

But Abraham Lincoln, James Garfield and John F. Kennedy were assassinated under conditions which, while public, were not "in the crowd."

Of the assassination attempts — to Teddy Roosevelt, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Harry Truman—only the attempt on FDR took place under similar conditions to the Kennedy assassination.

In every instance the president has been acting wholly within the advice and in compliance with the security rules ordered by whatever constituted his bodyguard.

So just how much danger is added to any public appearance by the president's shaking hands or gathering people around him? The danger operates whenever he appears in public and short of a bullet proof glass-cased exhibit system, there seems no solution to presidential assassination except through some form of national instruction that makes it unthinkable. The British prime minister, for example, customarily goes alone or with only a pair or so of protectors.

While following some of the recommendations of those concerned for his safety, the President might cut down the chances of an assassination, but as long as the President gets in some close proximity of the people he will be in some danger. The attempts on the various presidents have been more on the office than the individual. The only way to protect the individual completely would be to isolate him from the people, but in our country the office of the president must always have contact with the citizens.

J. Edgar Hoover's Testimony

J. Edgar Hoover's testimony before the Warren Commission investigating the assassination of President Kennedy now has been published.

Just as the Warren Commission did in its report, Mr. Hoover pin-points the devilish problem involved in trying to protect a president.

"President Johnson," he said, for instance, "Is a very down-to-earth human being, and it makes the security problem all the more difficult, but you can't bar him from the people."

The FBI director spoke out strongly against "police-state" methods in shielding the president from possible crackpots.

"I am particularly concerned," he said, "That we don't become hysterical and go too far in restricting the citizens of our country from exercising their civil and constitutional rights."

He deplored an incident in Chicago when some "extremists" practically were put under house arrest while President Johnson was there.

"I don't think there is any place in this country for that kind of thing," Mr. Hoover said.

Coming from a man who has spent his life in police work, this is an especially salutary attitude — as well as practical.

Mr. Hoover, however, did recommend some stringent restrictions on a president's travel: Careful advance preparation for a trip, maximum delay in announcing the route of travel, a car equipped with bullet-proof protection. "He must never ride in an open car," Mr. Hoover said.

But these are restrictions most presidents would shun.

The Secret Service, the FBI and the police combined cannot "case" every person who may be within striking distance of a president. As Mr. Hoover testified, they had cased Lee Oswald, but there was no indication of his homicidal intent.

The nub of Mr. Hoover's testimony, and the gist of the Warren Commission recommendations, is that protective measures for the president can be improved, but, as Mr. Hoover said: "We don't want a Gestapo. We have got to, I think, maintain a balance."

And presidents, as Mr. Kennedy believed, will continue to find it necessary to travel among the people, to see and be seen. The risk cannot be absolutely eliminated. But a president also has an obligation to the people to maintain his own safety — and Mr. Hoover's advice in this respect is highly pertinent.

Was Marina A Good Wife?

By JOHN TACKETT

Is the real Marina Oswald he victim of an unfortunate arriage to a Marxist misfit? Or is she a nagging, unrateful woman who embarssed her husband by complaining of his "inadequacy as man?"

Before release of the Warn report, she was seen by ost as an innocent victim of e Harvey Oswald — a man ho often abandoned her with ir children, scolded her, at her then left her branded ith his hated name.

Now the image is foggy.

The report quotes Mr. and rs. George DeMohrenchildts, close friends of the uple, as saying Marina was r from the perfect wife.

The DeMohrenschildts told he Warren Commission that arina called Oswald said he as inadequate as a man right in front of Oswald."

"SHE WAS annoying him all he time — 'Why don't you make some more money?' Poor guy was going out of his ind?" Mr. DeMohrenschildt aid.

The report also says Marina old another friend that she nd her husband very seldom ad sexual relations.

But Mrs. Ruth Paine, the riving housewife who took Marina and her two children n, took issue with the statements of the DeMohrenschildts.

She told The Press that during the couple's last two months together, Marina worked to mend the marriage.

"She never said anything intended to hurt him," Mrs. Paine said.

"When we had one short talk about her going to the planned parenthood clinic in Dallas — to make an appointment to go there six weeks after the baby's birth — she said they'd had difficulty.

"I TOLD her I might get the services of a marriage counsellor. She said Lee might want to go also.

"So the only time we talked about their personal relationship, it was clear to me that she wanted to improve it.

"This gives our talk a very different character from what Mrs. DeMohrenschildts reported. And Marina's talk with me was a lot closer to the time of the assassination than this instance reported."

Mrs. Paine said Marina wanted to limit the size of the family. It was during their talks about this, Mrs. Paine said, that the two "talked about adjustments in their intimate relations."

AT THE time of Marina's stay in Mrs. Paine's home, Mrs. Paine was separated from her husband, Michael. But the two now are back together.

Marina herself now is in conference at an unknown location with Priscilla Johnson, who is helping the Russian girl write a book about her life with Lee Harvey Oswald.

Miss Johnson once interviewed Oswald in Russia.

Marina's neighbor in Richardson, Tex., said Marina called recently long distance to make a routine check with her. But Marina did not say where she was.

A friend in Fort Worth said Marina wrote about two weeks before issuance of the report to say she was going into seclusion to write her book.

The book will be the first real look by the public into the mind and personality of Marina Nikolaevna Pruskova Oswald.

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF THE PRESIDENT
CHARGES BY CHIEF JESSE CURRY
DALLAS POLICE DEPARTMENT

My memorandum to you of Saturday, 10-10-64, reflected that City Manager Crull of Dallas, Texas, had refused to allow Chief Curry, Dallas Police Department, to publicly admit that he was a liar in connection with claiming that the FBI had asked him to cover up the fact that we knew Oswald was in Dallas, Texas, prior to the assassination of the President. Crull stated he would be glad to have Curry sign a letter to this effect and, as a matter of fact, told SAC Shanklin that we could suggest what type of letter we would like to have Chief Curry sign. I told SAC Shanklin to go ahead and prepare a brief letter to Curry and a suggested reply from Curry, both letters which would be handed to City Manager Crull.

The Director indicated on referenced memorandum, "I don't like the way this is being handled at all. Either Shanklin did what Curry has alleged or Curry is a liar. I don't want any favors from Crull or Curry. If Curry has lied we should say so and do so unequivocably."

The Director's point is well taken and there is no doubt but what Curry is a [redacted] liar. I would appreciate the Director's consideration in connection with the following points:

There are several ways at getting at Curry. Obviously, City Manager Crull will not allow Curry to issue a statement. For us to issue a nationwide statement, and considering the Director's great prestige and reputation the statement would be carried on the wire services at a national level, we would, therefore, give prominence at this time to an issue that is very much felt but is somewhat dying down. We want and need a statement for the record. Crull has agreed to have Curry sign a statement addressed to SAC Shanklin. While we, of course, do not want any favors from Crull or Curry, I believe the best way to get them on record is to have Curry sign the letter in question and then we can kill two birds with one stone by turning right around and giving this statement to UPI in Dallas. This procedure will give us both a statement for the record and will publicly show that Curry is a liar.

The point may be advanced that a national statement is needed so that the record can be cleared in all quarters of the country. I doubt the desirability and necessity of this and suggest that Curry's letter be released by SAC Shanklin in Dallas to UPI. While Shanklin's statement will, of course, not carry anywhere as widely as a statement under the Director's name, the record will have been cleared and we can point to the record at all times in the future.

While I fully realize that the suggested procedure may seem like we are obtaining a favor from City Manager Crull, we are at the same time putting both Crull and Curry in the exact position where we want them. Otherwise, we might end up in a name-calling contest with a skunk.

After his conversation with Crull, SAC Shanklin has suggested the following exchange of letters:

"Mr. Jesse Curry
Chief of Police
Dallas, Texas

"Dear Sir:

"Based upon a letter which you are quoted by news sources as writing to the President's Commission in May, 1964, certain members of the news media are indicating that I am supposed to have asked you to cover up the fact the FBI knew Lee Harvey Oswald was in Dallas, Texas, prior to the assassination of President Kennedy. I would appreciate your clarifying this matter.

"You will recall that on the occasion of my call to you on November 23, 1963, I specifically asked that you retract your statements that the FBI had interviewed Oswald in Dallas and that the FBI had Oswald under surveillance in Dallas. I asked this retraction because the FBI did not have Oswald under surveillance, nor did we interview him in Dallas. At no time did I ask you to "cover up" for the FBI or otherwise change your statement.

"Sincerely yours,
J. Gordon Shanklin
Special Agent in Charge"

RE: MARK LANE

Re New York airtel 10/1/64.

On 10/9/64, a debate between San Francisco attorney MELVIN BELLI and New York attorney MARK LANE captioned "Is Oswald The Lone Assassin of the President?" was held at the Masonic Memorial Auditorium, California Street, San Francisco. Prominent San Francisco attorney JAKE ERLICH was the moderator. The meeting was attended by an estimated 3500 persons. SA JAMES G. CARLISLE and [redacted] attended this meeting.

An opening statement was made by BELLI. He began his statement by praising the Warren Commission Report, stating that it was a tribute to such a great democracy as the United States and he believed that no other country could have produced such a complete report. He derided LANE for speaking in foreign countries and heaping the ashes of the United States by implying that there had been a conspiracy in this country to kill President KENNEDY and implying that OSWALD was not the only person involved in the assassination. BELLI then asked if this is so, who are these conspirators and where are they now. BELLI stated that there was no one else besides OSWALD and he said he would show this beyond a reasonable doubt. He said OSWALD was a psychotic [illegible] and always had been, and even as a youth under the New York Youth Authority, OSWALD had exhibited psychotic and schizophrenic tendencies.

BELLI then discussed the events the day KENNEDY was killed. He discussed OSWALD's travel to get the "curtain rods;" the events at the time of the shooting; how OSWALD left the building; took a bus; the finding of the bus transfer on OSWALD; his travel by cab; the shooting of TIPPIT, and OSWALD's subsequent arrest. He discussed the palmprint found on the gun; the rifle purchased by OSWALD under an assumed name; the fingerprints on the bag in which OSWALD carried the gun; the fibers of OSWALD's jacket on the gun; the witness who saw OSWALD at the window of the book depository building; the witnesses who saw the shooting of TIPPIT; HOWARD BRENNAN's identifying OSWALD from the police line-up; the cartridges which were found to have come from OSWALD's hand gun, and the hole on the inside of the windshield of the President's car.

BELLI insisted that all these things showed beyond a reasonable doubt that OSWALD was guilty.

MARK LANE then made an opening statement. He said he had never said anywhere that there had been a conspiracy in this country to kill the President. He said that in this country there still exists the presumption of innocence until proven guilty. He commented on the voluminous heavy Warren Report and stated that historians may some day record the most precise description of the Report and that it will be President JOHNSON's remark, "It is very heavy" when he received his copy from Chief Justice WARREN.

LANE stated that OSWALD was never represented by counsel before the Warren Commission. He then discussed what he believed to be discrepancies in the Report. He talked about the Dallas Police officers at first reporting the finding of a Mauser rifle which later turned out to be an Italian gun. He discussed witness HOWARD BRENNAN who had been standing outside the book depository building and his description of OSWALD as being entirely too accurate from that distance. He stated that BRENNAN had said OSWALD was shooting while standing by the window, but the Warren Report said OSWALD was sitting down. If OSWALD was sitting down, how could BRENNAN tell how tall he was?

He discussed the Dallas Police line-up where BRENNAN identified OSWALD as the man most closely resembling the person he had seen. LANE stated there were five teenagers in the line-up handcuffed together and also OSWALD who kept saying, "This is not a fair line-up." He stated that there were no notes made by the FBI, the Dallas Police, Secret Service, nor was there any tape or steno record for the twelve hours that OSWALD was interrogated, and he said if you believe that you might as well believe the rest of the Warren Commission Report. What OSWALD is supposed to have said during the interrogation is reported from police memory only.

He talked about the photographs of OSWALD holding the gun which he said had been doctored or superimposed and which had been printed in various magazines. He stated that no rifle expert in the world, using the gun OSWALD had, could hit a moving target at that distance with the accuracy that OSWALD has exhibited. He stated that three leading rifle experts, using the Italian rifle, fired eighteen shots at a still--not a moving--target and missed five times. He said that authorities have stated that OSWALD ordered the rifle from a Chicago sporting firm from an article in the February, 1963, "Life" magazine. He said that was a lie because the length and weight of the gun advertised in that article is different than the length and weight of the gun actually found.

He discussed the witnesses testimony who saw OSWALD bring the gun into the building. One witness did not see any package. The other two said the package was carried under OSWALD's armpit cupped in his right hand, and that is impossible because the gun broken down was too long for that.

He discussed eleven witnesses who saw Officer TIPPIT shot. He said the Warren Commission never called many of these witnesses; one gave a completely different description, and one woman was told by the Dallas Police not to testify. He said the Warren Commission relied on the FBI, Dallas Police, and Secret Service, and never got all the facts.

[illegible] in his rebuttal stated that the Dallas Police, the FBI, and Secret Service had carried out their duty and had done everything possible to protect the President. He said the Commission had been composed of elite Congressional members and the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and insisted that the facts had been ferreted out and that the Warren Commission Report was complete.

JGC/jr

He then discussed nailing down the various rumors and discussed some of these, such as the erroneous name GLICK for the taxi driver, OSWALD's description, and possible shots coming from the overpass.

LANE in his rebuttal stated he did not believe that elite Congressmen were on the Commission. He said he felt that honor would return to the United States when American people look at the facts in the case. He said he is not concerned about the image of the United States, but is concerned with the substance of the case. He then said that the four Congressmen who heard the sound of shots coming from the area of the overpass were never called by the Warren Commission. He stated that the Warren Commission believed only what it wanted to believe.

After this, there was a short question and answer session.

The Editor
THE SUN
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Editor:

In recent editorials on the report of the Commission of Inquiry regarding the assassination of President Kennedy, you said it was "fanciful" and "irresponsible" to consider the possibility that Lee Oswald was not the assassin.

After the death of President Kennedy, I was one of the many people who had doubts about the guilt or innocence of Oswald -- doubts that were raised by the items of contradictory evidence, or supposed evidence that came out in the major daily newspapers and popular magazines throughout the country.

During the months following the President's death, I gathered together some of the materials that are publicly available (from newspapers and magazines) on the subject; and, for a time, I considered writing a book that would set forth some of the discrepancies and unanswered questions in the case. However, that difficult task has already been done very effectively by a book that came out a few months ago, entitled, Oswald: Assassin or Dupe? (Koesven, published by Harcourt and Brazell, New York, N. Y.) I am not acquainted with the author or the publisher, and I do not know their political views; but I do know, from my own studies, and responsible articles I have read in the major magazines and newspapers, that the book is well-documented and carefully done -- even though I would not necessarily agree with every item and conclusion in it.

However, I have decided to give up this entire project, for two reasons. First, it is impossible for the layman to have access to enough reliable information to separate fact from theory in this very complicated matter.

My other reason is even more compelling. During the time that I was gathering materials on the assassination, I wrote to a newspaper asking for more information about an article of his that appeared in the Philadelphia Inquirer; his name is available. I received a letter from him in which he warned that, if I pursued the matter, I would be killed. More recently, I have been warned that, if I continued, I would be blinded.

Not Important

For all these reasons, and considering the view that life and health and family welfare are primary -- and since President Kennedy, now dead, cannot be brought back -- I have decided to abandon the whole project and mind my own proper business.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to my communication dated October 15, 1964, and to your letter of September 10, 1964, concerning the interviews of Commission members and staff regarding alleged leaks of the Oswald diary, the Ruby Polygraph transcript and the Ruby testimony.

Concerning the documents subjected to Laboratory examination in connection with this matter, the following findings are set forth for your information.

Of the copies of Ruby's testimony submitted, it was concluded that the following were not used to reproduce the facsimile of page 103 appearing in the August 13, 1964, issue of the New York Journal-American.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

Because of the effects of retouching on the newspaper facsimile and the effects of the process of newspaper reproduction, it was not possible to make a definite determination in any of the following instances:

Copies numbered one through four of the "Ward and Paul" copies

Copy obtained from Mr. Tonahill

However, some characteristics in the Journal-American facsimile appear also in the above five copies.

The impressions of the word "CONFIDENTIAL" in red on the pages of the "Ward and Paul" copies were not printed in the manner of the impressions of the word "CONFIDENTIAL" in red on the sample pages obtained from the Ward and Paul firm.

The impressions of the word "CONFIDENTIAL" in red on the pages of the "Ward and Paul" copies of Ruby's testimony were printed by an offset printing process, whereas the impressions of the word "CONFIDENTIAL" in red on the sample pages furnished by the Ward and Paul firm were printed by a letterpress printing method.

The word "CONFIDENTIAL" in red on the covers of the five "Ward and Paul" copies of Ruby's testimony contains characteristics of rubber stamp impressions. It was found, however, that these were not made from the type used to print the word "CONFIDENTIAL" on the sample pages furnished by the Ward and Paul firm or from the two rubber stamps furnished by the President's Commission.

The impression of the word "CONFIDENTIAL" at the bottom of the facsimile reproduction of page 103 appearing in the Journal-American contains some characteristics in common with the impressions in red of the word "CONFIDENTIAL" at the bottom of page 103 of each of the "Ward and Paul" copies and the word "CONFIDENTIAL" appearing in black on page 103 of the transcript furnished by Mr. Tonahill.

Honorable J. Lee Rankin

Examination of the knots of the ribbons binding the pages of each of the five "Ward and Paul" copies of Ruby's testimony revealed no conclusive evidence that any had been untied and retied. The ribbon of copy number four shows more fraying of the ends than do the others. The pages of copy number three reveal that they have been subjected to much more handling than do the pages of any of the other copies.

The evidence examined will be returned separately.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: In view of the fact that the Washington Field Office and Houston Office furnished the evidence examined and in view of the fact that the evidence was obtained from specific individuals who requested that their respective items be returned to them, the evidence examined and treated in the above report will be returned to the Washington Field and Houston Offices for return to the respective individuals.

Enclosed herewith for the information of Baltimore Office are two copies of a self-explanatory letter which was written to "The Editor of the Sun, Baltimore, Maryland", by victim who resides at 813 Woodbourne Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland. Instant letter was forwarded to Bureau without any cover letter in an envelope postmarked October 15, 1964, at Baltimore, Maryland, and was apparently mailed to the Bureau by the Sun Newspaper.

A review of victim's letter to the editor indicates that he had formerly planned to write a book setting forth what he considered discrepancies and unanswered questions pertaining to the assassination of President Kennedy; however, has now decided against same.

Victim states that during the period he was attempting to gather material for his contemplated book he wrote to the "Philadelphia Inquirer" concerning an article which had appeared in that paper following which he allegedly received a letter from the writer of the article in question warning that if he pursued the matter he would be killed. Victim states that recently he has been warned that if he continues, he will be blinded.

A review of current Baltimore telephone directory indicates that a Reverend J. [redacted] David Adams resides at 813 Woodbourne Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland. Bureau file 100-436761 refers to an individual of the same name who may be [redacted] identical with the writer of the enclosed letter. This file indicates that Adams is a Methodist Minister from Cheraw, North Carolina, for five years (1952-1957) Director of Peace Education for Southeastern Office of American Friends Service Committee, on special assignment from North Carolina Methodist Conference; graduate of University of North Carolina (Bachelor of Science in Medicine) and Duke University Divinity School; married and father of three children; wife, daughter of Congregational Minister in New England; beginning September, 1957, on assignment from his church conference, to study at Pendle Hill, Quaker graduate center for religious and social study, at Wallingford, Pennsylvania, near Philadelphia.

Bureau file further indicates that Andrews was a member of a group of eleven individuals who represented the National Committee for Non-Violent Action Against Nuclear Weapons during 1957 at which time that group organized a prayer vigil and a "civil disobedience team" to enter the Nevada Test Site of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, Mercury, Nevada, in violation of law to protest continued detonation of nuclear devices. These individuals on 8/6/57 were arrested by local authorities for violating the Nevada State trespass statute and arraigned before Justice of the Peace, Beatty, Nevada, on the same date. All eleven were found guilty of the charges on 8/6/57 at which time imposition of sentence was suspended until 8/5/58, during which time if any of the defendants were found to commit any criminal offense in the State of Nevada sentence would be imposed. Members of this committee reportedly departed Las Vegas, Nevada, 8/9/57.

Baltimore Office should immediately contact Mr. Andrews and interview him concerning the alleged threats he has received from an individual associated with the Philadelphia Inquirer and thereafter present facts to the appropriate U. S. Attorney as a possible violation of the Federal Extortion Statute.

Results of your investigation concerning this matter should be reported promptly to the Bureau.

[redacted] One J. David Andrews directed a letter to the Editor of The Sun Newspaper, Baltimore, Maryland, dated 10/15/64. Victim being contacted to determine if possible extortion violation exists. Bureau files reflect no criminal record re Andrews based on information available re victim.

By letter dated 10/15/64 the Criminal Division forwarded for our attention and appropriate action a copy of a 10/13/64 letter to the Acting Attorney General from Joachim Joesten, the left-wing writer who authored the book called "Oswald, Assassin or Fall-Guy?" In his letter Joesten repeats charges in his book that Chief Curry and Captain Fritz of the Dallas Police, SAC Shanklin, SA James P. Hosty, Jr., and Forrest V. Sorrels, Secret Service Chief in Dallas, conspired to shield the persons responsible for the assassination of President Kennedy and that they manufactured false evidence against Oswald and suppressed evidence that might have been in Oswald's favor and intimidated witnesses.

Joesten is a German born (1907) naturalized United States citizen (1948) who since 1944 has been self-employed as a free lance writer. At his naturalization hearing he described himself as a "left-wing liberal." [redacted] Joesten's scurrilous book, which was principally an attack on the Director and the Bureau, and his preposterous letter to the Acting Attorney General are typical of the support given communist causes by Marzani and Munsell. There isn't a scintilla of truth in either Joesten's book or letter and the latter appears to be basically a pitch for some publicity for the book. In his letter Joesten asks that an investigation be initiated into his charges and that he be called upon to testify. He claims that he can support his charges by reference to the Warren Report.

Joesten and his writings regarding the assassination are well known to the Commission, which body chose to ignore Joesten in its summary report. Considerable details concerning Josten's writings and the results of a detailed interview of him in March were furnished to the Commission, to the Department, and to the Secret Service in June, 1964.

SIMILAS ON TIP FROM AP, NEW YORK, AS SIMILAS PASSED THROUGH CHICAGO ON ABOUT NOVEMBER 23 LAST, IN HOPE THAT SIMILAS MIGHT HAVE SOME PICTURES OF NEWS VALUE. SIMILAS TURNED OVER 12 OR 13 ROLLS OF SIZE 120 FILM, WHICH JEFFERIES HAD DEVELOPED IMMEDIATELY. NO PRINTS OR ENLARGEMENTS WERE MADE. JEFFERIES SAID THAT THROUGH EXPERIENCE HE CAN READ NEGATIVES JUST AS WELL AS PRINTS. HE FOUND NOTHING OF VALUE IN THE NEGATIVES. THERE WERE SOME BLURRED VIEWS OF BUILDINGS IN BACKGROUND BUT NONE WHICH COULD BE IDENTIFIED AS THE TEXAS SCHOOL BOOK DEPOSITORY. SINCE BACKGROUND WAS NOT IN FOCUS, NO SPECIFIC FLOORS OF BUILDINGS AND MUCH LESS SPECIFIC WINDOWS ON THE FLOORS OR FIGURES OR FORMS WITHIN THE WINDOWS COULD BE DISTINGUISED. APPEARED THAT THE PICTURES MIGHT HAVE BEEN TAKEN FROM A LOCATION EARLIER ON THE ROUTE THAN THE DEPOSITORY BUILDING. SIMILAS TOLD JEFFERIES THAT THE ROLLS OF FILM DEVELOPED WERE ALL THE FILM HE HAD EXPOSED. SOME ROLLS HAD BEEN ONLY PARTIALLY EXPOSED. MANY PICTURES WERE UNRELATED TO THE ASSASSINATION SCENE. SIMILAS HAD TO CATCH A PLANE WITHIN MINUTES AFTER FILM WAS DEVELOPED, FOR WHICH REASON, JEFFERIES EMPHASIZED, SIMILAS TOOK NONE OF THE FILM BACK WITH HIM. JEFFERIES SENT IT TO HIM BY AIR EXPRESS LATER THE SAME NIGHT FOR DELIVERY IN TORONTO THE NEXT MORNING. AT NO TIME DURING STOP IN CHICAGO DID SIMILAS INDICATE TO JEFFERIES THAT HE HAD ANY SIGNIFICANT SHOT OF BOOK DEPOSITORY NOR DID HE REFER AT ANY TIME TO HAVING SEEN OR PHOTOGRAPHED FIGURES IN A WINDOW OF THAT BUILDING. JEFFERIES SAID IT WAS INCREDIBLE THAT SIMILAS HAD ANY SUCH PICTURE WHICH WAS SUBSEQUENTLY LOST. JEFFERIES COMMENT WAS "THEY PROBABLY COOKED UP THE STORY TO MAKE A FAST BUCK." IT IS NOTED THAT JEFFERIES INFORMATION REFUTES CLAIM BY SIMILAS THAT HE HAD FILM WITH HIM TO SHOW TO DAVIES ON THE NIGHT HE RETURNED TO TORONTO. LETTER FOLLOWS.

Re Bureau airtel to Dallas 10/12/64 concerning information furnished by EUGENE P. ALDREDGE.

The sidewalk on the east side of Elm Street between the triple underpass and Houston Street was visually checked by SA MANNING C. CLEMENTS and SA RICHARD J. BURNETT on September 30, 1964, for any scars which might appear to have been made by a bullet.

The area covered in this inspection was in the general sidewalk area from the first to the second lamppost on the east side of Elm Street and just west of the intersection of Elm and Houston Streets. It is noted that the first lamppost is almost directly in line with the west end of the main multistoried building of the Texas School Book Depository building, while the second lamppost is almost directly in line with the western end of the one story building which is connected to the main Texas School Book Depository building.

It was noted that the sidewalk is made of concrete and the general texture of the sidewalk is rough.

No mark was located on the sidewalk in the general area of the first lamppost which would appear to have been made by a projectile.

In the area of the second lamppost, approximately thirty-three feet east of the post, in the sixth large cement square, four feet from the street curb and six feet from the parkside curbing, is an approximately four inches long by one-half inch wide dug-out scar, which could possibly have been made by some blunt-end type instrument or projectile. It is noted that this scar lies in such a direction that if it had been made by a bullet, it could not have come from the direction of the window the President's Commission on the Assassination of President KENNEDY has publicly stated was used by LEE HARVEY OSWALD when firing his assassination bullets at the late President.

This particular scar is in line with the western end of the multifloor section of the Texas School Book Depository building, that is, the opposite end of the building from where OSWALD was shooting at the President.

No other mark was found in the area of the second lamppost which might appear to have been made by a bullet.

With respect to the advisability of interviewing CARL FREUND of "The Dallas Morning News", it is pointed out that he was interviewed in connection with the investigation into the leak of information from the OSWALD diary. It is felt, however, that he should be interviewed concerning this mark, which, according to ALDREDGE, was believed to be a bullet mark by FREUND, as well as ALDREDGE.

It is believed an interview with FREUND concerning this alleged bullet mark could be handled in such a manner as to obtain his full cooperation and at the same time endeavor to ascertain from him why, if he thought it was a bullet mark, he failed to bring it to the attention of proper authorities.

No interview will be conducted with FREUND until advised to do so by the Bureau.

NOTE: Dallas in retel stated Aldredge telephonically contacted the Dallas Office and claimed to have seen a bullet mark on the sidewalk adjacent to the Texas School Book Depository from where the shots that killed President Kennedy were fired. He also alleges Freund, the Dallas reporter, is of the same belief. Dallas conducted an area search and located a mark approximately four inches by one-half inch in an area near the Texas School Book Depository but in a position which would make it impossible to have been fired by Oswald. In order to verify the location of this mark, Dallas is being instructed to have Aldredge physically point it out and also to interview the reporter who can either substantiate or disprove the allegation. Dallas feels the interview of Freund can be readily handled. Aldredge stated he did not furnish this information earlier as he felt it would be covered in the Commission's report and further did not want to become involved; however, now felt it should be brought to our attention. When the results of this matter are concluded it will be incorporated in a report and disseminated to the President's Commission or its duly designated authority.

Police Chief Charges FBI Tried To Get Him to Change Statement

DALLAS (UPI)—Dallas Police Chief Jesse Curry, in a letter disclosed Tuesday, said at first the FBI did not want to admit publicly that it knew anything about Lee Harvey Oswald at the time of President Kennedy's assassination.

Curry told the Warren Commission that he was asked to change a public statement after the assassination last Nov. 22.

Curry said he received a telephone call on Nov. 22 from Gordon Shanklin, agent in charge of the Dallas FBI office, asking him to retract a statement to newsmen. The police said at the time the FBI had told them nothing about Oswald before the Kennedy visit, although the FBI had a file on him.

Shanklin refused to confirm or deny that he had telephoned Curry with such a request.

The Warren Commission report criticized the FBI for not offering its knowledge of Oswald to the Secret Service.

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter dated September 30, 1964, requesting our authorization to declassify a number of documents which were furnished to the Commission by this Bureau during the course of our investigation regarding the assassination of the late President John F. Kennedy.

In accordance with your request, we have reviewed the documents in question and have declassified a number of these documents where their continuance in a classified status is not required by the interests of the national defense. In addition, we have revised certain pages in a number of these documents in order to place them in an unclassified status and at the same time meet the requirements of the Commission.

However, I again wish to call your attention to the fact that many of our reports in the assassination case the Lee Harvey Oswald case, and related inquiries contain considerable information of a highly personal nature which was furnished to our Agents during the investigation of these cases. I particularly desire to point out those reports and memoranda dealing with Michael and Ruth Paine and George and Jeanne de Mohrenschildt and the personal lives of these people. Making the contents of such documents available to the public could cause serious repercussions to the Commission.

You will recall that I previously expressed my concern regarding this matter in my letter to you dated January 18, 1964. Such letter dealt with our reports concerning Jack Ruby which contain information which may be in the nature of gossip and rumor and which has not been substantiated. Such information did represent the views of the persons interviewed and was reported as it was received by us. I brought such matter to your attention in view of the fact that if this type of information should be misused or become a matter of public knowledge, it would reflect most unfavorably upon the Department of Justice and the President's Commission. I also informed you that I was alerting Assistant Attorney General Herbert J. Miller, Jr., of the Department of Justice regarding these observations.

I also want to point out that on May 4, 1964, Mr. A. H. Belmont of this Bureau discussed the matter of making public our investigative reports with Mr. Howard Willens and Mr. Samuel Stern of your staff. Mr. Belmont pointed out to Mr. Stern at that time that at a previous meeting Mr. Stern had raised questions on certain items in our reports which might reflect on innocent persons if the reports are made public in their entirety. Both Mr. Stern and Mr. Willens at that time concluded that if the Commission publicized such reports in their entirety, the Commission will be criticized for making public information concerning innocent persons.

In view of the great number of documents which the Commission has requested authority to declassify at this time, I again want to specifically call this matter to your attention and point out the responsibility which must be assumed by the Commission in the event these documents are made available to the public.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

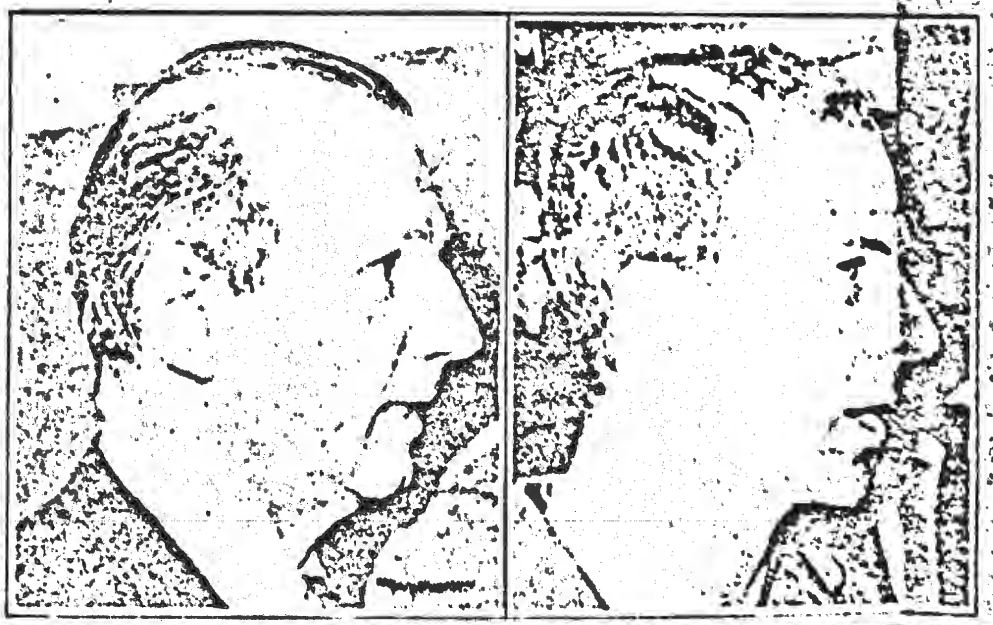
Jack Ruby And Lee Oswald — Two Men: One Face —



Does there come a moment in the life of every murderer when his deeds are reflected in his face?

It may seem unlikely...

But how else can you account for the remarkable resemblance between the faces of Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby?

THESE EXTRAORDINARY PHOTOS HAVE NEVER BEEN PUBLISHED TOGETHER BEFORE.

They were spotted by an alert STAR CHRONICLE reporter.

Ruby and Oswald were not related.

But they were blood brothers in the crime of murder.

And maybe THAT shameful brotherhood accounts for the astonishing look-alike profiles.
